

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

. Chapter 128 - The Payback

In the Mancuso Mansion, Gia is bringing a male escort. As soon as he comes inside the dining room, she is pouncing his body.

She is busy curing herself with his sexual intercourse when the video call of Mancuso's elder come through the computer.

Gia is getting startled and did not dare to pick up the phone. She is leaving the laptop open to be ready for her boss to use after their sexual intercourse.

Apparently, the elders in the Mancuso organisation are getting startled and their shares in the family corporation are practically worth almost zero.

They all are getting coaxed with all the words from Sophia. They are concerned with the head of the family and the company.

They are getting all convinced with her word because of all her dedication and her parent's sacrifice in the family.

They are all trying to contact her on her phone and the latest one on her video call to find out about her plan to salvage the company.

In the end, out of a sudden after so many failed attempts, the screen shows out the picture. They all try to call Sophia name, but the only voice coming out is moaning and screaming on the screen.

Some of them get their faces red all ready to hear this kind of voice before they are coming on the screen tangled each other naked on top of the dining table.

One of the elders ask the staff to close the connection and they are left with a pale expression until someone shouts in cheer up.

'Mr Toni, what makes you so happy until you express it in this grim situation?' Mattia Mancuso is asking him with his anger facial expression.

'Someone is going to buy all my shares with the same price before it goes away,' Toni is explaining to all of them in the whole meeting room.

‘Are you joking at me? Is it true? Who the hell in this world want to buy back the unworthy shares?’ Mattia is laughing about the news from his brother.

‘I am already agreeing to sell my whole share into this family. She did not even care to help us to savage the whole company while she is busy playing around with the other man. I am better to think about my family first,’ Toni is explaining about his way to salvage his own wealth.

It is not long before the meeting room open in the Mancuso headquarter when three people with their expensive suit walk in.

‘My name is Roberto Bianchi, and I am representing Mr Man Jiao Long to get the share with the original price. Who is Mr Toni Mancuso?’ Roberto is asking loudly in front of the meeting room. Toni is putting up his hand and they are approaching him.

They are giving him the transfer of share agreement and as soon as he signs the agreement. Mr Roberto assistant is transferring the fund to his personal account.

It is a quick transaction and the money actually straight away in his account. Everyone else in the room looks at him with green-eyed.

They are going directly to Roberto and offering him their shares. He stopped them to make a quick call to his boss.

He is trying to lure them to get more shares when he is just putting the show to make them will let their whole shares.

Apparently, Andrea already prepares the whole document transfer under everyone name in the Mancuso family.

This is one of the plans from Vito to reacquire the whole share in the family and put it under his name.

He will not need to worry about the whole mess of their greed, and no one can make him to choose between his wife with their choice of the woman.

He really did not want it to happen again in the future, so he has to cut off the rotten branch to make them healthy again.

Roberto manages to acquire the whole stock from the whole Mancuso family. He is getting all the paperwork signed by them and processing the transferring process.

Andrea, Ai Jia and EXO are working overtime to tackle the whole problem in the headquarter while the business still works as usual.

Vito is going back home after dismissing the whole team because the transfer of shares has already been done. He is holding back the shares price of the Man Corporation.

Everyone is going home to their own place and resting for the day.

Vito is arriving at his penthouse and looking at the living room with Max. they can see the two girls is falling to sleep on the sofa with the movie still on and the table messed with dessert.

Max is turning off the television when Alfredo is coming to take Vito coat. He signs them to be quiet when he is approaching his wife and carrying her to their bedroom.

He tucks her inside their bed and goes to the bathroom to take shower. He did not want all his worry to come near her when they are together.

He is joining her in their bed and enjoying the bliss of the night. He wraps her body with his arms and sleeps until in the morning.

In the Mancuso mansion, Gia is having a really bad headache when the whole elders start to get angry with her boss last night.

She still sleeps in with the toy boy in the master bedroom. They are having a huge night last night from the dining room to the master room.

Apparently, the maid decides to leave the house last night after her master fired Alfredo from the mansion. Gia has to hire a local maid from the outsourcing company.

They are a bit shocked to see the house condition. But they do not have any other choice rather than to clean up the house.

They are reporting to their supervisor and the company about the amount of the job in the house and demand extra payment.

Sophia is waking up late in the afternoon. The toyboy already left the mansion and collect the payment from Gia.

Sophia is grabbing the sleeping robe from the wardrobe. It is new clothes which still have the tag on the robe.

She is walking to the dining room to get some food and coffee. The house looks clean and back to its original shape.

Gia is telling the maid to serve the food for Sophia. She is giving out the tablet to her boss. She is swiping the pages to find about the news and email.

She is getting angry after reading the email from the elder who has abandoned her from the Mancuso family. They are withdrawing their support for her to become the first lady in the Mancuso family.

‘What happen last night?’ Sophia is asking her assistant.

‘you are releasing the effect of the drug from your body. The elders keep calling you, but you are too indulging in the activity. I am trying to coax them and make them wait for you. But they are getting so angry and work up with the idea of your sexual intercourse,’ Gia is reporting to her boss.

‘What did you mean by my sexual intercourse?’ Sophia is asking her for an explanation.

‘they are listening and see you fooling around with the toyboy last night,’ Gia is telling her with a soft voice.

‘How ? Why ?’ Sophia is asking her about the whole situation.

‘I really do not know. But Vito is abandoning the whole corporation and the shares price drop to nothing. The elders got panic and Vito is telling them to contact you to solve their problem. They can’t get a hold of you, and they find out about your sexual intercourse. I think they make the decision after waiting for you the whole night,’ Gia is telling her about the whole story.

‘This is so absurd. I am trying to get them more profit by supporting me and they are leaving me halfway. I will make them pay for their mistake,’ Sophia is drinking her coffee and starting to think about her wicked plan.

She is getting her phone and dialing a number.

‘Do you need me now ?’ Sun An is answering her about his offer.

‘Is your offer still valid ?’ Sophia is asking him for their last phone call.

‘Yes. I am waiting for this day until you are coming to me because of Vito. You can have him, and I just want Emma. Are our mutual relationship and common goal aligned perfectly ?’ Sun AN is telling her about his wish.

‘Yes. You can have the wicked girl and I am going to get Vito. Should we meet up?’ Sophia is asking him about the whole plan.

‘Do you have time to meet up in one hour? We can meet up in one hour in the hotel lobby near the Qing university hospital,’ Sun An is telling her. He is licking his lips to think about her sexy body.

‘I will meet you there then,’ Sophia is closing her phone connection and stood up to get ready to meet up with her alliance.

She will do everything to get her love heart back. Sophia even can make a devil agreement as long as she gets Vito as her husband.

‘Why are you smiling, Sun AN?’ his wife is looking at him with amused expression.
