

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 903

'There's no need to worry about my wife. I can take good care of her.' Derrick smiled. 'You should worry about yourself more.'

He turned to the police officers. 'I'd like to make a report.'

Nobody had expected this turn of events. The supposedly dying Derrick was fine, and he also wanted to make a police report against Nathaniel with concrete evidence.

The crisis that had befallen the Tanner family seemingly ended overnight.

Things had returned to normal now that Derrick had returned. However, the top management of Tanner Corporation underwent radical changes as those who sided with Arianna and Nathaniel during the crisis got sacked.

people realize everything was due

those that Joseph had rallied in secret, several company mediated

gave the position to his son, some were bound to object. Also, he was had no problem giving some shares and powers to his niece, but he could tell from her greedy face that she wanted the whole company. He roughly knew what she had done behind his back but refrained from exposing her.

devised a plan to lure had failed to guard against Nathaniel. Derrick did not expect him to scheme early and made such an arrangement that