

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 919

"Well, who would've expected that? I've always thought the Lodge family was renowned, almost on par with us. I didn't expect..."

Celine trailed off and sighed as if she were at a loss for words.

"The Lodge family is nothing compared to us!"

A scrawny man with a light scar on his face came over and snorted.

"They only became famous because they inherited ancient kickboxing skills. Have they produced any notable figures after all these years? Let's not talk about the past, as even Wilfred's generation was already a disappointment. That old man was like a turtle that only hides in its own shell. Although he taught many disciples, he always had the same excuse. He'd say he didn't kickbox to start fights, but rather to keep his body healthy. It's obvious that he's just weak and lying through his teeth. As for the younger generations...there's no need to even mention them!"

down on the chair and continued, "Justin and Wilfred were made from the same mold. They're both cowards. I was hoping that Henry would be different, but who would've guessed that he'd be even more useless than the rest of them? The Lodge family is hopeless. How can they be compared to be honest. I still remember when she used to come over to our house to play. Back when she was younger, she was a beautiful child. It's a pity that she's nodded as she spoke. She had a very vague impression of had not bothered to look at Lily's current appearance because of

Margaret had of Lily involved in lawsuits and a love triangle. I don't know what Alex sees in talk about? She's not even two of them have already gotten family doesn't accept her, she's not associated with our family at up with her

come with me to Alex's house