

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

. Chapter 71 - The Abduction Part 2

Emma tries to wake up from the excruciating pain all over her body. She feels like no power inside her body, and it is so hard to open her eyelids. Hence, Emma still needs to fight the feeling and opening her eyes even though the throbbing dizziness comes to her head.

She really can't move her body and feel like something heavy pinned her down. This feeling and pain are so different from the last time. She has been through the worse hell with Luo Han Zheng and Lin Yan. She has survived the wild wolf who tries to tear her apart day by day.

He put her into sexual abuse, so she breaks down mentally and physically inside the confinement. In her mind, this time is really different from the last life. this time, she did not get confine and only sit down in the chair.

She is forcing herself to open her eyelids to see an empty warehouse. She can't move her body from her neck down. This is excruciating in her nerve when she knows about her sitting position.

'Is this a new thing to torture someone when they are in confinement?'

Emma starts to think in her heart about this new thing.

There is a big operation light face to her body and the surrounding area is still empty. She tries to scream with all her mighty power. But she can't hear anything come out of her mouth.

She tries to move and force all her body to move, but everything is failed, and she can't feel anything. She feels her body turn like a log of wood. This is not good news for her condition at the moment.

She is not yet paying all her life revenge to Luo Han Zheng and Lin Yan. She can't end up being sent to the afterlife again only after a short span of life. This is not really a good ending for her second chance at life. God will not grant her another opportunity if she ends up back in the afterlife.

'No need to waste your effort. You are under drugs that paralyse your neck down. You will be there until your time,' The sound of the old man laughs when I can see another body on the operation table.

'hhhhmmmmmm,' Emma is trying to make her sound back. She manages to make her voice back even though it is a bit hoarse.

‘Did you just speak? This is a little bit new with the same toxin, it is supposed no voice to be produced until the drug wears off,’ the old man is coming closer and examines Emma before he makes a note on his book.

However, Emma feels lightheaded again and fell unconscious again on her chair. She is flying away into the meadow full of flowers. There is a small baby crawling on the meadow full of flowers. Emma looks at the small face assemble of Han Zheng when he was a baby with her eyes.

Emma is coming closer to the baby where the baby is opening his small arm. She is kneeling down to pick up the baby when he touches her face with his small hand.

Emma tears start to come out from both of her eyes. She remembers her lost baby in her previous life.

‘Do not worry baby, mommy will pay your life to your own father and the witch. I will send your father to your side soon,’ Emma is carrying the baby with her arm after she mutters the word.

No one can understand their painful journey and life in the crazy Lin Yan hand. Emma still has a grudge in her heart for her past life and her baby life. This time, she is staying in the meadow and spent time with her baby. She nurses her so happy.

In the security room, Vito is finding out the person pushing the cart in the camera frame is none other than the notorious Fan Leng. He is the notorious cold-blooded assassin in this world. No one knows his location and position. But everyone knows his craziness method to kill his target.

Apparently, Fan Leng always use unconventional way to torture his victim and lead into their death. However, no one ever finds about the body of his victim. It makes him the most person to hire with a really expensive price to hire.

‘Does he dare to confront the Mancuso family?’ Vito is trying to find out about the whole situation about this hitman. In his understanding, all the underworlds will not dare to lay hand into the Mancuso family or his name.

‘He did not know about Emma position for you. He is part of our network, but he did not realise when he got this bounty that related to you. EXO find the bounty for one million for the couple Man Jia Long and Emma Lin and Fan Leng takes it. He sends the initial picture already for capturing Emma to the centre. What do you want me to do? We can’t just get all the information as our ancestor rule,’ Andrea is reporting to Vito.

‘Put the bounty four Million for the head of Fan Leng and freeze up his accounts base on my position as the leader in the underworld. Put also the bounty for the head of the person who dares to hire Fan Leng in the list for ten Million,’ Vito is telling Andrea about the whole thing in his mind.

‘Which identity to be put up on the bounty paper?’ Andrea is taking out his phone.

‘Vito Mancuso, the head of Mancuso clan and the leader of the underworld. If they can locate Fan Leng within thirty minutes then I will triple the bounty money,’ Vito is taking out the gold coin in his hand and play it with his finger.

‘Bos, Exo find the trace of Fan Leng in the outskirts of a warehouse in the entrance of Mount Sorak,’ Max is reporting to his boss regarding the trace of his wife location.

‘Get me the satellite image of the location and send the jets with the infrared to know if there is any hot temperature inside the warehouse. Get me the chopper and make sure the elite team from Mancuso to come and join me into the ambush and save my wife,’ Vito is standing up from his seat and walk out from the room.

Andrea already finished putting the bounty for the two-person base on the position of Vito in the underworld.

Exo and AI Jia will monitor the bounty report when they are going to ambush the warehouse. But this is too easy to spot for the man of intelligence as Fan Leng.

However, Vito is not going with them in the ambush. He is sneaking inside his office and get everything from the feed into his computer when he analyses everything. This time, it is not easy as he thinks when someone dares to put bounty in the underworld without knowing about his real identity.

The message circulates around for the bounty put in by their leader and the reward amount is quite handsome compared to the original amount. The other reason, if you are lending hand to the emperor of the underworld, there is a chance to be on his grace.

Vito is a person with good grace in his leadership. If he thinks about the person reliability then he will help him. However, if the person is biting his hand. He is the first person who will hunt him down.

He is managing the underworld to become a peaceful place and in place the system to make people know about security and protection base on the oldest mafia clan in the world.

There are few safe hotels for all the assassin to know and rest scatter around the world where their life is protected.

It is run by the Mancuso family and in this place, no one can fight or put a hit into their life. They have to adhere to the regulation, or they are becoming the Mancuso clan's enemy. As Vito is putting the bounty into Fan Leng's head mean he is already the enemy of the Mancuso Clan.

In the warehouse, Fan Leng originally want to check into the initial payment for Emma in his account to find his access got freeze up. He opens his special phone to call the centre to find out about his access to find out about everything.

This time, Fan Leng is getting disown from the system because of his stupid debt to this person. If he did not take this job then he will live nicely for the rest of his life. Now, he has to hide and clean up for all of this mess because of this stupid job.

There is a text message on his disposable special phone from the system.

'We find your location. You are on blacklist people and there is bounty in the system for four million on your head by Mr Mancuso.'

Fan Leng tremble to read the message sent by the system about his life.. He is stupid enough to face the devil.
