

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 925

The words were so harsh that Celine gasped.

After all, Margaret was a mother herself.

However, what she said was true.

The only reason women like these married into affluent families was for wealth and power.

For this reason, Margaret told Lily that she would never have any of that, even if she had a child.

If they were to get a divorce one day, Lily would be left with nothing.

This was all too shocking for Celine.

If her mother-in-law were to say that to her back then, she would definitely not be able to bear it.

Sure enough, Lily fell silent.

Margaret was secretly a little proud, thinking that Lily must have been so shaken that she needed time to digest what she had heard.

the look in Lily's

Margaret could bask in her

it must have been

this, both Margaret

to try and grovel

be tough for you. If it were me, I wouldn't be able to do it. Thankfully, I have my own business, so I

she looked was still trying to around instead? Does she not

Lily was using Margaret's prioritize their daughters-in-law, even after giving birth to insinuating that Margaret was still a nobody even after staying in nothing because even the children she point, Margaret was shaking with tongue is so

the one who

Lily blinked innocently.

could not retaliate. She could not agree with what Lily said because that this would make Lily

roar, "Don't call me