

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 872

Arianna was amazed as she connected the dots. She was not Derrick's initial target but still got caught in the massive web her uncle had weaved. He had been planning this since the beginning.

'He's a sly and vicious man!'

Arianna was outraged. "Mom, it's fine if Uncle Derrick was genuinely ill, but if not, it'll all be over for me."

Eloise could see the disappointment in Arianna's eyes. She lovingly held her daughter's hands and said, "Don't worry. I won't let anything happen to you as long as I'm around.

Don't forget that the Tanner Corporation's president position is still waiting for you, and you will inherit the family's business!"

the sole successor to the Tanner family business!" Arianna said with determination. However, she knew that even with her mother's help, she

Uncle Derrick wasn't sick, it doesn't see." If Derrick was healthy, she could always make him sick. Since he loved to pretend he was sick, Arianna would man and could not care less about him. However, things were different now as it involved her daughter's safety and the whole family's. She needed to call Joseph back to discuss before someone answered it. A woman's voice

"What?"

she heard the woman's voice, "Get Joseph to answer the won't!"

her teeth and said, "Elizabeth, I'm warning you, stop playing games with me. I don't want to waste my time fighting with you. Just get Joseph pathetic. Who said anything about fighting? Your daughter sure is capable. She made sure my son took the fall, so how are you so shameless to call me now? Eloise, I've put up with