

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 932

"It's true. The doctor already examined you. It's been almost two months, didn't you know?"

The doctor mentioned that people who were pregnant for the first time might not be very sensitive.

In addition, they also had little knowledge about pregnancy and no personal experience, so it was normal for them not to notice.

Some people would not even find out that they were pregnant after several months.

However, the symptoms were quite evident at times.

After all, the lack of menstruation was already the most obvious prompt.

Since he mentioned it, Lily thought about it carefully, and it seemed that her period had not come for almost two months.

She had previously experienced some menstrual irregularity, and she was also very busy at work, so she neglected to pay attention.
