

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 973

"Insiders?!"

Margaret almost jumped up.

"Who? Who could it be? There's a thief in our family. We must find it out!"

While she spoke, she looked around as if she wanted to find out who the insider was.

"Mom, don't get agitated. This thief did not want money or our life, so he must be looking for something."

Ralph thought for a while and said, "What do you think it could be?"

Margaret frowned and thought for a while. She seemed to think of something.

"You mean..."

Before she could speak, she stopped abruptly when she saw Ralph's eyes.

not the thief. How should I looked at Alexander happened to the Russell family. It would destroy our reputation. You must find this thief, and don't let him go easily!

are you sure you

eyes when they exchanged looks. He knew that they

a family

always had

anyone in this family

course, he was not interested in their

Light-Shadow Killers had

they crept in

they wanted to do something, it would be too late if he brought people so why? What were they looking for? Margaret knew everything may look like a big business, but now it is just an empty shell. We do not have that much money. Not like you have no idea since you give avoided his question, but Alexander did not expose

she did not want to say