

My Crown 1321

Chapter 1321: The World Is at My Feet

Qiao Mu only swiftly added layer upon layer of water spiritual barrier around herself.

When she had successfully encased herself in four layers of water spiritual barrier, Fan Qiuhe became excited. "Her body is very peculiar! Capture her alive."

"You still want to capture me for research?" Qiao Mu cracked a gloomy smile.

In that split second, she moved first.

She fiercely punched out her level-14 mystic energy as well as swiped out her ferule.

A streak of fire subsequently struck out.

But in reality, she was only doing this to stall for time.

Today's situation was rather precarious, especially considering this woman in front of her was most likely a great spiritual cultivator. Compared to that level-four spiritual cultivator Brother Tu, she possessed a much more powerful aura.

The middle-aged woman was very strong!

But she also never admitted to being weak!

Although it was difficult for us to imagine the vastness of the world.

But all paths in the world were formed by having people tread on them!

Because the entire world... was at our feet!

The punch that Qiao Mu struck out was instantly swallowed up by the fire dragon. On the side, Fan Qiuhe's eyes had turned wide in exhilaration.

He thought he would witness the middle-aged woman capturing Qiao Mu in one move.

Yet the truth proved that this was merely his fantasy.

Fan Qiuhe's face stiffened as he saw Qiao Mu's four-layered water spiritual barrier warding off the fire dragon.

The fire dragon penetrated the first layer of Qiao Mu's water spiritual barrier, then the second layer... When it was the third layer, it no longer had the strength to break through. After bashing against it twice, it promptly transformed into red ashes and vanished before everyone.

After so many successive battles, Qiao Mu had expended quite a lot of mystic energy already.

Particularly when she had punched that Brother Tu 36 times earlier in order to frighten Old Monkey's companions.

Cough, cough, that's right. Even though she shouted that it would be 26 punches, she actually punched him 36...

So just now, she had been recovering her body's mystic energy even while hanging in mid-air.

Although she hadn't completely recovered, she was able to deal with the present situation since she had three more branch arteries than other people.

She also wrapped two more water spiritual barriers around herself, and she stared icily at Fan Qiuhe and the middle-aged woman through the now four-layered water spiritual barrier.

“You think a four-layered water spiritual barrier can save your life? You’re too naive!”

Before the middle-aged woman could finish speaking, Qiao Mu twisted the defensive thunder barrier around her finger. Thus, a half-transparent barrier descended upon the middle-aged woman.

“He’er, careful!” The middle-aged woman hastily pulled over Fan Qiuhe with a flash. Subsequently, they saw that defensive thunder barrier cage four to five zombies and then use the thunderbolts to chop them into mincemeat in moments.

“Spiritual weapon.” A hint of surprise flashed past the middle-aged woman’s eyes. However, this only lasted for one second.

A thicker fire dragon spiraled behind her back again. She put her hands together and held a fan adorned with airy feathers.

Every time she waved the fan, the thick fire dragon behind her would grow a bit.

This should be a spiritual weapon that augmented mystic techniques!

Qiao Mu’s eyes flickered as she gripped a vine as thick as a person’s finger.

This woman was about to release her ultimate!

The middle-aged woman released an angry roar, and when she waved her hands, that fire dragon split into two. They then stormed at Qiao Mu with unstoppable force!

Qiao Mu’s pupils contracted. Just as she planned to dodge, she found out that the woman had used her spiritual conscious to lock her in place, preventing her from moving even the slightest bit.

Chapter 1322: Qiuqiu Is Angry

This woman’s spiritual conscious should be about the same as hers, or maybe higher than hers by half a level.

This was the benefit of having a powerful spiritual conscious. You could first lock your target in place and prohibit them from moving. Of course, this required a substantial injection of spiritual conscious while maintaining total focus.

Continuously locking a target in place in battle expended a large amount of spiritual conscious.

Just like how the middle-aged woman was locking Qiao Mu in place right now.

And then, it only took a moment's breath for the two fire dragons to charge up to her neck to neck.

They crashed into her water spiritual barrier explosively.

She got assaulted by an energy aftershock and fell down on her bottom. Yet she could clearly hear scraping sounds as the water spiritual barrier warded off the two fire dragons.

Creeaakkk—

The first water spiritual barrier cracked open and then collapsed.

Afterwards, it was the second one, the third one... the fourth one!

Qiao Mu used her spiritual conscious to barely disengage from the middle-aged woman's spiritual conscious lock-on and evaded to the side. However, a fire dragon's tail had already struck the left side of her abdomen before she was able to apply another water spiritual barrier again.

A tremendous energy knocked her flying instantly.

Like a king looking down upon all creation, the black double-headed crow suddenly opened its mouth and released an acoustic attack.

When this sound wave encountered Qiao Mu up close, her water spiritual barrier shattered with a pop.

Blood trickled from the corner of her mouth.

However, with no time to wipe the blood away, Qiao Mu countered with her wood spirit as she dodged to the side.

A hint of anger and displeasure flitted across the middle-aged woman's eyes after failing twice to eliminate this darn lass on the spot.

She then immediately flicked her sleeves, initiating her third fire spiritual attack.

*Was it possible for this d*mn lass to not consume spiritual energy after armoring herself with four water spiritual barriers each time?*

"Mystic-guiding talisman matrix," Qiao Mu shouted.

"Don't let her activate it!!" Fan Qiuhe's eyelid jerked.

The instant Qiao Mu deployed the mystic-guiding talisman matrix, she grabbed a wad of talismans and promptly activated them all in one breath without looking before throwing them at the middle-aged woman.

Blue attack talismans! Such a large wad consisted of a full thirty to forty blue attack talismans, with each one wielding 70 percent of its master's mystic cultivation.

Although not sufficient to harm the woman, they were able to ward the woman off momentarily and allow her to catch her breath.

There were zombies everywhere in a 2500-meter radius, not to mention how using the unreliable teleportation talisman might teleport her to who knows where.

Clenching her teeth, Qiao Mu readied a teleportation talisman, opting to teleport.

Suddenly, she saw that middle-aged woman escaping the several dozen talismans with a furious shout as she glared at her with a flushed face.

Then, two objects the size of glass marbles appeared in the woman's hand with a move of her fingers.

Qiao Mu's eyelid jerked on reflex.

Could they be what was one tier higher than mystic energy beads... spiritual energy beads? These were what spiritual cultivators consolidated in their free time in preparation for any unexpected events.

The power that these two spiritual energy beads contained was humongous!

Even Qiao Mu did not dare face it head-on!

You've got to be kidding, although her spiritual conscious was at a high level, her cultivation still had yet to break through to the spiritual realm. Her physical body was pitifully weak, vomiting blood after only two hits!

Flash!

With this thought, she forcefully shook off the woman's spiritual conscious lock-on and pounced forward.

She heard the wind whip past her ears as two spiritual energy beads assaulted her from behind.

"Master!!" Like a heavenly chorus, a voice suddenly rang in her ears!

"Qiuqiu!!!" Qiao Mu was practically tearing up...

Chapter 1323: No, I Won't Retreat!

In this kind of perilous situation, Qiuqiu's voice truly was like a chorus from heaven, moving Qiao Mu to tears.

"Quick, Qiuqiu! Can you first integrate the glacial pond from that heart of the forest secret realm inside my inner world into Paradise Planet. I have a use for it."

It only took an instant for the two spiritual energy beads to close in on Qiao Mu from in front and behind.

Yet in a split second, numerous tough green vines and branches intertwined to enswathe Qiao Mu into a cocoon.

The two spiritual energy beads exploded beside her.

Subsequently, the tremendous energy shock razed the soil layers in the vicinity to ground level.

A high-strung buzzing noise continued to resound through the air. Qiao Mu hastily rolled backwards while still swaddled in the tough vines, and then she got up and ran.

“Little Master, let me first pull you into Paradise Planet to hide!” Qiuqiu suggested anxiously.

“No! I won’t retreat.” A faint resoluteness flitted across Qiao Mu’s eyes. If she hid inside Paradise Planet like a turtle whenever she encountered trouble, then she could forget about breaking through and advancing in this lifetime!

Moreover, she simply did not want to expose something as important as the Paradise Planet to two enemies.

Why did she have to retreat? She was not yet at the end of her rope.

And even if she was, it did not mean that there was no route of retreat either!

She could not get accustomed to shrinking back when she encountered danger, she had to... advance courageously!

Qiao Mu maintained her petite stoic face as she repeated, “Quick, Qiuqiu, listen to me. First integrate the things from the heart of the forest secret realm into Paradise Planet.”

“Yes!” Qiuqiu understood his little master too well.

She was originally someone with a firm will, so it was impossible for her to retreat in this kind of situation.

Since that was the case, he had to do everything possible to support her!

Master must have her reasons for handling it like this.

Indeed, cultivators could not get into the habit of shrinking back whenever they met with danger. Otherwise, they would not be able to accomplish anything in the future!

“It will hurt a bit, Master.”

Even though he would not be assimilating the entire heart of the secret realm into her dantian, remolding Paradise Planet would naturally affect his master.

“It’s fine.” Qiao Mu was carrying a large “green vine shield” on her back as she advanced swiftly. At the same time, the mystic-guiding talisman matrix was unceasingly absorbing the mystic energy in the surroundings, gradually replenishing her mystic niche.

When Qiuqiu integrated the glacial pond inside the heart of the forest secret realm into Paradise Planet, Qiao Mu felt a stabbing pain in her dantian.

However, this lapse of pain was much too gentle compared to when she absorbed Paradise Planet into her body.

She could pull through just by steeling herself.

Afterwards, she threw 18 defensive talismans around the green vines shielding her so that the former would ward off the middle-aged woman’s attacks first.

Beneath the black veil, the middle-aged woman's face had already turned extremely grave and unsightly.

She wasn't able to take down this little lady even after such a long time.

Fan Qiuhe was also anxious and went to help besiege Qiao Mu. However, this simply made more trouble by being a drag on the middle-aged woman.

When Qiao Mu caught a glimpse of this "big brother," she sent all her blue attack talismans at him.

Fan Qiuhe was not an esteemed great spiritual cultivator like this middle-aged woman. He would absolutely kick the bucket if he got hit with so many blue attack talismans.

"He'er, watch out!" The middle-aged woman yanked him away.

Chapter 1324: Hatred

Beneath the black veil, a malicious glint flitted across the middle-aged woman's face as she berated, "You malevolent woman, you are truly wicked."

Qiao Mu was not in the mood to waste her breath on her. This middle-aged woman was very formidable, practically without any emotional fluctuations when fighting.

This kind of person was much harder to deal with compared to those who showed their emotions on their face.

This middle-aged woman could be considered to be an accomplished personage, but unfortunately, she was fated to accompany Fan Qiuhe in his burial today!

Qiao Mu's eyes squinted dangerously. All of a sudden, she took out the heart of the forest secret realm whose contents the sapling had finished extracting.

Besides that glacial pond in this forest secret realm, there was only Senior Xuanji's cottage that needed moving. The other miscellaneous dirt and stones were not of much use.

Therefore, other than the teeming mystic energy inside this secret realm heart, there was basically nothing else at all.

Qiao Mu lifted her eyes and looked at the middle-aged woman. Instead of retreating, she advanced toward them with a fierce leap.

Beneath the black veil, the woman's eyes flickered as her brows involuntarily creased.

An ominous premonition of danger suddenly surfaced in her heart.

*Sh*t!*

*This d*mn lass couldn't have some special method to counter them, right!*

"He'er!" The middle-aged woman grabbed Fan Qiuhe's arm as she eyed Qiao Mu. The latter abruptly hurled a round object at them, and it exploded instantly.

Qiao Mu's body floated into mid-air.

In contrast, the light from the mystic energy explosion instantly blinded the middle-aged woman's eyes.

The mystic light covering the sky illuminated the two people at the center of the explosion.

"Ah!!" The middle-aged woman screeched tragically.

Before the violent mystic energy shocks could slice her and Fan Qiuhe apart, she flung out a jade talisman matrix composed of 24 jade talismans.

In that instant, the two people's figures rapidly withdrew from the center of the mystic energy explosion.

Qiao Mu, who was looking down frigidly at the tumbling stones and the fracturing dirt layers while suspended in the air, curved her mouth into a cold smile.

A transfer talisman matrix!!

It was a transfer talisman matrix!

This woman actually had a transfer talisman matrix composed of 24 jade talismans on her.

This kind of transfer talisman matrix was very difficult to produce. Moreover, they were made up of jade talismans, which was not even available on the market.

Therefore, she could absolutely confirm that this woman had something to do with the Mu Clan of the Divine Province!

She was from the Mu Clan of the Divine Province?

Could it be that Seventh Master Mu who was behind this?

Did her rejection anger him due to humiliation?

To these uppity people from the Upper Three Provinces, getting rejected by small fry from a lowly Lower Star Domain would be extremely embarrassing, right.

If they couldn't obtain the little prodigy for the clan, then they might as well ruin her.

Was it like this?

Qiao Mu's expression promptly turned frosty, but her eyes were burning boundlessly with hatred.

For what reason did other people have to obliterate her!

Her fists clenched tightly. She still was not able to kill Fan Qiuhe with such a perfect opportunity!

She hated it!!

Whoosh! Something fell to the ground, and Qiao Mu caught a glimpse of a dismembered leg.

This was a man's leg that had been sliced apart, starting from above the knee to the foot, which was still wearing its black boot.

Fan Qiuhe had lost a leg.

To Qiao Mu, however, this was truly too small of a price to pay.

She actually let him get away. Qiao Mu's frosty face was grim.

Chapter 1325: Swat a Darn Bug to Death

Qiao Mu stood there coldly, the billowing dust settling all around her.

Smoke and dust filled the air.

The entire City Lord's Estate could not endure the strength of the secret realm heart explosion, thus slowly crumbling into scattering dust.

At this time, an iron chain shot out toward Qiao Mu's arms from the corner of the walls.

With a croak, a large-mouthed toad jumped out from the foot of the wall and spat venom at Qiao Mu.

After casting a cold glance, Qiao Mu promptly scattered a handful of powder that directly evaporated the venom with a sizzle.

She wrapped herself with a wood spiritual shield before grabbing at the corner of the wall.

Her petite hand, which had been fortified with a diamond talisman, impaled the person's shoulder blade, triggering a painful shout.

Bam! Qiao Mu dragged a young man out from behind the wall and threw him down at her feet. She then tied him up tightly with a green vine, which produced another shout of pain.

This young man was the person who had escaped with that woman from the Anyi Prefecture earlier.

Qiao Mu swept her gaze around and eyed Guan Yiyong in a corner, panickedly abandoning her companion to flee.

That large-mouthed toad should be Guan Yiyong's mystic beast. When it saw its master fleeing, it transformed into a streak of light and disappeared into her mystic beast space.

"You really are a pitiful bug." Qiao Mu scoffed, "Your teammate has abandoned you."

"Don't, don't kill me, don't kill!!" Horror suffused the young man's eyes as an intense hatred of Guan Yiyong also surfaced in his heart.

Originally, he was all for finding an opportunity to flee since Pundit Zhao had already died. Besides, this little lady was not to be trifled with either.

Yet who knew that Guan Yiyong coveted the little lady's secrets and was also unwilling to give up that Xuanji Core.

She just had to pull him over to take a look.

It was fine if you wanted to take a look, but you couldn't even defeat the girl after suddenly attacking her. You even implicated him and escaped on your own!

He felt wronged no matter how you viewed this incident.

"Th-That lad from the Fan Clan said, y-you have the Xuanji Core on you. Guan Yiyong, Guan Yiyong! She wanted it, i-it has nothing to do with me, it was Guan Yiyong. The Anyi Prefecture's Fourth Miss, Guan Yiyong, sh-she wanted the Xuanji Core, she wanted to kill you."

"Ah—AHH!" The young man suddenly felt pain assaulting the depths of his conscious pool.

An abnormally horrifying stripping sensation came from within. Something very important was getting stripped from his body, and it plunged him in terror.

"Ah!" The young man screamed as he watched on helplessly as Qiao Mu used spiritual conscious to forcefully tear apart the doors to his inner world.

Im-Impossible, how was it possible for someone to strip another person's inner world?

The sound of light clattering could be heard, and the young man discovered in apprehension that the items originally stored in his inner world were spilling out all at once.

Ah! His inner world...

Coveting other people's items will eventually lead to a taste of your own medicine.

Qiao Mu stomped his back. "Speak, what connection does your Anyi Prefecture have with that middle-aged woman? Are you guys in cahoots?"

The young man had already fainted from pain, but this stomp on his spine roused him again as his whole body shook.

This young man knew that his life would end here today no matter what, so after balancing the scales in his heart, he said decisively, "Just, just kill me, kill me! I only ask for a quick death."

"Humph." Qiao Mu gave a harrumph. "If you answer honestly, you will get a quick death."

"Don't, don't know her," the young man grunted.

Chapter 1326: A Hunch

The young man spewed large amounts of fresh blood as he shook his head and said, "I-I don't know them! We did not come together."

As expected, the two parties were not in league.

These three people from the Anyi Prefecture must have suspected that she had acquired the Xuanji Core after getting the news from the Fan Clan. Therefore, the purpose of their trip was to obtain her Xuanji Core, but they did not expect to lose two people here, with Guan Yiyang being the only one to escape.

As for Old Monkey, Brother Tu, and their men whom the middle-aged woman had brought, it was very likely that they hailed from the Mu Clan of the Divine Province, their purpose being to eliminate her, this little prodigy.

Was this Old Seventh Mu's doing?

A vicious glint flitted across Qiao Mu's eyes. No matter who it was, she was absolutely not going to take this lying down!

They wanted her to submit and bear with it after trying to assassinate her? Dream on!

As for Fan Qiuhe, the two people must have some connection from how the middle-aged woman protected him.

Originally, Fan Qiuhe wanted to take advantage of the three people from the Anyi Prefecture to smack her dead at Jiaozhong Base.

After realizing that the three people from the Anyi Prefecture were useless, he then notified that middle-aged woman. As Qiao Mu was thinking, she tapped at her throbbing temples.

Why wasn't she able to recall right now whether she had seen this middle-aged woman before somewhere?

Could it be that she had actually seen this middle-aged woman in her previous life before!

Was it in Fan Qiuhe's isolated research lab?

"Qiaoqiao." An agitated shout suddenly interrupted all her thoughts.

Qiao Mu blinked as she turned around. She saw Mo Lian dashing toward her, with Duan Yue, Eldest Qin, and a hundred other people behind him.

They had also brought along the wilted Old Monkey and his companions, whom they had detained.

Looks like Mo Lian and them had intervened to capture these minor spiritual cultivators.

Qiao Mu's eyes flickered as she bolted toward Mo Lian and landed in his arms.

"Qiaoqiao, are you okay? What was that tremor just now? We could even hear it from very far away. Let me take a look. You, got hurt?"

"Do not worry. With me here, nothing can happen to Master." A slender little treant bobbed its head at Mo Lian while lying on Qiao Mu's shoulder.

Mo Lian only then saw the little treant, and he said while releasing a sigh of relief. "The sapling has come out."

"Mhm." Qiao Mu nodded. "If it weren't for the sapling's help, I would probably be in a big pickle."

“I’m fine, it’s just that my body is too feeble.” Qiao Mu knitted her brows. It seems like she should try training her body after returning to the capital this time.

Mo Lian embraced her, which allowed her to grab his wrist and take his pulse instead. “Why is your breathing so erratic?”

“Ah, it’s fine, it’s fine.”

“Cause a certain person provoked Heavenly Law’s anger. It’s already quite good to have gotten away with it,” Duan Yue bantered as he walked over.

Qiao Mu eyed Mo Lian. “You used some incredible power?”

Mo Lian tossed Duan Yue a cold glance before reassuring Qiao Mu, “Everything is already fine now, don’t worry. Right now, I’m more worried about your injuries.”

Duan Yue quickly walked up and examined Qiao Mu. “Qiaoqiao, you got hurt? Did you cause that huge commotion just earlier?”

“Mhm.” Qiao Mu nodded. “I detonated the heart of the Mystic Beast Forest secret realm. I originally wanted to keep Fan Qiuhe and a middle-aged woman here forever, yet who knew that they would be able to escape.”

The two men could not help but look at each other in dismay.

Qiaoqiao was actually so lavish as to detonate a mystic domain. No wonder the entire City Lord’s Estate had turned to ashes with a poof in this huge earthquake.

Chapter 1327: The Audacity

“It’s perfect that you guys have captured these people. I need to ask them something.” After speaking several words with the two, she promptly walked toward Eldest Qin and the other people.

Everyone crowded around her at once to inquire about her condition. After waving her hand to indicate that she was okay, Qiao Mu walked up to Eldest Qin.

However, before Eldest Qin could speak up, the little fellow fiercely kicked a person’s head and stomped on him. Her voice was as if it had been dredged up from arctic waters as she interrogated apathetically, “Are you people from the Divine Province’s Mu Clan.”

“Cough. Cough, cough.” Since that person was Old Monkey’s good bro, he was quite obstinate. Therefore, he did not utter a word besides grunting and coughing from Qiao Mu’s fists.

“Do you have any way to get them to talk?” Qiao Mu turned to look at Mo Lian.

Her dictum talismans were ineffective on these people whose cultivation was much higher than hers.

If their cultivation was also in the mystic realm, then she could take a stab at it, but as these people were around level-three spiritual cultivation, which was much higher than hers, using dictum talismans would have no effect at all.

As for those repulsive fellows beside him, they were already begging for mercy before she even laid a hand on them. From how they were toadying to her, they didn't look like they were in the know.

“Just search his soul. It's easy and convenient.” Eldest Qin tugged a chilly smile from the corner of his mouth.

“Let me do it!” Duan Yue volunteered, but he was stopped by Mo Lian. “No need!”

Yet before they could finish arguing over who would do the honors, that man who had originally sealed his mouth shut had already been scared into trembling all over. He shouted uncontrollably, “D-Don't, don't search my soul.”

Qiao Mu looked at them puzzledly. She didn't understand what this so-called soul search was to scare this person so much.

“I-I'll talk. I'll tell you everything.” That man spoke frantically, divulging everything he knew.

“We aren't from the Divine Province's Mu Clan. We are from the Six Prefectures' Clear Sky Faction. That woman is called Fan Gu, our Clear Sky Faction's assistant faction master. Clear Sky Faction can be considered a mid-level power in the Six Prefectures, and we...”

“You're lying.” Qiao Mu coldly interrupted him. “She has a transfer talisman matrix made up of 24 jade talismans. I wouldn't believe it if she weren't from a talisman patrician family. Do you guys believe it?”

Everyone shook their heads too.

A transfer talisman matrix made up of 24 jade talismans sounded so high-levelled. Sikong Planet had never even seen such a thing before.

“It-It’s true, really.” That man was so anxious that sweat streamed down his face. “This one absolutely dares not to lie. Assistant Faction Master... Fan Gu has never mentioned her background in front of us. As for those strange talismans of hers, we have also asked her about them before, but she has never told us.”

“This miss, this time’s operation was Assistant Faction Master’s order. Speaking of which, we are only a bunch of minions carrying out our mission. Will Miss please be magnanimous and let us off. We guarantee that we will never come to bother you again.”

“Only dead people will never bother me again.” Qiao Mu’s icy words made everyone’s hearts jolt.

“Hand over the black spirit jades in your inner worlds! Forget it, take out everything in your inner worlds!” Qiao Mu tilted her head and gestured with her chin at the man lying on the ground whose inner world she had already stripped. “You will only be in more pain if I do it.”

Chapter 1328: Plunder

Black spirit jade? The people from Clear Sky Faction goggled, practically unable to believe their ears.

What did she want?

Black spirit jade? How could lackeys like them possess something like black spirit jade?

Black spirit jade could supplement and augment the five spirits, not to mention being divine beasts’ choice for replenishing energy. But how would they have such a thing!

For one, the levels of their five spirits were very low and would not be able to handle such a strong tonic. Secondly, they didn’t have divine beasts that needed this either!

Besides, black spirit jade deposits were not to be found anywhere and were located deep underground. Even if one could detect it with special instruments, that person might not live to excavate it.

Yet this little lady wanted such a highly ranked item from the outset. Where could they go...

“Ah, AHH!” Several of the men who were showing unwilling expressions were the first to sense a stab of pain assaulting their conscious pool.

Suddenly, their inner worlds were overturned and started raining down objects noisily.

When the rest of the people witnessed those people's unbearable pain, their hearts squeezed with fright as they stared in horror at the stoic-faced little lady.

"We-We'll give, give, give it all up!" These people vied to be the first to dig out their items. They were regretting incessantly why they had come with the assistant faction master to make trouble for this girl.

It was great now, not only did they have to offer up the items in their inner worlds, they weren't able to save their humble lives today either.

Was there a medicine for regret in this world?

Meanwhile, Brother Axe and the others were all gawking at this young crown prince consort.

They really had suffered from eight lifetimes of bloody misfortune. They came to assassinate the crown prince consort, but they had to turn over everything in their inner worlds in addition to giving up their lives.

After probing this heap of trash for a long while, Qiao Mu finally dug out two pieces of black spirit jade as well as several black-rank herbs from the leading Clear Sky Faction disciples. The rest did not catch her eye at all.

Subsequently, she pointed at the heap of items on the ground. "You guys go divide them up."

Everyone: !

A petite female mystic cultivator inquired excitedly, "Rea-Really, Crown Prince Consort?"

"Since the crown prince consort said they are for you, take them." Mo Lian gestured with his hand, letting them move the items aside to divvy them up.

Situ Yi and Liang Qingqing did not go up to get a share. The things inside the storage talisman that Qiao Mu gave them previously were loads better than this trash, so these items naturally would not attract them.

Although it looked to be a lot, each person did not get a lot after dividing the items up between one hundred people. However, the process of dividing the spoils was buzzing with excitement and delight. Everyone was hollering that this trip was not in vain.

"Qiaoqiao, how should we deal with these people?" Eldest Qin kicked that unlucky guy who had crumpled to the ground after getting his inner world plundered.

"Kill." Qiao Mu did not even bat an eyelid.

It was all because she was completely different from her past life now, with a bunch of endless trump cards.

Otherwise, wouldn't they have successfully besieged and killed her in this small, remote base?

That's why there was no reason to be unconvinced. It was all fate. Who told them to want to kill her?

If she didn't kill them, could it be that she should let the tiger return to the mountains for retaliation in the future?

She needed to be vicious to her enemies!

Elders Qin nodded and then beckoned for several mystic cultivators to bring the people away and dispose of them.

"Have you found the storehouse yet?"

"Not yet." Duan Yue shook his head. "After the two successive explosions, the nearby zombies will probably get drawn over here."

Qiao Mu nodded. "You guys continue with the search."

Chapter 1329: Chuyun Planet

She tugged at Mo Lian's hand and led him to the side. "I need to adjust my breathing a bit."

"Okay, I'll be here watching you." Seeing her sit down, Mo Lian also found a slightly more level rock to sit on beside her.

The crumbling dirt walls around them had slowly quieted down.

Right now, the entire City Lord's Estate had turned into a desolate scene of dilapidated walls from the explosions.

Qiao Mu turned to the sapling on her shoulder and instructed, "Qiuqiu, assimilate my other secret inheritance realm into the Star Domain."

"Okay!" Qiuqiu liked to do this kind of thing the most. Before, other than the main planet in Master's Star Domain, there were also the four biggest planets, with each one completely able to best Paradise Planet's vast land area.

But now, he wasn't able to trigger any of them. Luckily, Master's cultivation had already advanced to level 14, making him capable of more things in the future.

"Master, Master. Your cultivation is already level 14 right now. From now on, you'll be able to toss small live animals into Paradise Planet yourself."

As there was nothing to hide from Mo Lian, they started whispering about Paradise Planet's matters.

"Is that so." Although her face remained stoic, Qiao Mu was extremely delighted on the inside.

Qiuqiu seemed to have mentioned before that she would be able to collect animals into Paradise Planet when her cultivation advanced to level 13.

With her present level-14 mystic cultivation through and through, she could naturally accomplish this.

"Master, you're amazing. During this time when Qiuqiu wasn't here, you didn't lag behind in your cultivation at all but rather soared so much. So, so, so incredible!" Qiuqiu lavished so much praise that Qiao Mu was a bit embarrassed.

If the big ape hadn't screwed her over and forced her into closed-door cultivation for so long, who the hell knew what her cultivation state would be hovering at...

Although the rapid cultivation curse was quite screwy, it was extremely beneficial for cultivation.

Judging from this, not all curses were intolerable.

Besides, some special curses only became sinister and heretical in the hands of evil people.

Qiao Mu closed her eyes and waited as Qiuqiu assimilated Long Chuyun's secret inheritance realm into the star domain in her dantian.

This process took longer than remolding Paradise Planet, but the pain level was acceptable compared to when she first assimilated Paradise Planet.

After an hour, Chuyun Planet's secret inheritance realm was assimilated into her star domain.

Subsequently, a small star originally beside Paradise Planet suddenly lit up.

Qiao Mu used her inner sight to assess her dantian. Her eyes brimmed with a spiritual vitality, after which she entered that small star.

She saw that Long Chuyun's secret inheritance realm did not change at all. The three thatched cottages seemed a bit lonely on the large planet.

There was only a small grove of trees before the doors. After getting assimilated into the star domain, the secret realm expanded by more than three times and was filled with a dense mystic energy.

Qiao Mu retracted her gaze and looked at Paradise Planet.

She couldn't help but be shocked upon taking a look.

After being remolded with the integration of the forest secret realm, the entire Paradise Planet had become so exquisite and beautiful.

There were the peach blossom petals swirling about in the forest, the murmuring water in the lake, the lucid glacial pond behind the peach orchard slope, the cottage beside the glacial pond, and the queer, rugged rocks piled up before the door.

Outside the peach forest, there were a good several storehouses piled up with supplies.

At present, she had three storehouses of grain, two of veggies, and one of meat.

After filling up the peach storehouse, another had been built, but it looked like the heap was about to reach the beams again.

Qiuqiu had built two herb storehouses, and the first one was almost full now, as well.

Chapter 1330: Thriving and Flourishing

Qiuqiu named the medicinal garden that covered 50 mu¹ of land on Paradise Planet Hundred Herbs Garden.

The medicinal garden was juxtaposed with a Hundred Poisons Valley just opposite. The poison-tailed butterfly queen Xiaoxiao leisurely roamed about the poisonous flowers and plants planted inside with a swarm of little butterflies.

It was peaceful and quiet on the peach orchard slope. The Maple Pavilion that Qiuqiu had built for her was also erected on the slope, and he had even planted the longeval tree and that mutated peach tree here. Both trees had blossomed on the tranquil slope.

With a thought, Qiao Mu tossed the large heap of primary-rank herbs inside her storage talismans into Paradise Planet.

She'd let Qiuqiu just build a primary-rank herb storehouse for them.

With Qiuqiu's control over the wood spirit, it was simply no effort to build a primary-rank herb storehouse out of wood. Several seconds was all it took.

He even built another empty storehouse in passing and chuckled, "Might as well move all the miscellaneous supplies in the two carriages out front into this storehouse."

Qiao Mu nodded. She remembered that she had anxiously asked Second Uncle to prepare the supplies in these two carriages at the very beginning.

There were all varieties of fruits, meat, veggies, and seasonings inside. Additionally, there was Second Uncle's wine as well as some basic medicines, cloth, and daily necessities.

"In the future, you can take out this carriage for use anytime. Remember to bring in several horses. I've already planned it out. What do you think of building a farm in front of the magnetite mine mountain?"

"Mhm, keep it further away."

“That is for certain. Can’t let these four-legged beasts trample the Paradise Planet that we worked so hard to build.” Qiuqiu chortled, “I’ll fence them in and make a big farm so that they won’t carelessly come out.”

If some blind cow or pig were to jump out and trample their Hundred Herbs Garden, Qiuqiu would die from heartache.

Meanwhile, Qiao Mu was in a joyous mood. She had a short-term goal for now of finding more non-mutated animals to bring inside.

By breeding her own animals, she would not have to worry about a shortage in supply of meat anymore.

Presently, her Paradise Planet was truly thriving and flourishing with everything one could wish for.

Even if the entire Sikong Planet were to get annihilated from an explosion, she could bring her friends and family into Paradise Planet, where they could smoothly live out the rest of their lives.

Of course, this was the worst case scenario; she did not hope for this to happen.

She was looking forward to seeing the common people’s lives improving by the day outside.

Before the nightcaw birds made their move next time, she would nip them in the bud. Afterwards, this dark and gloomy world would probably see a ray of light.

After retracting her inner sight, she curved her lips as she turned to Mo Lian, who was looking at her. “Lian, when this is over, we’ll enter Paradise Planet together. It’s so pretty right now.”

“Okay.”

“Qiuqiu, have you planted all the seeds that Second Uncle had gathered?” Qiao Mu glanced at the little treant that was huffing and puffing to climb up her shoulder.

“Mhm. See how the medicinal garden has been expanded to 50 mu now compared to just 30 before. I’ve planted everything that could be planted. Aren’t I great!”

“You really are.” Qiao Mu did not withhold her praise. “Qiuqiu knows the characteristics of plants inside out. You truly have helped me greatly.”

“Master, Master, I’m good as long as you’re happy!” Qiuqiu gesticulated while exclaiming, “Besides, I don’t have to do the work. I just have to summon more treant doppelgängers!”

Qiao Mu stroked the five tender leaves on his head.
