

CHAPTER 151:

After working hard for most of the day, Liu Juncai arranged these things, and happily said to Wu Tian, "good boy, you are not only good at using melon seeds, but also farsighted in looking at the problems. Not only did you solve the difficulties of jadeite garden and Fengjing village, but also turned the barren mountain into a golden knot. Unexpectedly, the profit was more than 50 points."

"Those factories are the big ones, and the long-term value is immeasurable." Wu Tian looked up into the distance with a brilliant smile on his face.

"How could you come up with such a good idea?"

"I feel it, too." Wu Tian withdrew his eyes and said with a smile, "I used to live here and dream of having a park and a pedestrian street. This is the common expectation of all the people in Fengjing village."

"To tell you the truth, it's a pity that people like you don't engage in real estate."

"I'm also interested in real estate, which is a big risk."

"Every man has his own will, and I will not force it." Liu Jun patted Wu Tian on the shoulder and said, "I'll take care of the matter here. Then you'll wait to count the money."

"I'm afraid it needs a lot of money to build parks and super high-rise buildings in the early stage. How does uncle Liu plan to solve this problem?"

"I'm going to do it in four phases." Liu Jun thought about it for a moment, and said seriously, "in the first phase, we will use our money to develop the jadeite garden and the scenic village, and then use this real estate loan to build the park."

"And then?"

"In the second phase, after the park is completed, the feicui garden will be sold at a high price to cash out, and then the money will be used to build super high-rise buildings. In the third phase, super high-rise loans will be used to build villas. At the same time, super high-rise buildings will be sold to repay the previous loans. In the fourth phase, commercial streets will be built."

"Liu Shu is really good. He made the plan so quickly."

"These are the most basic things in real estate. Compared with your far sighted plan, it's totally different." Liu Jun expressed his admiration and appreciation for Wu Tian.

"By the way, uncle Liu, I'm coming to you this time to introduce some business tycoons and help our company finance new projects."

"What's new?"

"Mobile operating system."

"This kind of project is very competitive, it costs too much money, and the profit cycle is too long. Ordinary people will not invest in it."

"I know." Wu Tian nodded and said firmly: "since I have decided to do something, even if it is difficult, I will not give up easily."

"It's good for young people to have this pioneering spirit. Well, I'm just going to meet the boss of Huafeng Group. I'll introduce you to each other."

"Thank you very much, uncle Liu."

"Don't be polite between us. Let's go." Liu Jun made a gesture of invitation, took the lead in the BMW, and then said: "the boss of Huafeng Group is Zhao Changfeng, a big business man in Luzhou, a famous investor. He has invested nearly 100 projects. If you can let him invest in the projects of your company, you will not be far away from success."

"I'll do my best." Wu Tian reluctantly smiles.

It's very difficult to invest in the project this time. At present, we can only do our best, try our best and listen to the destiny.

Led by Liu Jun, they came to Shangri La Hotel.

Walking into the elevator, Wu Tian met a familiar girl.

The girl was dressed in the one-step skirt suit and ponytail debate in the hotel. She looked fresh and embroidered, and her body was full of the delicate fragrance of her first son.

"Are you Cheng Yuanyuan?" Staring at the girl for a long time, Wu Tiancai couldn't help but try to ask.

"Yes." Cheng Yuanyuan first nodded, then Ning eyebrow puzzled way: "I don't seem to know you, how do you know my name?"

"You are a student of the University of technology, right? We met when we entered the University." Wu Tian explained with a smile.

On the day of admission, Cheng Yuanyuan was the most beautiful girl among the freshmen. She was fresh and refined, and her temperament was elegant.

So Wu Tian was very impressed with the girl. After seeing that side, he deeply engraved it in his mind.

"Sorry, I forgot you." Cheng Yuanyuan smiles awkwardly, with a faint apology on her face.

It's OK not to smile, but her smile is more charming.

Even Wu Tian was infected by such a clean smile and shrugged: "it's OK. In fact, we're not familiar with each other. We just chatted in the freshmen group."

"New group?"

"Yes."

"What's your online name?"

"God."

"Ah Cheng Yuanyuan covered her mouth and exclaimed, "are you Tian Ge?"

"Yes, I'm Tiange."

"Tiange, who gave me a reward of 500000 for my new book?"

"Yes."

"I didn't expect to see you here. Thank you very much." Moved by tears, Cheng Yuanyuan bowed to Wu Tian to express her gratitude.

She didn't remember the boy in front of her, but when she mentioned Tiange, she was very excited.

She wrote an unpopular book on the Internet, and the effect of the new book period was very bad. It was Tiange who gave her a reward of 500000, so that she successfully entered the list of new books.

Since then, her book data is getting better and better, dominating the list for a long time, and her performance has completely exceeded expectations."You're welcome." Wu Tian waved his hand and couldn't help but care: "how is your book recently?"

I've been chasing the watchman all the time, because I'm so busy recently that I don't have time to read. I plan to wait for my leisure time to read.

"The volume of books has increased greatly now, and the sales volume is still good after being put on the shelves."

"That's good. I've seen that your book has great potential. It's natural that you can make achievements."

"God, I thank you for my book. If you didn't reward me with so much money, I'm afraid my book would have been buried. It's you who let me find confidence that I can continue to persist. Thank you!" Cheng Yuanyuan bowed deeply again to express her thanks.

For her, Wu Tian is simply her savior, helping her find confidence, so that she can continue to write.

"I just think your book is good-looking. You're welcome to do something easy."

"I've been looking for a chance. Thank you. I didn't expect to meet you here so coincidentally." Cheng Yuanyuan was excited and incoherent.

For Wu Tian, 500000 is just a small sum of money, but for Cheng Yuanyuan, it is a great favor.

Without the 500000 yuan, she would have given up the book and her life would not have been like this.

"By the way, why are you here?"

"I'm a waiter here."

"It's reasonable to say that your book is selling well. You should not be short of money now. How can you come here to be a waiter?"

"I've come to work part-time!" Cheng Yuanyuan smoothed her hair around her ears and explained with a smile: "after writing a book, come out and experience life, which can make the characters in the book more real."

"I didn't expect you to work so hard."

"You help me and give me a chance. If I don't work hard, I will fail you." Cheng Yuanyuan always had a smile on her face.

Just then, the elevator stopped on the sixth floor.

After the elevator door opened, Wu Tian said to Cheng Yuanyuan with a smile: "I'm here to talk about something. I'll talk about it when I have time."

"I Well, goodbye Cheng Yuanyuan had something to say. Seeing that Wu Tian was very busy, she had to give up.

CHAPTER 152:

After saying goodbye to Cheng Yuanyuan, Wu Tian followed uncle Liu to a private room where they chatted about things related to Zhao Changfeng.

Before long, the door of the private room was pushed open, and a bald middle-aged man came in, some gray on his temples.

Don't look at men in their early fifties, the aura they emit is very attractive. At first glance, they are the kind of big men who have been in high positions for a long time.

As soon as he entered the door, Liu Jun quickly got up to meet him and said with a smile, "boss Zhao, it's my honor to invite you."

Don't want to know that the bald man in front of him is Zhao Changfeng, chairman of Huafeng Group.

"Mr. Liu, I have kept you waiting." Zhao Changfeng showed a strong but polite smile.

Even if he has a smile on his face, he can still send out a pressure bearing momentum, and all his actions and actions give people pressure.

"No, we just arrived." Liu Jun finished saying this, pointing to Wu Tian behind him, he introduced: "this is Tianmu technology investor Wu Tian, and I am good friends."

"Boss Zhao, I've heard a lot about you. I'm glad to meet you." Wu Tian hastens to shake hands with Zhao Changfeng.

"Young and promising, good." Zhao Changfeng smile, just reached for a symbolic grip.

Liu Jun worried about the cold, hastily stretched out his hand and made a gesture, "boss Zhao, please sit down."

"Sit down, all of you!" After saying this, Zhao Changfeng went directly to sit in the position of the guest of honor.

Liu Jun and Wu Tian took their seats in turn.

After sitting down, Liu Jun pushed the menu over and said with a smile and flattery, "boss Zhao, I hear you like Cantonese food?"

"I don't care. Just watch." Zhao Changfeng waved his hand in the air and didn't even look at the menu.

"Well, I've ordered the specialty here. I hope boss Zhao likes it."

"Don't be so extravagant. Just be casual."

"Yes, yes, yes." After Liu Jun responded, he quickly picked up the teapot and poured a cup of tea to Zhao Changfeng, "boss Zhao, please have tea."

"Good!"

Zhao Changfeng picked up the cup and tasted a sip of tea. He nodded with satisfaction: "yes, this is my favorite Mountain Cloud tea."

"I know that boss Zhao likes mountains and clouds. This is the authentic handmade tea that I entrusted to bring from en Bei."

"Boss Liu, you really have a heart." Zhao Changfeng tasted a few cups of tea and said with a smile, "you can rest assured that Changlong's investment will arrive soon."

"Thank you, boss Zhao."

"We are mutually beneficial and win-win, nothing."

"By the way, there is a new investment right now. I wonder if boss Zhao is interested?" After a hot spot, Liu Jun took the initiative to introduce the topic.

The main purpose of bringing Wu Tian here tonight is to help his project finance and tide over the current difficulties.

"Tell me." Zhao Changfeng shook his sleeve and leaned against the chair.

Liu Jun did not rush to mention the new project, but beat around the bush and asked: "I wonder if boss Zhao has heard of the recently popular ares game?"

"Of course I heard that my son spent tens of millions on this game."

"How does boss Zhao like this game?"

"From an investor's point of view, it's not a game, it's simply a money grabbing magic, very powerful." Referring to this game, Zhao Changfeng couldn't help feeling: "my son never played games before, but this game made him addicted. The key is that he still felt very happy after spending tens of millions of yuan."

"So, boss Zhao thinks the game of ares is very successful?"

"Of course, this game can grasp the mentality and weakness of the local tyrants and make them willingly throw money into it. It is the ultimate psychological control of the rich second generation."

"Thank you for your high affirmation." Liu Jun grinned and pointed to Wu Tian beside him and said, "in fact, this game is developed by Wu Tian."

"He?"

Zhao Changfeng's eyes brightened, and he looked at Wu Tian attentively and seriously, just like enjoying an antique.

Before seeing Wu Tian, I just glanced at him casually, but now it's totally different. My eyes are deep and frightening.

After staring at Wu Tian for a long time, Zhao Changfeng could not help but boast: "good boy, young man, it's really a genius to develop such a profitable game!"

Before I was still thinking about who developed such a gold sucking game.

After getting the answer, he was amazed.

It's amazing how far sighted you are with your age.

"I don't dare. There are still many places to learn from our predecessors." Wu Tian said modestly with a smile.

As soon as the words fell, Liu Jun hurriedly interrupted: "before, I thought that this boy was crooked and had good luck to develop such a lucrative game. Later, I found out that this boy has unique vision and has invested in several projects to make a profit."

"Oh? What other projects did Xiao Wu invest in?" Zhao Changfeng was aroused and asked curiously.

"I was not optimistic about it before. I bought the food and beverage sold by this boy. As a result, I made a lot of money." "Is it?"

"He took over a live broadcasting company that was on the verge of collapse, and now he's making the same big money." Liu Jun wanted to raise Wu Tian's status and gain the trust of boss Zhao.

"Yes, all walks of life can make money by playing." Zhao Changfeng now looks at Wu Tian with more intense eyes.

It was as if he found a piece of jade in the garbage, and he could not help but want to pick it up and have a good time.

"Boss Zhao, Xiao Wu has recently launched a new project. He is just suffering from lack of money, otherwise he will make a lot of money." After a long circle, Liu Jun returned to the theme.

Zhao Changfeng instant interest, urgent voice asked: "tell me, what is a project?"

"Yes..."

Liu Jun's words to the mouth and swallow back, Gu Nong xuanxu way: "this is the project made by Xiao Wu, or let him tell you."

"Xiao Wu, tell me quickly, what kind of project is it?" Zhao Changfeng looks at Wu Tian again.

After so much saliva, Liu Jun is now interested in new projects.

"That's it." Wu Tian made some preparations and said, "our company has spent half a year developing a mobile phone system..."

"Mobile phone system?"

"Yes."

"The investment is too big, the competition is too fierce, and the return period is too long. It is not easy to do in China." As soon as I heard that it was the mobile phone system, Zhao Changfeng seemed to have been poured cold water, and his passion instantly dropped to freezing point.

"The future is the mobile era, and the system is the mobile platform. If we can make the domestic system, we can master 10 billion level support, generate 100 billion level profits and participate in international competition."

"Young man, I have to admit that you are ambitious, but have you ever thought about how much loss will be caused if you fail?"

"Sometimes worry too much, on the contrary, it constrains our self-confidence and ambition. If we are afraid of failure, where can we succeed?"

"You have passion and ambition, but you can't move me with a few words." Zhao Changfeng shrugged his shoulders, and his face was more eccentric.

Wu Tian did not speak, and a faint smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

This smile made Zhao Changfeng a little puzzled and said, "young man, what are you laughing at?"

CHAPTER 153:

"In fact, boss Zhao is very interested in this project. He just wants me to find a reason to convince you. Am I right?" The smile on Wu Tian's face is stronger.

Just half an hour together, he seems to have seen through Zhao Changfeng's heart.

These so-called big bosses are not short of money. They like to take risks and make any high-risk investment.

But they don't take the risk fearlessly. Before they do something, they have to find a reason to take the risk.

"It's rare that you have a serious attitude of dealing with things that is not in line with your peers." Zhao Changfeng could not help admiring secretly.

The young man was really different. After half an hour's contact, he could see through his mind. He was really outstanding.

"I'm flattered." Wu Tian couldn't help being complacent.

It seems that those family practices he read before are very useful. He has learned how to get along with big men.

"How are you going to persuade me to invest in you?" Zhao Changfeng was waiting for the answer.

"Since the investment project is for you, of course." Wu Tian took out the information prepared in advance from the bag and handed it to him, "this is the detailed scheme of the new system. You can understand it as soon as you read it."

"Let me see." Zhao Changfeng took over the information and opened the documents inside. He found that all of them were sketches.

Looking at the sketch, it's like a slide.

There is no professional knowledge in it. It's all basic things that ordinary people can understand at a glance.

After looking up for a few days, Zhao Feng has to admit that the company's resentment has been solved

"This system was built by our company in half a year, and it has been basically completed. What we lack now is to improve the ecology." "This is equivalent to that the wasteland has been reclaimed. Now people need to plant a variety of crops on it and grow them in an orderly manner. Finally, they can sell their fruits."

"The metaphor is appropriate."

"Now everything is ready. As long as we have money, we can plant the land and sell the fruit." Wu Tian made a very straightforward analogy.

If you chat directly with the system, it will be boring. If you use this vivid metaphor, it will resonate more.

"You can hold a company, or you can invest in a single project. You account for the majority of the profits, but for one thing, you can't directly participate in the operation of the company and the project."

"Well, I decided to invest in this project." After careful consideration, Zhao Changfeng made a decision immediately.

He carefully considered that although the mobile phone system project is risky, it is also profitable.

If it is done, he will definitely become a giant in the Chinese science and technology field. He can make money by lying down and taking part in international competition at that time.

Even if you can't do it, the big deal is to lose money.

For him, there is no lack of money, and he has money that he can't spend in his lifetime. He likes to do this kind of venture capital.

Win and lose are half.

This is equivalent to a big gamble. If you win, you will earn a lot of money. More importantly, you can become famous in China.

If he loses, the loss will be serious, but it will not hurt his muscles and bones. He can still afford to pay for the money.

"Boss Zhao, this kind of investment often costs several billion yuan. I hope you can consider it clearly." Wu Tian kindly reminded.

"I've thought it over. I'm sure you're not a gas-efficient lamp." Zhao Changfeng said half jokingly.

The reason why he dare to invest this time is that he has taken a fancy to Wu Tian's personal ability. Although this boy is young, all aspects of the tribe are inferior.

Mentality, temperament, ambition, vision are much better than his peers, and even in some aspects even he is inferior to himself.

"Thank you for your trust in me. If Mr. Zhao thinks about it well, we'll make an appointment to draw up a contract."

"Another day, you go to my company to see me."

"Good." Wu Tian raised his tea cup and said with a smile, "boss Zhao, I hope we can cooperate happily."

"Happy cooperation!"

After touching the cup, Zhao Changfeng drank most of the tea in the cup.

Just at this time, the waiter came into the private room with dishes. One of the waiters was Cheng Yuanyuan.

After seeing Wu Tian Tian, she seemed very surprised. After being stunned, she gave Wu Tian a sweet smile, which was a greeting.

However, Zhao Changfeng, who was next to her, had a strange look in her eyes after seeing Cheng Yuanyuan.

When several waiters finished cooking and were ready to leave, Zhao Changfeng pointed to Cheng Yuanyuan and ordered, "you, stay."

"Yes

Several other waiters withdrew from the private room. Cheng Yuanyuan stayed alone in the private room and asked with a smile, "this guest, what can I do for you?"

"Come and drink with me." Zhao Changfeng patted the position beside him and said in an irresistible tone.

"I'm sorry, I'm only responsible for serving the guests, not for the wine." Cheng Yuanyuan politely refused.

Mainly for the sake of Tiange, she was forced to smile and didn't want to offend Tiange friends."Pa!"

Zhao Changfeng took out the gold card and patted it on the table. He said boldly: "accompany me for a day. The five million of the card is yours."

Ordinary women can't get into his eyes, and the waiter is very similar to his first girlfriend, which makes him excited.

"I'm sorry, I'm not the kind of girl you think I am." Cheng Yuanyuan's smile disappeared instantly and was replaced by anger.

I didn't expect that the other party would take money to buy her. It was a naked insult to her.

"I don't need to know what kind of girl you are. You just need to know that you are the girl I like." Zhao Changfeng gets up and slowly approaches Cheng Yuanyuan.

"Boss Zhao."

At the critical moment, Wu Tian stood up and stood in front of Cheng Yuanyuan, smiling and saying, "this girl is my friend. I hope you can look at my face and don't see her in the same way."

"Is it your friend?"

"Yes."

"Since it's your friend, let her come and accompany me. It's easy to say how much it costs." Zhao Changfeng is determined to ask Cheng Yuanyuan to accompany him.

There are a lot of women around him, of all kinds, and people like him never lack women.

But for a long time, he didn't meet a woman who could make him move. The girl in front of him reminded him of his first girlfriend, so he wanted to let this girl accompany him.

"Yuanyuan is not that kind of girl. Even if she is poor and bitter, she will not sell her body for money. I hope boss Zhao can let her go." Wu Tian is very euphemistic tone persuades a way.

"I want her today." Zhao Changfeng also came to his strength and said to Wu Tian, "we attach an additional item to our cooperation. If you can't let this girl accompany me, our cooperation will be cancelled."

"Boss Zhao, it's boring." The smile on Wu Tian's face gradually disappeared, and his face became ugly.

"Wu Tian, you have no choice now. If you want to cooperate, please let the girl come with me."

"If boss Zhao had to use this as a condition, he would not cooperate." Wu Tian said this and took Cheng Yuanyuan to turn and leave.

To tell you the truth, Zhao Changfeng's character makes him feel very disappointed. It's ok if such a person doesn't cooperate.

CHAPTER 154:

"Stop!"

Zhao Changfeng's old face sank and said in a cold voice, "if I don't invest, you can't do that set of domestic system."

"Even if you don't invest, I'll still find better investors." Wu Tian didn't show weakness and hit back.

"You have to think about it. No one but me is willing to burn you money."

"I think very clearly, even if the system doesn't work, I won't do business with my friends' bodies." Wu Tian's tone was very strong and there was no room for discussion.

He would never exchange Cheng Yuanyuan's body for project financing.

With these words, she took Cheng Yuanyuan to leave.

"Pa!"

Zhao Changfeng seemed to be annoyed. He slapped him on the table and threatened, "Wu Tian, if you dare to leave the private room with that girl today, you will be the enemy of Zhao Changfeng."

"So what?"

"Against me, I will destroy you at all costs." Zhao Changfeng bared his teeth and said maliciously.

No one had ever dared to speak to him in this tone. This time, he had been completely infuriated, and his anger was faint.

"Boss Zhao, I know you are very rich, but I'm not scared by Wu Tian." Wu Tian didn't show weakness and replied that he didn't feel timid because of the identity of the other party.

"Is it worth fighting against me for a woman?"

"I only do what I think is right. No one can control it." After Wu Tian finished saying this, he took Cheng Yuanyuan and resolutely walked outside the private room.

Before leaving the private room, I heard Zhao Changfeng roaring behind him: "Wu Tian, I'm Zhao Changfeng and you are irreconcilable."

Wu Tian didn't respond, just took Cheng Yuanyuan to leave quickly and stopped after walking far out of the private room.

"Thank you, brother!" Cheng Yuanyuan retracted her arm and bowed deeply to express her gratitude.

She could hear the conversation clearly in the private room just now.

At present, in order to protect her, the boy is willing to give up the good business, even if he has a feud with the business tycoon.

To tell the truth, she didn't expect to be so protective. She was so moved in her heart that she didn't know how to express her gratitude.

"It's nothing. Don't worry about it." Wu Tian pursed a smile, the tone is insipid comfort way.

Just finished saying this, saw Liu Jun to shout to shout to chase out.

"Little day, you are really too impulsive. It's not easy to talk about this cooperation, but it's all in vain."

"Zhao Changfeng's character is not good. It's OK to have such cooperation." Wu Tian shrugged.

"Do you know how much it will cost your company to lose this cooperation?"

"I know."

"Then you Alas What Liu Jun wanted to say finally turned into a deep sigh, worried: "this time, you not only lost cooperation, but also offended boss Zhao and buried the root of disaster for yourself."

"It doesn't matter if you offend."

"Zhao Changfeng will report his revenge. If you offend him, you will spare no effort to bring you down. I am worried about..."

"Uncle Liu, don't worry about me." Wu Tian wiped a handsome hairstyle and said confidently, "the so-called soldiers will block me. The water and the earth cover up. I don't believe that he can do anything to me."

"He is rich and powerful, and his energy is beyond your imagination. If you really start, you can't resist." Liu Jun could not help but worry.

"We'll all die together."

"You..." Liu Jun was so angry that he didn't know what to say. He glanced up at Cheng Yuanyuan and lowered his voice to Wu Tiandao: "it's not worth mentioning that beauty is a disaster for a woman."

"I'm not for women, I'm for justice. I do everything from my heart. If I don't have a conscience, it's useless to make more money."

"You're right." Liu Jun approved of the nod, want to say the words finally again into a sigh, told: "then you should be careful, I go back first."

With these words, he threw his hands behind him and walked toward the elevator.

Seeing Liu Jun go far away, Cheng Yuanyuan asked in a low voice: "brother Tian, did you make a big accident this time?"

"It's none of your business. Don't take it too seriously." Wu Tian said with a smile.

"But in order to help me, you lost your big business and offended the boss..."

"It is for the sake of justice and conscience that I broke my face with Zhao Changfeng. If I knew that he was such a person, I should not waste time talking about cooperation with him."

"But..."

"All right." Wu Tian knew that the girl still had pimples in her heart. He took the initiative to change the subject: "don't talk about it. Find a place. I'll treat you to dinner."

"You've helped me so much, I'll treat you!" Cheng Yuanyuan carried her hands behind her, and her smile was very sweet.

"Well, let's go." Wu Tian said this and made a gesture of invitation.

With a gentle smile, Cheng Yuanyuan took the lead in the direction of the elevator.

They went to a nearby Chinese restaurant and started chatting after ordering a few dishes. "What business do you do, brother?" Cheng Yuanyuan couldn't help being curious and tried to ask.

"I've invested in a technology company, and I'm working on a mobile operating system recently."

"Wow, that's great." As soon as she heard of such a high-end thing, Cheng Yuanyuan immediately took a new look at Wu Tian.

"The operating system has only completed the preliminary architecture, which is far from success. We need to find someone to finance it."

"I'm sorry, if I didn't show up, you would have been able to raise money." When it comes to financing, Cheng Yuanyuan once again looks apologetic.

"How can we talk about this again?" Seeing that she was so depressed, Wu Tian took the initiative to change the subject: "by the way, tell me about you. How can you write a novel?"

"At first, I was totally interested in writing and playing with others. Later, when I found that I could make money, I put more energy into novels."

"It's amazing that you are so beautiful, you can eat by your face and work so hard." Wu Tian couldn't help but stretch out his thumb and praise.

"How can I be so beautiful as you say?"

"It's really beautiful. The temperament, appearance, skin color and figure are perfect. You should be the most beautiful female writer."

"Am I that beautiful?" Cheng Yuanyuan touched her face with her hands and felt a little embarrassed.

"Yes."

"Hee hee!" Cheng Yuanyuan smiles happily.

Just as the waiter brought the dishes to the table in turn, Wu Tian asked for a bottle of beer and asked Cheng Yuanyuan, "do you drink?"

"Why do you guys like to let girls drink?" Cheng Yuanyuan blinked two big eyes and asked back with a smile.

"I don't mean that." Wu Tian grabs his head awkwardly and explains, "I'm just asking politely."

"I don't drink, you drink!"

"Well!" Wu Tian nodded, then did not say any more, full of wine to drink.

When they were half eaten, the restaurant broke into a few unruly boys and walked straight to their table.

The three gangsters approached Wu Tian and yelled blatantly, "boy, someone asked us to teach you a lesson."

"Zhao Changfeng asked you to come?" Wu Tian didn't think about it. He knew that the three gangsters were sent by Zhao Changfeng.

CHAPTER 155:

"That's so much nonsense." When the three gangsters finished yelling, they were ready to start with their fists.

Scared Cheng Yuanyuan exclaimed, hastily reminded Wu Tian: "quick, let's run quickly."

"I'm here. Don't be afraid. I can handle it." Wu Tian gets up and protects Cheng Yuanyuan behind her, soothing the way in a gentle tone.

"But..."

Cheng Yuanyuan still couldn't hide her fear and uneasiness.

After all, there are too many hands on the other side. If the three gangsters are on together, Wu Tian's small size is definitely not an opponent.

In case of being broken, what can be done?

But before she finished, Wu Tian interrupted, "believe me, it will be OK."

"Oh

Seeing Wu Tian's confident eyes, Cheng Yuanyuan didn't say anything more. She just curled up in the back with fear on her face and nervousness in her heart.

"Boy, watch the fight." The three thugs raised their fists and clawed at Wu Tian, savagely like some mad cattle.

Wu Tian bit his teeth and saw several people approaching, so he grabbed the wine bottle on the table and smashed it down.

"Bang!"

With a dull sound, one of the thugs' head was opened directly, and his face was dyed red.

The other two gangsters were slightly stunned and rushed forward with more ferocity.

Wu Tian quickly pushed the table beside him and separated the two thugs. Then he jumped up and swept quickly with his right hand on the table. He easily kicked one of the thugs out.

After solving this gangster, Wu Tian didn't make any pause. He slipped down quickly and got out from under the table, kicking the third thug.

The kick just hit the Hun's knee. After a scream, he knelt on the ground and couldn't get up for half a day.

Seeing this scene, Cheng Yuanyuan was stunned.

She didn't expect that Wu Tian seemed weak and fierce in fighting, and that he would turn over the three gangsters with three punches and two feet.

I always thought that Tiange was just a rich boss. At this time, I found that the boy was not only rich, but also powerful and frightening.

Just now this fight has completely overturned her seriousness to Tiange. Her eyes are full of adoration and surprise.

"Go away!"

Wu Tian kicked the thugs and roared, "get out of here and don't let me see you again."

Without saying a word, the three gangsters got up from the ground and walked to the outside of the restaurant in dismay.

At this time, there is no more arrogance and tyranny before. Now it becomes like Sun Tzu, and his eyes are full of fear.

Three people may have never dreamed of, in front of them, it seems that the weak silly boy, the strength is so amazing.

"Tell Zhao Changfeng." Before several gangsters went out, Wu Tian said coldly, "let him not trouble me again. After all, I'm not easy to get into trouble with."

The three thugs didn't answer, and they were scared out of the restaurant and fled as fast as possible.

Until the gangster walked away, Wu Tiantian took out some bills from his pocket and handed them to the restaurant owner, "sorry, I broke your things. This is to compensate for your loss."

"It's OK. It's OK." The owner of the restaurant is trying to get angry. When Wu Tian takes out so much money, he is very happy.

"Miss Cheng, let's go." The restaurant made such a mess that there was no way to eat any more. Wu Tian had to take Cheng Yuanyuan out of the restaurant.

Out of the restaurant, Cheng Yuanyuan just can't help but worship: "brother, I didn't expect you to hide, so powerful."

"I've been practicing martial arts recently, and the effect is pretty good." Wu Tian grabs his head and explains with a smile.

"You are so strong and so good-natured. If any girl can marry you in the future, it's really a blessing for her."

"Don't praise me, I'll be proud." Wu Tian chuckled and turned aside the topic: "let's go. I'll take you home first."

"Good!" After answering, Cheng Yuanyuan followed Wu TianChao across the street, feeling as happy as honey.

First, she sent Cheng Yuanyuan home, and then Wu Tian returned to her residence.

After returning home, she opened Cheng Yuanyuan's novel. She hadn't read it for a long time, and found that it had been updated by more than 100000 words.

Simply hold the mobile phone and watch with relish.

The story of this book ups and downs, full of characters, rich feelings, some people can not extricate themselves.

Until the update of the number of words all read, but also immersed in it, endless aftertaste.

I can't believe that a girl in her twenties can write such an emotional story with rich experience.

After reading the novel, I went to take a bath, and then got into the study to learn the professional knowledge of economics and management.

Reading to very late, Long Yun sent over a bowl of Xingnao soup, without saying a word and quit the study.

I stayed up late at school.

After getting up the next day, Wu Tian didn't go anywhere. He rushed to school for class at the first time. He was worried that he would miss class again. Mr. Mu would come home to look for him again, and it would be difficult for him to hand over his work. Fortunately, Mr. Mu didn't say much this time. He just gave him a few meaningful glances and started the class.

The first two sections are all lessons for Mr. mu.

After the third class, he suddenly received a call from Li Mu: "boss Wu, it's bad. Something's wrong."

"What's going on?" Wu Tian brows a tight, hurriedly toward the mobile phone urgent voice to ask.

"Our new system has been attacked by hackers and is half paralyzed."

"How could that happen?"

"Two hackers from different regions are attacking our system and the situation is very bad."

"Our new system, has not been officially launched, how can encounter hackers?" Wu Tian couldn't help but whisper to himself.

The new system has not been officially launched, and it does not pose any threat to the competitors. The competitors do not need to find hackers to attack.

After a little meditation, Wu Tian's eyes lit up slightly and said to himself, "is it that he is behind the black hand?"

The first thought is Zhao Changfeng.

Yesterday, he offended Zhao Changfeng in Shangri La. With his vindictive character, he will surely find someone to do something secretly.

But I didn't expect that Zhao Changfeng was so despicable that he even looked for hackers to attack the new system and wanted them to die before the new project was launched.

"I have asked the technical personnel to return to the investigation, lock the other party's IP, I believe that we can find out the behind the scenes soon."

"Good." Wu Tian nodded his head and said to the mobile phone again: "let all the technicians of the company spare no effort to maintain our new system, and never let the system be destroyed by hackers."

"Don't worry. It's not so easy to destroy our new system. After all, we are not vegetarian." Li Mu's tone is obviously a little confident.

The technicians in the company have real skills and can play a role in the critical moment and take charge of the company alone.

"This event has sounded an alarm for us. Although the system is important, network security can not be ignored. It seems that we need to make a new set of security protection for the system as a barrier."

"Well, after this storm, we will make a set of security protection for the new system."

"Well, let me know as soon as you find out who's behind it." Wu Tian said this and hung up his cell phone.

CHAPTER 156:

Wu Tian has already guessed that it was Zhao Changfeng who was behind the scenes.

At present, it's just a guess. I'm not sure yet. I can only wait for the result to make a decision.

After answering the phone, he continued his class. After the fourth class, Li Mu called again.

Wu Tian connected the phone and asked in a quick voice: "did you find out who was behind the scenes? Who hacked our system?"

"The IP of both hackers came from Huafeng Group."

"He is indeed." The result is the same as Wu Tian's guess. It is Zhao Changfeng who makes people black handed behind his back.

"I just don't understand. We have no grudge against Huafeng Group. Why do they want to hack our system?" On the other end of the phone, Li Mu couldn't help asking out the doubts in his heart.

"It was me who had a conflict with Zhao Changfeng yesterday, so the old guy took the opportunity to revenge."

"What's the situation?"

"Yesterday afternoon, I was looking for Zhao Changfeng to raise money, but I fell out over a woman..." Wu Tian gave a brief account of what happened in the hotel yesterday.

After listening to the story, Li Mu immediately expressed his support: "boss Wu, you are right. You can't violate your conscience for the sake of business."

"You seem to think the same as I do."

"But if we offend Zhao Changfeng, I'm afraid it will be very troublesome. After all, Huafeng Group's strength is very strong."

"You don't have to worry about these things. I'll find a way to deal with them. You can deal with the company's affairs." Wu Tian said this and hung up his cell phone.

After the phone call, he was absent from class and left the classroom.

At present, we must deal with the hackers, otherwise we have no idea to teach here.

Sneaking out of the classroom, the result met Mu ran.

At the sight of this woman, Wu Tian's heart murmured that he was caught stealing something.

"Classmate Wu." Mu Ran's face was flat, holding the teacher's posture and asking: "you don't have classes in the classroom, what do you want to do furtively?"

"I have a stomachache and want to go to the bathroom." Wu Tian quickly found an excuse and lied.

But how can he deceive teacher mu with such a lie? When he was about to expose him, "don't think I don't know, do you want to sneak out of class?"

"I..."

For a while, Wu Tian's face became more ugly than balsam pear.

Teacher Mu is an old man in the world. It seems that it is not so easy to muddle through from her.

"Mr. Wu, you wrote me a letter of guarantee that I won't be absent from class in the future. Why do you want to be absent from class again?" Mu ran sternly rebuked.

"I'm sorry, Mr. mu. I was wrong." Wu Tian apologized and explained, "there's something urgent in the company that I need to deal with."

"You are a student now. Even if you have a big problem, you should focus on your studies. Go to the classroom and have a class."

"This..."

"What? Don't my words work? "

"No, it's not." Wu Tian quickly waved his hand, and then his tone changed: "by the way, Mr. mu, you had severe dysmenorrhea in my house last time. Are you better?"

"Cough!" Muran coughed twice.

Referring to this matter, her face became extremely embarrassed, and whispered: "classmate Wu, didn't you tell me about it? Don't mention the last thing."

She didn't want to let her classmates know that the night at Wu Tian's house had damaged her reputation and reputation.

"Mr. Mu stayed in my house for a night because of dysmenorrhea. We didn't do anything shady between us. What are we afraid of?" Wu Tian raised his voice deliberately, for fear that others would not hear it.

"Shh!"

Muran made a silent gesture, turned around to look around, and confirmed that no talent dragged Wu Tian's sleeve to the corner.

"Wu, what you said last time was good. Don't mention it again. How can you still say that?"

For her, the topic of staying overnight in a student's home is very sensitive. Once it comes out, she will have no face.

"I'm sorry, Mr. mu. I don't know what to do with my mouth today. I'm afraid I'll go back to the classroom and talk nonsense again." Wu Tian pretended to be clever.

The fool can see that he is deliberately threatening teacher mu.

"You..." Mu ran angry corner of the mouth mercilessly: "Wu classmate, what do you want?"

I really regret that I spent the night in Wu Tian's house last time, but I was caught by this boy. Now it's really troublesome.

"There is something urgent in my company. I want to ask for leave for half a day. I hope the teacher will approve." Wu Tian pleaded with a smile.

"What if I don't agree?"

"If the students know that Mr. Mu is staying at my house for the night, they will certainly have a lot of thoughts and maybe distort the facts."

"Are you threatening me?"

"I dare not."

"You..." Muran gas of gnashing teeth, but take this boy has no way, finally had to compromise: "forget it, forget it, I allow you to leave."

"Thank you, Mr. mu." After thanking Wu Tian, he quickly left here, leaving Mr. Mu sulking alone. "This son of a bitch, more and more daring." Mu ran angrily scolded and turned into the classroom.

After Wu Tian left school, he asked Uncle Fugui to send him to Huafeng Group.

He wanted to talk to Zhao Changfeng again. He had no deep hatred and didn't want to fight for it.

Huafeng Group is worthy of being a large company. Its office building is magnificent and magnificent, standing on Changfeng street like a bear eagle.

Wu Tian enters the hall of Huafeng Group and is stopped by the security guard and the front desk. After a lot of hard work, Wu Tian finally meets Zhao Changfeng in the chairman's office.

Zhao Changfeng sat behind his desk with a white porcelain teacup in his hand. His eyes were sharp and cold.

"Boss Zhao."

Wu Tian called out without being humble or arrogant, and said without expression: "calling you boss Zhao is because you are older than me. This is mutual respect between people."

"Come on, what can I do for you?" Zhao Changfeng took a sip of tea and squinted at Wu Tian.

"I want to make up with you this time." Wu Tian approached two steps and said in a gentle tone, "enemies are easy to resolve, but not suitable to be married. I hope we all put down our gratitude and resentment and treat each other honestly."

"So you are afraid?" The corner of Zhao Changfeng's mouth rose and a winning smile appeared on his face.

In his opinion, the boy was afraid to admit his advice and took the initiative to seek peace.

"I'm not afraid. I just don't think it's necessary. The fight between us is not good for anyone."

"Ha ha ha..."

Zhao Changfeng raised his hair and laughed wildly. After laughing for a long time, he couldn't help but hit him: "young man, you take yourself seriously. With my strength, it's easier to crush you than to strangle ants."

"I admit, you Huafeng Group is very strong, but I Wu Tian is not soft persimmon, not so easy to pinch."

"In my eyes, you are not even as good as persimmons." Zhao Changfeng put down his teacup and said with a smile, "I'm just looking for someone to attack your system. Your company is flying like a horse."

"You, chairman of Huafeng Group, don't think it's beneath your dignity to use such dirty means?"

"You are still too young." Zhao Changfeng wryly smiles and shakes his head. He says in a oppressive tone: "the winner is the king, the loser is the enemy. The means are not important."

CHAPTER 157:

"Do you really think you can bring our company down with this method?" Wu Tian's tone was a little cold.

Originally with sincerity to come to reconciliation, but the other party's attitude let him down.

"It's just a little trick for me." Zhao Changfeng slowly clenched his fist and said grimly, "I have a hundred ways to defeat you."

"Boss Zhao, you are now trapped in a besieged city. You always feel that you are the most corrupt and neglect the existence of others."

"I'm not ready for you to teach me." Zhao Changfeng shook his hand and exclaimed impatiently,

"I don't welcome you here, please."

"Boss Zhao, it's still that sentence. I hope we can reconcile."

"Do you really want to reconcile with me?"

"Yes."

"That's very simple. As long as you find the girl named Cheng to accompany me, I'll make up with you." Zhao Changfeng, biting his teeth, proposed such a condition.

It is also because of Cheng Yuanyuan that they fell out before.

"I shouldn't have come to you." Wu Tian sneered and was extremely disappointed with Zhao Changfeng's face.

I didn't expect that the old man would not change his mind and still want to get Cheng Yuanyuan. It's really shameless.

"Well, I'll change it." Zhao Changfeng tone a turn, and then made a request: "as long as you kneel down and apologize to me, I can let you go."

This guy used to make him lose face. Now he needs to find face in this way.

"It's impossible for me to die on my knees." Wu Tian resolutely refused, even if his head was under the knife, he would not kneel down.

"If you're so tough, there's nothing to say."

"So boss Zhao is determined to fight me?"

"No, I'm not fighting you." Zhao Changfeng shook his fingers and said in a cold and sharp tone: "I trampled on you."

"In that case, I will accompany you to the end." Wu Tian said this and turned to walk outside the office.

If he had known that, he should not have come to see Zhao Changfeng.

It seems that the old man is determined to bring him down. There is no other way out now. He can only face the difficulties.

Before going out of the room, I heard Zhao Changfeng's cold voice: "boy, one day, I'll make you kneel on the ground and plead bitterly. Please let me let you live."

"This day will never come." Wu Tian left without looking back.

It seems that the struggle with Zhao Changfeng is inevitable.

Zhao Changfeng has Huafeng Group behind him, a giant financial group, which is more terrifying than any opponent he met before.

But he won't admit it. No matter how tough his opponent is, he won't shrink back.

Out of the company, he would touch out his mobile phone and dial Long Yun's phone.

After getting through the phone, I heard the mechanical voice of Longyun from the mobile phone: "young master, what can I do for you?"

"Have you heard of Huafeng Group?" Wu Tian was not in a hurry to answer, but asked the mobile phone.

"Luzhou is one of the top ten financial groups in the whole city. I've heard that there are many monopoly industries in Luzhou."

"How long will it take us the Wu family to destroy Huafeng Group?"

"This..." Long Yun's voice pauses for a few seconds, can't help but ask: "young master, why destroy Huafeng Group?"

"When you meet wild animals in the mountains and want to eat you, you are either eaten or killed by wild animals." Wu Tian gave such a euphemistic explanation.

There is no explicit explanation about the enmity between him and Zhao Changfeng, but this metaphor is used to illustrate the current situation between him and Huafeng Group.

"Huafeng Group is a large financial group. With the strength and power of our Wu family, it will take three days to eliminate them." Long Yun replied coldly.

"OK, then you can arrange for Huafeng Group to disappear in Luzhou."

"It's a matter of great importance. I need to consult the old gentleman."

"And grandfather's consent?"

"Yes."

"Forget it." Wu Tian thought for a moment and made a decision decisively: "Huafeng Group doesn't need the family to come forward, I'll find a way to deal with it myself."

Every time I encounter a tiger in the way, I'll let the family solve it. Since then, I'll let my grandfather look down on him.

He decided to deal with Zhao Changfeng and Huafeng Group in person, not relying on family power, which was also a kind of exercise and growth for him.

"Young master, do you really want to compete with Huafeng Group with your personal strength?" Longyun's tone is a little worried.

"Yes."

"Young master, I don't look down on you. To confront Huafeng Group with your current strength is tantamount to hitting the stone with an egg."

"Huafeng Group is like a giant stone. I can't break it by myself, but I can find a lever to lift it up." Wu Tian made such an analogy.

"But..."

"Well, you don't have to worry about it." Wu Tian said this and hung up his cell phone.

After making this call, Li Mu called Li Mu and said to his mobile phone, "let people investigate the detailed information of Huafeng Group and Zhao Changfeng. The more detailed, the better." Hang up the phone and he's wandering around the street.

It seems calm, but in fact it is a little anxious.

He was just growing up. He didn't grow up in the business world. For the first time, he fought against such a big Mac with his personal strength, and he was inevitably flustered.

If the head-on encounter is definitely not possible, we must find a shortcut and find a way to defeat the opponent from the side.

Just when he was thinking about Huafeng Group, he ran into a girl accidentally.

The girl was wearing a miniskirt and dressed up in fashion. The people who were bumped up and down almost fell.

"I'm sorry, are you ok?" Wu Tian quickly reached for the girl's arm and apologized.

"Don't touch me." The short skirt girl impatiently pushed Wu Tian aside, glared at her eyes and swore, "why don't you walk with long eyes? Are you blind?"

"Can you speak well?" Wu Tian bumped into a person. He knew that he was in trouble. He had already apologized. He didn't expect that the girl in front of him still opened his mouth to curse.

Originally the mood is not good, was scolded by this girl, immediately angry.

"If I don't speak well, I scold you for being blind. What's the matter?" On the contrary, the short skirt girl is more arrogant.

This kind of girl, a look even if jiaosheng habitually raise, was spoiled.

"Yes, I am blind." Wu Tian said these words, again hit the girl's chest.

I'm going to teach this girl a lesson. I'll see if she dare to be so arrogant and arrogant in the future.

"Ah, hiss..."

The short skirt girl covered her chest pain and took several breaths of cold air. Her tears almost rolled out.

After a long time of pain, she was like a wild Tigress and yelled: "little bastard, how dare you bump into me."

"Sorry, I'm blind. I can't see anything." Wu Tian said these words, again hit the girl's chest.

"Ah..."

The girl screamed with pain and her tears rolled down.

A part of the body has been hit twice in a row, and the pain is hard to understand.

She tried to endure the pain and roared, "son of a bitch, you are clearly deliberately bumping into me."

"I didn't mean to. I was really blind." Wu Tian finished saying this and was ready to bump into it.

CHAPTER 158:

The girl in the short skirt covered her body and retreated. At the same time, she couldn't help but threaten: "asshole, you dare to bump into me and take advantage of me. Do you know who I am?"

"I don't know."

"I tell you, I'm Miss Huang family, Huang Shanshan."

"Whatever you are, just leave me alone." Wu Tian looks up with a smile and is ready to leave.

To tell you the truth, he saw a lot of such unruly and domineering young ladies, and he was born with a lack of education.

"Son of a bitch, do you want to go after you hit miss Ben?" Huang Shanshan put her hands on her hips and ran in front of Wu Tian.

I've never been bullied and humiliated before. This time I was bumped into that part by a gangster. Naturally, it's impossible to give up.

"Do you want to stay with me for the night?" Wu Tian joked.

"You, you, you..."

Huang Shanshan's angry corner of the mouth smoked for a long time, then scolded: "you are a dead rogue, stinky rascal."

"I don't want to talk to you. Get out of here." Wu Tian waved his hand impatiently, and didn't want to keep pestering with the girl.

"I won't let it."

"Let's go."

"Miss Ben just won't let me." Huang Shanshan put her hands on her hips in front of her, with an expression that she would not make way for her death.

"Really not?"

"I won't let you die."

"Don't blame me for being rude." Wu Tian said these words and directly lifted Huang Shanshan from the ground.

Huang Shanshan yelled and clapped her hands on Wu Tian's shoulder. "Son of a bitch, beast, beast, pervert, what do you want, quick Let me go. "

"I think you're wet garbage." Wu Tian takes Huang Shanshan and throws her into the Yellow trash can.

A strong stench swept over, almost did not make people faint.

"Ouch..."

After a bout of retching, Huang Shanshan yelled in her voice, "asshole, get me out of here."

"I think you look like garbage because you're in the trash can." Wu Tianpai clapped his hands, turned and walked away quickly.

After a long walk, you can still hear Huang Shanshan's scolding voice: "son of a bitch, you bastard, miss I'm at odds with you. I must kill you..."

Wu Tian turned a deaf ear to the curse and strode across the street, leaving Huang Shanshan vomiting in the garbage can.

Walking along the street, it took me more than 50 minutes to get home. Remembering that uncle Fugui was still waiting in Huafeng Group, he called quickly.

After returning home, Wu Tian didn't go anywhere, reading alone in his study.

When he finished reading an economics book, he looked up and found that Long Yun was not far away from him.

This woman is like a wood, motionless, I don't know she was a sculpture.

Wu Tian put down his books and couldn't help but wonder: "Secretary long, when did you come in?"

"Ten minutes ago." Long Yun's expressionless light reply.

"You don't feel like wood." Wu Tian patted his chest. Ban jokingly said, "fortunately, it's the day. At night, I'll be scared to death by you."

"Young master will be afraid too?"

"No one will be afraid."

"The young master dares to compete with Huafeng Group. This kind of courage is not comparable to that of ordinary people." The expression on Long Yun's face is still cold and proud.

Wu Tian seems to have heard the implication: "are you laughing at Ben Shao, think I am deliberately trying to be brave?"

"I dare not."

"Remember your identity, you are just my secretary, remember to knock on the door, do not enter my room without my permission." Wu Tian held the young master's arms and ordered.

"Yes."

"By the way, what can I do for you?"

"I still think that the risk is too big, with young master's current strength, not enough to compete with Huafeng Group."

"It's a matter of discretion."

"I need to report this to the old man. After all, it's very important. I'll call him now." Long Yun said this and turned to walk outside the study.

"Wait!"

Wu Tianyan drops to slip around a few circles, quickly called to stop Long Yun, ordered: "in the study to call grandfather, open hands-free."

"The young master wants to eavesdrop on my conversation with the old man?"

"That's so much nonsense. You just think I don't exist and call quickly." Wu Tian wants to hear his grandfather's opinion on this matter.

"Yes

After Long Yun answers, he takes out his mobile phone and dials Wu Zhi and the phone in front of Wu Tian, and turns on the hands-free.

After the phone was connected, Wu Zhi and impatient voice came from inside: "what's the matter, just say it!"

"Mr. Wu, the young master wants to fight against Huafeng Group this time, but he only wants to rely on his own strength, not the family forces." Long Yun is concise and comprehensive to the phone.

The other end of the phone immersed in a few seconds, before Wu Zhihe's voice: "that boy is now wings hard, want to break away from the arms of the family, to fly high." "Mr. Wu, I'm calling to ask your opinion."

"Since the stinky boy wants to deal with Huafeng Group by himself, let him do it."

"Huafeng Group is one of the top ten consortia in Luzhou. Its strength can not be underestimated. I'm afraid that the young master's current personal strength can't defeat Huafeng Group at all." Long Yun said the secret worry in the heart to the telephone.

"It's a good thing for the boy to challenge. I believe in him." On the other end of the phone, Wu Zhihe's tone was a little gratified.

"But..."

"All right." Wu Zhihe interrupted impatiently and said in a deep voice: "let Xiaotian do it first. If he can't handle it well, we can help him."

After this, Wu Zhihe hung up on his mobile phone.

Long Yun looked at the mobile phone stupefied for a few seconds, slowly raised his head and looked at Wu Tian, "did you hear the old man's words?"

"It seems that my grandfather still trusts me." After listening to my grandfather's conversation, Wu Tian couldn't help but feel happy.

"But I'm still worried..."

"Wait a minute." Wu Tian looked at Long Yun with that kind of scrutinizing eyes and couldn't help but wonder: "Secretary long, do you care so much about Ben Shao, do you fall in love with Ben Shao?"

"The young master thinks too much." Long Yun complexion is embarrassed, coldly says: "I went out first."

With this she turned and walked away.

"Hello..." Wu Tian also wants to talk, looking at the back of Long Yun's leaving, and can only swallow what he wants to say.

Did the joke go too far?

Would you like to apologize to long Mi Shu?

Forget it, he is a young master at least. Apologizing to the secretary is demeaning. Let him be angry if he is angry!

Just as he was about to continue reading, the mobile phone rang. It was an email sent to him by Li Mu.

The content of the email is about Zhao Changfeng and Huafeng Group's detailed information, including the company's manpower, finance, structure and Zhao Changfeng's personal privacy.

Wu Tian opens the e-mail and looks at the content carefully, thinking about how to deal with Zhao Changfeng.

After careful consideration, Wu Tian soon saw the weakness of Huafeng Group from these materials.

Through the report, it is found that there are obvious problems in the company's financial affairs. It seems that there is tax evasion.

CHAPTER 159:

Wu Tian found that there was tax evasion in Huafeng Group through the information in his hand. If he could find the basis, he could drink a pot.

But Huafeng Group is a big company after all. It's not so easy to investigate them. I'm afraid it can't be done with Wu Tian's current personal strength.

What to do now?

After thinking about it for a long time, I suddenly got a light and opened the information in the email again.

Through Zhao Changfeng's personal privacy, we can find that the old guy has made many enemies in the mall. One of his opponents is Jiang Dahua, the boss of Jinhua Group.

From this information, we can see that Jiang Dahua and Zhao Changfeng are enemies. They fight each other in the business world.

After reading this information, Wu Tian's mouth rose, showing a little proud smile.

Take advantage of it.

With Wu Tian's own strength, he can't fight Zhao Changfeng.

But if we use the enemy's power to deal with him, we can get twice the result with half the effort.

Yes, he intends to use Jiang Dahua's power to deal with Zhao Changfeng, which is much easier.

After making this decision, he got up and left the study, ready to find Long Yun to help investigate Jiang Dahua's information.

In order to cooperate with Jiang Dahua, we must first find out the truth and falsehood of this person.

Secretary Long lives in a room not far from him. He goes to the room and finds that the door is not locked. He pushes the door and rushes in.

As soon as I entered the door, I was dumbfounded.

Long Yun has just taken a bath and is changing her pajamas in her room. At this time, she has already taken off her bath towel and has not had time to put on her pajamas.

The perfect figure is displayed to your heart's content, which is extremely dazzling. Anyway, Wu Tian is a fool to see.

"Ah

Long Yun carrying a nightgown has not had time to wear, to see Wu Tianchuang in, scared of a cry, quickly grabbed a bath towel wrapped in the body, pretty face instantly crimson and hot.

"Young master, why did you break in without knocking at the door?" Long Yun bit teeth, some angry blame way.

In fact, he has already locked the door, but there is something wrong with the lock. Sometimes it can be opened from the outside.

But she did not expect, the young master suddenly burst into the room, before the young master would never take the initiative to enter her room.

"I am a young master. Knock on the door." Wu Tian has a bit of domineering head up, and did not show the appearance of doing wrong.

He is at least a young master. A young master should look like a young master. Even if he does something wrong, he can't admit it.

"But you You look at me. " Long Yun is full of shame and indignation.

At the thought of being looked at by the young master, she felt unwilling.

This is the first time that she has been seen by a man, and she is still a young master of her own family. She feels embarrassed to think about it.

"So what? Do you want to dig out this little eyeball?" Wu Tian asked in a strong voice.

"I dare not Long Yun gnawed his teeth for a long time, and finally could only spit out two words weakly.

Being looked at by the young master, what else can I do? I can only admit that I'm unlucky.

After all, this is her own young master, let alone look at her body, even if she is a disaster, she can only swallow the bitter fruit.

"Secretary long, why don't you lock the door when you change clothes?" Wu Tian's tone softened a little bit. After all, it was his fault. After all, seeing Secretary Long's body, he could not be so strong all the time.

"The door lock is broken."

"It can't be blamed on Ben Shao. It's all on your lock."

"Yes."

"I'll have it repaired some other day."

"Good." Long Yun raised his head and glanced at Wu Tian. He asked, "is there something you can do for me so late?"

"I came here to let you investigate Jiang Dahua of Jinhua Group. I need his detailed information. The more detailed, the better." The reason why Wu Tian gives this little thing to Long Yun is that she is very efficient.

"Why investigate Jiang Dahua?"

"Don't ask why, just do what you want."

"Yes."

"As soon as possible." Wu Tian said this and turned away from the room.

"Hoo!"

Long Yun secretly breathed a breath, went to the anti lock door, again took off the bath towel, ready to put on the nightdress.

Just took off the bath towel, the results of the door was pushed open, see Wu Tian again returned to the room.

She quickly picked up the towel and wrapped it on her body in a panic. She scolded softly, "young master, why don't you knock on the door?"

It's really unexpected that the young master went back and forth, broke into the room again, and saw her body again.

In this way, she was twice taken advantage of by the young man.

"I forgot to tell you something." Wu Tian grabs his head and looks embarrassed.

"What words?"

"You have a great figure. Your skin is full of water. It's very nice." Wu Tian reached out his thumb and praised a few words. He closed the door again and left quickly.

"....."

Long Yun full of black lines, a face silly looking at the door, do not know what to say, but the cheek is getting more and more red. I just took the young master's advice and came back to say this kind of nonsense.

She even suspected that the young master came back to peep at her again.

It seems that she has to get the door fixed as soon as possible. She doesn't want this embarrassing thing to happen all the time.

I'm afraid I'll get into my pajamas and I'll start to change my heart.

This night, Wu Tian didn't sleep well. He was lying on the bed alone, thinking about his own thoughts.

Wu Tian was worried. He didn't expect that his grandfather would find him a woman with such a hot body and perfect face as his secretary.

Since seeing the perfect figure of secretary long, he felt itchy in his heart, and his whole body was inexplicably irritable.

I didn't fall asleep until three o'clock in the morning.

The next morning I was awakened by a sudden knock on the door.

Put on clothes and go to open the door, see Long Yun standing outside the door in formal dress, not as shy as last night, recovered from the cold.

"Young master, why are your eyes so dark?" Long Yun slightly coagulates eyebrow, don't understand way.

Wu Tian rubbed his eyes and complained, "the black circles on my face are all due to you."

"This What does it have to do with me? "

"Ben Shao saw you in perfect shape last night and stayed up all night excited."

"Er..." Long Yun looks embarrassed.

I had almost forgotten what happened last night. After hearing this, my cheeks blushed again.

The young master is really a cheap girl. He takes advantage of her health and finds trouble with her in the end.

Wu Tian grabs his head awkwardly, and can't help asking, "what can I do for you so early in the morning?"

"This is Jiang Dahua's information." Long Yun took out a document from the bag and handed it to him.

"So fast?" Wu Tian was surprised to take over the information. He knew that Secretary long was very efficient, but he didn't expect that the speed was so amazing. He managed the work in one night.

Quickly took over the information, opened a look very satisfied with a smile: "good, beautiful work."

"Do you have any other orders, young master?"

"It's OK. You can have a good rest." Wu Tian finished saying this, he took the information and walked outside. After a few steps, he suddenly turned back: "Secretary long, I think you can best show your figure in jeans."

CHAPTER 160:

"Er..."

Referring to the two words of body, Long Yun seems to think of something. Her cheeks become red and hot again, and her expression is extremely embarrassed.

Always feel that the young master is deliberately teasing her, or is it her illusion?

But on second thought, even if the young master is really teasing her, it seems that it is not a big deal.

As long as the young master doesn't do anything too much for her, everything can be accepted.

Through the recent period of time together, found that the young master's character is not bad, should not have that kind of excessive request to her.

I found that the young master had already left the room.

After Wu Tian left home, he asked Uncle Fu Gui to send him to Jinhua Group.

I'm going to discuss with Jiang Dahua and work together to deal with Zhao Changfeng.

It's not easy to meet the boss of the so-called big company. When he came to Jinhua Group, he was blocked by his secretary and asked to make an appointment in advance.

Wu Tian finally broke into the chairman's office when the Secretary didn't pay attention.

Sitting in the office is a middle-aged man, more than 40 years old, looking a little old, obviously is the performance of energy and body overdraft.

This is the director of Jinhua Group, Changjiang Dahua. Seeing an unexpected guest breaking into the office, he immediately scolded his secretary: "what's the matter?"

The secretary was frightened and sweating on his forehead. He explained with trembling, "I don't want this gentleman to come in. I can't stop him."

"What is he looking for me for?"

"I don't know."

"Forget it, you go down first." Jiang Dahai waves his hand impatiently and says to the secretary.

"Yes." The Secretary wiped the sweat on his forehead and walked out of the room.

Before leaving, he couldn't help but glare at Wu Tian. He had never met such a cheeky boy before.

After the secretary left, Jiang Dahai leaned back on the chair, held the shelf and asked in a deep voice, "what can I do for you to break into my office?"

"Boss Jiang, I've come to see you for important cooperation." Wu Tian finished saying this and handed the famous film from his pocket.

After taking the dough, Jiang Dahua looked up again at Wu Tian, "are you the boss of Tianmu technology company?"

"Yes."

"Come on, what can I do for you?"

"I want to work with you."

"Small companies like you are not qualified to cooperate with us." Jiang Dahua waved his hand impatiently and did not pay attention to Wu Tian, the boss of a small technology company.

Compared with Jinhua Group, Tianmu technology has a small volume, which is like the difference between an elephant and an ant.

"Don't be in a hurry to say no, wait for me to finish speaking." Wu Tian is quite calm, with a faint smile on his face from beginning to end.

"Well, I'll see what you say."

"I heard that you Jinhua Group and Huafeng Group are competitive, and you and Zhao Changfeng are enemies."

"So what?"

"Mr. Jiang, do you dream of ruining Zhao Changfeng?"

"It doesn't seem to have anything to do with you."

"Jiang Dong should understand that the enemy of the enemy is his friend."

"I think I understand." Jiang Dahai leaned his body on the chair and spoke faintly: "you have a feud with Zhao Changfeng, so I want to kill Zhao Changfeng with my hand."

"Mr. Jiang Dong deserves to be a wise man."

"You're very good at calculating."

"See you." Wu Tian chuckled and said without concealment: "Zhao Changfeng wants to defeat me, but I can't fight Zhao Changfeng with my strength. That's why I found you. I hope we can unite to fight against Zhao."

"I have my own way to deal with Zhao Changfeng. I don't need to unite with you." Jiang Dahua refused without politeness.

With the strength of his Jinhua Group, he does not need to cooperate with a small boss of a technology company.

"Mr. Jiang, I think you understand better than anyone that the strength of Jinhua Group and Changfeng Group is not much different, and no one can destroy anyone. But if you add a small weight, the outcome will be very different."

"You boy, you'd better stay cool. I won't cooperate with you." Jiang Dahua finished saying this, reached out and made a gesture of invitation: "walk slowly, don't send off."

"Don't worry."

Wu Tian didn't intend to leave, but walked slowly to his desk. "I suggest Jiang Dong think about it again."

"Don't think about it. You go."

"I heard that Jiang Dong often went to Xiyuan recently."

"You What do you mean

"I mean, Jiang Dong went to Xiyuan, your wife should not know."

"You..." Jiang Dahua frowned a few times and his tone became dignified. "What do you want to say?"

"Well, let me be clear. Jiang Dong hid a woman named Liu Mei in Xiyuan with his wife on his back. She was pregnant and had a miscarriage not long ago. Am I right?"

, "boy, how dare you spy on me." Jiang Dahua's body trembled and his whole body was filled with anger. "Only when you know yourself and your enemy can you win a hundred battles."

"What the hell do you want?"

"It doesn't mean anything else. I just want to cooperate with Mr. Jiang and seek common prosperity together." The smile on Wu Tian's face was like a ripple.

"Are you trying to threaten me?"

"I think so."

"Boy, you should know what's wrong with me."

"As I said, I don't want to be your enemy, I just want to be your partner." Wu Tian slowly straightened up and said sincerely, "it's no good for me to be hostile to you."

"You..."

Jiang Dahua originally wanted to get angry, but soon he suppressed his anger and asked coldly, "do you really want to deal with Zhao Changfeng with me?"

"Of course."

"Zhao Changfeng's old fox is not easy to deal with."

"I know that, but I found the financial weakness of Huafeng Group." Wu Tian said that and took out a few pieces of detailed information on the table.

After reading the materials, Jiang Dahua suddenly saw a light: "boy, how did you find out these?"

"There are many elites in our company. There is no difficulty in hacking into other companies' financial systems." Wu Tianyi said with complacency.

As for the financial statements of Huafeng Group, Li Mu brought several brothers of the company together yesterday.

Zhao Changfeng can let hackers hack his company's system, and he can let his company's technicians hack into Huafeng's financial system.

You know, Li Muhua's highly paid technicians are not eating dry rice. They have amazing skills in this respect.

"Good boy, it seems that I underestimated you." Jiang Dahua couldn't help but look at Wu Tian with a new look.

It seems that the boy who can get the financial black curtain of Huafeng Group is not an oil-saving lamp, so we can't underestimate it.

"What flaws can you see from this financial statement?" Wu Tian pointed to the information and asked Jiang Dahua with a smile.

"Their company is obviously tax dodging." Jiang Dahua how smart, a glance to see Huafeng Group's greasy.

"What is Jiang Dong's plan?"

"I have already sent someone to work as an undercover in Huafeng Group. Now I will let him report to Huafeng Group. I want Huafeng and Zhao Changfeng to die completely." Having said this, Jiang Dahua quickly took out his mobile phone and called.
