

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 667

Melissa passed a few napkins to Shayna and Shayna did as Melissa told her. A while later, Melissa led Shayna out of the room.

"Mrs. Heyton, I've learned about what happened. I'll apologize to you on behalf of Shayna."

Melissa lowered her head and smiled. Her silhouette was accentuated in the golden light.

"Oh my, that's not necessary." Esther hurriedly asked Melissa to get up. "You are her supervisor. We must thank you."

"Mom, what are you doing?"

Tucker was a little dissatisfied. She tugged at Esther's collar and then received a glance from Esther.

"Since you say so, then I must say something."

Melissa looked serious, and Esther also hurriedly asked her to say it.

"Nowadays, Shayna, as a new employee, is anxious to stand firm, and money is a person's greatest foundation."

Melissa made a good point, and Esther agreed.

"Almost everyone has the consciousness to save money now. As far as I know, Shayna has not saved any money since she worked for a few months, and this money was taken by her brother."

Esther looked at Tucker beside her, and Tucker hastened to shake his head in denial.

"If you want to count on Shayna to take care of you, you may have to show more concern for her. Only then will she have the mood to work hard rather than be disturbed by her brother's various demands."

Hearing that, Esther fell into deep thought.

Melissa's words hit the nail on the head. Esther glared at Tucker beside her. "I got it. I will discipline him in the future. Rest assured."

Having gotten Esther's agreement, Melissa felt relieved.

"Well, I'll go back first. I'll come to visit you when I have time."

left, Esther started to scold buy what he wanted to buy and looked at Melissa leaving and darted a vicious glance at

did not continue to pester

still criticizing Tucker,

"Meli!"

from behind and jogged all the way. Perhaps because she had just cried, her face was still slightly red.
"Thank you so much.

and Melissa waved her difficulties are cleared can you work better. It's good for both the company and

this, Shayna

away, Calvin was staring hold back his feelings for Shayna and then came to her place. On the way, found out that something had

and

him feel a gut-wrenching heartache.

over. At a glance, he saw Melissa standing there, which stopped him vivid in his mind. Melissa was a determined person. If he went up directly and was Calvin stopped going forward. Seeing Shayna's smile, he relieved. Looking at dealing with Shayna's matter, Melissa went

the people in the painting field so she entered, she met was Melissa's senior brother, the scene of confronting him at the gathering was still vivid in her mind.

Thinking of

"Melissa."

did not expect Leticia to wave at Melissa

also told her to behave an art exhibition tomorrow. There will be many guests. Would you was stunned. She didn't expect that Leticia would invite her in plain However, tomorrow?

matter had just been dealt with. She might have to rearrange her something to do tomorrow, so I won't somewhat dejected expression, Melissa could only softly console him. "I That being the case, Leticia could only nod in agreement.

However, this scene was seen by a few people who helped Leticia prepare for the art exhibition.

Melissa even refused to go to Leticia's art exhibition. It seemed that she was really putting on airs.

At this point, everyone clicked their tongues and shook their heads. Since Melissa was Jaron's student, they couldn't say anything for now.

After Melissa left, Tucker arrived too.

He was also on the invitation list. Because he had just been scolded by Esther, he was a little unhappy.

Just as he walked over, he heard a few people discussing Melissa.

Undoubtedly, it aroused Tucker's interest. At the thought of Melissa, his face darkened.

If it weren't for Melissa, he would have already been respected here with the fancy painting tools. He wouldn't need to fawn upon these people here.

"What are you talking about? Melissa?"

The men looked at Tucker and didn't think much about it. They told him what they had just seen. "I just saw Leticia invite Melissa to his art exhibition, but Melissa rejected it."

Several people began to discuss it. Yet, Tucker pulled a long face.

"Isn't that typical of her? She always feels she is very awesome and looks down on everyone."

Hearing this, the men looked at each other and immediately signaled to Tucker to stop talking. "Are you crazy? She is now Jaron's student. If you speak so loudly and she hears you later, you will be messed up!"

"So what? You're afraid of her, but I'm not."

Tucker had a fearless look on his face, and he became even angrier when he thought of how Melissa had shown off in his house just now.

"She just came to my house and claimed to buy me fancy painting tools. I thought it was inappropriate, so I hurriedly rejected her."

The others' eyes glittered.

"Really? Melissa thinks so highly of you?"

"Of course." Tucker had a triumphant look on his face. "She is my sister's boss. I have heard too much about her. She's harsh on employees. She just ran to my parents and talked nonsense, making my sister scolded by my parents."

Everyone clicked their tongues and sighed. They didn't expect that Melissa would turn out to be such a person.