

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 665

"Heh." Melissa sneered and looked at Julia up and down. "Fortunately, he took a fancy to me. If he fell for you, he would definitely regret it."

The employees around looked at each other. They did not expect Melissa to come to the office and make a scene with Julia. The two women were not easy to offend. For the moment, they couldn't intervene.

This scene was videotaped by a few employees and uploaded to the Internet.

After all, as a lady of the Wright family, Julia was always doted on by many people. Now, what happened caused a great sensation for the moment.

Just because Melissa was the daughter-in-law of the Gibson family, this matter also caused some people's attention.

Soon, the news reached the Wright family.

Julia was the daughter of the Wright family. Of course, her family all pampered her. Now that this thing happened, Sidney Wright put on a stern face.

He watched what Melissa had done and said to Julia.

Sidney flew into a rage. He couldn't stand others' pointing fingers at his daughter!

He called his secretary and canceled all his plans for the afternoon. He rushed directly to Star Entertainment.

"Meli."

The secretary came to the office. Melissa had just quarreled with Julia and had not calmed down yet.

She looked up at the secretary, signaling to her to continue.

"The receptionist said that Mr. Wright wanted to meet you..."

The secretary's voice became lower. Even she could infer that Melissa was in trouble since Mr. Wright came here.

"OK."

Melissa nodded lightly and adjusted her clothes. "Where is he?"

With a dark face and angry eyes, Sidney said, "I came here today to ask you for an explanation. There is no need to beat around the bush with me."

"Didn't I make it clear enough?"

Melissa raised her eyebrows slightly. If it weren't for Sidney, she wouldn't have acted so nicely.

Regardless, Julia was at fault. Now, her father came all the way to accuse Mellissa.

"Heh, looks like you want..."

"Wait!"

Just as Sidney was about to stand up, two familiar voices came from behind.

Sidney and Melissa looked towards the door only to see Jaron and Keyon walking in.

"Mr. Boyle, Mr. Buckton."

Melissa smiled and walked toward the two of them.

Jaron and Keyon also saw the video on the Internet. They knew the power of the Wright family, so they came here together.

"Mr. Buckton, Mr. Boyle."

Sidney saw them and recognized them. They were the masters in their circles. So, he had to get up and greet them.

"I wonder what wrong my student has done," Keyon said.

Then, he directly stood in front of Melissa.

The implication was that Melissa was his student. Even if she had done anything wrong, Sidney must show respect for him anyway.

"Ms. Eugen offended my daughter today. I'm here to ask for an explanation."

However, Sidney had no intention of stepping back. Julia was the apple of his eye. He couldn't let go easily.

"This student of mine is very mischievous. If she has done anything bad, I hope you can cut me some slack," Jaron also said.

He directly cleared Melissa of this matter.

Sidney put on a stern look. According to Jaron, if Sidney pursued the matter, he would be wrong then.

"My daughter is really upset at home. If I don't get an explanation today, I'm afraid she won't rest."
