

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

Chapter 117 - The Madman

In the Sunan corporation, Sun An assistant gets the news about their drug factory getting burned to ashes. He still holds up the whole information from Sun An. He needs to redo everything again and decide to do it locally.

He is calling all his expertise to C city and set up the factory just thirty minutes drive from the capital. The factory is near the water source which will be beneficial to their factory.

This time, they are using a new recipe for the new batch. They are going to maximise the experience for the user of Blue.

They are doing free testing on human beings. The company is recruiting the beta tester with the advertising of getting a big lump of money for the remuneration of the test.

The project team in the Sunan corporation for their secret project. They are developing the factory and it is up and running.

They just need to gather the whole people to try the Blue before they can sell it to the market. They need to minimize the negative effect of the drug.

Sun An assistant is giving them a green light to continue the project before he is reporting to their chairman.

Practically, Sun An assistant is running the company for his boss. He is only reporting all the progress and getting the next instruction from the project and plan.

The highest authority is coming from Sun An assistant. He is managing the company with his cold hand and understands the temper of his boss.

The last mistake his assistant make resulted in a bleeding forehead from the iron candle holder thrown by Sun An.

He did not have any gut to make another mistake because of his boss mental issue. He kind of misses his old boss, the assistant of Mr Sun Quan.

He realises the consequences of the only person who can restrain him, lay down in the hospital. He is feeling guilty and remorse to do such an evil deed toward an elder. But it is his own life or his boss father life.

He is praying in the temple for his previous boss life, so someone can save him from his own son.

He is getting all the important files and retrieving his boss wedding certificate for her and miss Lu Xi. He is kind of putting her background a little too good.

He feels pity for Mimi for all the torture she receives from his boss. This time, he is making a little change into the background of miss Lu Xi so he will not do anything toward the abused women.

They are bound to marriage alliance, and it is out of Xiao Hui hand for her life. He is hoping for the best for this girl.

Xiao Hui is driving his car to the Sun mansion to report the progress of the job. He is getting approval of some documents and handing in the marriage certificate when Sun An is asking about Emma.

He is getting obsessed to the cute girl from last night family dinner. Xiao Hui is getting goosebumps to hear his boss obsession.

Sun An is telling Xiao Hui to compile all information regarding Emma. He wants her as his concubine soon. He is getting bored with Mimi who change become too submissive.

Meanwhile, Mimi is laying down naked on the floor as animals rest and wait for their master.

Xiao Hui is nodding and passing his boss request to the private investigator to find out about the information of Emma.

Apparently, Emma Lin is a prohibited matter and all her information get sealed by Vito. The private investigator is checking all the information everywhere.

In the Luo Corporation, Han Zheng can rest a little bit after all the attack from man Corporation toward his company.

He is well known for the reason behind every problem coming to the company because Vito is jealous of the relationship between Emma and himself.

He is sitting back in his working chair and looking at the view of C city.
The warm hand of Emma still lingers into his hand.

There is a knock on his office door before his assistant come inside his office. His assistant is coming inside the office and standing in front of his office desk.

‘Boss, we have some situation now. there is this maniac trying to find out information about Miss Emma Lin,’ his assistant is reporting his finding toward his boss.

‘How do you know? Who is this maniac?’ Luo Han Zheng is getting interested with every news relate to Emma.

He is thinking the best way to punish Lin Yan in secret because her persuasion toward her sister creates a big misunderstanding with Emma.

He lost her and He will cherish every way to get closer with Emma. She still has a little feeling for him because it was proofed by her worried with his sickness.

‘The mad son of Mr Sun Quan come back. The rumour circulates in the city about her kidnapping a girl and torture her until she becomes crazy.

Now, he is setting his eyes to Miss Lin. She will be in danger,' Long Jin is reporting to his boss regarding the whole situation.

'Block every information regarding her. Report to me every move or update from this mad man. He can't get near Emma by all mean,' Han Zheng is instructing his assistant before picking up his phone.

'And the other news is Lu Xi get married to the madman. She is running away from the production house and get saved by the madman. I really do not know about their relationship until he is willing to shelter her,' Long Jin is reporting about the girl once intimate before.

'Why He still obsessed with Emma?' Han Zheng is trying to find out about the whole situation of the story.

'Nobody knows, boss. It is better to be careful rather than sorry,' Long Jin is telling his boss before he left outside his boss office.

Han Zheng is still worried with her condition and decide to call her to check.

He is dialling Emma's phone to check her whereabouts and condition. Apparently, Emma is in the bathroom and Vito is looking at her phone before he answers it.

'Em, how are you?' Han Zheng is asking her on the phone. He is getting worried with this mad man.

'This is Vito speaking. I think you have a lot of leisure time in your hand,' Vito is telling him in sarcasm.

'You are her husband, but you can't protect her. We need to talk about the whole problem now regarding Emma safety,' Luo Han Zheng is telling him with cold voice.

'What problem with her safety?' Vito is trying to ask more information about Emma.

'The mad son of Sun Quan is back and lurking around Emma to make her as his next target. If you can't protect her then give her back to me,' Han Zheng is reminding him about their relationship.

'in your dream. How do you know about this thing?' Vito is keep asking him the whole story.

‘He has investigated about my relationship with Emma and trying to find her information,’ Han Zheng is telling him the whole story. At least, Vito can protect her better than him who live far apart from him.

‘I will take care of her and thank you for your information. As a reward, I will let you rest up from all the attack from the Man corporation,’ Vito is laughing to offend him on the phone.

‘Thank you so much. Just make sure to keep her safe and I will lend you hand if you need it,’ Han Zheng is reminding him for the whole charade to protect Emma.

Han Zheng is closing the phone connection and resting his head before calling Long Jin. He is stepping out from the office and decide to visit grandmother Lin.

Han Zheng is stopping by Emma’s favourite pastry shop to get few pastries and cake for grandmother Lin.

He is going to the tea shop to buy the rarest tea in the shop for Emma’s grandmother. In the end, he is going to buy her some health supplement.

He is driving into the Lin mansion to greet his ex-grandmother in-law. He is in contemplation when he parks his car in the usual spot.

He remembered about every inch in this place when he has to pick up Emma when she was still in high school.

He will sit in this spot with her inside the car and reluctant to part for the day. He spends time in this mansion more than inside his own house.

He is exiting the car with all the bag in his hand before he enters the Lin mansion. The maid is escorting him to the garden area.

Grandmother Lin is having afternoon snack with another old man on her side. Han Zheng is walking to face both elder.

He is putting all the bag on the table in front of Grandmother and bowing to both of elders.
