

Chapter 315 Treat Him As A Punchbag

Hearing Bradley's suggestion, Trevor raised his eyebrows. But then he was eager to give it a try.

He had learned some fighting skills that day.

Although he did hit Theo before, it was unintentional.

Thinking of this, Trevor nodded in agreement excitedly.

He smiled and said, "Don't you want us to let you go? You will be free to go as long as you defeat me!"

Theo felt humiliated because he was knocked down by a young, rich man who had recently learned to fight.

Damn it!

If he had known it earlier, he wouldn't have run away in the first place!

A trace of resentment flashed across Theo's face.

Trevor was a beginner and he still wanted to use him as a punchbag. Did he really think that he could defeat Theo? Theo was on high alert this time that it seemed almost impossible for him to lose.

Since they were quite arrogant, Theo decided to take up the challenge.

Furiously Theo picked up a steel pipe from the ground and was about to hit Trevor when Bradly hit him on the back of his hand with a baseball bat.

Then he shouted coldly, "You are not allowed to use a weapon!"

Theo shook his hand painfully and felt embarrassed. But unfortunately, he couldn't disobey Bradly. ①

Resentfully he let out a strange scream, twisted his fist and ran towards Trevor.

Trevor was stunned by Theo's moves.

Bradly immediately shouted, "Watch out on your left!"

As expected, Theo punched from Trevor's left side.

Upon hearing the warning, Trevor quickly made a defensive posture.

Every time Trevor got confused, Bradly reminded him.

Even if Trevor's response was a little late, it didn't really matter.

The baseball bat in Bradly's hand always blocked Theo's punches, saving Trevor.

After several rounds, Trevor felt that now he was attacking more confidently.

However, Theo's grievances had reached their limits. He roared, "It's unfair!"

They had said that as long as he won against Trevor, they could let him go.

However, every time Theo had the upper hand, Bradly interrupted.

Bradly was biased toward Trevor. If they kept doing that, could Theo really get a chance to win?

However, Bradly didn't care about Theo's anger. Instead, he smiled and said, "What? You want fairness now? Then let me be your opponent. Let's have a one-to-one fight."

Theo was so angry. How could he fight against Bradly? It was best if he kept quiet.

After getting beaten up for a few more rounds, Theo couldn't stand the fact that he was used as a punching bag. He was in pain.

He knelt on the ground and begged for mercy loudly. "I won't fight you! I admit defeat! Please let me go!"

At that time, Theo realized what really was happening. Trevor must have a high status because he had the support of Bradly, a very powerful fighter.

With a miserable expression on his face, Theo continued begging for mercy.

"Mr. Sanderson, I don't want the money that the Burke family owes me. Can you please just let me go?"

Trevor finally said, "I don't care how much money the Burke family owes you, but just stop lending people money at usury, do you understand?"

Theo didn't expect Trevor to be a kind person.

He was about to nod happily when, Trevor changed the subject and said, "Which hand did you use to molest Luisa?"

Trevor's expressions showed that he was disgusted.

The smile on Theo's face suddenly vanished, replaced by utter horror. Cold sweat trickled down his forehead.

He finally understood why Trevor was acting this way. This was not about the Burke family, but about him molesting that girl. ①

It was too late to regret now.

Theo gritted his teeth and suddenly picked up the steel pipe with determination.

He used it to hit his left hand, which he apparently used to touch Luisa inappropriately.

Bang! ①

Theo screamed. He had broken his left hand's bones.

Trevor didn't expect Theo to be so cruel to himself.

But since Theo had already paid the price, Trevor had no choice but to let him go.

Trevor nodded and waved his hand. "Forget it! You can go now." ①