

CHAPTER 21:

After the two of them signed the contract, they chatted about some of the details of the cooperation. After reaching an agreement, they each left.

When they walked out of the coffee shop, Loong Yun looked at Wu Tian strangely, "Young Master, I didn't expect you to be so bold in business negotiations."

"Is that so?" Wu Tian grinned. Being able to get the confirmation of his secretary, Loong Yun, made him feel a sense of accomplishment.

To be honest, he didn't have any confidence at the time.

However, he understood one thing. Cooperation had to be mutually beneficial, both to maximize one's own benefits and to take into account the demands of others.

Cooperation can be achieved only when the interests of both sides coincide at a certain point.

"However, I still feel that investing in seafood is too risky ..."

"Stop!" Wu Tian interrupted Loong Yun and said with a smile, "Now that we've invested all the money, it's too late to say anything. Instead of trembling in fear, we might as well fight it out with all our might."

"That makes sense. This is all we can do now."

"I'm in a good mood today. Let's go, I'll treat you to a meal." After Wu Tian said this, he pulled Loong Yun to a nearby restaurant.

While eating, the phone rang. He took out the phone and saw that it was a call from Teacher Mu Rann.

He quickly picked up the call and put on a well-behaved face. He then asked, "Teacher Mu, is there anything for me?"

"Classmate Wu, you haven't come to class for a few days, what's going on?" On the other end of the phone, Mu Rann's tone was as cold as usual.

"My stomach's been hurting for the past few days. I feel a bit uncomfortable." Wu Tian quickly found an excuse and explained to his phone.

"Does it still hurt? Did you go to the hospital for an examination?" Mu Rann's tone suddenly became much gentler.

This made Wu Tian a little uncomfortable. He didn't expect the usually fierce and beautiful teacher to have a gentle side to him.

After muttering to herself irresolutely for a moment, she hurriedly spoke into the phone, "Teacher Mu, I'm fine now. I'll come to class tomorrow."

"Alright, don't be late tomorrow."

"Alright, goodbye teacher." When Wu Tian finished his call, he noticed that his secretary, Loong Yun, was a little distracted as she held the chopsticks.

He waved his hand in front of Loong Yun's eyes and asked with concern, "Secretary Loong, what are you thinking about?"

"Nothing." Loong Yun came back to her senses and lowered her head to continue eating.

Seeing Loong Yun in such a state, Wu Tian couldn't help but tease her, "Secretary Loong, is it because you've been single for too long?"

"No."

"Did you talk about boyfriends?"

"Nope."

"A woman with such a good figure like you, not dating is simply a waste. Don't be depressed, this young master will introduce a boyfriend for you another day." Wu Tian was in a good mood and joked around endlessly.

After dinner, the two returned to their residence.

It's still early, let's go to the study and continue reading.

Seeing a futures book, Wu Tian was deeply touched, and he couldn't help but try to buy a million yuan of futures online.

After he bought it, he went back to his book. When he opened the phone before going to sleep, he found that the futures he bought had risen to over eight million.

"What the f * ck!"

Wu Tian was so excited that he jumped up and down. His eyes were fixated on the numbers on the computer screen. He never thought that in such a short period of time, the profit would increase by more than eight times.

Making money was way too freaking fast. Making a few hundred thousand in just a few hours was even more satisfying than robbing a bank.

Just as he was about to excitedly continue, the computer suddenly crashed and died.

"Pah!"

He never expected to fail at such a critical moment. Wu Tian was so angry that he slammed the table.

It seemed that he had to change to a better computer and rely on it to earn money in the future.

It took him a long time to turn on the computer, but when he opened the futures interface, he found that the 8 million yuan had gone down by more than a million.

Dammit, he lost over a million in just a few minutes.

Just like today, his heart had been beating wildly. In just a few hours, he had earned over seven million, and then suffered a huge loss of over a million.

This was too damn exciting, it felt like a roller coaster.

Seeing that there was still a downward trend, Wu Tian was so scared that he quickly withdrew his money and returned the remaining 7 million yuan to his account.

Although this thing could earn money quickly, it could also lose money fast. In the worst-case scenario, they might even lose their capital in a short period of time.

"Hu!"

After the operation was completed, Wu Tian let out a long sigh as he sat on the chair. The great rise and fall just now had made his heart beat even faster.

If the water in the fund was too deep, he might just sink into the water and be irreparable.

From the looks of it, he would not be able to play with the fund anymore. At the moment, he did not lack money, and it would be troublesome if he were to get involved.

After turning off the computer, he went to bed. The next day, Wu Tian got up early and rushed to school, afraid that he would be scolded by Teacher Mu Rann if he was late again.

Wu Tian didn't have any classes for a few days, so he stayed in the classroom obediently and left after a few compulsory classes.

The computer in his house was not well-prepared, so he decided to buy a better computer to avoid another crash last night.

This was the largest computer market in the Luzhou, and there were all sorts of computers that could be bought here.

Guangmei City was divided into two areas. The A district was where high-end computers were concentrated, while the B district's computers were relatively weaker. They were all ordinary home computers.

Wu Tian walked around the area B for a bit. He felt that the computers inside were too terrible, so he decided to just come to area A.

These were all high-end computers. Even the cheapest one would cost more than 10,000 yuan. There were even workstations with tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of yuan.

Wu Tian was quite satisfied with these computers. However, after walking around here for a long time, no one paid any attention to them. They were completely treated as air by the bosses at the counter.

"Auntie, I want to buy a better computer." Wu Tian walked over and said to one of the counter owners with a smile.

"You want to buy a computer?" The middle-aged woman glanced at Wu Tian with that appraising gaze, her eyes were filled with disdain and despise.

"Yes!" Wu Tian nodded and smiled: "Can you recommend one to me?"

"Do you see the B area on the other side? The computers there are all very cheap and more suitable for you." The middle-aged woman pointed to the other side and said sarcastically.

With that said, she started to get busy, too lazy to bother with this poor, penniless loser in front of her.

Seeing his aunt looking down on him with her dog eyes, Wu Tian shook his head with a bitter smile. He didn't say anything more, turned around and walked towards the counter.

After walking a few steps, he heard a shout: "Wu Tian!"

Turning his head, he saw a man standing behind the computer counter opposite him, smiling at him arrogantly.

Da Gang?

This man was none other than his high school classmate, Da Gang.

Beside Da Gang stood a beautiful girl. She was his high school girlfriend, Li Qing. She wore thick makeup and wore gold and silver clothing, giving her the demeanor of a boss.

Seeing the couple, Wu Tian felt as if his heart was pierced by needles and his mood instantly became depressed.

To be honest, he hadn't expected to meet his high school ex-girlfriend here either.

Looking at the familiar face of the lady before his eyes, his mind raced, and memories of the past surfaced in his mind.

CHAPTER 22:

At that time, he and Li Qing got along pretty well. The two were a perfect match for each other, and many of his classmates were very envious.

Unfortunately, this relationship did not last long, and in the end, it was still lost to money.

In less than half a year, Li Qing began to despise Wu Tian and threw himself into the arms of the wealthy Da Gang instead.

Li Qing and Da Gang did not go to university after graduating from high school. Instead, they held hands as they married and walked into the palace of marriage.

Da Gang's parents were in the business and his family was pretty well-off. After the two of them got married, his parents rented a counter in District A of Grand American City and sold them high-end computers.

"Yo, isn't this Wu Tian?" Da Gang swept his gaze over Wu Tian as if he was looking at an animal. He then asked with a mocking smile, "I heard that you went to university at Polytechnic University?"

"Yes sir!" Wu Tian nodded. Seeing the two of them again today had left him with a heavy heart.

Back then, he had been moved by Li Yao's sincerity, but he did not expect that Da Gang would snatch it away. This was a huge blow to him.

At that time, he secretly swore in his heart that he would make himself stronger and make Li Qing regret abandoning him.

"What's the use of going to university? Look at you, are you any different from a beggar?" Da Gang said mercilessly.

After a few sentences of shock, he couldn't help but show off, "Look at me, I didn't go to university, and am still the boss. Do you see that I rented this counter with Li Di? The rent for this place is over 100,000 yuan a year."

"Is that so?" Wu Tian sneered coldly as if he was dealing with something. The other party's face made him feel a little disgusted.

"Do you know the profits of my counter? I'll give you a fright if I say it." Da Gang pulled at his collar and proudly raised his head. "My counter earns two hundred thousand yuan a year."

"Looking at you, you probably won't be able to earn two hundred thousand in three years!"

"Frankly speaking, only I am worthy of such a small power." "At that time, if I had followed you, I would probably have had to drink the wind. Hahaha ..."

Da Gang sarcastically replied. Then, he raised his head and let out a burst of mad laughter.

Li Qing glanced at Wu Tian in disdain and then sneered, "I was so dumb back then, how could I fancy a useless trash like you?"

"..."

Wu Tian's mouth twitched and his heart felt like it was being cut by knives.

This was the girl he had once liked. She was a self-serving girl who only knew how to use money.

"Just now, big brother was right. Luckily, I wasn't with you back then. Otherwise, who knows what would have happened!" Li Qing sneered, his eyes full of disdain.

Especially when she saw Wu Tian in full street clothes, she got really annoyed. She felt that it was embarrassing to talk more with this kind of guy.

"Wu Tian, you came here to buy a computer, right?" After the mockery, Da Gang could not help but ask.

"Right." Wu Tian nodded.

"Then you're in the wrong place. This is District A, they're all high-end computers. If you want to buy a computer, you can go to Area B. Computers are cheap there." Da Gang pointed to the opposite side of Grand Dominance City and smiled.

"I don't need the cheap ones. I need to buy a good computer." If it wasn't because of his classmates, Wu Tian wouldn't even bother to talk nonsense.

"Can you afford a good computer?"

"Of course."

"Look at this computer, this fruit computer is the best match. 15 thousand, do you have that much money?" Da Gang pointed at one of the computers behind the counter and said.

As far as he was concerned, this kid was a pauper and couldn't afford such expensive computers.

He couldn't even afford clothes, how could he afford this kind of computer?

"This computer is not expensive, it's just that its performance is a bit poor." Wu Tian shook his head without any interest.

This time, he specifically came here to buy a computer. For ordinary computers like this, they would not be able to enter his eyes. His requirements were even higher than this.

"Pfft, hahaha ..."

It was as if Da Gang had heard the smile. He could not help but laugh out loud. Even Li Qing could not help but laugh.

After laughing for quite a while, Da Gang could not help but mocked, "Brat, you don't have any other abilities, but now you've learnt how to act tough."

Li Qing looked at Wu Tian with even more disgust.

Ye Zichen didn't expect Wu Tian to be so cocky after not seeing him for a few years. He was too bad for more than ten thousand computers.

"I don't like any of your computers." After saying that, Wu Tian turned around and walked towards the counter next door.

"It's not that you're not worthy, but you simply cannot afford it. Hahaha ..." After saying that, Da Gang burst out in laughter.

When he smiled, Li Qing pursed his lips and laughed. Even the old lady at the counter opposite him also laughed.

Wu Tian was too lazy to care about the Da Gang couple. He turned around and walked to the counter of the uncle next door and asked, "Is there any better computer?"

"Yes." On the other hand, the middle-aged man was warm-hearted and recommended a few popular products to Wu Tian in a row.

Wu Tian wasn't satisfied and continued to ask: "Uncle, do you have a better computer here?"

"The best one is a workstation computer."

"Alright, then the workstation computer."

"Workstation computers need to be booked in advance, and..." The middle-aged man laughed dryly and reminded him, "And the price is very expensive, ordinary people can't afford it."

"How expensive is it?"

"Workstation computers are also divided into several categories. The most expensive one here is over 300,000 yuan, and the cheapest is at least tens of thousands."

"If you want to buy it, just buy it. I need three hundred thousand yuan worth of it." Wu Tian had already heard that the experience the workstation computer brought was extraordinary, so he took the opportunity to buy one.

In any case, the computer will not be bad for a while, buy a good computer at home, leisure office.

Li Qing and Da Gang laughed out loud once again. It was as if they had heard a heavenly smile. They were laughing so hard that they could not even close their mouths.

After laughing for a long time, Da Gang could not help but mock Wu Tian. "Wu Tian, even if you are acting cool, it should not be too outrageous. I want to see how you are going to deal with a 300000 yuan workstation computer."

"You don't have to worry about that." After Wu Tian said this, he took out his bank card and handed it to the middle-aged man, "Order a workstation computer with excellent performance for me."

"Alright ..." The middle-aged man received the bank card doubtfully.

He still didn't really believe that this young man could come up with three hundred thousand.

But in the next second, the middle-aged man immediately widened his eyes.

It ... it really came out?!

"Are you done?"

Wu Tian asked.

"Alright, alright, keep it well."

The middle-aged man reacted and respectfully handed over the card with both hands. As the ticket was sent out, the opposing party's Da Gang and Li Qing both saw this scene and their eyes instantly went wide with shock.

"How ... How is this possible?!"

Did Wu Tian, a poor student, really get three hundred thousand just like that?!

The two of them only felt a stinging pain on their faces, as if someone had fiercely slapped them a few times ...

CHAPTER 23:

The middle-aged woman's eyes widened even more when she saw Wu Tian buy the 300000 RMB workstation computer from the neighboring room.

Her intestines were turning green.

At the beginning, she thought Wu Tian was a student without money, but who knew he was so rich!

Very soon, the middle-aged man finished swiping the card and brought it in front of Wu Tian, "Boss, thank you for taking care of my business, thank you!"

Saying that, he bowed deeply towards Wu Tian, so excited that his lips were trembling.

Since its inception, it had never sold such expensive computers. The profit from this sale alone was more than ten thousand yuan.

"Uncle, in order to do business, you have to be as honest as you are." Wu Tian kept his bank card and asked with a smile, "When will the computer I bought be assembled?"

"Three days. I will finish these in three days as soon as possible."

"Alright, I'll come back for it in three days." After Wu Tian said this, he turned around and left.

When he passed by Li Qing and Da Gang's counter, his footsteps paused for a moment before he quickly left.

Da Gang and Li Qing stared foolishly at Wu Tian's back. Having missed out on this business, the two of them were extremely vexed.

After Wu Tian left, the middle-aged man walked in front of the counter and asked, "Was that boss your classmate?"

"Yes sir!" Da Gang gritted his teeth as all sorts of feelings welled up in his heart.

"To think you guys still have the face to mock me, I have much more money than you." The middle-aged man smiled bitterly as he shook his head and scoffed, "He spent three hundred thousand yuan for a computer. It's even more profitable than a year for all of you. What right do you have to mock him?"

Da Gang lowered his head and did not speak.

Li Qing, who was at the side, didn't feel good. She didn't expect that the good-for-nothing that she abandoned had actually become rich, becoming so rich.

He couldn't help but feel regret secretly in his heart. If he knew that Wu Tian was able to cheat like this, he wouldn't have abandoned Wu Tian and ended up together with Da Gang.

Unfortunately, it was too late for regret.

As for Wu Tian, he left Grand Dominance City and went straight back to school, only to find that his roommate Sunn Xiaohao's seat was empty.

Sunn Xiaohao never skipped class before, why didn't he come today?

"Why isn't Xiaohao in the dorm?" Wu Tian looked around the classroom and finally set his gaze on Jiang Wan.

"He ..."

Jiang Wan rubbed his neck and mumbled: "Sunn Xiaohao..." Gone ... The hospital. "

"Why should we go to the hospital? Is he sick? " Wu Tian's expression tensed up as he asked urgently.

"His mother was seriously ill and was hospitalized."

"His mother?"

"His mother has a serious illness and needs an operation, but it seems like the cost of the operation hasn't been collected yet." Jiang Wan scratched his head and said embarrassedly: "Sunn Xiaohao told me to hide this from you and didn't let me say it. He doesn't want to owe others too much."

"Foolish!"

Wu Tian cursed silently and asked again: "Then do you know which hospital his mother is in now?"

"Tongren Hospital."

"I'll go find him now." Wu Tian didn't say anything else, turned around and ran out of the classroom.

He ran so fast that the moment he stepped out of the classroom, Mu Rann nearly knocked him down.

Mu Rann's face darkened. With a hint of anger, she scolded, "Student Wu Tian, are you going to skip classes again?"

"Yes, uh ..." "That's not right." Wu Tian nodded at first, then hurriedly shook his head and explained, "Sunn Xiaohao's mother was hospitalized and the situation is very serious. I want to visit her and see if I can help."

"Is that so?"

Hearing this, Mu Rann's tone became much gentler. "Then you go. I'll make up a note for you later."

"Thank you, Teacher Mu." After thanking him, Wu Tian left the classroom as fast as he could and took a taxi to Tong Ren Hospital.

When he passed the toll window, he saw Sunn Xiaohao kneeling in front of a doctor in a white coat, begging, "Doctor, you have to find a way to cure my mother."

"Your mother needs a stenting operation. Get ready for a million dollars." The doctor waved his hand impatiently.

"Doctor, I don't have any money right now. Can you treat my mother's illness first? When I have enough money, I will definitely return it to the hospital." Sunn Xiaohao kowtowed as if he was begging and tears were about to roll out of his eyes.

The doctor's face hardened as he shouted, "Without money to treat any illnesses, our hospital is not a charity hospital."

The doctor's expression was very cold, he didn't feel any sympathy for Sunn Xiaohao even though he knelt down.

"Xiaohao, get up." Wu Tian could not take it anymore and quickly rushed over to help Sunn Xiaohao up from the ground.

Sunn Xiaohao was pulled up and asked with surprise, "Wu Tian, why are you here?"

"I heard it from Jiang Wan. You're too unloyal, you didn't even tell me about such a big thing that happened."

"I don't want to give you any trouble."

"Alright, let's not talk about this for now. Quickly tell me about your mother's situation."

"Ai!" Mentioning his mother, Sunn Xiaohao instantly became depressed. He sighed: "My mother has thrombosis and needs a stenting operation. The operation cost is over a million. I sold my house in the suburbs of my hometown, but I'm still short of 500,000..."

"Don't worry, I'll think of a way to get the money." Wu Tian comforted the doctor. He turned his head and urged the doctor: "Hurry up and get ready. We will perform the surgery on the patient."

"If you want to perform surgery on a patient, you have to first hand over the surgical scrubs." The doctor in the white coat shouted stubbornly.

"What kind of bullshit doctor are you?" Seeing the doctor's attitude, Wu Tian was immediately angered. He reprimanded, "Doctors practice medicine to treat illnesses and save the dying. How can you be so virtuous?"

The first time he saw the doctor in white coat, he felt displeased and could not help but curse a few times.

"Stop wasting your breath here, brat. According to the hospital's rules, you have to pay first before being operated on." the doctor in the white coat retorted.

"Didn't you understand what I meant? I told you to prepare first, I'll pay the bill right away."

"Payment?" With just you? " The doctor in white coat looked at Wu Tian with disdain, "500 thousand, can you take it out?"

"You look down on people with your dog eyes, right?" Wu Tian was furious.

From the beginning, the doctor's attitude toward Sunn Xiaohao made him angry.

"Stop talking nonsense and pay the bill first. As long as you can pay the operation fee, I will immediately operate." The white-coat scientist raised his head and looked at Wu Tian provocatively.

As far as he was concerned, the kid in front of him was so poor that he couldn't even afford to pay 500,000 dollars for the surgery.

"Alright, I'll go and pay now." Wu Tian was too lazy to waste his breath and brought Sunn Xiaohao to the toll window.

The doctor in the white coat followed, looking as if he was waiting to see a joke.

The few of them came to the payment window. Wu Tian asked Sunn Xiaohao's mother's name, then handed the bank card to the tolling personnel, "Give Li Gui Fang the operation fee of one million yuan."

1 million?!

The clerk was slightly surprised. She had never seen anyone who could afford such a huge amount of money. Even if it was just a few hundred thousand yuan in surgery fees, it was enough to ruin a family.

As she thought about it, she took the card in surprise.

She was stunned for a moment.

The doctor standing at the back couldn't help but say: "Does this kid have no money?"

"Yes, I do. I got money, and I got a million." The tolling staff felt his heartbeat quicken as he hurriedly spoke.

"Cough, cough ..."

The doctor nearly choked on the mocking words coming out of his mouth. He coughed a few times and looked at Wu Tian in shock.

He had never expected the kid in front of him to be so rich!

A million just like that?

The next second, the doctor's attitude changed. He grinned and said, "Sir, don't worry. I will prepare the surgery."

CHAPTER 24:

After paying the operation fees, Wu Tian turned back to the doctor in white coat and asked: "The operation fees have already been paid, can we do the operation now?"

"Yes, yes." The doctor nodded.

Seeing how wealthy this fellow was, as he was a rich boss, he knew that he didn't dare to offend him and had become even more obedient than his grandson.

"Hurry up and arrange for the best specialists to operate on my friend." Wu Tian urged as he stared at the doctor in white coat.

"Yes, yes, yes." The doctor answered and began to work.

"Plop!"

Sunn Xiaohao's legs went soft as he knelt in front of Wu Tian and said gratefully, "Tian, thank you for paying for my mother's treatment."

"Men have gold under their knees, hurry up and get up." Wu Tian hurriedly helped Sunn Xiaohao up from the ground and said with a smile, "You used to help me often. It's only right that I help you now."

As the saying goes, the gift of dripping water is repaid. Sunn Xiaohao has a good character, and used to help him often.

Now that Sunn Xiaohao was in trouble, he naturally couldn't just sit back and do nothing.

"I really didn't expect this ..." Before Sunn Xiaohao could finish his sentence, tears had already started rolling out of his eyes.

Never in his dreams did he expect Wu Tian to give him a million when he needed help the most.

This one million might not mean much to Wu Tian, but to him, it was an astronomical number.

"We are friends, so we should help each other." Wu Tian patted Sunn Xiaohao's shoulder and said, "Men, don't cry and don't kneel down easily."

"Alright!"

Sunn Xiaohao wiped away his tears and said with a trembling voice, "Tian, it's really good to know you. From now on, I, Sunn Xiaohao, will follow your lead."

"It's not that serious. We'll still be good brothers in the future."

"Mm, I'll definitely think of a way to return this one million to you."

"We can talk about this later. First, I have to treat Aunt's illness." After Wu Tian said this, he took the initiative to change the subject: "Right, take me to see Auntie first."

"Alright." Sunn Xiaohao forcefully wiped away the tears on his face before bringing Wu Tie to the ward.

When the two of them arrived at the fourth ward, they saw a middle-aged woman lying on the sickbed. She looked extremely thin and old, without a single trace of blood on her body.

This was Sunn Xiaohao's mother. She had toiled her whole life for her family, but in the end, she was still knocked down by the disease.

"Mom ..."

Sunn Xiaohao hugged his mother's arm and said excitedly, "We've already paid enough service fees now, we'll be able to treat you soon."

"I heard the operation costs more than a million yuan, where did you get all that money?" Sun

Yiyi's mother looked nervously at her son, anxious to know the source of the surgery fee.

More than a million was not a small amount. For a family like theirs, this amount was simply astronomical.

Xiaohao suddenly gathered over a million yuan. She was worried that the money didn't come from the right direction, so she asked.

"Mom, this is my classmate, Wu Tian." Sunn Xiaohao pointed at Wu Tian and explained, "He was the one who lent me one million yuan for your operation."

Upon hearing this, Sun Yiyi's mother became agitated as tears welled up in her eyes.

"Child, thank you for helping us." Sun Yiyi's mother dragged her weak body as she prepared to climb out of the sickbed, wanting to express her gratitude towards Wu Tian.

Perhaps because his body was too weak, before he could even get up, he fell heavily onto the bed.

"Auntie, your body is too weak, don't move recklessly." Wu Tian quickly went forward and pressed Sun Yiyi's mother's body, hinting her to lie down and not move.

"Child."

Sun Yiyi's mother held onto Wu Tian's arm tightly and said with a trembling voice, "You are really the savior of our Sun family. Thank you, Aunt."

"Xiaohao was good to me in the past and often helped me, so it's only right for me to help you now." Wu Tian said with a smile.

Hearing this, Sun Yiyi's mother cried even louder, "It's really a good fortune for Xiaohao to have such a good friend like you."

"Friends have to help each other in times of trouble."

"Xiaohao, you must remember that Wu Tian is the great benefactor of our Sun family. You must repay him well in the future." Sun Yiyi's mother turned around and warned her son.

"I know." Sunn Xiaohao nodded.

"Alright Auntie, take a good rest. I'll come see you another day after the doctor has arranged for you to undergo surgery." Wu Tian was afraid of affecting Sun Yiyi's mother's mood, so after a simple farewell, he left the ward.

After Sunn Xiaohao saw Wu Tian out of the ward, he did not forget to say gratefully, "Tian, thank you so much for this time ..."

"Let's not talk about this first." Wu Tian interrupted and patted Sunn Xiaohao's shoulder: "Take good care of Auntie. Call me if you have any questions. I'll be leaving first."

With that, he turned around and left the hospital.

On the way back to school, he happened to pass by the Radiant Moon Restaurant. He got the taxi driver to stop the taxi and decided to check out the situation in the cafeteria.

The restaurant was bustling with business and customers were queuing up to eat. The waiters were all extremely busy.

Looking at this scene, Wu Tian felt very gratified. It seemed that investing in the Radiant Moon Restaurant was the right decision, and he believed that it wouldn't be long before he made a return.

He stood in the corner, silently watching the customers that came in and out, as well as the busy waiters.

It didn't take long before they met in the lobby. They eagerly went up to fawn on him: "Boss, you're here. Why didn't you inform me to receive you?"

"There's no need for you to receive him. You just need to welcome him well." Wu Tian looked at Lobby Manager and instructed.

Previously, when he was negotiating with Liu Jun for the purchase of the Radiant Moon Restaurant, Lobby Manager was there as well, so he had a deep impression of him.

"Boss Wu, what instructions do you have for coming to the restaurant?" Lobby Manager's smile was always so bright.

"I'm just here to take a look. Oh yeah, how's the restaurant's business going?"

"The restaurant has been very lively lately. I'll show you the bill." After Lobby Manager said this, he quickly ran over to carry the bill over.

After looking at the bill, Wu Tian nodded in satisfaction: "Not bad, the benefits are much higher than before."

"It's all thanks to Boss Wu's leadership."

"Stop flattering me." Wu Tian slightly rolled his eyes at the manager, smiled and said, "You and everyone else have worked hard. Wait until the end of the month, I will give everyone a portion of the profit as a bonus."

"Thank you, Boss Wu." After thanking them, Lobby Manager said to the other waiters, "Boss Wu is giving us a bonus, are you guys happy?"

"Happy!"

When the waiters heard that there was a bonus, they all came over and praised Wu Tian as the good boss of a compassionate employee. They all expressed their gratitude.

"As long as the big guy follows me and does a good job, there will be a lot of bonuses in the future. I'll let your bonuses go soft." Wu Tian tried to boost everyone's morale as he said this.

"Alright!"

The waiters cheered in unison and spontaneously raised their hands to applaud. The entire restaurant was already in an uproar.

"Alright, everyone hurry up and greet the guests. Don't worry about me." Seeing that more and more customers were gathering, Wu Tian reminded the waiters.

"Yes sir!" The waiters continued to busy themselves.

Meeting such a good boss made them work hard, and they all felt especially passionate and motivated.

CHAPTER 25:

After pacifying the waiter, Wu Tian's gaze once again fell on Lobby Manager, "What do you think our food house is lacking in, or perhaps lacking in?"

"Our Radiant Moon Manor is perfect and flawless." Lobby Manager raised his head proudly.

Within a circumference of a hundred miles, there was no other restaurant that could surpass the Radiant Moon Restaurant. Regardless of size, grade, quality, or service, there was no rival.

"Your attitude isn't right." Wu Tian poured a bucket of cold water and said, "According to my observation, the service of our Radiant Moon Restaurant is pretty good. However, the waiters' attitude is clearly not that humble. Like you, they all seem a bit arrogant."

"Ugh ..." Lobby Manager was speechless after hearing that.

"In addition, no matter how many customers increase, the quality of our dishes must not drop. We must always be consistent, understand?"

"Ming..." "Understood." Lobby Manager nodded and answered.

"Do as I say. I'll be leaving first." Having said this, Wu Tian turned around and left the Radiant Moon Food Manor.

Actually, there was no problem with the service and dishes of the Radiant Moon Restaurant. Wu Tian was worried that they would get carried away, so he gave them a small beating.

When he returned to the school, he found that the classroom was bustling with activity. The class committee was proposing to organize a reunion.

I heard that some of the students were very active during the dinner. Of course, there were also some who were not willing to participate.

The reason why he didn't want to participate was simple, it was because this time's dinner was AA-style. A single meal would cost tens of thousands of yuan, and it would also cost hundreds of yuan.

To the rich students of his family, several hundred yuan was nothing. However, to the poor students, several hundred yuan was equivalent to living expenses for more than half a month.

This time, they might eat dirt for half a month.

"Let's go to the Stalwart Star Tower together for dinner tonight. We'll introduce a system for all consumption. Does anyone have any objections?" The class committee began to consult everyone.

"No objections." Half of the students expressed their support.

As for the other students, they all tried to find excuses to say that they didn't have time to attend the party. In fact, many of them didn't want to waste their saved living expenses on the party.

Originally, most of the students had not participated in a good gathering, but instead, the atmosphere turned cold.

"Tsk, poor bastards, I think you all have no money and won't be willing to spend it to join the gathering!" Zhao Yang couldn't help but mock those classmates that didn't participate.

The other students began to attack him one after another.

It was because those students did not participate that the gathering might be stranded, so it made everyone feel unhappy.

In a short moment, two factions had formed in the classroom, the Property Faction and the Civilians Faction. Everyone started to argue with each other.

"Quiet!"

Seeing that the students were having a good time, Wu Tian walked to the podium and said to the crowd, "Tonight, I'll treat everyone to a meal. Let's gather at Stalwart Star Tower."

He didn't want his classmates to fall out over this matter, so he simply suggested to treat everyone to a gathering.

"Alright!"

When they heard that someone was treating them, the classroom instantly boiled up, and everyone couldn't help but cheer.

"Acting tough." Zhao Yang muttered his contempt in disbelief.

The moment he said that, it instantly caused a few girls to be dissatisfied, and they retorted, "Student Zhao Yang, aren't you quite rich? You can also treat your classmates to a meal, you can also act cool!"

"I ..."

Zhao Yang gritted his teeth and didn't know what to say.

He indeed had some money on hand, but he was also reluctant to take it out to treat his classmates to a meal. This was simply too much of a waste.

"If you can't bear to pay, then shut up. Wu Tian kindly invited us to a meal. Don't bite off Lü Dongbin." A few girls could not help but ruthlessly despise him.

"..."

Zhao Yang was so angry that his face turned green and he couldn't say a word for a long time.

"Alright, it's getting late, let's go to Stalwart Star Tower together!" Wu Tian looked at the time and then led his classmates out of the classroom.

They all arrived at Stalwart Star Tower and started chatting happily after they'd ordered their dishes.

A lot of girls were secretly talking about Wu Tian. Recently, everyone's good impression of Classmate Wu had exploded.

Very quickly, the waiter set up several tables with delicious food. The students sat around the table and started to enjoy the delicious food. As they ate, they chatted, and the atmosphere was quite harmonious.

The students didn't go out of their way to curry favor with Wu Tian, and didn't curry favor with Classmate Wu just because he was rich.

To be honest, Wu Tian really liked this feeling. If everyone fawned on him hypocritically, he would feel disgusted instead.

After eating, Wu Tian took a glass of red wine and walked to the French window. Looking at the scene outside, his mind was filled with a million thoughts.

Never in his wildest dreams had he thought that one day, he would become a billionaire, stepping on the shoulders of giants and climbing higher.

He did not know how far he could go in the future, but he would work hard and never give up.

While he was holding the red wine in his hand, Lee Meng walked over with a glass of wine in her hand.

Tonight, she was wearing a dress that covered her body, and her face was covered with makeup. She looked delicate and sexy.

Maybe it was because she drank the red wine. Her face was red as she raised her glass and said to Wu Tian, "Previously ..." I'm sorry, I shouldn't have done that to you. "

"The past is over." Wu Tian smiled lightly and took a sip of the red wine.

He no longer felt that way towards Lee Meng. Looking at this girl before him, he felt extremely calm.

"Tian."

Lee Meng leaned her body close to Wu Tian, blinked her beautiful eyes, and said in a gentle tone she had never used before, "I was stupid in the past, I'm sorry, can you..." Give me another chance? "

"Sorry, there are some things that are missed, but I won't let something that is missed go wrong a second time." Wu Tian smiled lightly, turned around and prepared to leave.

If he was given a choice now, he would definitely not like this hypocritical and influential girl again.

Just as Wu Tian took two steps, Lee Meng held onto his arm tightly, "Wu Tian, I've found out that the person I really love is you. Do we still have a chance? "I, I like you ..."

"You like me now? "When you humiliated me in the coffee shop, you looked down on me. Why didn't you say that you liked me back then?"

Wu Tian retracted his arm.

"What do you mean by that?" "You used to be indifferent to me, but the me now, you cannot climb higher."

With that, Wu Tian snorted and quickly left.

He could see Lee Meng's essence now. She was a snob who only liked money.

Unfortunately, this was the kind of person he despised the most.

It made him sick.

"Wu ..."

Lee Meng's face instantly paled. She had never thought that she would miss this opportunity to fly up the branch and become a phoenix ...

CHAPTER 26:

The reunion ended very late. The students were having fun, and when they left, they expressed their gratitude to Wu Tian.

Seeing his classmates so happy, Wu Tian also felt happy. After settling the bill, he took a taxi back to his residence.

It was still early. Wu Tian took out his phone and turned on the seafood TV, then directly entered the masked female streamer's live broadcast room.

Back then, he had invested into seafood TV because the platform's interface was fresh and refreshing. The user experience was great and it had great potential for growth.

As an audience, he was attracted to the platform's user experience, and he believed that the same was true for the rest of the audience.

When he entered the masked girl's live broadcast room, he found that the number of people there had increased, the number of visitors had tripled, and many spectators had become the girl's guardians.

It seemed that the last time he had helped this girl with her presents, it had attracted quite a bit of attention.

As soon as he entered the live broadcast room, the masked girl welcomed him and even sang a song for Wu Tian.

This aroused the jealousy of others, and they all expressed their dissatisfaction on the public screen.

Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled, and immediately gave the streamer a spaceship worth 100,000 yuan.

Seeing how big the boss was acting, the audience members who were jealous of Wu Tian were convinced from the bottom of their hearts. They all showed their approval on the public screen.

A big shot like this naturally had the right to receive special treatment from the host. Anyone who was unconvinced could use a gift to speak for themselves.

There was a tycoon in the live broadcast room who refused to accept this outcome. After Wu Tian acquired ten spaceships, he immediately followed up with fifteen spaceships worth one hundred and fifty thousand yuan.

The live broadcast room immediately boiled with excitement. Everyone on the screen could not help but cheer for the tycoon.

Wu Tian couldn't help but feel happy when he saw someone was swiping a gift. He tapped the screen and swiped 30 spaceships.

The tycoon did not show any sign of weakness and followed along with the other 40 spaceships, hoping to use them to suppress Wu Tian.

After that, Wu Tian immediately got 200 spaceships.

The entire live broadcast room immediately exploded. He didn't expect the big boss to be so generous. In just a short while, he had given two million yuan to him.

Everyone left their comments on the public screen:

"The boss is mighty."

"Rich people are such bad people."

"These are the six people I've seen fight the most."

"This should be the richest boss of seafood."

"It's really shocking to be able to launch 2 million space ships."

"Losses."

"I admire you ..."

Wu Tian!" The public screen was filled with Wu Tian's admiration and adoration. The entire broadcast room was boiling as wave after wave of climax spread to the whole seafood scene.

All of a sudden, many tourists came to the masked girl's live broadcast room to watch the big boss, causing the live broadcast room to have a temporary appearance of a card machine phenomenon.

The big boss was also shocked by this wave of skill. He didn't expect his opponent to be so stingy, getting 2 million yuan in one go.

He knew that he had met a ruthless person, so he did not continue to compete. He dejectedly left the live broadcast room.

The entire broadcast room continued on for more than half an hour without the slightest decrease in heat.

Picking up 2 million yuan in one go was a rare sight in the whole seafood industry. Not only did it attract tourists, even many of the anchors joined in the fun.

Very quickly, Wu Tian received a lot of private messages from female anchors, they all wanted to drag him to their live broadcast studio.

Obviously, whoever could deal with a big boss like Wu Tian would be equivalent to guarding the God of Fortune. In the future, there would be endless presents.

There were even some female anchors and tourists who left private messages and phone calls for Wu Tian, hoping to get close to the mogul.

Wu Tian was too lazy to care about these private messages. Just as he was about to leave the live broadcast room, he received a private message from the masked girl.

The masked girl: Big brother, thank you for your gift. You treat me so well, I'm so touched that I'm crying.

Wu Tian tapped on the keyboard and sent a private message: Work hard, I believe you are the best, I will always support you.

Masked Girl: Big Brother, you're giving me so many gifts, aren't you ... Any other ideas?

Wu Tian: I know you're not that kind of girl, and I'm not that kind of guy either. I reward you just to support you, don't think too much about it.

The masked girl: You are the best boy I've ever met. Thank you. Thank you so much.

There was an emotional expression added to the rest of the sentence.

Wu Tian: You can do it yourself. Do not have any burdens or psychological pressure. I think highly of you.

The masked girl: Ai ...

Wu Tian: "What's wrong?"

The masked girl: The government wants me to show my face and dance. I don't want to show my face and I don't want to dance. I don't know what to do now. Can you help me think of a way?

Wu Tian: Never force yourself to do something you don't want to do. Wait a minute, I'll call you and help you deal with it.

After sending this private message, Wu Tian took out his phone and dialed Sunn Sheng's number. He went straight to the point, "Boss Sun, there's something on the platform that I need your help with."

"Mr Wu, as an investor, feel free to tell me whatever you want to say." On the other end of the phone, Sunn Sheng showed a polite and respectful expression.

"There's a streamer called the masked girl. You want her to dance without her mask on?"

"I seem to have approved of this plan."

"I dug up the masked girl. I hope you don't force her to dance with me, okay?" Wu Tian asked with a very tactful tone.

Actually, with his identity as an investor, he could directly ask Sunn Sheng to do something, but he wasn't that strong.

"Mr Wu, I didn't expect the masked girl to be yours. I understand, I will get them to cancel this decision immediately. And don't worry, I will do my best to guide the masked girl ..."

On the other end of the phone, Sunn Sheng made a series of promises in an attempt to curry favor with Wu Tian.

"Then I'll be troubling Sun Yiyi." Wu Tian thanked him and hung up.

When he opened the seafood Tv again, he received three private messages from the masked girl:

Brother, let me tell you a piece of good news. Just now, the authorities informed me that I could either not take off my mask or not dance, and they even agreed to guide me.

Oh right, Big Brother, you're the one who helped me settle this, right?

Big brother, thank you. I really don't know how to thank you.

After reading the three private messages, Wu Tian pursed his lips into a smile and tapped the keyboard to reply: It's a simple task, so there's no need to be polite.

Masked Girl: Big Brother, who are you? How could there be such great power to cause the authorities to change their decision so quickly?

Wu Tian: You'll know about it later.

The masked girl: To be honest, I'm rather curious about you right now. I kind of want to see you now.

Wu Tian: Maybe I'll have a chance to meet her in the future.

After sending this private message, Wu Tian left the broadcast room. He put away his phone, went into the study room and started studying seriously.

As he was seriously opening the book, his cell phone rang. It was a call from an unknown number.

After receiving the call, he found out that it was a call from Guanmei City's computer boss. He said that the workstation computer had already been assembled and told him to go get it tomorrow.

Wu Tian continued to read after he answered the phone.

It was a silent night. Wu Tian got up early the next morning, washed up, and then headed to Grand Dominance City to get his computer.

As soon as he entered District A, the middle-aged man enthusiastically welcomed him, "Boss, the computer you ordered is ready."

CHAPTER 27:

"Alright." Wu Tian nodded in satisfaction. He couldn't help but glance at the counter across from them and couldn't help but ask the boss when he saw Li Qing and Da Gang were not around. "Uncle, why didn't those two come here to do business?"

"That couple has been arguing for the past two days." When the middle-aged man answered, he took out the laptop.

"Why?"

"I think it's because of my ex-boyfriend or something like that. I'm not too sure about the specifics."

"Ugh!" Wu Tian nodded as if he was deep in thought. Only after seeing the old man bring out the new computer that he had assembled did he come back to his senses.

Staring at the brand-new computer, he asked the uncle, "How's the computer? Did you help me test the machine? "

"I've already tried. Don't worry, I guarantee it won't be a problem."

"That's good." Wu Tian felt that the boss was reliable, so he didn't want to waste any more time testing the computer and was ready to carry it home.

"Allow me."

The middle-aged man came and picked up the host. He smiled and said, "The host is a bit heavy, let me move it. I'll take it downstairs for you.

"That's hard work." Wu Tian smiled in satisfaction, picked up the screen and walked downstairs first.

"It's fine, you take care of my business, even if I have to send you home, it's only right." The middle-aged man followed behind with the host in his arms, smiling as he tried to curry favor with them.

The two of them carried their computers downstairs and collided with a yellow-haired youth at the corner of the stairs. The yellow-haired teenager was also holding a computer in his hands.

"Kid, are you blind?" The yellow-haired youth bumped into someone as he started shouting, "Do you know what kind of computer this is? Alien, over 10,000 yuan, can you afford to damage it? "

After swearing, he couldn't help but sweep Wu Tian with his gaze that looked like he was looking at a beggar, with a face full of disdain.

"Ha ha!"

When he said this, the middle-aged uncle behind him couldn't help but sneer as if he'd heard a joke.

This laughter made the yellow-furred youth feel very unhappy. He raised his head and stared at the middle-aged uncle, "What are you laughing at?"

"Nothing." The middle-aged man looked at the alien computer in yellow-hair's arms and said, "This computer is indeed not bad, but compared to the one in little brother's hands, it's nothing."

"Him?"

The yellow haired teenager glanced at Wu Tian and said sarcastically, "Stop fooling me. This assembly machine of his has my Alien trickery?"

In China, workstation computers weren't common, so it was normal for many people to not recognize them.

"I really don't know anything." The middle-aged uncle rolled his eyes at the youth, ashamed of his ignorance.

At this moment, a beautiful, unconventional girl came downstairs. She complained to the yellow-haired youth, "Darling, what are you dawdling for? I've been waiting for you for a long time now."

"Little Mei, look. This is a present I bought for you." The yellow haired teenager handed over the laptop.

"Alien."

Upon seeing the laptop, Xiaomei's eyes lit up. "Ah Dong, I didn't expect you to buy me such a good laptop. I love you so much."

Saying so, she leaned her head over and kissed her boyfriend's cheek.

"That brat didn't even get a chance to walk. He almost broke my alien." The yellow haired teenager looked at Wu Tian with resentment.

"Which blind person ..."

Lil Mei turned her head and stared at Wu Tian. Before she could finish cursing, her pupils instantly dilated as if she had found a new continent. She stared at the computer in Wu Tian's hand and exclaimed, "Oh my god, that's amazing!"

Inwardly, he could not resist the fanaticism and obsession with this computer. He reached out his hand to touch the computer monitor, and his expression became abnormally excited.

"Cough, cough!"

Seeing his girlfriend in such a state, the youth felt a bit unhappy. He reminded his girlfriend, "Xiaomei, what's so good about that assembly machine of his?"

"What assembler? This is his workstation computer." Lil Mei rolled her eyes at her boyfriend and pointed at Wu Tian's laptop.

She had come across many workstation computers abroad, and only a particularly wealthy person could afford to buy one of these customized workstation computers.

"I don't believe that his computer is more expensive than an alien like me!" The yellow haired youth retorted in dissatisfaction.

He didn't know anything about computers, so he didn't have much research into them. That was why he said such words.

"Don't embarrass yourself here." Xiaomei turned around to glare at her boyfriend and whispered, "Is any display or motherboard more expensive than your laptop?"

"What?" The yellow-haired youth was shocked as he heard this.

The alien stared at the computer in his hand for a few seconds, then looked at the computer in Wu Tian's hand and said doubtfully, "That computer of his... Is it really that powerful? "

"That computer of his is at least 300,000 yuan."

"Three hundred thousand?" The yellow-haired teenager's mouth twitched a few times. The expression on his face was so exaggerated that it could not be described.

His girlfriend's words had already shattered his knowledge. He thought aliens were the most expensive computer, but he didn't expect that brat to have 300 thousand computers.

To think that he would take over 10,000 yuan and mock someone's 300,000 yuan laptop, he was practically throwing his face away.

The yellow-haired youth stood on the spot like an idiot, his face alternating between red and white. It was hard to mention how embarrassed he was.

After being stunned for a few seconds, he licked his lips and reached his hand in front of Wu Tian, "tycoon, can we be friends?"

"I'm busy. I'm busy." Wu Tian refused decisively. He never made friends with these cats and dogs.

With that said, he walked past the yellow haired youth and headed downstairs.

The middle-aged man followed behind, holding the host in his arms. Seeing this ignorant kid being slapped in the face, he felt extremely refreshed in his heart.

"Three hundred thousand yuan per computer? So f * cking rich." Looking at Wu Tian's back as he walked away, the yellow haired teenager could not help but feel envious of him.

Wu Tian couldn't be bothered to care about the yellow haired teenager. He carried his laptop and left Grand Dominance City. Then, he hailed a taxi and got on.

"Teacher, Haitian Gardens." After getting into the taxi, Wu Tian said very politely to the taxi driver.

"Alright!"

The taxi driver glanced at Wu Tian and asked with a smile, "Young man, are you going to Haitian Garden to fix a computer for someone else?"

From his point of view, these ordinary youths definitely could not live in a wealthy district like Sea Heaven Garden.

"That's right!" Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled. He wanted to buy a car and get his driver's license. This way, it would be more convenient for him to travel.

"Sea Heaven Garden is filled with rich people. Those who live there are either rich or noble. Try to get a higher price for your computer ..." Along the way, the taxi driver chattered nonstop.

Wu Tian only responded with a few casual words.

Half an hour later, the taxi arrived at Haitian Gardens and was stopped by a security guard at the entrance. "Sorry, you are not allowed to enter from outside."

"The computer we pulled is very heavy. We'll send it in and it'll come out immediately." The taxi driver smiled as he pleaded with the security guard.

"No." The security guard once again refused harshly.

"Alright!" The taxi driver shrugged helplessly, turned around and said to Wu Tian, "We can't enter such a high-end residential area, so you can only get off here."

"I'll try." Wu Tian rolled down the window, took out the security card from his pocket and handed it to the guard. "Can you enter?"

CHAPTER 28:

"Yes, you are the head of the household here, of course you can enter ..." "Quick, open the door ..." When the security guard saw Hai Tian's exclusive entry restriction card, he immediately smiled and saluted while ordering people to open the door.

The taxi driver widened his eyes and stared at Wu Tian with his bright eyes. His expression was so weird that it was scary.

Even in his wildest dreams, he would never have thought that this seemingly ordinary young man in front of him was actually a resident of Haitian Gardens.

Haitian Gardens was a residential area for the richest and most powerful people. Anyone who could live here could either be rich or noble. One could imagine how unscrupulous this kid was.

"Master, go in!" Seeing the taxi driver staring at him in a daze, Wu Tian reminded him.

"Oh!"

The taxi driver finally came back to his senses and hurriedly put the car in gear. He smiled coyly and said, "Young man, I really didn't see that. You are still a big shot who hides your strength!"

"You're being too serious."

Wu Tian shook his head with a bitter smile and pointed at the house in front of them: "That one, just stop downstairs."

"Oh my god, River View Mansion! This is the most expensive house in the entire mansion!" The taxi driver exclaimed again.

Only now did he realize that he had met true rich people today.

However, the boy in front of him was too low-key. He lived in a luxurious mansion on the outskirts of the city, yet he was still dressed in such simple and unadorned clothes.

"Thank you, Master." Wu Tian paid and got out of the car.

The taxi driver hurriedly helped him to move the laptop away. After he was done moving the laptop, he gave Wu Tian a business card, "I'll come and pick you up wherever you want to make this call in the future."

"Ok!"

Wu Tian accepted the business card and took the elevator upstairs with his laptop in his arms.

When he got home, he couldn't wait to install the computer, so he turned on the computer and played League of Legends. It was a great takeoff.

F * ck, a good computer is indeed different.

Seeing that it was still early, Wu Tian decided to book a car and take the driver's license test another day.

He took a taxi to the Ruitong Square and walked straight into one of the Mercedes-Benz 4S stores.

The shop was luxurious and grand. There were more than ten Mercedes-Benz parked inside, but there weren't many customers inside. The salespeople were all very idle.

The moment Wu Tian walked into the 4S store, he was met with looks of disdain and disdain. All the salespeople there seemed to look down on a stupid kid like Wu Tian who wore shabby clothes, so no one went up to answer him.

Wu Tian didn't think much of it. He looked at the car in the store alone and soon began to value a Mercedes-Benz. He said to the salesman, "I want to try out this car."

"I can't afford it, what's there to try?" One of the salesmen sneered.

"How do you know I can't afford it?" Wu Tian turned around and looked at the salesperson.

From the sales clerk's name tag, it could be seen that the woman's name was Liu Hui, and she was also the sales manager of this 4S store.

"I've seen a bunch of bumpkins like you. They're all street stalls and poor to the point of begging on the streets. What are you going to use to buy a car?" Liu Hui crossed her arms across her chest as she mocked and ridiculed him.

The other salespeople watched on with cold eyes, their faces filled with scorn and ridicule.

"I sincerely want to buy a car, why is your attitude like this?" Wu Tian was originally in a good mood, but now that he met these idiots, his mood instantly dropped.

"You want to buy a car, right?"

Liu Hui shrugged her nose and pointed to the electric car store across the street. "Hey, go buy some from the other side. Maybe you can afford the cars there."

"Doggy eyes look down on people." Wu Tian glared at the salespeople, then turned around and left the Mercedes 4S store.

Just as he was about to leave, he heard loud laughter coming from behind him:

"This kind of pauper came here to buy a car, why didn't he take a piss?"

"A poor piece of scum, disgraceful to the eye."

"In the future, if these kinds of pretentious criminals are blasted out, they'll give off a poverty-stricken smell. Smelling them will make you feel disgusted ..."

The sales staff all had disgusting expressions. They looked down on poor people like Wu Tian.

Wu Tian gritted his teeth and endured his anger as he entered the Red Flag's 4S store next door.

He originally wanted to buy a Mercedes-Benz, but after seeing the attitude of the salespeople, he suddenly changed his mind.

Rather than spending money to look at others' faces, he might as well support it in China.

The Red Flag 4S store wasn't as big as a Mercedes-Benz. There weren't many cars inside, and there were only three salespeople.

As soon as he entered the store, a saleswoman took the initiative to greet him with a professional smile, "Hello, mister. I'm the saleswoman, Lingling. How can I help you?"

"I want to buy a car." Wu Tian was quite satisfied with the salespeople here, so he wasn't as contemptuous as the dog eyes next door.

"We have four cars here. One that just came out is ..."

"Wait!" Without waiting for the salesman to finish, Wu Tian stared at the car in front of them, "That car is not bad, I really like it."

He started toward the red flag.

This car's shape and performance are very outstanding, is the domestic world of Rolls-Royce, many people like it, but the price is not very close to the people.

"Uh, how do I say this car ..." Ling Ling followed him with a stiff expression and said, "I suggest you go take a look at H5. We have the latest model."

"You mean the L5 isn't good?"

"It's not that it's bad, just that ..." "Too expensive."

"You think I can't afford it?"

"That's not what I meant, I just ..." Ling Ling was rendered speechless by the question. She did not know how to explain it.

The reason why she recommended the H5 was because it was so ordinary that many people could afford it.

As for the 15 yuan car, it was worth over 5 million, ordinary people really couldn't afford it.

"How much is this car?" Wu Tian's eyes lit up as he looked straight at the car.

He had liked this car from the first moment, and the more he looked at it, the more he liked it.

"It's worth five million eight hundred thousand." Lingling offered this price in order to make this customer give up completely.

"This one."

After hearing the price, Wu Tian took out his bank card and handed it to the salesperson, "Clip it. Help me settle the formalities now."

"Huh?"

Ling Ling was dumbfounded. She looked down at the bank card and said with a bitter face, "Big Brother, you aren't teasing me, right?"

"I'm very busy, I don't have time to play with you."

"But ..." Lingling still couldn't believe it.

This simple-looking boy in front of him, did he really have that much money to buy a domestic luxury car?

However, looking at the other party's serious expression, it didn't seem like he was joking.

After hesitating for a while, she took the card and walked over to the reception and swiped the card with uneasiness.

Seeing that she had succeeded in swiping her card, a look of shock appeared in her eyes. Her heart began to beat like a drum.

Ling Ling put her hands on her card and excitedly shouted, "Big Brother, the card is a success! Your card is truly rich!"

"Of course I have money. If I don't have money, how can I buy a car?" Wu Tian said calmly when he saw the salesperson's confused expression.

This girl had successfully swiped her card. She seemed to be even more excited than if she had gotten 5 million.

"Great, the card was successfully swiped. I sold a luxury car for five million and eight hundred thousand ..." Ling Ling was so excited that her face turned red.

CHAPTER 29:

"Cough, cough!"

Wu Tian coughed dryly and reminded her, "Sister, can you help me handle the formalities first?"

"Ugh ..."

Only then did Lingling realize that she was too excited. She calmed down and looked at Wu Tian again with a measuring gaze.

To be honest, he had never seen such a low-profile, invisible rich guy. He was dressed normally, but he had an astonishing amount of money on him.

Buying a car was like buying vegetables. He didn't bargain or force anything out of her. The moment he saw her, he would casually take out his bank card.

Having sold her car for two years, this was the first time she met such a customer. It was no wonder that she couldn't help but feel overjoyed.

"Please wait for a moment, I'll complete the formalities for you right away." Ling Ling came back to her senses and ran to complete the paperwork.

When the other two salesmen heard that Lingling had sold a top tier luxury car, they were also delighted and rushed to help with the formalities.

With the three of them working together, the first procedure was quickly completed.

"Big Bro, congratulations on becoming the owner of the LV 15." After completing the formalities, Ling Ling handed the bank card to Wu Tian with both hands, "I'll accompany you out to test your car."

"Okay." Wu Tian nodded and got into the driver's seat of the Red Flag to start the car.

The roar of the engine made him excited. It was the first car in his life, and it made him excited.

He put the car in gear, stepped on the accelerator and drove out of the 4S store.

As they passed the Mercedes-Benz 4S store, Liu Hui and the sales staff came out and stood in front of the red flag car.

"Yo, isn't this that bumpkin from before?" Liu Hui glanced at Wu Tian, who was sitting in the driver's seat, and said with a sharp tone of sarcasm.

Wu Tian didn't say anything, but Lingling, who was beside him, was indignant and said, "Liu Hui, get out of the way, I'm taking my customers to test their cars."

They had known each other before.

In fact, Ling Ling was a colleague with Liu Hui and the others and worked as a salesperson at the Mercedes-Benz 4S store.

Later on, when Liu Hui and the others pushed her aside and ridiculed her, Lingling left the Mercedes-Benz 4S store and went next door to the Red Flag 4S store to sell.

"Lingling, you're so stupid. You can't afford to bring a country bumpkin for a test run. A test is just a waste of time." Liu Hui couldn't help but sneer.

"Yeah, yeah!"

The sales clerks behind her echoed, "These poor bumpkins dropped to the floor. We were the ones who chased them out of the store just now."

"To tell you the truth, Mr Wu already bought this car." Ling Ling shouted.

"Pfft!"

Upon hearing this, Liu Hui and the sales staff behind her burst out into laughter.

A round of mockery.

Liu Hui crossed her arms across her chest and said, "If a bumpkin has the money to buy this 15 RMB car, I will eat the car tire."

Several salespeople echoed her words. No one believed that a bumpkin like Wu Tian could buy the 15.

After all, this car was worth nearly six million, even a rich person wouldn't be able to afford it, much less this bumpkin in front of him.

"Look, five million eight hundred thousand." Ling Ling Ling was too lazy to waste her breath and directly took out the invoice.

"Ah ..."

Seeing the amount on the invoice, Liu Hui and the sales staff felt as if they were struck by lightning. Their bodies trembled violently a few times.

Anything could be faked, but the invoice must not be costed, because the 4S store had to pay taxes.

It was clearly stated on the invoice that Wu Tian had spent four million eight hundred thousand to buy the red flag 15.

"Oh my god!"

Staring at the invoice dumbfoundedly for a few seconds, Liu Hui couldn't help but exclaim in surprise, This bumpkin actually ...

No.

This wasn't a bumpkin at all.

Being able to spend close to 6 million to buy a 15, this was definitely a tycoon amongst tycoons.

At this moment, she felt mixed emotions in her heart, and it was even worse than eating dog shit.

The man they had previously humiliated and chased out of the store was in fact a true tycoon.

Liu Hui and the sales staff behind her all regretted their actions to death. The wealthy tycoon who delivered himself to them was rejected by them just like that, giving the Red Flag 4S store an advantage for nothing.

They couldn't help but give themselves a few harsh slaps in their hearts.

"Get out of the way."

Wu Tian looked at the salespeople coldly and yelled impatiently.

Liu Hui and the sales staff finally woke up from their daze.

He changed his attitude and took out his business card, licking his face as he fawned, "Boss, this is my business card. If you want to buy a car, you can come and find me."

If they could get this kind of super rich person and sell a car, the commission would be enough for them to eat for a very long time.

"Pah!"

Wu Tian took the business card and threw it on the ground mercilessly. "I don't want your car even if you give it to me."

With that, he drove away, leaving Liu Hui and the sales representative with regretful expressions.

"Pah!"

Seeing the tycoon slip away from her, Liu Hui raised her hand and slapped the salesman behind her, cursing, "Trash! Such a rich boss, how dare you mock me?!"

The salespeople kept their heads down.

"You fools, open your eyes wider in the future, and stop trying to judge a person by his appearance." Liu Hui stomped her feet angrily and returned to the 4S store after she finished yelling those words.

The salespeople gritted their teeth in dissatisfaction and returned to the 4S store dejectedly, as if they had lost a war.

In the car.

"Hu!"

Ling Ling Ling raised her head and let out a long breath. After being suppressed for so long, she was finally able to lift her eyebrows and feel proud today.

Especially when she saw the looks of regret and annoyance on Liu Hui's group of people, she felt that her anger had been greatly relieved.

"Big brother, thank you." Ling Ling turned around and looked at Wu Tian with a sweet smile.

"You're a pretty good girl, I'll look for you in the future when I buy a car."

"Really?" Ling Ling Ling became excited and hugged Wu Tian's arm tightly.

Very soon, she retracted her hands and embarrassedly bit her lips, "About that ..." I'm sorry, I was just so happy. "

"It's fine, I don't mind." Wu Tian couldn't help but glance at Lingling, and he noticed that she was blushing.

He did not continue to joke around. He ran around on the road and felt that the car was perfect in every aspect. After sending Lingling home, he drove away.

Now that the car was bought, it was imperative to get a driver's license.

After returning home, he registered on the internet.

Three days later, he would arrive at the appointed time to learn how to drive.

As soon as he arrived at the driving school, he met an acquaintance. It was the head chef of Fuyuan Restaurant, Shen Xue.

"Shen Xue, why are you here?" Wu Tian took the initiative to greet Shen Xue.

This girl was definitely a beauty in the driving school. From time to time, she would attract the attention of boys.

"I'm learning to drive here!" Shen Xue pulled up her hair with her ears, her tone was sweet and tender.

Only in front of Wu Tian would she show such a delicate side to him.

"What a coincidence, I'm also learning how to drive a car here. We'll be classmates from now on." Wu Tian laughed.

After their last meeting, he had a good impression of Shen Xue. Not only was this girl pretty, but her heart was also very kind and her personality was especially good.

While the two of them were chatting, a man in a suit and leather shoes walked over with a handful of roses in his hands.

CHAPTER 30:

"Miss Shen, this is for you." The man in the suit handed the rose to Shen Xue with a smile.

"Boss Liang ..."

Shen Xue's expression froze and she frowned, a little conflicted.

The man in front of him was called Liang Jun, the boss of Huajun Trading Company. They had met at a friend's wedding.

Ever since that meeting, Liang Jun had pursued her relentlessly, pestering her like a dog skin plaster.

He had wanted to get rid of Liang Jun a long time ago, but this man's skin was too thick, it was annoying.

When she saw Liang Jun this time, an idea came to her. She politely rejected him with a smile: "Sorry, Boss Liang, I can't take your roses."

"Why?" Liang Jun was still smiling.

"I'm afraid my boyfriend is jealous."

"You have a boyfriend?" Hearing this, Liang Jun's face darkened and his smile disappeared in an instant.

Shen Xue smiled, took Wu Tian's arm and introduced him, "This is my boyfriend, Wu Tian."

Wu Tian knew that Shen Xue was using him as a shield, so he played along with her.

"Him?"

Only then did Liang Jun notice a poor looking brat standing beside him. Liang Jun's face became even darker.

He stared at Wu Tian as a trace of a mocking smile appeared on his face, "Miss Shen, why did you find such a person as your boyfriend?"

"My boyfriend and I love each other very much. I hope Boss Liang won't disturb our lives in the future." Shen Xue held Wu Tian's arm as she prepared to leave after saying that.

"Wait!"

Liang Jun was unwilling to give up, so he went around and blocked the two's path.

He scanned Wu Tian with his scrutinizing eyes and could not help but mock him, "Brat, what can you give Miss Shen?"

"I can give her anything she wants." Wu Tian slightly raised his head and embraced Shen Xue.

His hug couldn't help but cause Shen Xue's pretty face to turn red and her heart to beat wildly like a little deer.

"With just you?"

Liang Jun twitched his mouth in disdain, then took out the car keys from his pocket and said provocatively, "This, can you afford it?"

After saying so, he pushed the key to the car with an air of arrogance.

In the parking lot across the street, a blue Mercedes-Benz sports car was lit up. The dazzling headlights caught the attention of many people.

"Mercedes-Benz's high performance palanquin race, it's the best match for landing at 1.2 million yuan." Wu Tian turned his head to look at the Mercedes-Benz and said as if he was talking to himself.

"Kid, you know what's good for you." Liang Jun proudly raised his head and looked at Wu Tian with both hands in his pockets, teasing, "I have Mercedes-Benz, what do you have?"

"I have this." Wu Tian calmly took out his car keys.

"Puff ..."

Seeing Wu Tian take out the car keys, Liang Jun burst into laughter.

After laughing for a long time, he could not help but mock, "Red Flag Carriage, to think that you have the nerve to take such a car to compare yourself with me. You sure are looking for trouble."

"Is that so?" Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled, he immediately pressed the car keys and the red flag beside the Mercedes was lit up.

The moment the L5 was lit up, the smile on Liang Jun's face stiffened little by little, until it finally disappeared completely.

His eyes were fixated on the red flag, and he said in disbelief: "The fifteenth is..." Is it your car? "

"Of course." Wu Tian waved the car keys in his hand and asked with a smile, "How is it? It's not worse than your Mercedes-Benz, right?"

"You ... "You ..."

Liang Jun's mouth was agape and he couldn't say a word for a long time. He felt even worse than if he had eaten a fly.

He had originally thought that this brat would only use a few hundred thousand red flags, but to his surprise, this brat was actually fifteen.

What kind of concept was 15? It was a top tier luxury car worth close to 6 million, and he could buy at least 5 of them.

Those who could buy Mercedes-Benz weren't necessarily rich, but those who could buy Red Banner 15 were definitely top rich people.

"Director Liang, right? Remember, I also have what you have, but you can't give me what I have, so I urge you to stay away from Little Snow." Wu Tian threw down those words and walked towards the red flag car with Shen Xue in his arms.

"You ..."

Liang Jun clenched his teeth, unable to utter any words that he wanted to say. Seeing Wu Tian carry Shen Xue onto the red flag car, a sense of defeat that he had never felt before surged forth from his heart.

He had never thought that he would lose, moreover, it was to a little kid who had already lost.

He threw the rose onto the ground and walked towards the Mercedes-Benz with big steps.

The Mercedes-Benz that he used to be proud of was now giving him a deep sense of humiliation.

Red Flag Carriage.

Wu Tian started the car and drove away with Shen Xue.

Seeing Liang Jun's defeated look, Shen Xue felt extremely proud. She frowned again very quickly and asked in confusion, "Your homemade Red Flag Car, how did it slap Liang Jun's Mercedes-Benz?"

She didn't know anything about cars, which was why she had asked this question.

"Because it's fifteen." While Wu Tian was seriously driving, he gave an answer.

"What 15?"

"15 is... "15."

"Pretending to be ghosts." Shen Xue rolled her eyes in annoyance. She then took out her cell phone and dialed the number "15".

He didn't know if it was true or not, but after checking, he was shocked.

She didn't expect the red flag car she was riding to be nearly 6 million. No wonder it could make the arrogant Liang Jun speechless.

"Who the hell are you? Why are you driving such an expensive car?" Shen Xue blinked her big eyes as she stared curiously at Wu Tian.

This man previously bought Fuyuan Restaurant, and is now driving such a luxurious car, his identity is definitely not simple.

"Who am I? If I say it, I'll give you a fright." Wu Tian deliberately played tricks on him.

"Speak, who the hell are you?"

"Actually, I was ..." Wu Tian's expression was extremely serious as he replied seriously, "The future successor of the world."

"Puff ..."

Shen Xue was successfully amused. She was laughing so hard that the flowers on her feet were quivering.

His figure was already good, but with such a smile, Wu Tian's eyeballs nearly popped out of their sockets.

Wu Tian swallowed his saliva and praised, "Great beauty Shen, you look so beautiful when you smile."

"Go!"

Shen Xue realized that she had lost her composure and quickly stopped smiling. She said seriously, "Oh yeah, that man called Liang Jun is always bothering me. I won't be angry if I use you as a shield, right?"

"Not to mention being a shield, even if I were to help you pass on your legacy, I would have no objections." Wu Tian joked with his flowery mouth.

Being with this girl made him feel at ease, and his words were a bit unrestrained.

"Not a serious one." Shen Xue gently rolled her eyes, but she wasn't angry. "I'll treat you to a meal to express my gratitude," she said.

"Make me food?"

"I don't want to cook today. I just want to eat."

"Let's go to Fuyuan Restaurant?"

"No!" Shen Xue shook her head and thought for a moment before tossing out two words, "Radiant Moon Food Manor."

"Why did you think of going there?" Wu Tian was a little surprised. Could it be that this girl knew that he opened the Hui Yue food house?

"I used to go to the Radiant Moon Restaurant often. The dishes there are very unique and the taste is very special. Today, I'll bring you to enjoy life." Shen Xue shifted into a comfortable position and leaned back in her seat.
