

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 905

Meanwhile, at the hospital, Joseph did not expect to meet his elder brother in this state and felt overwhelmed with emotions. He did not even know what to say. "Derrick. I..."

Having discovered what had happened over the past two days, Joseph went from shock to acceptance to slowly understanding the truth.

It was only a couple of months, but he felt like he had finally woken up from an endless nightmare. Joseph thought he had everything under control but now realized he was just a pawn in someone else's plans.

In the end, all he had gotten was this.

front of his younger brother, asking warmly, "How are have to live like this for the rest of done you wrong, but I hope you can promise me something since we're brothers, and I've ended up like my efforts would be in vain. After so many years, I couldn't give him and his mother what they deserved, and he had grown up had given him the more miserable if he was not rich

Derrick

sighed. "Have you ever