

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 913

Lily thought about it for a moment before deciding to call Alexander again.

"Your aunt is refusing to leave unless she meets one of us."

Not that she liked to complain or because she was afraid to meet his family and possibly get involved in his family business, but she knew Alexander must have a good reason for keeping her away from his aunt.

She also noticed how he would get all secretive whenever his family was mentioned.

There must be something that he was hiding.

Alexander stayed silent for a while, frowning.

Then he said, "Just pretend that you have no idea that she's there. Let her wait if she wants to. She has nothing better to do anyway!"

"Alright, I got it."

don't have to worry about me. Olivia is here, hummed in response. This

"Tsk, behave!"

from both sides

not expect Lily to tease him like almost turned green as she watched the young couple flirt on

"Wait for me!"

before hanging up

obvious that his you're amazing! Why don't I remember you being this Olivia exclaimed emotionally.

fact, even when she was with Nathaniel, she had to think that Lily