

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 886

Alexander desired his wife, so he kissed her lips before she could finish her sentence.

Lily had been so busy that they had not made love for quite some days. Seeing her returning home tired every day, he felt sorry for her and could not bear to disturb her. Now, seeing her so spirited and energetic, he could hardly hold back his desires for her.

"Alex, don't... I'm already late..."

One could almost feel the heat in the air as the two made passionate love. As for the flight, no one gave a d*mn about it. After some time, Lily rolled over. She knew she had to get up but was so sore all over that she could hardly move.

Ahand reached over from behind her, slid down to her waist, and moved to the front. Lily was not in the mood and wanted to take Alexander's hand off but felt his palm stay on her belly to give it a gentle massage.
