

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

Chapter 127 - The Pay Back From Vito

‘I am sorry. How about for apologies to you, I will drink whole glass in front of you?’ Sophia is pouring the wine into the empty glass and drink it straight away.

‘Good. How about another glass?’ Vito is telling Ai Jia to pour the wine into her glass.

‘I have drink one glass for you,’ Sophia is complaining to Vito.

‘This one is my personal request for you. Don’t you love me? You do not want it?’ Vito is telling her with his cold and deep voice.

‘I will do it for you,’ Sophia is telling him without flinching her eyes. She is drinking the second glass of wine.

‘Now, are you going to accompany me to drink the third glass?’ Vito is signalling Ai Jia to pour her another portion of the red wine.

‘Vito, I am not feeling good. My alcohol tolerance is really low after the training,’ Sophia is falling to the chair. She can feel the drug start to work on her body.

‘I love to drink and if you want to become my wife then you have to drink with me,’ Vito is swirling his wine glass and smelling the wine.

‘You want me to drink the wine together. Really?’ Sophia is already drunk on her second glass. She really can’t think straight on her mind between the drug and the alcohol.

‘Yes, don’t you want me to spend time with you,’ Vito is trying to persuade her to drink the wine again.

‘I will drink the wine with you,’ Sophia can’t think clearly any longer. She is holding the full wine glass and waiting for Vito to lift his wine glass.

Vito is reaching his glass and clinking it to her glass. He is tricking her by putting his glass in his mouth and seeing her drink the wine obediently.

He is putting down his glass without even drinking the glass content. He looks at her who already finished the whole glass.

‘Why?’ Sophia is looking so disappointed with his lie to trick her.

‘Do you think I am stupid to fall into the basic trick? I lead the Mancuso family for a decade and defeat numerous enemies. You can not trick me over this silly trapped,’ Vito is telling her before he stands up and leaves her alone.

‘You can’t leave me alone. You have to spend time with me tonight!’ Sophia is telling him about his word. It is a fatal blow to her pride at the moment.

‘Why should I? Max, did you find it?’ Vito is looking at Max who is nodding to his boss.

‘What did you find?’ Sophia is getting to his last end to stay focused because of the drug and alcohol.

‘Nothing. I am leaving since everything seems so boring. Thank you,’ Vito is leaving the startled Sophia alone inside the room.

They are leaving the mansion and it is not long before Gia is rushing into the dining room after getting locked up.

‘Miss, where is everyone?’ Gia is talking to her boss.

‘Why? What happened?’ Sophia is trying to get to the bottom of everything. She is still angry to get tricked by Vito.

‘One of Mr Vito’s employees is locking me inside the bedroom after I stop him to get the token as the first lady in the Mancuso family. He is clearing out the whole safe and your bag,’ Gia is telling her boss after she regulates her breathing.

‘Arghhhhhhhh!’ Sophia is trashing the whole table to vent her anger.

‘get me, someone, to release this drug in my body! Now!’ Sophia is instructing Gia because this drug has already played upon her mind.

‘I will go, Miss,’ Gia is going out to arrange a man to satisfy the effect of the drug in her body.

In the car, Vito is smiling to get the token back in his hand. He is laying back his head and tell Ai Jia to bring him to his secret office.

They are going to the headquarter of the Sun family underground office. In there, Andrea and EXO are already working.

They are working to shutting off the Man Corporation worldwide by selling the company at loss. They are stopping the whole operation for the underworld operation under the Vito network.

The Man corporation is getting fall down and it makes the whole Elder in Italy start to contact Vito.

He is accepting their call cold-blooded online.

‘Yes!’ Vito is answering on his seat with his impeccable aloof expression.

‘Look at the company! You get bewitched with the girl from a foreign land,’ His first uncle told him about the whole situation in the company.

‘Ask your girl Sophia to handle. You all are not believing in my judgement and management. You can handle it. I am already putting notice into my resignation as the CEO of Man corporation,' Vito is telling them about his way to retaliate with their wish.

'What do you mean? You do not have the right to resign. We do have the authority to kick you out,' His other distant uncle is telling him about his decision.

'What should I do to get kicked out?' Vito is putting his hand together to see the greedy elder in the Mancuso family.

'You! Go and fix the company! This is the shareholder decision,' all of them is telling him in unison.

'No, thank you. Sophia is telling me about your intention and dissatisfaction. You can do everything you want to savage the Man corporation and you might want to ask your chosen heir as the first lady of the Mancuso family as your leader,' Vito is telling them about his decision.

'She is not the heir of the Mancuso family when she did not have the Mancuso family blood run on her. You have to think about it. Do not move too hasty about your decision,' one of the elders try to pacify Vito.

‘My decision is firm when you are sending her into C city. I have close down the headquarter of Man in the C city and ask them to move back to Italy. As the underworld network which supports the Man is my own personal project and empire, so I am not going to support your entity any longer. I will just become the normal family member of the Mancuso family,’ Vito is reporting to them about his intention to punish the greed from the elder.

‘How about Andrea? He is part of the Mancuso family, and we pay him on the company wages,’ the first uncles try to salvage the company using Vito trusted man.

‘All my team is under my personal wages, so he is not under the Mancuso family. You can check the whole report of the Human resources regarding all the wage. I am sending it up in front of you now,’ Vito is telling them when EXO is sending them the excel report for the list of wage pay by Man Corporation.

Vito is releasing his personal shares of the Man Corporation and used the shell company to buy it at a lower price.

However, the company share become low when he releases a lot of shares at one time. It makes the share price become really low.

This is triggering the call from the elders when their shares are worth almost zero. They did not expect this kind of retaliation from Vito.

They also can't get any protection and are blind to any news provided by the network. They are really vulnerable at the moment.

'Vito, you need to become the bigger person now with the whole situation in the company. We are thinking all the best for you. Sophia's family handed her to be groomed as your wife and her mother is sacrificing herself for the family sake,' Vito's second uncle is telling him about the whole situation. He is the strictest person in the family regarding rules.

'I always become the bigger person in here while I have to cater all your greed. I always satisfy all your needs regarding the profit and family reputation in this world. you only want to close up your ego and listen to outsiders because they promise you a bigger return. I give you the chance now to do it,' Vito can't contain his anger any longer.

'Vito!' his first uncle is trying to complain but Vito is closing the phone connection.

'Make sure the Man Corporation share worth nothing now,' Vito is telling Andrea and AI Jia for his plan.

He also shuts down all the networks for a while and maintains the balance in the underworld. However, anyone in the Mancuso family and their follower will not get any more protection from the network under him.

he is also cutting their money lending into all the casinos or underworld in his network. he really cut their feet and arm ruthlessly without any mercy.

He wants to vent his wife anger through the whole person responsible and make them suffer for all her injustice.
