

CHAPTER 11:

In Mu Rann's old teacher class, her classmates were all paying full attention to the class. No one dared make a mistake.

Wu Tian also listened to the lecture seriously. Usually, he likes to listen to Teacher Gao's lecture.

But because he had been reading too late and had not slept well, he fell asleep on his desk halfway through the conversation.

After falling asleep, he had a nightmare. He dreamt that his investment had failed, that he had spent all the three hundred million that his grandfather had given him, and that he was disqualified from inheriting a hundred billion family property.

"Grandfather, give me another chance, I'll definitely be able to do it ..."

In his dreams, Wu Tian screamed at the top of his lungs, hoping that his grandpa would give him another chance.

His shout attracted the attention of all the students.

When they saw Wu Tian sleeping soundly on the desk, all the classmates were shocked.

They didn't expect Wu Tian to be so daring as to doze off in Teacher Gao's classroom and still talk in his sleep. Was he tired of living?

"Cough, cough!"

Wu Tian's sleep talking naturally alarmed Mu Rann. She coughed heavily and shouted, "Wu Tian!"

"Grandfather, I'm sure I can do it. Give me another chance and I won't let you down." Wu Tian was not woken up by Teacher Gao's shout and was still talking in his sleep on the desk.

"Pah!"

Mu Rann threw the chalk in her hand onto the table. Her face darkened. This was the first time a student had dared to sleep in her class. He couldn't even wake her up.

Her eyes turned cold as she slowly walked towards Wu Tian. Her entire body was filled with anger.

The atmosphere in the classroom was tense to the extreme. The students had never seen Teacher Gao so angry before. Their hearts felt as if they had been pressed down by a heavy stone.

At the same time, everyone could not help but secretly sympathize with Wu Tian. This time, Wu Tian must have slept soundly in Teacher Gao's classroom, so the consequences must be very serious.

Jiang Wan and Sunn Xiaohao couldn't help but be secretly anxious. They wanted to warn Wu Tian, but it was too late.

On the other hand, Zhao Yang could not help but gloat secretly. He could not wait to see Wu Tian being tortured to death by Teacher Gao.

"Wu Tian, get up." Under the attentive gazes of the students, Mu Rann walked over and gave Wu Tian a push.

Wu Tian woke up with a start and realized that it was just a nightmare.

Fortunately, it was just a dream. If the investment failed and he lost the right to inherit the family property, then he would be done for.

Just as he heaved a sigh of relief, he noticed Mu Rann's cannibal eyes staring at him. Her expression tensed up and she hurriedly greeted, "Teacher Gao, tonight ... "Alright!"

"Puff ..."

Upon hearing this, a few of the students couldn't hold back their laughter any longer and burst out laughing.

"Pah!"

Mu Rann slapped on the table angrily and scolded Wu Tian: "Wu Tian, you treated my class as your dorm room, right? Good evening. Do you know what time it is?"

"Ten in the morning." Wu Tian swallowed his saliva and lowered his head like a child who had done something wrong.

Last night, he had been reading too late and had been constantly thinking about investing in Teacher Gao. He hadn't slept well the entire night, which was why he had been able to sleep in Teacher Gao's classroom.

"You went to bed at ten in the morning. Where did you go last night?"

"I ..."

"Stand up." Mu Rann didn't even give Wu Tian a chance to explain. She put her hands behind her back and said, "I'll test you for two questions now. If you can't answer them, then go wash the toilet for me at noon."

"Yes sir!" Wu Tian nodded with a depressed expression.

"First question, what is strategy management?" Mu Rann glared at Wu Tian and asked coldly.

When these words were spoken, the expressions of the students all became strange.

As for strategic management, he had never learned it before. When Teacher Gao asked this question, he obviously wanted to make things difficult for Wu Tian.

Zhao Yang, on the other hand, looked extremely excited. It seemed like Teacher Gao wanted to embarrass Wu Tian in front of everyone by asking such a difficult question.

Just when everyone thought that Wu Tian wouldn't be able to answer, Wu Tian slowly said: "Strategic management refers to the overall and long-term development direction, goals, tasks and policies of an enterprise or organization for a certain period of time ..."

Wu Tian spoke frankly and earnestly answered the teacher's question.

Coincidentally, the book he had read last night was a book on strategic management, which was why he could answer questions accurately and accurately.

After hearing the answer, the students were all very surprised. They didn't expect Wu Tian to be able to answer what they didn't know before.

Mu Rann was also very surprised. Originally, she was trying to make things difficult for Wu Tian, but she did not expect Classmate Wu's reply to be accurate and accurate.

She was slightly taken aback before she asked the second question. "What's the difference between strategic and financial investments?"

"Strategic investments are longer than financial investments and are riskier and more professional due to a combination of cost and market considerations..."

Wu Tian carefully thought through everything he had learned in the book last night.

Only now did he realize that his grandfather's advice to him to study those management books was very useful.

Silence filled the classroom. Everyone's eyes lit up when they saw Wu Tian.

Mu Rann's expression was clearly astonished. She did not expect Wu Tian to be able to answer the questions that he did not know. His answer was accurate without the slightest deviation.

"Answer..." Very good. "

Mu Rann's anger turned into joy as she could not help but clap.

Under the lead of Teacher Gao, the students all raised their hands and clapped. They couldn't help but applaud Wu Tian's performance.

All of a sudden, Wu Tian became the role model of the class and was praised by the students and teachers.

Zhao Yang originally wanted to see Wu Tian become a joke. After waiting for a long time, he saw Wu Tian shine in the class.

Wu Tian was obviously dozing off in class and talking in his sleep. In the end, not only did he not get scolded, he even got praised. How outrageous.

Unwilling to give up, Wu Junxin stood up and reminded the teacher: "Teacher Gao, Wu Tian was sleeping in your class just now."

"Classmate Wu usually works hard, so it's understandable for him to get sleepy occasionally." Mu Rann, on the other hand, was speaking up for Wu Tian.

This was the first time Teacher Gao had helped a student who had made a mistake.

"But ..."

Seeing that Teacher Gao was defending Wu Tian like this, Zhao Yang was momentarily speechless. Just as he was about to sit down, Mu Rann spoke up, "Student Zhao, let me ask you a simple question. What are the types of strategic investments?"

"I... "I don't know."

Zhao Yang clenched his teeth and drooped his head dejectedly.

He had never learned this kind of knowledge before. Putting aside the fact that he didn't know the answer, 95% of the students in the class didn't know the answer.

"See, this is the difference." Mu Rann stared at Zhao Yang for a few seconds before her gaze finally fell on Wu Tian. "I hope everyone doesn't learn from Zhao Yang and instead learn more from Wu Tian. He is our role model."

Saying that, he once again led the applause.

The classroom was once again filled with thunderous applause.

Zhao Yang clenched his fists and gritted his teeth. He had never felt as ashamed as he did today.

Wu Tian was obviously the one who was napping in class, but in the end, this brat got all the praise and got all the mockery in the end.

CHAPTER 12:

Just because Wu Tian answered two questions correctly, he instantly became the role model of the class and was praised by Teacher Gao.

Wu Tian, on the other hand, didn't mind. To be honest, he was only able to answer those two questions by a fluke.

If he had not read the books on strategic investment last night, he would not have known about such issues.

Now, he firmly believed that he must work hard and study hard to increase his knowledge reserves and make himself stronger.

After taking Teacher Gao's lesson, Wu Tian was not interested in the elective class so he got up and left the classroom.

Lee Meng's gaze followed Wu Tian's back.

Suddenly, Wu Tian, who was previously useless, seemed to have become a lot stronger than Zhao Yang in all aspects.

Seeing the boy she had once despised and humiliated become stronger, she felt very dissatisfied.

Wu Tian didn't know what Lee Meng was thinking. At noon, he left the school and came to a Sichuan cuisine restaurant on West Street.

He had come here a few times before, but the dishes in this restaurant were very delicious and the owner was very enthusiastic.

"Young man, what do you want to eat?" The boss was a simple middle-aged uncle. He poured a glass of water in front of Wu Tian and asked with a smile.

Wu Tian drank a mouthful of water and replied, "Red Braised Meat, Mab Tofu, and a bottle of beer."

"Alright!" After Uncle answered, he excitedly walked towards the kitchen.

Just as he took two steps, a few hoodlums barged into the restaurant.

The leader of the hoodlums kicked over the chair and pointed at the restaurant owner's nose, shouting, "You old bastard, quickly return the money!"

"Masters, I have no money right now." The middle-aged uncle looked at these hoodlums with a face full of fear, his legs secretly trembling.

"No money? "Then give us your restaurant." The leader glanced at the small restaurant and sat down at one of the seats. He did not intend to leave that easily.

"This ..."

The middle-aged man was on the verge of tears. His family was living off the restaurant. If the restaurant was gone, how would they live on?

Wu Tian saw through the restaurant owner's problem and asked with concern, "Uncle, why do you owe them money?"

"Ai!"

The middle-aged man let out a long sigh, rubbed his eyes and said, "My wife was sick not long ago and didn't have the money to see a doctor, so I borrowed two hundred thousand dollars from them before I managed to collect the money."

"What's wrong?"

"They even asked me for seven hundred thousand, seven hundred thousand. How could I have that much money ..." As he spoke, the middle-aged man began to cry.

After hearing this, Wu Tian's heart shook and his nose turned sour.

He had lived a life of poverty before, and he knew what it was like to have no money. He was also deeply moved by the old man's situation.

"Dad ..."

At that moment, a beautiful girl in a school dress ran into the dining room.

Wu Tian recognized this girl. Her name was Lin Weiwei, and she was the top student in Luzhou City's key universities.

Lin Weiwei was not only good at learning, but also beautiful. She had a round face, big eyes and a sweet and adorable appearance.

"Dad, are you alright?"

Lin Weiwei ran into the restaurant and held the boss's arm, asking in concern.

"Dad's fine."

Father Lin rubbed his reddened eyes. He did not want his daughter to see his weak side.

"It's good that you're fine."

Lin Weiwei relaxed a little and turned around to glare at the hoodlums. "Are they here to collect their debt again?"

"Don't worry about it. Hurry up and go." Father Lin pushed his daughter out of the restaurant.

"Go?" "Where to?" The delinquents blocked the entrance of the restaurant like greedy cats to fish. They stared at Lin Weiwei greedily with green light shining in their eyes.

The leader of the bullies slowly approached Lin Weiwei and said with an evil smile, "Old man, your daughter looks pretty pretty. How about you hand her over to us?"

"You beasts, don't even think about bullying my daughter." At the critical moment, Father Lin used his small and frail body to protect his daughter.

"Old fellow, don't f * cking not know how to appreciate favors." The leader of the lackeys gave a light push, causing Father Lin and Lang Cang to retreat a few steps and almost fall to the ground.

Fortunately, Lin Weiwei reacted quickly and rushed over to support her father's arm.

The leader of the hooligans lost his patience and ordered his subordinates, "Have a taste of your father's debts and bring that girl back as interest."

"Yes." A few hoodlums received the order and pounced towards Lin Weiwei.

The little girl was so frightened that she continuously retreated, and her body was about to curl into a ball.

"Stop!"

At the critical moment, Wu Tian shouted angrily and stood in front of Lin Weiwei, blocking her way, "I'll pay them back for what they owe you."

"With just you?"

"Hahaha ..."

The hoodlums couldn't stop laughing as if they had heard the biggest joke in the world.

After laughing, the leading hoodlum used his hand to poke at Wu Tian's old clothes and mocked, "You need to have the ability to save a beauty even if you want to be a hero. How can you save a beauty with a poor appearance?"

"Cut the crap, how much do they owe you?" Wu Tian raised his head slightly. He was determined to deal with this matter today.

From this father and daughter pair, he could see that they had been together before. If he did nothing, they would most likely end up in a miserable state.

"Seven hundred thousand, do you have it?" The hoodlum put his hands in his pockets and looked at Wu Tian provocatively, as if he was looking at a beggar.

The hoodlum behind him could not help but mock him, "Big Brother, let alone seven hundred thousand, I don't think this kid can even afford seventy thousand."

"Hahaha ..."

Following which, the bullies burst out in laughter.

"Give me the card number, I'll transfer it to you now." Wu Tian did not care about these taunts at all.

"Alright, I would like to see how you continue to play that trick." After the leader of the lackeys said this, he instructed the lackey behind him, "Give your card number to this brat."

"Yes sir!" The hoodlum obediently reported the card number to Wu Tian.

After Wu Tian got the card number, he took out his phone and operated as fast as a tiger. He then looked at the hoodlums, "I'll transfer seven hundred thousand to you, get lost!"

The few hoodlums were stunned at first, but then burst into laughter together.

"Pah!" Pow! "Pah!"

The leader clapped a few times, then stuck out his thumb and praised, "Brat, your acting is so good. It's too good to not be an actor ..."

Before he could finish, he was interrupted by a subordinate behind him, "Brother, a text message has been sent. The card has received 700,000 yuan."

"How much?" The smile on the hoodlum's face suddenly disappeared, and he looked at his lackey behind him with a face full of shock.

"Seven hundred thousand."

CHAPTER 13:

"Cough, cough!" The hoodlum coughed dryly and slowly raised his head to look at Wu Tian. His expression was slightly twisted.

Ye Zichen didn't think that this poor looking brat in front of him was so rich, he transferred 700 thousand to him with just his phone.

Initially, he thought that this fellow was intentionally putting on an act. Seems like he had misjudged him.

To be willing to pay seven hundred thousand for his sister, this brat was surely not simple. He was definitely someone who would cheat.

The hoodlum put away his mocking face and said to Wu Tian with a serious face, "Little brother, this bro knows nothing about Mt. Tai today, I must have offended you earlier."

"If you take the money, why aren't you scram?" Wu Tian looked at the hoodlums and urged impatiently.

"Alright, we'll leave now." The hoodlum laughed dryly a few times, then hurriedly left with his little brothers.

For a moment, the restaurant was silent.

Upon seeing the hoodlums disappear into the distance, the father and daughter of the Lin Clan heaved a sigh of relief.

Father Lin walked in front of Wu Tian, bowed deeply and thanked him, "Little Brother, thank you for saving us."

He knew that if it weren't for the help of this young man in front of him, not only would the restaurant be broken, his daughter would also be harmed by those beasts.

"There's no need to be courteous about raising your hand." Wu Tian quickly helped his father up and said with a smile.

"Seven hundred thousand, this is no small amount." After Father Lin said this, he hurriedly reminded his daughter, "Quickly, thank your benefactor."

"Thank you!"

After thanking her, Lin Weiwei couldn't help but ask, "Oh right, why did you help us?"

To tell the truth, she was especially surprised when she found out that this guy had transferred seven hundred thousand to her creditor in order to save her life.

No matter how rich he was, he wouldn't help a stranger for no reason at all.

"I really like this shop, and I feel sorry for you guys, so I decided to help you guys." Wu Tian gave an answer.

This explanation sounded a bit stifling, but that was the truth.

"You ..." Lin Weiwei bit her lips and looked at Wu Tian warily. She tried asking, "Do you have any thoughts towards me?"

"Please do not misunderstand. I was just deeply moved and could not help but come to save him." Wu Tian tried to make himself sound more sincere.

He understood that anyone else would be suspicious of such a thing.

"If that's the case, then thank you so much." Lin Weiwei bowed deeply to Wu Tian and squeezed out a sweet smile. "I still don't know your name."

"Wu Tian."

"Brother Wu, don't worry. We will return the seven hundred thousand dollars to you as soon as possible." After Lin Weiwei said this, she wrote out a promissory note and left her home address and phone number on the paper.

Wu Tian didn't say much, he accepted the promissory note and smiled, "Don't worry, when are you going to return the money? Oh yeah, do you still have anything to eat?"

"Yes, yes, yes. I'll do it now." After hearing this, Father Lin hurriedly ran into the kitchen to get back to work.

After finishing their meal, the father and daughter of the Lin Family accompanied Wu Tian to dinner. The father and daughter duo expressed their gratitude.

After the meal, Wu Tian became familiar with the Lin Family's father and daughter.

After a short time together, Lin Weiwei had a good impression of Wu Tian and couldn't help but give him some food.

After dinner, Wu Tian took a taxi back to his living quarters.

After getting on the taxi, the taxi driver couldn't help but glance at Wu Tian a few times when he heard that Wu Tian was going to the Haitian Gardens.

After all, the Haitian Gardens was a well-known rich and powerful district. Ordinary commoners could not afford to live there either.

"Lad, are you going to teach at the Haitian Gardens?"

The taxi driver held onto the steering wheel as he asked.

He rarely went to Haitian Gardens because most of the people living there had a private car and very few people would take a taxi.

"Not a home tutor. I live there." Seeing the kind look on the taxi driver's face, Wu Tian also felt a sense of familiarity.

"You live there?"

"Right."

"Lad, it's not that I'm looking down on you, but those who can live in that place are not ordinary people. If you really live there, then that's really too low-key." The taxi driver said with a smile.

"Is that so?" Wu Tian shook his head with a wry smile, but didn't explain too much.

It was hard to believe that he was rich in clothes and temperament.

Of course, this was not important. After getting used to this kind of clothes, he did not want to deliberately change anything.

The taxi driver was a talkative, plain uncle. His driving skills were also very good. The two of them chatted and laughed along the way.

Just as they were about to arrive at the Sea Heaven Garden, a BMW suddenly turned around and sped towards them.

Startled, the cab driver quickly turned the steering wheel to the left to avoid colliding head-on with the BMW.

As a result, the BMW crashed into the roadside green belt, while the taxi crashed into a lamppost on the side of the street.

Wu Tian, who was sitting in the front passenger seat and was about to collide with the lamppost, was so scared that cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

"Clang!"

A loud sound rang out as the taxi hit the lamppost. However, the place where the taxi hit was not the passenger compartment, but the front part of the cab.

The impact was not too severe. The driver's head hit the steering wheel, and blood slowly flowed down from his forehead.

"Little... Little brother, are you alright? " The taxi was injured, and at this moment, he was still worried about Wu Tian's safety.

"I'm fine." Wu Tian felt touched.

Fortunately, the taxi driver had shifted direction in time. Otherwise, the injured person wouldn't be the taxi driver.

"It's good that you're fine." The taxi driver's head sank down and he fainted on the steering wheel.

"Uncle, uncle ..."

Wu Tian shouted twice. Seeing that the taxi driver didn't respond, he quickly took out his phone and made an emergency call.

The ambulance rushed over and took the taxi driver and the injured people in the BMW to the city hospital.

Wu Tian also followed him. After all, the taxi driver was injured in order to protect him, so he couldn't just sit there and do nothing.

In these days, such a conscientious driver was rarely seen.

After sending the driver to treat him, Wu Tian was also taken away by two doctors to check his body, so he was fine.

Walking out of the examination room, he saw a beautiful young girl in a short skirt who was crying at the door. She was the owner of the BMW.

Just now, it was this hitman that almost took Wu Tian's life.

Wu Tian wanted to reprimand the female car owner, but when he saw her crying, his heart softened and instead comforted her, "What's the use of crying now that it's already happened?"

"That was close, I almost ..." "He ran into a dead man." The beautiful car's owner sniffed with her nose, as if she was still in a state of shock.

"Driving is not a joke. A little carelessness can cause the car to be destroyed and everyone to die. Not only can it ruin you, it can also destroy others ..."

As a victim, Wu Tian had to educate her properly to prevent her from harming others in the future.

This girl's attitude of admitting her wrongs was not bad. She repeatedly admitted that she was wrong. In the future, she will be more careful when she drives.

"Shen Xue ..."

While they were talking, a man in a suit and leather shoes walked over.

Seeing this man, Shen Xue hastily wiped away the tears on her face. At the same time, she straightened her messy dress as if she didn't want the man to see her embarrassed appearance.

The man quickly walked over and asked worriedly, "Shen Xue, I heard that you were in a car accident. Are you alright?"

"I'm fine." Shen Xue replied indifferently. There was a hint of disgust in her eyes when she looked at the man.

The man in front of her was called Zhang Hao. Usually, he would chase after her like a piece of dog shit, which annoyed her to death.

"It's good that you're fine." Zhang Hao raised his head and looked at Wu Tian. His expression turned ferocious as he asked, "Brat, you must have hit Shen Xue when you were driving. How did you do it?"

CHAPTER 14:

"No." Without waiting for Wu Tian's reply, Shen Xue quickly explained, "I was wrong in driving and accidentally bumped into them. This is all my fault."

"Ugh ..."

Zhang Hao's expression froze for a moment. He said in an aggressive tone, "No matter who is at fault, as long as we scare Xue'er, we can't do it. This kid must apologize."

As long as there was a chance, he would spare no effort to curry favor with Shen Xue.

"Apologize?"

Wu Tian smiled: "Why should I apologize?"

It was a huge joke. As a victim, he was actually asked to apologize to the other party.

"If I tell you to apologize, you have to apologize." Zhang Hao raised his head with an arrogant look, just like a rooster ready to fight.

Wu Tian twitched his mouth and didn't say anything.

On the other hand, Shen Xue quickly tried to persuade him, "Zhang Hao, don't be like this. This was my fault in the first place."

"Xiao Xue, don't worry about it. I must get this brat to apologize to you today." Zhang Hao moved Shen Xue behind him, pointed at Wu Tian and shouted, "Hurry up and apologize."

"Pah!"

Wu Tian had already lost his patience. He raised his hand and slapped Zhang Hao's face.

This was the first time he met such an unreasonable b * stard. Honestly speaking, his hands had been itching for a moment.

Zhang Hao got a slap on his face and flew into a rage, "Brat, how dare you hit me?!"

After roaring out, he pounced towards Wu Tian like a mad dog.

Wu Tian used his shoulder to ram into it. At the same time, he lifted his knee and pushed it towards the opponent's lower abdomen.

Although he was thin and weak, he wasn't weak at all when it came to fighting. After all, he had been with a wild child since he was young.

Zhang Hao was no match for him. He was beaten up so easily that he bared his teeth in anger.

"Bastard, I'm not done with you." Naturally, Wu Zun wasn't willing to be abused in front of his goddess. He bared his fangs and brandished his claws, preparing to pounce on her again.

"Enough!"

Shen Xue, who was standing to the side, could no longer stand it. She glared at Zhang Hao and scolded angrily, "Have you had enough?"

"I ..."

Noticing Shen Xue's disgusted gaze, Zhang Hao had no choice but to stop.

At this moment, he felt extremely aggrieved in his heart. Not only was he beaten up, but in the end, he even made the goddess feel disgusted.

"How many times have I told you that this is my fault? Why can't you understand?" Shen Xue was furious.

"..."

Zhang Hao didn't say anything. He just glared at Wu Tian with hatred in his eyes.

At this moment, the nurse came out of the ward and scolded them, "Can you guys lower your voices a little? The injured people need some rest."

"Oh, got it." Shen Xue said with an apologetic smile.

"Which one of you is the wounded family member?"

"I ..." Shen Xue took a step forward and said embarrassedly, "I am the one in charge of this accident. I will be in charge of everything."

"Very well, follow me in!" After saying that, the nurse brought Shen Xue into the ward.

In the corridor, Zhang Hao stared at Wu Tian with hatred in his eyes. Right now, he wanted to slap Wu Tian to death.

If it wasn't for this kid, he wouldn't have been scolded by Shen Xue.

After gnashing his teeth for a long time, Zhang Hao threatened, "Brat, if you kneel down and apologize to me now, I can spare your life."

"With just you?" Wu Tian smiled with disdain.

He really didn't see what ability this brat had.

Other than going crazy and throwing a tantrum, his body was a complete mess. This kind of man actually dared to make a ruckus with him. He really did not know his own capabilities.

"Kid, I'll tell you the truth." Zhang Hao shook his collar, raised his head and said, "I'm the general manager of the Yun An Group. If you know what's good for you, kneel down before me right now."

"Yun An Group?" Wu Tian frowned slightly.

Previously, he seemed to have heard his secretary Loong Yun mention the Yun An Group. It was a small branch under the Wu Family.

He just didn't expect that there would be scum like this in his branch. He was simply a worm of the company.

Seeing Wu Tian's expression, Zhang Hao thought that Wu Tian was scared and was very proud of himself: "Brat, now you know you're scared. Hurry up and kneel down and apologize to laozi."

"You should be the one to be afraid." Wu Tian couldn't be bothered to waste his breath and took out his phone to call his secretary, Loong Yun. "There's a general manager of a company called Zhang Hao. I'm going to fire him now."

Ye Zichen directly said that into his phone, then hung up and put his phone away.

"Hahaha ..."

Zhang Hao raised his head and laughed. After laughing for a long time, he could not help but mock him, "You little rascal, you really know how to act cool."

"You're calling to expel me, but you're still not taking a piss? Look at you, what are you going to expel me from?"

"If you have the ability to expel me today, I'll be your grandson ..."

Zhang Hao put both of his hands in his pockets, and his head was almost hanging upside down on the ceiling.

Just as he was laughing out loud happily, the phone in his pocket rang. He only answered the phone for a few sentences before the smile disappeared bit by bit. In the end, his entire face turned stiff.

He just looked at Wu Tian like that with a complicated expression in his eyes. Surprise, shock and disbelief, but most of them were filled with fear and unease.

He had just received a call from the company and received an order from the boss of the company. He had already been expelled from the company.

Never in his wildest dreams would he have thought that the brat before him would expel him with just a single phone call. Even after ten years of effort, it was all in vain. In an instant, he fell from the top to the bottom.

"Plop!"

After being stunned for a long time, Zhang Hao regained his senses. He was so scared that his legs went limp, and he quickly knelt to the ground and begged for forgiveness, "Big Brother, no, Master ..." "I was wrong ..."

He was not stupid, to be able to fire an executive of his company with a single phone call, he did not dare to imagine how bad his identity was.

The kid in front of him was someone who had gone from bad to worse. At the very least, he couldn't afford to offend him.

At this moment, his intestines had turned green. If he knew that the kid in front of him was a big shot with bad luck, why would he go and offend him?

"I really don't understand how a person like you could have become the general manager at that time." Looking at Zhang Hao, who was kneeling on the floor and begging for mercy, Wu Tian was very disappointed.

It seemed that there was a problem with the management of the family's branches, otherwise they would not have let this kind of trash become an executive.

"Great sir, I was really wrong. Please give me another chance. I have eyes, but I don't recognize Mt. Tai. I shouldn't have offended you ..." Zhang Hao didn't finish his sentence. He raised his hand and fiercely slapped himself, as a way to beg Wu Tian's forgiveness.

He didn't want to waste all his time becoming a company executive.

What he did made Wu Tian even more annoyed. He kicked Zhang Hao's leg and swore, "Scram, don't let me see you again."

"Great sir, I ..." "I was wrong ..." Zhang Hao was kicked to the ground and sat on the ground like a pile of mud. Tears of regret flowed down his face.

He had never regretted it in his life before. Up until now, the thing he regretted the most was provoking a young man called Wu Tian.

If he was given another chance to choose, he wouldn't offend Wu Tian even if he died.

Not only would he not offend her, he would even try his best to curry favor with her.

CHAPTER 15:

Unfortunately, there was no medicine for regret in this world. It was already too late.

Zhang Hao was scared out of his wits and left the place. He felt as if his body had been hollowed out, and his whole body had become extremely depressed and depressed.

Looking at Zhang Hao's back, Wu Tian didn't have any change in his heart. He even felt happy about getting rid of such a bug in the company.

At this moment, the door to the ward opened and Shen Xue walked out first.

He looked around in the corridor and couldn't help but ask Wu Tian, "Where is Zhang Hao?"

"Let's go." Wu Tian replied with indifference.

Honestly speaking, he did not have a good impression of this woman called Shen Xue.

This woman was a roadside killer. Driving a car had almost taken his life. Besides, she was together with a scum like Zhang Hao. Naturally, it made people feel disgusted.

"It's good that he's gone." When she heard that Zhang Hao had left, Shen Xue became even happier.

Soon, she frowned again and asked with concern, "Oh right, Zhang Hao didn't make things difficult for you, right?"

"Nope."

"That's good." Shen Xue nodded and reminded him with good intentions, "Zhang Hao is a treacherous person. He often uses his own power to get revenge on others. You must be careful."

"No need for you to worry." When Wu Tian saw the doctor walk out of the ward, he hurried forward and asked, "Doctor, how is the driver?"

"Brain injury, temporary coma, nothing serious. I'll recover after a period of rest." The doctor gave a detailed account of the condition of the wounded man.

After hearing this, Wu Tian secretly let out a sigh of relief, "It's good that you're fine, thank you doctor."

"You're welcome, let the patient rest properly." After saying this, the doctor turned around and left.

After the doctor left, Wu Tian entered the ward and saw the driver lying unconscious on the bed with his head wrapped in a bandage.

Luckily, the driver turned the steering wheel in time and moved the impact to the front of the cab, otherwise the one lying on the bed would be him.

In other words, the driver had saved his life this time.

In his twenty years of life, he had never seen such a kind driver, so he couldn't help but feel grateful in his heart.

Shen Xue walked in with a guilty look on her face and said, "Today's accident was caused by me. I'm sorry, but don't worry, I'll pay for all the expenses for the hospital."

"No need." Wu Tian glanced at Shen Xue, then got a nurse to change Uncle's VIP ward and got a nurse to take care of him.

After he had arranged everything, he took a taxi back to his residence.

Just as he was about to take a bath and go to bed, his secretary Loong Yun barged in and reminded him, "Young Master, you forgot that you still have something to do."

"What is it?" Wu Tian frowned slightly as he couldn't remember what he said.

"Young Master, the old man wants me to supervise your studies every day."

"I'm too tired today, can I ..."

"No."

"Alright!" Wu Tian didn't know whether to laugh or cry in the face of such a strict secretary.

He got up from the bed, dragged his tired body into the study room and began to study those management books.

He stayed up until eleven-thirty in the evening before returning to his room to sleep.

In the middle of the night, he had a nightmare. He dreamt that he had been caught in a car accident and that the taxi driver had been killed while trying to save him.

Wu Tian woke up with a start. He was so scared that cold sweat broke out on his forehead and even the sheets were wet with sweat.

Wu Tian wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. Luckily, it was just a nightmare. He took out his phone and saw that it was already 5:30 in the morning.

First he went to the bathroom for a bath, then he went out to buy breakfast. After breakfast, he took a taxi to the hospital to visit the taxi driver.

When he opened the door of the VIP ward, he found that the driver was already awake. The female driver, Shen Xue, was also here yesterday and was chatting and laughing with the driver.

"Why are you here again?" Wu Tian walked into the ward and complained to Shen Xue.

Shen Xue pulled up her hair and explained with a smile, "I came to visit uncle and apologize to him."

"You're not welcome here. Let's go." Wu Tian extended his hand and gestured for Shen Xue to leave. It was obvious that he wanted to expel Shen Xue.

"I ..."

Shen Xue rubbed her arm and froze on the spot, looking a little embarrassed.

She just wanted to make up for the mistakes she made yesterday. She didn't expect Wu Tian to misunderstand her so much, making her feel wronged.

"Cough, cough!"

The driver coughed dryly and said to Wu Tian with a smile, "Little brother, this girl doesn't have any evil intentions and is a good kid. Don't bother with her about yesterday's matter."

"Uncle, I'm afraid she will affect your recovery." Wu Tian's tone became a lot gentler after hearing that the driver had rescued Ye Zichen.

"This girl is a good child. She came to take care of me before dawn." As he said this, the driver pointed to the thermos, "She even brought me nutritional porridge. It tastes really good, you should try it too."

After saying so, the driver gave Shen Xue a meaningful glance.

Shen Xue understood immediately. She hurriedly scooped a bowl of nutritious porridge and handed it over to him. "If you're willing to forgive me, then have a taste of my porridge!"

"Ugh ..."

For the sake of the uncle, Wu Tian couldn't refuse and could only accept the porridge.

Since the other girl was sincere in apologizing, as a man, he could not be bothered about it any further. He could only take a symbolic sip of the nutritious porridge.

After finishing the porridge, his eyes lit up as he looked at Shen Xue in shock. "You made this porridge?"

"Right."

"Delicious!" Wu Tian finished the porridge in one breath. He couldn't help but praise: "Your cooking skills are pretty good. The porridge is so delicious."

Shen Xue smiled. Hearing the praise, she felt even sweeter than if she had eaten honey.

The driver couldn't help but ask: "This girl is the head chef of Fuyuan Restaurant, is her cooking skills bad?"

"I really didn't think that you were Fuyuan Restaurant's chef." Wu Tian was surprised, he never thought that such a delicate girl would be the head chef at Fuyuan Restaurant.

Fuyuan Restaurant was very famous, and the dishes and the taste were unique. Of course, the price was also very expensive.

Shen Xue felt a little embarrassed from the scorching gaze. She rubbed her face and lowered her head awkwardly.

Wu Tian also realized that he had lost his composure. He quickly retracted his gaze and asked the driver with a smile, "Uncle, I'm Wu Tian. I still don't know what you're called!"

"My name is Liu Fugui, you can call me Uncle Liu." Liu Fugui chuckled. His old face was full of wrinkles.

"Uncle Liu, yesterday, it was fortunate that you saved me, otherwise ..."

Before Wu Tian could finish his sentence, Liu Fugui interrupted him and said, "That is my professional ethics. There is no need to thank me."

"Protecting passengers with your life, you are the most conscientious driver I've ever seen." Wu Tian bowed deeply towards Liu Da Gui.

This was not only gratitude and gratitude, but also a deep respect.

After bowing, he couldn't help but to ask out of concern: "Uncle Liu, why didn't your family come to see you?"

"My wife and children are all at home in the countryside. After what happened, I didn't dare to let them know." Liu Fugui said with a smile.

"It's alright. I gave you the nurse. I'll let the nurse take care of you first. I'll come over to see you every day." Wu Tian sat on the bed and held the old man's arm.

From the first time he saw the chauffeur, he felt especially close.

Who knew for a second.

"Crack!"

At that moment, the door was pushed open.

A fat middle-aged man rushed in.

"I say, Old Liu, look what you did to the car. The front of the car is badly caved in and the engine is broken."

CHAPTER 16:

The middle-aged man was none other than the head of the taxi company, Liang Yao. The moment he entered the door, he sternly reprimanded Liu Fugui.

"I'm sorry, Director Liang. It was my mistake this time." Liu Fugui was scared out of his wits and quickly apologized.

"Do you know how much damage you have caused to our company because of your dereliction of duty ...?" Liang Yao began chattering nonstop.

"Pah!"

Wu Tian didn't like Liang Yao's face. He slammed the cup on the table and stared at Liang Yao, "Is your car more important, or is your life more important?"

The damn fatty was concerned about the car and the company's performance the moment he entered the door. He never cared about Uncle Liu's injuries.

"brat, where did you come from? It's none of your business if I teach this subordinate a lesson." Liang Yao roared in anger, his eyes wide open.

"I'm in charge of this matter today." Wu Tian stood up from his chair and stared straight at Liang Yao.

Liu Fugui was scared to death. He tugged on Wu Tian's sleeve and whispered, "Little bro, I know you're doing this for my own good. But Director Liang is my superior, so if I offend him, I might lose my job."

Driving a taxi was hard, but it earned him a few thousand dollars a month, and he pointed to the money he needed to support his family.

If he lost his job, he and his family would have to drink the wind.

Hearing this, Liang Yao became even more arrogant. "Brat, did you hear that? Old Liu's job is in my hands. If you offend me, immediately get him to scam."

"From today onwards, Uncle Liu will no longer work at your company." Wu Tian immediately made the decision for Liu Fugui.

The supervisor in front of him was not a good person at all. If he continued to work like this, Uncle Liu would only be squeezed and humiliated.

"What?" That's it? "

Liang Zhen Zhu's eyes were wide open as he turned to look at Liu Fugui, "You're really going to quit?"

"I ..."

Liu Fugui raised his head, looked at Wu Tian, gritted his teeth and nodded: "Right, I don't want to work anymore."

He knew that Wu Tian wanted to protect his dignity, so he naturally couldn't refuse Wu Tian's respect.

"You ... "You ..." Liang Yao was so angry that he had nothing to say.

Initially, he only wanted to reprimand Liu Fugui and let the penalty go, but in the end, he was defeated by the other side.

It was currently the prime time of the year, a time when there was a shortage of people. It would be a huge loss to the company if a master like Liu Fugui left.

However, the management of a company like him would naturally not ask a driver to stay behind. He deliberately made things difficult for them by saying, "You destroyed the car, it's not that easy to leave."

"It's my responsibility to crash the car. You don't have to worry about that. The insurance company will compensate you." Shen Xue, who was standing nearby, could not help but ask.

"This ..."

Liang Yao was instantly stupefied. He stood on the spot like a fool.

"What are you blanking out for? Hurry up and get out of here." Wu Tian urged impatiently.

"Old Liu, you're ruthless." Liang Yao gritted his teeth, unwilling to give up, and said, "If you leave the taxi company now, sooner or later you'll starve to death."

With that, he turned around and left with a face full of anger.

"Ai!"

Liu Da Gui sighed, despair written all over his face. "Having lost my job, it looks like I have no choice but to return to my hometown."

The thought of his wife and children waiting for money to be spent made him anxious. He wanted nothing more than to go out and look for work right now.

"Uncle Liu, don't worry. I will take care of your work bag." Wu Tian patted Liu Fugui's arm and comforted him with a smile.

"An old peasant like me who hasn't read a book doesn't know anything except how to drive.

Even if you want to help me, I don't have the ability to do so."

"Driving is your greatest skill." Wu Tian smiled and said seriously, "Uncle Liu, I'm going to ask you to drive for me."

"Driving for you?"

"Right, when you recover from your injuries, you can be my driver. The monthly salary will be one hundred thousand."

"Cough, cough ..."

Hearing this, Liu Fugui couldn't stop coughing and almost choked to death on his own saliva.

Ye Zichen didn't expect Wu Tian to give him a monthly salary of one hundred thousand as soon as he opened his mouth. This was even higher than the income from driving a taxi for a year.

After a moment of surprise, he hurriedly waved his hand and refused, "No, no, no. What virtue or ability do I have? How would I dare to ask for such a high salary?"

Previously, Wu Tian spent tens of thousands of dollars to find him a nurse and help him transfer to the VIP ward. This already made him feel very bad.

"Uncle Liu, a well-educated driver like you deserves a hundred thousand yuan in salary." Wu Tian said in a noncommittal tone, "I also want to bring your wife and children to the city and let them go to school there, so that you two won't have to live separately."

"Little brother."

Liu Fugui grabbed Wu Tian's arm and said with a trembling voice, "I, Liu Fugui, will never be able to repay your great kindness in this lifetime."

"Uncle Liu, you saved my life, so what's wrong with what I did?" Wu Tian smiled.

Actually, he didn't need a driver at the moment. Spending 100,000 monthly salary to keep Liu Fugui by his side was not only to repay the debt of gratitude, but also to keep this general.

A well-educated and kind-hearted man like Liu Fugui staying by his side for his own use would be a priceless treasure.

"I thank you on behalf of my wife and children." Liu Fugui was about to get up from the bed to express his gratitude.

Wu Tian hurriedly pressed Uncle Liu down on the bed, "Uncle Liu, you haven't fully recovered from your injury. Don't move around too much. Whatever you have to say can wait until you've recovered."

"Alright, I'll listen to you." Liu Fugui laid on the bed obediently.

At this moment, he was especially glad that he was able to meet a warm-hearted kid like Wu Tian. He was extremely lucky.

The two chatted about their daily activities for a while. Noticing that it was getting late, Wu Tian told Uncle Liu to take a good rest and left the ward.

Not far from the sickroom, Shen Xue ran out and asked with concern, "My friend Zhang Hao didn't make things difficult for you, right?"

"Nope."

"You should be careful. Zhang Hao is a coward, I'm afraid ..."

"Don't worry, I've already reconciled with him." Wu Tian casually found an excuse and said perfunctorily.

At this moment, Zhang Hao had already been fired by Wu Tian. He had gone from a top management officer to an ordinary commoner. If he saw Wu Tian again, he would probably be scared to death.

"That's good." Shen Xue relaxed and followed Wu Tian for a few steps to try asking, "Aren't you angry with me now?"

"For the sake of your sincere apology, this matter is over." Wu Tian smiled graciously.

"I feel bad for causing you harm. Oh yeah, why don't you go to my restaurant and I'll cook something delicious for you. Treat it as an apology?" I'm the chef at that restaurant. "

"Alright!" Wu Tian happened to be hungry, so when he heard that Shen Xue was treating him to a meal, he naturally did not refuse her.

CHAPTER 17:

The two of them came to the Fuyuan Restaurant.

It was truly worthy of being the large dining hall with the most distinctive feature in Luzhou.

After entering the restaurant, the waiters greeted Shen Xue one by one. At the same time, they looked at Wu Tian with those weird eyes and couldn't help but to discuss something in whispers.

"Wait a moment, I'll go cook something good for you." Shen Xue smiled and turned back into the kitchen.

After greeting his colleagues in the kitchen, he began to busy himself.

Perhaps she wanted to show Wu Tian her best skills, so she cooked very seriously today and handled every detail perfectly.

"Boss Shen, it's been a long time since I've seen you so serious. You're going to cook for your boyfriend, right?" One of his colleagues, who was usually on good terms with him, came over and teased him.

"Don't talk nonsense." Shen Xue rolled her eyes at her colleague and continued to meticulously cook.

"Snowy, don't hide this from us. Just now, someone saw you bringing a guy into the restaurant. Are you going to cook for him?"

"Right."

"Is that boy your boyfriend?"

"No." Shen Xue quickly waved her hand and explained, "The only thing is ..." "Yes, he can only be considered an ordinary friend."

"I've never seen you cook alone for a boy before. Tell me honestly, do you like that kid?"

"Nope."

"No, why are you blushing?"

"Go to hell, who's blushing?" Shen Xue rolled her eyes slightly and continued with her work.

After working hard for over an hour, she finally cooked four dishes, which were her best dishes.

He asked the waiter to bring the four dishes out and place them on the table.

Wu Tian was playing with his phone when his eyes lit up when he saw the waiter bring out four dishes.

These four dishes were all shaped, laced, and dyed. Putting aside the taste, the appearance of these dishes alone were already extremely exquisite. They were pleasing to the eyes, making people have an appetite.

"You did this?" After staring at the dish for a long time, Wu Tian's gaze landed on Shen Xue.

"Yes."

"I really didn't know that your saber arts were so powerful."

"Taste it." Shen Xue sat opposite Wu Tian, waiting for his evaluation with a look of anticipation.

"Alright, I'll try it." Wu Tian picked up the chopsticks, picked up a piece of crab cake and put it into his mouth. The taste was smooth and light, and a strong fragrance assaulted his nose.

"Delicious." Wu Tian nodded with satisfaction and then tried the second dish. He also felt that it was extremely delicious.

It was only after he had tasted the fourth dish that he could not help but stick out his thumb.

"As expected of the head chef, your cooking skills are indeed exquisite."

"It's good that you like it, hurry up and eat it." Shen Xue was very happy to have received such a high evaluation.

"If I can get a wife as skilled as you, I'll be able to take it orally in the future." Wu Tian blurted out as he enjoyed his food.

Shen Xue's pretty face reddened as she snappily retorted, "Hmph, I wouldn't marry a man like you."

"If you don't want to marry, then don't. Why are you blushing?"

"What are you eating? Why are you talking so much?" Shen Xue said in a bad mood as she put a pair of chopsticks into Wu Tian's bowl.

"Not bad, it's really delicious." Wu Tian did not waste any more words as he gobbled down the delicious food.

It's been a long time since I've eaten such delicious food. It's even more delicious than the food in that 5-star hotel.

Very quickly, he finished all the dishes. He wiped his mouth with a piece of paper and asked with a smile, "How much is the price for this table of dishes?"

"I'm treating you to a meal. It's not for money." Shen Xue waved her hand generously as she smiled and said, "Treat it as my compensation."

"Such a delicious meal, it isn't enough just for me to eat a meal."

"How many meals do you want?"

"I want to eat for the rest of my life."

"Let's go." Shen Xue rolled her eyes in annoyance and said with a red face, "I didn't expect you to be like the other boys and be so glib with your words."

"I'm just joking with you, don't be angry."

"You're not that stingy!"

"Thank you for your hospitality. I'll be going then. Goodbye." Wu Tian waved and stood up to leave.

Just as he reached the door, he was stopped by a tall and mighty man in a suit.

A silver badge hung in front of the man in a suit. From the information on the badge, his name was Huang Jian, the manager of this restaurant.

Huang Jian raised his hand and blocked Wu Tian's path, deliberately raising his voice: "You want to leave after eating?"

His words instantly attracted the attention of the other guests. Everyone treated Wu Tian as someone who was going to eat an overlord meal and couldn't help but reveal a look of despise.

"Manager Huang, I was the one who let him eat." Seeing that the situation wasn't looking good, Shen Xue hurried forward to help.

"Shen Xue, what right do you have to make customers eat without paying?" Huang Jian glared at Shen Xue as he scolded her angrily. His entire body was bursting with anger.

Usually, he would pursue Shen Xue, but today, he was rejected. He didn't expect to bring an unfamiliar man into the restaurant and personally cook for him. The two of them chatted and laughed until they became extremely intimate.

Whenever he thought about how Shen Xue usually ignored him and was so close to another boy, he couldn't help but feel angry, so he intentionally made things difficult for her by blocking the door.

"Ugh ..."

Shen Xue's face stiffened slightly. She didn't expect Manager Huang to be so angry today.

Rubbing his arm, he forced a smile and whispered: "Manager Huang, according to the rules, the chef is entitled to treat a guest to a meal every month."

"The restaurant's rules are now up to me. If I say you don't have the qualifications, then you don't." Huang Jian held his head up high like a dog.

He was so mad at Shen Xue that he tried to curry favor with her. After working for a few months, this woman didn't even look at him, but her soul was hooked away by a brat.

In his heart, he was naturally displeased. In his rage, he had torn off all decorum and planned to take this opportunity to thoroughly humiliate Shen Xue and humiliate that kid in public.

"You ..." The corner of Shen Xue's mouth twitched as she did not expect Huang Jian to become so deranged. She suppressed her anger and said, "Since that's the case, then let's take it from my salary."

"No, we need you to pay in person." Huang Jianjun looked at Wu Tian, purposely making things difficult for him.

"Alright, I'll pay." Wu Tian also didn't want to make things difficult for Shen Xue. He took out his bank card and asked, "How much?"

"Fifty-three thousand."

"What?" Hearing this, Shen Xue's expression changed, "Manager Huang, these four dishes clearly only cost 3,000 RMB, how did it get to 53,000 RMB?"

"The penalty for eating an overlord's meal is fifty thousand yuan, plus three thousand yuan for dishes, fifty-three thousand yuan each." Both of Huang Jian's hands were in his pockets, as if he was trying to take down a dead man.

He had already planned for a long time to kill this brat. Let's see if this brat still dares to fight over a woman with him.

"You ..." Shen Xue was so angry that the corners of her mouth were trembling. No matter how foolish she was, she could tell that Huang Jian was trying to take revenge.

Huang Jian had always wanted to follow unwritten rules, but she rejected him harshly. He didn't expect that he would resort to such despicable methods to exact vengeance. How shameless.

Wu Tian had probably figured it out and sneered at Huang Jian, "Are you sure you want to fine me?"

"Of course."

"Alright, I hope you can continue to be so tough." After Wu Tian said this, he turned to Shen Xue and said, "Call your boss."

CHAPTER 18:

"This ..."

Shen Xue hesitated slightly.

She was the most familiar with the situation in the restaurant. She knew that Huang Jian had a close relationship with the boss, and it was only because of their relationship that he dared to act so brazenly.

Even if he called the boss out now, it would be useless. The boss would definitely side with Huang Jian.

"Foolish brat, why aren't you taking a piss? Look at you, you're still like this, and you still want to see our boss?" Huang Jian smiled contemptuously, looking at Wu Tian with disdain.

He reached out his hand and patted Wu Tian's shoulder, provoking him, "Believe it or not, even if you meet our boss, you're still a grandson, I'll deal with you however I want to."

"So arrogant?" Wu Tian's eyes dimmed as he felt angry.

"Because I have the capital to be crazy." Huang Jian shook his sleeves and impatiently shouted, "I'll give you two choices now. Either you pay the fifty thousand fine and leave, or the security guards will beat you up."

"I choose neither." Wu Tian didn't expect that eating a meal would cause such an unpleasant situation.

Fifty thousand was only a small amount of money to him right now, but he would definitely not bear with it.

Giving him money would only encourage him to act unfairly, making the other party think that he was easy to bully. At the same time, it would also cause Shen Xue to lose face.

"Since you won't choose, then I'll help you choose." Huang Jian gritted his teeth and ordered the two security guards with a wave of his hand: "This little brat eats an overlord's meal, then beat him up and throw him out of the restaurant."

"Yes sir!"

Upon receiving the order, the two security guards bared their teeth as they pounced and prepared to make their move.

All of the customers in the restaurant looked over with their heads raised, as if they were waiting to see a good show. Everyone wanted to see this tyrannical brat being bullied by the security guards.

"Stop!"

Just as the security guard was about to make a move, a loud shout was heard. A middle-aged man in a suit and leather shoes walked over.

Wu Tian's eyes flashed when he saw the middle-aged man. There was an expression of surprise on his face.

The person who walked over was none other than Liu Yueyao's father, Liu Jun.

He had previously bought the Radiant Moon Restaurant from Liu Jun, but he didn't expect that the Fuyuan Restaurant was also a part of Liu Jun's business.

Since this restaurant was owned by Liu Jun, the matter was much simpler and he didn't need to spend too much money.

Huang Jianyue greeted him eagerly with a smile, saying in a flattering manner, "Boss Liu, someone is causing trouble in our restaurant, I was just about to ..."

Before he could finish, he was ignored by Liu Jun.

He didn't expect that Boss Liu would ignore his existence. What was even more unexpected was that Boss Liu actually walked over to greet Wu Tian.

"Wu, what a coincidence, we meet again." Liu Jun didn't put on any airs at all and greeted Wu Tian with a respectful tone.

Huang Jian was shocked. He didn't expect that this brat in front of him was acquainted with Boss Liu, and from the looks of it, the two were quite close to each other.

He was very surprised. He did not expect this poor kid to be able to reach Boss Liu. He knew that things were not going well.

Shen Xue was also surprised. She did not expect Wu Tian to know Boss Liu.

The customers in the restaurant were also astonished. Since this young man knew the restaurant's boss, why would he need to eat an overbearing meal?

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd, Wu Tian smiled and said to Liu Jun, "What a coincidence, I didn't expect this restaurant to be owned by Boss Liu."

"Don't call me Boss Liu, call me Uncle Liu from now on." Liu Jun patted Wu Tian's shoulder and revealed a kind smile.

Last time, it was thanks to Wu Tian's purchase of the Radiant Moon Restaurant that he was able to escape the risk of his capital chain being broken. Therefore, he was extremely grateful in his heart.

"Uncle Liu."

Wu Tian called out sweetly, and suggested: "I'm very interested in your Fuyuan Restaurant, can you sell this restaurant to me?"

From his point of view, this restaurant had a good location and a large amount of people. It was very famous in the nearby areas and it was worth investing in now.

These words caused the expressions of the guests to turn serious. They couldn't help but be suspicious, such a brat, really had the ability to purchase Fuyuan Restaurant?

Even Huang Jian felt that this brat was just pretending. After all, the Fuyuan Restaurant was not small and the geographical location had a natural advantage. If the land was included, the market value would be over ten million.

This brat in front of him could take out 10 million?

"Kid, you really have good eyes." Liu Jun nodded in praise, then threw his hands behind him, "This is a land of wind and water, we can't lose anything from cooking here. Liu Jun nodded in praise, then threw his hands behind us, then said," This is a land of wind and water, we can't lose anything from cooking here.

"How much is it?"

"The land is sold along with the food and beverages, 13 million RMB."

"Sure, deal." Wu Tian made a decisive decision.

Right now, the city was expanding eastward. In a few years, this place would become the heart of the city and its future potential would be limitless.

Just like this, the two of them hit it off and simply negotiated this sky-high price deal, and the two signed the contract on the spot.

Only after Wu Tian paid the bill did everyone wake up from their stupor. They all had shocked and incredulous exaggerated expressions.

Only now did everyone realize that the kid in front of them was no ordinary person. He was just a hidden cheat.

Only someone as big as this cheat could be so free and easy to deal with. A restaurant with over 10 million RMB could be bought at any given moment, and he didn't even dare to blink.

Shen Xue was just as dumbfounded as everyone else.

She did not expect Wu Tian to buy the Fuyuan Restaurant so easily, which was completely out of her expectations.

At the scene, no one dared to look down on Wu Tian anymore. The way they looked at him became a lot more profound, as focused as if they were looking at an antique.

The one who was the most shocked was none other than Huang Jian. Initially, he thought that Wu Tian was just pretending, but he never expected that this brat really bought over ten million Fuyuan Restaurant s.

Boss, this kid is definitely a big boss.

To be able to spend 10 million to buy a restaurant, one could imagine how powerful he was.

To think that he had humiliated this fellow before, but to think that he had become his boss in such a short period of time. This fellow could be considered to have committed a huge disaster.

After being slightly stunned, he quickly licked his face to curry favor with Boss Wu: "Boss Wu, from now on, I will follow your lead. I will follow your instructions."

"Weren't you being a little too arrogant just now? You said that you could do whatever you wanted to me, but you submitted so quickly?" Wu Tian reprimanded Huang Jian as he glared at him in annoyance.

"I... "I was wrong ..." Huang Jian wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, his legs were trembling in fear.

If only he knew that Zhang Xuan was capable of becoming his boss, he wouldn't have dared to offend him even if he had ten times the guts to do so.

"It's good that you know you're wrong." Wu Tian twitched his mouth and threw his hands behind him, "Inform all the staff in the restaurant to come gather, I want to have a meeting."

"Yes." Huang Jian seemed to have received an amnesty and nodded his head. He hurriedly gathered the dozens of employees in the dining hall.

After gathering the staff, he pointed at Wu Tian and introduced, "From today onwards, Mr Wu is our boss. Let us welcome the new boss."

Led by Huang Jian, all the staff raised their hands to applaud.

After the applause, Huang Jian smiled and flattered, "Next, let's welcome our new boss, Boss Wu, to speak for us."

The great hall once again rang with thunderous applause.

CHAPTER 19:

Wu Tian pressed his hands together, signalling for everyone to quiet down. He glanced at the employees present and immediately announced: "Next, I will announce that the position of Huang Jian Manager will be officially removed and he will be expelled from the restaurant."

"Plop!"

Huang Jian's body went limp as he fell onto the ground like a pile of mud.

He originally thought that he could escape death, but who would have thought that Wu Tian would uneasily play his cards and kick him out right away.

"Big bro security, throw Huang Jian out. Don't let him in in the future." Wu Tian instructed the two security guards.

"Yes." Having received the order, the two security guards rushed up to Huang Jian from both sides and threw him out while dragging Huang Jian with their hands and feet.

Watching Huang Jian being thrown out of the restaurant, the other employees all secretly vented their frustration.

They were often bullied and bullied by Manager Huang. Some of the female employees were even subjected to unwritten rules.

He didn't expect that the new boss would be able to get rid of Huang Jian as soon as he arrived.

The happiest person in the world was Shen Xue. To her, getting rid of a scum like Huang Jian was like clearing a huge obstacle and preventing her from getting entangled in the future.

"Everyone, follow me and work hard. I guarantee that I won't treat you unfairly ..." Wu Tian's speech made everyone full of fighting spirit and passion.

Everyone was giving their all to fight a big fight with the new boss.

"The meeting is over. Let's get back to business." Wu Tian said a few simple words and dismissed everyone.

Shen Xue stood on the spot and looked at Wu Tian with a weird expression. She pursed her lips and said, "I should call you Boss Wu now."

Until now, she still felt it was inconceivable, she didn't expect Wu Tian, whom she met during the car crash, to suddenly become her boss.

Looking at such a familiar yet strange boy become his boss, he could not help but have a strange feeling in his heart.

"In the future, will I be able to eat the food you make anytime?" Wu Tian's tone was still as gentle as ever. His attitude towards Shen Xue did not change because of the change in his status.

"You're the boss, I'll make whatever you want to eat." Shen Xue bit her lips and smiled, "I hope that Boss Wu will forgive the things that I did badly. Just don't make me hesitate."

"You are such an outstanding chef, how could I bear to fire you?" Wu Tian pointed to a corner, "Take a seat, let's talk about the restaurant."

"What is it?"

"I've fired Huang Jian. Now, I need a manager to manage the restaurant on my behalf."

"What is it? Are you just going to ignore us?" Shen Xue couldn't help but retort.

"I'm too busy. I have to go to school every day. I have to take care of myself." Wu Tian scratched his head in embarrassment, then asked: "Is there anyone suitable to be the manager?"

"About this ..."

Shen Xue thought for a while, eventually shaking her head. "I can't think of a suitable candidate for now."

"I'll leave this matter to you. If you can't find a suitable candidate, then go ahead."

"I can't do that. It's fine if I'm the head chef, but I can't manage it." Shen Xue waved her hands and quickly refused.

"Let's talk about this later." Wu Tian didn't force it. He decided to let this matter go for now.

There were a lot of things that couldn't be rushed, so they had to steadily walk over step by step. Sometimes, being too impatient would only result in the opposite effect.

The two chatted for a while. Wu Tian told Shen Xue about the dining hall and the kitchen before he left.

After taking a bath at home, he intended to go to his study to read a book when his phone rang.

He turned on the phone and found that it was the background notification for the reading software, indicating that a novel he had been reading had been updated.

I recently found a very interesting online novel in the library. It was written by a female author named Bluebird.

The writing was very unique, just that the number of words was too few. When he saw the brilliance, he suddenly stopped, waiting for over half a month.

Wu Tian quickly opened the latest chapter of the novel and started reading it. He finished reading the latest chapter in less than ten minutes.

After reading the latest chapter, he was still a little unsatisfied, so he sent the author a private message: This book is written very brilliantly, so why don't you hurry up and update it?

After sending his private message, he quickly received a reply from the author: Sorry, life has been very stressful recently, and my job has encountered some difficulties, so I really don't have time to update.

Wu Tian replied again: "Did you encounter some trouble?"

Bluebird: There are too many undesirable things in life. When you push forward in your sleep, you tend to stumble over the mundane world. Sigh!

The female author named Bluebird seemed to have thousands of words to say, but in the end, they all turned into a deep sigh.

In between the lines, Wu Tian understood the pressure and helplessness the female author was facing when she was pursuing her dreams. Perhaps it was due to the limited financial situation, so she had no choice but to give up her dreams temporarily.

In this era, there were many literary creators with dreams and abilities who had to give up on literature because of practical problems, choosing to survive.

Wu Tian had experienced the tribulations of the lower classes and was deeply moved by this helplessness.

If no one helped the author of the Blue Bird, she might just disappear into the sea of stars.

Staring at the short message in shock for a long time, Wu Tian finally decided to give the bluebird a reward of 500 thousand book coins.

This was his encouragement and affirmation of the Bluebird, his support for the literary creator, and he did not want this talented author to be caught in the middle of his progress.

Right after he received his reward, he received a private message from Bluebird: Why did you give me so much book money all of a sudden?

Wu Tian: This is an encouragement to you. It is an acknowledgement of your writing ability. In my opinion, your writing cannot be measured in money.

Bluebird: Thank you, big brother. I've never confiscated so many books to give a reward. I don't know what to say. Thank you, thank you so much.

Afterwards, he even sent a lot of emojis, happy, excited, and tears ...

Even through the screen, Bluebird could feel the excitement and gratitude towards Wu Tian.

Perhaps the blue bird was already dancing with joy and tears of excitement, its entire being in a crazed state.

Wu Tian: Come on, write your book well. I believe that you will one day realize your dream and let your writing create miracles.

Bluebird: Big brother, I will definitely work hard and not let you down.

After that, he also sent a string of struggling emojis.

Wu Tian: "Write a good book. I'll wait for you to update. But you have to take care of your health. Don't overdo it."

Bluebird: Thank you, big brother. You are the most important person in my life. Thank you. Meeting you is the greatest fortune of my life.

Wu Tian: Go for it!

After sending the message, he put his phone away and started to read.

It was only because of his empathy, his love for literature, and his admiration for the author that he could not help but reward her 500,000 yuan.

The 500,000 was nothing to him, but it meant a lot to Bluebird and might change her life.

While he was reading, Loong Yun had appeared at the door of his study room and was staring at him.

Wu Tian felt a little uncomfortable under this stare. He put down the book in his hands and asked with a smile, "Secretary Loong, do you think that your young master is very handsome and has made you a little obsessed?"

CHAPTER 20:

"I'm not sure if he's handsome or not, but Young Master's skin is getting thicker and thicker." Loong Yun curled her lips and stared straight at Wu Tian, "Young Master, I came to remind you that spending money recently is a bit expensive."

"Do you think that I'm a second generation ancestor who only knows how to spend money arbitrarily?" Wu Tian walked over and stopped half a meter away from Loong Yun.

Smelling the fresh scent of a woman's newborn, he couldn't help but feel energized.

He couldn't help but admire the old tutor. His eyes were really good to have chosen such a high quality female secretary as his assistant.

"I don't dare!" Although Loong Yun said she did not dare to say it out loud, she actually thought so in her heart.

In her eyes, it was true that the young master only knew how to spend money carelessly, and even after spending so much money, he still hadn't managed to gain anything out of it.

"Sooner or later, you will discover that the money your young master spends will double the profit." Wu Tian smiled confidently. He didn't care what Secretary Loong thought of him now.

What you do now is right or wrong. No one can say for sure. Time will check everything.

After staring at Secretary Loong a few times, Wu Tian took the initiative to change the topic, "Oh yeah, I asked you to help me investigate the seafood dishes earlier. Are there any developments?"

"Seafood TV is not big, and its development in the industry is lagging behind. In addition, there is no sustained investment, so the fund chain has been broken." Loong Yun couldn't help but ask, "Young Master, why are you paying attention to seafood lovers?"

"I want to invest in seafood TVs."

"Investment?" Loong Yun's brows slightly tightened as she kindly advised, "Seafood TVs are currently unstable in the market, so the risks are great. If you invest right now, it'll be like walking on a tightrope.

"The risk is directly proportional to the profit. I've already carefully researched it and now is the right time to enter the seafood industry."

"But ..."

"Alright." Wu Tian waved his hand and directly interrupted Loong Yun, "Contact the boss of Seafood for me and ask him to meet us tonight."

"Yes sir!" Loong Yun didn't say anything else. She had to obey her young master's orders, but her heart was filled with more worries.

Soon, she called Sunn Sheng, the owner of the seafood TV, and arranged to meet him at the coffee shop on the left bank.

At seven in the evening, Wu Tian brought Loong Yun to the coffee shop on the left bank and met Sunn Sheng, the boss of the seafood restaurant.

A middle-aged man with an ordinary appearance and glasses on his face exuded a scholarly aura.

"Hello, Boss Sun. It's Wu Tian." Wu Tian stretched out his right hand and introduced himself.

"Ugh ..."

Sunn Sheng's expression froze for a few seconds. The way he looked at Wu Tian was clearly strange.

He didn't expect that the owner who threatened to invest in seafood was a kid. He was dressed in ordinary attire and didn't have the bearing of a boss.

After a short pause, Sunn Sheng forced a smile and shook hands with Wu Tian. "Hello, I'm Sunn Sheng."

"Boss Sun, I won't beat around the bush." After Wu Tian sat down, he got straight to the point, "I'm more interested in your seafood cuisine and want to invest."

"Mr Wu, our standards in this industry aren't low. I wonder if you know anything about it?" Sunn Sheng adjusted his glasses and asked with a smile.

The other meaning in his words was to tell Wu Tian that he needed a lot of money to invest in seafood. He wanted to know if Wu Tian had the ability to do so.

"The live broadcast relies on heating up money and draining the water. Once the flow of water is up, it would be easy to earn money by relying on the live broadcast resources and a powerful platform." Wu Tian spoke frankly with assurance.

Since he wanted to continue investing in seafood, he must have done a lot of homework before this. Naturally, he was aware of the risks and opportunities involved.

"It seems like Mr Wu knows a bit about the live broadcast industry." Sunn Sheng nodded and continued to ask in a tactful manner, "I wonder what your preparations are?"

"Don't worry about that, I'm not short on money." Saying this, Wu Tian winked at Loong Yun.

Loong Yun understood tacitly. She showed Sunn Sheng the ownership of Radiant Moon food and Fuyuan Restaurant and said, "This is only a small portion of our Young Master's assets."

"Aiya, I didn't expect Boss Wu to be such a rich guy, I'm sorry about that." Knowing that Wu Tian's strength was astonishing, Sunn Sheng immediately became enthusiastic. He picked up the kettle and personally poured a cup of water for Wu Tian.

Truth be told, he had been worrying about the money these days. He was investing everywhere, and if he did not get any more money for the seafood dishes, there would be a huge crisis.

Not many people were rushing to invest in the live broadcast right now, not to mention that the seafood TV crew was facing a lot of problems right now, so no one dared to easily invest in them.

For Mr Wu to initiate an investment of his own was a timely offer.

"Alright, let's talk about the investment." Wu Tian took a sip of his tea and went straight to the point, "I offer 50 million, 40% of the shares. How about it?"

"That won't do." Sunn Sheng's face sank and immediately expressed his opposition: "50 million, the maximum is 20%."

"30%." Wu Tian made a concession and stretched out three fingers.

"Twenty percent at most." Sunn Sheng's tone was also very determined.

If it weren't for the recent collapse of the capital chain, even this fifty million yuan could only take 10% of the shares. 20% was already a huge concession.

"Fifty million and thirty percent. If Boss Sun is unwilling, I won't force you." Wu Tian put down his tea cup, stood up and prepared to leave.

"Wait!"

Seeing that Wu Tian was about to leave, Sunn Sheng hurriedly stood up to stop him. He gritted his teeth painfully and said, "Fine, 30%."

In this situation, there was no other choice for him. If he did not compromise now, Seafood would probably completely collapse.

"Boss Sun is indeed frank and straightforward." The corner of Wu Tian's mouth curled up into a nice smile. At the same time, he secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

"Mr Wu, you truly ..." Sunn Sheng had a pained expression on his face as he looked at the young man in front of him. He didn't know what to say.

The kid in front of him was simply taking advantage of the situation. The moment he attacked, he would be stuck on the spot, making it so that he didn't even have the strength to spin around.

"Boss Sun, I know that Seafood Tv is in a hurry to get the money right now. Don't worry, after you sign the contract, the 50 million yuan will be transferred to your account in one go." Seeing the other party make such a sacrifice, Wu Tian didn't dawdle and offered to pay for the investment in one go.

"Alright!"

Hearing this, Sunn Sheng felt a lot more gratified, "Mr Wu is so straightforward. Let's sign the contract now."

After the two signed the contract, Wu Tian transferred 50 million yuan of investment funds to Sunn Sheng.

This time, the collaboration went smoothly and there was basically no twists and turns before an agreement was reached.

After signing the contract, Wu Tian put forward some suggestions from the perspective of a seafood TV audience, including the interface and user experience, as well as some resource differentiation issues.

Sunn Sheng nodded and smiled, "Listening to your words is better than ten years of study. I didn't expect Mr Wu to be so knowledgeable about live broadcast."

"Everyone is from a different angle. I'm just from the audience's point of view." Wu Tian was flattered and smiled.

In fact, the suggestions that he had just made were the thoughts of many of the audience members. It was just that the other audience members didn't have the opportunity to voice them out.

"Alright, I will definitely do as Mr Wu says and improve it." Sunn Sheng raised his teacup and said, "We'll use tea in place of wine. Let's hope that we can cooperate happily and make the seafood dish bigger and bigger, becoming the leader of the industry."

"Happy cooperation!" Wu Tian raised his teacup and clinked it with Sunn Sheng.

With just a simple relationship, one could tell that Sunn Sheng was a capable person. With enough time, he would definitely be able to make a seafood Tv stronger.
