

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

'MALL SUNTONG FLAT INTO ASHES'

'THE CONSPIRACY BEHIND THE NEW MANAGEMENT OF SUNTONG MALL TO GET INSURANCE MONEY!'

'ARE THEY BANKRUPT WITH THE NEW MANAGEMENT?'

All of them is making the headline regarding the burning of Sun Tong mall overnight. Xiao Hui is having throbbing headaches because of a lack of sleep.

As soon as the fire catches half of the mall building, the mall general manager is calling him in a panic. He is running away from C city afraid of the penalty.

The problem arises when the fire department report their found about the fire extinguisher in the mall have malfunctioned.

Apparently, the poor maintenance inside the mall itself failed the building and cause the fire. It will be hard for the insurance to pay its claim.

Xiao Hui also did not want to meet up with his boss. He will be doomed if he comes forward to his boss.

He is going to the coffee shop near the office to find the strongest coffee and see Butler Jiang is riding his car toward the hospital outskirts of the city.

Xiao Hui is following him from behind with his car. He did not want to add fuel to the raging fire already.

They are going to the hospital where Mr Sun Quan get restrained by his own son. Butler Jiang is meeting with one of the nurses before he is going inside for an hour.

He is going out with a bag from the hospital and sitting inside his car when Xiao Hui is already sitting in butler Jiang's car.

'butler Jiang, do you know old master Sun in this hospital?' Xiao Hui is asking him in the open air. He can't get his head broken open again by his master maniac disorder.

‘Are you stupid to serve a dog like him? It is not long before your life will be finished on his hand,’ Butler Jiang is giving him some advice because he knows Sun An has been treated as his assistant.

‘I think we are on the same boat. We are drenched in the blood that comes from his hand. I really want to run away from this job,’ Xiao Hui is sitting back on butler Jiang car.

‘You just need to be a patient young man. He already finds your replacement behind your back. She is quite ambitious from my perception,’ Butler Jiang is informing him about the whole information inside the Sun mansion.

‘Good. I was even scared to go back and report the whole mess when he had never been to the company. I want to leave him and go far away from here,’ Xiao Hui is telling butler Jiang. He is looking at this young man sitting down next to him.

He knows him as the assistant of the old Master assistant. So, he is working together to serve the master and butler Jiang knows well enough this boy.

He is looking haggard and tired to deal with all the bad deeds from Sun An. Xiao Hui is not bad in nature, quite the contrary, he is really naïve and kind in nature.

‘How about we work together? You just stay quietly in your post, and I will help you. In return, please keep secret the condition of the old master so he can recuperate,’ Butler Jiang is asking his help for his old master’s sake.

‘Help me. I do not want to get killed by the young master,’ Xiao Hui is coming to plea for his life. At least, he is well aware of butler Jiang good intention when his old boss always praises his good and upright work ethic.

‘Go to the old mansion and come after I arrive. You have reported everything as if you are not competent at all,’ Butler Jiang is telling him to do as his plan.

‘If I make myself incompetent then he will kill me,’ Xiao Hui is getting worried about his maniac disorder.

‘don’t worry. He will not do anything to you. If he manages to hurt you then you can report about my visit to revive the old master,’ Butler Jiang is instructing him for his plan. In the end, Xiao Hui is following his plan and drive his car back to the Sun mansion.

In the Sun mansion, Sun An is not happy at all to read about the headline. One of his biggest assets in the capital get burned down into ashes.

The best part is the insurance probably not going to pay their premium. It will be another out of pocket to build the mall again and reimburse the whole tenant inside the mall.

He is not happy and lives Mimi alone locked in a special cage inside the room. the maid is feeding her some food humanly in secret when Sun An is not nearby under the instruction of butler Jiang.

Today, Sun An is going to his study and working inside there. He is getting acquainted with one of the lawyers from the US who is retired and coming back to C city.

She is famous among the whole world for her cunning method, and she is brave enough to oppose the Mancuso family clan.

Sun An is managed to coax her to join as his CEO as he deemed Xiao Hui really not competent. He is going to replace him with Su Jin to manage his empire.

Butler Jiang is arriving at the house and checking on Mimi and the new madame of the house. Madame Lu Xi is still not a hundred per cent recovered from his wound.

It won't take long before Xiao Hui come inside the mansion. He is coming at the same time as Su Jin.

She is a lady in her fifty with all the latest trends in style. She is walking inside the mansion with her head held high.

Originally, she is going to open her own law firm to be prepared for retirement. But Sun An, one of the members of the Sun family in C city, offered her a good position with a handsome amount of remuneration.

She builds her reputation as a fearsome lawyer who dares to stand up from the monopolizing of under the pretence of their family clan.

She spends all her life climbing the ladder to build her reputation as the only person who dares to oppose the Mancuso clan.

She is getting inside the study to meet up with Sun An and find out about the situation of his company.

In there, she can hear the loud shouting from the young man. She is opening the door to find out about the source of the sound.

‘Is this the right place?’ Su Jin is asking loudly while walking to the room.

‘Come inside the room. I have just briefed my assistant. He will report to you and do all of your instruction,’ Sun An is explaining the whole situation.

‘I am bringing my own assistant and secretary. I do not want him to work for me,’ Su Jin is answering arrogantly.

‘I am fine to retreat in the administration team. I want to repent for my mistake and be willing to work as a general administration team,’ Xiao Hui is begging his boss. He still wants to live a long life.

‘Fine. You can work in the general admin team. You can hand in everything to Su Jin assistant later on. Go! I do not want to look at you.’ Sun An is telling him sternly.

Xiao Hui is retreating from the room. there is a huge stone lifted up from his back. He is going to the back kitchen to meet with butler Jiang.

‘Is my word weight the intention?’ Butler Jiang is making him some coffee.

‘Thank you for saving my life. Now, I am only working as a general admin team which is lifting all my burden,’ Xiao Hui is getting his coffee and drinking it.

‘How are you going to repay me?’ Butler Jiang is looking at the young man while drinking his tea.

‘you name it. I will help you with everything. As you know for the last few months after working with the big boss. I have compiled a lot of resources in my hand,’ Xiao Hui is boasting about himself while eating the cake in front of him.

‘I am looking forward to our cooperation. You have to stay low and make them lower their guard. We have to be careful as our enemy is getting stronger ally,’ Butler Jiang is advising him about the whole situation they are going to embrace.

‘DO you know the old hag?’ Xiao Hui is asking the old butler Jiang with full curiosity.

‘I need to know my enemy well before planning my step. I am not going to walk without a plan,’ Butler Jiang is informing him. He is already looking at the information regarding this old lady lawyer. Her reputation is not as clean as the grey paper.

She has a lot of bad deeds hidden from the surface and her way to deal with some stuff really opposing her occupation as a lawyer.
