

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

. Chapter 12 - His Way Of Dealing

As soon as they are in his office, Vito is sitting on his chair while AI Jia connects him with Andrea.

‘Andrea, I will be in A country tonight. find me loophole to deal with old Luciarno... you are getting soft...‘ Vito cannot wait to deal with those old sly foxes. He already got reprimand by Vito due to his unorganized crime business. The bottom line in his family rule is not doing human trafficking especially children. Vito already got it engraves into his blood vein from his grandfather. They are not allowed to do children human trafficking.

This far away uncle always give him headache. He was soft enough after his auntie begs him to give merci toward her husband. this time, he needs to dirty his hand to deal with his uncle.

‘I will come with you... let me go and catch the flight now,’ Andrea is closing the phone connection and get ready to hop into his private jet toward A country.

‘Boss, do you want me to prepare your private plane?’ Ai Jia is asking his boss after the connection with Andrea got disconnect.

‘No... we will use raft to get into the A country...’ Vito is answering him with his cold tone. Sometimes, he can be so speechless with his assistant question. However, he is the most loyal person he ever knows from his whole life and his maternal grandmother raise AI Jia to be his loyal assistant. He even saves Vito without thinking about his own life during their training.

Ai Jia knows his boss already pissed of with his question when he is texting max to get Vito’s B747 to get ready for him to fly into the A country. Meanwhile, he is still inside the room to assist his boss.

‘Now, I know the only prince of Qing’s family is narcissist. He is always using one of our VIP club and gamble in our casino... anyway, he is holding almost 50% of the share in the Qing university because of his cunning intention to steal from his uncle from gambling. Get that share and hook him to gamble in our casino. Black mails his mother to surrender the left-over shares for their son safety. We only want the university and the hospital and not their whole corporation...’ Vito is telling Ji Feng about his way to deal with the acquisition.

‘Boss, do you want me to use the mafia way to deal with them...? I know Mr Qing and he is really upright businessman who got disappointed already by his only son. It is become the rich public secret about their son behaviour. Everyone is pitied Mr Qing and Madame Qing,’ Ji Feng is reporting to his boss.

‘Do I have to care with their well being and their family problem? Do you want me to open a medical centre in this company to deal with the family problem?’ Vito is making remark about his way to deal with his request.

‘No, boss... I will arrange it to be happen soon. I will make sure the hospital is yours in the morning...’ Ji Feng cannot defy his boss order. He is well aware when his boss put his mind into something then he can’t take off from his prey.

Vito finds Ji Feng when he still fresh graduate from a banking school in A country. He is quite dorky as freshman to join the famous wall street firm. Vito puts his big assets on Ji Feng hands which make his firm director got a meltdown. However, Vito’s guts prove his instinct correctly. He manages Vito fund to become triple in the short amount of time when Vito recruits him with special remuneration as his company CFO.

He was not aware of his boss source of income, but he is joining into his company due to the generous remuneration package. He got weak knee to find out about his boss position in this world. hence, he still works loyally with Vito after decade. Vito even makes sure JI Feng family get take care off. Vito actually is well aware and take care all his inner ring of employee to express his gratitude.

Ji Feng is going out from Vito's office with AI Jia. They are looking puzzled to find their big boss is playing with his wedding ring. He is looking at his phone in contemplation before deciding to dial a number with wife name on the screen.

The phone ring a long time before someone greet him on the phone.

'What are you doing?' Vito is asking her with his annoying tone as it take her a long time to answer the phone.

'I am changing my clothes with a new scrub uniform. One of new intern is actually open the patient vena wound which make me wet from the blood. I need to change my clothes and clean up,' Emma is telling him without any boundaries.

'Is it dangerous?' Vito is questioning his wife about the risk in her occupation.

‘No... I get use to it... why are you calling me?’ Emma is asking him in curiosity.

‘I can’t call you as your husband...’ Vito is answering her question.

‘I am sorry... I am still forgetting that I am married already... you can call me anytime you want,’ Emma grins to hear her husband complain.

‘What time you are finishing tonight? I will arrange the driver to pick you up,’ Vito is telling her.

‘Em... I think I will not go home tonight. I will need to do operation today and it will not finish until dawn. And tomorrow, I will be in morning shift again.’ Emma is telling him about her schedule.

‘Then... should I pick you up tomorrow evening?’ Vito is asking her.

‘Yes... I am sorry about tonight...’ Emma feels guilty as if she can’t go home and leave her husband alone. It is not a good housewife duty.

‘It’s fine... do what you need to do... I will be working tonight... see you later and call me okay,’ Vito is telling her before he closes his connection.
