Emma is trying to gasp for air and find a white plafond with the white light on the top of her eyes. she feels like her bodies really in pain all over.

‘Miss, what is your name?’ one of the nurses is calling her name and ask her contact.

‘Emma Lin, where am I?’ Emma is asking with her hoarse weak voice.

‘You are in hospital just outskirts of the C city. Do you want us to contact your family?’ The nurse is asking her.

‘Call brother Han Zheng in 653475682. My head is really pain,’ Emma is telling the nurse as she can’t remember anything. It seems all blurry in her mind and a painful feeling.

‘I will give you some pain killer and try to get some sleep,’ The nurse is injecting some medicine in the IV and it makes her sleep again.

In her sleep, she is in the embrace of a blurry man. She is having fun with him, and he seems to pamper her. However, his face seems to be blurry. She tries to call him brother Han Zheng, but he did not respond to her calling.

The nurse is calling the number mentioned by Emma to notify her family. The nurse thinks he must be the husband of this beautiful lady. They also can’t put her into any complicated treatment when there is no consent from his family and payment.

Luo Han Zheng is rushing to the hospital after receiving the call. He is getting so worked up to find out about her request for help. The nurse is calling him to inform him about the treatment and hospital fees.

Han Zheng is asking his assistant to get a transfer from this small hospital to the Qing University hospital where the equipment and technology are more advanced.

He is going to pick up his lover from the hospital to get her back to his side. He will not care for anything else as long as she comes back to her side.

He arrives in the hospital to see her lay down in the emergency room cramped with the patient in the corner bed. His assistant is catching up with him and taking care of all the administration and ready to transfer her to the Qing university hospital.

‘Emma, are you feeling any pain? Do you remember about me?’ Han Zheng is asking her about everything to make sure about everything.

‘Brother Han Zheng, where were you? Did I get accident?’ Emma is asking about his whereabouts.

‘Yes, you did get an accident, but I am here. I will take care of you,’ Han Zheng is holding her weak hand. She is feeling a little relieved when he is arriving on her side.

‘Do not go away again. I am scared,’ Emma is trying to hold his hand tightly as if she needs him on her side.

‘I will not. I will take you to the Qing University hospital to get treated. You will be fine. I will be with you the whole way,’ Han Zheng is making sure and comforting her for the whole thing. Emma is closing her eyes as the medicine start to work on her pounding headache.

The nurse and doctor in charge in the emergency room are preparing her transfer to the Qing University hospital. They have already prepared the helicopter to transport her. Luo Han Zheng is staying on her side all the time as her hand clenches tightly to his hand.

They are hopping to the helicopter and Han Zheng assistant is driving back his boss car to the hospital where his other staff had already been notified.

Ai Jia is running to his boss room. He did not bother to knock on his door and entered the room straight away.

‘Boss, Madame Emma found, and she is on the way to the Qing University Hospital!’ Ai Jia is bending down to catch his breath.

‘What did you say? Who finds her? it did not matter, get Wen Liang to liaise and transfer her to Man private hospital,’ Vito is getting work up again after staying in his dark office alone.

‘It is a little complicated. Apparently, Madame is having amnesia for her wound and remember only about Mr Luo Han Zheng. He is the legal guardian as the hospital told me and they are already on the way to the Qing university,’ Ai Jia is reporting to the darkest expression from his boss. It makes him step back to see his boss anger. It has been a long time to see his boss get angry like this and the last time, he did blow up the whole mansion and bloodshed in Malta.

‘How dare he claim as my wife legal guardian! I am her husband, and He did not have the right to claim the position as her husband or legal guardian,’ Vito is telling his assistant and almost choking him to death if Andrea was not stopping his boss.

‘Boss, we can kidnap madame and transport her to this hospital, but the side effect can be a little bit damaging as she develops amnesia. How about ask help from Professor Lim for help for monitoring madame and separate both of them. I do not think that Professor Lim Xu is going to be an objection for Madame wellbeing,’ Ai Jia is holding his neck and tries to talk his boss out about their madame condition.

‘Andrea, can you find me about Luo Corporation and try to gather their small shares from the shareholders. Find out also all their recent project and compete with them. I want to attack them frontally as I know their financial footing is not as strong as Meng corporation,' Vito is getting his jacket and goes flying to the Qing University hospital.

He is already in the contact with Professor Lim regarding Emma conditions. Vito is begging him to treat her in the Qing University and get him as the consultant doctor to treat Emma. He even makes sure all his credentials as Professor Man Jiao Long taken care by the hospital director.

Lim Xu can't refute this request as the person who makes a request is the owner of the hospital. He only can agree with his request and wait for him in the hospital. Lim Xu is driving back to the hospital from his blind date arranged by his grandmother. At least, he has the perfect reason to elope from this blind date as he needed in the hospital.

Vito's chopper arrives earlier than Emma's helicopter from the outskirts area of the capital city. He is going down and goes directly to his special office brand new next to the hospital director office as occupied the old chairman office.

He changes his suit to his scrub uniform and uses his mask to join Lim Xu to receive Emma from the helicopter. At least, he has to be sure of her condition before he breaks the news about their marriages.

The helicopter is landing on the rooftop where the best nurse and Professor Lim are accepting Emma body. Vito can see her hand holding tightly Han Zheng hand. Vito is really not happy to see his wife hold another man hand regardless of her condition. He will make sure to punish both of them for this holding hand.

Vito is making sure their hand holding is separate in the name of medical intervention.. He is a little bit relieved to see his wife still alive even her appearance looks haggard with the scrape all over her body and dry blood on the corner of her lips and nose.
