

Mr Smith 331

Chapter 331: Apologized to Aunt Lin Man!

0 5 minutes read

“Apologize to Aunt Lin Man!”

Lin Man and Sean Smith were startled when she suddenly came over.

Especially after seeing her action, Lin Man stood up and said, “Amber, you don’t have to apologize. I know my cooking skills. She just told the truth.”

Amber White stood still.

Lin Man on the other side looked at her with panic eyes.

Sean Smith sneered.

Amber White was a woman of strong desire. She might be having another trick up her sleeve.

She dragged her daughter into playing the stunt every day. It must be tiring becoming Amber White’s daughter.

He reached out his hand and pulled Lin Man away with an explicable look, “Man Man, since Miss White is sincere, you better not interrupt her.”

“Amber, we’re not that distant. Your daughter is my daughter too.”

“What are you apologizing for?”

Sean Smith raised his eyebrows. Making Cindy White a daughter for Lin Man must be Amber White’s purpose. She must have known that someday he would divorce her.

He found that Amber White was not an ordinary woman.

He should be happy that Amber White was educating her daughter, but he didn’t know why, he felt a rage in his heart that wouldn’t come out.

He thought that it must be doubt. He didn’t care if Amber White tried to covet him. He just didn’t expect that she would covet Lin Man as well.

He stared straight at Amber White. After listening to Lin Man, she straightened up her back and stepped forward toward Lin Man.

There was no expression on her face, but the momentum suddenly raised, she looked at Lin Man and said, “Miss Lin, to correct you, I asked Cindy to apologize not because she was wrong. I just think that my daughter shouldn’t be this rude.”

“One more thing. You said that my daughter is also your daughter. She was born nine months after my pregnancy. Where were you in those nine months?”

“Or, do you want to be a stepmother to Cindy after Sean and I divorce?”

The atmosphere froze.

Sean Smith suddenly sat up from the bed. He glared at Amber White, "what did you say?"

"Amber, how dare you talk to Man Man like this?!"

Amber White smiled, "Am I wrong?"

"If I am wrong, I dare Miss Lin to sign a letter of guarantee to promise not to have an affair with you and not to marry you for life!"

Sean Smith's eyes flickered.

Amber White was very vicious.

She didn't let Lin Man marry him. Did that mean that she was going to keep the title of Mrs. Smith for the rest of her life?

She was a little too confident, no?

He sneered, "Amber, don't push your luck, will you? Don't you dare thinking just because you have my father's support then I dare not phase you out!"

His eyes were red. Amber White's chest was stuffy. She smiled and said, "Oh, right, about pushing my luck. Thank you for reminding me. Miss Lin's letter of guarantee may not be useful. So, I think you should sign it with me!"

"Sean... Sean, stop arguing with Amber."

"I don't want you to have any conflict with Amber because of me. I think I told you before I didn't want to cause any burden to you and Amber after I came back."

He sneered, "Man Man, you're wrong. Even if you don't come back, there is no harmony between me and this woman!"

"This marriage is only a stage play. Unfortunately, someone's too evil to snap out of the game!"

Amber White didn't move. She stood there quietly like a lifeless porcelain doll.

"Dad, are you going to divorce Mom?"

Cindy White suddenly asked. Her question echoed in the room.

She blinked her eyes and tried to cry.

Cindy White inherited the best of Sean Smith and Amber White. She was good looking. Her eyes started to glisten.

Suddenly, something popped in her mind. She looked at Amber White and Sean Smith, "Dad, after you divorce Mom, are you going to marry Aunt Tang Tian?"

"I know she has your baby."

“Dad, the teacher in my school said that after you had a secret lover and another baby, you didn’t want me anymore. Is that true?”

She was at loss. She curled her little hands as she asked.

After Sean Smith heard the question, he was stunned.

Tang Tian was pregnant with his child?

Did Amber White make this up?

He never touched Tang Tian. How could she was pregnant with his child?

Amber White had corrupted Cindy White so much so that one day she could compete for family’s property.

This way, she could also break the momentum between him and Lin Man. it’s called killing two birds with one stone.

He narrowed his eyes and wet his lips. His eyes were burning as they fell on Amber White obscurely, “Tang Tian? Who is Tang Tian?” Lin Man asked.

When Cindy White opened her mouth, Amber White didn’t pay much attention to Sean Smith and Lin Man’s reaction.

Last time she met Tang Tian in the hospital, it was only an accident.

Although it was unclear whether the baby belonged to Sean Smith or not, Amber White didn’t expect that this incident would have such a great impact on Cindy White.

She blinked her eyes. Her stuffy heart was heavy and sour.

None of them responded to Lin Man’s question. This kind of silence sounded like a confirmation to the little girl.

She cried out, “Dad... I thought that someone... can only have one wife in his life!”

“Cindy thought... Mom was the one who’s going to birth my little brother.”

“I hate you, Dad. I hate you!”

Cindy White turned around and threw herself into Amber White’s arms. She held her mother’s hands tightly and cried her heart out.

From now on, her good impression on her father started to crumble.

Amber White couldn’t really tell how she was feeling. Her heart felt like it was being squeezed. It was painful and sour.

The feeling choked her throat. She couldn’t escape it.

It was even more embarrassing that in front of Sean Smith and Lin Man, she told her daughter that she had a beautiful and perfect family.

Sean Smith was upset by her crying. He reached out his hand and rubbed her short hair.

What the hell was happening? Cindy White was not her daughter at all.

Why should he take the blame for Cindy White's unknown father all this time?

Did he owe money to Cindy White?

Sean Smith sipped his lips and rubbed his temple. Cindy White said, "Aunt Lin Man wants Dad, right?"

"Mom, I don't want my father anymore. Since Aunt Lin Man likes him, you should just throw him away!"

Chapter 332: Dad Doesn't Love You and Me

0 4 minutes read

"Ouuuu... So that aunt Lin would not leave him after she knows that..."

Despite Cindy shouldn't have said such words, Amber was suddenly amused by her scornful tone.

Probably before, she created a perfect image of Sean in Cindy's heart. So after knowing the truth, she couldn't accept it.

In her eyes, Sean was like trash.

And Lin Man was like a garbage picker, always staring at the garbage in Amber's hand.

If it wasn't for Cindy's young age, Amber would even think that she said that on purpose.

"Sorry."

Amber said sorry, leaned over and picked Cindy, stepped out of the ward on high heels.

She regretted clashing with Sean in front of Cindy.

She should have held back her anger.

But the word Lin Man said, your daughter is my daughter, completely offended her.

After holding Cindy to the door of the safe passage, and sitting on a green plastic bench, Amber hugged Cindy, patted and coaxed her. She thought she was going to coax Cindy for a long time, but the little girl wiped her tears, sniffed back her tears and stopped crying.

Amber was speechless. The strange feeling that she might have been deceived by Cindy in the ward became more and more strong.

"Cindy?"

Cindy curled in Amber's arms and fiddled with the pink diamonds on her shoes.

Hearing Amber's voice, Cindy moved, "Mom, you lied to me, didn't you!"

"Dad doesn't love me and he doesn't love you either."

Amber's pupils contracted suddenly, and her heart seemed to be squeezed by a big hand, which made her unable to breathe.

"Cindy, Mom never lied to you."

Sean loved her and they spent a long time together. Amber understood Sean. He had a strong sense of responsibility. If he knew Cindy was his daughter, he would definitely love her.

But it was in the future.

Sean loved her. Back then, everyone in the school could testify that. Sean liked to be high-profile, so he made everyone know that he was in a relationship.

But it was in the past.

She wanted Cindy to have a perfect childhood, but she couldn't do that.

Maybe she asked too much.

A bitter smile appeared on Amber's face, and tears ran into her heart silently.

She was heartbroken.

"Really?"

Amber nodded.

Cindy didn't believe her, "Mom, I have known everything. I have never seen dad before because dad didn't want to come back."

"Every time we went to grandpa's house, dad would be beaten, because he treated us badly."

"It was you who bought me Barbie dolls and beautiful dresses."

"It wasn't dad."

Cindy's eyes reddened again. She resisted her sobs and did not let the tears fall.

"That's also why others called me bastard when I was in school."

"Every time I had a conflict with my classmates, it was you who always helped me solve it."

"You said I have a dad. Actually, dad is like Superman in the cartoon. I can see him but can't touch him."

Saying that, Cindy broke into tears.

The excuses Amber came up with was suddenly pierced like a huge balloon. She almost also broke into tears.

She was too busy with her work before. She needed to earn Cindy's milk powder money, clothes money, and high school fees.

She thought she loved Cindy and had taken good care of her, but she never knew that her child would often have conflicts with others in school and be called bastard.

After meeting Sean, Cindy, a three-year-old child, suddenly grew up in less than a month.

However, such a way of growing up made Amber heartbroken.

Amber's eye sockets reddened uncontrollably. Cindy covered her own eyes and held back her sobs, whispering, "Mom, I'm not sad at all."

"Really?"

Looking into Amber's eyes, Cindy licked the corners of her lips, compromising, "Just a little bit."

Amber suddenly smiled and held her tightly in her arms, "Cindy, remember, you are dad's child and you always will be."

"Don't be sad and do what you want in front of him!"

"If he dares to treat you badly, grandpa will teach him a lesson for you!"

Sean who just walked behind Amber, "..."

Cindy wiped her tears and put her arms around Amber's neck.

"Mom, Lin Man likes Dad, and Tang Tian also likes Dad. Why do so many women like him?"

Amber didn't know how to answer.

Hearing this, Sean smiled proudly. The answer was that he was charming and rich.

This question was tailor-made for Amber. If she counted on Cindy to fight for the Smith family's wealth, she would not smear him in front of Cindy, would she?

With this in mind, Sean changed his position, waiting to hear how Amber would praise him!

Amber, "Maybe, they have a poor insight."

Sean suddenly stood straight. Cindy was also shocked, "Mom, you have a poor insight too?"

Amber, "..."

Was Amber serious?

Three years ago, she desperately tried to marry him. That was also because she had poor insight?

Sean gritted his teeth. Hearing Cindy's question, he turned his head slightly to look at Amber. She was holding Cindy in her arms with a soft expression.

This expression...

Could it be that Amber loved him so much and couldn't live without him?

Maybe she said that to cover it up!

"That was a long time ago."

Sean paused and was somewhat glad.

Amber actually admitted that she liked him?

Sean asked. The thought Amber actually fell in love with him?

But what did she mean by long time ago?

She didn't like him anymore?

She didn't appreciate it after she got him? Was she still confused about who she was?

She was Mrs. Smith. If she fell in love with others, that would be marital infidelity!

"Mom, is it a disease to have a poor insight?"

"Yes!"

"Then have you been cured?"

Amber hesitated and nodded.

She guessed so.

She was cured by Sean. After being with him for more than ten years and being hurt constantly, she understood.

Love couldn't conquer everything.

Chapter 333: Daddy Lu Is Good

0 4 minutes read

Cindy licked her crimson lips and whispered, "Mom, can you get me a dad. I think daddy Lu is good."

Amber froze.

However, Sean, who was standing behind them, reacted.

He didn't even notice that he was frowning.

Daddy Lu?

This brat!

Didn't he tell her not to call other people dad casually?

She wanted a new dad. So she didn't care?

If he saw her later, would she call him uncle Smith?

Sean laughed in anger. It seemed that Amber had a strong influence on Cindy!

She was almost as artful as Amber!

"Cindy."

Amber said in a disapproval tone, "Sean is your dad!"

"Your only dad."

Amber probably never thought about letting him go, and handing over the position of Mrs. Smith to others!

Of course he was Cindy's only father!

Maybe the reason why Amber insisted on saying Cindy was his daughter was that her private life was indiscreet and that she didn't even know who Cindy's real father was!

She was like forcing him to shoulder a father's responsibility for another man!

If Amber wanted to remarry, the man she remarried would only be Cindy's stepfather!

Sean felt like a loser.

He never had such a feeling before!

"Cindy, dad loves you very much. You should be good and get along with him!"

Cindy curled her lips with an upset face, "Dad loves aunt Lin more."

Sean, "..."

Amber was surprised that her daughter would be jealous at such a young age!

Amber licked the corner of his mouth and said in a low voice, "If dad loves Aunt Lin more, when you kicked Lin Man on purpose, he would have hit you!"

Hearing this, Cindy pinched her fingers.

Sean was shocked. Cindy kicked Lin Man on purpose?

Weren't all children pure in mind?

Did Cindy learn that from Amber?

Did Amber privately teach Cindy to bully Lin Man?

However, Amber glanced at Cindy's petty action.

She knew her daughter well. Obviously, she felt guilty.

Amber didn't expect that she would get something out of her mouth.

"Mom, Lin Man wants to take dad away from you."

"Mom, isn't dad ours?"

"Dad told me that Aunt Lin was his girlfriend. He said he would marry her in the future. What will happen to you?"

Cindy sobbed and looked at Amber with big eyes.

Amber didn't know how to explain the past to Cindy. She could only tell her vaguely, "Cindy, dad wouldn't be taken away easily."

"Are you serious?"

Sean's voice suddenly sounded. Amber and Cindy had a pause and both looked back.

"Amber, have you forgotten what you did? Do you dare to tell your daughter who took whose man away three years ago?!"

He and Lin Man had been in love for many years. Lin Man was his first love and the only woman he loved in his life!

With her bone marrow, she convinced his mother to force him to marry her.

Amber was the other woman!

If that was the case, it was easy to take him away!

Most importantly, Amber was his legal wife and her position was protected by law! However, it cost her no efforts to turn Lin Man into the other woman!

With that in mind, Sean couldn't help getting angry. He looked directly at Amber.

He thought Amber would compromise after hearing his words.

However, she stood up holding Cindy, walked up to him, and directly stuffed Cindy into his arms.

He was caught off guard, subconsciously holding Cindy steadily.

If Cindy fell to the ground and was hurt, he wouldn't know how to make it up!

"What are you doing?"

Sean snapped in a low voice.

Amber glanced behind him, and also said in a low voice, "Sean, we are in a public place. Are you sure you want to talk about this here?"

Sean paused.

He glanced at Amber with sharp eyes, "Amber, don't think I can put up with your behavior. I do that for the Smith Group!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Cindy reached out and grabbed his collar.

"Who is the Smith Group? Is she also dad's mistress? Dad, do you like the Smith Group more or Aunt Lin more?!"

Sean was dumbfounded.

The Smith Group and Lin Man were totally different.

Sean glanced at Cindy in his arms, turned his head, and let silent.

After two steps, Amber tugged at Sean's clothes, and Sean turned his head impatiently. "You have injuries. Let me carry Cindy!"

Sean said sarcastically, "What do you mean? Am I too weak to carry my daughter?"

"I am injured, not disabled!"

Sean pronounced the words "my daughter" heavily in a strong irony tone.

Amber was smart and understood what he meant. When Sean looked at her, he saw a slight smile on her face which was like a soft breeze.

Sean's pupils contracted, and he looked away quickly.

He headed directly to the ward, and as soon as he reached the door, he ran into Lin Man.

Seeing Sean holding Cindy, Lin Man pressed her lips delicately.

"Sean, you are injured. How can you carry Cindy?"

As soon as Cindy saw Lin Man, she was alert. She stretched out her fleshy little arms and tightly circled Sean's neck. Before Sean could answer, she said to Lin Man, "Aunt Lin, my father is indeed injured, but not disabled!"

"He is not too weak to carry his daughter!"

Amber, "..."

Cindy's hostility towards Lin Man was really strong!

Sean's two thin lips pressed tightly into a sharp blade, glowing with a cold light.

He took a look at Amber with a sarcastic smile, and then looked at Lin Man, who was holding the corner of her clothes and lowering her head and said softly, "Man, I'm fine. Let's go in."

Lin Man nodded and walked in. Sean walked in front, and Amber and Lin Man followed behind.

Lin Man looked at Amber and said in a low voice, "Amber, Sean is badly injured. How can you let him carry Cindy all the way here?"

Chapter 334: I Can't Stop Him

0 4 minutes read

The corner of Sean's mouth twitched. Sure enough, Lin Man cared about him more!

Amber should feel guilty!

Hearing this, Amber stretched out her hand to stroke her hair, smiled and said, "Miss Lin, Sean loves Cindy and likes to hold her. I can't stop him!"

"When Sean's back was badly mutilated after he was whipped by his father, he still carried Cindy!"

“You don’t have a daughter, so you won’t understand! When you have children in the future, you will feel the same way!”

Amber couldn’t bear Lin Man being such a bitch. After pausing for a while, she answered in a bitch’s way.

Since Sean left her without saying goodbye eleven years ago, he no longer cared about her. She loved with him for eleven years, but every time she was considerate of him, all she got was a broken heart.

She was not a masochist.

As expected, Lin Man’s expression changed.

Sean suddenly stopped.

Why did he have to love Cindy?

Why did he have to love another man’s child?

Did he owe Cindy?

Amber was still thinking about how to sow discord between him and Lin Man?

What a wishful thinking!

Sean turned his head and glanced at Amber.

Although his expression was calm, it was enough to tell Lin Man that what Amber said was not true.

The dark cloud on Lin Man’s face fragmented. She smiled shyly and looked at Sean, “Sean, my emerald earrings...”

Amber froze and looked in Lin Man’s direction.

Lin Man’s earlobes were fair-complexioned, and she was wearing only one emerald earring, which emphasized the fairness of her skin.

Sean suddenly remembered that Lin Man was also wearing this earring yesterday.

When did she lose the other?

At that time, he went in to find Amber and didn’t notice that.

He licked his lips, and just wanted to say that he would give her another pair when he recognized that it was the earring sent to her by her grandmother.

Three years ago, when Lin Man was still with him, she mentioned the earrings to him more than once.

Sean suddenly reacted. Lin Man probably lost it in the Paramount and wanted him to help find it?

“Lin Man, the fire was too big. I guess it’s hard to get it back...”

Lin Man looked a little melancholy. Sean softened his tone and said in a low voice, “You can give me the one on your ear. I will try to make one exactly the same.”

A faint smile appeared on Amber's face.

Her heart contracted terribly.

Back then, when Lu Yi gave Lin Man that different explanation, she still had some hope...

So Lu Yi said that he was trying to save Lin Man, in case she would be sad.

After all.....

Comparing with the fact that she was not important as Lin Man's earring, it was easier for her to accept that she was not important as Lin Man in Sean's heart.

Amber had never been so embarrassed.

Even when Lin Man begged her to give Sean a child, she was not so embarrassed.

She was proud of the fact that Sean once loved her deeply, especially in front of Lin Man.

However, their past was torn to pieces by Sean in person, and annihilated to ashes.

Amber suddenly laughed. She took out the earring from the pocket of her sun-protective clothing and whispered, "Is it this one?"

Lin Man's eyes lit up.

Sean's head was a little stiff.

Why did Amber have Lin Man's earring?

"Why do you have my earring?"

Amber's eyelashes slightly lowered and she said, "The doctor gave it to me, saying that he found it on Sean's clothes. He thought it was mine!"

Sean glanced at Amber.

He didn't know what she was thinking. Seeing her expression, he felt guilty somehow, as if he had cheated on her.

Sean cleared his throat and then wondered why.

Amber also cheated on him!

She should be the one who felt guilty!

Amber glanced at Sean and put the earring in Lin Man's hand.

"Amber, thank you."

Amber's heart was like being pierced by a knife.

"No worries."

Amber smiled, and her eyelashes fluttered. Under the sunlight, she looked weak and pale.

She pointed to the single sofa next to her, "Well, I'll go and read the document."

After she turned around, Lin Man looked at her back with a meaningful smile on her lips.

Sean entered the ward and went to bed. The nurse gave Sean a drip. Cindy was lying in his arms and playing on his phone.

The nurse asked, "Have you applied medicine on your burn?"

Sean said nothing. The nurse turned her head looking at Amber and asking again.

"Not yet..."

"What kind of wife you are? When will the injury on his back be cured if you don't apply the medicine for him?"

Amber nodded silently.

It wasn't that she didn't want to apply the medicine for Sean, but that Sean didn't allow her to do that.

"Sorry, I will do that later."

The nurse snorted and said, "Three times a day. Otherwise, he will stay in hospital for a long time!"

Amber nodded again.

As soon as the nurse left, Amber stood up and looked for the ointment she bought before.

Before she reached the bedside, the door of the ward was knocked.

Amber turned her head and saw Lu Xiangxiang standing at the door of the ward with light makeup on her face. She was in a white shirt and black trousers, carrying a fruit basket. The straight trousers outlined her long legs.

"Xiangxiang?"

Lu Xiangxiang smiled and walked in directly.

"Amber, is the Smith family going bankrupt? Why are you sharing the same room with Mr. Smith!?"

Amber froze.

Everyone in the Smith family knew that Sean almost died in Paramount when he tried to save her.

She didn't want to irritate Mrs. Smith and Tomas, so she volunteered to take care of Sean.

"Why are you here? You came from the company?"

"Yes."

Lu Xiangxiang didn't mean to say anything else. She curved her red lips and looked at Lin Man jokingly, "Who is this?"

Lin Man stood up from the stool and said in a low voice, "I'm Lin Man, a fashion designer hired by the Smith Group."

Hearing this, Lu Xiangxiang glanced at Sean.

In fact, Lu Xiangxiang had recognized Lin Man. Yesterday at Paramount, she didn't take a closer look at her.

Besides, she was originally unfamiliar with Lin Man and hadn't seen her for many years. At first glance, she naturally thought Lin Man was a stranger.

So when she met Lin Man again, she recognized her.

Chapter 335: Old Sweetheart

0 4 minutes read

"The Smith Group is really interesting. Mr. Smith's old sweetheart returned home and actually has to work for him!"

"It seems that the Smith Group is going to go bankrupt. Mr. Smith can't even support her!"

Sean looked at Lu Xiangxiang with gloomy eyes.

Amber thought she suffered grievance because of Lin Man, so she asked Lu Xiangxiang to fight back for her?

When didn't Amber become so narrow-minded?

Even if Lu Xiangxiang backed her up, he wouldn't watch her and other women bully Lin Man!

"Miss Lu, I wonder if Mr. Feng knows you are so sharp-tongued?"

"Instead of doing your own job, you're using your office hours to meddle in other people's family affairs!"

Lu Xiangxiang took out an apple from the fruit basket, took a bite and smiled, "Why don't you call Mr. Feng?"

The Smith Group and the Feng Group were rivals. Moreover, she had asked Mr. Feng for leave!

Even if Sean did call Mr. Feng, she wouldn't be afraid!

Sean curved the corner of his mouth and said nothing. He raised his eyebrow slightly, looked at Amber and said in a low voice, "Aren't you going to apply the medicine for me? Do it."

Hearing this, Amber walked towards the bed and stretched out to open the drawer. As soon as she took out the ointment, Lu Xiangxiang grabbed her wrist.

"What are you doing. Amber, you are also a patient!"

"Since Sean's old sweetheart is here, you should go out with me and have a good rest!"

Sean, "..."

Saying that, Lu Xiangxiang picked up her handbag on the desk and pulled Amber out.

“Since Miss Lin is Mr. Smith’s old sweetheart, you don’t mind helping Mr. Smith with that, do you?”

Amber licked her lips. The atmosphere in the ward was depressed, and she didn’t want to stay here any longer.

She stood behind Lu Xiangxiang silently. Obviously, she had agreed to leave here.

Sean glared at Amber, and his eyebrows almost knitted into a ball.

“Director White, don’t forget what you promised to my mother!”

When Amber got up in the morning, she received a call from Mrs. Smith. He vaguely heard their conversation.

“You promised to take good care of me, why? My mother is not here, so you are going out with your friend?”

“And leave me in the hospital alone?”

Sean was so angry.

He was injured because of Amber. However, she was going to leave him alone and hang out with her friend?

“Sean, how could I do that? Isn’t Miss Lin also here?”

“Miss Lin, when you are leaving, give me a call, okay?”

Lin Man’s expression changed.

Sean’s words slammed into her heart, suffocating her.

“Mom, mom! Where are you going?”

Suddenly, Cindy sat up from the bed and asked, blinking.

Lu Xiangxiang raised her eyebrow, “Last time I said I would take you to the amusement park. Do you still want to go?”

“Auntie, you finally have time?”

“I’ll take you there even if I don’t have time!”

“I can’t leave you in the hospital to take care of your dad, can I?”

Cindy was taken aback, “Stay in the hospital to take care of dad!?”

Cindy’s tone was hesitant. Sean felt a little better. At least in Cindy’s heart, he was a bit more important than the amusement park!

She was quite grateful.

Sean was delighted. After a pause for less than half a minute, Lu Xiangxiang nodded and said, “Yes!”

Cindy got up quickly from the bed, "Aunt Lin, then I'll leave dad to you. Thank you for taking care of him!"

Cindy put on her shoes, and hopped up to Lu Xiangxiang, and whispered, "Auntie, let's go to the amusement park!"

"The one that my dad took me to last time was not very fun. How about going to Disney Land this time?"

Lu Xiangxiang smiled brightly.

What Cindy said might be the children's playground. Cindy was not an ordinary child who would be fond of that!

"Okay!"

But Lu Xiangxiang liked that.

"Amber, let's go!"

Amber nodded and followed Lu Xiangxiang. Halfway through, she turned back.

Sean raised his eyebrow, thinking that Amber had dispelled the idea of going out with Lu Xiangxiang, "You made the right ch..."

Before Sean finished speaking, Amber suddenly stretched out her hands, picked up a stack of documents on the desktop, and whispered, "I will take these discarded documents to the doctor's office and shred them."

Sean abruptly sat up from the hospital bed.

"Amber, you should know that the document that Xu Lin sent to me aren't small projects that your marketing department handles," he said.

"You better think twice before you do that!"

Amber's expression remained unchanged. She shook the document in her hand, making a rustling sound as the paper rubbed, "Sean, with your attitude toward documents, you think others would cooperate with you?"

"Do you know how long it will take to produce a document? You threw it on the ground. Your work attitude is lax, and you don't respect partners!"

"What makes you think they would choose the Smith Group?"

She looked serious, "If it is the advantage and strength of the Smith Group, it's not your credit but dad's!"

After that, she held the document and went straight out of the ward.

Sean kept silent with a gloomy face.

He hadn't been in the Smith Group for long, but when he was in HK, the profits he brought to the company was something Amber had never seen in her life!

How dare she criticize him like that?

Was she very competent?

He would not be convinced by her few words and hand over the position of President Smith to others!

Sean licked his lips. When he reacted, Amber was gone.

Sean's eyebrows knitted, and he took out his phone to call Amber.

Then Amber's phone rang in the ward.

Sean held the phone tightly and then smashed it to the ground.

Lin Man was taken aback.

"Se...Sean?"

Sean rubbed his temples. Hearing Lin Man's words, he licked the corners of his lips and softened his expression.

"Sean, are you... angry with Amber? You don't want her to leave?"

Sean forced out a stiff smile, "I'm fine. Did I scare you?"

Lin Man shook her head, waved the ointment, and whispered, "Sean, shall I apply the medicine for you?"

Sean froze.

He glanced at Lin Man and said in a low voice, "No, can you get a male nurse for me?"

"Huh?"

Chapter 336: Am I An Antipathy for You

0 5 minutes read

Lin Man bit her lip, "Sean, the nurse may not do it better than me!"

"When you were injured, it was me who applied the medicine for you. Remember? Am I an antipathy for you?"

Sean's eyes flickered.

It was just because he didn't believe in Amber. She wouldn't be so kind as to let him spend time with Lin Man alone!

Who knows if it was her trap?

What if Amber couldn't wait anymore and wanted to get a divorce!

What if she hired a detective and asked him to take photos of them? He would be convicted of marital infidelity as soon as he took off his shirt!

Then he had to give up all their joint property when they divorced!

He would rather throw all his money away than give it to Amber!

“Lin Man, you overthink it.”

“How can I regard you an antipathy?”

Sean took a deep breath and whispered, “I am married, and the matter between me and Amber hasn’t subsided on the Internet. There may be reporters in the hospital.”

“If they find you here, you might be blocked in the hotel again.”

“I’m in hospital now, and I can’t help you out in time.”

Lin Man’s eyes were red, and she forced out a smile, “Sean, you are so considerate.”

“Then I’ll get a male nurse. Wait a moment.”

Sean nodded.

Lin Man walked out of the ward in high heels.

There are few people on the SVIP floor. The people staying there were either rich or influential. Basically no one would come up except those who visited.

Lin Man came out. Standing in the empty corridor, she threw the ointment in her hand into the trash can.

She felt dirty even if she touched Amber’s stuff.

Lin Man blinked, called a male nurse, and then walked to the pharmacy. She stopped there for a moment, and bought an ointment whose package was very similar to that of the one bought by Amber.

...

In Disney Land.

Amber was a bit absent in mind from the moment she came out of the hospital.

Lu Xiangxiang took a bite of the ice-cream cone, “Amber, you don’t look like you are having fun with your child!”

Amber smiled and said, “You don’t look like you’re out for fun in that outfit!”

“I told you on the phone I was fine. Why did you still come to me today?”

Lu Xiangxiang, “I have to confirm that with my own eyes!”

“You always hold back bad news!”

“Moreover, you didn’t tell me Lin Man was back!”

Amber paused.

Lu Xiangxiang said, "I saw her at the gate of Paramount yesterday!"

"She was back to take away your man from you?"

Amber lowered her eyes. Lin Man wouldn't write what she was up to on her face, so she didn't know what she was back for.

"By the way, Lin Man said that Sean went in Paramount to save you?"

"If this is the case, he is not as bad as I thought!"

Amber's mouth corner twitched and did not answer.

Lu Xiangxiang saw Amber's weird expression and asked, "Am I wrong?"

"No!"

"He indeed saved me."

Lu Xiangxiang looked at Amber suspiciously, and said tentatively, "When I wanted to take you out, Sean looked like he didn't want you to leave him alone."

No matter what Lu Xiangxiang said, Amber nodded and admitted.

Lu Xiangxiang pressed her lips tightly, "Amber, tell me the truth! We are friends! You can't keep everything from me!"

"Unless you don't treat me as a friend!"

Amber's eyelashes trembled. Lu Xiangxiang asked carefully, "He went in Paramount for Lin Man?"

Amber nodded.

"But Lin Man had already come out at that time!"

"It was Lin Man's earring. Sean went in for her earring!"

Lu Xiangxiang cursed and turned around abruptly, "Son of a bitch, I'll go to him!"

Amber grabbed her with one hand, "No!"

"Please!"

"I don't want to invite humiliation anymore!"

Lu Xiangxiang kept silent for a moment and felt something was wrong. After a pause, she asked Amber, "No, Amber!"

"Lin Man loves Sean. How can she let Sean risk his life for an earring?"

"Amber, did Sean personally admit that or something?"

Amber's eyebrows twitched, and she looked at Lu Xiangxiang, "Lin Man told that to me."

“You believe what Lin Man said?”

“Isn’t she just expecting you to break up with Sean? If I were Lin Man, I would say Sean hired someone to kill you!”

“You are usually smart. Why are you so confused when it comes to your own affairs?”

The spectators saw the chess game better than the players.

Amber curled her lips.

“Sean probably indeed went in for you. It was urgent at the time. Lin Man didn’t want Sean to die, so she told the truth!”

Amber, “...”

She didn’t believe that she was that important in Sean’s heart!

But what Lin Man said was indeed not credible.

“Amber, you should ask Mr. Smith directly.”

Would he tell her the truth after she asked?

Amber hesitated and shook her head.

After being out for nearly an hour, Amber watched the time three times and held on for another fifteen minutes. She lost her patience and whispered, “Xiangxiang, I’m going back!”

“I’ll go get Cindy!”

After taking a step, she was dragged back by Lu Xiangxiang, “Why?”

“Can Sean really not live without you?”

Amber drew her hand back, “Xiangxiang, Sean won’t let Lin Man apply the medicine for him.”

“What do you mean?”

“He loves Lin Man, but he married me. We had such a big scandal before. No matter how much he desires Lin Man, he will not do anything improper to her!”

“He will not bear Lin Man being blamed, and let her become the other woman!”

“He won’t let Lin Man apply the medicine for him, because there may be reporters in the hospital who want to get something on him! I have to go back!”

Amber said, turning around to find Cindy.

Lu Xiangxiang stomped her feet in anger. She had to send Amber and Cindy back!

When Amber returned, the nurse had finished applying the medicine for Sean. Sean was reading a file with an apple Lin Man peeled for him.

She took a step into the ward. Sean saw her at a glance, and said sarcastically, "Director White, you are finally back. Did you have fun?"

"Yes!" Cindy said, "Dad, when you are recovered, I will also take you there. I played the Flying Saucer today. It was fun."

She walked forward with a smile, looked at Lin Man, and said, "Aunt Lin, you are still here. Thanks to you, my mother had such a chance to have fun."

Lin Man, "..."

"Cindy!"

Amber tried to stop her. But Cindy didn't seem to hear her and then continued, "Aunt Lin, you know what, my dad is clingy to my mom. Every time he sees me, he would ask where is your mom?"

Chapter 337: I'll Walk You Out

0 4 minutes read

Sean, "..."

He was clingy to Amber?

He rarely saw Cindy. Why would he ask so much?

Sean was angry. Did Amber ask her to say this?

No wonder Amber came back so soon. She obviously had ill intentions!

"Sean, I'll apply the medicine for you!"

Amber took a step forward. Sean glanced at her with cold eyes.

"Save it. Don't try to be a good wife."

Lin Man's face clouded at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Since Amber and her daughter came back, she never had a chance to cut in.

Sean didn't even take a look at her.

Lin Man licked her lips, lowered her eyes slightly, then stood up, "Sean, it's getting late. I'm going back to the hotel."

Sean glanced in Lin Man's direction. There were a few tears in her eyes, and there was a slight sadness between her eyebrows.

He suddenly realized that Lin Man might feel being snubbed by him.

Sean sat up from the bed and said in a soft voice, "Lin Man, let me walk you out."

Lin Man waved her hand and said in a low voice, "You are not feeling well. You should stay in the bed!"

Sean didn't seem to hear her. He even bent down to find his shoes. Lin Man bit her lower lip and whispered, "Maybe Amber can do that for you!"

"You stay in the ward, taking care of Cindy."

Looking into Sean's deep eyes, Lin Man smiled shyly, "I haven't seen Amber for a long time, and I have something to tell her."

Hearing this, Sean looked at Amber suspiciously.

"Lin Man, I'm worried that..."

"I and Amber are friends. Don't worry. Just stay in the ward."

After Lin Man finished speaking, she walked out of the ward with Amber.

Sean was still in that posture, feeling a little confused.

He didn't know if it was because he had been with Amber for a long time, he actually felt what Lin Man said was ironic.

She mocked him following Amber and Cindy out earlier?

Sean reached out and patted his own head.

The palm of his hand was covered with the potion, and as soon as he did that, he smeared the purple potion on his face.

Cindy, who was playing on the phone, heard the movement and looked up. She laughed and whispered, "Daddy, you are so stupid!"

Then don't call me dad!

With an overcast face, Sean went into the bathroom and washed his face. The potion in his hand was washed off, so he took the ointment and applied some of it.

He didn't notice anything wrong with the ointment.

As soon as Lin Man and Amber got out of the ward, they walked in the direction of the elevator.

Lin Man arranged her dress and asked in a low voice, "Amber, you asked Cindy to say those words, didn't you?"

Amber gave a noncommittal smile, "Yes, if you have to think so."

Lin Man who was walking in front took a look at her and smiled.

"Amber, you haven't changed at all. You are self-centered, and always feel what you think and say is right."

"Sean hates people like you most."

Amber smiled.

Lin Man was right.

When the elevator arrived, Amber stroked her hair. Her every move was full of a touch of inconspicuous gentleness.

“Miss Lin, the elevator is here.”

Hearing this, Lin Man took a step forward. She turned her back to Amber and did not look back.

“Amber, Sean doesn’t love you. You are not in his heart. I advise you to divorce him early.”

“Divorce? So that you can be Mrs. Smith?”

Lin Man kept silent.

Amber couldn’t help but laugh, “Lin Man, you think Sean loves you, so you can enter the Smith family and become the hostess?”

“Tell you what. Even if he would give up his life for you, you will never marry him!”

“You’ll never be able to enter the Bo family in your life.”

Lin Man didn’t say anything else and stepped directly into the elevator. They looked at each other and smiled as if there had never been a barrier between them, and they were still good friends.

The elevator door closed, and Amber’s smile disappeared.

It was getting late, and the sky was getting dark. Amber went back to the ward and asked Cindy what she wanted for dinner.

Before Cindy could answer, Sean spoke, “What did you say to Lin Man?”

Amber bluntly said, “I just warned her not to covet the position of Mrs. Smith. In her life, she would never have a chance to enter the Smith family...”

Suddenly, Sean seized her by the throat. He leaned a little closer, and his thin breath sprinkled on her face. His voice was low and aggressive, which made the hair on her stand upright.

“Say it again!”

Amber’s face turned red and she couldn’t breathe. She tried to shake off Sean’s hands and said with difficulty, “Let go of me! Sean...”

A flush of red flashed across Sean’s eyes.

He really hated Amber.

Why was such a vicious woman his wife?

“Are you going to hold on to the position of Mrs. Smith forever? You think I will love you if you do that?”

Amber’s vision was blurred. Her throat was dry and painful.

“I... don’t want you... to love me.”

Yes!

Amber didn't want his love at all!

What she wanted was his property. She said that to dispel Lin Man's thoughts, and to prevent him from hooking up with other women and others from competing for the property with her daughter!

Comparing with the Smith family, how cheap his love was!

How could she want his love?

Sean seized Amber by the throat hard and suddenly felt pain from his forehead.

He subconsciously let go of his grip. With a "pop", his mobile phone fell to the ground, and its screen was broken apart.

Amber fell to the ground and coughed violently. Cindy ran up to her barefoot, "Mom, mom, are you okay?"

She shook her head. Her throat hurt.

She lowered her head, looked at the phone on the ground, and the corner of her mouth twitched.

"Sean, you are pathetic."

Sean ignored her, touched the back of his head, and cursed.

Amber's good daughter was really ruthless. She was like trying to kill him with his phone!

He gasped with a gloomy face.

As soon as Cindy looked up, she saw Sean's gloomy face. She shrank back in fear and held Amber's hand tightly.

Her eyes were tinted with fierceness as if she were a small beast on alert.

Chapter 338: I'll Tell Grandpa

0 4 minutes read

"If you do that to mommy again, I'll tell grandpa!"

His pupils contracted.

Tell his father?

What a good daughter! She was thinking about his family property while wishing to kill him!

Amber had a good daughter!

Sean sneered and talked back, "You think you can scare me?"

He leaned over and picked up the phone, and called Tomas, "Come on, tell your grandpa that I almost strangled your mother!"

“Tell him to come with a whip and kill me. Then everything I have now is yours!”

As soon as Sean finished speaking, the call was connected. Cindy bit her lower lip, and her eyes were foggy, as if teardrops would roll down at any time.

Tomas’s voice came from the phone, “Sean? What’s the matter?”

“Where is Cindy?”

Hearing Tomas calling her name, Cindy broke into tears and cried bitterly with a “woo”.

She was only three years old, and since the first time Sean seized Amber by the throat in front of her, she had been sad and never forgot about it.

Amber prettified Sean’s image in her heart.

So when she saw Sean seized Amber by the throat again, she was scared and sadder!

She had never hated the word father so much. She cried heartbreakingly, which shocked Sean and Amber.

“Cindy?”

“Sean, are you bullying Cindy again?”

“Cindy, don’t cry. Tell grandpa what happened. Did your dad make you angry?”

Cindy whimpered, holding the phone and saying, “No... I fell over my own feet. It has nothing to do with dad...”

She cried loudly. Tomas was worried and didn’t believe her words at all.

After hanging up the phone, Cindy gave the phone back to Sean, crying, “I didn’t tell grandpa anything. Can you not hit mom again?!”

Sean paused for a moment.

Making concessions to gain advantages. This little girl learned her mother’s skill well!

Sean was annoyed by Cindy’s crying. He stood up, glanced at Amber, and gave a promise that was not a promise, “I never hit women!”

“Director White, I guess you know what a person I am. I hope you can act with propriety, in case your daughter will cry seven or eight times in a day!”

“I don’t want my ward to be flooded with her tears!”

Amber cleared her uncomfortable throat and looked calm.

She didn’t speak. Sean turned and left the ward with his wallet.

When he reached the door, Amber stopped him, “Sean, you have many wounds. If you get infected from drinking, I won’t take care of you.”

“I know you like Lin Man. I will call her to take care of you!”

Sean, "..."

She was really generous. Wasn't she afraid of reporters making a big issue out of it anymore?

Should he give her an award "The Most Virtuous Wife in the World"?

He sneered and went straight out of the ward.

As soon as he got out of the hospital, the heat wave outside enveloped him.

His injuries were more painful and uncomfortable.

Sean frowned coldly.

He walked to the restaurant opposite the hospital and ordered a few dishes.

Sean rubbed his forehead hit by Cindy, turned around, and ran into a reporter.

"Mr... Mr. Smith..."

The reporter didn't expect that Sean would turn around, so he stuttered.

Sean ignored him.

His hand was not bandaged. The injury on it looked very serious. His skin was burned, and there was a blister in the palm of his left hand that was not broken.

He looked quite pitiful.

The reporter paused and asked in a low voice, "I'm sorry, Mr. Smith. When you ordered the food, I heard you say you want to take it away!"

"You are going to take it back to your wife and daughter?"

Sean glanced at him impatiently, and the anger simmered in his heart instantly spurted, "If it isn't for them, is it for you?"

After being mocked, the reporter didn't get angry but smiled, "Mr. Smith, you got such serious injuries, and you still have to buy the food yourself? Does Mrs. Smith always abuse you like this?"

"Is this the reason why you have so many mistresses?"

Sean turned his head and glanced at the reporter deeply.

The reporter was scared by his gaze.

Sean gave him a thumb up, pressed the corners of his lips, narrowed his eyes, and looked at the reporter firmly.

"If I don't want to buy food in person, who can force me to? How can Amber abuse me with her small strength? Are you blind?!"

The reporter, "..."

The expression on the reporter was complicated. Sean snorted coldly.

Abuse him? He had just abused Amber before he came out!

She wanted to dominate him, but in this life, she had no chance to do that.

The food was packaged, and Sean took it out of the restaurant.

He glanced at the food in his hand. Buying it for Amber?

Was that reporter hired by Amber?

He didn't buy it for Amber. He knew that Amber would not go out to buy him food!

He was sick. How could he do without food?

Sean snorted and went back to the hospital.

When he reached the ward, Amber was sitting on the sofa, holding a document in a daze.

She didn't even notice Sean came in.

Sean turned his head and looked at her. She was sitting with her back to him. A strand of jet black hair hung down beside her ear. The black bruises on her neck were very clear.

Amber looked a little strange. Sean tilted his head and glanced at the file in her hand.

Sean frowned. The document was very ordinary, a proposal for cooperation with the White Group.

Sean paused. The White Group?

Sean hadn't even heard of it. The Smith Group occupied more than half of the economy of Tong City, and many people were eager to cooperate with the Smith Group!

The White Group was not outstanding and couldn't bring big benefits. The Smith Group's president would not pay attention to it at all.

Sean glanced suspiciously at Amber. Amber's surname was White. Was it related to Amber?

He did not think much about it and then patted on the back of Amber's seat. Amber immediately came out of her trance and met his deep eyes.

His eyes were cold, but his tone was not, "Eat!"

Amber licked the corner of her lips, thinking Sean was hungry, and asked in a low voice, "What do you want to eat? I'll buy it."

Chapter 339: I'll Be Dead

0 4 minutes read

When you come back with dinner, I'll be dead!"

Amber, "..."

With that, Sean stuffed the food he was carrying into Amber's hand and went into the bathroom.

When he came out again, Amber had already unpacked the food and put it on the table.

The dishes on the table were very ordinary.

What surprised Amber the most was they were what Cindy and Amber liked.

Amber stared at the Meat Dumplings in Spicy Sauce, paused, and looked at Sean.

Sean noticed her little movement and paused.

Amber and he had eaten a lot of things together and had eaten together many times in the old house of the Smith family. He had paid special attention to her taste.

Her taste was similar to his, and she liked food with thin skins and more fillings.

Moreover, she controlled herself well and would never eat too much.

Amber licked the corner of her lips and asked Sean, "Sean, you bought this specifically for me?"

Sean reacted, and retorted without hesitation, "Yeah, you wish. I bought it for myself!"

With that, he stretched out to take the Meat Dumplings in Spicy Sauce but was stopped by Amber.

"Sean, you are injured and have a weak stomach. The doctor specially told you not to eat anything spicy when you are in hospital!"

"So give this to me."

Sean pressed the corners of his lips and retracted his hand.

He was not stingy. Since Amber wanted it, he would give it to her!

Sean thought, pulling the seafood porridge on the table to Cindy, and asked casually, "Is there any problem with the document you just read?"

Amber froze, shook her head, and told the truth, "No, but the White Group's official company thinking is at odds with that of the Smith Group, and their strength is not enough to cooperate with the Smith Group!"

"That document shouldn't have appeared in front of me, so I was in a daze."

Sean took a sip of the porridge and glanced at her.

"Does the White Group have anything to do with you?"

"It's in Tong City."

Amber's hand, holding the chopsticks, froze. She laughed and said, "Yes, the president of the White Group is my biological father."

Sean was taken aback.

He suddenly reacted. Before Amber married him, she was known to everyone in Tong City.

The rumors about her were everywhere. She was notorious at that time.

Speaking of which, it was related to her father.

Sean suddenly reacted. For so many years, Amber had been supporting her daughter alone. He almost forgot that she was once a famous lady in Tong City.

So, that was one of the reasons why she married into the Smith family?

When she was in real power in the Smith Group, would she take action against the White Group?

Sean paused, then smiled and asked, "Is it your idea that the White Group is unqualified, or the company's idea?"

Amber paused, took the White Group's files, and handed them to him.

Sean looked through the content on it. Amber turned the page that could explain the problem directly.

He raised his eyebrows. It was indeed unqualified.

The White Group was artful, and there were many loopholes in their plan. On the surface, it was a win-win. In fact, they were trying to cheat the Smith Group.

Sean was amused, "Does your dad think that the people in the Smith Group are morons, or that he has no scruples because you are in charge of the Smith Group, so he submitted such a document?"

"Both of them are the reasons, but the biggest reason may be that the person in charge of this file is Marcus White."

Marcus White.

Her half-brother.

Sean was silent. More than ten years ago, the White family was still a top-notch family in Tong City. At the time, it had declined. He even had never heard of it.

Marcus may not be as competent as Amber!

The corner of his mouth twitched. The White family's intention to cooperate with the Smith Group was very obvious.

"What are you going to do?"

This was a good opportunity to return to the White family. Maybe Amber could get the inheritance of the White Group. So she would agree to cooperate with the White Group, wouldn't she?

Even if Amber dared to agree, he would not allow it!

"To follow the normal procedures. The White Group is not qualified to cooperate with the Smith Group."

Amber took a meat dumpling and smiled at Sean, "I will call Xiaoshen and ask him to send a document to the hospital. Well, a document of high quality. This cannot happen again."

Sean's eyebrows smoothed.

After eating, Sean went to bed, and the nurse came in and gave him a drip.

He was unwell and closed his eyes. Cindy, who hadn't been to school for several days, was sitting at her desk, writing the homework that her teacher sent to her.

Amber sat on the sofa, handling piles of documents.

"Mom, dad's drip is finished."

Hearing this, Amber walked to the hospital bed, and pulled the needle out of Sean. He did not wake up. Amber pressed the pinhole on the back of his hand with a cotton swab, and raised her eyes slightly.

Her eyes fixed on Sean's exposed skin. She clearly remembered that the injury on his chest was not so serious...

It was just such a small wound, but it was very swollen with a dense rash around it. Amber gasped in fright.

She reached out and touched Sean's forehead.

It almost burned her.

She stretched out, opened Sean's clothes and glanced at the man's waist and abdomen. In Paramount, he was seriously injured, especially his back and waist.

Comparing with the wound on his chest, the wound on his waist was also serious.

Amber studied medicine before. Seeing this, she knew he was allergic. She blinked, got up suddenly and tried to run out of the ward.

She was wearing high heels, and she got up too fast, running in a hurry, so she fell to the ground.

Cindy was taken back, "Mom, are you okay?"

Holding the bed, Amber got up and left the ward without answering.

Sean was quickly sent into the emergency room. Standing out of the emergency room, Amber was in a daze.

She was so confused.

Sean had a special physique. Amber knew it eleven years ago. So she had been paying attention to his medication since he was hospitalized.

She was worried about Sean had such an accident.

But unexpectedly, he still did!

Chapter 340: Family Medical History

0 5 minutes read

The door of the emergency room was opened, and the doctor walked out.

“Mrs. Smith, your husband has a massive drug allergy and is in an emergency condition. He is unconscious...”

“Is there any family medical history in his family?”

...

Sean’s mother was almost going crazy.

When she came back from the temple, she received a call and was told that Sean was allergic to drugs and was unconscious!

Sean’s mother was old and drove to the hospital.

Xu Lin was also here. Mrs. Smith looked around but didn’t see Amber, “Where’s Amber? Her husband is in the emergency room but she is not around?”

“Oh, I see. If my son is dead, her daughter will be the heir of our Smith Group!”

Mrs. Smith said in a bitter tone.

The atmosphere was depressing. When Xu Lin spoke, he lowered his voice, “Madam, Mrs. Smith is in Mr. Smith’s ward.”

Sean’s mother suddenly remembered what happened to Sean, drug allergy!

Her brain was turning fast.

What else could Amber do at this time?

Amber knew Sean’s physique. She must be the one who caused Sean allergic!

She was probably destroying the evidence!

Sean’s mother was so angry.

She turned around and walked toward the ward aggressively.

Amber was also wondering about the cause of Sean’s allergy.

She brought the ointment and watched him get the drip in person...

She couldn’t figure out exactly what went wrong.

When she was looking for clues in the ward, Mrs. Smith suddenly opened the door and came in. Her movements were so big. As soon as Amber draw back her attention, Mrs. Smith grabbed her collar.

“Amber, where’s the evidence? Have you destroyed it?”

Amber looked confused, “What evidence?”

“Don’t play dumb. Was it you? You applied the medicine for my son. Where is the medicine?”

“Mom, you misunderstood me. I didn’t...”

Mrs. Smith sneered, “You didn’t? Who did that then? Was Sean trying to get himself killed by taking the medicine that he couldn’t take?”

“The Smith family has a share in the Tong City Central Hospital. The doctors here can’t kill my son!”

“If it wasn’t you, who was it!?”

Amber was at a loss for words.

A fit of anger flashed across Mrs. Smith’s eyes, “If Sean can’t come out of the emergency room safely, I’ll kill myself at the entrance of the Smith Group’s building!”

“I’ll see if Tomas will speak for you after you get Sean and me killed!”

Amber’s eyelashes trembled, and her face paled instantly.

Mrs. Smith didn’t stop, and her eyes seemed to be arrows, “Sean is allergic, but you are not around him. What are you doing here?”

“Even if you didn’t harm him, you are responsible for it.”

“Amber, let’s wait and see!”

After that, Mrs. Smith stormed straight out of the ward.

Amber sighed and slumped on the hospital bed.

After straightening her thoughts, she stood up and went to the emergency room. At this time, Tomas arrived here.

He looked at Amber and asked, “What’s wrong? Why is he allergic all of a sudden?”

Amber bit her lip tightly and kept silent.

“Amber? Say something!”

Mrs. Smith smiled, “She keeps silent because she is guilty!”

“What are you talking about?”

“Tomas, are you blind? Amber has been in our Smith family for three years. You know how she changed in the three years!”

“You encouraged her ambition. Her child is not our offspring but is the first heir of our family property! I guess it’s not that Sean doesn’t want to have sex with her but that she doesn’t want to give birth to the offspring of our Smith family!”

Mrs. Smith rarely said such acrimonious words. Tomas was stunned immediately.

“If Sean is dead, no one could manage the company. Cindy is young, and Weiwei and Xue’er are not good at managing companies. Then she can dominate the Smith Group!”

“Just keep defending her. Sooner or later, she will also get you killed!”

Tomas paled with anger. He was already ill after he was angry with Sean. Hearing this, he felt his illness became serious.

“Shut up!”

He panted heavily. Amber noticed this. She hurriedly stepped forward and supported him with two hands, “Dad, don’t be anxious. The doctor said, Sean’s allergy was discovered early...”

“He will be okay.”

“Don’t quarrel with mom. You have been with her for so many years. You should know that she has a sharp tongue but a tender heart!”

Mrs. Smith glanced at Amber and suddenly smiled, “Are you serious? Amber, I have asked Xu Lin to return to the Smith Group and draft the lawsuit. I’ll sue you for murder!”

Amber’s pupils contracted. She raised her head slightly and looked at Mrs. Smith.

She looked at Amber arrogantly, “When Sean wakes up, if he wants, you will get a divorce!”

As for the bone marrow, she would figure out a way to get it when Sean was sick. If her son kept being with Amber, he would be killed sooner or later!

Hearing this, Tomas grabbed Amber’s arm, and glared at Mrs. Smith with a cold face, “I’m not dead yet. As long as I’m still alive, you are not the head of the family!”

“If you want them to get a divorce, let Sean break relations with our Smith family first!”

Mrs. Smith was stunned.

Before she could answer, the door of the emergency room behind them opened.

Sean was sent out, with a sheet on him. He looked pale and a little weak.

“Sean!”

Sean was awake, turned his head and glanced at his mother.

He saw Tomas behind her, who was being supported by Amber. His face and lips were all a little pale.

Amber was really interesting. She still remembered to fawn his father in such a situation!

She probably thought he was dying, so she was in a hurry to get benefit from his father!

Sean snorted heavily.

The doctor came and said, “Mr. Smith is temporarily out of the danger, but his physical condition is special. To prevent uncertain danger, the patient needs to be observed for forty-eight hours!”

“I’ll do that...”

Amber took a step forward. Mrs. Smith cast a stern glance at her.

“If you do that, I’m afraid I will have to bury my son tomorrow!”

“I will hire someone to take care of Sean. Miss. White, I advise you to go home and think about how to deal with the lawsuit!”

Lawsuit?

Sean’s eyebrow twitched.

He glanced in Amber’s direction.

Amber’s lips were glowing with pink luster. She was standing in the corridor of the hospital, being beautiful scenery here.

What lawsuit?

Was it true that Amber was responsible for his drug allergy?

She was anxious to kill him, even resorting to such a clumsy method?
