

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 949

Ralph felt humiliated by her words, which felt like a hard slap to his face.

When his furious gaze met hers, the fire burning within him immediately diminished.

'Why is this woman so different from how she was when I met her two days ago? She's a completely different person! I would have thought that I got the wrong person if she didn't look the same, if her words didn't match, and if I didn't know what she looked like"

"I..."

Ralph muttered, not daring to be harsh on her anymore, and could only give in.

"Okay then. I'm sorry, and I admit that I was wrong. I shouldn't have said those things to you, but you must understand that I'm a normal man, and like any other, I would get jealous when I see my fiancée drinking coffee with another man. Heather, I just love you too much!"

As he said that, he reached his hand across the table, wanting to hold hers.

In response, Heather's hand shifted place so fast that he almost did not notice her movement.

A second later, her hand was already off the tabletop, which made Ralph even more awkward when his palm came into contact with the table.

"Heather..."
