

My Villainous Wife

Chapter 138 - The Zhao family's Destruction (3)

"What's happening?!" Zhao Shuxin looked out of the window. She could see several people with cameras in their hands rushing to the station.

"Aren't we supposed to be safe here?!" She screeched once again and paced back and forth the office. She was already panicking with what's happening with her family.

But now, the media has followed them to the station. And that's making her feel even worse.

Yu Jin Yan was also the same. She was being jittery and the energy in her body was already drained by the thoughts that plagued her mind. And with this sudden development, she couldn't help but feel the world was crumbling down her feet.

She became less and less composed. She began to bite her newly manicured nails and said to the two officers, "What are you still doing here?! Shouldn't the two of you look for a path for us to leave this blasted station?!"

"You promised the patriarch of the Zhao family to help us so you better do your jobs right!"

"And don't even say we should remain in this station or else, I'll gladly come out of here and tell the whole world that you tried to save us because you have other intentions!"

Yu Jin Yam didn't spare them as she said those words in one breath. Her usually graceful bearing was gone and the only thing that they saw was the woman who was once a saleslady in a small department store.

Zhao Shuxin got startled at her sudden outburst and gave her a sideways glance. This was the first time she saw Yu Jin Yan acting like a woman from the market and was shocked at her.

However, she couldn't stay shocked for long as the reporters downstairs multiplied.

Like waves upon waves, they kept on coming without even pausing.

Commissioner Li Wang gritted his teeth. The way Yu Jin Yan just commanded him was like treating him as someone lower than the Zhao family. He may be just a commissioner with a lower rank but that doesn't mean that he would allow anyone to treat him like this!

If only he didn't owe the patriarch of the Zhao family, he wouldn't even lift a finger to help the Zhao family and let them fall to their ruins.

But their situation at the moment was difficult. He didn't know who ticked the reporters to come to the station. Heck, he didn't even know who knew about their arrival in the country and that they were under the roof of the police station.

Was it one of the police officers who drove Zhao Shuxin and Yu Jin Yan there? Or did the reporters followed the two ladies and was hiding until the moment they arrived at the police station?

The former of his theory seemed more plausible and he went along with it. Sadly, he didn't know that even the police officers downstairs were similarly shocked at the appearance of the reporters.

"What are you doing?! Do you know that we can arrest you for creating a riot here!" A police officer shouted at the crowd in front of the station.

However, his voice was drowned with the loud shouting of the reporters who wanted to enter the station.

The police officer initially wanted to pull someone inside just as they wished and cuff them to scare away the other but a pat on his shoulder stopped him.

He turned around to scold the person when he saw Zhang Shi shaking his head. He whispered to the officer, "We can't arrest them. We need to push them outside and bar our doors."

The police officer looked perplexedly at Zhang Shi but shut his mouth up when Zhang Shi continued, "The people they wanted is currently inside the office upstairs. We can't let them in and find that we have the ladies in here."

"Besides, you don't want the two sirs upstairs get involve here too, right?" He said at the end before pushing back some of the reporters.

Left alone to think, the police officer wanted to wipe the sweat on his cheeks. He followed Zhang Shi's advice and also pushed the reporters back.

However, things are getting more intense as the reporters could see that they were hiding something. Some of them clearly saw Zhao Shuxin being taken to this station but the officers there told them that they didn't.

This was extremely fishy and they couldn't help but think that it was unfair that the police officers were protecting the people who committed a crime.

If it were someone else, they would let the criminal outside so the reporters could ask them questions before being sent behind bars. But ever since the Zhao family was taken behind bars, they didn't even get to be in front of the camera and questioned.

The unfairness seemed to radiate around the reporters and they became more frenzied. They didn't care if they got pushed or injured. For as long as they could get a scoop of this matter, they will surely get a promotion.

On the other side, Zhang Shi almost couldn't hold himself. He almost smiled and laughed triumphantly at what's happening. The urge to help the reporters and protest with them was making him nervous.

Even he didn't know how did this happen. Was this part of Madam X's plans? For the reporters to come and trap Zhao Shuxin and Yu Jin Yan in the police station?

Did she tick the reporters to come here and create a riot?

As much as he wanted to ask Madam X, Zhang Shi couldn't move at this point. It was better to lay low for a little bit and see what will happen next.

Meanwhile, Yan Xiaoran was cutting down the steak on her plate. She was having her late dinner in a five-star hotel with Alexander.

She was extremely calm and happy as the show was about to end. Her final move in this game wasn't even finished and yet, Zhao Shuxin was already at her wit's end.

The ending that she specially made for Zhao Shuxin and her mother along with the Zhao family was almost done.
