

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 661

Leticia took the initiative to say to everyone, "Melissa had a match just now, and now the competition is going on smoothly. She promised me that she would win, which shows that she is very talented and consistent. She is very outstanding." Then she smiled at Susie.

After hearing this, no one looked down on Melissa. They could only keep silent.

Seeing Leticia take the initiative to show goodwill to Melissa, the surrounding people all thought that something was wrong with this matter.

"How could Leticia fight to a draw with someone like you? She didn't use all her strength. You are just acting here!"

Someone unknown shouted, but the surrounding people all agreed with him.

They thought, otherwise, how could a loser like Melissa enter this gathering?

I have long heard that Melissa is just a waste. How could she fight to a draw with Leticia? Leticia deliberately gave in to her!

Melissa said with her cold eyes, "Stop talking nonsense."

She felt helpless at these people's random guesses.

"How could someone like you come to our party? It is simply insulting us!"

The crowd of people in twos and threes whispered, which infuriated Melissa.

"Even if I'm not the same kind of person as you, you shouldn't attack me with words, right? Is this what you people should do when you claim to be scholars?"

Melissa glared at the people around her. She had never been willing to pay attention to those self-proclaimed lofty people.

"Leticia deliberately gave in to you! How dare you dare be so arrogant!"

They began to discuss again, and all kinds of unpleasant words entered Melissa's ears.

"I have told you that I have nothing to do with him."

"I'm sorry, Ms. Eugen. Forgive us for being blind just now. I didn't know you were Mr. Boyle's student."

"That's right! Don't hold a grudge against us. You are so kind."

A few people came over to compliment Melissa. They completely changed their aggressive attitudes.

Melissa closed her eyes and ignored them. She was not kind. She still remembered how they attacked her just now. She could not forgive them so quickly.

"We know that we were wrong. We shouldn't have said those words about you. You are kind and generous. We have seen your strength with our own eyes. Don't be angry with us anymore."

The few people around Melissa all tried to curry favor with Melissa in front of Jaron, which attracted Melissa's dissatisfaction.

Just now, when Jaron wasn't around, they humiliated Melissa. Now, in front of Jaron, they were totally different.

Seeing the few self-proclaimed scholars in front of her, Melissa felt they were disguising.

She said, "You don't have to be like this. I can't accept your apology and compliments."

Melissa directly humiliated everyone, which made everyone very embarrassed.

"Ms. Eugen, although we didn't speak in a good tone just now, you don't have to be like this. We are all from the calligraphy and painting field. Why are you so hostile?"

A few people came up to persuade Melissa, but Melissa retorted back.

"Just now, why didn't you think that I was from the literary world? You pretend to be good to me now! Who are you trying to show it to?"

Of course, they wanted to show Jaron that they were kind to his student.

Jaron raised his eyebrows. He thought, it seems that those snobbish people made things difficult for Melissa when I was not here just now.

"As Mr. Boyle's student, we are naturally respectful to you. How dare we look down on you?"

The people around Melissa all smiled and responded.

However, Melissa refused again in a domineering tone, "It's not necessary. I am very clear about who is right and who is wrong. Just now, you were all scolding me, but now you all deny it! You are hypocritical."

Melissa sneered and turned around.

"We know that we were wrong just now. Now that the misunderstanding has been solved, isn't it good for everyone?"
