

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 915

Celine put away her phone and reached out her arm. She was about to ring the doorbell when she was startled by a honk from behind her.

"It seems like you don't understand English, Aunt Celine!"

Alexander's cold voice was heard as he poked his head out of the car.

Celine was speechless! Wasn't he just on the phone? When did he even come? Could it be that when they were on the phone, he was already around the corner? Was he looking at her as they spoke? He rushed home from work so quickly, but did he have to go to such lengths just to protect his wife? Celine sneered inwardly before turning around to greet him.

"I was just worried about my beloved nephew and his wife! You came back just in time. Let me go in with you."

It was a good thing that he came back.

Now, she could just follow him in.

"Aunt Celine, what don't you understand? I told you that Lily is sick, and she doesn't want to meet anyone. Why are you making things difficult?"

Hearing this, Celine frowned.

let me in the house without even batting an eyelid. Her eyes widened in shock as if she was about

"What did you say?!"

knows. Do you need me to spell it out for you? I respect you as that none of us kept in touch after so many years?

Celine, who had initially wanted to play nice, immediately was not escaping that. Even though you're an adult now and out of our control, don't forget what your grandfather held his head up high,

she spoke, the

"Are you done?"

Celine did not answer.

can leave if you're done. I never needed your guidance when I was growing up, and I don't need it now either." At this point, Celine not

was more