

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 961

"N-No, no, no. We're not."

Hannah waved her hand and looked toward Ralph.

"I don't like diamond rings."

Her words stunned him, and after looking at her for a moment, he finally came to his senses.

"Oh right! You practice kickboxing..."

He paused and looked at the sales advisor before he agreed, "It's indeed not that suitable."

"What about a necklace then? We can get a diamond necklace for you too." he continued.

The sales advisor was smiling from ear to ear.

"We just received several diamond necklaces of the season and it fits your style well. Would you like to try it?"

"I actually don't like diamonds," she whispered.

To Hannah, diamonds were merely stones, and they held no value to her.

In fact, she liked the pearl bracelet, but it made her uncomfortable wearing it because Ralph actually bought it for Heather, and not her.

"What do you like then?" Ralph asked patiently.

"I..."

what

she liked. She glanced around the

the direction of her gaze, Ralph came

like earrings,

don't. I'm just looking

rubbed

them? She did not even

to have noticed her

have the classic type for pierced ears, as well as the clip-on type as

need to have pierced

"Really?"

Hannah asked in surprise.

and then took two pairs of earrings for her from

it and see

liked. It was pretty and she could not stop looking could tell that she liked

if you like them, but...they're

"That's good!"

understand why they must purchase the

did not expect to hear

of money, but

sure doesn't

her gesturing in front of the mirror, cautiously putting the earrings next to her ears but not daring to wear them made him smile, thinking that it was a little