

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 914

Although she had already decided to wait, Celine was still on edge and impatient. She had not experienced this level of rage in a while.

Just as her irritability was about to take over, her phone rang. She couldn't help but feel overjoyed when she saw the caller ID.

"Alex!"

"I heard that you're at my house, Aunt Celine," Alexander said coldly.

"Why didn't you tell me earlier so I could prepare?"

"What do you have to prepare for? I'm your aunt! I was just passing by, so I decided to drop by and visit you," she said with a smile.

"Well, how unfortunate that you came when I'm not home," he replied.

"Why don't you head home, Aunt Celine? I'll pay you a visit when I'm free."

fine. Even if you're not home, your arrogant, though. I've rang the bell twice, yet no one has opened the gate for in the news recently. It's okay. I'll just wait here for you to come back. You can continue one of my maids tell you that my wife hasn't been feeling well and spends most of her time in bed? Did you not hear her, or did

Lily look bad for neglecting turned and Alexander blamed her for misinterpreting case, I'd have to take a look. My niece-in-law's health is excuse! After getting out of the car, she walked toward the gate and said, "You men are always too carefree. Her feeling ill could be because of something serious. I'd better take

had long as she gets enough rest and no loafers bother

immediately fell when she

do you mean? Are you calling me

"I hope not."

meant, he did not want