

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 975

"That's right,"

Celine responded smilingly, "I heard you have a different class than others, but seeing it today, I'm convinced! With your charm and power, no wonder you can manage such a big family. I admire that. I would be satisfied if I had half of your charm when I was young."

"You just goof around all day. You're not as sensible as Ms. Riggs," Margaret said.

Heather was a little irritated by the way they spoke to impress her.

Accustomed to hearing flattery, she was tired of hearing it. She never thought that even the members of the Russell family would be so flattering.

All of the members of the Russell family had declined in her mind, save for Alexander.

When she first came here, she wanted to take Alexander down, but she gave up after doing a comprehensive investigation.

and challenging to deal with,

because she did not

a man who was as shrewd as herself, stupid and greedy enough, and know each other, let

on insignificant things. She surprised everyone at each

said, "Ms. Riggs is straightforward, left and right, shrugged,

parents come to discuss it?

was in charge of the Riggs family now, her parents were still alive, so it was acceptable if they did not show up for would they not meet the in-laws for such a huge

she could handle her life's major events

puzzled about this point