My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 1

I've got married ?

A luxurious manor, in the western suburb of Yanjing City.

In the center of this 100-acre luxurious and elegant manor, an extraordinary and indestructible steel house stood there, which was completely made of high-quality steel including the doors, windows and beams.

At noon, Qingcheng Liu, known as the country's richest woman, was walking slowly toward the house with food plate on her hands.

As soon as she arrived at the iron gate, a dull voice inside came out, "Just put the food at the door!"

Qingcheng Liu stood at the door and said, "Why not let me in and stay for a while?"

"No!" The man answered resolutely .

Qingcheng Liu did not give up, "I just want to see you. Please let me in. I'll leave right away after that."

"There are too many hidden traps inside the room. You will get hurt if you come in." A cold voice came from the iron house.

Qingcheng reluctantly said, "My son, the manor is monitored everywhere with strict protection. Moreover, you have learned martial arts and possessed extraordinary abilities since your childhood. Why are you so cautious?"

That's right. The man in the house was Qingcheng's loved son, Andy Wu, the heir to the First Family in the country—the Wu family!

Hearing what his mother said, Andy gave a reply slowly, "False friends are worse than bitter enemies. It's always right to be cautious."

Qingcheng said, "You are right. But you have been staying in the house since you became the heir to the Wu family. I haven't seen you for four years. Don't you think you are too cautious on this?"

Andy Wu said disapprovingly, "Mom, do you know that how many people out there are jealous of me and even hate me because I'm the heir to the Wu family? "

Andy Wu cares most about his life. He has been hoping to live to a hundred year with valor since in his early age. That's why he changed his name to Andy.

As Andy's mother, she certainly knows about her son. He is so clever that he is good at learning everything. Now he has been a man versed in both literature and martial arts, in addition, he was appointed as the heir to the Wu family when he just came of age.

But he was too cautious! His mother Qingcheng thought so.

Qingcheng could do nothing with Andy. Seeing that Andy didn't eat, she sighed deeply. After putting down the food gently, she had to leave.

It was not until Qingcheng Liu disappeared from sight that Andy Wu took the food and began to eat.

But then, Andy Wu's complexion suddenly changed.

"It's poisonous!"

Realizing that something was wrong, Andy immediately stretched fingers into his throat and tried to spit out the food.

Puff!

As a mouthful of blood spurted from his mouth, he fell to the ground with his expression filled with consternation.

.....

Three years later, in a mental hospital, Westplain City.

Andy Wu slowly opened his eyes on the bed, staring at the ceiling.

His fists were clenched tightly. A strong force was flowing rapidly inside him with his eyes flashing a sharp light in the silent space.

He was very concerned about his security, and staying cautious about everything all his life, but he never expected that he was poisoned.

Thinking of this, Andy felt very irritated.

"Still alive? Put on your clothes and go with me!"

A female voice suddenly came along as Andy was being immersed in memories. A tall woman strode into the ward.

This woman, named Jenny Xia, was known as a beauty in Westplain City.

Andy let loose his fists immediately and looked at Jenny Xia.

After a while, Andy asked, "Who are you?"

Jenny shouted angrily at Andy, "You stupid! Don't you remember your wife?"

Wife?

Andy was instantly stunned. When did he get married?

He tried to recall. But the memories seemed to be so terrible that made him painful.

As Jenny was looking at such a stupid man, she became more angry at the sight. She frowned and complained, "I can't understand why Grandpa took such a fool as my husband!"

Three years ago, Guangyao Xia (The old man of Xia family) gave his order that his beloved grand-daughter Jenny be given to Andy Wu in marriage. Later, and shortly after Guangyao Xia died, his last will was that Jenny couldn't divorce Andy.

Though Jenny didn't understand her Grandpa's thoughts, she obeyed his will. She didn't divorce but lived in pain.

"I've got married?" Andy Wu suddenly sat up and murmured.

Fragmented parts of memory began to float in Andy's mind. Since he got well from poison, he had been living in Westplain City, a strange city for him. At that time, he lost all his memories and all his intelligence and force. Overnight, he descended from a genius, the heir to the First Family, down to a fool without any background. And Jenny married such a fool and lived with him for three years.

Now, Andy had regained all his memories!

"Get up! Follow me!" Jenny felt reluctant and said, walking out of the ward.

Andy looked at her back with complication. After a while, he took off the hospital gown and put on his own clothes, following her out.

On the way, Jenny was driving her Audi Q3 very fast, without saying a word.

Andy sat quietly in the back seat of the car.

During the past three years, Andy had done so many unbelievable stupid things since he became a son-in-law to the Xia family, and he was a well-known local fool in Westplain City, being ridiculed and humiliated by the neighborhood.

Because of him, Jenny had become a joke in Westplain City.

No wonder Jenny held a bad attitude toward him.

Andy understood and felt sorry for her.

"Don't say anything no matter who you meet. Please, don't disgrace me." Jenny suddenly said coldly.

Andy pursed his lips and answered, "Okay."

It's six o'clock in the evening. They arrived at the Xia family's villa.

As soon as she pulled over, Guilan Huang, Jenny's mother, came over and said anxiously to her, "Jenny, why are you so late? The banquet has begun already."

Jenny got off and explained, "I am bringing Andy here."

Andy got off the car then.

Seeing Andy, Guilan shouted angrily, "Jenny, why did you take this fool here? Are you going to kill me in this way?"

Guilan was the one who hated Andy most. Since Andy became a member of the Xia family, Guilan had suffered almost everyday by Andy, making her look ten years older.

In the past three years, Guilan often kept sending Andy to mental hospital for treatment or for other purposes, but Jenny would bring him back home shortly after his being sent there. This time Andy was so crazy as to hit the wall with his head, almost cracking it asunder. Guilan thought Andy would stay in the hospital for a long time, However, Jenny brought him back again! Guilan was very angry at this.

Jenny said seriously, "He is my husband after all. He ought to attend Xia family's banquet." Then she brought Andy into the villa.

The Xia family was the second largest family in Westplain City. In the family banquet, every one of Xia family gathered together in the villa.

As soon as Jenny and Andy came in, someone exclaimed, "Look! The silly son-in-law of our Xia family is coming!"

Then, taunts filled the whole villa.

"Andy, I heard that you often took rubbish back home, is that true?"

"Haha. What's worse, I heard that he washed his face with sewer's water!"

"Do you know I once saw him grabbing a bone with a dog!"

"It was said this time he even hit the wall with bare head. Guess, what would he do next time?"

All the words filled the spot continuously. Jenny knew that these relatives were always making fun of Andy. She thought she could ignore all of these. But actually, she couldn't stand it. A fool husband always made her inferior to others.

Unconsciously, Jenny lowered her head and hurried toward the table.

Andy glanced at her, who was almost fleeing away, and followed her.

However, Bill Xia, Jenny's cousin, suddenly stopped Andy and snapped to Jenny, "Andy Wu can't sit at the table!"

Bill was young but extraordinary, who was favored and valued by the old lady of the Xia Family. Therefore, Bill was emboldened to bully Andy superciliously. He never treated Andy as a man but fooled him as an animal.

Hearing what Bill said, Jenny's sullen expression appeared paler. She retorted acidly, "He is my husband. Why can't he sit at the table?"

Bill said arrogantly, "A fool who grabs food from a dog isn't qualified to have dinner with us!"

He was unanimously agreed by the rest of the Xia family members. All said that Andy was not allowed to the table.

Although Jenny didn't like Andy either, she couldn't endure these people bullying Andy so brazenly. She raised her voice and insisted, "Our marriage contract was approved by Grandfather. Andy is the son-in-law of Xia family. He should attend the family banquet!"

Bill laughed disdainfully, "Haha, I haven't thought you should protect this fool so much. Okay, want to eat here? Go there." Bill pointed to the corner of the hall.

In the corner, a Samoyed dog was eating at the dog pot.

Obviously, Bill asked Andy to eat dog food. Andy could indeed do that. But it was absolutely a shame on Jenny. Her eyes turned red almost with tears, saying angrily, "Bill, don't go too far!"

Bill didn't take it seriously, "How? Your foolish husband has eaten dog food before. It's not bad to eat this Samoyed's delicious fish and meat."

Bill shouted to Andy, "Go hurry to eat before the dog eat up!"

Formerly, Andy was most afraid of Bill and did what Bill asked to do. But at this time, Andy didn't move at all as if not hearing Bill at all.

Bill felt disgraced at once. He raised his arm angrily and threatened to hit him, "I ask you to eat now. Don't you hear me?"

After a while of silence, Andy suddenly thundered, "Shut up!"

Two words. So domineering and aggressive!

My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 2

You are so lucky

Andy Wu, used to be obedient, suddenly he went mad!

All the people present were shocked at his words!

Air in the villa seemed to be frozen and no one made a voice.

"You said 'shut up" to me?" Bill responded first and shouted, glowering at him.

The others began to whisper to one another. They knew that Bill had been infuriated so drastically that Andy would get it in the neck.

Jenny knew that Bill was an aggressive guy. In order to prevent Andy from being injured by Bill, she pulled Andy away at once and explained to Bill, "His head was badly injured. Please don't take offense at him."

Not listening to her at all, Bill shouted testily, "Get out of here!"

"Do you have to struggle against a fool?" Jenny said in disgruntlement,

Bill said cruelly, "So what? Today I must kick his butt!" He rushed toward Andy in spite of Jenny.

"Are you enough?"

The old lady of the Xia family suddenly came out of the room and thundered strictly as the scene was out of control.

Mrs. Xia is absolutely the leader in Xia family. Since the old man died, the whole Xia family respect her. As she indeed has abilities, no one dares to go against her.

Seeing the old lady, all of people in the hall were silent right away including the arrogant Bill, who immediately returned to his seat.

Jenny also returned to the table together with Andy.

Andy had been so hungry for the whole day that he had a big mouth of fancy food on the table regardless of politeness as if nothing had happened just now.

Except Andy, no one would start eating unless the old lady went to the table. Without any scruple, he was gorging alone.

Many people at the table looked at Andy with contempt and disgust, itching to slap him. Meanwhile, the old lady did not notice him at all. After sitting on the seat of host, she said, "Well. Don't be overcautious. Let's start! "

The aura became lively immediately when everyone began to eat, talking and laughing.

Guilan, who sat at the same table with Andy, blushed. She complained to Jenny with resentment, "Jenny, why did you bring him here? He not only disgraced us but also offended Bill. "

Jenny said impatiently, "Mom, stop talking that!"

Until now Jenny was also regretting bringing Andy here.

"Your mother is right. How could you bring a fool here?"

"Yeah. Are you spoiling our appetite sitting with such a fool?"

"Bad luck!"

Several relatives at the table began to scold Jenny in succession.

Jenny felt wronged.

Halfway through the family banquet, the old lady suddenly stood up and shouted, "Now, let me announce a good news!" The old lady was over seventy years old, old but vigorous enough, whose voice was sonorous.

Every family feast, the old lady would announce important news. Hearing this, everyone except Andy put down the chopsticks, listening to the old lady carefully.

The old lady paused for a second and continued, "This morning, the Wang's Group visited our family to propose a marriage. The eldest son of Wang family, Shihao, is planning to marry one of our Xia family girls!"

What the old lady said sparked a lot of discussion.

Everyone was shocked at the news.

It's well known that Wang's Group was a prominent Group in Westplain City. As a first-class family in Westplain City, marrying into Wang's Family meant marrying into the purple.

The single girls were extremely excited at the message.

Others were also excitedly discussing who was the lucky one to be selected by the Wang family.

Julia was obviously the first possible candidate.

The most outstanding girls among so many beautiful girls in Xia family were Jane, Jenny and Julia, who were called Three Daughters of the Xia Family. They were not only beautiful but also talented.

Among them, Jenny and Jane both had married, only Julia still was single.

Therefore, everyone speculated that it must be Julia who was going to marry into the Wang family this time. Julia herself was also sure to get it. She smiled effusively with excitement. Despite the discussion, Julia stood up and asked the old lady confidently, "Grandma, it's me?"

The old lady shook her head.

It's not Julia!

All burst into an uproar, feeling puzzled.

As many of them guessed each other, the old lady suddenly said, "No more guesses. It's Jenny."

After that, the old lady looked at Jenny and smiled, "Jenny, you are so lucky."

The noise ceased instantly. Everyone was stunned that the Wang family actually proposed marriage to a married woman? Were they crazy?

Jenny herself was confused. In a minute, she stood up and said, "Grandma, I have married!"

The old lady became serious instead of smiling, "Of course I know. Three years ago, the old man was confused as to insist on marrying you to a fool regardless of my persuasion. You know that since you married him, how many ridicules and criticism have Xia family suffered from? What's worse, our family business has been badly damaged for this. Clearly Andy Wu is the bane of our Xia family. Today, I solemnly announce that your marriage contract is invalid. Go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to divorce tomorrow. "

Divorce?

She felt overwhelmed. In the three years, she had suffered too much and thought of divorcing for many times to get rid of Andy and start a normal life. However, she always kept her Grandpa's last words in mind.

Without hesitation, Jenny replied to her, "I don't want to violate Grandpa's will!"

The old lady knew Jenny would say so and she explained patiently, "It matters what the future of the Xia family will be like. The old man would understand it if he knew that. Go and get a divorce. Don't worry. I will explain to your Grandpa when I'm dead! "

The old lady's words were so resolute that Jenny's heart seemed to be smashed. Jenny should assent to it as the old lady had promised to such an extent, which was an opportunity to get rid of Andy. However, when it was time to divorce, Jenny was reluctant to do it.

Three-year life together with Andy couldn't make her heartless.

Jenny looked at him eating alone and sighed deeply, saying, "I don't want to divorce."

Hearing her answer, all the people present were shocked. There was a clearly vast difference between Shihao, the young heir to rich Wang family, and a fool Andy Wu. Jenny could have gone directly to heaven from the hell. She should give up such a golden opportunity!

Guilan couldn't stand it anymore. She shouted at Jenny, "Jenny, are you crazy?"

Jenny answered, "I am not crazy. I do not want to divorce nor marry Shihao Wang!"

She was very resolute saying this.

Shihao was not a stranger to Jenny. He was an idle playboy who had a crush on her when she was single, at which time, she had refused him. Now she would also not marry a man she didn't like.

Jenny's response was really queer that everyone was shocked that this.

Boom!

The old lady pounded the table angrily and said, "Jenny, are you going against me? Do you think you have grown up that you can do anything you want? No way!" The old lady was usually dignified but rarely flared up except this time.

As soon as she got angry, the atmosphere of the villa became depressing and everyone kept silent.

Being shouted by the old lady, Jenny was trembling, feeling very wronged and upset.

Three years ago, she was forced to marry a fool by her Grandfather. Now, her grandmother made her divorce to marry a playboy. She felt like a chess piece at the mercy of Xia family, without any freedom and rights.

Jenny was completely desperate, with her eyes filled with tears. Her hopeless tears slipped quietly into Andy's heart.

Andy was still eating, who seemed to be indifferent at the situation. But in fact, he had heard everything carefully. If Jenny agreed to divorce him, he would not refuse since he had already held her back for three years. Jenny is qualified to find her own happiness. However, Jenny refused to divorce. Andy understood that Jenny was not cruel but protected him from being bullied. Jenny was the only one who regarded him as a man.

This woman deserves his protection!

As anyone was silent, Andy put down his chopsticks and stood up, facing all of them, "No one has the right to force her to get a divorce!"

At that time, his eyes gleamed as a sharp light!

My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 3

At half past three in the morning

Andy Wu started to talk again. This man seemed alright when he was silent, but once he talked, what he said at the moment shocked everybody present.

The silent hall immediately became noisy again.

"What's wrong with this stupid man today? It seems his sickness has become more serious."

"Is it because of his damaged brain that he's behaving so rudely and fearlessly?"

"Yea, grandma is so furious right now, how dare this fool disrespect her? What a fool!"

"He became ill again as soon he got released from the asylum! Should have kept him there all his life!"

The sound of sarcasm surged like waves, one after another.

Jenny noticed it too, that Andy had been behaving strangely today. Though he would do lots of silly things every time when he had a sudden onset, this time was way too much, as the way he was talking was disrespectful and unexpected. She couldn't let him be silly just like this, so she patted Andy on the shoulder and said seriously, " Didn't I tell you to remain silent? Sit down now!"

In Andy's eyes and heart, there was no one else, Jenny was everywhere. He didn't want to go against her, so he just sat there quietly since Jenny didn't want him to get involved.

The look on The Old Lady's face was cold as ice already. Pointing at Andy, she said in a low voice with some seriousness in it, " Jenny, take a look at this disgraceful fool! What's the point of keeping him instead of divorcing him?"

Jenny knew it too, that Andy's condition was getting more and more unstable. God knew what kind of trouble he might cause. Keeping him by her side indeed was a bomb that might explode anytime.

However, it was still a tough decision for her to make at the moment, after all, she thought it too cruel, not to mention the fact that she didn't want to marry Shihao Wang.

It took a while before Jenny replied with great pains in her heart, "Please, just give me more time to consider about it."

Seeing Jenny agreed to compromise, The Old Lady finally relieved. She's aware of the fact too that Jenny shouldn't be pushed too hard, after all, the marriage with the Wang family was of great significance and she couldn't afford to lose it. So The Old Lady compromised too, "Fine, I'll give you three days to consider about it."

Then immediately she changed her tone which was sharp and mean, "You must divorce Andy and agree on the marriage with the Wang Family in three days' time, or there would be no more place for you in the Xia Family!"

The Old Lady turned around and went into her room.

"What's wrong with this Jenny Xia? What's on her mind? Does she even need to consider about it? Since it's such a good marriage."

"Yea, between a fool and a rich young man, why is she hesitating?"

"She's pretending to be loyal. You see, she will divorce at last. She is only trying to show us how committed she is."

The family feast ended together with the discussion.

At last, everyone returned to their own home.

Jenny was driving Andy and Guilan Huang to her own home.

Guilan, on the passenger seat, was angry to death. She stared at Jenny and shouted, "Jenny, are you out of your mind? Why is it that you don't want to divorce? What else can this fool do except causing trouble?"

Jenny was extremely annoyed and upset and she didn't want to give any explanation, she said instead, "Mom I am driving, will you leave me alone, please?"

Guilan held her anger, as well as her words.

The three got home half an hour later.

Guilan couldn't help talking again as soon as they got home, "Jenny, don't be silly, you have to listen to The Old Lady. You should be aware that our life has been so hard since Andy came to our family, how could we survive if we were kicked out of the Xia Family?"

Jenny remained silent and felt very frustrated.

Seeing her daughter being quiet, Guilan continued, "You should know how important it is to have a good husband. Jane married a good husband and thus she got better treatment in the Xia Family. Now her parents have moved into a big villa. Look at us now, what a shabby house we're in, besides, I have to help take care of a stupid man. Now I am more miserable than a nanny! Your father died too early, I can only count on you now, can you at least consider my feelings?"

Tears were running down as she talked.

Guilan really felt sorry for herself. She could still remember when The Old Man was still alive, when her life was comfortable and abundant and Jenny was loved and protected by her grandfather. The place they lived were the big Xia villa. But who could expect that The Old Man asked

Jenny to marry a man who was mentally ill and then passed away not long after the marriage? Ever since then, Jenny had been rejected by the Xia Family and they were forced to move into this small apartment. Guilan's life dropped from heaven to earth.

It had been three years before Guilan finally got this chance to change her situation. Three years she had been struggling and suffering, now that her daughter could dump Andy and marry Shihao Wang, how could she let this chance pass away easily?

On hearing her mother's words, Jenny felt even worse. She said, " I will think it over." Then she went to her room and shut the door.

As soon as Jenny's gone, Guilan turned to Andy and started yelling, " We have supported you for three years and we have been good to you. Now that my daughter is going to marry into the purple, I hope you can be kind enough and get a divorce with her."

What Andy said on the family feast really pissed her off.

Andy didn't seem to care about her at first, but Guilan was talking so fast as a machine gun and kept scolding Andy for more than half an hour without resting!

He couldn't take it anymore and left the living room and went back to the bedroom.

Jenny was already on the bed when he came in. She said to him, " You have just come back from the hospital. Go take a shower and get changed. I've put your pajamas in the bathroom already."

Jenny was kind of a neat freak so she had been asking Andy to keep at least tidy.

Andy replied with a light "yes" and went into the small bathroom.

When he came out, he came to the bedside and started to fall asleep, naturally.

They were actually the so called couple, which meant they had been sleeping separately for the past three years, with Jenny on the bed and Andy on the floor.

Jenny was indeed very picky about Andy, since every time he had a sudden onset, he would do something unexpected. Not only did she need to clean up the mess, but also she became a laughing stock because of him. This kind of life was really hard to stand.

At first, Jenny had some expectations and illusions about Andy, after all he was chosen by grandfather, hoping to find some special qualities in him, but it turned out that this man was a useless fool who could do nothing right but cause embarrassments.

Jenny almost broke down because of him. Now that she could divorce, a sense of pity grew in her soft heart. She didn't get it--Why was it so hard to dump this useless fool?

Failing to control her feelings, Jenny said softly, " Andy, would you survive if I left you?"

No response for a few seconds.

She looked down the floor and found Andy already deeply asleep.

Jenny said, " It must be good to be a fool, as you don't have to think about anything except eating and sleeping."

Three years they had been married, Jenny barely looked at Andy face to face. Now she was right beside him and she took a few glances at him and found that this fool actually looked handsome.

“Oh, If only you were not a fool!” She sighed, failing to control her feelings again.

If Andy had been a normal guy, Jenny would have accepted him a lot more easily. Compared with a rich playboy like Shihao Wang, Andy would be the preference for Jenny, after all, Andy had never been rude to her and he had been obeying her orders. It's such a pity that Andy had this sudden onset every now and then and it really drove her crazy.

Not only Jenny, but also the whole Xia Family was ashamed of Andy. That's why the Xia Family were trying to force her to divorce. Jenny understood it all, but she just couldn't imagine herself being married to Shihao Wang.

However, grandma's order and mother's happiness being in the future were something she couldn't ignore.

So struggled in her mind that she kept turning her body and it was not until midnight did she gradually fall asleep.

It was half past three in the morning. After making sure that Jenny was deep asleep, Andy got up.

He tucked her in first and then sneaked out of the bedroom and came to the study.

On the table of the study was a computer, the one that Jenny used when she worked at home.

Andy seated himself and turned the computer on.

There was a log in code but it was a piece of cake for Andy, as he was a genius in every respect including computer science. He quickly unlocked the computer and clicked the search engine-Baidu.

He typed the following words slowly:

The Wu Family, Yanjing city.

A family event

The Wu Family of Yanjing City, with its business extending across the globe, is famous not only in the whole country, but also all over the world.

Since almost every major member of its relations is extremely rich and news about the Wu Family is always on the headlines of the media.

However, all the news on the internet or other media are positive ones which are used to serve the interests of the Wu Family.

Andy Wu had taken a long time searching related web pages about the Wu family, finally he found a report posted three years ago:

The most low-keyed and mysterious heir to the Wu Family died all of a sudden. Qingcheng Liu, his mother, could not bear the pain of losing the son also died shortly in grief!

Qingdi Wu, Andy's father, the master of the Wu Family, announced that he would relinquish the position as the head of the family and go guarding at the tomb for his beloved wife and son!

Tian Wu, an illegitimate son of Qingdi Wu, succeeded his father as the youngest steersman in the history of the Wu Family.

This news with only a few words cost Andy Wu half an hour to finish the reading, which made his eyes scarlet with tears shimmering.

After a long time, he started to speak in a rather deep voice, "Tian Wu, it was you!" said Andy.

An hour later, after turning off the computer, Andy left the study and went back to his bedroom to sleep.

At twelve at noon, Andy woke up with his bloodshot eyes from a bad sleep last night. Having dressed himself well, he went to the bathroom for washing and then he left the bedroom.

Immediately he got out of his bedroom, he saw the table was filled with tasty dishes, without any hesitation, he went directly to the table and sat down and picked up the chopsticks and began to eat.

As soon as he began to eat, Guilan Huang ran out of the kitchen and slapped the chopsticks out of his hand, yelling at him: "Who told you to eat? Get out of here!"

Toward the living room, a young guy was seated in the couch, she immediately shifted into another tone and said with enthusiasm: "Shihao, come over here. The meal is ready."

Then, a man wearing an expensive suit stood up and moved toward the table.

The man is the eldest son of the Family of Wang, his name is Shihao Wang.

Shihao didn't make himself an outsider in here. As soon as he came over, he sat on a dining chair to pick up the rice bowl on the table and began to eat. After taking two bites, he praised Guilan's cooking, "The dishes you made are so delicious." said he.

Hearing this, Guilan was extremely flattered, "We are family. Don't call me aunt. Call me mom." said she, joyfully.

"I haven't married Jenny yet, have I?" Shihao replied implicitly.

From beginning to end, Shihao didn't even look at Andy as if he were a puff of air.

"Sooner or later, you will marry Jenny; I will only take you as my son-in-law. Once Jenny divorces from that idiot, you two are to get married." Guilan said, with a glance on Andy.

She was so angry to see how foolish Andy was, so she patted him on the shoulder and cursed loudly. "What are you doing here? Out of my sight, now!" yelled Guilan.

Casting a glance at Shihao, Andy silently moved toward the sofa and sat down there.

It was not long before Jenny went back home from work, and when she saw Shihao, her brows knitted in displeasure. "What are you coming for?" grumbled Jenny, frowning.

Guilan rushed to speak before Shihao, "I've asked him to come here", explained she. The fact was that Guilan was defending him even though he came on his own.

Hearing what Guilan said, Jenny frowned even more tight. A fool as he is, he is still her husband after all. It was her mother's fault to have invited Shihao over for dinner at home.

Jenny reproached Guilan and yelled angrily: "Mom, what are you DOING?"

"Ok, let's stop talking about this." said Guilan, trying to change the topic, "Come over for dinner" she pulled Jenny to sit beside Shihao as she yelled loudly; the only thing she hoped for was to make them a couple.

Jenny looked at Andy embarrassedly and said: "Andy, come and eat together"

"He has already had meal; leave him alone!" said Guilan, lying.

After Jenny sitting down beside the table, Shihao immediately took out a gift box, opened it and handed the gift to her, "Jenny, this is for you." said Shihao, generously.

Lying in the present box was a precious watch, with the value of 200,000 dollars.

Although she couldn't afford to buy it, she was still able to identify its value. She didn't hesitate to refuse and said: "I can't accept such a valuable item!" As a woman, she's also attached to such kind of valuable items, but because it was from Shihao, she would still like to decline the offer.

On hearing this, Guilan was unpleasant. She accepted the watch on behalf of Jenny, and said excitedly to her: "It's a present given by Shihao. I'll take it for you."

"Mom, give it back to him!" said Jenny.

"Why can't I take the gift from my future son-in-law?" rebuked Guilan. She has been always greedy for money; but no one dares to take a penny from her!

Jenny was disrupted by Shihao while she was trying to say something. "No big deal, just show a little kindness"

"It's not too much money for you, but for me, it's not!" said Jenny, seriously.

Feeling that Jenny was still declining him, he hurried to explain: "Jenny, I know, you dislike it when I goof around with less attention on business, and idle away in pampering and flirting."

"But Shihao is now being excellent and promising, much better than that idiot!" said Guilan.

There is no denying that Shihao does have changed a lot. Jenny could also feel his changes. He used to be a man of cynicism, arrogance and fickle-mindedness who spent time idling and flirting around all day long; and for him, women were playthings. But now, he turned more modest and behaved more politely and gently.

Gradually, Jenny became less cold to him and began to speak to him at the table.

Seated on the chair, Andy was totally isolated and those three persons looked like a family.

Andy had thought yesterday that he could accept it, even though Jenny decided to get divorced from him, because they were merely nominal couple, as he married Jenny when he had lost his memory. But now, a sense of jealousy and anger overcame him when he saw Jenny talking pleasantly with Shihao.

After dinner, Shihao's interview video began to be broadcast on TV.

Hearing the voice of Shihao, Guilan, who was at the table now, hurried to see what it was.

Her eyes began to glisten when seeing Shihao on TV and yelled with excitement: "Shihao, it's you on TV, right?"

In fact, all this had been planned before he came today. He deliberately came to this house and turned on the TV, which was all for this very moment.

On hearing Guilan's words, Shihao stood up slowly to move toward the TV and said leisurely: "Yes, this is the interview when I was negotiating business yesterday with Changsheng Group."

Changsheng Group?

The name of Changsheng Group, one of the most famous companies in the country, mainly dealing with real estate, with an extremely large scale and stunning power, did shock Guilan indeed. Most importantly, it was located in the provincial capital and its president, Changsheng Li is the prominent, richest person in the Jiangdong province.

Guilan stared at Shihao with her eyes opened as big as a bull's, and asked surprisingly, "So your company has business with Changsheng Group?"

Shihao pretended to be modest and said: "Yeah. They are planning to start some projects in Westplain City and President Li came specially for supervising the work. I have had shaken hands with him yesterday!"

For normal family, Changsheng Li is such a legend that it would be lucky enough to see him once, not to mention to shake hands with him. Therefore, Shihao was in unique status, for he had shaken hands with him.

At this moment, Changsheng Li emerged on the TV. The time he showed up, all the interviewers present were rushing to toward him.

Guilan was staring at the TV with eyes fixed on it, even Jenny was walking near to watch TV, while Shihao was telling Changsheng Li's great deeds, cause' he intended to show his ability by talking about Changsheng Li.

Shishao, at this time, was absolutely full of superiority.

No one noticed the special lusters flashing in Andy's eyes as he saw Changsheng Li on TV.

While Shihao was bragging, all of a sudden, Andy stood up and walked silently toward the door.

"Where are you going?" asked Jenny, seeing him leaving.

"Just take a walk." answered Andy.

When he opened the door and walked outside, Guilan shouted at him: "Don't bring me any more junk back!"

Walking straightly out of the building, Andy left the department.

A Porsche Cayenne suddenly rushed out of the apartment, blocking the way of Andy.

Shihao got out of the car when it stopped then he stood in front of Andy and said arrogantly: "Do you understand human language? Let me tell you today, that Jenny is mine; you get away from her and get divorced from her as soon as possible. You understand?"

His tone was extremely arrogant, as if he were the God; it is possible for him to get whoever he wants. But Jenny is the only one that he ca not get. The less likely he could get her, the more inclined would he be to occupy her.

In order to get her, he has devoted countless efforts. What happened these days were all under his control; and he had thought he was almost there. As long as Andy got divorced from Jenny, she would naturally be his.

"Get out of my way!" shouted Andy.

He extremely hates Shihao, so he didn't talk nonsense, but replied to Shihao indifferently with these words.

At Jenny's house, Shihao pretended to be polite and gentle, but before Andy the idiot, he needn't to do that. Having exposed his nature, with his sleeves rolled up, he pointed at Andy's nose and threatened him, "You hurry to get divorced RIGHT NOW! If you don't follow my words, I will break your leg and make you a beggar!" yelled Shihao, harshly.

Bang!

The moment Shihao finished speaking, he was kicked fiercely by Andy.

With only one hard kick, Shihao, the arrogant man, was then kicked away onto the engine hood of his Cayenne.

My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 5 One Million Dollars

Shihao Wang lay on the hood of the car, clutching at his chest and coughing incessantly.

At the same time, he kept thinking that the fact that he, Shihao Wang, a rich man in the Westplain City, had been beaten by a fool, which made him unable to accept it.

He waited for a moment before sitting up, and then shouted angrily, "You dare kick me, I'll kill you!"

However, when he stood up, he realized that Andy Wu had run away.

At 2:30 p.m., Changsheng Li had a drink with several officials. He was so drunk. He asked the driver to drive him back to his residence.

Changsheng Li lived in a three-story luxury villa in Westplain City, a place couldn't afford by ordinary people in Westplain City, but for the rich man in Jiangdong province, it was a temporary residence.

Coming to the villa yard, Changsheng Li said a few words to the driver, "I'll get some sleep first, there's a meeting at night, you wake me up at five."

After saying that, Changsheng Li opened the door and walked inside.

Entering the hall, Changsheng Li's heart suddenly fluttered, because he saw a man sitting on a sofa in the villa's hall.

"Who's sitting there?" Changsheng Li was momentarily drunk and shouted at him.

The man on the couch, slowly getting up, looked coldly at Changsheng Li

This man, was none other than Andy Wu.

Changsheng Li rubbed his eyes in disbelief and said, "Are you the Third Master?"

Andy Wu slowly walked towards Changsheng Li and stood in front of him, sternly questioning, "I've been in Westplain City for three years, why didn't you ever look for me?"

Upon hearing this, Changsheng Li knelt down in front of Andy Wu.

He tensed his nerves and trembled, "Third Master, I always thought you were dead. I don't come to the Westernplain very often, I really didn't know you were here!"

The richest man, a legend, in the Jiangdong province, who knelt down to Andy Wu. If this scene was seen by others, many people would be stunned.

However, Andy Wu seemed to have gotten used to people kneeling down to him. He looked down at Changsheng Li and said coldly, "I hope you understand that I can help you become the richest man, and I can also destroy everything you have."

Changsheng Li said in trepidation, "Of course I know, in my mind, the Third Master is a god, I dare not betray you!" It was true that Changsheng Li was in awe of Andy Wu.

Ten years ago, Changsheng Li was an unknown labor contractor. Andy later helped him, groomed him, and gave him a start-up capital to invest in real estate in Jiangdong province.

The reason why the Changsheng Group was able to grow rapidly and become a nationally renowned real estate group in a short period of time was that Andy Wu secretly assisted Changsheng Li.

Andy Wu, the third master of the Wu family, who was the best in business and no one could match him, was a genius.

Changsheng Li did have a great admiration for Andy Wu.

In fact, Andy trusted Changsheng Li too, which was why he groomed Changsheng Li that year to become an agent in real estate.

Only, he was poisoned in the Wu family three years ago. Andy Wu didn't know who poisoned him, so he had to become more cautious, and even his most trusted men, he kept testing them.

Through Changsheng Li's words and deeds, Wu was basically certain that he was still trustworthy. So, he said, "Get up!"

Changsheng Li immediately stood up. He had more than ten years of experience in running business, but when he saw Andy Wu he was so frightened that he broke out in a cold sweat. After a while, he said, "Third Master, three years ago, I heard that you suddenly died. What the hell is going on here?"

Andy Wu said, "Three years ago, someone used my mother and poisoned me. By the time I woke up, I had lost my memory, and I had somehow made it to the Xia family in Westplain City. Guangyao Xia took me in and even betrothed his granddaughter to me. You help me investigate this Guangyao Xia."

Andy Wu had already guessed what had happened to the Wu family three years ago. However, Andy Wu knew nothing about who saved him and why he appeared in Westplain City, so he needed to find out.

After listening to the words of Andy Wu and combined with the information he had received that year, Changsheng Li had already knew that the Wu family had suffered an unrest. He didn't ask Andy Wu in detail, only replied seriously, "Okay, I'll investigate him. Third Master, may I ask if you will now take over the Changsheng Group personally?"

Changsheng Li knew that he was the secret weapon that Andy Wu had cultivated outside. If Andy Wu wanted to use him, he would try his best to help him.

Andy Wu waved his hand and said, "Not for now."

Changsheng Li nodded and said, "I see."

At half-past five in the evening, Andy Wu returned home.

As soon as he entered the door, Guilan Huang rushed towards Andy with a hanger and kept beating him, cursing: "Why are you beating people, why?"

Guilan Huang hit him with a hanger very hard. But it was like scratching an itch for Andy, who didn't care about the pain.

Jenny Xia immediately ran over to stop Guilan Huang.

Guilan Huang said defiantly, "Don't stop me, I have to kill this fool today."

"You also said that he was a fool, is there any point in hitting him? Stop beating him, I'll ask him why." Jenny Xia said.

Guilan Huang said coldly, "You must divorce him!" Then she turned to the kitchen.

Jenny looked at Andy Wu and said in disappointment, "Why did you hit Shihao Wang?"

Andy answered, "He's in my way."

Jenny smiled wryly and asked rhetorically, "Just because he's in your way, you hit him?"

"I didn't use all my strength." said Andy frankly. He simply disliked Shihao Wang, so he wanted to kick his ass. Still, he hit him with a grain of salt, otherwise Shihao Wang would have been died.

Jenny yelled angrily, "How do you prove that?" After saying this, Jenny was still angry. She continued, "I am really too disappointed in you. Though you are not smart, at least you would not harm anyone. But now you hit someone for a stupid reason. You've got me scared now, and I'm afraid you're going to hit me when you get mad."

Andy said, "I won't hit you, not for the rest of my life!" His words, however, touched Jenny's heart.

Jenny had been so angry that she had even made up her mind secretly to divorce Andy and get rid of this terrible fool once and for all.

But all of a sudden, Andy's words made Jenny give up on divorcing him.

After a long time, Jenny said to Andy, "Don't lie to me and don't cause any trouble!" After said that ,she turned and went back to her bedroom.

At noon the next day, Guilan Huang made the meal, and Andy Wu came out to eat lunch on time. Today's Guilan Huang was absent-minded, and quite unusual.

A short while later, Jenny returned from the company. As soon as she arrived home, she shouted angrily at Guilan Huang, "Mom, what have you done? why did you mortgage our house to the casino?"

"You have already knew that?" Guilan Huang answered.

Jenny said angrily, "People come to my company asking me for money, can I not know?"

Guilan Huang sighed and said, "You know that I like to gamble." Guilan Huang had been out of work since very early, and usually played cards to kiss the time.

Jenny said, "You used to play poker and the stakes were not high. Why did you lose the house this time?"

Guilan Huang explained, "Yesterday my son-in-law gave me a famous watch. When I play cards at night, I wear it out to show off. The poker players thought I was rich and upped the ante. I didn't control myself and just played with them. Then I lost too much money so I took out a mortgage on the house. I thought I could win it all back, and who knew it was all lost." Guilan Huang explained with a guilty look on her face.

With a silly husband and such a mom, Jenny almost freaked out and was about to cry. She rushed towards Guilan Huang and shouted angrily, "Don't you know what's going on in our family? How could you do that? The casino people said that if they can't get a million dollars to pay the debt today, they are going to kick us out of our house. Do you want us to sleep on the street?"

Guilan Huang acted she didn't care and said, "All right, all right, now it's not the time to scold me. The most important thing now is to give the money back to the casino. Look for Shihao, he's rich. The money is nothing to him."

Jenny was really getting angry, she hissed back, "What the hell were you thinking? We are not friends, so how can I borrow so much money from him?"

"Anyway, you and Shihao are going to get married sooner or later, so this money can be used as the bride price." Guilan Huang said.

Before Jenny could say anything, suddenly, Andy stood up and said seriously, "Don't look for him, I have money."

Jenny was furious with her mother. Jenny's words at the moment, no doubt added fuel to the fire. Jenny became even more angry as she rushed at Andy, "How come you have money? My mother owes a million dollars, listen carefully, it's a million dollars, not a hundred dollars, can you get it?"

"Yes!" When Andy finished his words, he turned around and left.

Let's get a divorce!

2 P.M, the grand villa

Andy Wu sitting still in the couch of the living room, with Changsheng Li standing beside him respectfully.

"Tell me, what have you got there?" Andy asked Changsheng a short moment later.

Changsheng reported to him as he required, "According to what I have surveyed, The Old Man Guangyao Xia had been in bed for the last three years because of his sickness, and had never been anywhere out of Westplain city. What's more, all the powerful and influential families in Yanjing City think you are dead. No one knew that you got rescued. The Xia Family belongs to the second class of the the powerful and influential families in this region, so I think The Old Man had no power to save you and got you back to the Westplain city without people noticing."

To Andy, Changsheng's words made little difference. He said unhappily, "Are you implying that you have found nothing new today?"

"No," Changsheng answered immediately, "There's still a clue. I have researched The Old Man's lifetime. It turned out that The Old Man had been in the army in Yanjing city for many years. So in my opinion, could it be some old friend of The Old Man in Yanjing city that saved you? And created a Westplain citizen identity for you and arranged you to stay in the Xia Family."

The Old Man had been in the army in Yanjing city?

On hearing this, Andy's mind started to get clear.

Silent for a while, Andy said slowly, like telling a big secret, "If I am not wrong, the one who saved me should be the person in the Wu Family."

Looking at Andy, Changcheng felt so complicated at the moment. As far as he's concerned, the one who could bring Andy, who was then deeply poisoned back to life and successfully hid the truth from everyone, must be someone extraordinary. Out of curiosity, he asked, "Who's that person?"

Andy rolled his eyes at him and said, "It wouldn't do you any good if you knew too much."

Changsheng lowered his head and said immediately, "Yes, Sir."

Andy's expression gradually got deeper and full of meaning. Apparently he had known who saved his life, but it remained a mystery why and how this person, who was a bastard son replaced his father and took over the power of the Wu Family.

Tian Wu was crafty, and Andy already knew that. But he didn't expect him to have had such ability to change destiny.

Too deep Tian Wu had hidden himself.

Seeing Andy remaining silent, Changsheng couldn't help asking, "Is there anything else I need to look into, third young master?"

"Nothing." He answered directly.

What was about to happen next would be all about the family matters inside the Wu Family. Though Changsheng was the richest man in Jiangdong province, he was still not powerful enough to get involved in the Wu Family.

Changsheng nodded and took out a piece of black card from his pocket. It was the Supreme black card of Jiangdong Bank and it's the symbol of nobility and ability. The amount of money in the card shouldn't be less than a hundred million.

Changsheng presented the blacked card to Andy with both hands and said, "This is the card you asked me to process."

Andy was born with everything, the least thing he needed was money and he had never considered money a big deal and thought money was just a series meaningless figures.

Until when he got back his three years' memory in the Westplain city did he realized there was indeed something that money can do, such as changing a lot of things.

Such as helping Jenny Xia.

"This is the phone I have prepared for you with my number inside. Young master, if you need me, contact me directly." He gave him a cellphone after giving the black card.

It was a limited edition which was used only by the nobles and was worth a million, though it looked as simple and out of style as an old people's phone.

Taking over the phone, Andy read the time on it and suddenly got up and said, "I've got to go."

"Let me drive you." Changsheng said.

"No need." He refused.

Then he left in big steps.

Andy went directly to the Jiangdong Bank as soon as he left the villa.

Being a local bank in Jiangdong Province, the Jiangdong bank grew abruptly like the spring bamboo and now it had branches all over the country with great capital flow background.

There were many people standing in line in the bank.

He didn't become one of them. Instead, he went directly into the VIP room.

Pushing the door directly, Andy went inside.

"Please wait in line in the lobby, only VIP clients are allowed in here." Qing Xie, VIP manager in the chair, glanced at Andy and said lightly.

Andy walked to the table, threw the card at the table and said coldly, "Withdraw a million."

The top supreme black card almost blinded Qing Xie.

Having graduated from a famous university, Qing had a great ability in what she did, that's why she became the VIP manager shortly after she graduated.

She had seen numerous rich people, varieties of them, but someone who had got such an appearance like Andy was so rare and she couldn't believe he had the supreme black card!

Such card was so rare and unique in Westplain city.

Qing was at shock for a few seconds before she put on her sophisticated smile immediately, and said, "Sure, sir."

Qing was swift and it didn't took long before she got the money ready. Then she said to Andy with a sorry face, "I am sorry sir, but we have run out of the safe box and I have already sent for people to buy one, please wait for a while,"

Not wanting to waste time, Andy said, "There's no need for a safe box, just give me a bag instead."

Qing nodded and said, "Yes, sir."

Soon Qing took out a black plastic bag and one million cash was already inside.

Qing saw him out respectfully and as soon as they reached the door, Qing quickly gave her name card to Andy and said in a flirty voice, "Sir, this is my name card. If you need anything just call me directly, I can provide home service, too."

Qing was quite good looking and attractive as a professional lady, but Andy didn't even look at her from the start till the end. As for her name card, neither did he take it. He just went away directly.

Seeing his figure going away, Qing said, "Of low profiles and cool. I like him!"

Andy took a cab and went back home.

He hurried home after he got out of the cab, holding the bag of cash.

"Isn't this my stupid brother-in-law?" All of a sudden, Julia Xia came out of God knows where and stood in front of Andy.

Julia lived in the same residential area with Jenny, but Julia was only living here for work convenience while her family still lived in the villa.

When it came to appearance and figure, Julia was always the top kind. What's more, Julia knew about art and had become a famous artist in Westplain city.

As the third daughter of the Xia Family, Julia Xia had a good reputation out there. However, anyone who knew Julia well would know that she made friends for their money. In her eyes, poor people wouldn't deserve to be her friend. A useless fool like Andy was exactly the type she hated, so every time she met him, she would humiliate him.

Andy didn't even look at Julia. He just said calmly, "Please let me pass."

Julia didn't move. She took a glance at the black plastic bag and laughed meanly, "You stupid man, you took a bag of trash home again. Aren't you afraid of being scolded?"

Speaking of this, she suddenly realized something, "Oh I remember that you are about to be kicked out by the Xia Family soon, you can only make a living by picking trash."

She took two sips of the milk tea in her hands and then pushed it to Andy, "Here, take it, mercy from me, and you are welcome."

Andy glanced at Julia but soon walked past her.

It was 5 P.M, as Andy was just arriving at the door, the door was suddenly opened from inside. Standing there was Jenny.

Eyes red, Jenny looked at Andy and said in a sad voice, "Let's get a divorce!"

Andy Wu's heart

Andy had a strong heart as he had been through all kinds of hardships, so he could remain indifferent whether granted favors or subjected to humiliation.

But at the moment, the sudden words from Jenny were like a head-on blow, which stopped him right there, not able to move. His expressions froze and his heart ached as if he had been stabbed through the heart. He was heartbroken.

Jenny, too, was emotionally compromised, which could be told easily from her expressions. Looking at Andy who was still in shock, she said sadly, "I am so sorry, Andy." when she spoke, her voice was hoarse and cracked.

"Jenny, are you silly or not? Why bother say sorry to him? We don't owe him and we have perfectly fulfilled both love and duty as we have been providing free accommodation and free food for three years."

Guilan Huang approached Jenny slowly and continued, "Andy Wu, you don't get to blame Jenny. Think about it, which woman doesn't want a good man? Look at Shihao, who is such a promising and excellent young man with tremendous amount of money and ability. As soon as I told him about me owing one million debt, he immediately brought the property certificate to me. This is the true man and only this kind of man can give Jenny happiness. Now look at you! You are such a useless man who would do nothing but cause trouble. How many times have I told you not to bring trash home, here you are again with the trash in your hand. People never change what they are!"

Jenny used to defend Andy against Guilan when she was giving him a hard time, but now she couldn't say a word as if there had been something stuck in her throat. She had compromised to the reality, after all.

All this time, Jenny thought she was strong enough to endure the hardships in life and live happily.

However, what had happened in the past a few days had took all her hopes and patience away and she couldn't see a way out. If she didn't get a divorce, she would be kicked out of the Xia Family! If she didn't get a divorce, even this little apartment would be taken away by the people from the casino. If she didn't get a divorce, her mom would never stop bothering and haunting her. If she didn't get a divorce, how could she survive with this inconsiderate mother and this trouble making husband?

Reality is like a big mountain, and she could barely breathe under it. Besides she's not an iron woman, and this weight was too heavy for her to burden. She needed someone who she could lean on.

Seeing that Andy wasn't responding, Guilan said to Jenny at once, "Hurry up and take this fool to process the divorce. This man gives me big headache."

Eyes red, Jenny yelled at her mom, "Why the hurry! The Bureau of Civil affairs is off duty now. We shall see tomorrow."

Andy remained silent the whole time. Behind Jenny and Guilan, he could see Shihao Wang sitting on the sofa. He turned around and left, without a word.

"Where are you going?" Jenny asked with deep concern, and watched his figure going away.

Andy replied with a low voice, "I'll come tomorrow and process the divorce." He paced up and left.

Nobody could see his awkwardness. Only he knew what kind of torment he was suffering. It was not until now did he realize how much he cared about Jenny. He had believed that Jenny would never agree on the divorce, and that he would never leave her either.

But in the end, she had chosen Shihao over him. She abandoned him after all.

He couldn't accept this ending. He didn't want to divorce, yet he wouldn't do anything to force her, as he respected her decision and didn't want to give her any hard feelings.

He walked faster and faster, looking a lot like a soldier who had been defeated in the war, frustrated.

Not until he went out of the gate did Andy slow down his pace. His legs were so stiff like filling lead, and his brain was about to explode as if it had been filled with gun powder.

The Wu Family which he had grown up in, fell into pieces overnight.

The small family which he had been living in for three years, broke apart again.

Strong as he was, he couldn't bear the shock like this again and again.

Blood burning through his veins, emotion rolling over his chest, a stream of breath was about to erupt out of his body.

"Ah!!!"

He finally acted it out, shouting aloud when he went on a small and quiet road.

At 9:30 P.M, when Changsheng finished his work and went back to his own villa, he found Andy lying on the sofa, not moving.

Changsheng's heart skipped a beat. He went over to Andy at once and asked, "Young master, when did you come back?"

"I just got here." Andy replied with no emotion on his face.

Changsheng felt relieved and asked, "Is there anything I can do for you, young sir?" Though Changsheng himself was a genius in business, he still felt great pressure in front of Andy.

Andy just said, "Nothing, I've just come to spend the night here."

When Andy left the night before, Changsheng had invited him to stay but got refused as Andy was hurrying home. Changsheng could see Andy cared about Jenny. But at the moment he suddenly showed up and decided to sleep here without being invited. Changsheng couldn't help himself but asked, "Is there a problem between you and Miss Jenny?"

"We are getting a divorce tomorrow." Answered Andy, simply.

Changsheng was shocked.

In Yanjing city, a big shot like Andy Wu, should be matched with a marvelous woman. Those tacky and silly women couldn't deserve him at all. But in Changsheng's eyes, Jenny Xia was quite special since she was not only beautiful in her appearance, but also talented and capable, most of all, she was so easy-going and tolerant that she could bear to live with a fool for three years, which made Changsheng admire her even more.

Speaking of Jenny, there's only one thing imperfect about her and it was her family. But someone like Andy who had both money and power wouldn't need her to match him financially.

Changsheng had great faith in their relationship.

It surely shocked him when Andy said they would get a divorce. He considered it both unexpected and pitiful. So he asked, "Why?"

Andy apparently didn't want to talk more about it, so he just closed his eyes calmly and said, "I want to be alone for a while. You can attend your own business."

Though Andy didn't show any emotion on his face, Changsheng could still feel that Andy was upset. So he just walked away respectfully without bringing him more disturbance.

At 6 A.M, the next morning

6 A.M sharp, Andy was already standing outside of Jenny's door. Instead of going in, he jut stood there, neither talking nor moving.

He had been standing for two hours.

At 8 A.M, Jenny opened the door and was about to come out when she saw Andy standing quietly there. Her eyes immediately got red and wet, rushing out while throwing her fists upon his chest, she cried, "Where did you go last night! Do you know that I have been looking for you for the whole night?"

Her voice cracked as she was too emotional.

She showed it all to him, all her concerns, without leaving anything behind.

Andy came to process the divorce and he had been ready to be abandoned by Jenny already. But to his surprise, Jenny behaved so unexpectedly, as he didn't know she would worried about him even if he had been gone for only one night. Looking at the worn out face, Andy felt great pity in his heart. He couldn't help himself but to say, "I am sorry."

The three words froze Jenny right there where she was. She gawked at Andy, feeling so unbelievable.

So many things had been done in the past three years and they had brought great trouble to him, too, but not even once did Andy apologize to anyone. It was the first time that Andy had apologized. She was deeply touched on hearing this.

Her eyes soon became shiny with tears.

She wrapped her arms around Andy, choking, and she said, "I won't divorce you any more. Let's not divorce, and you are not allowed to wander around any more!"

Jenny regretted. She had been regretful since the night before.

For three years, Andy had been by her side, even if he was admitted to the asylum by Guilan many times, Jenny could always bring him back home. But last night Jenny couldn't find him anywhere, she was worried, scared and afraid that something bad might happen to him.

Jenny didn't sleep the whole night.

Now Andy suddenly showed up in front of the door, she felt like something that had been long lost finally came back to her, like a missing child finally got home. Especially when she heard this silly boy apologize to her, she finally tore down her fence and decided not to divorce any more. Never would she give up on this silly husband any more!

Andy was a true noble man, and he had never got intimate with any other girl before. But at this moment, with Jenny holding him tight, his body suddenly got stiff.

His heart raced faster and so did his breath.

It was a feeling he had never had before.

Especially when the words that they would never get a divorce came out of Jenny's mouth, he felt even more emotional.

After hugging him for a while, Jenny finally put down her arms and said very seriously, "Andy Wu, please promise me that you won't wander around any more and stay in my sight, please?"

Andy answered firmly, "I will."

After adjusting her mood and emotion, she took Andy inside.

Guilan had just got up and came out of her bedroom. When she saw Andy, she said immediately, "You stupid thing finally found your way home! I thought you escaped! Hurry and go process the divorce!"

Looking at Guilan, Jenny said firmly and formally, "Mom, I have decided not to divorce Andy any more."

Guilan almost exploded when she heard this. She came over angrily and yelled at Jenny, "What nonsense were you talking about in the early morning? It was Shihao who helped me pay back the one million debt. How do you pay him back if you don't divorce? Besides, today is the deadline! Do you want to get kicked out by The Old Lady?"

The decision made by Jenny earlier was because of her deep affection for Andy so she just couldn't let him go, but she completely forgot to take into consideration what would come next. Now hearing Guilan's words, her heart sank again.

Just at that moment, Andy started to talk again, firmly and calmly, "Let me deal with the money."

My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 8 Crooked Shihao Wang

Andy Wu's tone was very relaxed. For him, the Wang family was not even worth mentioning. As long as divorce was not one of Jenny Xia's options, he was able to clear out any obstacles.

"You are still talking nonsense! Yesterday you told me you could bring back a million dollars, instead you took back a bag of garbage. You cannot handle anything, you idiot!" Guilan Huang was so angry and punched hard on Andy Wu.

Jenny Xia pulled Andy Wu away and said to Guilan Huang seriously, "I will figure out a way to return the one million to Shihao Wang, I can sell my house if I have to. As for grandma, if she really has to kick me out of the family, I have to bow to the harsh fact." Now that she had decided not to divorce, then no matter how difficult her life would be, she would live through it.

Guilan was driven mad, she asked anxiously, "You are really confused and stupid, what the hell are you thinking? Why all of a sudden you decided not to divorce? Tell me now!"

Jenny Xia looked at Andy Wu and said seriously, "I cannot abandon him."

On hearing this, Guilan Huang was even more irritated, she screamed violently, "Are you out of your mind? You are really freaking me out!"

Jenny Xia didn't want to argue with Guilan Huang, she exhorted Andy Wu, "Stay at home safely, I need to leave and figure something out."

"Where are you going? Wait for me!", Guilan asked and followed her out.

Andy Wu waited till Jenny Xia and Guilan Huang left, took his phone out immediately, dialed Changsheng Li's number.

As soon as the number went through, Andy Wu went straight to the subject and ordered severely, "Force the Wang family to cancel the marriage proposal to Xia family, as soon as possible!"

Half an hour later, Jenny Xia and Guilan Huang came back.

Jenny Xia sat on the couch in silence as soon as she came home.

Guilan Huang sat beside Jenny Xia and asked with dysphoria, "Jenny, what did the Grandma said?"

Jenny Xia did not respond for a long time, and then she talked slowly, "The Chairman of Wang Group called grandma himself and told her, they had never proposed marriage to me. It's all Shihao Wang's idea and personal decision. All this is a misunderstanding, and Wang family would never agree to a marriage like this." Jenny Xia went out before just to find grandma and let her know that she had decided not to divorce. But on the halfway, grandma called her and told her that Wang family cancelled the proposal.

On hearing this, Jenny was indeed pleased at first, but when she actually thought it through, she couldn't help but getting angry. This Shihao Wang fooled her whole family and made all the troubles had gone too far! The more she thought, the angrier she got. And it made her really sick that she thought Shihao Wang had changed himself.

Thank God she didn't get a divorce from Andy, or it would be too late to regret.

Guilan Wu asked her incredulously, "Is it even possible? Can things like marriage proposal even be wrong?"

Jenny said indignantly, "Why can't this be impossible? Their family are not stupid, how could them let Shihao Wang marry a woman like me, who's already been married by someone else? We were all deceived by him!"

On hearing what Jenny said, Guilan Huang thought of what Shihao Wang did, and also couldn't help herself complaining, "This man, Shihao Wang, is really a bad dog!"

Jenny frowned and said anxiously: "Now the priority is to return his one million dollars, I don't want to be involved with this kind of person anymore."

On hearing this, Guilan Huang changed her expression slightly and said with guilt, "Jenny, I am going to tell you the truth, but you need to promise me that you will not be angry with me."

Jenny then realized something was wrong and asked her immediately, "What do you want to tell me? What did you do?"

Guilan Huang replied weakly, "Actually, I didn't lose that much money, last time I gambled with them, I said it was one million, it was a lie. All of this is a trap Shihao Wang designed. Those bad people in the casino, was also his men."

Jenny suddenly stood up and asked in shock, "What are you talking about?"

Guilan Huang felt guilty and replied quickly, "It was all Shihao Wang's fault, it has nothing to do with me! I thought his love for you was real, who knows he is such a bad person!"

Jenny scolded at her angrily, "That's not an excuse for you to deceive me like this!"

Jenny was so angry that she almost fainted. Her own mother, colluded with others, which nearly led her into a hoax! If it weren't for Andy's ran away, made her realized all of these in time, she was actually decided to divorce Andy. How could Guilan Huang be a mother like this!

As Jenny was so furious, her phone rang. She took a glance at the number, then she picked up the phone and immediately shouted, "Please don't pester me ever again!" After that, she remove his number in the blacklist with no hesitation.

Andy, who listened all of this, did nothing but sat beside them silently.

Evening, in the bedroom.

After Jenny lied on bed and Andy just lied on floor for rest. And at this moment, Jenny Xia couldn't help herself asking, "Andy, where did you go last night?"

Andy Wu answered with honesty, "Jingcheng Mingjun."

It is a famous villa area in Westplain City, all of Westplain citizens know about that. This place is a heaven for the rich and unreachable for the poor.

As soon as Jenny heard this, she knew that his illness was still unstable, it would relapse from time to time.

Jenny Xia sighed, turned off the light and fell into sleep.

At noon of the next day, Jenny was doing over time at her office. There were only Andy and Guilan Huang left at home.

Guilan Huang was in a bad mood, with her illusions broken, Guilan felt a huge strike.

This frustration and irritability grew intenser when she saw this idiot, Andy. Although Shihao Wang's character was bad, at least he's really rich. And this Andy was not able to do anything, he was purely a burden. Guilan Huang could not help herself complaining while having lunch, "You are such an idiot, as long as you are of a little bit use, Jenny does not need to work that hard."

Andy always got scolded by Guilan Huang. Normally he would not answer any of her complaining and humiliations. But today, he could tell from Guilan Huang's words, there were concerns and worries for Jenny. And he couldn't help and answered, "I will give her happiness."

It would be okay if he kept silent. As soon as he spoke, Guilan became furious and started shouting at him, "If you want her to be happy, just get a divorce! You keep pestering her and won't leave this house, how could she be happy?"

Seeing Guilan Huang was getting angry again, Andy stopping talking.

Jenny was out all day long, and hadn't returned home till 8 o'clock. Guilan kept calling her and she didn't answer. She called her company and been told that Jenny was transferred to the front office all of a sudden, and asked Jenny to complete orders of two billion dollars within this month. Otherwise she would be fired.

Because of this, Jenny, who had never been in front office, was now looking for orders and begging people for help.

On hearing this, Guilan threw the phone on the sofa and ground her teeth in anger, "Today is 29th, to get a 2-million-order within two days, it's an impossible mission!"

Jenny worked in her family business since graduation.

Xia's family was operating a decoration company called Anjule Decoration Co., Ltd. It was a medium-sized company, which was good and famous in Westplain City. But in recent years, with family's bad reputation, the business was getting worse. With this situation, it was formidable for orders worth 2 million dollars in a whole month. And now the company only gave Jenny 2 days, and she was totally new to this business. This was an impossible task to achieve.

Guilan Huang was both angry and worried. It was clear that the old lady thought Jenny brought shame to this family again, and deliberately making her job difficult. It was too mean to persecute Jenny in this way.

Business world was always like this. It is inevitable for women to drink for business cooperation negotiation. Guilan Huang was really worried that her inexperience might cause a big loss.

"What happened?" asked Andy. Hearing from Guilan Huang's tone, he knew that this was not easy.

As for Guilan, as long as Andy made a sound, it was a crime. Guilan Huang rushed to Andy, hitting and shouting at him, "It's all because of you, if you were not a useless idiot like this, Jenny wouldn't need to suffer!"

Andy was worried about Jenny Xia, and did not waste time with Guilan Huang. He escaped from Guilan and got out of the door.

"Don't you dare to run from me! You get back here!" Guilan Huang screamed with anger.

Andy Wu did not listen to her at all. He called Changsheng Li while running away from the house, "Find Jenny's location as soon as possible at any cost!"

Andy Wu got in a cab.

"Where are you going?" asked by the driver.

Andy Wu did not bother look at the driver and gave him 200 dollars, and said, "I will tell you the location later." His eyes were burning as if there's torches in them but his tone was very cold.

Ten minutes later, Andy's phone started ringing.

Only Changsheng Li knew this number, and it was obvious that he got news on Jenny.

Andy took out his phone and was just about to connect. Suddenly, several cars stopped around him and a dozen men with sticks surrounded him.

After all that, Shihao Wang lit up a cigarette and walked coldly toward Andy...

A furious Andy Wu

Shihao Wang and his men came on a rampage.

However, Andy Wu didn't take them seriously at all. He answered the phone calmly, and immediately Changsheng Li's voice came over the phone.

Listening to Changsheng's briefing, Andy said in a hushed voice, "Good, I know." After saying that, he hung up the phone.

At this point, Shihao had already walked up to Andy. He puffed out a smoke ring at Andy and teased, "You fool still know how to make a phone call. Can you still find people help you? I'll give you time to find them."

Shihao didn't care about Andy at all, after all, he had brought more than a dozen bodyguards here today.

Andy hated Shihao . Especially after learning that he had deceived Jenny, Andy had to teach him a lesson. But right now, Andy was in a hurry to find Jenny, and he didn't want to waste his time with Shihao. So he said coldly, "Get out of the way, I don't have time to play with you!"

Shihao was furious when he heard this.He threw his cigarette to the ground and said fiercely: "Fuck you, don't pretend you know nothing. I told you, if you don't get a divorce, I'll break your legs, and today....."

Bang!

Shihao hadn't even finished his sentence when Andy suddenly kicked him out.

Shihao, who had fallen to the ground, became more angry as ever. He had sense of superiority, and there was no one in the Westplain City who wasn't afraid of him. He was always the only one who bullied others, no one dared to bully him. But the fool, Andy Wu, even hit him twice.

The last time he was beaten, Shihao had already remembered Andy's grudge. However, he did not immediately take revenge on Andy, but instead complained to his wife first. To him, having Jenny was more important than anything.

But his plan ended up getting screwed by his own family. He didn't want to put up with Andy any longer, so he went to Andy to fight him in the first place.

But Shihao didn't expect that Andy would also dare to hit him even if he brought so many people with him to threaten Andy, which made him crazy. He held back the sharp pain in his chest and roared madly, "Kill him right now!"

Upon hearing these words, those men holding iron bars attacked Andy.

In less than half a minute, more than a dozen his men were knocked to the ground.

Andy stood there. he became so majestic in the darkness of the night.

He won the fight with ease with one against ten.

Shihao, who was lying on the ground, forgot about the anger and the pain He was stunned completely. He witnessed Andy kill a dozen people at once, and this scene was too horrible. Shihao who had also seen the world, had also seen quite a few fights. But he encountered someone as powerful as Andy Wu was for the first time. How could he be an idiot when he was so good at fighting?

As Shihao froze, Andy took a step away and approached him.

Andy was still the same as before, without any superfluous expression on his face. However, on him, there was an additional mysterious and powerful aura that felt like a demon. Seeing him approach, the domineering Shihao was terrified. He tried to run away, but he turned to jelly and couldn't move his legs.

"Don't come to me." Shihao said.

Andy came to the side of Shihao and looked down on him like a monarch, sternly saying, "Don't bother my wife in the future."

After saying that, he gave Shihao a stunning kick.

Afterwards, Andy got into a taxi and said to the stunned cab driver, "Go to the Yuting Hotel."

The Yuting Hotel, a five-star hotel in Westplain City, included dining accommodations and entertainment.

In the dining room on the fourth floor, six people sit around a large dining table. The six men, who belonged to Anjule Decoration Company and Green Park Real Estate Company, respectively.

The representative of Anjule was, of course, Jenny Xia. And the representative of Green Park Real Estate, was the company's manager, Dahai Hu.

Jenny was transferred to the business department today. She needed to complete a $20 million order within this month. With so little time to find small companies or individual clients, it's simply impossible to get the job done. Jenny had no choice but to seek the cooperation of a larger real estate company. Since Anjule didn't have advantage in Westplain City nowadays, Andy found many companies in the morning but no company was willing to cooperate with her. Not even the other party would give her the chance to meet.

Fortunately, Jenny's efforts paid off. In the afternoon, Jenny found Dahai Hu, the manager of Green Park Real Estate Company. He was willing to meet with Jenny to talk about cooperation.

So, they two made an appointment to have dinner at the Yuting Hotel.

Dahai was able to become the manager of Green Park Real Estate, which was also very capable. Having just turned 40 this year, he had become the typical middle-aged uncle with a slick face and a big belly. He revealed cunning in his eyes and kept trying to find a way to intoxicate Jenny.

Jenny had seen through Dahai. She came to talk business with others and purposely brought her own assistant with her.

Her assistant was named Xiaoli Zhang. Whatever it was white wine or beer, she can drink it. However, even if she could drink more, she couldn't not get drunk if the four men of the Green Park Real Estate took turns to toast her.

By 8:30 p.m, they had basically closed the deal on the order. Only Jenny's assistant, Xiaoli, was already drunk.

Watching Jenny's assistant get drunk, Dahai saw his chance. He immediately poured a full glass of white wine for Jenny ,and then he raised his glass and said to Jenny, "To be honest, I am very happy to cooperate with Miss Xia. I'll toast you and wish us good cooperation!"

Jenny refused politely, "Manager Hu, I'm sorry. I really can't drink."

Dahai's face turned pale with discontent and said, "Miss Xia, our company does need to get a batch of hardcover houses, but I have many decoration companies to cooperate with. I chose to work with you because I get over you, and you won't even give me that face?"

Jenny said, "But I really can't drink."

Dahai threatened in a deep voice, "You said you wanted to cooperate with our company, but you even refused to drink with me. It seems that you didn't have Green Park Real Estate in mind, and since Miss Xia doesn't really want to cooperate with us, then there's no need for us to talk about this business!"

Jenny was shocked after hearing this. She really couldn't drink. But this cooperation, again, was very important to her. If it failed, Jenny was really going to lose her job. Besides, her family company was now in the doldrums and needed a big order to survive. So her company's cooperation with Dahai couldn't fail.

Jenny hesitated for a while as she picked up the glass in front of her that was filled with white wine and said to Dahai, "Thank you for trusting our company."

Then Jenny finished the wine in her glass in one gulp.

After she drank the white wine, she felt like there was fire burning in her stomach. Jenny obviously felt a little dizzy, and her face began to turn red.

Jenny was even more fascinating at the moment.

Dahai was a little enthralled by her beauty. Jenny was his type. Dahai Hu was a jerk. Over the years, he had hurt many girls. The reason why he promised Jenny to talk about business was completely because he liked Jenny.

Jenny Xia, the third daughter of the Xia family, is well known in the Westplain City. She has married to a fool, and people in the city all know her story. Dahai especially lamented for Jenny, and at the same time he also especially wanted to get her.

Originally, Dahai had thought that he might have to let Jenny drink a lot of wine if he wanted to get her drunk, but saw that she was already drunk after one drink. He was happy because it saved him a lot of time. He directly touched Jenny's hand, said shamelessly, "Miss Xia, your life may definitely not be happy after marrying a fool. Especially at night, you should be miserable without the company of a man. Women still need normal men."

Before his hand touched Jenny's, she took back her hand and said angrily, "Don't touch me."

Dahai glared, "Miss Xia, the rule of business is to help each other. I'm willing to give you a order of twenty million, and you should repay me!"

"I am not that kind of woman." Jenny said.

Having received Jenny's rejection, Dahai felt very humiliated. He waved a wink at his subordinates, and then his three subordinates immediately understood what he meant. A female subordinate then took away the drunk Xiaoli, two male subordinates guarded the door of the private room.

Soon, only Dahai and Jenny were left in the large private room. Dahai finally revealed his dirty face. He said to Jenny coldly, "I treat you gently, but you don't accept it. Then don't blame me for being rude to you."

Jenny was scared when she heard his words and wanted to run away.

However, the drink she had just had was a glass of white wine with strong alcohol. She was unable to stand up. She said weakly, "Don't do anything bad to me. It's against the law if you do so."

Dahai directly ignored her words and said, "Even if this is known by people, they will only think that you seduced me deliberately for business."

Dahai is cunning like a fox, and Jenny can not fight against him.

As soon as he finished, Dahai got up and started to undress himself.

Jenny was terrified. She was extremely anxious, but she couldn't escape from there. She didn't know what to do and her body had no strength. She was helpless and desperate.

At this critical point, the door was kicked open. Two of Dahai's subordinates who were guarding the outside of the private room were kicked inside.

Then a person came in. It was Andy. He walked in with long strides.

Dahai was shocked. he didn't know Andy. But he could see that this man had kung fu. Dahai was also a society man who had gone through ups and downs, and coupled with his position in society, he wasn't afraid of Andy.

He immediately picked up a bottle of wine and pointed at Andy with it and cursed, "Do you know who I am and dare to meddle in my affairs. Do you want to be killed?"

Andy walked to Dahai quickly. Before Dahai could know what had happened, Andy grabbed Dahai by the hair as soon as he could.

Andy grabbed Dahai's head and slammed it heavily on the dining table. Then he said to Jenny, who was standing beside, "Honey, are you alright?"

Amazing the whole audience

The fear in the heart of Jenny Xia was replaced by excitement, for a man like the greatest hero in the world appeared suddenly to save her.

But, the thing was quite odd that how could this man be Andy Wu?

Jenny could not hold the cup, and she was drunk so badly that she even saw some phantom floating in her eyes, and the figure before her turned out to be Andy, which surprised her deeply. She looked at him absorbedly and answered "Yes" weakly.

With head being pulled aside and bumped by Andy, Dahai Hu was seriously injured. The wine bottle fell down to the ground and he was overcome by a severe headache then, in addition he was stunned that Andy was so strong a man. He could only make the final threat, "Release me, or I'll kill you!"

Andy was furious that he saw Dahai untying the belt as he entered the room and then found Jenny was drunk. What Dahai wanted to do was easy to guess that he wanted to rape her, which irritated Andy immediately.

Bang! Bang!

Andy pulled Dahai's head and bumped it on the table twice again.

Dahai's head was hit so hard that blood came oozing out at once, then he fainted away.

After letting go of Dahai, Andy was worried about Jenny, "Let's go home!"

With that, he held the groggy girl in arms and left quickly.

However, as he just got out of the private room, Andy found more than twenty strong security guards with uniforms blocking the corridor.

The leader, who seemed over 30 and wore a decent suit, was Qilong Sun, the manager of Yuting Hotel! He looks like a gentleman but, actually, he is a ruthless person.

It was impossible that a person, who became a manager in a 5-star hotel, had no capability. Thus, there was no doubt about the ability of Qilong.

"It's not such easy to leave after hitting a person in my place, is it?" Qilong said in a flat tone.

Andy looked down on Qilong and just said indifferently, "Go away!"

Qilong's complexion got bad and the expression in his eyes was cold that meant he was furious, because the guests in Yuting Hotel all treated him with respect, but Andy hit a person and was still such arrogant. Thus, his tone changed into severeness, "Guy, you can't leave here easily after hitting someone. You'd better come with me, or expect no mercy!"

Andy said coldly, "I say again, go away!"

Qilong was furious, and swore, "Fuck!" Then, he rushed to Andy.

Bang!!!

He was suddenly hit and flipped back, falling to the ground, even before he came close to Andy.

The security guards in the corridor even didn't see clearly how Andy acted only to find that Qilong failed.

The scene was mysterious.

All the people was confused because Qilong was always good at fighting. How could he become so fragile?

"Young man, you really have some capabilities!" Suddenly, the door of the next private room opened. A man walked out wearing a tunic suit.

He was nearly 50, named Shengli Feng.

In Westplain City, Shengli was considered as a legendary figure. He was born in an ordinary family, but now he became a big shot in the city. His assets were abundant, including hotel, karaoke, nightclub and bar. With strong international relationships and a number of subordinates, he could be regarded as the representative personage of the grey zone economy in Westplain.

Tonight, Shengli was having dinner with several big shots of Westplain City in a private room on the forth floor to discuss affairs.

At the beginning of the hitting, Shengli heard something but he didn't care about such a little thing. In his mind, the problem would be solved quickly. But in fact, he finally found the condition outside was getting worse, so he couldn't help walking out of the room.

As soon as he opened the door, he saw his trusted subordinate, Qilong, lying on the ground. Then he knew that Andy was a capable person.

"Boss!"

"Boss!"

When Shengli came out, all the security guards bowed and greeted.

Andy stopped, glancing at him, "Mind your own business!"

"Ha ha, Feng, you are not as famous as before. The person looked down on you. It's no wonder that he dared to make trouble in your hotel!" Here came out four men nearly 50 and one woman over 40 from the same room.

All of these people were the big shots in Westplain City.

Hearing this, Shengli was ashamed, "You are right. After all, I haven't fight in years. I'm afraid that the youngsters don't know me anymore."

The success of Shengli was achieved by fighting. He fought mightily and ruthlessly, so he won a place in Westplain City. His achievements depended on his own strength.

Now, Shengli achieved success and won recognition. He had already been a respected boss that he didn't need to fight anymore because in this city nobody dared to make any trouble in his place. But Andy, who came out of nowhere, not only beat person in his hotel, but also didn't care about him at all, which made Shengli lose face.

After the self-mockery, he walked slowly to Andy, and said indifferently, "Young man, you are so arrogant, today, I'll teach you a lesson that there is always someone better than you!"

Then, Shengli took off his tunic suit and throw it to the guard standing on the side.

Shengli didn't fight for a long time. It's not easy to meet a hothead, so he wanted to have a fight with him in order to stretch his muscles.

The security guards on the scene were so excited for their boss was going to have a fight with someibe. For them, it's so fortunate to see a fight of Shengli with their own eyes, which, they thought, could widen their horizon.

Even the big shots came out of the private room also laughed with interest. However, Andy didn't say anything. His expression remained impassive.

"Put the woman down and I'll fight you." Shengli was serious.

Andy said insipidly, "To hit you, I don't need to put her down."

Arrogant, so arrogant!

This was the thoughts of everyone present.

"You are digging your own grave!" Shengli thundered, then gave him a whip-leg.

Holding Jenny in arms, Andy could only use his legs. He looked at Shengli's right leg and also uplift his leg.

Bang!

The two legs collided!

Shengli's ankle seemed to have hit against a steel plate. He backward a few steps slightly and his face was warped .

This young man had an unexpected strength.

Boom!!!

Shengli could no longer retained his power, and the strong vigor broke out from his body. He rushed to Andy again.

This time, he didn't consider the woman Andy was holding. He took Andy as a real enemy.

Andy was as insipid as before. When Shengli attacked, he defended. Shengli was good at fighting, but he was better. No matter how Shengli fought, and how swift and violent his action was, Andy was still easy to resist. He looked like an invincible Mars. With only a pair of feet, he could defend all the movements from Shengli.

The crowd in the spot was all dumbstruck.

There was a storm of astonishment in everyone's heart.

Though the complexion of Andy didn't change, he was also a bit shocked, because he didn't expect that in this little city, a person, called Shengli Feng, was so good at fighting. However, he was still a piece of cake for Andy.

Andy was impatient after fighting for 2 minutes. He didn't want to waste more time, so he made his first attack.

Everyone just saw Andy, who was always on the defensive before, suddenly jumped into the air and made a beautiful roundhouse kick.

The foot kicked on the chest of Shengli.

Puff!

Shengli suffered a heavy hit and spitted lots of blood. And he also fell on the ground.

The crowd was staggering again!

All the people were shocked by the gorgeous movements of Andy, expressing admiration from their eyes. It's unbelievable that he held a woman in arms and could even made such a cool roundhouse kick during the fight.

What a powerful man he is!

All the security guards could not be more shocked.

"The young man is really filled with strength!" These several big shots also shocked in their hearts.

As for Shengli lying on the ground, he was dull as well. He won all the time during his life and never met such a strong rival, so he was hit heavily both on the body and spirit. In an instant, he seemed 10 years old.

At that freezing time, Andy looked down on Shengli who was still lying, warning insipidly, "Don't make me mad again, or it has no benefit for you." Then, he walked forward.

Watching Andy's leaving, Shengli was in a rush. Though he was defeated by Andy, he couldn't let Andy go, or he would lose his face veritably and he couldn't live in Westplain City anymore.

So, Shengli forced himself to get up immediately, and shouted at Andy with anger, "Though you are good at fight, now in this society, power is the most important. In Westplain City, if you offend me, you can't have a good ending!" Although he failed on the martial arts, he had background and power.

Therefore, he commanded, "Take him down."

"Excuse me." In this moment, a large number of men in suits broke in the crowd and rushed over here.

The leader of them was the chairman of Changsheng group, Changsheng Li. The big shots of Westplain City present, including Shengli, all knew him. As soon as they saw him, they went up to him at once and greeted warmly, "Chairman Li, why do you come here?"

Changsheng ignored these people, and went straight to Andy.

Standing in front of Andy, he lowered his head respectfully and apologized, "Sorry, I'm late! Young master."

The last hope

Changsheng Li helped Andy Wu to find out that Jenny Xia was at the Yuting Hotel right now, but Andy Wu didn't ask Changsheng to come with him. It was Changsheng who intended to do so. He was afraid that Andy would get into trouble, so he asked a group of his subordinates to come with him to the Hotel.

As these words were spoken, the crowd suddenly became silent, even the pin falling on the ground can be heard. Everyone was dumbfounded and motionless, like wood sculptures.

What kind of person Changsheng Li is! He is one of the most noble men of Jiangdong Province. This time he came to the Westplain City. Among all the big guns in this City who were present, each of them wanted to have dinner with Changsheng Li, but none of them succeeded. However, to their surprise, such a powerful man showed highly respect to Andy Wu and even called him the Third Master. Isn't it surprising?

Shengli Feng and people next to him were completely dumbfounded.

Andy Wu didn't pay attention to other people's reactions. He just watched Jenny in his arms. Jenny was so sleepy that she couldn't open her eyes. So he immediately ordered Changsheng Li seriously: "Wrap up those affairs, don't make trouble for me. "

For Andy, the top priority was to let Jenny go home and have a good rest.

The next day, it was at half past eleven.

Jenny didn't wake up until noon, as soon as she woke up, she had a headache, she felt as if her head was going to explode. It was really uncomfortable. After a while, she recovered the ability to think. It came back to her that she was drunk last night.

Jenny Xia had never drunk white wine before. After drinking last night, she realized that she couldn't hold her glass well. After drinking one glass of wine, she lost her memory. Now she couldn't remember what happened after the drinking and how she got home.

Thinking of this, Jenny immediately lifted the quilt and checked her body. Finding the clothes on her body were untouched, she breathed a sigh of relief.

After getting off the bed, Jenny went to the bathroom to wash herself briefly, and then she left the bedroom.

As soon as she came out of the room, Jenny asked Guilan Huang who was cooking in the kitchen: "Mom, how did I get home last night?"

Guilan Huang answered her question while cooking: "Last night you didn't answer my phone call, so I went out to find you. When I came back, you were already asleep in bed, I don't know how you got back. How could you ask me this question, how much wine did you drink last night? "

Jenny shut her mouth and said nothing. She walked aside, took out her mobile phone, and called her assistant Xiaoli Zhang. As soon as Xiaoli answered the phone, Jenny immediately asked, "What happened last night, why did I go home directly? "

Xiaoli Zhang replied: "I was also drunk last night and woke up at home this morning. My families said it was the hotel staff who sent me back. Maybe the same thing happened to you."

Hearing this, Jenny was relieved, and she immediately asked: "Did we make the final deal with Green Garden Real Estate?"

Xiaoli Zhang said disappointingly: "Ah, don't mention it, Dahai Hu was such a liar. There is no new house to be renovated at Green Garden Real Estate. He played us. Now Dahai Hu has been fired by Green Garden Real Estate."

After hearing Xiaoli Zhang's words, Jenny was overwhelmed by disappointment. She had been on the run all day yesterday to complete the task, and she finally got in touch with Green Garden Real Estate. She thought this matter had already been settled, but who expected that she was fooled by Dahai Hu?

Jenny Xia was extremely upset, but she didn't even bother to think more. Today is the last day of the month. If the order worths 20 million dollars aren't negotiated, she will lose her job.

So, Jenny said immediately: "I'm going to the company now." After that, she hung up the phone.

Andy Wu, who was sitting on the sofa in the living room, heard all of Jenny's words and saw Jenny was leaving. He couldn't help but said, "Don't drink any more."

When he thought of what happened last night, Andy was frightened. Jenny Xia was obviously a wimpy drinker. Last night she was drunk. If he didn't arrive there in time, she would get into trouble. Andy didn't care if Jenny remembered he saved her. He was worried that Jenny Xia would get into the same position again, so he reminded her.

Jenny Xia was so upset, when she heard Andy's words, she just answered impatiently: "Do you think I really like drinking? Didn't I do this all for work?" Facing the crisis of getting fired, Jenny had a lot of pressure, this whole family was all counting on her, she couldn't lose her job anyway.

After saying this, she went straight at outside.

Guilan Huang ran out of the kitchen and shouted to her: "Jenny, have your breakfast before leaving!"

Jenny Xia said while going out, "I don't have time for breakfast."

Guilan Huang sighed, and then she cursed at Andy: "If Jenny gets fired, you, go to hell!"

When Jenny Xia arrived at the company, she hurried to the Business Department.

Halfway, Bill Xia suddenly appeared, blocking Jenny's way.

At this time, Bill Xia was making fun of Jenny's misfortune. He stared at Jenny, and said in a weird way, "Jenny, I heard that you didn't come to work the whole morning. Did you already give up and get prepared to leave the company?" Bill Xia couldn't help showing a mocking smile.

The old lady gave Jenny Xia an ultimatum of a 20 million dollar order. Bill and Jenny always had a bad relationship. Especially Jenny had a foolish husband who also ruined Bill's reputation. He was discredited and ashamed of Andy Wu. Every time he saw Andy, he desperately wanted to kill Andy. He was still angry at Andy who yelled at him last time, he always kept this in mind!

Jenny also hates Bill. She replied: "It's none of your business." She bypassed Bill and went to the business department.

It was the time of lunch break, everyone in the business department was eating meals, resting or gossiping, only Xiaoli Zhang was waiting for Jenny.

As soon as Jenny came, she told Xiaoli: "Ask everyone to gather in the meeting room now, we're going to hold a meeting."

Xiaoli Zhang nodded and started to arrange this immediately.

Ten minutes later, Jenny Xia led an emergency meeting in the meeting room of the business department. The aim of the meeting was how to complete the order of 20 million dollars.

There was only half a day left before the deadline set by the old lady. Signing a large order of 20 million dollars within the half day was completely impossible.

People in the business department didn't expect to make it anyway.

However, Jenny Xia was a person who just wanted to win. She will never give up until the last second. After a brief discussion, she asked Xiaoli Zhang: "Are there any companies we have missed?"

Xiaoli Zhang looked at the report and said, "At present, there is only one company that may take a 20 million order."

Speaking of this, Xiaoli Zhang smiled bitterly: "But this is definitely hopeless. As far as I know, the renovation of Changsheng Group is always done on their own, and it will not be contracted to other companies."

Changsheng Group was the industry leader in the entire Jiangdong Province. There were countless companies that wanted to cooperate with Changsheng Group. Xia's Group, as an ordinary decoration company, dare not dream of any relationship with Changsheng Group.

Of course Jenny Xia knewed that Changsheng Group was the sky beyond reach. However, now that she has been pushed to a dead end, even if her chances are slim, she wanted to have a try.

Jenny stood up and said very seriously: "Give me our company's information, I'm going to Changsheng Group now."

"Haha, did you hear that Jenny Xia was going to Changsheng Group to discuss the business?"

Bill Xia with his group of subordinates strode into the meeting room of the business department.

"Cooperating with Changsheng Group? Even the old lady didn't dare to think about it, did Jenny Xia get infected by Andy Wu, is she crazy?"

"Yeah, what a prosperous company it is ! How is it possible for Changsheng to cooperate with us? It is really delusional."

"Jenny, if you go there, I guarantee that you can't even enter the gate, please don't shame us."

"Yes, our company will go downhill just because you are married to a fool. Don't get yourself fired and shame us!"

People who came in with Bill Xia were all from Xia's family.

Bill heard that Jenny was holding an emergency meeting during the lunch break, so he deliberately brought his families over to make fun of Jenny's dilemma. He didn't expect to hear such a big joke as soon as they came in. How dare she go to Changsheng Group to discuss about the cooperation, this was really ridiculous.

Being ridiculed in public by this group of people, Jenny Xia couldn't save her face. She was ashamed, but more annoyed. She stared them angrily and shouted to these worms in the family: "The reason why our company is in a bad situation, don't blame me, it's all because of you, a group of worms. You did nothing but depend on our family business. What are you qualified to laugh at me? Even if Changsheng Group won't agree to cooperate with us, at least I have tried, I have no regrets! "

The members of Xia's family present, except Bill Xia have a few knowledge, most of them are idiots in business. Since grandpa passed away, the old lady has arranged a lot of useless offspring into the company, even let them hold an important position in the company, making the company in a mess. Now the company ran into a problem, they just blamed on Jenny.

In the past, Jenny Xia swallowed her rage, holding everything in the heart. Now since she is going to be fired, Jenny will no longer be scrupulous, and she will say whatever she wants.

Hearing this, Bill was so angry. He gritted his teeth and shouted to Jenny: "You are a bad luck, how dare you blame others! It was you tarnished our family's reputation and made our business worse than ever. Just wait, until you get out of the company tomorrow, I guarantee the company will continue to flourish in the future! "

After Bill finished speaking, others in Xia's family all echoed, saying that Jenny was a disaster. Only when she left the company would the company's situation improve.

Jenny didn't want to fight the war with words, she just took the company information and left.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, Jenny Xia came to Changsheng Group.

This was a building located in the most prosperous area of Westplain City. On the top of the building, there was the name of Changsheng Group engraved .

Although this is just a branch office of Changsheng Group in Westplain City, it was quite luxurious, the whole building belonged to them. The employees of the group all worked here.

At the gate of the first floor of the building, there were two security guards on duty.

People who get in and out of the company must bring a work permit. If someone forgets to bring it, even employees are not allowed to enter.

Changsheng Group was a famous company which many people dreamed of going in.

When Jenny arrived here, she couldn't help but feel fascinated. She looked up at the prosperous building, then stepped forward and walked in.

"Sorry, please show me your work permit." Without exception, Jenny Xia was stopped by the security guard at the door.

Jenny explained: "I am from Anjule Decoration Company, I want to cooperate with your company."

"Do you have an appointment?" One of the tall security guards said.

Jenny shook her head: "No."

The tall security guard said sternly: "You can't go in without permission."

Jenny Xia bit her lips, then opened her mouth again, said with a tone of prayer: "Can you come me some slack, I really want to cooperate with your company."

Jenny used to be elegant and confident, but now, in order to keep her job, she had to lower her head and beg a security guard.

The tall security guard said indifferently: "No, hurry and leave, otherwise I will ask someone to drive you away."

A great number of people were eager to cooperate with this company these years. If anyone can easily get in, the company has already been messed up. The security guards have not directly drove her away thanks to her appearance.

There was a passion in Jenny's heart, it made her feel very uncomfortable. It seemed that Bill was right , she couldn't even enter the gate of Changsheng Group. This was a blow to Jenny. She knew clearly that if she returns with nothing completed, she will only face Bill's ridicule, also be expelled from the company.

Jenny didn't want to go back like this, she stood at the door, very upset.

"Go away, don't block the door." Another security guard said toughly.

Jenny Xia was thin-skinned. She was flushed being driven away in such a way. Even she was unwilling to leave, she couldn't stay here any more, so she had to turn around and leave here.

"Let her in." Said a voice inside from the building.

Nice to meet you, Miss Xia

Jenny was so frustrated and was just about to leave here. Suddenly she heard the voice and turned around.

Jenny caught sight of the speaker at once. There was a woman standing in the hall of the building and staring at Jenny.

This woman was the roommate of Jenny Xia in college, her name was Qin Zou.

As soon as Jenny saw her, she smiled and said in surprise: "What are you doing here, Qin?"

Qin Zou waved her hands to Jenny and said, "Come in, please."

Jenny couldn't believe it. She hesitated for a while and glanced at the guard. She didn't expect that the guard made a "Please come in" posture to her.

Afterwards, Jenny stepped into the hall of Changsheng Group with great excitement and surprise.

After entering the hall, Jenny saw the I.D. badge on the neck of Qin, it turned out that Qin was the Resource Head of the company. No wonder that she had the authority to let Jenny in.

"Qin, I didn't expect you would be the Resource Head of Changsheng Group, that's impressive." Jenny was filled with envy.

Qin said proudly, "Just so so, you know, it's all of my husband's credits. I got this job in Changsheng Group thanks to him."

Speaking of her husband, Qin deliberately put quotes around it.

When they were in college, Qin couldn't compare with Jenny from all aspects. Jenny was then pretty and rich. Her grades were also good. She was the famous beauty in the school. As for Qin, she was just 'someone around Jenny', serve as a foil to Jenny. It looked like they are best friends. They are roommates, always be together everywhere. In fact, Qin really hates Jenny. Because Jenny covered all of her merits, making her unnoticed. When Jenny was around, everyone would pay attention to Jenny but neglect Qin's existence completely. This was a blow for Qin's vanity and pride.

After graduation, Qin made great efforts to marry a rich man. Although he was ten years older than Qin, she didn't care. Because he was rich and powerful, and that's enough for her.

Oppositely, Jenny Xia married a fool. When Qin heard about this, she couldn't be happier. She finally managed to beat Jenny for once. But she never got the chance to show off, because she hasn't met Jenny since graduation. What a coincidence, today she happened to see Jenny outside her company and get kicked out by the guards. Of course she wouldn't miss the great opportunity.

Jenny didn't catch the hidden message in Qin's words. She just felt a little bit depressed when hearing of Qin's marriage. After all she has a foolish husband who couldn't help her anyway. She just replied unhappily, " I really admire you."

Seeing Jenny's sad expression, Qin was very happy. But on the face, she pretended to be friendly, she said to Jenny, " Have a seat, please."

While speaking, Qin led Jenny to the special sofa for guests in the hall.

“ Two cups of coffee, please.” As soon as they sat down, Qin ordered the receptionist.

Things were totally different from years ago. Now Qin was really decent and proud.

After the coffee was served, Qin opened her mouth and asked Jenny, “ I heard that you married a fool, this can't be true, right?”

This news was already spread everywhere, Qin knew it very well, but she still pretended to be surprised.

Jenny was shameful. She bit her lips and answered, “Sorry, I don't want to talk about this.”

Qin pursued, “I just want to know, it must be easy for you to find a good husband with your condition, why did you choose a fool as your husband?”

Jenny was so shamed that she even wanted to dig a hole and bury herself at this moment. She didn't want to face such a sharp question. This has always been a pain for her. The reason why she dare not to meet with her old friends and classmates was exactly she married Andy Wu. Now Qin wouldn't let her go, it made her feel so miserable. She said bitterly, “Let's skip this topic.”

Seeing her like this, Qin smiled and said, “Ok, forget about your husband, let's talk about you. What are you doing here today?”

Hearing this, Jenny suppressed her depression at once and took out the information of her own company and said, “This is the detailed information of our company, I want to contract your company's decoration business." For Jenny, Qin Zou was her best hope. Qin was in privileged position in Changsheng Group and she was so nice to Jenny. Jenny really hoped Qin could give her a hand.

Qin took over and went through the information of Jenny's company. She said, " It's not a easy thing."

Qin paused for a while and then started to brag, "But I had a good relationship with our senior managers. If I say something nice for you, this is not impossible."

Jenny became excited immediately, she asked, "Can you do me a favor, please?"

Qin took a sip of coffee and said lightly, " I can't do it unless you beg me."

Jenny was dumbfounded hearing this. While in college, Qin was so nice to her. She always helped Jenny, even as kind of flattery. Now she has changed a lot. She became so powerful that Jenny had to look up at her.

Jenny felt bitterly in her heart. But during this key period, she really needed this order and Qin's help. She had no choice but to accept Qin's request. She tried to calm down and begged Qin sincerely, "Qin, I really need the order. So please help me for the sake of our relationship."

Qin was really happy when she heard this. Jenny who was so elegant before now has been overwhelmed by life pressure, how exciting it is!

Qin finally found her proud back.

Qin hid this feeling in her heart and changed her expression. She patted the table and stood up, shouted to Jenny, "I let you in just because we were classmates, Jenny Xia, I didn't see that you dare to bribe me. What kind of person do you think of me?"

Qin Zou suddenly shouted as a lightening in the sunny day. Afterwards, a lot of staffs in Changsheng Group gathered to watch the show.

All of a sudden, Jenny was dumbfounded. She didn't expect Qin put on another face so quickly. She was confused, "What do you mean, Qin?"

Qin was holding the papers in her hands and she scolded, "What do I mean? You were in such an ordinary company, how dare you come to ask for cooperation with Changsheng Group! And you even wanted to bribe me. What were you thinking? Don't you know that our company has a professional decoration team? What qualified you to cooperate with us?"

After saying this, Qin slapped the papers on the face of Jenny.

Jenny Xia was miserable and awkward.

The staffs in Changsheng Group gathered here started to whisper, "You see, another one who dreams of being benefited from our company."

"How can she overreach like this? How can her little company cooperate with Changsheng Group?"

"What a shame to bribe our manager."

Jenny would rather kill herself than be ridiculed by so many people here. She was so shamed and upset. At this point, even she was not that smart, she realized that Qin never wanted to help her. She let Jenny in just because she wanted to humiliate her.

Their friendship of four years was just a piece of shit!

She was totally wrong.

Jenny was really heartbroken.

She quietly picked up the papers on the ground and shouted to Qin, " You can just tell me if you don't want to help me. But please don't humiliate me. You're completely out of line!"

Qin mumbled, "Now I finally understand why you chose that fool to be your husband. Since you are a fool and you have no idea of who you are. Even if you want to bribe someone, you shouldn't come to me. Don't you know we have strict legislation in our company? Even the guard is smarter than you."

Qin's words stirred up crowd's reactions strongly. " The fool Andy Wu? Is she the lady from Xia's Family?"

"No wonder her face is so familiar. That's her, the bride of the fool!"

"She is really pretty, why bother?"

"Maybe there's something wrong with her head. That's why she came to our company for cooperation. Isn't she crazy?"

These voices were like hailstones punching on Jenny's face, making her feel dazzled. Her eyes became tearful and sore. But she restrained herself from crying, she didn't want to embarrass herself. She tried to save her face and dignity. She said the words firmly with her hoarse voice, "I want to cooperate with your company, that's true. I know I overreached. But I've never tried to bribe you, please don't frame me."

All Qin wanted was to humiliate Jenny in public. She wanted to step on the body of Jenny Xia and let everyone know she was much better than Jenny. Now she achieved her aim, she didn't want to waste more time. She shouted, "Guard, get this crazy woman out of our company."

Two guards in the hall ran over at once.

Jenny's body was stiffened. Her heart was filled with sorrow. It felt like she was stabbed by an acquaintance deeply. She saw the guards running to her, and she was getting desperate.

But, right before the guards came over and drive her out, someone said, "Stop!"

Just one word, but with power and authority. Suddenly, the crowd became quiet. They turned around and saw the speaker simultaneously.

A middle-aged calm man walked over.

He was the Resource Director of Changsheng Group, Rong Guo!

Seeing he comes here, people all greeted to him, "Director Guo."

Qin also walked over. In the Human Resources Department, Rong Guo was in the highest level. He was the ultimate boss of Qin. Qin couldn't be the manager of Human Resources Department without his help. So Qin showed respect to Rong a lot. She was gallant in front of Rong. "Director Guo, what brings you here?"

Rong stared at Qin and said, "You are fired."

His words was so firm.

All people there was speechless.

Qin seemed as if been stricken by the lightening, she asked in a hoarse voice, "Are you kidding, Director Guo?"

Rong Guo scolded her, "I'm not kidding. Now pack up your things and get out of the company."

His tone was stern and irrefutable.

Qin was scared by him, several kinds of feelings were in her heart, upset, astonishing, unbelievable and something unutterable.

Others were also confused, didn't know what just happened.

Rong bypassed Qin and went directly to Jenny, he made a "Please" gesture and said with respect, "Nice to meet you, Miss. Xia. Are you here to cooperate with us? Please follow me."

The old lady was shocked.

Rong Guo was treating Jenny Xia with courtesy.

What kind of person Rong Guo was. He was the Director of Changsheng Group who was in the highest level of the Group. Within this large company, there was only few ones could be treated by Rong like this. They couldn't believe that Jenny Xia who was from a small decoration company could be respected as a distinguished guest

This scene was so striking. Those who were stunned were even more shocked that their jaws almost dropped.

Qin Zou was suspicious and couldn't believe what she saw. She was unwilling to accept the reality, but she had to confront it. This was just like a slap on her face.

As for Jenny, she was totally dumbfounded. She has been in the deepest despair, her dignity was tramped, her heart was stricken, her face completely lost, she even felt the world was dark. But she never expected that at this time the Director of Changsheng Group suddenly appeared and fired the arrogant Qin, and he even allowed her to discuss the cooperation.

Jenny Xia couldn't believe it. It just didn't feel real. She could not get over it, she felt like being in a surreal dream.

"Miss.Xia, this way, please." Seeing Jenny motionless, Rong Guo said politely.

Jenny shilvered and finally responded. She realized that Rong was talking to her.

Her heart was stirred immediately. She was so excited that her eyes seemed to twinkle. She couldn't help looking at the shocked expression of people around her. Then she glanced at Qin whose face went an ugly green. At this moment, she felt so delighted. She was able to raise her head proudly. An unprecedented feeling of pleasure rushed through her body.

Under scrutiny of all the people, Jenny stepped and entered the elevator with Rong.

Without saying a word on the way, Jenny's excitement changed into tension. She discreetly followed Rong to the big office on the top floor of the building.

Rong stopped at the office door and slightly bowed to Jenny, he said: "Miss.Xia, please come in, our boss is waiting for you."

Jenny was holding the information between her fingers. She tried to calm down and be well prepared. Then she raised her hand and knocked the door of the office.

"Come in, please." A dignified male voice came from the office.

Jenny glance at Rong and then walked into the office.

The office was so big. As soon as she got in, she felt her horizon became wider. However, now she wasn't in a mood to appreciate this luxury office. She stared at the man in front of her. There was a man sitting behind the desk.

Jenny knew who he was. He was the general director of Changsheng Group in Westplain City, also the vice president of the Group, Jianye Yang.

Jianye Yang was well-known in Westplain City. He was the man standing at the top of the pyramid in Westplain City. Jenny just saw this famous man on the TV before. She never expected to meet him in the flesh.

Right now, Jenny's heart almost jumped out of her throat. What happened today was like a miracle. She boldly came here with vain hope. She thought if she was lucky enough, she might have the chance to meet the Department Manager. Now, the Director led her way, the Vice President served her personally, it's such a honor to her.

Jenny has never been so nervous before. Her hands were rubbing the corners of her dress. She took a while to open her mouth and croaked, "Nice to meet you, President Yang.

Jianye Yang smiled to her and said, "Nice to meet you, too. Miss. Xia, please have a seat."

Jenny's legs were so stiffen that she couldn't stand up straight. So she sat down at the chair in front of the desk at once.

After Jenny sat down, Jianye said, "Our staff is so rude, it's my fault. Please don't mind, Miss.Xia."

Obviously he implied Qin Zou. To her surprise, such a successful boss like Jianye Yang was being so humble and friendly, he even made the first move to apologize to Jenny. Jenny was so flattered and answered, "It's okay. Never mind."

Jianye Yang stared at Jenny and asked, "I heard Miss.Xia was going to cooperate with our company, right?"

Qin's words were such a blow to Jenny. Speaking of the cooperation, Jenny was shamed to bring it up. She stammered, "I ...I was..."

Jianye Yang noticed that Jenny was very nervous, so he said, "Take it easy, Miss.Xia. I heard about your excellent talent in designing. And I always hold the intention to cooperate with your company. Since you offered to cooperate, isn't it great?"

After finishing the words, he took out a contract and put it on the desk. He continued, "This is an order worths fifty million dollars. Please check it, Miss.Xia. If you have no problem, just sign your name on it."

Jenny Xia was the interior decorator. Before being transferred to the Business Department, she has been working in the Decoration Department. She really had a talent in decoration. However, it's a surprise that Jianye Yang would value her. He even decided to sign contract with her without asking a question?

Even an order of fifty million dollars?

It's a blessing!

Jenny was overwhelmed by the joy. She excitedly reached out her hand and took the contract. She carefully read the document and found the terms of the contract were very clear. Changsheng Group was going to contract an important project to Anjule Company.

Anjule Company was just an ordinary decoration company in Westplain City. Even at the peak period, the company never got such a big order of fifty million dollars, let alone their company is in a poor situation now, it's less likely to sign such a big order

The profits of the order was inestimable.

After signing this contract, her company wouldn't need to worry about the performance any more. Most importantly, this order would also bring lots of energy to her company and make its situation improved. Facing this temptation, how could Jenny be not excited! But she still kept a bit of sanity. She carefully tested, "Mr. Yang, you're not kidding, right?"

Jianye Yang answered seriously, "No, I'm not kidding. I'm optimistic about your potential."

His words were so firm and they're really important to Jenny. Hearing him out, Jenny's eyes were tearful. She couldn't be happier. How could this miracle happen to her! It felt like the goddess of luck was stopping by her. She was not a innocent girl, but this whole thing was so amazing that she couldn't believe it.

After a few minutes, Jenny suppressed her complex emotions. She lifted the pen and signed her name on the contract with her heartfelt gratitude.

After signing the contract, Jenny stood up and bowed to Jianye Yang, she said, "Thank you for your recognition, Mr.Yang. We will never let you down."

Jianye Yang stood up promptly and said to Jenny Xia, "It's my pleasure."

Meanwhile, Jianye Yang was just as nervous as Jenny Xia. He has been struggled so many years in business, but he has never been in such a mood. For him, Jenny Xia was like a goddess, he had to sacrifice her.

After sending Jenny away, Jianye was finally relieved.

At the moment , the side door of the office opened , Changsheng Li came out.

Jianye Yang modestly asked, "Executive Li, did I make any mistake?"

Changsheng Li seemed to be thinking, "I don't know either. This depends on third master."

It was half past four in the afternoon. In the meeting room of Anjule Company.

In response to the old lady's request to hold a meeting of all staffs, the employee of the company all put down their work and rushed to the meeting room.

The old lady didn't tell them about the content of the meeting. But everyone knew what's going on. This was a meeting about Jenny Xia, she will soon be kicked out of the company.

After a while , all staffs gathered in the meeting room.

The old lady hasn't arrived yet. Everyone was relaxed. Bill Xia and his brothers were entertaining themselves by making fun of Jenny.

"Jenny Xia already missed the deadline, she hasn't finished the task yet, of course she should be fired."

"She is a bad luck. How much negative effects she has brought to our company! She should have been fired earlier."

"Yeah, today she even came to Changsheng Group and tried to cooperate with them, what a shame!"

Humiliating Jenny was one of these people's greatest joys.

They didn't shut up until the old lady walked in.

After sitting on the chief chair, the old lady looked around and asked, "Why isn't Jenny here?"

Bill smiled and answered, "She wouldn't give up. So she went to Changsheng Group and ask for cooperation. She hasn't come back yet."

The old lady was a sophisticate. Hearing of this, she knew it clearly that what would happen to Jenny. She screwed up her face and said unhappily, "What she could do was just humiliate us!"

Then she declared to all staffs, " I declare to fire Jenny Xia from now on."

She finished the words and people there all burst into cheers, as if this was the best news in their life.

"How could you fire me?" At this moment, Jenny suddenly walked in and turned the question back.

People in the room all became silent and looked at Jenny.

The old lady glance at Jenny and said in a cold voice, "Did you forget what I told you last morning?"

Jenny said seriously, "Of course I didn't forget. You asked me to complete an order of twenty million dollars."

The old lady's gave her an icy stare and asked, "So, did you succeed?"

Jenny answered her word by word, "Yes, I did." Her tone was so serious.

But nobody believed her. They all burst into laughters as if they heard a joke.

Bill said in satire, "haha, Jenny Xia, don't you want to tell me you made a contract with Changsheng Group?"

"She must have been dreaming." Someone echoed.

In the voices of doubt, Jenny walked to the old lady quickly, she took out the contract and gave it to the old lady, she said, "This is our contract with Changsheng Group, please have a look, grandma."

The old lady picked up the contract and her hands were trembling.

"Fifty million dollars!"

I can give you everything

The old lady, who runs a company and manages a family, naturally has a strong mentality, no matter when she is in charge, she is basically calm, sophisticated and unfazed. But at this moment, she lost her temper and cried out in surprise in front of the entire company.

An order was worth $50 million.

"Grandma, what do you mean by fifty million?" Bill couldn't help but ask as he looked at the old lady with such excitement.

The old lady ignored Bill, but raised her eyelids, stared at Jenny, and sternly questioned: "Jenny, you won't deliberately forge a fake contract to fool me, right? How could Changsheng Corporation possibly give us an order of fifty million?" After the shock, the old lady just didn't believe it. This whole thing was so ridiculous, who would believe it.

The others in the meeting room hearing this from the old lady also finally understood what the old lady was surprised about.

Immediately, all the people of the Xia family said in disbelief, "Jenny must be lying. She is a new business, how can she get such a big order?"

"Yes, the contract was signed with Changsheng Corporation. Our company is not competitive. Why would they want to do business with us?"

"Jenny is really shameless. She'll do anything to not get fired."

These voices were extremely sharp. Jenny's face was becoming cold. To finish her task, she went to Changsheng Corporation, and after being mocked, she finally signed a large order with the company. However, these people not only didn't thank her, but they also belittled her, and even her grandma also didn't believe her, which really hurt her feelings.

This family was too prejudiced against her.

While they were talking, Jenny pulled his voice and said loudly, "The contract has the official seal of Changsheng Corporation on it.

At this moment, Jenny showed her confidence that had never been seen before.

"I don't believe you, I'll call the company." Bill was the first to take out his cell phone and dial the phone of the Changsheng Corporation.

When the call got through, Bill asked about the order directly.

Upon hearing the reply, Bill's face displayed an incredulous expression instantly, his eyes wide and his hands trembled slightly. After the he hung up the phone, he slowly put it down and muttered, "The Changsheng Corporation is really working with our company!"

One simple sentence shocked everyone. The large conference room was quiet.

Jenny gently raised her eyes and took a glance at these dumbfounded people. The annoyance in her heart had finally dissipated and now she was finally a little more relaxed.

At six o'clock in the evening, Mrs. Huang had prepared a large table of food and was waiting for Jenny.

As soon as Jenny returned, Mrs. Huang reassured her, "Jenny, even if you were fired from the company, you don't have to be discouraged. It's also not hard to get a job with another company in your capacity."

Mrs. Huang knew that her daughter was stressed, and she didn't want to give her too much pressure.

Upon hearing this, Mrs. Huang's expression suddenly changed, her eyes widened and she asked in surprise, "Ah? Has the old lady changed her mind?"

In her opinion, it was absolutely impossible to complete the 20 million orders, so the only possibility of not being dismissed was that the old lady changed her mind and showed mercy.

Jenny shook her head and said seriously, "No, I signed an order for fifty million."

Her mother suddenly opened her mouth wide. The sum of fifty million stunned her; she couldn't believe it and asked, "It can't be? When something so lucky happened to you? Why don't you have a look of surprise?"

Jenny exhaled and muttered back, "I didn't expect to be so lucky, I just can't believe it." What had happened today was indeed like a dream, and Jenny needed some time to calm her mood.

When Mrs. Huang heard this, she hugged Jenny and said excitedly, "My good daughter, you are really wonderful, I love you so much!" She was so excited that she was about to cry.

Jenny saw her mother so happy, and a smile appeared on her face too.

Andy who was standing beside saw Jenny smiling, and his heart was relieved.

At ten o'clock in the evening, Jenny was lying in bed, her thoughts running wild. She couldn't stop thinking.

Ever since her marriage to Andy three years ago and the death of her grandfather, Jenny's life had hit a low point, and she had had a lot of trouble. The burden of the family and the cold eyes of others kept her under tremendous pressure. She also felt the inconstancy of human relationships.

But today, after she suffered a blow of Qin Zou, a miracle had occurred. She surprisingly got the appreciation and affirmation of Jianye Yang, vice president of Changsheng Corporation, and signed a large order of 50 million. This made Jenny build up confidence and even saw the hope in life.

Her future did not seem to be disappointing.

Jenny let out an exclamation, "When will I be able to live the life I want?"

"I can give you everything you want," Andy who was lying under the bed said this suddenly.

Jenny's fond wish was directly shattered by Andy's words. She came back to reality and said to Andy, "I'll be grateful as long as you don't get me into trouble."

After saying that, Jenny put the quilt over her head and fell asleep

The next day, news of Changsheng Corporation's cooperation with Anjule Decoration Company spread throughout Westplain City.

This unanticipated collaboration shocked many people deeply.

As we all know, Changsheng Corporation is the real estate giant of the entire Jiangdong Province. In Westplain City, there are many companies that want to work with it, but the vast majority of them are refused. No one had predicted that Changsheng Corporation would work with an unmarketable Anjule Decoration Company.

People couldn't figure out why Changsheng Corporation would choose a small company like Anjule Decoration Company. But whatever the reason, Anjule Decoration Company became famous this time in Westplain City.

The Xia family was proud of the fact that Anjule Decoration Company was in the hands of the Changsheng Corporation

The old lady was very happy that Jenny finally won the honor for the family.

To celebrate this historic moment, the old lady decided to hold a celebration banquet at the Yuting Hotel.

At eleven o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. Huang stood outside the bedroom and urged Jenny, "Jenny, are you dressed up? You're the main character today, so don't be late."

"Not yet, wait a minute." Jenny's voice came out from the bedroom.

Jenny attached great importance to today's banquet. She regarded this as a new beginning in her life and she was going to spare no efforts to set sail again.

Ten minutes later, Jenny walked out from the bedroom. She was like a fairy, wearing a white dress and a pair of high heels. She also wore delicate makeup.

Jenny was very attractive today.

Andy on the couch couldn't help but looked Jenny many times.

"My daughter is so beautiful!" Mrs. Huang stared at Jenny and complimented her.

After saying that, she couldn't help but look at Andy again and said in disgust, "But it's really bad luck to marry a fool like you!"

Jenny took her mother's arm and said, "Mom don't talk about him like that. Let's go now!"

Jenny immediately got up and followed.

Mrs. Huang rushed Andy and cursed, "Why did you come with us? You just stay home."

Jenny explained, "I let him go. I can't let him starve at home."

Mrs. Huang sighed and said, "You are just too soft-hearted."

After saying that, she then admonished Andy, "You keep your mouth shut outside, or I'll beat you up when you go home."

The Xia family had booked more than a dozen seats in the Yuting Hotel.

When Jenny came, the Xia family was all there; even the old lady came to the hotel early.

As soon as Andy appeared, many people would look at him with disgust. However, because Jenny was the main character today, the old lady warned the Xia family beforehand not to taunt him..

So this time, none of the Xia family taunted Andy for the first time.

"Moran, come, sit with Grandma." As soon as Jenny appeared, the old lady waved at her.

With Jenny's position in the Xia family, she is not qualified to be at the table with the old lady. Those who can sit with the old lady are the elders of the family, or the descendants of the old lady who are most valued.

Jenny was very excited at this moment. For the first time the family didn't mock Jenny and no one treated her with cold eyes, and for the first time the old lady let Jenny sit at the same table with her. She really saw hope, and perhaps in the future, if she worked hard, she would be recognized by the family and valued by her grandmother.

Jenny couldn't help but straighten her back, and with hope and confidence, she walked towards the old lady and sat at table with her grandmother.

Andy also walked over to Jenny and sat down next to her.

"This is not a place for you to sit." The old lady stared at Andy and said in a cold voice.

The old lady had a high status in the Xia family, and no one dared to disregard what she said, but Andy didn't care her words, he ignored the old lady and still sat down.

Seeing this, Jenny hurriedly said, "You go and find another seat!" Jenny knew that this family valued rules and hierarchy, and it was not appropriate for Andy to sit with the old lady.

Hearing Jenny's words, Andy silently got up, walked to an empty seat in a corner and sat down.

At twelve o'clock, the banquet began, and the whole room was silent.

The old lady looked at Jenny and said sincerely, "Today Jenny has made a great contribution to the company, and she also honors our family. She deserves praise."

Jenny was happy to be praised by the old lady, just like the elementary school students were praised by their teachers, and she immediately replied, "Thank you, grandma."

Bill, who was sitting beside, was a bit jealous of Jenny, and he interjected, "I think grandmother is very good. It is grandmother who sees that Jenny has the talent in business. If grandmother didn't transfer her to the business department, this order could not be negotiated." Bill's meaning was obvious, he thought Jenny could only be a saleswoman.

The old lady didn't refute Bill's words either. She just smiled at Jenny and asked, "Jenny, tell everyone, how did you get the deal?"

Jenny was about to speak, but suddenly someone came straight at her and threw a full glass of wine in her face.

At the same time, a sharp female voice resounded throughout the room, "You vixen, you seduced my director and got me fired, you really are too shameless!"

The Frightened Xia Family

The woman who appeared suddenly was Jenny's university roommate, Qin Zou.

Qin's rude behavior that splashing wine and shocking words abruptly changed the atmosphere of the celebration party. All the Xia family members looked at Jenny oddly.

Jenny was shocked. Today, she dressed up elaborately and regained confidence and hope to restart. She did see the changes in the family's attitude toward her and even got the old lady's praise publicly, making her extremely happy. Unexpectedly, Qin broke in, not only splashing wine on her but also slandering her for seducing Director Guo.

Having realizing from the mess, Jenny burst into anger, wiping her face quickly with a tissue. She stood up and shouted at Qin, "Don't talk nonsense here. You were fired only because of your bad personality. "

Having been in one class with her for four years, Jenny did not expect that Qin turned out to be such a vicious person. Yesterday Qin slandered her for bribery, today slandered for seducing the director again. Such a woman was so disgusting.

Qin smiled coldly and said, "Oh, my personality was clearly known all around the company. Director Guo used to think highly of me. So why would he fire me for you?"

Jenny was stuck by her. She did not know why Director Guo fired Qin directly either. There was indeed no need to fire her although Qin did something wrong.

Before Jenny's reply, Qin continued, "Besides, do you really think your damned decoration company was able to cooperate with Changsheng Group? Was it not for your seducing, how could Changsheng Group cooperate with you?"

Qin's words were clear and powerful even reasonable that caused the Xia family members present to believe her gradually.

It turned out that Jenny got the cooperation opportunity with Changsheng Group depending on her beauty instead of ability!

In this case, the expressions of the Xia family members became more complicated and strange.

Jenny was very anxious and shouted with grievance, "I didn't do that at all. I even don't know Director Guo. I could sign the contract because President Yang appreciates my design talent."

President Yang?

Hearing this, Qin smiled disdainfully and ridiculed, "President Yang is the boss of Changsheng Group. How could he value you? Don't overestimate yourself! No one would believe it!"

All including the Xia family members present didn't believe it. They thought Jianye Yang, an influential man, could not think about valuing Jenny at all, which was just incredible.

Not to mention others, even Jenny herself thought it was so unrealistic. How did Yang choose her? How should she refute Qin?

Seeing that Jenny was speechless, she became more complacent. She went beside Jenny and said proudly, "I haven't expected that you are so tactful. It's obvious that you have hooked up with Director Guo. Why are you acting in front of me to humiliate me publicly in the company? Listen, this won't be over!"

Meanwhile, she dropped the wine glass on the ground.

Boom!

The glass broke into pieces, scattered around.

What's more, Qin rampantly shouted, "Kneel down and apologize to me! Or I won't let you out of this hotel!"

Though knowing that people here were Xia family, Qin behaved extremely arrogant. She didn't care Jenny or her family and dared to make trouble here because she had confidence.

"What are you? How dare you ask Jenny to apologize?" Guilan stood up and walked toward Qin.

The Xia family did not trust Jenny except Guilan, Jenny's mother, who knew about Jenny best. If Jenny were a material girl, she would have divorced Andy and accepted Shihao without hesitation.

For her daughter's integrity, Guilan firmly believed that Jenny did never sacrifice herself to hook up with any director.

Qin glared at Guilan and said angrily, "Get away! Mind your own business."

Guilan was not as graceful as Jenny, who was known as a female tiger. When her husband was alive, her husband was made so obedient. Now, she also disdained to take such a little bitch seriously. Hearing what she said, Guilan raised her hand and slapped Qin directly.

Pah! ! !

A clear slap, extremely resounding.

Later, Guilan yelled at Qin, "You shameless bitch! How dare you abuse my daughter! Marrying an excellent man would come in handy for my daughter. It's unnecessary for her to seduce your director at all! As for you, look like a bitch to seduce any man! "

Qin covered her face and said unbelievably, "How dare you slap me? Do you know who I am?"

Guilan said arbitrarily, "Nobody cares who you are. If you keep talking nonsense, believe me or not, I'll tear your mouth apart!" Guilan had shown her arrogance for her daughter.

Qin looked at Guilan angrily and gritted his teeth, "You will pay for it!"

After that, Qin shouted to the dazed waiter, "Go, call my husband to tell him I have been bullied!"

The waiter immediately trotted away.

Seeing that her mother stood up for her, she felt more comfortable. But Qin was so arrogant to call her husband, which meant that her husband might be an influential man. To avoid getting into trouble, Jenny said to Qin, "My mother didn't mean it. She was just too impulsive. Could you ..."

Guilan interrupted Jenny at once and said toughly, "Don't talk to her. Let her go to call anyone! I don't care at all!"

Then Guilan turned to shout at Qin again, "Oh, are you calling for help? I must tell you that the whole banquet hall has been booked by us and all present here are my Xia family. What can you do to us even if anyone comes here? "

Qin glanced around them and contemptuously said, "Before my husband, you are all trash!"

Qin was completely arrogant and rampant.

However, this time Qin had despised the whole Xia family.

Every one of Xia family was displeased by her words.

Zhendong Xia, at the same table with Jenny, suddenly stood up and said lightly to Qin, "Miss, enough? Go leave. Don't interrupt our dinner."

Zhendong was in his forties with a fierce temperament, who was regarded as a big shot and had a say in Xia family.

Zhendong not only had a say in the Xia family but also held a special status in society. The inferiors of Xia family were all awed by him. Though rebellious since childhood, he had extraordinary abilities, who had many brothers under his control after over 20 years occupying position in Westplain City. Up to now, he was still a big shot in Westplain. Even the hoods had to call him Big Brother respectfully.

Zhendong did not mean to intervene in Jenny's matter. But now, Qin despised the Xia family, making him displeased.

After hearing what he said, the others of the Xia family couldn't wait see Qin leave.

Just then, a resounding voice came, "Who bullied my wife?"

Meanwhile, a group of people appeared. The leader was Qilong Sun, the manager of Yuting Hotel.

Along with a large group of the hotel security guards, Qilong broke in angrily.

Seeing him, Qin rushed over and said charmingly, "Dear, why are you so late? I was badly bullied by them just now."

Qilong said acidly, "Who dare to bully you!" Qilong sounded cold.

In an instant, all of Xia family were silent, feeling threatened.

Qilong, the agent of Yuting Hotel, what a muscled man, whose big boss behind was Shengli Feng, who is with a powerful and influential position in Westplain City. As the henchman of Shengli, Qilong was certainly regarded as an influential figure in Westplain City that no one dares to provoke him.

It was out of expectation that Qilong turned out to be her husband, such a rampant woman.

Even Jenny was shocked to know that Qin's husband should be such a big shot like Qilong, much more unusual than she thought before!

For fear of Qilong getting irritated, Zhendong, who looked powerful just now, hurried off the table and came to Qilong, saying gently, "Manager Sun, I'm so sorry. But it's a misunderstanding. I am Zhendong Xia. We have drunk together before. Do you remember me? "

Hearing this, Qin kicked at him and scolded, "Fuck misunderstanding! I was slapped! Was it a misunderstanding?"

It was indeed a shame for Qilong that his wife was slapped. His eyes flared up. He ignored Zhendong and asked Qin, "Who slapped you?"

Qin pointed toward Guilan and Jenny and said indignantly, "This one slapped me and her daughter caused me fired by the company. Honey, please help me deal with them!"

Following her pointing, Qilong's heart shivered and his legs could hardly support his weight when he saw Jenny.

In Westplain City, few people could scare Qilong.

Therein, Jenny was definitely one.

The scene of the night before was still fresh in his mind that Andy embraced Jenny, confronted with all around. The big boss of Changsheng Group, Changsheng Li, even addressed Andy as Third young master respectfully.

Qilong still remembered that Changsheng Li warned the boss Shengli to offend everyone including himself but two people only.

The two people were Andy and Jenny.

Qilong knew that Dahai Hu, still in hospital, was concussed by Andy because of offending Jenny!

He didn't expect the person that his wife offended today was Jenny!

With sweat running over his back, Qilong, who used to be kill-determined, was completely panicked at this time, at a loss.

Fortunately, no one else knew his thought.

Guilan and Jenny were so nervous. Guilan's force as a female tiger before was gone at present.

The old lady sitting next to Jenny could not keep watching that Xia family were humiliated here. Under pressure, she stood up and spoke to Qilong cautiously, "Manager Sun, the old man of Xia family had some relation with your boss Feng. We Xia family are also regulars of your hotel. Could you please let it go for my sake?"

To keep the dignity of Xia family, the old lady even spoke out Guangyao Xia. Though she had tried her best, she was not sure whether it could make a difference or not.

Just as Qilong was at a loss, the old lady's words really released him in time. He felt so grateful for her and immediately replied, "No problem of course! Enjoy yourselves. Forget about it. "

Then, Qilong hurried out, holding Qin.

How could Qin let it go? She refused to leave and yelled at Qilong, "Please, I was slapped! Why don't you revenge for me?" Qin was very aggrieved that her powerful husband had given way to Xia family.

Qilong said angrily, "Shut up. Go!"

At the same time, Qilong was dragging Qin to leave.

"Apologize to my wife."

Just as Qilong was dragging Qin out of the banquet hall, Andy, who was sitting in the corner, spoke lightly.

She knelt down

His harsh voice, though not loud, was obviously heard in this silent banquet hall.

All family members present felt startled on hearing this.

They had been grateful for the God since Qilong Sun was eventually about to leave. When they felt somehow relieved, something unexpected happened at this crucial time that, all of a sudden, Andy the idiot came up with such surprising words which made things even worse.

At this moment, all family members immediately cast a disdainful glance at Andy, and couldn't help wanting to send him to the hell on the spot!

Jenny was extremely intense and was also shocked by his words; without any hesitation, she walked quickly to Andy and stood in front of him, "Shut up! Who allowed you to speak?" Jenny shouted angrily. She knew that Andy was defending her, but what he did was no more than offending a furious tiger which would bring her and her family infinite trouble!

After that, Jenny walked quickly to Qilong and stood beside him, "Sorry, Mr. Sun. My husband got something wrong with his head. I beg you to forgive him," Jenny apologized cautiously.

Her heart was shaking for fear that Andy had provoked Qilong.

In fact, Qilong was even more anxious when Andy got angry. He knew how frightening Andy was, so he immediately apologized to Jenny, "What your husband said is right; we should apologize for disturbing while you were eating."

After speaking, he turned around and shouted at Qin Zou, "Apologize to Ms. Xia right now!" cried Qilong immediately.

Qilong's reaction made all the people present astonished. They were in great doubt.

Qin Zou was stunned to dumb, and even suspected that she had misheard that. How could it be?

It was acknowledged that her husband Qilong was known for being tough in Westplain City and no one would dare to provoke him. Every time he got in trouble, no matter how hard it was, he would always handle it properly. But now, what made him a coward in front of Xia family? Why did she have to apologize to Jenny?

Qin Zou couldn't believe it and shouted at Qilong, "Don't you know her husband is an idiot? Why are you listening to him?"

Crack!!!

Qilong slapped her heavily on the face and rebuked her angrily, "I told you to apologize to Ms. Xia!"

His words were very determined without any room for negotiation.

Although he was part of the gangsters, he had never slapped her once. This was the first he had slapped Qin Zou.

Qin was completely stunned for she had never seen he got furious like this. She was frightened, and didn't know what to do. Not daring to contradict him again, she forced herself to apologize to Jenny, "Sorry," said she reluctantly.

Jenny was totally confused. She couldn't believe that things would change in such a dramatic reversal: Qin, that arrogant woman, eventually apologized to her and lowered her head in front of her! What's more, Qilong the big shot forced her wife to apologize to her! All these were beyond Jenny's imagination.

She was too excited to speak.

So were the other family members. They felt like falling into a dream.

"Kneel down to apologize!" said Andy, abruptly.

He showed no patience and kindness to this woman who had forced her wife to kneel down to apologize.

However, his words had made things worse again.

All the family members were angry to faint. It was already flattered that Qin would apologize to them, which could, after all, prove that Qilong stopped looking down upon them. However, to their surprise, Andy was dissatisfied with it but even wanted Qin to kneel down. For Qin and Qilong, it was never unacceptable!

All the family members couldn't stand him anymore and began to reproach him, "You are such an idiot! What are you talking about? Now that she is willing to apologize, why still you ask her to kneel down?"

"You've gone too far. If you want to die, do it yourself. Never involve us in!"

"He is just a fool, and has nothing to do with us. Mr. Sun, you just do it if you want to give him a lesson!"

People of Xia family showed their stance one after another lest they should have gotten involved in this incident.

Nevertheless, they would never know about what Qilong was thinking about.

In Qilong's heart, Andy was the one that he would never dare to provoke and people like him was not whom he could offend. Now that Andy has required, he had no choice but to accept his request no matter how reluctant he actually was, "Kneel down to apologize to Ms. Xia."

Hearing this, Qin felt like being struck by lightning. She stared with wide eyes and asked Qilong incredibly, "What? You ask me to kneel down?"

She hates Jenny. That she could lower her head to apologize to her has reached her limit that she could stand. Making her to kneel down to Jenny was unacceptable than killing her on the spot.

"Yes. Kneel down to apologize. Right now!" cried he word for word.

She was almost bursting into tears and shouted at Qilong in a chocking voice, "On what ground could you ask me to do that? Obviously, I'm the victim who has been beaten. You didn't defend me and help me out; instead, you ordered me to kneel down. How could you? Why did you listen to an idiot?"

She felt so grieved and that she even lost her hope to live on. Yesterday, Mr. Guo fired her for the sake of Jenny and humiliated her in front of others; today, her husband forced her to kneel down to her. She just didn't know what was wrong with them?

People of the Xia family present were all shocked for what was going on which was totally beyond their imagination. What a strange thing!

Jenny was also shocked by this and didn't know what Qilong had in his mind. Why did he follow everything Andy said?

Even though Qin was willing to kneel down, Jenny could have never dared to allow her to do so.

Considering this, Jenny said immediately to Qilong, "Mr. Sun, my husband has a blockhead who always speaks without consideration. Please forgive him."

"I know my wife's temperament. She is just spoiled by me at home and don't know how to hold back her arrogance and willfulness. Today, I must give her a lesson since she has done something wrong indeed; otherwise she might bring me more trouble in the future.

After explaining to Jenny, Qilong shouted at Qin ferociously again, "Didn't you hear my order you to kneel down?"

His voice was extremely loud; his eyes were opened as widely as he could with his anger almost overwhelming him.

Knowing her husband's temper, Qin was shocked to tremble. He is the man who will spoil you, but the premise was you must listen to him. Once you contradict him, the results will be grave.

Reluctant though she was, but under the presser of Qilong, she finally knelt down in front of Jenny.

"Sorry. I was wrong." said Qin.

At this moment, she has already cried with tears on her face.

Seeing Qin kneeling down so poorly on the ground to confess, Jenny, in fact, was very happy with ease, because after all, she was too annoying. However, her husband was Qilong Sun, a well-known man that Jenny would never dare to offend and still dare not be too hard on his wife. Therefore, she hurried to let her up, "That's ok. Get up on your feet."

As Qin cast an eye over Qilong, he glanced at Andy, trying to see through what he was in mind.

Seeing that Andy didn't have any reaction, he became relieved then and said to Qin at once, "Now that Ms. Xia has forgiven you, let's go home now."

Then, with all eyes on them, escorted by a crowd of security guards, Qilong and Qin left in dejection.

After their leaving, Jenny came up to Andy with her legs still quaking for fear and rebuked Andy angrily, "Andy Wu, Did you know what you were doing? You almost took me to death!" said Jenny in a voice of crying. She was really freaked to death!

"She should apologize for her fault," said Andy naturally.

His words completely provoked Guilan who was just standing beside them. She shouted at Andy, "You such an idiot, do you know who Mr. Sun is? How could you make such an over-claim to his wife? If he harbored resentment, I will beat you dead!"

At this time, the rest of the family members awoke from astonishment but still felt fearful for what has just happened. Hearing what Guilan said, they poured all their anger on Andy and cursed him one after another.

All of a sudden, Andy became the target of public criticism.

But he didn't care about it at all, and kept helping himself to the delicious cuisine on the table.

When the public was in a mess, the old lady of Xia family began to speak. "All right. Please be seated."

The banquet hall was suddenly restored to peace again.

People present including Jenny, were all shut up and went back quickly to their seats.

The old lady looked at Jenny. "Don't take Andy here the next time we get together for family dinner!" said she harshly.

Jenny nodded her head gently. "OK," replied she. In the previous family dinner, Andy scorned Bill and contradicted the old lady. He did even worse this time that he almost went to the hell by ordering Qilong. She didn't know for sure what he would do next time. Even though what he did was to protect her, she didn't want to set him in risk any more.

Bill was standing beside Jenny and couldn't help scolding her, "I've told you before that, silly as Andy was, he was not qualified to eat at the table. But you didn't take my advice. But for our profound family strength that scared Qilong, you would have stirred up a big trouble to your family."

After finishing his words, Bill turned around and asked the old lady, "Grandma, is grandpa familiar with Mr. Feng? Why is he so obedient to your words?"

The old lady thought for a while and answered, "In fact, your grandpa and Mr. Feng are just acquaintances who had dined together for one or two times. The reason why I talked about him was to remind Mr. Sun to give us some respect. But to my surprise, Mr. Sun should have placed righteousness above family loyalty for the sake of our family, which is really beyond my expectation."

"What? They don't maintain a profound friendship? Will he get back at us after he asked Mr. Feng for verification?" asked Bill anxiously. He was embarrassed to realize that Qilong could have been so honest was not because of his grandpa. But the truth is that they don't have a very close relationship with each other, and grandpa was just like a fox taking advantage of a tiger.

Considering that they would probably be revenged someday, the other family members began worried and jittery.

The old lady stared at Bill and scorned him, "keep it down lest others should know about this." In fact, the old lady was also afraid the severe result once it was known by Shengli Feng.

"Mr. Feng is here," a voice rang up at this moment outside the banquet hall.

My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 17 Get the hell out!

Speaking of the devil and here he comes!

It really terrified everyone present!

On hearing the name of Boss Feng, the people who had been trembling with fear were almost scared to death.

With a pale face, everyone looked over to the entrance.

What they could see was the Boss Shengli Feng walking in with big strides, looking dignified.

Boss Feng, whose name was known far and wide to the whole city, was a representative figure in the Westplain city underworld and was absolutely a terrifying existence.

A man like him always had something on him that other people couldn't match. The atmosphere in the hall immediately got depressive the moment he walked in.

The Old Lady was quite a somebody with courage and boldness, but even so, she still got a little panic when she saw Boss Feng walking in. She stood up to welcome him and slightly bent over and asked nicely, "Boss Feng, what good wind brought you here?"

The Old Lady was way much older than Boss Feng, but she didn't pride herself on her seniority, instead, she became rather cautious and was quite respectful in front of him. There's no way to change it, because of Boss Feng's reputation and position, a second class family like the Xia Family was almost nothing compared to the Feng's Family.

On seeing The Old Lady, Boss Feng squeezed a smile and said, "I heard the Xia Family is having a family reunion here so I came to have a look." He looked so sweet and kind and so was his tone.

However, for The Old Lady, it wasn't the case at all. She felt nervous and scared because of a guilty conscience, as she was using Boss Feng's name when she called bluff earlier. She was afraid that he had come to get even. Looking at Boss Feng, she said cautiously, "It's very kind of you."

Still smiling, Boss Feng said, "I heard someone was trying to cause trouble here as I failed to fulfill my duty. To show my deepest sincerity, this meal shall be free of charge and I'd like to offer my best liquors in the house to everyone here as an apology."

He was only being polite. Actually the reason why he did it was that he was afraid that Andy would hold grudges and get revenge, so he came to show his kindness first.

Boss Feng clapped his hands while talking.

More than ten waiters immediately showed up with the top liquors in hands and served them on the tables.

The Old Lady knew the value of the liquors. They were worth a great deal of money.

Her heart trembled, she said with great surprise in her tone, "Boss Feng, there's totally to need for this, as we have already received the best service here." Boss Feng claimed that it was for the Xia Family, but The Old Lady was truly too scared to accept it.

Boss Feng said boldly, "It's alright, I give it out of respect. Do accept please. I will excuse myself now as I have business to attend."

Boss Feng turned around and left at once, leaving the whole Xia Family standing gazing at each other.

What a day! Unexpected things happened one after another and it was beyond their ability to handle them. They were still at loss even if Boss Feng was already out of sight.

The Old Lady was so knowledgeable but at the moment was at her wit's end. She sat back by the table, looked at the liquors and felt like it was a dream.

"Grandma, look how well we are treated by Boss Feng, thanks to Grandpa!" No one knew how long it had been before Bill Xia began to talk and sighed.

The Old Lady frowned and sighed with emotion, "I didn't expect The Old Man had this ability."

Soon she laughed with happiness, said with relief, "It's a good thing after all, which means our Xia Family didn't fade away. Let's just accept Boss Feng's kindness and drink!"

On hearing the words from the Old Lady, the people at each table didn't hesitate to open the liquors and started to toast.

A lot had happened to this celebration party and the atmosphere finally got back to harmony.

While everything seemed quite alright and everyone was enjoying the time, Bill suddenly said in a loud voice, "Jenny, at first I thought you got this big business deal with the Changsheng Group because of your competence, but who could have expected you got the deal with your beauty!"

Bill Xia's words woke up everyone present. It wasn't until then did everyone realize that the drama today was caused by Jenny's unseemly way of getting the business deal. Beneficial as the deal was to the company, Jenny did it in a shameful way after all. Everyone immediately changed their opinions about her.

"Lower your voice, don't you feel ashamed of speaking it out loud?" The Old Lady scolded Bill unhappily.

Bill twitched his mouth and replied, "Jenny could have caused big trouble for our Xia Family if it hadn't been for Grandpa's great reputation."

Seizing this chance to revenge, Bill planned to make a fuss about it since he was so jealous of Jenny getting the big deal. He was afraid that grandma would trust and support Jenny again. Now that Jenny had embarrassed the Xia Family again, grandma must be extremely disappointed at her.

Jenny was out of unhinged because of what had happened one after another. She still hadn't recovered from it, but on hearing Bill's words, she soon got back to her normal self and fought back, "I didn't seduce anyone. It was Manager Yang who admired my design and asked to cooperate with me."

Righteous as she might sound, no body would believe her words as she was considered a nobody in the Xia Family. It sounded as ridiculous as a fairy tale that Manager Yang should have admired her ability.

The Xia members automatically chose not to believe her.

So did the Old Lady, who didn't even take a glance at Jenny. She even announced to everyone, "the design matter of the project will be taken full charge of by Bill. As for Jenny, she shall remain in the sales department.

It was a celebration party, on which the Old Lady had intended to promote Jenny. But she changed her mind.

On hearing the decision, Jenny's heart sank into the the bottom of the valley.

She went home after the party, feeling down and unhappy.

What happened today was full of ups and downs like riding a roller coaster. Neither Boss Feng nor Qilong Su gave her and the Xia Family a hard time, even that cheap woman Qin Zou knelt down and apologized to her. Everything seemed alright. But the bad name given to her was really hard to get rid of.

Her position in the Xia Family dropped back to the original point, and she could never work as a designer as she wished.

Jenny was extremely upset.

Knowing what Jenny was suffering, Guilan comforted her, "Jenny, I believe in you. You are the best!"

"What's the point of believing me?" Replied Jenny in great anguish.

What Jenny wanted, was the Old Lady's trust and recognition, the whole family's respect and the sense of fulfillment in work. She had pulled herself together and planned to set sail again bravely in a new environment. But it seemed she had come back to where she was. The confidence she had tried hard to build suddenly fell apart.

The next day, Saturday

Jenny spent her whole day doing nothing at home. She was in low spirits.

After dinner, Jenny went back to her bedroom and as she just got on her bed, her phone rang suddenly.

Julia's voice came through the wire, "Jenny, today is the day we three sisters get together. You didn't forget, did you?"

The three sisters in the Xia Family had been together since they were little. Even when they grew up they still had this annual reunion party, a party belonged to the three only, and they had made an appointment that whoever got a boyfriend should bring him along.

In the first a few years, none of them had a boyfriend, so the party was purely girls' fun because there was no comparison among them and everyone could have a good time.

But ever since both Jenny and Jane got married, the party became a torture for Jenny.

Being one of the daughters in the Xia Family, Jenny's husband Andy was a fool, while Jane's husband was a hundred times more excellent than Andy. The party would only embarrass her as they would surely compare.

She went there last year, but she wasn't really in the mood this time, so she refused without hesitation, "I don't want to go. You and Jane have a good time!"

Julia said hurriedly, "Wait, Jenny, you can't miss the party this time!"

Jenny was confused, "Why?"

Julia said in a tricky voice, "I have just got a new boyfriend. I want to take him to the party tonight and he agreed. Oh you won't refuse, for my sake, will you?"

Julia had said it long time ago that if she had a boyfriend, she would take him to meet the two sisters so that they could give her some suggestions about him. Now that she had found a boyfriend, there's no decent reason for Jenny to say no. Being silent for a few seconds, she said, "Alright, where shall we go?"

"8 P.M at No.1 booth, Imperial Club, be there or be square. Oh, remember to bring Andy!" Julia hung up the phone.

As much as Jenny didn't want to go, she had no choice but to get up and get herself dressed.

When she was done, she walked out of the bedroom and said to Andy who was sitting in the living room, "Andy, go out with me later."

"Ok." Without asking why, Andy just simply said yes.

Looking Andy up and down, Jenny couldn't help complaining, "Why are you always so casual, don't you have nice clothes?"

She went to the closet and found a brand new suit that had never been worn before and threw it at Andy and said with hardness in her tone, "Go get changed!"

Taking the suit, Andy went to the bedroom.

Ten minutes later, Andy came out of the bedroom. This man looked so charming and attractive in the new suit!

Jenny was almost blinded by his charm. Looking at Andy in surprise and not able to move her eyes away from him, she kept asking her self--Was this handsome man really her husband?

Feeling Jenny's eyes on him, Andy asked, "Anything wrong?"

Jenny could hardly get herself thoughts back. She couldn't believe she had been deeply attracted by a fool. Jenny felt so ashamed. She calmed herself down and said, "Nothing wrong, let's go!"

The two left home for the Imperial Club in Jenny's car with Jenny driving.

On the way to the club, Jenny kept telling Andy, "Remember not to do or say anything stupid. Don't embarrass me again." It was a family reunion and Jenny had been afraid of bring Andy along with her, but it was also the three sisters' little party, so she had to bring him with her as promised.

At ten to eight in the evening, they arrived at the parking lot of the Imperial Club.

The imperial Club was the top nightclub for entertainment and a lot of people from the highest social class loved to come here at night. It's getting really bustle and busy. By the time Jenny and Andy arrived, the parking lot had already been full of cars.

It took Jenny two minutes to finally find a parking spot and immediately she drove over there and was ready to park.

Right at the same time, a Lamborghini drove over and headed right for the same parking spot.

It was too late for Jenny to stop her car.

Bang!

The rear part of her Audi hit the body of the Lamborghini.

Both of the cars stopped immediately. A young man with earrings came out of the Lamborghini, rushed over to Jenny's car, patted heavily on Jenny's window and said in low voice, "Get the hell out!"

The Painting of Andy Wu

Zhe Song, this young man with ear nails, is the son of a nouveau riche. He lacked discipline and learning when he was a child, and now he became an uncouth and ill-bred second rich generation. Seeing that it was an Audi which just about 30 million that hit his own car, he immediately thought that the owner was a hick with no money, so his attitude was appalling.

Inside the car, Jenny was shocked.

Andy, sitting in the back seat, immediately turned pitiless and reached for the door.

Jenny stopped at once and said, "Stay in the car." Andy would only cause troubles if he went outside, that's why she stopped him.

After exhorting, Jenny got out of the car and faced Zhe Song directly, arguing: "What I do just now was parking normally, but it's you that don't follow the rules."

"I don't care," Zhe Song said irrationally. He was such a unreasonable person. "I only saw that you hit my car, compensate me now."

Jenny knew that his background was definitely not simple due to the expensive car. She dared not butt heads, so she could only be soft and asked him: "How much?"

Zhe Song spread his hand and said, "Five hundred thousand!"

Five hundred thousand?

It's absolutely a robbery. Jenny refused: "It's just a minor collision. No matter how good the car is, I don't need to pay so much "

Zhe Song threatened her and domineeringly said: "It's a new one, You can't leave today without giving me money."

"What happened?" Just then, there was a light and floating voice.

Then, a young man looked bookish was making his way towards us.

This young man, named Xinlei Cai, was the top-ranked tycoon of Westplain City.

The Cai family, a first-class great family in West Yuan City, has been standing for many years and has never declined. And Xinlei Cai, a famous talented son of the Cai family, had been cultivated with great emphasis by the Cai family. He was highly capable and versatile. Such a figure was much powerful than a hedonistic person like Shihao Wang.

Although Zhe Song was a rich second generation, he was just a scum in front of Xinlei Cai. When he saw him coming, he was shocked and asked, "Why are you coming, Mr. Cai?"

Xinlei Cai looked at Zhe Song and said plainly, "Obviously you are robbing someone else's parking space, how can you park like this, hurry up and get your car out of here." His tone was faint, yet unquestionable.

Zhe Song didn't dare to offend Xinlei Cai and immediately be sounded abject and eager to please, nodding his head, "Okay, okay." After that, he immediately got into his Lamborghini and drove off in a flash.

A storm that was simply defused.

Jenny looked at Xinlei and froze at the spot.

Xinlei Cai has been well-known in Westplain City for a long time. So, she has known this person already. As a most talent in those days, he is one of the top ten outstanding youth in Westplain City now. His name has always been like thunder piercing the ear.

What's more, he was the fantasy man of countless girls of the city. When the girls of Xia family were still single, they joked that they would marry a man like him in the future.

Jenny thought it was inconceivable that Xinlei suddenly appeared in front of him alive and helped her out, which made her feel like dreaming. She slowed down for a while and then said, "Thank you."

"We are family. It's ok!" Suddenly, Julia Xia came out and took Xinlei's arm.

Julia was proud incomparably at that moment.

Jenny was surprised evidently, "You...?"

Julia said happily, "Let me introduce you formally. This is my boyfriend, Xinlei Cai!"

Xinlei, the dream lover of so many girls, was taken down by Julia. Did her dream come true? Jenny can't help gushing out a trace of strange feeling in the heart. Was it jealous? No, admiration!

Jenny said sincerely: "I am really happy for you."

Julia smiled smugly and said, "OK, my sister, hurry up and park your car!"

Jenny nodded, got on the car immediately, and reversed into the parking space.

After parking, she said to Andy: "Okay. Get off!"

Then, Jenny got out of the car first, and Andy followed her closely.

Seeing that there was still a person in the car, Xinlei was surprised. He couldn't help asking her, "Who is he?"

Jenny bowed her head and said, "This is my husband."

Xinlei said in amazement, "You were bullied just now. Why didn't your husband get off the car to help you?" Absolutely, his subtext was, how can a husband doesn't stand up for his wife?

Jenny was speechless.

Julia immediately explained: "Don't you know that my brother-in-law is a fool?"

Xinlei is even more surprised.

Andy Wu, the psycho son-in-law, was well-known in Westplain city. However, Xinlei never paid attention to such gossips. He really didn't know. How could he known that such a beautiful young lady of Xia family would marry a fool?

Xinlei looked at Andy and said, "I cannot figure it out."

At that time, Andy didn't look like a fool with a straight suit and elegant appearance.

But Julia couldn't help laughing while seeing him. She joked to Jenny with a smile: "Jenny, have you specially dressed him? Isn't this suit a waste for him?"

Jenny didn't like Julia to make fun of Andy, so she directly diverted, "let's get in!"

Julia didn't say anything more. She took Xinlei's arm and got into the Imperial Club.

Then Jenny and Andy followed as well.

When they came to private room 1, Jane Xia and her husband Hong Zhou have already sat in it. They were shocked to see Julia coming in with Xinlei Cai.

Hong Zhou is a boss of wood business. In the Westplain City, he was definitely a top-ranking person. It's the honor of Xia family that Jane married him. The Xia family has always been proud of it.

However, who could know that Julia's boyfriend would be Xinlei? This is the one of the most famous young men in the whole Westplain city.

When Jane and Hong were in a daze, Julia pointed at them and said to Xinlei, "This is my cousin Jane Xia and her husband Hong Zhou."

Xinlei came to them and reached out politely, "Hello."

Hong immediately responded and stood up to hold his hand, excitedly saying, "How are you, Mr. Cai?"

Just after greeting, a voice came from the door of box: "I'm not late, am I?"

Then, Bill Xia with his new girlfriend Qian Zhu came in.

At the sight of Bill, Jenny's eyebrows suddenly wrinkled. This is the Party of their three sisters. Why did Julia even call Bill? Jenny was very depressed and regretted that she had come, but it has already happened, so she had no choice to leave.

Bill entered into the box and looked at Xinlei. At once, he quickly approached to Xinlei as if there was a gust of wind under his feet. He took Xinlei's hands and said excitedly, "Hello, Mr. Cai, I'm Julia's brother, Bill!"

Bill said the word "brother" very loudly in order to reflect his different status.

Xinlei politely replied, "Hello, Bill, I heard her mention you."

After being polite with Xinlei, Bill suddenly glanced at Andy. His eyes were full of disgust. He said to Jenny rudely, "Jenny, how can you bring this fool out again? Are you not afraid of being disgraced?"

Julia replied, "It's me that asked him to come. This was the agreement between our sisters." When she said this, Julia couldn't help showing a conspiracy to succeed.

There was a contrast, there was a gap!

Bill understood, also did not say anything, he took girlfriend directly sat on the sofa.

When all the people arrived, Xinlei waved to the waiter and said, "Please bring me the best dishes and the best wine."

Xinlei was a regular guest in this club. The waiter didn't ask more questions. He immediately nodded: "OK, Mr. Cai."

Soon, drinks, fruit plates and vegetables were served.

As soon as the waiter left, Xinlei said, "Help yourselves please."

Xinlei just met everyone, but his status was noble and he naturally became the leader of the whole.

The atmosphere slowly warmed up.

Xinlei, a man with no airs, treated everyone politely. Seeing Andy sitting in the corner without talking, he could not help asking, "Do you want to come and have a drink?"

Hearing this, Bill hurriedly stopped and said, "Don't let him drink such a good wine. It's a waste to give it to him. He's a fool robbing a dog for bone!"

Xinlei can't believe it, "Is it so serious?"

Bill sneered, "Of course yes, he was a famous fool in Westplain City. He washed his face with toilet water, picked up garbage, brushed his shoes with toothbrush, and picked leaves outside to eat. Anyway,"

Hearing this, Bill's girlfriend Qian was surprised: "Oh my god. Was it really true that such people could live in the world.? "

Julia added with a smile: "My brother-in-law was not an ordinary person. He will take a bath in the water fountain in the community. He was formidable."

After listening to these words, everyone was happy.

Several people in the box thought Andy as a joke, and the topic was endless.

Jenny was very sad, which just like there were countless flies buzzing in her ears. She hated people's endless mocking of Andy. She didn't like that others didn't treat her husband as a normal person, and no one cared about her feelings. It was a mistake that she came here today.

Who can she tell about her pain? The sisters who used to be close to each other have changed. Jane found a rich husband and looked down on her. And Julia brought a boyfriend like Mr. Cai today and felt superior to ordinary people. She couldn't describe how she felt.

After listening to the story of Andy, Xinlei couldn't help feeling contemptuous of him. He looked down on Andy from the bottom of his heart, but he didn't show it. He said unctuously, "I know some psychiatrists, Do I need to find one to take care of him?"

Bill said with a smile, "It doesn't work. My family has also found many doctors for him. It's useless. He's only well-behaved when being in a mental hospital."

Finish saying, Bill still turned to Jenny: "Is it right, Jenny?"

Jenny stared at Bill, discontented: "Don't talk about him, OK?"

Obviously, Jenny was not happy.

Xinlei knew that it's the time to stop, so he took the initiative to change the topic and talked about other things.

The atmosphere warmed up again, and everyone talked with each other happily. However, Jenny and Jane didn't say anything. After all, both of them are inferior to Julia.

Bill and Julia are the most active at the table. They were just like giving a two-men comic show. They sang in chorus with each other and preened themselves. It looked like they had good fun.

In the middle of the party, Julia drank a little wine and was very excited. Taking advantage of the excitement, she suddenly said to Xinlei, "Xinlei, didn't you say that you prepared a present for me today? Don't you want to take it out and let me have a look? "

Julia said loudly on purpose, because she knew that what Xinlei had prepared for her would not be bad. She just wanted to take this opportunity to show off and let the two sisters be jealous.

The purpose of Julia choosing today to get together was to show off her boyfriend.

Xinlei heard it and said, "wait a minute."

Then he called the driver and asked him to bring the present.

Before too long, Xinlei's driver brought a long gift box. The gift box is high-end and exquisite. Obviously, the gift in it must be extremely valuable.

With the attention and expectation of everyone, Xinlei slowly opened the gift box.

A beautiful painting was presented in front of everyone.

"I heard that you like master Andrew's painting. This is the picture of tiger out of cage that my family has kept for many years. Now I want to send it to you."Xinlei said while opening the picture.

When the picture of the supernatural tiger came out, Julia was shocked.

Julia was a famous painter of some renown in the Westplain city. Painting is her favorite. The most adored person of her was also a painter.

There have been many famous people in the painting circle, but there is only one favorite of Julia, that is Andrew.

It can be said that Andrew is the most famous contemporary painter. But his paintings are extremely rare, each one of them can be called a peerless masterpiece and touted sky-high price.

Julia have not expected that she could get a real painting of Andrew in her lifetime. All of a sudden, her eyes were moist.

Everyone else in the box was surprised. No one in the room knew what it meant to be a painting of Andrew. It was a rare treasure. No one expected that Xinlei would be so generous.

At first Andy was sitting in the corner, after seeing this painting, there's something different in his eyes.

Because this painting was created by him and the bottom of the painting was his autograph.

ANDREW (A hidden name of Andy).

The real star

Andy Wu was one in a million, as well as the most outstanding son in the Wu Family. He had been called a genius since he was little and no matter what he had decided to learn he would learn it easily and well.

He was efficient in both brainy and brawny activities and he had learnt a variety of things. He was also sophisticated in lyre-playing, chess, calligraphy and painting.

Take painting for example, he was the unbelievable kind. He could excel his master and the teacher who taught him resigned two months later.

Of course to Andy, painting was just a spur of the moment. He lost interest and quit painting soon after he got a good grasp of it.

That's why few as his paintings were, they arouse wide attention in the painting and calligraphy field.

The painting Tiger Unleashed was one of them.

"Do you like it, Julia?" Seeing Julia being quiet, Xinlei Cai asked.

Tears of surprise and excitement came out of her eyes, Julia nodded hard, "Yes, I like it very much! Thank you for giving me such a valuable gift."

Hong Zhou next to them also couldn't help praising, Andrew's paintings are so rare and valuable and this painting Tiger Unleashed may be worth millions of dollars. Young Master Cai is really generous!"

"Things that can be bought with money are all cheap." Xinlei Cai said blandly.

This was a real man, a true generous man with great taste.

As they were talking, Jenny and Jane did nothing but to look at them by the side.

"It's a fake." Suddenly, Andy, the invisible man who had been ignored by them this whole time started to talk again.

Even Andy himself didn't know his painting got so valuable, as well as his casual signature. However, the one in front of his eyes was not a real one though it was carefully imitated. At first sight, he almost mistook it as his own painting, but after looking at it for a few more times, he found out the fake only got the appearance but could never get the soul.

This fake didn't have the uniqueness taken from Andy.

The real Tiger Unleashed was so alive as if a tiger that had been caged for hundreds of years about to break out. Only this kind of aggressiveness was the hardest part to imitate.

Andy chose to expose Xinlei Cai exactly because he hated to see Cai's way of doing things. Andy considered him as polite in the appearance but full of tricks inside. That was exactly the type of man he despised.

Everyone was greatly shocked by Andy's words as they were admiring the painting.

"Andrew is my idol and I have studied his paintings for many years. I say this is a real painting then it surely is a real painting. Who are you to say it's a fake one?" Julia was the first one to defend against him.

The reason why Julia was so excited was that she truly believed it's a real painting, and that Andy had humiliated her idol as well as Xinlei Cai by saying so.

"Hey you fool, are you crazy again? Don't think I'll punch you?" Bill Xia had already considered Andy's presence being annoying. Now that he's saying crazy words again, it made Bill really angry.

"Why do you accuse my painting of being fake?" At the moment, Xinlei's look got serious too. He bought this painting years ago with high price and it couldn't have been fake. Andy was humiliating him by saying so and it made Xinlei really unhappy.

Looking back directly into Xinlei's eyes, Andy fought back firmly, "Because I was the person who painted the Tiger Unleashed, so I am positive that yours is fake."

Andy Wu looked really serious and righteous.

But it made other laugh really hard. Andrew was a great painter while Andy Wu was a complete fool. Who could have believed it when the fool claimed himself to be a genius?

The once tense atmosphere soon got pleasant.

Even Xinlei couldn't help laughing, "Hah-Hah, I didn't believe you are a fool, but now I do!"

Andy didn't care about how these people mocked him, but Jenny did. Her face was burning hot. She knew it, that Andy would only cause trouble once he started to talk. She had told him a thousand times not to say anything stupid but he still did to embarrass her. Being a ridiculous fool inside the family should be enough but now in front of strangers?

Jenny couldn't take it any more but to walk directly to Andy and said with extreme anger, "Would you have died if you had kept your mouth shut? Why do you always embarrass me and torture me like this? Did I owe you anything the last lifetime?"

Jenny acted out all the complaints and anger. She felt so depressed tonight that Julia had found such a good boyfriend while she herself married a fool. It would be alright if he had kept his mouth shut but he just couldn't. As soon as he talked people would know he was a complete fool. It really drove her crazy.

Looking at Jenny, Andy tried to explain, "I..."

"You shut up!" Jenny stopped him, without waiting for him to finish.

"Jenny, is this the husband you have been refusing to divorce? How big of him! He can paint! Please do paint one for me when you have time!" Bill started to mock him.

"I want one too! I like Andrew too! Please paint one for me as well." Qian Zhu said and mocked along.

Even Jane who had been quiet also mocked Andy, "I heard you can't even write! How can you say you can paint? Are you out of your mind?"

Julia said unwillingly, "Let's not talk about him! What a bummer!"

Having received such a great present, Julia was in great joy and excitement. She had intended to show off but couldn't have expected that Andy came to ruin her mood, which really upset her.

"Don't get mad baby. Just tell me what whatever you like next time and I'll bring it to you." Words like this might sound ridiculous if said by others, but sound natural by Xinlei Cai.

What he said did put a big smile on Julia's face. She said softly to him, "Thank you, honey."

The scene was so sweet and could make everyone jealous.

Today's party was indeed for Julia and Xinlei. They were the stars.

All the others were nothing but supporting roles. What's different was that Bill was being an active supporting role by speaking highly of Xinlei the whole time while speaking ill of Andy at the same time. He really enjoyed the part he's playing in.

The whole party gave the best credit to Julia and made her shiny while it made Jane a plain and insignificant woman, and Jenny, low to the dirt.

"Waiter, bill please." Xinlei called the waiter at the end of the party.

The waiter came with the bill in hand, "Three hundred and thirty six thousand, sir."

Jenny's face immediately turned pale on hearing the number. It was so much higher than she expected.

But Xinlei didn't seem to mind it at all. He was born into the rich Cai Family, such small amount of money certainly was a piece of cake for him.

He said boldly, "I'll swipe the card."

He took out his bank card.

It was a Platinum Card from the Jiangdong bank. Anyone who wanted to get this card had to deposit no less than ten million dollars, and also needed to ensure the high ability and frequency of buying, otherwise the Platinum privilege would be canceled. Thus, not every rich man was qualified to own this card, which was not hard to know.

Xinlei surely didn't forget to show off by swinging the card around before swiping it.

Right at this moment, Julia stopped him and said, "This is a family party, and we all Go Dutch, which means you only need to pay ninety thousand.

Xinlei said, "It's not a big deal, I was the one who suggested this place so just let me pay." He just wanted to show how rich and generous he was.

Julia said in a charming manner, "It's our family rule and please don't break it. Besides everyone has money."

Julia certainly knew Xinlei wouldn't care about this small amount of money, but it's her man's money, she didn't want it spent on Jenny and Jane. Women's little tricks.

Since Julia said so, Xinlei didn't want to be taken advantage of, so he said, "Alright." He paid ninety thousand dollars.

Jane and Hong Zhou had a good financial condition too since Hong Zhou's business had been running quite well so it wasn't a big deal for him, either. Besides he got the chance to know Xinlei today, ninety thousand dollars was definitely worth it. So he immediately paid for it without hesitation.

Following Hong Zhou, Bill paid as well.

Finally it was Jenny's turn.

From the moment she heard the number three hundred and thirty six thousand, she began to look unpleasant. How could she accept the fact that she came here but got humiliated, let alone she needed to pay ninety thousand!

Ninety thousand was even more than what she was worth!

Jenny had been spending a lot these years, since her mother was jobless and addicted to gambling while Andy was also consuming her at home, not to mention he got admitted to the hospital every now and then.

Everything was in no way small money. Jenny had to support the family on her own and could hardly make both ends meet. Twenty thousand was all she had got in her card.

She was both embarrassed and nervous.

Seeing Jenny doing nothing, Bill said, "Jenny, don't tell me you have no money, do you?"

Holding her words for a while, Jenny finally said with a blushing face, "I forgot to bring my card." Her voice was so low for the lack of courage.

"It doesn't matter, madam, we support Alipay, Wechat pay as well bank online." The waitress explained.

Jenny's face got even redder on hearing this and her lips almost bled as she kept biting them. She stumbled, "I, I..."

"Let me pay!" Andy stood up from the corner and said calmly.

The great event of Xia family

For Andy Wu, the sum of ninety thousand dollars was as just like a cent, so he could pay it without any hesitation.

He said it naturally, but others were laughing at him, because they thought the fool was making a fool of himself again.

However, the waiter didn't know Andy was a fool, so he walked to Andy immediately and asked politely, "Sir, please swipe the card."

And then Andy began to look for his bank card.

When he was looking for it, he was embarrassed because he realized that he changed his suit before going out and his black card was still in that suit's pocket. At this critical moment, he screwed it up.

"Brother-in-law, take out your card quickly. I really want to see you swiping your card. It must be so cool." Julia couldn't help urging with schadenfreude in the side.

Other people watched him with different expressions as well.

"I also forget to bring my card." Andy said helplessly.

"Haha, do you have a card? Is there 200 dollars in your card, even if you have it?" Jane also couldn't help satirizing Andy.

"Fool, do you know what 90 thousand dollars mean? Even if you work hard all your life, you would never earn that sum!" Bill was speechless and more and more dislike him.

"Oh, I can't stand being with him for just one night. If I should stay with him for a whole day, I would be despairing definitely. I don't know why someone can bear him for 3 years." Qian Zhu satirized with disgust.

All kinds of malicious words drilled into Jenny's ears and made her almost crazy as they had thorns. Just now, when she was in the most embarrassing time, Andy stood out like a man and went to pay it. At that moment, Jenny was believing what he said because she longed for the protection from her husband from the bottom of her heart.

However, life is always cruel. Her husband is a fool and every time he comes out, he only makes jokes, even troubles.

She felt disappointed, extremely disappointed.

Jenny was almost crying out. She shouted furiously to Andy, "If you make me lose face again, I will send you to the mental hospital!" This time, Jenny was really angry with Andy.

Seeing that, Andy also felt uncomfortable.

The waiter was confused. He looked around and asked, "Which of you are going to pay the bill?"

"I'll pay for it!" Xinlei Cai couldn't stand it anymore.

This time, Julia didn't stop him. After all, if Jenny was detained here for being unable to pay the bill, Xia family also would lose face. And, Andy had said foolish words today, Julia was afraid he would do something foolish in the private room because of his unstable condition. So she let Xinlei pay the money.

Watching him swiping the card, Jenny said, "Thank you. I will find a way to pay you back." Although she lived a poor life now, Jenny didn't want to owe him anything. She must repay the 90 thousand dollars.

Xinlei was generous, "You don't need to. It's just little money for me. Never mind."

Listening to this, Bill interrupted, "She must repay it because it's not easy for you to make money either. How could she get it such easily?"

Xinlei didn't insist on this and he suggested to Jenny sincerely, "I think your condition is not bad so how about getting a divorce. I have many nice friends and any of them will give you a better life after marrying you."

This was the real thought in his heart that he, as a human, couldn't watch a woman as beautiful as a flower was devastated by a fool.

"Ha-ha, you think her husband is a fool but she thinks he is a treasure. Even my grandma forced her to divorce, she was still reluctant to accept it!" Bill never lost any chance to laugh at Jenny.

In usual time, Jenny would contradict certainly, but now, she was speechless and didn't know how to contradict him.

A party was ended in silence...

Jenny drove Andy home and said nothing during the whole ride. She didn't blame him, in other words, she did not want to talk.

At 11.30 p.m, Jenny and Andy arrived home.

Hearing the door opened, Guilan got out of the room immediately, who just had finished playing cards, and said, "Jenny, I have no money now and can't buy food tomorrow. Give me some money!"

One got her into trouble, the other just asked for money. Both of whom were living at Jenny's home. Jenny was despairing at this.

She took out a bank card from the bag to Guilan and said, "There are 20 thousand dollars in it. You take it and it's all the money I have. Don't ask for money from me again." After saying this, Jenny went back to her bedroom.

Then, the sad cry of Jenny came out from the bedroom. She couldn't help crying her heart out without endurance.

Guilan was surprised, because she knew about Jenny that she hardly cried like this. During the past 3 years, no matter how many rumors and humiliations she had suffered from, no matter how heavy the burden was on her shoulders, she insisted and endured all of them and never burst into tears. Tonight, she cried like this after going out with Andy, of course, it must be Andy who made the trouble.

With that thought, Guilan was furious immediately. She took the feather duster and hit Andy heavily, saying, "It must be you the fool who made Jenny unhappy! I will beat you, beat you to death!"

Andy bore the hit silently. His calm eyes remain as usual, however, he expressed out self-accusation and distress for Jenny's cry.

The next morning, in the Xia's villa.

Mrs. Xia( the old lady) invited important members of the family to hold a temporary family meeting in the villa.

The main point of the meeting was the marriage of Julia.

Julia was young and was not important members of the family, but because she was the main character today, so she attended the meeting.

"Julia, I heard that you are dating with Xinlei Cai of the Cai family. Is it true?" The old lady was smiling.

Julia was overjoyed hearing thus, "Of course, it is true. Last night, he presented me the painting of Andrew!"

Hearing this, the face of the old lady creased with laughter. She praised Julia, "You are promising as expected and you don't let me disappointed."

Being praised by Mrs. Xia, Julia was happy and proud.

At this time, Julia's father, Xingbang Xia talked to her, "Julia, could you call your boyfriend to come here? We all want to meet Xinlei Cai."

Julia's mother also agreed, "Yes. Julia, just call him to come here."

As for the rich son-in-law, the couple was too satisfied and they couldn't wait to show off Xinglei in front of their family members. Moreover, the prime reason was that the old lady wanted to meet him and she was embarrassed to say that, so she let the couple do.

As soon as Julia heard what they said, she answered, "Let me call him and ask because he is busy, so I don't know if he is available or not."

Saying this, Julia went out and made a phone call.

After more than 10 minutes, Julia came back.

At this moment, Julia was glowing with shining eyes and she said excitedly with a loud voice to her family, "I've already called him and he said that the first time to meet my parents, he should treat us. He also said that this noon, he will treat all of my families at Breeze Hotel."

Breeze Hotel!

It was the most famous hotel in Westplain City. Its position was unparalleled. It had been known as the paradise of food in the city.

The reason why Breeze Hotel couldn't be surpassed was because of its head chef, who inherited the skill from a famous chef family. So he seemed to have some secret about cooking. The flavor of dishes he cooked was very special and everyone loved it.

Thus, the consumption in Breeze Hotel was very expensive but people still flooded into it. So if you didn't make reservations in advance, you couldn't have dinner in it even if you were rich.

Usually, it's hard to find a spare table to have dinner in Breeze Hotel, but Xinglei could treat all of people in Xia family, which means he could find more than 10 tables. That was not a simple thing by only using money, which totally indicated that Xinglei had a huge power in society.

All of the families present were shocked as they had heard what Julia said.

Even the old lady expressed astonishment, she waited for a moment and excited commanded, "Be quick, let all the people of Xia family gather at the villa!"

"And, tell all the people to dress up in case of losing face."

Soon, the surprising news broke out in the family that XinleiCai of Cai family would invite Xia family for dinner in Breeze Hotel this noon.

Receiving the news, all the people of Xia family dressed up and went to gather at the villa.

Jenny and Guilan also received the news.

As soon as Guilan heard that, she immediately complained unhappily, "How could Julia be so lucky? Why could she find such excellent boyfriend? Why could I be so unfortunate and just have a fool son-in-law?"

The more she thought, the more she was angry. So she broke out and vented her anger on Andy. She gave Andy a dressing down.

Jenny didn't stop her, because she was driven to distraction for last night, she lost all her face and became exhausted. But today, she needed to face heavier storm again. She knew, if she came to the party, she would be talked about badly because her family would surely compare Xinlei with her fool husband. But she had to go since it's Mrs. Xia's command.

Sitting in front of the dressing table, Jenny wanted to make up simply only to find her red and swollen eyes, so she just had no mood to do it.

"Let it be!" Jenny walked out the room like to meet death.

Before leaving, Jenny said to Andy, "Stay at home. I will bring your lunch back."

Jenny promised Mrs. Xia last time that she would not bring Andy to family party. She didn't want to do it either because she also afraid of him.

Then Jenny went out dejectedly and Guilan followed her, and whispered, "You don't need to do that. He won't die without a meal."

Andy stood at the door, watching Jenny's lonely figure. His eyes became deep.

Until Jenny's figure disappeared, a sharp light came out from Andy's eyes suddenly. He called Changsheng Li, "Be prepared. Today, I will let Xia family knows that what Jenny's husband is like!"

My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 21 A Splendid Scene

At 10 A.M, the big villa of the Xia Family

The people of the Xia Family set out in full force and gathered in the big villa.

With Xinlei Cai (Master Cai) being the host and to be held in the Breeze Dining, this feast was one in a million and was extremely rare. The people of the Xia Family were all beautifully and gracefully dressed up, especially the ladies who were even more attractive and impressive than flowers.

As soon as Jenny and Guilan showed up, they became the focus of the party.

They neither dressed themselves up elaborately, nor did they look decent because Jenny's eyes were red and swollen.

"Guilan, what's wrong with you two? Don't you know my son in-law to-be is going to entertain us? Why do you still look so miserable and shabby?" It was Julia's mother Yuzhen Xiong talking.

Guilan was on the edge of breaking down and she was so jealous of Yuzhen Xiong's good fortune that when she heard her saying so, she immediately fought back, "He's your son in-law to-be, not mine, why should I dress up? What's he to me?"

Yuzhen Xiong said angrily, "Xinlei Cai is such a big shot that meeting him would cost you your whole life's good fortune. You wouldn't even put something nice on, no wonder you have a stupid son in-law."

"Yea, both of you are dressed as if you were in a funeral. Who do you want to disgust?"

"The Old Lady shouldn't have informed them of this party. It seems all they can do is put shame on our Xia Family."

Many people blamed along, as if Jenny and Guilan were some unforgivable heinous sinners.

Apparently, they helped Yuzhen with a purpose. They thought with such an excellent son in-law, she must blossom with his help in the future, thus having a good relationship with her now was of great significance.

Guilan was hopelessly outnumbered. Mean had she always been, she couldn't even talk back at the moment.

In such noise, out the Old Lady came, holding Julia's hand.

Everyone was silent.

Obviously the Julia today had become her favorite granddaughter, holding Julia was like holding her heart in hand.

On arriving the hall, the Old Lady said joyfully, "My grandson in-law Xinlei Cai is the most favored son in the Cai Family. It's our Xia Family's great honor to be entertained today by him. So I hope everyone could behave yourself and don't embarrass the family. Do you all hear me?"

"Yes, madam." They answered.

"Come over here, Jenny." Looking at Jenny, the Old Lady said.

Jenny walked up to her grandma, with her head lowered down.

Staring at Jenny, the Old Lady said unhappily, "Look at you Jenny. You yourself are in good condition. Even if you don't want the Wang Family, it won't be difficult for you to find another rich family. Why are you still in marriage with Andy Wu? What else can he do except putting shame on our family?"

Jenny didn't make a sound with her mouth closely shut.

With a pause, the Old Lady continued, "I shall ask Xinlei Cai to introduce some single friends of his and if there's really someone good, you need to get a divorce with Andy Wu immediately."

By doing this, the Old Lady was not really think for Jenny's good, instead, she had had enough of Andy and was afraid this fool might cause trouble for the family again.

Jenny had been so exhausted both emotionally and physically. Her mood had been moving up and down as well. It's like when you finally saw some hope, you got desperate again instead, like falling into the hell and not able to move. She realized that if she planned to spend her whole life with Andy, she would be in this hell forever. But how could she dump him again while she was telling him to be together the other day?

Jenny's heart was about to shatter. She didn't know what to do, nor did she know how to answer her grandma.

At this moment, someone shouted in surprise, "Grandma, there are so many cars outside!"

The Old Lady said coldly, "Don't make a fuss! Haven't you seen cars before?"

The Old Lady frowned and hurried out of the villa.

Following her, the others went out as well.

There were around sixty bright and shiny limos parking on the broad street outside the villa.

What's more, they each could be worth millions of dollars.

It was like an exhibition of limos.

The people of the Xia Family were all blinded by the marvelous limos, with their mouths and eyes wide open.

It was like a dream to everyone. They couldn't believe what they saw.

As everyone was deep in shock, a professional driver wearing a black suit and white gloves came out of the Panamera Porsche parked in the front line. He asked the people who were in a nasty shock, "Excuse me, is this the Xia family?"

The Old Lady came up and answered, "Yes, and what's this all about?"

"We've got orders to fetch the Xia Family to the Breeze Dining." The professional driver answered politely and gracefully.

What he said woke the people who were confused. Everyone got excited again at once.

"Oh Master Cai it is! How generous of him to have sent a team of limos to fetch us!"

"Oh it really broaden my eyes! He could be so generous like this when meeting the parents, what else would he offer if they got married in the future?"

“Master Cai is the right man!”

Even the Old Lady couldn't help but sighed, “What a gentleman Master Cai is!”

Everyone was excited and thrilled.

Everyone was so generous with their praise for Xinlei Cai.

Especially Julia's face was glowing with joy. She felt this was the most glorious moment in her life. She was so proud.

The couple Xingbang Xia and Yuzhen Xiong was too happy to close their mouths. They felt so honored as the scene was so grand and tremendous.

“Let's not waste time. Let's get in the car and leave.” The Old Lady ordered and stopped everyone's discussion.

All the people of the Xia Family acted and jumped in their favorite cars.

The grand team of limousines drove all the way to the Breeze Dining.

At 11A.M, Xinlei Cai arrived at the Breeze Dining.

It was still not the time for meals but the Breeze Dining was already busy with a lot of people waiting in line to get a table.

With his reputation and power, Xinlei Cai didn't have to wait in line of course, so he walked directly inside after he got out of his car.

“Manager Cheng, I called to reserve fifteen big tables. Are they all set?” He came to Yong Cheng, manager of the Breeze Dining Hall.

Yong Cheng laughed, "You called in person, we surely would arrange everything well. Don't worry. The tables are all reserved for you and they are all lined with each other." Xinlei Cai was really a big shot to have been able to reserve fifteen big tables.

So he said, "Menu, please, I'd like to order now."

Yong Cheng nodded, "Absolutely." While he was getting the menu, his phone ran.

As soon as he heard from the phone, his face changed. He said with a worried look, "Boss, I don't think it a good idea as we have so many distinguished guests today."

But after hearing what the other said said, Yong Cheng immediately got frustrated, "Alright, I'll handle it well."

On hanging up the phone, Yong Cheng ordered everyone, "Clear up this place now! All the guests should be escorted out and their meals shall be free of charge!"

Manager Cheng's order was like thunder in the sunny sky.

At once, the quiet and peaceful Breeze Dining Hall became loud and noisy. Everyone was surprised and shocked and was at a loss. No one could have thought of being kicked out in Breeze.

It was known that the people who came to dine in Breeze were either rich or powerful. What kind of embarrassment was it that they were being escorted out?

"Manager, would you like to reconsider?" A leading waiter urged him.

"Do as I said!" Yong ordered with a serious face.

There was absolutely no doubt in his tone. He had no choice. He knew it clearer than anyone else what it might bring if a restaurant kicked its customers out, but big boss's order was in no doubt changeable.

At once, all the waiters went to the tables and started to do their job.

Most of the customers were cooperative as they were aware of the result of messing with the boss of the Breeze.

But some customers refused to leave as they considered their dignity deeply hurt.

For people like this, Yong had a direct but easy way as he didn't have enough time to persuade them one by one. He ordered directly, "Let the guards in and throw these people all out!"

A group of guards crowded in and started to push people out.

Xinlei Cai was shocked at the scene and asked, "Manager Cheng, what's this all about? My tables are fine, right?"

Yong replied, "I am so sorry Master Cai, but it's the big boss's order that everyone be cleared out by noon, no matter who or what he is."

Xinlei frowned and complained, "I have made an appointment with you in advance and my girlfriend has already told her family that I would entertain them here. You can't make me a liar!"

Yong said seriously, "Then you'll have to go to another restaurant!"

Xinlei's look got serious too. He had planned to show it off by hosting a party here, not only to show his generosity but also his capability. All the other restaurants were low class compared to this one. What's more, to change what had already been decided on was really a slap on his face.

Thinking of these, Xinlei addressed, "I am the VIP here in your restaurant. Do you really want me to lose face?"

Staring back at Xinlei, Yong said word by word, "That's all I can tell you. I have already given you face. This is the boss's order. Even your dad must get out if he were here, not to mention you!"

Finishing his words, Yong shouted directly, "Guards, show Master Cai the way out!"

The proud Xinlei Cai couldn't do anything but got escorted out by two guards.

There were so many people outside of the Breeze. They were the rich and powerful people who got kicked out, as well as the people who passed and stopped by.

Soon there were crowds of people in just a short time. Neither one left because all of them wanted to see which big shot had got this privilege to clear out the Breeze!

By the entrance of the parking lot stood about ten guards who were keeping the order.

By the door of the Breeze Dining stood about a hundred waiters and waitresses. They were ready to welcome the guests. All of them were standing straight and still on both sides of the door, waiting respectfully.

That moment, as everyone could witness, a long line of limousines drove up slowly.

The limos lit up the whole place.

Finally, the cars were parked in order in the parking lot of the Breeze.

Then all the professional drivers got out of the limos and opened the door respectfully.

The people of the Xia Family got out of the cars, welcomed by the drivers.

“Welcome!” All the waiters and waitresses welcomed in a loud voice.

The voice resounded to the skies!

My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 22 Andy Debuted Brilliantly

Xinlei Cai did not see this unprecedentedly surprising scene.

Xinlei did not like joining in the fun, who used to enjoy being looked up at by others, unwilling to look up at others here.

Besides, he felt ashamed to stay here any longer. That the dignified young master Cai was out would be a shame all his life. He could not tolerate the others' strange looks in front of him.

The most important was that Xinlei had promised to entertain Julia's family. Since it fell through in Breeze Hotel, he had to find another good hotel and reserve as soon as possible.

Therefore, he drove away quickly after being driven out.

More and more onlookers gathered outside the Breeze Hotel, who burst out discussing in astonishment when they witnessed the Xia family getting off a fleet of luxury cars.

"Are they the Xia family? How can they enjoy such luxury treatment?"

"Yeah, they are. Look, she is the old lady of Xia family. Xia family is only a second family in Westplain City. How did they skyrocket?"

"It's said that Xia Family's three daughters are all very beautiful. Perhaps they have got a rich son-in-law."

"I know two of them are married. The husband of one is a fool, Andy Wu."

"It seems that the left one has also married now. What an enviable luck! "

Various discussions floating in the air were earning a great honor for the Xia family like many colorful flags fluttering.

All the Xia family felt like stepping on the clouds, feeling so proud. The massive greeting ceremony, the powerful security guards group, the big crowds of onlookers, the admirable and jealous voices...all these had raised Xia family to the highest point, who enjoyed the great honor that they had never dreamed of before. At this moment, their excited moods were beyond description.

Everyone of Xia family seemed to be stepping on the remarkable red carpet. They raised their chins, striding slowly toward the Breeze Hotel.

Such a moment was far more than cool.

Welcomed by the ceremonial guards on both sides, the Xia family entered the Breeze Hotel proudly.

As soon as they went in, they found it was empty which used to be overcrowded.

No wonder so many onlookers were jamming outside.

The old lady asked in disbelief, "Has the whole hotel been booked?"

Yong Cheng immediately replied, "Yes, we cleared it specifically. Today, we only serve you, the Xia family."

Breeze Hotel, only served Xia family today.

It's unimaginable.

The glory would be remembered forever in Xia family history!

"The prestige we lost three years ago caused by Andy finally returns today." The old lady couldn't help but signed, feeling relieved and proud.

The others also marveled at it.

"Yeah, to my surprise, our Xia family can enjoy such great treatment today. It is so fantastic!"

"Having lived to a ripe age, it's finally our turn to enjoy it! So comfortable!"

"All these should be owed to Julia. Otherwise, we will never be able to enjoy such royal treatment!"

Then, all the Xia family began to spare no effort to praise Julia.

As the most shocking protagonist, Julia felt like walking on air and became stoned because all these were prepared for her by Xinlei and all the Xia family were beholden to her.

However Julia herself was also very surprised to find that Xinlei would do it for her to such an amazing point though she knew Xinlei was rich and loved her. This banquet had indeed given her a pleasant surprise.

She felt as the happiest woman in the world!

"See? Jenny, now you know how important a good husband is. Look, Julia has brought glory to our family. What about you? It is a great shame that you left to us!" Bill suddenly mocked Jenny when everyone was praising Julia.

His words immediately made the others change their focus to take aim at Jenny.

"Bill is right. We don't expect you to be a credit to our family. But at least you shouldn't make our family disgraced."

"I can't figure out why are you being with a fool instead of marrying a more richer man even though Wang family disdains you?"

"Exactly. Since your grandmother has promised your divorce, why did you refuse? What an idiot!"

At this time, the more proud Julia was, the more embarrassed Jenny was.

Jenny's heart was broken badly. She felt so uncomfortable.

As a woman, she also admired Julia, whose boyfriend was not only excellent but also sincere to prepare so many surprises for her. Jenny was so fond of romance and surprise that she had once longed for wandering in the happy ocean, which was so far away from her however. Not only did she have no luck to own such happiness, she also had to bear the stress and sarcasm, scolded by others ruthlessly every day.

Actually, she could hardly stand such a terrible life any longer.

Unfortunately, she couldn't get rid of it.

The scold still kept smashing Jenny. Even though the tears filling up, she tried hard to fight back.

"Woo..." Jenny didn't cry. It was Guilan burst into tears.

"Mom, why are you crying?" Jenny asked her.

Guilan sorrowfully said, "You are so excellent. Why didn't you marry a good man? Why it was Andy Wu! Why can she find such a good man, not you? Why should I suffer the terrible fate! "

Guilan was so sad.

The glory Julia brought to Xia family today made Guilan very jealous. She had to vent her sadness anyway.

It made Jenny more uncomfortable to see Guilan crying.

Yong was shocked to see such a wired scene under such a great luck that the Xia family were quarreling and even someone burst out crying. What a wired family.

To avoid embarrassment, Yong quickly came to rescue, "Ladies and gentlemen, would you like to sit at the table now? Our chefs are preparing the emperor banquet for you!"

Emperor banquet, the best meal of Breeze Hotel!

The dishes of Breeze Hotel were delicious and expensive, while the emperor banquet contained the most expensive dishes and the best wine, all of high price.

Over ten tables should be arranged to accommodate so many people of Xia family.

How costly the emperor banquet with more than ten tables was!

The crowd suddenly quieted down. Everyone was immersed in shock again.

No one answered him for one moment.

"No. I'll wait for my husband." After a while, Julia said, calling Xinlei husband instead of his name, because she was proud of him.

"Yeah, how can we start before the protagonist arrives. We'll wait." Bill glanced over but not found Xinlei. So he echoed.

Therefore, the Xia family all gathered at the gate of the hall on the first floor, waiting for Xinlei.

After a few minutes, Xinlei did not appear. Julia felt a little anxious, who had been looking forward to her boyfriend's brilliant appearance.

Another several minutes later, Xinlei still didn't show up. Julia couldn't wait but said, "I'll call him!" She took out her phone.

However, before she dialed out, the crowds of onlookers outside the Breeze Hotel burst into uproar.

Then, a deafening roar of the engine sounded.

"There, there!" Julia exclaimed excitedly.

She was so excited that she couldn't wait to run out.

Xingbang and Yuzhen also went out following their daughter, Julia.

Julia's brother, Bill, also went out of the Breeze Hotel.

The others stretched out their necks to look out the gate or through the glass walls beside wistfully.

The crowds outside also looked to the source of the roar.

Finally, hundreds of Harley-Davidson motorcycles were driving up to the Breeze Hotel on both sides of the road orderly.

The riders on each motorcycle were all dressed in suits, wearing sunglasses.

They were cool and domineering like the returning brave fighters.

The Harley-Davidson motorcycles were clearing the way on both sides.

In the middle of the road, a $20 million high-configuration Maybach G650 moved slowly under the escort like the king being guarded.

"God! It's so luxurious and majestic! I'm going crazy!"

"How domineering it is. There's no regret left to witness such a luxurious scene!"

"The authentic big shot has finally appeared!"

"I would trade 20 years of my life for such a big shot as my husband!"

Surrounded by the crazy screaming and discussing, the Maybach finally pulled over in front of the Breeze Hotel.

Then, a middle-aged driver dressed in a black suit, wearing white gloves got off first. He opened the rear door and bowed down in so humble a gesture to please out the master in the car.

Under the gaze of all the curious people, a man wearing a luxury Zegna suit and premium Berutite leather shoes got off the car, whose tie was also Limited Burberry.

He was brilliant!

He was powerful!

He was Andy!

A Perfect Man

All of this, the honour and glory, was prepared by Andy for Jenny. For the first time in his life, he was on high profile, just for this woman who would never leave him.

His woman, Jenny, had suffered too much pain and injustice because her husband was a fool. He could no longer remain indifferent to the suffering of his wife as he saw it all in his eyes. He couldn't let Jenny suffer a little bit more, so he proved to the world in a high profile that he, Jenny Wu, Jenny Xia's husband, was not only not stupid, but also rich and powerful.

At this moment, Andy was glamorous without a little stupidity. He, completely, was wrapped up in nobility and handsomeness. He was like the dazzling sun, shining between heaven and earth.

As soon as people saw Andy, who had come down from maybach, they let out a startled cry: "Who is he? He is so charming!"

"Yeah, he exuded an aura of wealth and power. This guy definitely comes from a rich family!"

"I'll marry him, I'll marry him!"

The crowd went crazy for Andy. Andy now had the charming appearance and wore the designer labels standing on the luxurious stage, which made him look so extraordinary. He attracted the attention of the whole audience, making the ten thousand people look up to him in awe.

However, none of these onlookers recognized that he was Andy, the foolish son-in-law of the Xia family.

Although Andy's name shook the Westplain City, and the people of the Westplain City had basically heard of Andy's name, very few people had actually seen his face. Even someone who had seen him once or twice would definitely not associate the top rich young man who was shining in front of the audience with a fool.

However, the Xia family was extremely familiar with Andy. Even if Andy turned to ash, they would still recognize he. But it was because they recognized him that they were more shocked than outsiders.

The Xia family couldn't believe that Andy, who was so cool. Was he the fool Andy they despised the most.

Bill Xia was the first to be shocked, and with a sense of infinite pride, he purposely rushed to the forefront to greet his brother-in-law Xinlei Cai. However, He didn't expect the person getting out of the limo to be his most hated fool, Andy Wu. The dramatic reversal shocked him.

Julia Xia's shock was even greater than Bill Xia's. She was full of surprise and excitement, waiting for her Prince Charming Xinlei Cai , but in the end, she waited for the Andy, which was really a great "surprise" for Julia Xia.

She was almost stunned to the vertigo.

The first time Guilan, who was hiding inside, noticed that Andy, who was wearing a designer labels outside, suddenly, Guilan trembled and almost had a heart attack. This 'stylishly dressed' man was her silly son-in-law, Andy Wu, who had been scolded by her all day?

Guilan couldn't believe it and felt like she was having a daydream herself.

The old lady has lived her whole life in a sophisticated and experienced manner, and has seen an endless variety of life. But at this moment, she was also knotted in shock. How could the fool Andy whom she had always despised and loathed be changed totally as if he had become another person? The old lady couldn't help but wondered at her old foggy eyes, a fact that was too hard for her to believe.

Of course, the person who was most shocked was Jenny.

Jenny was extremely desperate, she didn't want to see anyone. As everyone ran to greet Xinlei, she hid alone behind the Xia family. She didn't purposely pay attention to what was going on outside, but the light of Andy still broke through the heavy obstacles and entered her vision. Through the gap between people, through the glass wall, she saw the most dazzling Andy outside, who seemed to be draped in a thousand rays of light, unexpectedly came into Jenny's vision.

Jenny forgot sadness, even forgot to think. This moment, she only had one feeling, and that was, getting her heart pounding.

The crowd was still crazy, but the Xia family, all of them froze at the spot.

Andy ignored the tumultuous onlookers and the dumbfounded Xia family, walking directly toward the Breeze Hotel inside.

He was the focus of everyone's attention. Wherever he went, the eyes of the people followed.

In the midst of all the attention, Andy holding a rose in his hand, strutted into the Breeze Hotel and walked straight to Jenny.

When he came to Jenny, Andy stopped and handed the large bouquet of roses in his hand to Jenny, and at the same time said fondly, "From now on, I will hold up a world for you!"

Though Andy only said few words, it expressed his love for Jenny, to protect her for the rest of her life and never leave her.

Now, Andy was simply the most perfect man in a woman's view.

Jenny's eyes were filled with tear, but they were not tears of sadness, but tears of happiness.

“There was a man, clad in golden armor and with his feet on a multicolored cloud, who came to me on an occasion of great attention and told me that he would give me the whole world.” The romantic movie plot was actually played out in reality, which made Jenny hard to believe.

Jenny's heart was constantly racing, every cell in her body was trembling, and it was really, really hard for her to believe that her silly husband, Andy Wu, had become such a perfect man.

It was all like a dream.

It was only after a long time that Jenny raised her hand slowly and accepted the roses handed to her by.

The flower was real. The scene, was real.

Her husband, Andy Wu, really gave her a big surprise.

Romantic scenes she never dared to hope for, were now really on.

Jenny was too excited to say anything. She held back tears and lifted the corners of her mouth, wearing a happy smile.

Having married for three years, Jenny had ever felt happy for the first time

Andy saw Jenny smile, and his was happy too.

The rest of the Xia family, however, were still in a state of extreme shock and could not come to themselves for a long time.

Ignoring other people, Andy wrapped his arms around Jenny's waist and found a best seat, and sat down.

Then Andy bossily called the waiter, "Serving!"

Yong Cheng didn't know Andy, but from the moment he appeared, showing his unique status. Which made Yong think that he should be the important guest of having the whole Breeze Hotel.

Without hesitation, Yong immediately led the waiter to get served.

Julia Xia suddenly ran through the doorway and rushed to Andy, exclaiming, "Why are you ordering food here when my boyfriend hasn't come yet?"

Just now, Julia had suffered a great shock. It was so great that she couldn't even think it for a moment. But having calmed down, she convinced that there must be something fishy about this.

Although, today's Andy looked liked an emperor. But a fool was a fool, how could he suddenly be different from before? Julia could believe that the sun can rise from the west, but she wouldn't believe that the fool Andy could become a rich person. Moreover, Xinlei told her that he would invite all of her family members at the Breeze Hotel today at noon. She thought that "all of her family", in Xinlei's opinion, included Andy. So Julia was sure that it was Xinlei who arranged everything. She believes that her boyfriend was trying to let Wu appear first, and then he makes a shining appearance himself at the end.

Andy didn't raise his eyes to look at Julia, but only answered, "It's none of my business if he comes or not."

Once Julia heard this, she became even angrier, cursing at Andy, "My boyfriend Xinlei is the main character this time, he is the one who invited our family to dinner here. He did not come, why did you order dinner?"

Julia's voice was so loud that it made all the Xia family members who were in a state of shock come to themselves and only then did they realized that the main character today was Xinlei Cai.

In an instant, the Xia family was in an uproar. All of them were once again united in their hatred and unanimously opened fire on Andy, "Yes, it is Master Cai that honors our Xia family. We must wait for him to dinner."

"You fool, do you think you can be treated as a young master by dressing up like a noble man? I guess it must be Master Cai who prepared it for you because he feels sympathy for you. You should thank him for inviting you to come here for dinner."

"That's right, Master Cai must have been worried that Andy was too shabby to lose face of the Xia family, so he used this method to get Andy to appear. But this fool is ungrateful and want to eat first without waiting for Master Cai."

the Xia family was stunned by Andy's shining appearance before, but now they reached a consensus that Andy was a fool, no matter how he dressed, he was a fool, and that was a fact that could not be changed.

So, Wu became a target again.

"Cai family has not the power to have the whole Breeze Hotel!" Andy suddenly raised his head and looked straight at the stubborn Xia family members.

Hearing this, suddenly everyone was frozen. But after a while, all the people of the Xia family were all burning with anger.

For Xia family, the Cai family, which is at the top of the cloud, is absolutely not comparable to it. Andy, the fool, despised the Cai family, which naturally triggered the Xia family anger.

Julia, who had just returned from the outside, rushed to Andy and cursed in a furious voice, "You really fucking think of yourself as an important person, the Cai family is the one you stupid person can comment on?"

Other people all accused him of it.

Even the old lady, Guilan, who had come over to Andy, asked him in a stern voice, "The Cai family doesn't have the power, do you? Are you going to tell me that you planned all of this today?"

Hearing the strong speaking voice of the old lady, noisy people quieted down immediately. They all stared at Andy.

Andy faced all the people and resoundingly said, "Yes, I did!"

Andy replied solemnly and forcefully, but the Xia family did not believe what he said.

Everyone couldn't help but feel that Andy's illness had returned, so all sorts of taunts rang out one after another, "Andy, your illness is really getting worse and worse, did you really think of yourself as a character?"

"Yeah, just as a stupid fool, how could you say that?"

"Do you have any idea how much it costs to prepare such big one?"

"It's not just about the money, do you know how much connections and connects it need?"

"You are a raving lunatic, just get the hell out of here."

The taunting went on and on. Jenny, who was immersed in happiness, all of a sudden came back to reality. Her sanity told her that Andy was a fool and couldn't have money and power. However, her emotions, again, made her believe in him because today Andy had indeed given her endless touches and surprises.

Jenny was expecting something from Andy in her heart, so she asked Andy seriously, "Andy, is this really all prepared by you? You can't lie to me." Andy looked at Jenny and said fondly, "I prepared this for you!"

Andy's tone was very sincere.

Jenny's heartbeat, once again, surged. However, the other Xia family members, still did not believe him, Julia was even more angry. She slapped the table, and shouted to Andy, "You fool, total nonsense. I will call Xinlei now, I want you to know, my family Xinei is really capable!"

"Yes, spot this fool's lies!" Others echoed the sentiment in droves.

Then, in front of the Xia family, Julia dialed Xinlei's number. In order to humiliate Andy and Jenny in public, Julia also deliberately pressed the hands-free button.

As soon as the phone rang, Julia said softly, "Hello, darling, where are you now?"

"I'm sorry, Breeze Hotel has been chartered. All the seats I booked have been canceled. Now I'm looking for other restaurants. Don't worry, I'll send you the address when it's done."

Xinlei's helpless voice clearly came out from Julia's cell phone.

The Domineering Guilan Huang

Xinlei Cai's voice, through the mobile phone's loudspeaker, echoed through the lobby of Breeze Hotel.

Every member of the Xia family present heard Xinlei's words, without missing a word. Only every word he uttered was like a resounding slap. When he finished one sentence, the Xia family only felt that they had been slapped countless times.

Their faces must hurt!

They had to face a reality: the person who chartered the Breeze Hotel was really not Xinlei.

All the Xia family was dumbfounded.

"Xinlei, you're not kidding, are you? We're all waiting for you in the Breeze Hotel right now?" Julia was the most shocked. She was by no means willing to accept the fact that she was almost fooling herself by asking one more question.

Xinlei was shocked when he heard it, he immediately said, "It can't be? Someone booked the whole Breeze Hotel, so there's no way to get in. How did you get in?"

A few words ruined the last hope of Julia.

She became disappointed, deeply disappointed.

It felt like a direct fall from the top of a cloud into a bottomless abyss. Julia's heart was broken. She felt terrible, and a deep choking feeling ran through her entire being. How could she have imagined that all of this was not the surprise Xinlei had prepared for her. Her wonderful princess dream was completely shattered.

There was silence for a few seconds before Julia cried out with a tearful voice, "You are not the same person who sent dozens of cars to bring my family over, are you?"

Hearing this, Xinei was even more shocked, "What? Anyone else picked you up? What the hell is going on there?"

Julia was heartbroken, completely heartbroken. She could no longer embrace a single shred of fantasy. She really suffered the most ridiculous tragedy of her life. She thought her Prince Charming had given herself a big surprise. She was still showing off in front of the family and also could humiliate Jenny. However in the end, everything turned out to be nothing. She became a complete joke, how can Julia bear it?

How shiny she had been before, how desperate she was now.

"Let's put it this way for now!" She said as if she had lost her strength. After saying that, she hung up the phone.

As soon as the phone was hung up, the entire lobby fell into an eerie silence.

Those Xia family members who had collectively targeted Andy were as dead as they were right now, not a single sound had been made.

After a long time, only then did someone gradually return to their senses and let out a puzzled voice, "What's wrong, it's really not that Master Cai arranged this?"

"It doesn't make sense, who else but Master Cai would care so much about our Xia family?"

"Is it really Andy who did this?"

With that being said, everyone's eyes were fixed on Andy.

Meeting the gaze of the entire group, Andy spoke solemnly, "What I do is not to honor you Xia family. I just want you to know that Jenny's husband, is not a fool. Her husband, is a wonderful person that you all must look up to!"

Andy's voice was deafening. His aura shook the entire Xia family.

At this moment, the Andy in their eyes seemed to become outstanding, and he looked no longer like the disliked fool.

Those who firmly disbelieved Andy couldn't help but start supporting him.

Especially Jenny, she was extremely happy. Her husband, Andy Wu, showed an unprecedented manhood, like a hero in the world. This kind of Andy, met all her fantasies about men. Jenny sincerely rejoiced, and at the same time was moved beyond words.

However, even though the world believed in Andy, Bill Xia couldn't believe him. He definitely didn't believe that the fool Andy, who ever gave him fun, was some kind of big shot. He asked in a stern voice, "Even if this has nothing to do with Master Cai, how can you prove that this is arranged by you?" Bill hadn't enjoyed the glory that Xinlei would give him, so he was already upset. If this matter was still related to Andy, then he would really be furious.

Andy slowly stood up from his seat, and as he sternly scanned the entire arena. He said proudly, "Isn't that obvious enough?" Then his hands swiftly spread out.

Instantly, an aura of Emperor emanated from him.

He didn't explain anything, just illustrated it with action. If you had eyes, you could see that he, Andy, was the man of the day.

At this moment, all the Xia family was speechless.

Putting aside preconceived notions, today's Andy was indeed dazzling and extraordinary.

He arrived in a $20 million Maybach, escorted by more than a hundred Harleys.

He wore top-notch expensive clothes and shoes, and showed off his disdain for the world.

He held a flower in his hand and gave it to Jenny in front of all eyes.

All of this was proof enough that he was the one who can dominate everything.

Only the fact that Andy was a fool was so ingrained in everyone's minds that the Xia family turned a blind eye to many of the established facts of what was happening today, and did not want to believe that Andy would turn into a being they could look up to.

However, the fact that this was before them compelled them to believe.

People could no longer find words to refute Andy.

The atmosphere stiffened for a moment.

A moment later, Bill's mother Yuzhen Xiong suddenly shouted at Andy, "To charter the Breeze Hotel, rent so many luxurious cars and drivers, to make such a big fuss. All of this at least will cost several million. You a fool, where did you get so much money?"

She had thought that she would be the most beautiful mother-in-law in Westplain City today, but who knows, all the glory had been taken away from her by the fool, Andy. Yuzhen did not want to accept this fact. She did not want to admit that Andy was something rich and powerful. She would rather think that it was Andy paid for the rent, although she also did not know how the money came.

The hardcore elements who didn't want to acknowledge the truth were immediately energized by her words, and they immediately echoed Yuzhen's words, asking, "That's right, how do you have so much money when your family is supported by Jenny alone?"

"It really doesn't make sense, they all say fools can get lucky, didn't he win the lottery?"

"Winning millions in the lottery has been on the news for a long time. Besides, how does Andy know to buy a lottery ticket?"

"There's definitely something wrong with this anyway."

There were all kinds of skepticism. The large lobby of Breeze Hotel was full of arguments.

Just then, a shriek came out loudly: "Shut up, all of you!"

This was Guilan's roar, and she had almost exerted her life's strength to roar out this voice.

At that moment, everyone shut up and the room fell silent.

"You fools, it's all so obvious, and you still won't admit that my son-in-law is capable? Do you think you can do this today with money? Can the ordinary wealthy book the whole place? It's something that even Master Cai couldn't do, but my son-in-law does it, doesn't that say anything?"

Guilan's words were so reasonable that no one can no longer refute her.

After saying that, Guilan was very happy. Before these guys who acted like snobs looked down on her son-in-law. Now she must win face for her son-in-law back. She even wanted the world to know that she, Guilan Huang, was the luckiest mother-in-law.

In fact, Guilan was really too shocked for everything that happened today. She simply could not imagine his stupid son-in-law was actually so rich. Even if the truth was even more incredible, Guilan was very willing to accept it.

Seeing that the whole people was speechless, Guilan was even more confident. Now She felt so proud and elated.

Guilan held his head high and walked to the old lady in front of her, and said solemnly, "Haven't you ever wondered why the old man let Jenny marry Andy? You should know that the old man loves Jenny the most. It is obvious that Andy is not an ordinary person, why do you always force Jenny and Andy to divorce? You are so stupid!"

After saying the old lady, Guilan walked over to Yuzhen and said sarcastically, "Your daughter is just dating Master Cai. It is not sure if she can marry him in the future. Look at you with your nose in the air, how ridiculous you are. I'm ashamed of you."

After scolding Yuzhen, Guilan immediately walked over to Bill and rebuked him loudly, "You chump, Andy is at least your brother-in-law. Have you ever respected him? You've been bullying him all the time. Do you really think he lets you bully him and doesn't fight back? He just doesn't want to get on your bad side, you're so uncultured."

Then Guilan came to Julia and criticized her, "At a young age, you are just so snobbish and arrogant. Even if you're married to Mr. Cai, do you have to be so proud? Ask yourself, is Mr. Cai as handsome as my son-in-law? Why do you despise Little Mo and my son-in-law?"

After critiquing them, her entire being was in a relaxed mood. There was only one word to describe how she was feeling right now, and that was: cool.

It was only then that Guilan came close to Andy and said softly to him, "To be honest, Andy, I already know that you are not an ordinary person. I used to criticize you and that purpose was to motivate you. I swear, I'm definitely doing it for your own good. These three years I've been doing laundry and cooking for you. You won't blame me, will you?"

After seeing such mother-in-law, Andy felt uncomfortable. This strange woman's face change is faster than the weather change. But she could teach the stubborn Xia family a lesson, Andy also felt quite happy. So he whispered back, "I don't blame you."

Guilan immediately wore a smile.

"My son-in-law, can you tell me exactly how much money you have?" Guilan didn't care about anything, she just cared about money. Money was what she liked the most, so she couldn't wait to ask such question.

Jenny replied honestly, "You can't measure my wealth, you can't imagine how rich I am."

Although he only said a few words, he was full of confidence.

Guilan was stunned. Her heart was racing. Guilan was really proud of having such a son-in-law. She thought she picked up a treasure, and she may even smile in her dreams.

"It's immeasurable? what are you bragging about? How much money can you have? Aren't you the richest man in Westplain City?" Bill was reluctant to believe that the fool Andy could become rich person, especially hearing his bragging here, so he couldn't help but retort.

My husband: A Legendary Man - Chapter 25 Andy Wu's Property

Bill's question also spoke for those people on-site, in the eagerness to know the answer, the Xia family members turned all attention to Andy Wu.

Under their gaze, Andy replied with confidence, "The richest man in Westplain means nothing to me, the wealth of all citizens here are not a patch on mine!"

No one knew about the property Andy Wu own, not even Wu's family, it was a huge secret.

Andy did not bluff, the confident words supported by his incomparable wealth.

But it did not sound realistic to others.

A smile frozen on Guilan Huang's face. Her strong belief in Andy, her impressive son-in-law, collapsed with his few words. Huang felt like she got kicked in the chest, Andy's gibberish reminded her of the fool she was familiar with.

She was a little scared that all these wonderful things would end up as a dream.

On the other side, Bill's eyes lit up immediately when Andy made the inappropriate comment, the stupid Andy he had known had come back. He again got confidence retorted without hesitation, "Ha-ha, you fool, do you have any idea how many citizens in this city? How rich these local great families are? The sum of their money is an astronomical figure. You almost got me, but you gave yourself away by your own words, what a good show today."

His grievance resolved as he spat it out.

Bill's families also awoke from Guilan Huang's big talk, they believed that Andy's few words had proved himself stupid, which encouraged them to attack him in a sarcastic way, "Damn, it was so close, I was almost fooled, hadn't even realized that he was bluffing."

"Well, stupid is as stupid does, stupid bluffing in stupid way."

"It appeared that someone else made the arrangement, I don't think this fool could have done these."

They had no reason to retort Andy Wu and had no choice but to take the unacceptable fact. But now, they'd rather trust on an unknown but not him.

Jenny Xia was shocked by his nonsense, not to mention others. Just moments ago, she had still indulged in the fantasy that she married the most heroic hero, which made her the most fortunate woman in the world. What about now? The sensible thinking told her that it was illogical for a fool to turn to a hero, but how did he make it?

There were no reasonable explanations for some details, she got a little panic and was afraid Andy would turn back to a fool, she pulled his clothes and said, "Talk nicely."

Andy took a sweeping glance around and shouted, "Today, let me show you..."

Boom!

Andy seemed had choked as his voice faded, a severe headache hit him with no warning, it felt like millions of ants were biting his brain, like a huge fire burning inside. He was suffering from the pain, the burn and his outrage.

He couldn't stand it anymore, rushed out like a flying arrow, towards the fish tank in the lobby, thrown his head inside and immersed his head completely in the water.

"Ha-ha, look, Andy went nuts again." Bill shout gleefully.

Along with the sound, the lobby suddenly became astir, people couldn't help screaming.

"Holy shit, what hell is he doing? Having sashimi or drinking?"

"Looks like he is washing the hair!"

"Oh, my God! It's freaking scary, is this fool getting mad again?"

"This is just terrible, last time he banged the head against the wall, and now soaking the head in the fish tank, he is indeed capable of anything crazy."

The commotion spread throughout the Breeze Hotel.

The car from mental hospital arrived in 20 minutes, they took Andy away by force.

Along with the hope of Jenny.

She was desperate at that moment.

The sweeter the dream was, the crueler the reality became. If Jenny had no expectation on him, she wouldn't suffer so much.

But damn, Jenny Wu, herself, made the decision to trust Andy, she had thought that her husband was no more a fool but a flawless man. She had thought of Andy as the greatest happiness in her life, she had a crush on him, yet, she would have never known that was only an illusion.

Luck never on her side, the reality was right in front of her: Her husband, Andy Wu, was a fool and braggart who always disgrace himself and capable of any crazy things.

The giant gap between reality and expectation almost crashed her down.

She looked at the crowd through hollow eyes, showed no emotion, and dead inside.

“Sorry everyone, it was shameful for Andy acted this way, but this time, I will not let this fool leave the mental institution and make any trouble again,” said Guilan Huang.

At that time, she was in a deeper desperation than Jenny.

No one could understand how she felt at the moment.

Her dream of wealth which she had thought so near realization, had vanished in a flash, she was devastated.

It’s even damn worse, that she had stepped forward to defend Andy against the Xia Family, her hard words and hurled abuse at them, and criticism on the older lady made her a great sinner!

Her fear turned into regret, but a word spoken was past recalling. She had to change her tune and make apologies to the them.

The Xia family members were astonished at the U-turn in her attitude, but none of them accepted her apologize.

Pah ! ! !

The old lady came up, slapped Guilan Huang in the face, and scolded, "you are such a failure, I'm old, but my eyes still work well, and I'm still a good judge of character. Andy Wu is a useless fool, anyone here could plan this, except him. I have never trusted him. You, instead, believed he had become a success overnight and showed me disrespect. It is just as well you are not rich, you would dare to beat me if you were wealthy enough one day."

She was furious, flew off the handle this time. Cause Andy's behaviors had made them a laughingstock in public. what's more, Guilan Huang had the nerve to insult her in front of the whole family, which had seriously harmed her prestige and dignity. Her anger is inevitable.

Guilan's legs were trembling, she knelt before the old lady, sobbed in a choking voice, "I'm sorry, Mrs. Xia, I was being obsessed, said something wrong, I didn't mean it that way, please forgive me!"

She seemed humble and pathetic then, yet, no one would show sympathize for her. Not only had she offended Mrs. Xia, she had also offended the whole family today.

The families were desperate to vent their anger, they were encouraged to throw the abuse by seeing her knelt on the ground, "She is a miser, turning her back on own flesh and blood for money, even worse, dared to against Mrs. Xia publicly, what a daredevil."

"Well, you did think your son-in-law was made of money? Even if he had become wealthy, still, it would have been improper to betray your family."

"She is a traitor, she is not qualified to stay at our family."

Guilan instantly had been condemned as a flagrant sinner, had to endure all their harsh words.

Seeing her mother knelt down to the ground and had been scolded, Jenny got flurried and pulled herself out from the shock, rushed to Mrs. Xia and begged for mercy, "Grandma, that's the how my mum is, I'm sure she meant no harm, please forgive her."

The old lady stared at Jenny, berated, "You have no standing to ask for any mercy, you were not able to discipline a fool. look what he has done, laid us all open to ridicule!"

For the Xias family, today was supposed to be the day of glory and a good chance to show up their strength in Westplain City, well, the stupid Andy had messed it up, got on the old lady's nerves.

"I'm sorry," Jenny have suffered more than others, but nobody cares, she held back her tears and apologized to the old lady.

Mrs. Xia couldn't cool herself down, she would like to teach them a lesson, while, as all exquisite dishes had been served on the tables, and the waiters were standing aside, she kept her temper to maintain some dignity, so, she frowned and said, "Get up, let's deal with this at home."

Then, she called out to the crowd, "Take your seats ! "

Although until now there was still a mystery, nobody knew who had arranged this grand event, the event itself stood for the distinguished identity of the host, Mrs. Xia would certainly not dishonor such a character. the Xia family should well enjoy the dishes.

When the families heard these words, they split up to get proper seats.

Jenny and Guilan pulled a long face, found seats in the corner.

Hardly had they seat down when the old lady gave the words, " step aside!" Obviously, Mrs. Xia declined to share the honor with them.

Knowing that she was still mad, Jenny and Guilan got no guts to rebut as they stepped back.

This mother and daughter stood in the corner, just like pupils got a time-out, which made the whole family couldn't help gloating and laughing.

Jenny and Guilan's dignity were permanently smeared.

"Well, just ignore these buzzkills, let's enjoy the food!" the old lady then said.

At the meanwhile, the usher called in a respectful voice at the door : " Mr. Shengli Feng, Founder of Yuting Group, Arrival!"

"Mr. Wenke Su, President of Huafeng Technology, Arrival!"

"Mr. Tianlong Zhao, Board Chairman of Ouhuang Media, Arrival!"

"Mr. Runzhi Peng, Founder of Longevity Finance, Arrival!"

"Mr. Xuemin Jiang, Board Chairman of Kangtai Medical, Arrival!"

"Mr. Jianye Yang, Vice President of Changsheng Group, Arrival!"

"Ms. Susu Qin, Main Founder of Breeze Hotel, Arrival!"

Putting the House in Order

The usher had shouted the formidable names in a row with a raising voice.

The seven big shots showed up at the same time, it's like the sky above the Westplain was lit up by them.

Right now, they gathered together, got in the Breeze hotel, it was such a spectacular scene!

The Xia family in the lobby, heard the calls of the name which reverberated like thunder in their ears merely deafening them, all turned to look at the hotel gate. They had watched them with fascination as they entered one after another.

It would be an immensely great honor to meet any one of these big shots for the Xia family, moreover, they got to see the most renowned peoples in the Westplain at the same time, it's hard for them to believe.

Their hearts jumped wildly.

The prominent figures paid no attention to the family, no doubt, Andy was the only reason they came here for.

Needless to say, Jianye Yang was called here on purposely by Changsheng Li, as the person in charge of all Changsheng Group business in Westplain, his high status spoke for itself.

Last time, Shengli Feng had the dinner at Yuting Hotel as well as the other five people, they had witnessed the fight between Shengli and Andy, and got to learn the strength of Andy.

On this occasion, Andy Wu had this elaborate plan to flourish in front of the Xia family, which need help from someone special. Shengli along with these companions would like to play the supporting roles to make Andy the glorious hero.

These people were shrewd enough to know the relation with Andy would surely be beneficial. Sure enough, each one of them had prepared him a great gift today.

They looked over the crowd, searching for Andy soon after stepped in the lobby.

However, they did not find the hero today- Andy Wu, that's confused them.

Knowing that Andy was absent, Susu Qin, the big boss of Breeze hotel, leaned her head toward Yong Cheng, the manager at the gate, asked, "Where is Mr. Wu?"

Yong Cheng answered blankly, "Which Mr. Wu do you mean?"

Jianye Yang stood beside Susu Qin, cut in, "The one came by Maybach, he was the last arrival."

Yong Cheng listened and understood, then explained in hurry, "It seems he was traumatized somehow and has been taken to the mental hospital."

Upon hearing this, the color drained from their seven faces, it was completely beyond their expectation, they had come all the way here to enhance him, also regard this as a chance of impression. None of them had expected the 'hero' would be hospitalized to a mental institution.

"Things have changed, let's go to the hospital find out what happened," Jianye said, frowning.

The others showed agreement that finding Andy Wu was the top priority.

But it would be disrespectful to leave the Xia family behind simply like this. Although they were merely a second-rate family, a powerful son-in-law as Andy had raised the tone of this household, people would certainly choose to be civil to such a family.

Susu then walked forward and spoke to the Xia family, "Please enjoy the dinner, it's our honor to serve you!"

Susu Qin was the owner of Breeze hotel and the most powerful woman in Westplain, her capability was self-evident by the prosperous and the status of her business. Thanks to her social connections with both government and underworld, merely people in this city dared to piss this female off.

Seen them talked with Yong Cheng at the gate, the family got nervous about their intention, well, as Susu approaching, the tension had been displaced by thrill, they were too excited to say a word.

The old lady was the first one got her head around, she rose swiftly, replied to Susu, "Ms. Qin, that's very kind of you!"

Jianye Yang, Shengli Feng and the rest of them also went for a greeting.

Mrs. Xia and the other family members all felt flattered, she smiled with her eyes squinted as a response to the regards from these big shots.

The big shots then hurried away after the greeting.

The Xia family has been left in flabbergast in the lobby.

“What’s all this about?” Someone couldn’t help but ask.

The old lady had a pause and then said, “I see, I know what is going on here, it was related to my husband. Last time Mr. Feng saved our face at Yuting hotel, and then, they all came and paid a warm visit today, they have prepared this surprising event to show they respect to our family, thus it can be seen that the old man was remarkable in this connections.” Her voice sounded firm as the words flew from her parted lips.

It was beyond her comprehension earlier who could offer the family such extraordinary treatment and brought the honor to their forebears.

Then, she had figured it out upon Mr. Feng’s appearing, that the credit all belonged to her old man.

She now understood that the Changsheng group cooperated with the Xia family must also for the sake of the old man!

Though he was dead, the influence he left to descendants was worth a fortune.

Interlaced with her words with the behaviors of these big shots, the family members came to understand that the treatment they had enjoyed was due to the remaining influence of the old man. They made this family look good, took this as a great gift, it was also out of their respect to him.

They were in for a treat to have this imperial feast.

The luxurious luncheon ended in delight eventually.

This banquet catapulted this family to fame in the Westplain city.

3 PM, The villa of Xia, in the lobby.

Back from the Breeze hotel, all family members convened here. The old lady sat at the head of the table in perfect profile, in front of the whole family, to judge Guilan Huang and Jenny Xia.

The old lady had never really liked them two, in her mind, her son, the husband of Guilan, died because of Guilan, as she was fated to be a widow. And then, Jenny Xia, daughter of Guilan, married a fool who had disturbed the peace of the family and damaged their reputation.

As the Xia family was about to revival, it's time to get rid of these two stumbling blocks.

Today, she was going to put her house in order.

After a discussion with the elders in the family, the old lady made the decision, "Here I announce, since today Jenny Xia and Guilan Huang are no more our family member, and Jenny has to leave Anjule, and never back to the company again."

Jenny felt dizzy upon hearing this.

As a saying goes, misfortunes never come singly while fortunes never come together. The chaos caused by Andy already dropped her from heaven to hell, and the roughest part of the whole thing was getting expelled with mum and kicked out the company by her grandma, she couldn't take it anymore.

She looked at the old lady with tears in the eyes, said earnestly, "Grandma, it's too much."

"Mrs. Xia, I was wrong, well I still don't deserve this," Guilan was shocked as if she was stroke by lightning, shrieked out her grievance.

The old lady remained calm, said, "It's an order, the die is cast, just leave." She had long wanted to expel these 'banes', thanks to Guilan had given offense to the whole family and created a probable cause to kick them out once for all.

"One rotten apple could ruin a whole barrel of apples, just get out of here, your stay will contribute nothing but humiliation to our family."

"We don't do charities, go find someone else to harm."

"Just go live your life with the fool and stop dragging us into troubles."

All the rest of the family members chorused their agreement. They had become the hardhearted expeller at this very moment.

It ripped Jenny up inside, the tears she had long held rush out of her eyes eventually, she cried to beg, "Grandma, please, please don't do this to me."

She had been cornered by life, the family was the only one she could rely on, the brutal betrayal was the last thing she wanted.

The old lady turned a blind eye to her tears, said straightforwardly, and coldly, "Out!"

One word only, cold and loud, ruined Jenny's last hope, her body and expression on her face were frozen, only tears dropped down from the eyes. The blood and family relationship all dissolved into implacability, she felt nothing warm inside except a dead heart.

Dried her eyes, Jenny said to Guilan, "It's time to go." And then turned away, left a despairing and sorrowful back.

Guilan walked beside Jenny, tramped outwards, every step she took was difficult. At this point, the hatred filled her bosom, the hatred for the cruel family, and for the stupid Andy, who hurt her daughter Jenny, made her against the whole family and also got Jenny expelled.

Carried a millstone on their heart, this mother and daughter went silently under the cold eyes of the whole family.

"Wait," a voice suddenly came out at this very moment.

Jenny was in despairing, she stopped, turned her head backward.

She saw Bill coming straight towards her.

"You still owe ninety thousand dollars to Julia's Boyfriend, as you are leaving the family, it time to pay him back, right?" Bill hated Andy, was also unhappy with Jenny, he was longing for them to be miserable.

Many show their love in times of trouble, to light up the hope for people in despair. But this was not the case on Jenny, here in this family had no one stood at her side to defend her or make her stay, the families here were all despicable person like Bill to add insult to her injury.

She had come around, and her heart sank into the ice, hopeless and desperate. She took out the car keys from the bag, said indifferently, "my car is worth at least a hundred grand, take it." Then, she threw the keys to Bill and left.

Outside the villa, Guilan asked Jenny in an anguished voice, "Jennie, how could you give the car to Bill? how can we do without the car?"

Jenny didn't feel like talking, just answered a few words, "Take a taxi and go home, I will go for a walk alone."

And then quickened her pace to leave without waiting for a reply.

In the beginning, she walked fast and far, which drained all her energy, then she slowed her pace down, walk slowly and aimlessly, like a ghost, wandering around the streets of Westplain.

The hurly-burly city and shining sun didn't spare a single ray of warmth upon Jenny, she lived in a big and cold world.

As the sun went down, the day wore away and the night drew on, Jenny had walked a whole day in the high heels, her blistered feet still couldn't stop her, only in this endless hike could she feel alive.

Nevertheless, living in pain, Jenny thought herself a decent person, she had never followed wicked ways or did anything against her conscience but strove to live and showed kindness to others. Still, her life stuffed with a series of hardships and obstacles that led her to end up to this kind of stage.

"God, why are you treating me like this?" Jenny shouted inside.

She was walking on a quiet alley by the time, a minivan was rolling forward, and stopped by Jenny unexpectedly. Before Jenny could take any action, the door was opened, two people rushed off the van, knocked her out and dragged her into the van.

One hour later.

Suburb, a small villa, in the bedroom.

Jenny was awake from the faint, slowly opened her eyes, and found herself laid on a big bed and took a while to recall the scene that somebody had knocked her out.

Then she got her guard up and sat up sharply, the bedroom door opened at this moment, Shihao Wang strode in.

"I've heard you have been expelled from the Xia family?" Shihao stared at Jenny, savoring the words.

She underwent a violent repulsion from her at the sight of Shihao.

Jenny had a horrible impression of him for things he had done, the kidnap made it worse. She was trembling with anger, yelled at Shihao indignantly, "I'll never be with you even I'm homeless, just drop it!"

Shihao's lips curled into a sneer, "Nobody wants you, I lied, I have no intention to marry you, and why would I marry a married woman, my purpose is simple and pure, to get your laid." His evil nature was revealed at this moment.

Hearing this, her heart quivered, she looked at the hungry wolf-like man in front her, then she said, terrified, "what you want to do?"

Shihao pulled his belt out, garbed in the hand, yelled at Jenny fiercely, "Take your clothes off!"

The Loud Growls

At this moment, Shihao Wang had become evil like a demon.

Jenny had suffered enough today, and she was already in the most desperate situation of her life. Little did she know that she was in trouble again now. Such Shihao Wang was too terrifying for her. Her body was shaking and she curled up at the head of the bed and begged to Shihao, "please let me go."

He grunted coldly, "Now you beg me? Didn't you used to be so arrogant? Shit, you got me beaten up by an idiot. You're going to have to pay for that."

Shihao Wang is notorious for being a big philanderer. The women, however, stayed with him out of their own volition. He wouldn't normally use such despicable means to get a woman, but Jenny was an exception. He wanted to get this woman but couldn't get her, and even her silly husband Andy hit him twice. And he was even beaten badly and sent to the hospital for treatment. Mr.Huang had never suffered in this way. He saw it as a disgrace, which was the one he would never forget in his life.

Mr. Wang kept this hatred in mind. However, he knew that Andy was good at fighting, so he didn't think of seeking revenge on Andy first. He regarded it as a comfort to take revenge on Jenny first.

"Help!" Jenny really did not know what to do. She knew she couldn't convince Shihao. She was really afraid that he would do something bad to her. She was too helpless and frightened to do anything but let out a desperate cry for help.

Mr. Wang wasn't worried that her cries for help would attract the attention of others, he said, "Go ahead and call, this is my villa in the countryside. There is no one around, no one can hear you."

This villa, which Mr. Wang bought for himself, is used for the purpose of having an affair, and even if he got married later, he can fool around with different women here.

Hearing Shihao's words, Jenny was even more desperate.

"Get your clothes off in a hurry." Shihao's patience had run out, and he swung the belt in his hand hard as he threatened at Jenny.

"No, stay away from me," Jenny curled up at the bed, clutching his knees and choking.

Pop!

Mr. Wang threw his belt heavily on the ground, which let out a sharp crisp sound. Then he shouted and threatened at Jenny, "I'm not a person that can pity a woman, you better take off your clothes and don't let me treat you rudely!"

Jenny's face was white with fear. She was so scared and frightened. Her lips kept trembling. She wanted to say something, but her voice was so dry that she couldn't make a sound.

"Since you don't know any better, then don't blame me for being rude." Shihao quickly rushed to Jenny, raised his belt and was about to whip her.

Suddenly, Shihao's cell phone rang.

Mr. Wang frowned and impatiently took out his cell phone and was about to hang up when he saw that the caller was his father, Zhengcheng Wang. He could only walk aside unhappily and picked up the phone, "Dad, what's wrong?"

Immediately, his father fiery roar came, "Did you catch Jenny Xia?"

Shihao's ears were hurt by the sound over the phone. He could feel his father's endless rage even through the phone. Today, he did the thing secretly. However, the person sent to capture Jenny was from the family. It was obvious that someone had let it slip and passed it on to his father.

Knowing that he couldn't hide it, Shihao could only honestly say, "Yes."

His father was extremely annoyed, "Let her go right now."

Shihao reluctantly said, "Why? She's homeless now. Why are you still minding her business?"

Shihao really didn't understand why his father cared about Jenny Xia. Previously, his father had warned him not to have desires for Jenny. At that time, Shihao Wang thought that it was because Jenny Xia was already married, and that marrying her would tarnish the reputation of the Wang family, so his father stopped him. He didn't expect that he had caught Jenny Xia secretly, but his father still wouldn't allow him to have her. He was so angry but didn't know the reason.

Zhengcheng Wang was really going to be driven mad by his son. The reason he cared about Jenny was because last time Changsheng Li asked him to cancel his marriage proposal to the Xia family on the phone, and admonished him to never go near Jenny Xia.

Zhengcheng naturally has some ability to become the chairman of Wang's Group. He knew that Jenny Xia must have a background, and he must not anger her.

But Shihao has kidnapped Jenny Xia, which can make Zhengcheng furious. He growled angrily at the phone: "Let Jenny Xia go, and you go home right now. If Jenny Xia was injured, I'll break your leg!"

Shihao was stunned. He knew how powerful his father was, and he also knew that his father pampered himself. No matter what trouble he made, his father could always handle it for him. But now that his father was so worried about Jenny Xia's safety and had burst out an unprecedented anger, which made Shihao a little scared.

Although Shihao was bold, but he still didn't dare to disobey his father.

He hung up the phone, then said to Jenny Xia, "You're lucky, I'll let you go today, but we're not done yet."

Afterwards, Shihao had someone send Jenny Xia away. And he headed for home.

Jenny was thrown on a deserted road, although she got rid of Shihao, but she was still extremely scared, she walked as fast as she could to the main road, then waved down a taxi.

Jenny sat in the car before she felt relieved. But she wasn't free of the feeling of despair and fear. Her body was still shaking. Her face was still pale. She had almost been raped by Shihao. This fear was really hard to erase in her heart.

Her body was not violated, but she was traumatized in her mind.

Jenny was lost in grief for a long time and she just couldn't bear the pain of the day. She originally thought she was strong enough to suffer misery. But it was only then that she realized that she was only a woman, a very helpless woman, who could ignore her and bully her, but she was powerless to resist.

All the faith and confidence she once had all shattered.

She was so tired.

At nine o'clock in the evening, Jenny returned to her apartment. She paid the driver the only change she had in her bag, then got out of the car, dragging her weary body slowly toward home.

When she came to the door of the apartment, Jenny saw her mother sitting alone in a chair with only some luggage and household items besides her.

Seeing this, Jenny's heart which had just fallen quite suddenly trembled again. She couldn't care about being tired and haggard, and immediately went to her mother and asked anxiously, "Mom, what is going on?"

Her mother raised her head and looked at Jenny. Her voice hoarse as she said, "The house has been taken back by the Xia family."

The house was taken back?

Jenny stared in disbelief, "Isn't this the house Dad left for us?"

Guilan said bitterly, "It's your father's house, but your father also inherited the family. Now that we've been kicked out off the family, this house we have no right to inherit. So the Xia family has the right to take it back."

After she heard her mother's words, her body shook so violently that she could hardly stand still. She knew her relations were cold and heartless, but she did not think they could be so cruel as to take away the only house in which they were to live.

"Andy has made our family too miserable." Her mother finally couldn't help it and cried out.

This time, Guilan was really utterly devastated, she was in too much pain. She hated the culprit Andy even more. If he stood in front of her now, she would really be angry enough to kill Andy.

"Mom, I'm sorry." Jenny was in great pain. She could endure the torture that other people brought to her, but now even her mother was tortured. She knew that all of this did have something to do with Andy, and she blamed herself for all this.

Her mother choked: "What's the use of apologizing now? I let you divorce earlier, but you just won't. Now we have nothing, how can we live in the future?"

She felt that she was the most miserable person in the world, and so miserable that she had lost confidence in the future. Now she didn't care about disgrace now, she just wanted to cry.

There were people walking around. When they saw Guilan Huang sitting here crying, they couldn't help but stop and watch.

Jenny also wanted to cry, but she knew that she could not cry. Her mother now was like a child and needed her to take care of. As her mother's only dependence, she had to be strong. So, without delay, she immediately went to her mother and comforted her mother, "Well, don't cry. Let's find a hotel and stay there first!"

Guilan also knew that they can't really live on the street. She wiped her eyes, and then carried luggage with Jenny, under the other people's strange eyes, left the apartment together.

Just when they were out of the neighborhood, a group of people approached them suddenly.

The man walking in front of him had dyed yellow hair and walked with a dignified manner. Apparently he was a street thug.

This man named San Liu was a famous jerk in this area.

As soon as San Liu came over, he walked towards Guilan and muttered, "What, you want to run away?"

Jenny didn't know San Liu, but Guilan knew clearly this guy. He was the one who was responsible for collecting the money owed by the casino. As soon as Guilan saw him, she was like a mouse seeing a cat, and immediately panicked. She looked at San Liu in fear and said, "You misunderstood me. How could I possibly run away. It's just that there are so many people at my home tonight. I'm going to stay in a hotel with my daughter!"

San Liu grunted coldly and said, " You think I don't know? You've been kicked out by the Xia family, so cut the crap and hurry to pay back."

When Jenny heard this, he finally understood it roughly. She immediately turned back to her mother and asked, "You still owe money outside?"

Guilan said sheepishly, "Not too much." Guilan was a gambler. These two years she was playing cards and actually lost a lot of money. The money that Jenny gave he was simply not enough, so she can only borrow money from others.

San Liu deliberately said, "Oh, a hundred thousand dollars isn't too much for you? That's fine, pay it back now!"

Guilan was afraid of San Liu. She hastily took out the bank card that Jenny gave her last night and said, "I only have 20,000 dollars now. The rest I will pay it back after a while, okay?"

San Liu didn't hesitate to say, "No way. In the past, I was willing to lend you money because of the Xia family. But now I've heard that you've been kicked off by the Xia family and your house has been repossessed. Do you think you're still qualified to owe money? Just pay me back and don't make me hit you."

Guilan now wants to cry but she even couldn't have tears. When people are unlucky, all kinds of miseries can find him. She looked at San Liu with a sullen look and said helplessly, "I really only have twenty thousand dollars left, it's useless for you to hit me."

San Liu's gaze swept to Jenny, grinning, and he said, "I see you can't pay so much money back now, but your daughter is good-looking. She is worth some money. If you let your daughter come with me, you will not need to pay me 100,000 dollars."

Guilan was stunned when she heard it, she knew clearly what kind of person San Liu was. This guy did a lot to force girls to become a prostitute. If Jenny fell into his hands, her life would be ruined.

Thinking of this, Guilan immediately stood in front of Jenny and called out to San Liu, "I borrowed the money. It has nothing to do with my daughter. If you want to ask trouble, just look for me."

"Fuck you." San Liu slapped Guilan in the face and she fell to the ground.

Kangtai Psychiatric Hospital

When she saw that her mother was knocked to the ground. Jenny's heart twitched and her eyes turned red, she shouted "mother!".

As she talked, she dropped the suitcase she was carrying in her hand. She rushed to Guilan Huang and helped her up from the ground. She ranted at San Liu "why would you hit a person?"

Jenny has suffered a lot. Why does she only encounter people who are like that? Each one of her relatives is heartless and without any mercy. That jerk Shihao Wang took advantage of her when she was terminated from Xia family, kidnapped her and even almost assaulted her. A hooligan, San Liu, also took advantage of the problems to loot and bully the orphans and widows. What is really wrong with this world?

After San Liu heard Jenny's question, he rudely said, "do I need a reason to hit someone? I just hit her, what can you do?"

When Jenny heard this she got choked on her own breath. She wanted to contradict him but what could she say? It was obvious that San Liu was an unreasonable hooligan. He just want to bully the helpless mother and daughter. If they quelled with him the result would be worse. She would hate him again. It was reasonable for her to just let it go.

Even Guilan Huang is spiritless She can no longer dare to anger San Liu or argue with him. Even if she got beaten she would just endure it.

Seeing that the two were not talking. San Liu grabbed Jenny's hand and said, "if you don't pay back the money I will just take her and go." San Liu wasn't going to go away without getting his money. If Guilan Huang doesn't pay him back the money, he will take away Jenny.

Guilan Huang couldn't dare to delay. She took off the watch from her wrist and handed it over to San Liu and said, "look at this watch, the original price was $200, 000. I've worn it very few days. It should fetch the same price I bought it at. I will pay my debt with it.

Guilan Huang loves money as though it was life itself. Even though the watch came from Shihao Wang, Guilan Huang still regarded it as a treasure of high value. She worn it everyday to show it off. This time she had no choice because her daughter was in danger. She had to give up her watch.

Liu San let go of Jenny and took the watch. The moment he looked at it he knew it was genuine. he had knowledge of such materials. So he put away his watch and said to Guilan Huang, "know your blessings."

After speaking, San Liu took her with him and left the place.

Seeing those people walking away made her feel a little bit comfortable, but she held a breath. In fact the feeling couldn't go away. She still felt bad.

After a delay, she finally talked to Guilan Huang, "mom, can you stop playing games". Guilan Huang is like a gambler. Jenny had spent a lot of money but it had nothing to do with this. Right now she has no money to lose to her mother. She is afraid she might cause trouble again.

"I know", Guilan Huang loves to gamble. Telling her o stop gambling is more difficult than telling her to break her hand. She is also aware that she won't be able to gamble any more. She can't lose any more.

Jenny looked at the swollen and red face of Guilan Huang. She felt pain in her heart. She did not want to pursue the lost money. She just said lightly, "go!"

Afterwards, the two of them carried the luggage and booked a room at a nearby hotel for two people.

The condition of the hotel wasn't very good and Guilan Huang couldn't bear it as soon she walked in. She couldn't help but complain, "can people live in this dirty place? Jenny, let's change the hotel."

Jenny responded languidly, "if we don't take this one some other people will."

After saying this Jenny threw himself onto the bed.

She hadn't eaten for a day and she had experience both mental and physical devastation. She was out of energy, she needed to rest.

The moment she lay on the bed she closed her eyes.

However, she couldn't sleep.

"Jenny, are you feeling cold? Why are you trembling?" seeing Jenny trembling made her very anxious. She started touching his forehead. "I'm afraid." Jenny cried in response.

Her heart felt cold and was full of fear.

She has always been a strong woman but what happened today defeated her.

The higher where you stand, the harder the fall will be. Today, Jenny, who believed Andy Wu, was held to a higher standard. Letting her experience the feeling of a happy woman.

But it is exactly like that. When her mind returns to reality she will feel broken. She was very disappointed with Andy Wu.

Experiencing heartlessness from a loved one was devastating. When she got heartbroken she did not receive any warmth instead she was treated unfairly. She lost her family's support, her job and even her house.

After losing everything, Shihao also kidnapped and humiliated her. She went around asking for her money back.

This terrifying reality made Jenny desperate and afraid.

She was trembling like a bird.

"Don't be afraid, mother will protect you." She lied to her. But at that moment she realized her daughter felt down. She had to comfort her.

Jenny did not feel good after being comforted because she knew her mother couldn't support herself, let alone the whole family.

Her body shivered continuously.

"Jenny , how about we leave Westplain city?" this city has brought great damage to us. Guilan Huang didn't want to be here any more. She also knew that if her daughter stayed there she would experience emotional trauma. They had to start a new life in another environment.

"Okay."

Jenny agreed with Guilin Huang's suggestions. For Jenny Westplain City had already become a sinister place. Leaving maybe the best option.

The next day, the two packed their luggage and left the hotel.

They stood outside the hotel waiting for a taxi.

At that moment, a convertible Porsche suddenly stopped in front of them. Julia Xia stretched her head out. She first looked at the luggage by Jenny's side then looked at the hotel behind them and she said, "don't tell me you two slept in this dirty hotel."

After what happened yesterday. The whole world is gossiping that the Xia family has been outshined by the Cai family.

But the Cai family knew that this issue had nothing to do with them. They didn't have the patience to help Xia family and others. What I'm saying is, the Xia family has hidden a huge dragon.

So the Cai family orders Xinlei Cai to have a good relationship with Julia. Even when they get married the Cai family is going to disagree with it.

Xinlei Cai liked Julia in the beginning and he was overjoyed when his family consented to it. Yesterday he gave Julia several different gifts. He gave her a Porsche, that made her feel good.

With a new car, Julia is even more proud. She went out for a drive this morning.

Jenny is really disappointed with the Cai family. Even though Julia was always a good sister to Jenny. In reality all the feelings are worthless. Today's encounter, not only did she not show any sympathy but she mocked.

Jenny felt very sad. She didn't want to acknowledge Julia presence and didn't talk.

Seeing Jenny ignoring herself Julia said with a low spirit.

"oh, don't give me that face, you want to transform yourself from a stupid person to a baby. You even though Andy Wu is a hidden local tyrant. Don't you think you are crazy? In the end you and your mother should blame yourselves.

When I remember about yesterday. Julia store the limelight. She was unhappy yesterday because she suffered a major blow. Fortunately Andy Wu is still a big fool. If Jenny really changed she will probably be angry.

In normal times Julia is arrogant. But she has lost it, now Guilan Huang has no courage, no thoughts and she was also tired.

She was not in the mood to talk. She just stayed silent.

Julia was swayed. Someone had to cooperate but Guilan Huang's mother was silent and dull. In end she said, "I know I have put on a sour face all day long, you are destined to never make it."

After talking Julia started the car and went away. Leaving behind an exhaust fume that caused Jenny and Guilan Huang's faces to catch dirt.

Guilan Huang frowned in the direction that Julia went and lamented, "no human is important than another."

Jenny was already in a desperate state after being kicked while she was already down. Its like digging a hole into her wound but she didn't really feel it. She looked at the road in front of her. There was calmness in her heart.

After a moment a taxi came. Jenny stopped it, Guilan Huang moved his luggage and they sat together in the car.

After getting on the car, Jenny said to the driver, "go to Kangtai Psychiatric Hospital."

When she heard what Jenny said. She was worried and she immediately shouted at Jenny, "Jenny, do you still want to take that fool with you?"

Guilan Huang hated Andy Wu. She want to bring this crazy person, she would rather die.

Jenny responded, "there is no money in the hospital card, he will definitely be kicked out in two days. I'm going to put some money in the card. There is another reason Jenny didn't mention. She wanted to see Andy Wu before she left."

Guilan Huang was speechless after hearing this. In a dissatisfied tone she said, "we cant take care of ourselves now. Why do you still care about his safety? Not to mention we have all these problems and it is all because of him. Why can't you let him go?"

Guilan Huang was angry because of her stupid daughter. She was a very kind woman. Even if the whole world betrayed her, she would still not hurt anybody.

Jenny closed and said sadly, "we are a husband and a wife."

Guilan Huang immediately responded, "don't say I forgot everything, wait for a while and divorce him quickly."

Jenny didn't agree or disagree, she was just silent. Her face didn't move like still water.

After a half hour the taxi arrived at Kangtai Psychiatric Hospital.

Jenny paid for the taxi and helped Guilan Huang take the luggage off the taxi. They both immediately walked towards the hospital silently.

A Shocking Scene

No sooner had Jenny reached the gate of the mental hospital than she found it even harder to enter it. The security there became stricter with surrounding security personnel in uniforms standing outside the door; inside the hospital, many security guardians wearing formal uniforms were going on their patrolling.

As Jenny and Guilan were moving nearer toward the hospital, a guardian came up to block them, "Our hospital is locked today," said the guardian seriously, "and no one is allowed in."

"Why?" asked Jenny in doubt.

"We are just following the instruction from our higher manager, without knowing why," answered the guardian expressionlessly.

"But my husband is here in it now; I'm coming to top up the payment account," replied Jenny immediately.

"No way, either," replied the guardian indifferently. "The hospital has been thoroughly closed, so you can't do anything even if you entered it."

Jenny was completely speechless. What all the fuss was about in such a mental hospital? Has she been born with bad luck and doomed to meet hardships everywhere?

As Jenny frowned and was about to speak, the security supervisor approached to warn her severely, "Miss, please do not be hard on us," said the security supervisor, putting on a stern face. "To tell you the truth, a prominent person has arrived in our hospital, so no one is allowed in. You might as well go back."

It can be easily judged from his words that the prominent person has a very unique status that can't be accessed by anyone.

Jenny had neither the access to the hospital nor anyone to turn to.

"This is what God meant. Didn't you find that?" Guilan comforted her. "God wanted you to let go of that idiot. There is no need to care about him. Let's go back."

Was it really the providence? Standing still, Jenny stared at the hospital in front of her for a while, "Let's go back," said she finally, turning around reluctantly.

After leaving the hospital, the two of them took a taxi directly to the Westplain railway station.

Having deliberately considering on the train, Guilan finally decided to go back to her parents' home, "Sweetheart, how about going to visit your maternal grandfather in Jiangzhou City?" asked Guilan. "He will celebrate his seventieth birthday the other day, so we are going to live there for a few days.

"It depends on you," said Jenny with her eyes closed. Wherever to go made no difference to her as long as she could leave this place.

Jiangzhou City as the prefecture-level city has no worse economic strength than that of Westplain City.

Guilan's family has a long history in Jiangzhou City; during the past few years, it has gone through much in ups and downs. The time she got married, her family was in the worst of its recession, but she finally reached her most glorious time after marrying into Xia Family in Westplain City.

She enjoyed a lot being the wife of a well-off man. She became arrogant, not wanting to keep any relations with her maternal family, so the times she went back to her parents' family were quiet limited. Even though she went back, the only reason for her returning was to show off in front of their family members.

As time passed by, things turned more and more terrible in her life. She became a widow after her husband died young; her daughter married an idiot abruptly; the old man who always backed them up in Xia Family passed away, leaving the big family into a gradual decline. Due to all these reasons, Guilan became a housewife from a rich and well-provided lady, with an idiot as her son-in-law.

As for her maternal family, they have progressed a lot. With obtaining great luck these years, they have reached the heyday of the family, and the family now is one of the renowned families in Jiangzhou City!

Things will sure change. When she had lived prosperously, she had disdained her maternal family; when stuck in bleak life, she felt ashamed to meet her maternal family again. As a result, she got further and further away from her family.

However, since she was forced to such hopeless situation, she had no option but return home.

It was at the noon that two of them arrived at the house of Family Huang.

The house was very old with a comparatively long history. But old as it was, it was spacious enough, looking solemn and simple. Obviously, the people who lived here were profound in culture and knowledge.

Standing at the gate of the house, Guilan reorganized her clothes and knocked at the door.

Soon, the door was opened as a doorman walked out of the house. He knew about Guilan, and therefore let them in without saying anything.

After walking through the yard, Guilan and Jenny who were carrying luggage in their hands finally arrived at the main house.

A woman in fashionable clothes came out of the house and said cynically, "Oh. Is that Guilan? What a distinguished guest!"

On seeing this woman, Guilan forced a smile and said immediately, "How are you, sister?"

That fashionable woman was none but her sister-in-law, Ping Luo.

In the past, Guilan looked down upon her. But things were completely changed as her maternal family became flourishing. Considering her brother was successful but she was the loser seeking help from her maternal family, she naturally changed her attitude towards Ping Luo.

However, Ping Luo didn't appreciate Guilan's attitude and said coldly to her, "Don't call me sister. When did you treat me as your sister?" Having glancing at the luggage in Guilan's hands, she sneered at her, saying, "Why are you bringing so much luggage with you?"

Since Ping Luo behaved too aggressively, showing no kindness to her, Guilan eventually chose to contradict her, "Can't I live in my parents' house?" said Guilan angrily.

"No way!" answered Ping Luo indifferently. "When did you consider here as your home after you married into Xia Family? Only when confronted with difficult situation did you think of your so called family?"

Guilan was never a woman of much patience. Having been deliberately humiliated, Guilan gradually lost her temper, "I must enter the house and see my dad today! It's none of your business! Get out of my way!" said Guilan angrily as she rushed into the main house with luggage in hands.

Ping Luo stopped her at once and said seriously, "You can't enter the house; father is meeting with someone important. You can't disturb them."

As they disputed furiously with each other, a strict voice rang out, "What's the fuss?"

A group of people walked out of the main house, among who was the leader, a grey-haired old man. He was Guilan's father, Pingan Huang.

Seeing Guilan and Jenny, he asked indifferently with his face put on sulk, "Why are you here?" His tone was alienated and full of repulsion, and he seemed to have no affection for the daughter and the granddaughter.

Guilan looked at Pingan and said cowardly, "Dad, considering you are about to be seventy years old, we intentionally come here to offer you birthday congratulations.

"I can't bear your congratulations!" said Pingan with no kindness. Apparently, he was extremely discontent with this daughter.

"That woman was very arrogant with eyes on the head. She had never returned her maternal family when leading a rich life. With her life turning abject and full of hardships, she chose to return home. Who appreciate such behavior?"

"Yes. She was such a snobbish and disgusting woman."

"Her daughter who married an idiot was also a bad woman. They both looked unlucky."

"That's right! Our family became prosperous after her leaving here. But Xia Family began to go downward after her coming. She is a jinx."

Members of Family Huang crowded around Guilan, expressing their dissatisfaction about her.

Guilan was completely blank-minded in these rumors. Yesterday in Xia Family, she lost all her face and dignity; today in her maternal family, she was scorned by all family members. She felt bitter in the heart, but she knew it was all her fault and it was also reasonable for her family to reproach her.

Hearing such harsh words, Jenny was very uncomfortable and felt somewhat hard to breathe. She just wanted to get away from this house. But it was at this moment that a man came into the room. He stared at Jenny and asked, "What an attractive beauty! What's your name please?"

The man talking was the so called important guest, Jingming Zhang.

He was the general manager of Jiangzhou Branch of Jiangdong Bank, also a prominent figure in Jiangzhou City. Many a big boss would please him for business promotion, including Family Huang. With the business becoming booming, Family Huang had some difficulty in capital turnover. In order to overcome such difficulty, they had to seek help from Jingming.

Pingan has spared all his efforts to invite him home and tried every means to persuade him into approving the loans. However, the amount of money he finally got was too limited.

When worrying about how to impress Jingming to approve more loans, he exposed himself that he was interested in Jenny.

Pingan was a well-experienced old fox, he saw through Jingming at one sight. Therefore, he continued to answer, "This is my granddaughter Jenny who specially came from Westplain City to see me."

Jingming nodded his head and praised at Jenny, "Very good! Little pussy, you just came to Jiangzhou City, didn't you? Will it be ok if I treat you a meal?" asked Jingming.

Without hesitation, she refused, "Sorry. I've had meals," answered Jenny. She was not the woman who judged a person from his appearance even though Jingming was a pot-bellied, middle-aged man with bald head, but he was indeed a bad guy for he stared at her all the way, which made Jenny feel extremely awful. She would never eat with that kind of person!

On hearing this, Pingan persuaded Jenny at once, "Jenny, listen. Boss Zhang is our distinguished guest! Good girl, take my advice to dine with uncle Zhang." For Pingan, Jenny was a treasure that could be used to please Jingming.

"I don't want to," Jenny refused immediately. She seldom came to this house, and was also unfamiliar with the family here. The only reason she came here was Guilan's decision. How could she listen to her grandfather to dine with that greasy middle-aged man?

Pingan was very unsatisfied with Jenny's reply, "You..." cried he furiously.

Jingming interrupted Pingan before he finished talking, and said "Don't be like this. We are the family, and don't hurt anybody's feeling. Treat her warmly after all it was not easy for her to come here."

While speaking, Jingming patted Pingan gently on the shoulder and then left.

With the words left by Jingming, Family Huang surely followed his suggestion and treated Guilan and Jenny "better".

Seeing the changes in their attitudes, Guilan felt better in the heart. Although all these were on Jingming's account, she didn't care about it. For her, it's nothing better than staying here.

Even though they pretended to show hospitality, Jenny could still feel the obvious change in their attitude. Therefore, she became less hostile to them.

During the night, Family Huang entertained them generously with bountiful food.

The atmosphere at table was quiet "warm" and "sweet" with all the family members toasting each other and smiling happily. Failing to withhold their enthusiasm, Jenny drank several cups of beer, but soon became faint with her face flushing .She was never a good drinker.

After dinner, Jenny waved goodbye to other family members and said, "I got a bit of headache; I'm going to sleep now." After saying that, she left for her bedroom at once, without staying for a while.

"Let me take you there!" said Ping Luo, rising to her feet quickly.

Then, she helped Jenny to a wing-room of the house.

The room of the house was not bad. It was furnished with all sorts of furnishings and its decoration was so classic and sophisticated in which only distinguished guests could live. The family did treat Jenny "specially"!

"Good night and have a good rest," said Ping. After helping Jenny to the wing-room, she left with the door closed.

In fact, she locked the door secretly.

Jenny stumbled to the bedroom of the wing-room. After throwing her coat onto the bed, she took out her clean clothes from the suitcase, walking toward the toilet to take a shower.

The moment she got to the doorway, the door of the toilet was suddenly opened.

A man in underpants went out of the toilet, with water dripping down from his body.

He was no one but Jingming Zhang.

She committed suicide.

At such moment, Jingming Zhang appeared in the bathroom with such an image, which was like a fierce beast that opened its bloody mouth in Jenny's view. Jenny instantly lost her voice in fright, and the clothes in her hands fell to the ground.

Jenny was truly terrified. Her eyes were full of panic as she stumbled backwards while alerting Jingming Zhang , "Why are you here?"

Jingming said in his usual tone, "I've been waiting for you here, seeing that you haven't come, I took a bath first."

Jingming took it for granted, as if he and Jenny were an ordinary couple, a husband waiting for his wife to return.

However, when Jenny heard this, she only felt coldness seeping through her body and a fierce chill seeping behind her back. She frowned tightly and said squarely to Jingming, "What do you mean?"

Jingming spread his hands and said, "Isn't it obvious? The truth is that the Huang family sold you out!"

Jenny couldn't believe what he said, "It's impossible, you're lying." After saying that, she rushed to the door and tried to open it and escaped.

The door of this room couldn't be opened at all. Jenny realized at once that there was a lock on the outside of the door.

This time, Jenny's fear deepened, and at the same time, she was desperate. She really did not expect her grandfather to do such a thing.

Even if animals would care about their children, how could grandpa send his granddaughter into the mouth of a beast?

"Just stop struggling, you belong to me tonight." Jingming's tone was plain, and in that plainness was an imperatively sure. and for him, Jenny would become his woman soon.

"I already have a husband, you stay away from me." Even if Jenny didn't want to believe, she must admit, the old house, the so-called grandfather's home, she thought she could temporarily settle down in the place, now has become a wolf nest that would be a great danger for her. She was helpless. She could only think of this reason to persuade Jingming not into doing something bad for her.

Jingming was completely unfazed. He grinned and said wickedly, "It's okay, I don't care about this. All I like is you. Little baby, since I like you, don't try to run away."

Jingming is indeed a very capable person, otherwise he could not do the position of general manager of the Jiangzhou branch. But even more powerful people, there are also shortcomings, such as Zhang Jingming, he is lustful. If you really want to take him, sending money or sending gifts to him is useless. If sending a woman to him, he will certainly have no way to refuse.

Jenny was the type that Jingming liked. So after she left the Huang family, Jingming secretly contacted Pingan Huang, Jenny's grandfather.

Although Pingan Huang has family ties with Jenny, he doesn't like Jenny. Besides, he desperately needed to please Jingming, so he didn't reject Jingming's request to get Jenny. Jingming's appearance on the balcony tonight was also something that Jingming and the Huang family had planned in advance.

"If you come near me, I'll kill you!" Jenny was in a state of despair, and knew that she had no way to escape, but she would not give up struggling either. She quickly picked up a table lamp on the table and threatened at Zhang Jingming.

Jingming didn't care about the threat of a girl. He laughed coldly, then moved closer towards Jenny and said, "If you follow my will, you will have much wealth in the future, otherwise you will get hurt if you upset me."

Jingming reached out his hand and tried to take the table lamp in Jenny's hand.

Bang!

Jenny moved quickly, and without hesitation, she directly took the table lamp and slammed it down heavily towards where Jingming was balding.

"Ah!" Jingming screamed miserably and fell to the ground.

Jingming probably didn't expect that Jenny, who looked gentle, would be so violent that he really dared to hit him.

Outside, Ping Luo had been guarding the corridor outside the room, waiting Jingming to finish his thing so he could open the door.

However, after waiting for a few minutes, she heard Jingming's miserable screams.

If what you hear was Jenny's screams, Ping Luo would not be surprised, but she heard Jingming's screams, it was really abnormal. Immediately, Ping ran to the door and listened carefully, and only then was she sure that Jingming was wailing inside.

Ping didn't wait any longer and hurriedly took out the key and opened the door.

As soon as the door opened, Ping was stunned. She saw that Jingming's head was broken and bleeding, and he fell to the ground in a very miserable state.

"Something's wrong here!" Ping ran out of the room and shouted.

Not long after, people of the Huang family hurried over.

Seeing Jingming was injured, the Huang family all scared, especially Pingan Huang. He was so angry that he could hardly breathe. He desperately took a few breaths, and then to Jenny loudly scolded: "What are you doing? Why did you hit someone?"

At this moment, Jenny's eyes were cold and her face was expressionless. It was the first time that she'd hit someone, but she wasn't afraid. She was sad and disappointed in them. She looked at her grandfather and questioned, "I should be the one asking what you are doing? I'm your own granddaughter. Why are you locking me in the house? Why did you send me to such an old man?"

After hearing a series of questions, Pingan Huang didn't know how to answer for a moment.

At this time, Ping Luo's husband, Ye Huang, Jenny's uncle, came out. He was angry and said to Jenny, "Do you know who Mr. Zhang is, how dare you beat him?"

Jenny retorted, "If I didn't hit him, he'll rape me."

Pop!

Ye Huang directly slapped Jenny on the face and scolded her angrily, "Who cares about you? It would be a great honor for Mr. Zhang to rape you!"

"Yeah, why are you so ungrateful?"

"You just have a good-looking face, what else are you mighty about?"

"You're even willing to marry a fool, how stupid."

"It's your luck that Mr. Zhang likes you, why don't you cherish it?"

"You dare to hit Mr. Zhang. Are you crazy? "

The Huang family and Jingming Zhang were working together to trap Jenny. What they have done were worse than a beast, but they weren't shamed and thought they were rightful, as if they were the messengers of justice, and criticized Jenny collectively.

Jenny looked at these hypocritical faces. She saw through the evil of these people. She was very sad and desperate. She was ashamed to have such relatives.

"Get me to the hospital!" Jingming, who was on the ground, really couldn't stand it and shouted.

Only then did the Huang family came to themselves and they immediately swarmed to Jingming.

With everyone's attention on Mr. Zhang, Jenny walked out of the room silently.

Outside the room, Mrs. Huang was standing there.

Jenny walked over to her mother and said, "Mom, let's go!" This place, even more terrifying than the Westplain City, Jenny could not stay here for a moment.

Mrs. Huang sighed and sorrowfully said, "Alas, you shouldn't have hit Chief Zhang, this time you'll be in big trouble."

Hearing this, Jenny fell silent. She thought she didn't care about anything anymore. She was desperate, and nothing in this world could make her more desperate.

But at this moment, her heart still pounded. Her heart ached as if a million needles were stabbing her. She looked at her mother and said sadly, "You know about their plan in advance, don't you?"

According to Mrs. Huang's character, knowing that her daughter was being bullied in this way, she would definitely find someone to argue with. But now, not only did she not defend Jenny, she even blamed her, which made Jenny instantly realize that her mother, the person she trusted the most, had also become an accomplice in selling her out.

The first time she heard it, Ms. Huang immediately revealed a guilty look, she explained, "It is your grandfather has been begging me, saying that as long as you sleep with Mr. Zhang one night, he will buy us a big house in Jiangzhou City, and also give us a good job. In that way, we will be able to live a wealthy life in the future and won't have to depend on others."

After Jenny heard her mother's words, she couldn't believe that her mother who she loved the most in the world and lived together for so many years would be the one that hurt hurt the most when she was in the most desperate state.

She cried out and shouted to Mrs Huang, "I hate you!"

After yelling, she ran away without looking back.

It was 10 p.m. at the rooftop of a 17-story building, Jiangzhou City.

Jenny stood at the edge of the rooftop overlooking the entire city of Jiangzhou.

Her eyes were dry with tears and her heart, too, was completely desperate.

At the moment, she no longer had any emotions, not even fear. She used to be very afraid of heights and didn't dare to ride the roller coaster, but now, standing so high, she was not afraid it at all.

Maybe, that's the real desperation.

From the time Andy brought her happiness and then made her lose it, she was doomed to not be happy. She grew further and further away from luck, and misfortune ensued. She couldn't suffer any more misfortune.

She originally thought that by escaping Westplain City, she would be able to start new life. But instead of expecting it, she had fallen into another trap. The cruelty of Grandpa's family hurt her deeply. But she didn't despair, thinking that at least she still had her mother and they could go somewhere else and escaped all this.

However, God was about to destroy her last faith. Her mother betrayed her.

How ridiculous, how pathetic, that is the reality, the horrible reality.

The world really should no mercy to her. All the people were so cruel to her. She had no attachment to this world, either.

The darkness which enveloped the entire city also enveloped Jenny's entire heart.

She stood alone in the boundless darkness of the night, she was so lonely and helpless..

The rooftop was silent.

Jenny closed her eyes. In the extremely silence, the mobile phone rang, but the sound was close and seemed far away.

Jenny opened her eyes, picked up her phone and looked at the caller on it: mom.

She stared at the two words for a long time, and finally she murmured, "Goodbye, mom!"

After finished speaking, Jenny jumped down from the tall building.
