

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 953

"Y-yeah."

Hannah's voice was almost inaudible, and one would have missed it if they did not listen carefully.

The sight of Hannah would always make Heather feel irritated for no reason. She waved her hand and reminded, "Okay. Just stay here obediently and don't wander around. Remember everything I've told you!"

"I'll remember them!"

Hannah repeated her elder sister's words like a robot.

Heather was not going to be bothered and get engaged in an argument with Hannah because of this either, as her younger sister had always been this way since they were young.

Finally, she turned around to exit the room, leaving Hannah to stare at the pearl bracelet inside.

Each of the pearls was perfectly round, and they shone with a warm luster.
