

My Villainous Wife

Chapter 152 - Pacify Her

Yan Xiaoran's eyebrows twitched and she said with a smile, "What eye did you see me abducting a child?"

The man shivered uncontrollably and immediately shook his head, "Haha... Boss, I was only joking with you. You've been gone and didn't come back for a year. You stayed in other country and left us alone. Don't you know how we all missed you?"

This idiot... Yan Xiaoran sighed and stepped to the side. She walked in the long white corridor with him beside her.

"Stop sucking up to me too much. I only came back here because of some unresolved matters."

"Unresolved matters?" Fang Shaoteng blinked his eyes, "What unresolved matters? Boss, do you need help? I'll immediately deploy our men outside and take care of all your troubles!"

Yan Xiaoran rolled her eyes and said, "Forget it. I already took care of it "

"As expected of Boss " Fang Shaoteng smiled proudly like a parent would when their children got an achievement from school.

After walking down the corridor for a few minutes, they finally reached a transparent glass door that slides open to the each sides. They stepped inside the room behind that glass door and it revealed a large room or office.

The office was furnished minimally and simply. However, anyone who was a part of the organization would know that the person who occupied this room was none other than the chairman of the Black Organization.

The Black Organization was created five years ago. At that time, it was Alina along with Madam Giselle who built this place using most of the money that Yan Xiaoran gave to Alina when she got out of prison. The two of them wanted to establish their own guild of bodyguards that would be mainly valued by wealthy people.

Every rich person and even those who were living a dangerous life needed someone to protect them from harm. And coincidentally, the organization provided the sense of protection and security that most wanted.

Alina and Madam Giselle mainly wanted to hire retired soldiers. However, most retired soldiers could no longer serve and take action on the danger zone. Hence, they added a few more people under them. These people were mercenaries and assassins who wanted to earn big cash while also feeling secured under a guild.

At first, Alina didn't expect anything from the small guild that she established. When she left the organization to Yan Xiaoran's hands, the organization was still an underdog guild that many didn't seem to notice.

However, after Yan Xiaoran took over and made some reformation, things became very smooth sailing for them. The organization eventually bloomed and many seek their protection. Now, whenever some important figures wanted to use forces who could protect them, they would approach Yan Xiaoran's organization and pay a lot.

Unfortunately, even after five years, the person who was behind the organization's success was kept hidden and only a few knew that it was Yan Xiaoran.

Yan Xiaoran was just about to sit down her leather chair behind the wide rectangular oak table, she remembered that she was carrying a child in her arms. She looked at Fang Shaoteng and said, "Go buy things that a two years old child needed. Diapers, milk, clothes, and whatever you could think of. Deduct the money from the organization."

Since she came to the organization straight from the airport, Yan Xiaoran was unable to prepare for whatever Little Koala needed while staying there.

"Are you going to stay here boss?" Fang Shaoteng asked after hearing her words.

Yan Xiaoran nodded her head, "I will stay here for a few days. Ah, right. Go bring me some new clothes to wear as well."

After getting an affirmation from her that she will stay there, Fang Shaoteng beamed in joy.

God, what kind of game are you playing now? Not only their boss was willing to stay for a while longer than an hour, she wanted to stay for a few days! Just what exactly blessing did their headquarters have now?

It was not strange for him to think like this. Ever since he found out who was the boss behind the organization, Fang Shaoteng admired her like a die-hard fan. Yan Xiaoran would always go to different headquarters and never stayed for more than an hour to avoid discovery.

But now, she was going to stay there for a few days. Does that mean that his other colleagues would now be able to get the opportunity to see her finally?

But wait... did he miss something important here? Fang Shaoteng tilted his head but he couldn't seem to get an answer. So, he walked out of the office and quickly drove to the nearest mall to buy the things she asked.

Inside the office, Yan Xiaoran patiently waited for Fang Shaoteng to come back. She held Little Koala in her arms and cooed her to sleep.

Unfortunately, the little child continued to play with her hair and even wanted to eat it.

"I just gave you a bottle of milk earlier. How was it that you're still hungry?" Yan Xiaoran wanted to complain. She just now found out the wonders of having a child who had a bottomless pit as a stomach.

"Alright, alright. Just wait for a few minutes. You'll get your food soon." Yan Xiaoran dotingly said to the child and admitted her defeat.

The only people who could make her surrender was her husband and this child.

Just as she was trying to pacify the child's hunger by playing with her, her phone beeped as a text message was sent to her.

She reached for her phone in her bag and when she saw who sent her the message, a genuine and Charmin smile bloomed on her lips.

On the screen of her phone, words were written: ["I just arrived. Take care of yourself and Little Koala. I love you."]

It was precisely a text message from her loving husband, Alexander.
