

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 917

The two frolicked with each other for a while before finally parting breathlessly.

Lily's lips were red and swollen as she struggled to move to the side and away from him. She refused to sit with him any longer! With this lunatic, she felt she would have been torn apart if they had continued.

"Come here," Alexander called in a low voice as he patted his thighs, obviously dissatisfied.

"No! Let me rest!"

After straightening out her clothes, she began to wonder if he came home just for this as a form of compensation.

"Rest in my arms, then,"

He insisted, patting his thighs again.

"Alex!"

Lily yelped when she saw him getting up.

"If you're not coming, I'll come over there!"

"Stop!"

the subject, "So, did you send your aunt

aunt was mentioned,

down again and once before. Although I didn't think that you two had a good relationship, I didn't think to physical fights, not a lot of people could hurt understand!" Alexander

just thorns. They're noticed how he reacted when the Russells were mentioned. She wanted to know what they did to make him despise them anymore. You don't have to think about it and walked over to pull him home

Alexander

We haven't shopped together in a long time. I want to he heard this. It was rare for Lily to only things that she would always buy were perfume ingredients and raw materials. She wasn't picky at me like that? I need clothes to wear as well!"

you choose not scanned her from more times than he could count, thinking about it still

"I mind!"