Marlon chuckled and said with a sneer, "Ha-ha. I guess in the eyes of the daughter of the Moran family, Trevor is just her new play toy. We shouldn't be counting on a loser like him. We'd better go to Luisa's house and see if there's something we can do to help her!"

After telling Aggy to get into the car, the two of them drove away.

"Hey, what happened to the Burke family? You have to tell me the details!"

While shouting, Trevor followed the BMW closely for a few steps. However, as the car sped away, he could only watch the tail light of the car disappear when it reached the corner.

Honestly, he vaguely heard the two of them speaking ill of him since he wasn't standing too far from them.

However, he didn't bother with their words as he was more concerned about Luisa and her family's situation.

If he had to choose between explaining the matter of being accused and finding what happened to the Burke family, he would definitely choose Luisa. Thinking about it, Trevor uttered in a determined voice, "It seems like I've to go to Luisa's home..."

Only after hurrying out of the school gate, he realized how embarrassing it was for not being able to drive even though he had his car. His new Bugatti was parked in the parking lot of the nearby shopping mall.

Shaking his head, Trevor muttered, "Well, I should take a driving license once this matter is over."

In order to go and see Luisa as soon as possible, he called Evie for help.

When Evie picked up the phone, he quickly said, "Hello, is this Evie? Can you arrange a driver to pick me up and bring me some fruits? I need to visit my friend now and it's urgent."

Well, it was needless to say that his sister was really efficient.

In less than ten minutes, a luxurious car appeared and stopped in front of Trevor.

"Is this the demeanor and means that our Sanderson family members should have?"

Sighing in his heart, he took the fruit from the driver's hand. To his surprise, he found a bunch of grapes when he slightly opened the package.

Seeing it, Trevor blinked his eyes in confusion. Then, without thinking much about it, he put the delicately packaged bunch of grapes into his backpack.

Obviously, his sister was someone who he could rely on!

There was nothing much to delay on the way to Luisa's house.

More than 20 minutes later, Trevor was in front of Luisa's house. However, he didn't have the courage to press the doorbell.

Even though it wasn't the right time to feel nervous, he just couldn't help himself when he thought about meeting Luisa's parents.

Just as he was hesitating to press the bell, he heard footsteps from behind.

"How shameless are you to come here, Trevor?"

Upon hearing the familiar mean voice, Trevor turned around and saw two people who were carrying a thick bag of gifts each while staring at him with disdain.

Of course, the two people were none other than Marlon and Aggy.

Judging by the gifts they were holding, they must have bought the gifts on their way here which made them later than Trevor.

Pointing at Trevor rudely, Aggy glared at Trevor and taunted him, "This time, the Burke family is in big trouble.

You are just a poor loser who doesn't have either money or power. What's the use of you coming here? Did you come here to make trouble?"

She couldn't believe that she was afraid of Trevor for so long when it turned out that he was just a toy boy who had been kept by a woman.

On their way here, she confirmed the relationship between Trevor and Selma from Marlon and cursed Trevor over and over again. In fact, she had no scruples about insulting him.

Hearing it, Marlon sneered and said, "That's right. Some poor people just don't know their place and act so recklessly!"

"You!"

Taking a deep breath, Trevor opened his mouth to refute.

Nonetheless, before he could say anything, the door of the Burke family's house opened!

The one who opened the door was the one whom Trevor had been wanting to see. It was none other than Luisa!

In a low voice, she said, "Why are you all here?"

Although it had been only a day since they last met, she looked very tired right now. Her face was haggard and pale. Her eyes were red and it was obvious that she had been crying.

Looking at her haggard face and tired appearance, Trevor felt so sorry for her.

That was the moment he realized that he had fallen in love with the girl!

Although her eyes looked tired, she was still beautiful. After looking at Marlon and Aggy, her gaze finally fell upon Trevor.

Once their eyes met, she covered her mouth and exclaimed in surprise, "Trevor, you're here too!"

Seeing Trevor, her eyes suddenly turned red and her nose twitched. Then, she leaned on Trevor's shoulder and started sobbing.

As soon as he smelt the fragrance of her, Trevor felt that all the worries and resentment he had been feeling disappeared into thin air in an instant.

Chapter 122

While leaning on Trevor's shoulder, Luisa cried for some time before she calmed down.

Wiping her tears away, she said shyly, "I'm sorry. Where are my manners! Come in and have a seat. But my house is a bit messy now though."

After that, Luisa stepped aside from the door for them to come in.

Trevor followed her in a daze as the wonderful experience he just had was still lingering in his mind and it was distracting him a bit.

If he wasn't distracted, he would be able to notice the sullen expression on Marlon's face and the malicious look he was giving to Trevor.

Obviously, Marlon was so jealous!

Although he was now in a relationship with Aggy, he had always liked Luisa the most.

With jealousy burning in his eyes, Marlon cursed in his heart, 'Damn it! If I had known that she would act that way, I would have pushed that loser away and stood at the door!'

As it wasn't appropriate to lose his temper now, Marlon could only stare at Trevor's back unhappily.

While sulking, he followed the two.

The three of them entered the house.

Just as Luisa mentioned, the house was indeed messy.

There were several clothes that were scattered on the floor.

On the table, there was a newspaper which was opened, indicating that the person who was reading it probably left in a hurry.

Judging by the messy situation in the house, people who didn't know what happened might think that someone broke into the house. The three visiting students looked at each other in confusion.

In the end, as a good friend, Aggy was the first one to break the silence.

Handing the gifts, Aggy said, "Luisa, we didn't have time to prepare much because we came here in a hurry. We just bought some snacks and fruits."

At the mention of the gifts, Trevor's eyes flickered slightly. Seeing a large amount of gifts bought by them made him hesitate whether he should take out the grape prepared by his sister or not.

Seeing that Luisa was hesitating, Marlon uttered, "It's not a big gift, Luisa. Please take it."

Then, he glanced at Trevor and said, "Unlike someone, we are not impolite. Someone doesn't even know the manners and rules he should follow when visiting a friend!"

His words were filled with sarcasm and bitterness. Clearly, he was still annoyed by what had just happened at the door.

Because of the accusation, Trevor, who was hesitating, took out the exquisitely packaged grapes from his bag while saying, "Who said I didn't prepare a gift?"

Unfortunately, once he took out the gift, he was laughed by Aggy.

Looking at him in disapproval, Aggy said with a sneer, "Trevor, you are so ridiculous! You only prepared a bunch of grapes for Luisa?"

In a hurry, Luisa defended, "Stop it, Aggy. It's kind of him to give me the gift.

These grapes are all crystal clear and big. I'll wash them and then let's have a taste. They must be delicious."

After saying that, she walked into the kitchen with grapes in her hands. When she finished washing them, she placed them on a plate and brought them out for everyone to eat.

However, Aggy and Marlon had no intention of eating the grapes.

As if the grapes were the supermarket's cheap fruits that should be thrown away, Aggy and Marlon looked at them in contempt. Actually, they wanted to embarrass Trevor.

At that time, Trevor felt a little embarrassed as he thought that the grapes were not enough for Luisa to taste because they were not much.

From the moment he first saw the grapes, he didn't doubt the quality of the grapes since he firmly believed that he could rely on his sister.

When no one picked up the grapes to eat, the atmosphere became a little awkward. To ease the tense atmosphere, Luisa grabbed a grape and put it into her mouth.

All of a sudden, her face lit up as she said with her eyes widened, "Wow...the grape is so tasty! It is sweeter and more refreshing than any grape I've ever tried before!"

Crossing her arms, Aggy said, "Luisa, you don't have to be kind to him by saying good words to him. How can he give you such a good fruit?"

Looking at the grapes on the plate which were bigger than the normal ones, Aggy put one into the mouth to mock Trevor.

Chapter 123

/ My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

However, as soon as Aggy put the grape into her mouth, a sweet fragrance instantly spread into her mouth and then the flesh melted on her tongue.

The sweet and sour taste of it reminded her of the wonderful memories she had in the past.

As it tasted so good, Aggy wanted to pick up another grape when she suddenly realized that her actions wouldn't match her words if she did. Immediately, she coughed and changed the subject.

"Oh, by the way, Luisa. What happened to your family? Did you offend someone?"

Hearing her question, Luisa couldn't help but sigh and said in a trembling voice, "Well, they said that my brother offended someone so he got beaten up badly and was sent to the hospital yesterday. My parents and I rushed to the hospital once we heard the news. But, when we got there, we found that they broke both of his legs. Besides, they even threatened to remove our company from Jork!"

A loud thud of slamming the door from the corridor interrupted Luisa's words.

Not longer after, a voice sounded, "The Harper family has gone too far."

The one who spoke was a middle-aged man and he had an angry look on his face.

Followed by him was a beautiful woman who was wearing a sad look on her face.

Of course, the two of them didn't expect to have a few guests in their house.

The man and the woman were Luisa's parents, Rodney Burke and Keyla Todd.

After hearing what they said about the situation, Marlon turned to look at Aggy blankly and swallowed hard.

"So, you mean that you have offended the Harper family, one of the top ten families in Jork and now they are taking revenge on you?"

Before they came here, they heard that the Burke family had offended someone. However, what they didn't know was that they had offended a powerful family like the Harper family!

Sighing sadly, Rodney said, "Well, that's what happened. Right now, they have taken actions against our company and they have frozen the company's capital chain..."

Although he was furious, he had no choice but to accept the fact. The power he had was nothing to the Harper family.

There was nothing he could do except to put on a bitter s mile and hope to get help from the others. So, he was personally talking with a rich young man like Marlon.

Of course, Marlon knew Rodney's intentions. After racking his brain, he managed to come up with an idea. "Well...how about this? I can borrow some money from my family so that your company can operate again.

Also, I'll contact some of my friends and discuss if we can do something to help your family."

Truth be told, when Marlon heard that the Harper family was the one who was taking revenge on them, he got scared and didn't dare to get involved in this matter.

If he didn't have a crush on Luisa, he would have left the place the moment he heard the name of Harper family.

Hearing it, Rodney immediately thanked him, "Thank you, Mr. Archer."

Then, he turned to look at his wife, Keyla. However, they could see the helplessness that was hidden in each other's eyes.

In fact, the ones who had the ability to run a company were all shrewd. Of course, both of them knew that the idea that Marlon just came up with wasn't useful.

However, among Luisa's friends, Marlon was the only one who seemed rich.

The other girl who named Aggy was just a follower who followed Marlon like a sidekick.

Obviously, they despised Trevor even more than any others. They didn't even bother to talk with him. As usual, Trevor was wearing the shabby clothes which made him look like a poor man. However, since he was one of Luisa's friends, they couldn't drive him away.

They could only sigh, 'What a bad luck!'

Only the sound of sighing could be heard in the room.

For a moment, everyone was so silent.

At that time, the haggard face of her daughter and the miserable condition of her son made Keyla really upset.

Subconsciously, she picked up a grape from the plate and chewed it.

Wait, it was so tasty!

Once she tasted the grape, her eyes lit up. With wide eyes, she asked in surprise, "Luisa, where did you get these grapes?"

Instead of Luisa, Marlon answered in a voice filled with sarcasm, "My classmate, Trevor brought them.

Ha-ha. Actually, I didn't expect him to bring only a bunch of grapes here though."

Chapter 124

/ My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

Only then did Keyla turn to look at Trevor, who had been ignored all the time, and said, "They really are not cheap! If I remembered clearly, this is the taste of the ruby grapes from Rome!"

All of a sudden, Keyla changed her attitude towards Trevor as she kept explaining, "Actually, I was lucky enough to have a taste of this kind of grape at a lady's tea party. Each grape costs over a hundred dollars!"

When everyone heard her words, they were stunned! They gasped for the price of a single grape.

At this rate, if they kept eating them, it would worth thousands of dollars when they finished eating everything.

Subconsciously, Aggy licked her lips as if she could still savor the sweet taste of the grape.

Seeing the reactions from everyone, Marlon's face turned gloomy. His mockery only benefitted Trevor.

Not long after that, Keyla came over to Trevor's side and chatted with him warmly. The indifferent attitude she had kept all the time disappeared.

In her mind, she thought, 'If he can afford to buy the ruby grapes from Rome, he must be a rich man who is keeping a low profile.'

The more she thought about it, the more handsome Trevor became in her mind, and even the shabby clothes seemed to show his good taste in fashion.

Since she had been socializing in the noble women's circle for many years, she was experienced. She didn't seem to be embarrassed about her drastic change of behavior before and after.

With a friendly smile on her face, Keyla observed Trevor's actions as she said, "Trevor, are you also friends with my daughter? Thank you so much for visiting us.

It's a shame that the Harper family caused our family trouble. Otherwise, we can host you well."

Of course, she deliberately implicated the matter in order to see whether Trevor had the ability to help them deal with such kind of big trouble.

Furrowing his eyebrows, Trevor asked, "Is that Harper family very powerful? Are they more powerful than the Cloud Technology Company?"

Honestly, Trevor was nervous because of the drastic change of Luisa's mother's behavior. However, he easily found a standard to know the power of the Harper family by comparing with the Moran family.

'Good heavens! He is an acquaintance with the Moran family, isn't he?'

Upon hearing Trevor's words, both Rodney and Keyla were ecstatic!

Suddenly, they became hopeful. Was he confident because he was a low-key rich man who didn't take the Harper family seriously?

Rubbing his hands enthusiastically, Rodney smiled and explained, "Well, both the Moran family and the Harper family are one of the top ten families in Jork. But, I think the Moran family is more powerful. Do you happen to know any members from the Moran family?"

As Luisa's parents were chatting with Trevor warmly, Marlon got annoyed.

Seeing that he was being treated coldly while Trevor became a distinguished guest, Marlon shouted angrily, "You guys shouldn't be fooled by a poor loser! It's true that he knows the member of the Moran family, but it's only because he is kept by Selma of the Moran family! Why will the Moran family listen to a poor guy like him?"

It was needless to say that Aggy was on the same side with Marlon.

At first, Aggy didn't know what to say either. However, when she saw the earrings that Luisa was wearing, she felt it looked a bit familiar. Frowning, she asked, "Luisa, did Trevor give you those earrings? I saw that Selma was buying it for him with my own eyes. You can ask Trevor if you don't believe me!"

Thinking about it, she looked at Trevor in disgust and shouted, "Trevor, you're not only a useless man who is living off a woman, now you're planning to deceive Luisa? You are such a disgusting playboy!"

Because of Marlon and Aggy's insults, Keyla loosened the grip she held on Trevor's arm and looked at Trevor with her eyes filled with contempt.

Chapter 125

/ My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

After hearing everything from Marlon and Aggy, Keyla's heart sank and her expression changed as she thought to herself, 'If he is really a useless man as they said, then what power can he have? How dare someone like him want to date my daughter!'

Pricking her ears, Keyla waited patiently for Trevor to explain.

Without denying anything, Trevor said with a frown on his face, "Yes, Selma was the one who bought the earrings for me."

After saying that, he wanted to continue but he didn't get a chance as someone interrupted him.

Since Trevor didn't deny the accusations, Marlon grinned hideously and said, "Humph, I'm sure Selma is the one who gave the ruby grapes that you brought. You are nothing but a loser who is depending on another woman's money!"

In a hurry, Trevor tried to explain, "No, it's not like that. I mean..."

Aggy's full laughter rang out in the hall as she said sarcastically, "What? Do you have money?"

Just take a look at yourself in the mirror. You always wear shabby clothes. How is it possible for you to buy those earrings or these grapes? Are you still planning to lie to us?"

Opening his mouth to argue, Trevor suddenly looked up and found that Luisa's parents were looking at him with contempt without even try to hide it. They looked as if they were about to drive him away.

Sighing, Trevor tried to explain again, "I really don't live off Selma. She and I are just friends. I'm telling the truth. Please trust me!"

Even after explaining everything, no one tried to testify him at the scene. Trevor shook his head helplessly.

Judging by the impatient looks on Luisa's parents' faces, Trevor knew that they believed Marlon and Aggy's words.

Heaving a sigh, Trevor thought to himself, 'I'm afraid that even if I reveal my identity, the two of them won't believe me unless I show them a strong evidence.'

With a bitter smile on his face, Trevor stood up abruptly as he looked at Luisa and said, "Luisa, I have something to do at school. I'll go back first."

After saying that, he turned around and left without looking back.

Although Keyla tried to stop Luisa, she managed to get rid of her mother as she chased after Trevor while shouting, "Hey, wait a minute, Trevor!"

Once Trevor heard her voice from behind, he turned around and asked in confusion, "Luisa, why did you come out?"

Biting her soft lips, Luisa said shyly, "Idiot, I believe you."

At first, when she heard Marlon's accusations against Trevor, she was suspicious which was why she didn't take his side at the scene.

However, that thought was quickly replaced by regret and guilt.

At that time, she scolded to herself, 'Luisa, how come you're so silly. You know what kind of person Trevor is!'

With that thought in mind, she ran out after Trevor without hesitation.

Once Trevor heard her words, he was moved. Grinning from ear to ear, he said, "Really? Thank you for believing me!"

In his eyes, Luisa was a pure angel. Apart from his roommates, Luisa was the first one who trusted him.

Feeling overwhelmed with happiness, he couldn't help but wrap his arms around Luisa's waist.

Due to his sudden affection, Luisa blushed and pushed him gently.

When her slightest protest didn't work, she stopped struggling. Her face became redder and redder as time passed by.

For some time, the two of them hugged each other.

A few minutes later, Trevor came back to his senses and let go of Luisa in a hurry. Scratching his neck nervously, Trevor said, "I-I'm sorry. I didn't mean to do that."

In a low voice, Luisa whispered, "Idiot."

Showing a bright smile on her face, she added, "But I believe you. You have to introduce your friend, Selma next time."

With a same exact smile on his face, Trevor nodded and said, "Of course!"

"Luisa, I think you should go back now. I'm afraid your parents will be worried. I'm sure I can help you solve your family's problem. You can trust me."

Lowering her head, Luisa thanked Trevor, "Thank you."

After giving a sudden hug to Trevor, she ran back home with a blush on her face.

Holding his chest where the heart was, Trevor chuckled.

At that moment, he didn't care if he was despised, mocked or misunderstood by the others.

They were nothing as long as he could have romantic moments like this with Luisa!

Right now, Trevor was unprecedentedly happy. In an instant, he dialed Evie's phone number.

Once Evie picked up, Trevor teased, "Hey tool. I still have one more problem for you to solve..."

Before he could say anything, Evie interrupted, "Trevor, you have become a rebel. How dare you tease me like that?"

After explaining everything to Evie and teasing her for a while, Trevor was so pleased to find out that he had returned to the school without him even realizing.

When Trevor got nearer to the school gate, he found that it was nosy with a group of students standing and whispering. Besides, there were a few police cars parked nearby!

My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

Chapter 126

/ My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

As Trevor wanted to know what was happening, he squeezed into the crowd and found that it was two people who were making trouble!

Furrowing his eyebrows, he said under his breath, "Is that Dennis and Sylvia?"

Only then did Trevor realize that he hadn't encountered them since the last time they parted ways at the Millennium Hotel.

The "model couple" who always liked to display affection in public to disgust him were now having a fierce quarrel!

In an embarrassed situation, Dennis was standing beside the police car. There were many scratches on his face and elbows which were still bleeding and his hair was in a mess.

Near him, Sylvia was standing with her hair disheveled and a red palm print on her cheek. She was sobbing and giving the police the statements as she was accompanied by several girls.

When Trevor finished inquiring the students around, he found that the girls stated that Dennis was caught while sneaking into the girls' dormitory to steal something.

"Sir, this scumbag took advantage of Sylvia's trust and sneaked into our room to steal things when we went out for dinner. But since I'm having a period today, I asked my roommates to go back early. If it weren't for that, he would have stolen everything successfully."

"She's right, sir. When I entered the room, I saw that Dennis was putting our underwear on his head while holding some in his hands! What a disgusting freak!"

"Oh, yeah! The scene was so terrifying and horrible! This pervert even tried to hide under the bed. I don't want to know what kind of dirty things he was thinking at that time. It's too scary!"

The loud complaints from several girls caused an uproar among the onlookers.

"Damn it! All of you bitches are talking nonsense! I just went there to take back my own things because Sylvia refused to return them to me no matter how much I told her to!"

At that time, Dennis was furious. He didn't expect the girls to slander him like that!

In fact, he had never done such kind of thing. He now knew how Trevor must have felt when he slandered him in the past.

At that time, Sylvia, who had stopped crying, shouted hysterically, "Your things?

They have become mine the moment you gave them to me!"

With his eyes filled with resentment, Dennis shouted, "I bought them with my own money!"

Gritting his teeth, he continued cursing, "Bitch! When my family went bankrupt, I asked you to bring them back to me so that I can raise some money from them, but you refused! Plus, you even broke up with me in an instant!"

While having a fierce quarrel, the two of them revealed the summary of the whole incident by themselves. Obviously, they were both furious!

Because of rage, Dennis's eyes were red and he had lost his mind.

Raising his hand, Dennis aimed to hit Sylvia while shouting, "Sylvia, you slut! I'm going to kill you."

Sylvia covered her face as she shouted, "Help!"

In an instant, Sylvia's face turned pale with fear. Subconsciously, she stepped back which made her fall to the ground.

Finally, the farce was ended quickly by the police officers.

Seeing the way Dennis was handcuffed by the police, Trevor couldn't help but feel pleased.

When the show was over, Trevor turned around to leave when he felt a heavy stone hit his back only after taking a few steps.

When he looked down, he saw a palm-sized stone.

At that time, Sylvia's voice came from behind, "Trevor, you bastard! You literally saw me being bullied yet you didn't help me. Are you even a man?"

In an instant, anger rose in Trevor's heart. When he turned around, he found that Sylvia was the one who threw the stone.

Clenching his fists, Trevor tried to control his anger and said in a hoarse voice, "You shouldn't forget that we have already broken up!"

My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

Chapter 127

/ My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

Of course, the indifference in Trevor's voice didn't go unnoticed by Sylvia. Immediately, her face turned pale.

In her mind, Trevor was still a man who was at her beck and call and was willing to spoil her every time.

What was more, Trevor had become rich recently. At least, he could become her boyfriend temporarily and she wouldn't break up with him until she used up all his money.

Thinking about this, Sylvia said in a softer tone, "Trevor, I'm sorry. Actually, it's all Dennis's fault. He is the one who deceived me. Let me be your girlfriend again."

Sylvia felt aggrieved as she touched her cheek that was still hurting from the slap. Truth was, she was slapped by Dennis when she caught him in her dormitory!

Since Trevor had been chasing her for a long time even before they dated, she knew that he would never have a heart to beat her.

Although they didn't date for a long time, Sylvia did feel the feeling of being treated as a princess.

At present, she wanted to be in a relationship with Trevor again because she wanted to have a man who could truly love her.

With a smirk, Trevor said in an amused voice, "Be my girlfriend again?"

Then he chuckled dryly and said, "Sylvia, in the past, I saved all my money on food and expenses just to buy you a new phone. But then you went out and hooked up with Dennis behind my back! Did you ever think about my feelings? Don't you think it's too late for you to say that you want to be my girlfriend again, do you?"

With red eyes, Sylvia shouted hysterically, "I don't care! I don't care about that!

I order you to stay with me and take care of me! That's final!"

Of course, the girls standing next to Sylvia glared at Trevor.

Among them, one of the girls who had short hair was the first one to curse, "Sylvia is so beautiful. You're lucky to be her boyfriend. How dare you refuse her like this?"

Another girl raised her head arrogantly and snorted while saying, "Trevor, everyone knows that you are just a poor loser. Hurry up and take Sylvia's offer."

Looking at the group of unreasonable women, Trevor shook his head helplessly as he sighed an d said, "It's impossible for us to be together again because I have a crush on another girl now."

Once he finished saying that, he walked towards his dormitory without looking back once.

Staring at the retreating figure of Trevor, Sylvia felt that she no longer knew him like she used to. She was left alone with complicated emotions and thoughts running in her mind.

Among the thoughts, she chose to act the simplest one as she screamed, "Trevor, you will always regret for giving up this kind of opportunity."

Hearing this, Trevor couldn't help but shake his head helplessly.

At that moment, his phone rang. When he checked the caller ID, he saw that it was none other than Luisa.

Immediately, he answered the phone.

From the other end of the phone, Luisa said happily, "Trevor, like you promised, the Harper family has just lifted the economic blockade on our family. We are not in trouble anymore!"

When Trevor heard her words, his depressed mood eased a little. With a smile on his face, he said, "Congratulations."

Luisa grinned and continued, "Now, we are going out to celebrate for it. Come with us!"

Licking his lips nervously, Trevor asked in surprise, "What?"

Thinking back to what had happened in the Burke family's house today, he smiled bitterly and said, "Thank you for your offer but I want to go back to my dormitory and have a rest today."

No matter how much he wanted to spend time with Luisa, he couldn't go as he knew that her parents didn't like him. Moreover, if they were having a dinner, there was a possibility that Marlon and Aggy would go there too. Well, if they were going to have dinner together, it was obvious that they might not have a good time.

As if she was telling him a secret, Luisa lowered her voice and said, "Well, don't worry. I'll treat you a meal alone next time."

At her offer, Trevor's eyes lit up and he agreed without hesitation.

"Okay, it's a deal then!"

Just as Luisa hung up the phone, Keyla, who was putting on a coat before going out said discontentedly, "Luisa, why bother inviting Trevor? Let's just go out and celebrate by ourselves!"

My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

Chapter 128

/ My Sudden Rich Life by Rickie Appiah

Rolling her beautiful eyes, Luisa stuck out her tongue childishly and said, "Did you forget that Trevor also came to visit us? Maybe he asked Selma to stop the Harper family."

Seeing her mother's attitude, Luisa was glad that she quietly invited Trevor without her mother knowing. Otherwise, her mother would surely complain about that for quite a long time!

"Obviously, it has nothing to do with Trevor!"

At that time, Marlon just hung up a phone call and walked in from the balcony. With a smug look on his face, he said, "I have one or two friends in the Harper family's company. They told me that the Harper family stopped the action because of Mr. Sanderson, the real boss behind the commercial street!"

As he wanted to show that he was well-informed and knowledgeable, he raised his head proudly and continued, "Mr. Sanderson is a really omnipotent man. The Moran family can't even compare with him."

Hearing it, a look of horror flashed across Aggy's face. She still remembered how she got freaked out by a mere Selma.

"Marlon, that kind of powerful man really exists in Jork?"

Immediately, Marlon replied, "Of course!"

At that time, a look of yearning appeared on Marlon's face. He looked as if he was willing to become an attendant as long as Mr. Sanderson ordered him to do so.

Shaking his head, Marlon added, "Although Trevor and Mr. Sanderson has the same surname, they are two different people from different worlds."

In the boys' dormitory of the school.

After talking for some time with Luisa through the phone, Trevor lay on the bed lazily while staring at the ceiling in a daze with a goofy smile.

At that time, Rob placed a package in front of Trevor as he said, "Trevor, there is a package for you."

Frowning, Trevor asked in confusion, "Package?" In an instant, his face lit up as he suddenly remembered, "Oh right, it's my driving license."

Then, he quickly sat up, opened the package and took out his new driving license.

Looking at it, he said in an excited voice, "I finally got my driving license."

In fact, he had taken a driving test only a few days ago.

When he was putting the driving license into his pocket, his phone rang.

To his surprise,

it was a call from Brock!

Honestly, Trevor was impressed with Brock because he helped him to trick Xavier last time at the birthday party.

After chatting for a while, Brock got straight to the point.

"Actually, Seth has been acting smug in front of me because you had dinner in his restaurant. I wonder if you can also pay a visit to my Wind Club."

Thinking of the time when he had helped him, Trevor decided to go there.

Nodding his head, Trevor replied, "Sure. I don't have any class tomorrow. I'll come and have a look."

Once Trevor agreed, Brock shouted in surprise, "That's amazing. When you arrive at the club, just inform me. I'll come downstairs to apply for the golden card for you. After all, you will be my most honorable guest!"

The two of them set up some arrangements before they ended the call.

The next morning, Trevor quickly made his way to the entrance of the school.

Once he got out of the school, he hailed a taxi and got into the passenger seat of the car.

Looking at the steering wheel on the driver's seat, Trevor had the urge to have a try.

'Even though I already got my driving license, I'm a bit reluctant to practice with my luxury car which is worth 20 million dollars. Maybe I can try practicing with this taxi.'

Thinking of this, Trevor made a proposal to the driver saying that he wanted to try driving the taxi. Originally, the taxi driver refused until Trevor gave him five hundred dollars as the oil fee and promised him that he would compensate him if anything happened to the taxi while he was driving.

Of course, the driver happily took the money and switched seats with Trevor. From the passenger seat, he kept telling him to drive carefully.

Touching the steering wheel, Trevor said enthusiastically, "To be honest, this is my first time driving on the road."

Not long after the car started, a girl suddenly rushed out from the roadside and stopped directly in front of the taxi!

Luckily, Trevor was fast enough to slam on the brakes in time!

Raising his head, Trevor looked at the girl's face only to find that it was none other than Sylvia. Furrowing his eyebrows, Trevor said under his breath, "Why is Sylvia in such a hurry?"

When Trevor was about to drive the car away, Sylvia unexpectedly opened the back door of the taxi and got in.

Once she got into the taxi, she shouted impatiently, "To the Wind Club. What the hell are you waiting for? Hurry up and drive. Don't you understand? I am in a hurry right now!"

After saying that, she held her bag with one hand while dialing someone's phone number with the other.

In fact, she was so anxious that she didn't notice that it was Trevor who was driving the taxi.

On the second ring, the person on the other end of the line answered the phone.

Once the person picked up the phone, Sylvia's face changed into a serious expression as if she had changed into another person. She apologized respectfully, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry! Sir, I'll be there soon..."

For a while, she pleaded through the phone. After hanging up the phone, she patted her chest and heaved a sigh of relief.

When she raised her head, she happened to see Trevor through the rearview mirror. In surprise, she asked, "Why are you here, Trevor?"

Without caring, Trevor replied calmly, "As you can see, I'm driving the taxi."

Crossing her arms, Sylvia scoffed and said, "Well, I see. You must have spent all your money! At least working part-time as a taxi driver is better than collecting trash. But, you are still a useless loser!"

With a playful smile on her face, she continued, "If you want to make money, send me to the Wind Club as soon as possible."

Hearing it, Trevor frowned and thought about driving her out of the car.

However, on second thought, he believed that Sylvia would continue to tease him if he kicked her out.

Plus, he was also going to the Wind Club. It was better to have less trouble.

Shaking his head, he said, "Okay, fasten the seat belt."

The whole time, he just drove silently as he didn't want to talk to her at all.

The taxi driver, who was sitting in the passenger seat, looked at Trevor and Sylvia in confusion. In the end, he just smiled without saying anything.

After all, he had already earned five hundred dollars today. So, why bother caring about Trevor's business.

More than ten minutes later, the taxi finally arrived at the destination.

When Trevor looked out of the window, he saw a red building.

It was about six floors which were decorated luxuriously.

From the entrance of the gate to the building, a red carpet was laid out elegantly.

Just as Trevor stopped the car, Sylvia jumped out of the taxi immediately. Before she closed the door of the taxi, she looked at him contemptuously and said with a sneer, "Trevor, I don't think I need to pay the money! You should be honored to drive for me!"

Looking at the receding figure of Sylvia, Trevor was speechless. Then, he gave the taxi back to the driver.

While walking, he sent a message to Brock, saying that he had arrived downstairs.

Then, he walked towards the door of the Wind Club.

As soon as he entered the lobby, a blush suddenly appeared on his face.

The reason was because all the waitresses here were dressed sexily.

There were a lot of hot girls with sexy clothes and costumes, walking among the rich and powerful young men and women.

When he was looking around, he heard a familiar voice, "Trevor, how dare you follow me here?"

Looking up, he found that Sylvia had already changed into a bunny costume and she was now glaring at him.

Without saying anything, Trevor stared at Sylvia and thought to himself, 'So, she is working as a waitress here.

Well, she must be planning to hook up with a rich man here.'

As Trevor was ignoring her, Sylvia stamped her foot angrily and said, "Why are you still pretending to be rich in front of me? Do you even know what kind of place is this? You just got a part-time job so, I don't think you have any money with you. Do you really think you have the right to enter this kind of high-end place where only rich men gather?"

At that time, another voice sounded from behind, "Sylvia, who is this poor guy?"

“How dare someone as poor as him come to the high-end club?”

Due to the voices, several waitresses nearby also gathered around Trevor and they all looked at his ordinary clothes with a look of disdain on their faces.

Because of the support from the girls, Sylvia became more and more confident. Wrinkling her nose in disgust, she said, “This is a student from our school, who is a lucky loser. Just because he won a lottery and earned more than one hundred thousand dollars, he thought he could become a member of the upper class. I came here by riding the taxi that he drives.”

One of the sexy ladies looked at Trevor and said coldly, “So, you are a taxi driver. Get out of here now.”

Seeing the reactions from the girls, Sylvia was pleased. The truth was she just wanted to get back at him for treating her coldly at the gate of the school last time.

Well, right now seemed as a good opportunity.

With her hands akimbo, Sylvia pointed her finger at Trevor and snapped at him, “Don’t you understand? Get out of here! The owner of this club is one of the ten richest young men in Jork. It costs a total of five hundred million dollars. The people who come here are all rich men from the wealthy families!”

Shrugging his shoulders Trevor said helplessly, “Brock is the one who invited me to come here.”

At that time, in the lounge beside the hall, a young man who had yellow hair, a nose ring and earrings, was sleeping on the sofa with a magazine on his face.

He was woken up by the sound of the quarrel. When it got louder, he became angry.

Not being able to control his anger anymore, he threw the magazine away. When he saw that it was a poor guy, in ordinary clothes, who woke him up, he became even more furious.

Walking towards them angrily, he stared at Trevor and said coldly, “You bastard, who do you think you are? You not only woke me up from my wonderful dream, but also called Mr. Ramos’ name casually.”

Once Sylvia saw the young man, her eyes lit up. It was none other than Clint Loftus. She immediately greeted him in a warm voice, "Oh my god! Hi, Clint! I didn't know you'd be here today."

Holding Clint's arm, Sylvia continued, "You see, this Tre vor is so annoying. Although we only dated for a few days, he followed me here to pester me. You have to help me punish him!"

Smirking, Clint looked down at Sylvia and said, "Don't worry about him, Sylvia. I don't like seeing this kind of poor guy either. I'll definitely teach him a lesson."

Then, he looked at Trevor with contempt and mocked, "You bastard, don't you know whose territory it is? You dare to come here and make trouble?"

Without backing down, Trevor said, "You believe whatever Sylvia says without trying to figure out the truth? If so, I think you are so stupid like a pig."

At this point, Trevor was feeling a little morose. If it weren't for Brock's invitation, he wouldn't have come here in the first place.

Obviously, the way Sylvia was acting showed that she came to this club just to hook up with the rich men.

Actually, he thought that she was here for a part-time job.

Thinking about it, Trevor couldn't help but feel disappointed. Shaking his head, he thought, 'What did I even expect of her?'

The way Trevor mocked him made Clint even more furious than before.

Gritting his teeth, he shouted, "Poor guy, you are courting for death! Now, I'm giving you two choices. It's either you crawl on your hands and knees toward the door to get out of here or wait for the security guards to break your two legs and throw you out of here!"

Of course, in Clint's eyes, Trevor was just a poor student and had no strength to fight against him.

Since Clint kept insulting and provoking him again and again, Trevor shouted angrily, "I won't choose either. If you dare to fight me, I hope you don't regret it later!"

Clint chuckled dryly and said, "Are you kidding me? Why should I ever regret for beating the shit out of you, poor guy? Well, you are the one who chose this, so don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Looking around, Clint continued, "Where are the security guards? There's a poor loser here. All of you come over here and throw him out right now!"

However, before he could say more, someone slapped him hard across the face.

All of a sudden, a domineering voice sounded, "Clint, how dare you offend Mr. Sanderson like that?"
