

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 964

Hannah widened her eyes upon seeing the enlarged face in front of her. She felt scared, nervous, and ashamed the first time he kissed her, but she was feeling something else this time.

It was not the first time he kissed her now.

This time, he was gentle and cautious, sucking on her lips gently.

It was a weird feeling for her.

No one had ever done this to her in her life.

Forget about getting kissed, but no one had ever held her hand or even hugged her.

The strange yet familiar man was doing something intimate and felt weird to her, but she did not want to push him away.

Ralph just wanted to test the waters.

After all, he did not get a good experience the first time he kissed her.

Sensing that she did not resist and accepted him obediently, he became bolder and slid his tongue over.
