

MY HIDDEN 1291

Chapter 1291: Grandson and Granddaughter

That night, the people at the Fu Family's mansion did not fall asleep after finding out about Youyou and Tiantian.

They were happy that they were grandparents and great-grandparents, but worried that Gu Weiwei would not allow them to meet the two children tomorrow.

Therefore, apart from Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin, the three elders did not sleep at all.

At breakfast, only Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin did not look tired.

"You were too excited to sleep because you are going to visit your grandchildren, right?"

Fu Shengying glared at them. "When is your brother coming home?"

"I don't know, but as soon as possible," Fu Shiqin said.

"Why is he not in a hurry for such a big matter?" Fu Shengying complained unhappily.

Before, he was the person who was always the most anxious about Gu Weiwei, but now when he needed to be, he did not come home quickly.

Fu Shiqin pursed his lips. "If you had not forced them to get a divorce back then, you would have been grandparents and now you are blaming my brother."

Fu Shiyi chimed in. "Yes, sister-in-law was pregnant back then and you forced her to get a divorce. Now you want her to give you her children too."

Of course, they would not tell them that sister-in-law got pregnant after the divorce.

"Can you two not ruin my appetite?" Mrs. Fu snapped with a sunk face.

They were worried that when the time came, Gu Weiwei would stop them from seeing the children and they were so worried that they could not fall asleep the entire night, yet they were still making fun of them.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin exchanged a look and shut up.

The twins ate breakfast, got ready and went to work.

Fu Shengying and the others ate a few mouthfuls of food and asked the driver to get ready to leave for Mansion Number Seven, which was located in Zhujiang.

Yuan Meng had just sent Yuan Bao to kindergarten when she ran into several cars parked at the doorstep. She greeted Fu Shengying and the others with a smile.

"Hey, who are you looking for?"

"If we are not here for you, then we are obviously here for Weiwei," Fu Shengying said with a serious face.

"Hang on, I will go in and ask her." Having said these words, Yuan Meng went in and informed Gu Weiwei who was making milk for the two children. "The Fu Family is here, what should we do?"

Gu Weiwei took a deep breath and said, "Let them in."

"Then don't call me by the wrong name or I will be exposed," Yuan Meng said and opened the door.

Fu Shengying, Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady were standing outside, looking at each other anxiously, fearing that they would not be allowed to see their grandchildren.

After a long while, the young man came out.

"She asked you to go in."

The three of them were overjoyed. Fu Shengying walked in front with Mrs. Fu following behind him.

With Tiantian in her arms, Gu Weiwei shook the bottle and fed her.

"Old Lady, Mrs. Fu, Uncle Fu, the house is a bit messy, you can sit anywhere."

"It is okay, it is okay."

Fu Shengying waved his hands and sat down on the sofa, staring at the chubby girl in her arms.

The little girl was holding the milk bottle with two chubby hands and drinking happily. She looked at them curiously with her big eyes. Her cute expression made peoples' hearts melt.

Seeing Gu Weiwei holding Tiantian in her arms, the Old Lady turned to Youyou, who was also drinking milk in the arms of the nurse. She took hold of Mrs. Fu's hands excitedly and whispered, "So much like Hanzheng when he was little.."

Chapter 1292: Sweetness

Gu Weiwei looked down at her youngest daughter in her arms and did not utter a word.

When she stayed silent, Mrs. Fu and the others felt a bit embarrassed.

But they still sat there shamelessly for the sake of their grandson and granddaughter. Mrs. Fu asked Tiantian who was eating happily.

"What are the names of the two children?"

Gu Weiwei looked up at Mrs. Fu and answered, "This is Tiantian. The quiet Tiantian and the blessed Youyou."

"Hello, Tiantian and Youyou." Old Lady sighed.

Mrs. Fu also asked, "We have bought some toys for the children. If you can't take care of the two children alone, we can also get two more helpers for you."

After feeding the child, Gu Weiwei tossed the empty milk bottle to Yuan Meng who placed it on the table.

“No need, we have everything we need already. There are two nursery teachers and one nutritionist, we don’t need anyone else.”

“I see, then forget it.” Mrs. Fu smiled awkwardly and stared at the chubby girl in her arms.

Fu Shengying and the others sighed in disappointment. It seemed that she had indeed been thinking for the child and they were not short of manpower.

They would not be able to do anything.

The atmosphere was just getting awkward when Gu Weiwei’s phone rang. Yuan Meng took a look at it.

“Honey, your call is from the studio.”

Actually, it was Fu Hanzheng.

With her daughter in her arms, Gu Weiwei was about to answer the call.

“Give me the child, you can answer the call.” Mrs. Fu suggested with a smile.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Yuan Meng and then at her daughter in her arms.

“Sorry for the trouble.”

Under the nervous gaze of Fu Shengying and the Old Lady, Mrs. Fu took the chubby Tiantian from Gu Weiwei’s hands.

The little girl blinked at the three people who were in front of her and happily waved her arms and legs.

“Tiantian? Tiantian?” Fu Shengying changed his serious image and teased his granddaughter.

The little girl was very lively and she danced happily whenever she was teased. Her cute voice made people melt.

Gu Weiwei answered the call and Fu Hanzheng said on the other side of the phone, “Are they there?”

“Yes,” Gu Weiwei answered softly.

“According to our agreement, no matter what their requests or their conditions are, turn them down and cut off the relationship between the children and the Fu Family.” Fu Hanzheng stressed.

They could taste the sweetness of being grandparents, but they could not continue to enjoy it.

If they were truly in a hurry, they themselves would know what to do... let them remarry.

The purpose of their return to the capital was to remarry, but they could not bring up the matter of remarrying themselves to the elders. Which meant the elders had to suggest it.

In that case, they just had to agree to it.

“Is that really okay?” Gu Weiwei looked at the three elders surrounding the two children and felt helpless.

Look at them, they treasured these two little ones so much.

No matter what opinions they had towards her, she could tell that they loved their grandchildren dearly.

“It is not good for us to be soft-hearted now.” Fu Hanzheng reminded her.

Now that she had softened her attitude, they would think of a way to persuade her into giving up custody of the children. Then it would be even more difficult to deal with the matter. They might as well be a bit more forceful, and then they would think of a way to make them remarry.

Gu Weiwei laughed dryly. “Alright, I will call you back later.”

She was talking with Fu Hanzheng on the phone in front of the elders of the Fu Family, which required a great deal of acting and courage..

Chapter 1293: The Fu Family

Mrs. Fu took Tiantian into her arms and saw her answering the call, she carried the child over to Old Lady and Fu Shengying.

“Look at how happy this girl is.”

Fu Shengying pinched the girl’s arm and whispered, “Tiantian, are you happy to see your grandparents and great-grandma? Happy?”

“What are you eating these days? Look at you, you look so much like porcelain.” Old Lady sighed happily.

Mrs. Fu threw a look at Fu Shengying, indicating that he should go and hold Youyou.

Fu Shengying glanced at Gu Weiwei who was on the phone and took Youyou from the nurse.

“Look at him, he looks like his father, so annoying.”

“That is true,” Old Lady said with a smile.

The three of them had not been able to sleep well the night before and now, their tiredness had been cured by the two cute children.

Her head no longer hurt and her body no longer felt tired.

Fu Shengying took out a few toys to tease Youyou, who looked calm and uninterested.

“Oh my, I know that you are your father’s son, but you can’t just be like him all the time.”

It was good that he looked like him, but it was not good to have a temper like him.

The three of them were so excited that they forgot that they were at Gu Weiwei’s place; Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu refused to let go of the two children.

They had been looking forward to being grandparents all these years and holding their grandchildren in this way. Now, their wish had come true.

After the call, Gu Weiwei did not disturb them, seeing that they were getting along well.

Standing next to her, Yuan Meng mumbled as she ate the candy, "Now you know how wise my suggestion was when I urged you to get pregnant."

As long as these elders had grandchildren, they would not stop them from getting remarried.

Gu Weiwei glanced at her. "Can you be the one to call me honey? I can't stand it if I call you honey."

However, Yuan Meng smiled sinisterly and called her terms of endearment even louder.

"Darling, honey, sweetie..."

Fu Shengying, who was holding his grandson, glanced at them and saw them talking happily.

All of a sudden, he felt very displeased.

She was so close to this hooligan, was she really going to let someone become the stepfather of these two children?

Fu Shengying saw it, as did Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady, but he did not say anything.

After a long while, Tiantian could not stay in Mrs. Fu's arms any longer and started to complain for her mother.

Gu Weiwei approached him and said with a smile, "Let me carry her, she is going to cry soon."

Mrs. Fu unwillingly gave Tiantian back to her. The moment the girl was in her mother's arms, she stopped fussing and leaned herself against Gu Weiwei's arms, blinking at Mrs. Fu and the others.

"You do miss your mother," Mrs. Fu said with a smile.

Gu Weiwei smiled and said, "Mrs. Fu, if there is nothing else, I am going to take the children out."

"Where are you going?" Fu Shengying asked nervously.

"I have an appointment with the private doctor to get them vaccinated today," Gu Weiwei said.

"Private doctor? Which hospital is he from? Is he skilled or not? Is he reliable?" Fu Shengying asked a series of questions.

Gu Weiwei smiled. "He is a famous doctor and... it is just a vaccine."

"What about going to He Chi's hospital? There are the best children's doctors in Hua Land there..." Old Lady suggested.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and said politely, "Mrs. Fu, Old Lady, Uncle Fu, Mr. Fu and I are divorced.. These two children have nothing to do with the Fu Family."

Chapter 1294: The Fu Family 2

“Nothing to do with them?” Fu Shengying’s expression sank. He had to suppress his emotions after being squinted at by the Old Lady. “These two children are Hanzheng’s children too, why are they not related to the Fu Family?”

“Weiwei, we have wronged you for the divorce, but... the children are still children of the Fu Family,” Old Lady said with a gentle voice.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and said politely and coldly, “That is all in the past, and Mr. Fu and I have our own lives, so... I don’t want to be disturbed again.”

Having said these words, Yuan Meng, who was dressed as a man, came over and said to them as she had her arms around Gu Weiwei’s shoulders, “Please, don’t disturb our lives.”

“You...” Fu Shengying got annoyed and said with a dark expression, “They are Hanzheng’s children, the children of the Fu Family. We have the right to meet them, but you can tell us whatever you want...”

Gu Weiwei stopped smiling. “My only request is that you don’t bother us.”

According to Fu Hanzheng’s order, she must turn them down.

“You...” Fu Shengying was about to speak when Mrs. Fu stopped him.

Mrs. Fu said with a gentle smile, “Weiwei, that is not what your Uncle Fu meant. He meant that we did not help much when you were pregnant and had the children alone. If there is anything we can help you with, just tell us...”

“I appreciate your kindness, but my children and I don’t lack anything.” Gu Weiwei turned her down politely.

Mrs. Fu looked at the Old Lady helplessly and said, “Then let’s not disturb you today. If anything happens, remember to call us, otherwise... call Hanzheng.”

“Goodbye, I won’t see you off.” Gu Weiwei nodded and asked the nurse to carry Youyou back.

Mrs. Fu helped Old Lady up and left with Fu Shengying after saying goodbye to the two lovely children.

Fu Shengying looked at the children’s toys and said, “What about these things?”

“Let’s go back home first,” Mrs. Fu said.

Having said these words, she helped Old Lady into the car.

The three of them got into the car and sighed.

“We just had some fun being grandparents, but she doesn’t even want us to meet them.” Fu Shengying felt sorry for himself.

“Alright, I have told you repeatedly not to be so rude. We owe them a great deal. Look at what you just said...” Mrs. Fu glared at Fu Shengying unhappily and said, “She is just a girl! She got pregnant and had twins abroad and had to be a mother alone in such a difficult place. Now you want to suddenly be a grandfather? You are dreaming.”

“I...” Fu Shengying shut up.

“Judging from her current attitude, she is probably not willing to give custody of the children to the Fu Family.” Old Lady sighed.

“The most infuriating thing is that she is with such a person now. Will that person treat the two children well in the future?” Fu Shengying thought of the young man who was flirting with her and became even more worried about his grandchildren.

Mrs. Fu sighed. “She was pregnant at the time and we asked her to divorce Hanzheng. She has been alone since she was pregnant, so it is natural that she turned us down today.”

“What do you mean it’s natural? Are we just going to watch her find such a terrible stepfather for the two children?” Fu Shengying asked.

Old Lady sighed deeply and said, “When Hanzheng comes home, we can talk about it..”

Chapter 1295: Brother

When they returned to the Fu Family’s mansion, the three of them were worried and had no appetite for the entire day.

After Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin finished their work, it was already eight o’clock at night when they returned to the old mansion. The moment they entered the house, the butler came over and said, “Second Master, Third Master, the Old Lady was not in a good mood when she came home. She has not eaten anything today, please persuade her.”

Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiqin exchanged a look. How could they be in a good mood when they were humiliated by the mother of their grandchildren?

The two of them entered the living room and glanced at their parents who were sighing on the sofa. They pretended to be curious.

“What is it? You didn’t get to see the two children?”

“We did,” Mrs. Fu said.

“Then why are you still frowning?” Fu Shiqin asked even though he knew the answer.

Mrs. Fu sighed and explained.

“We got to meet the two children and they are so cute, but...”

“But what?” Fu Shiyi asked.

“But Gu Weiwei said that she and your brother are divorced and she and the two children are no longer related to the Fu Family, so we should not disturb them,” Fu Shengying said with a disappointed look.

After all, he still remembered how he forced her to divorce Hanzheng last year.

They understood what she was doing, but when they thought of not being able to hug their grandchildren, they felt very displeased.

“Didn’t you want her to cut off all ties with the Fu Family? Isn’t it better for her to do that now?” Fu Shiyi snorted with a smile.

Fu Shengying glared at him. "What did you say?"

They had been so anxious that they could not eat or drink throughout the entire afternoon. They had hoped that they would have some good opinions when they came home, but now they were sneering at them.

"Nothing, nothing." Fu Shiyi surrendered.

"When she was happily getting married to our brother, the wedding was cancelled and she was pregnant and divorced. She has suffered so much, so it is reasonable that she doesn't want to have anything to do with the Fu Family now," Fu Shiqin said as he ate fruits to fill his empty stomach. "As for the two children, let's wait for our brother to come home and think about it."

Fu Shiyi smiled mysteriously.

"There is no need for so much trouble, I have a way to solve it once and for all."

"What is it?" Fu Shengying and the others asked at the same time.

Fu Shiyi smiled deeply and said, "We ask our brother to bring her back."

"That is not a solution." Fu Shiqin glanced at the elders and continued with Fu Shiyi's play. "We only want the two children, not her."

Fu Shiyi spun his phone and looked very flirty.

"Why not? Our brother has her and the two children come home too."

"What about finding a stepmother for the two children? Even if we bring the children home, they won't have a mother. How pitiful would that be?"

"So, that's why if our brother can showcase his charm and get the children's mother back, everything will be solved."

"Of course, if it is solved so easily, then why did they get divorced in the first place?" Fu Shiqin snorted.

Fu Shengying and the Old Lady pursed their lips. If they had known that she was pregnant, maybe they would not have allowed them to get divorced.

They had forced her to get a divorce and now their grandchildren were not coming home. They had shot themselves in the foot..

Chapter 1296: Father!

Hearing their words, Fu Shengying and the others stayed silent with different expressions.

After all, it was their own fault that their grandchildren could not come home.

But if Hanzheng went to bring her back...

"When is your brother coming home?" Fu Shengying asked.

Fu Shiqin scratched his head. "He said that things are not settled yet, and it will take two or three more days."

"Why is he not home yet?" Fu Shengying complained.

His son and daughter were about to call another man 'father', but he was not worried at all.

He had always rushed home when it came to Gu Weiwei.

Seeing his father's annoyed look, Fu Shiqin chuckled inwardly.

Him and his brothers were not in a hurry, but they were.

"I will urge him later."

"I can call him myself," Fu Shengying said and asked the servant to bring over his charged phone and made a call to Fu Hanzheng.

After three calls, the call finally went through and Fu Hanzheng's calm voice arose.

"What is it?"

"When are you coming home?" Fu Shengying asked with suppressed anger.

Fu Hanzheng said calmly, "In three days time."

"Gu Weiwei has found a stepfather for your son and daughter and you are still coming home in three days time?! Aren't you in a hurry?" Fu Shengying paced back and forth on the phone, trying to calm himself down.

"We are divorced, why should I be anxious?" Fu Hanzheng countered calmly.

"You..." Fu Shengying felt his forehead and felt that his blood pressure was rising. "No matter what you are doing now, come back now!"

"Something will go wrong if we don't hand over the work following the proper protocols," Fu Hanzheng said.

What he meant was that he was not going home today.

"You really don't care about Gu Weiwei anymore," Fu Shengying said furiously.

Fu Hanzheng said, "Isn't that what you wanted?"

Fu Shengying rang off. "I think he is possessed."

"What is it? My brother is still not coming home?" Fu Shiqin asked curiously.

"He has always been the most anxious when it comes to Gu Weiwei, but now when it is time for him to be anxious, he doesn't care anymore..." Fu Shengying mumbled.

"Dad, when our brother was obsessed with Gu Weiwei, you said that he was possessed. Now that he is not interested in Gu Weiwei, why are you saying that he is possessed?" Fu Shiyi countered helplessly.

It seemed that they had gone too far. His father was really anxious now.

“You are all hoping that the two children will not return. What are you thinking?” Fu Shengying sized up his two sons and felt that something was wrong.

Fu Shiqin touched his chin guiltily. “Of course we want them to come home, but we can’t rush this matter, otherwise it would be even more difficult if they suddenly leave with the two children and go abroad.”

“Shiqin is right, we can’t rush this matter.” Mrs. Fu agreed.

Fu Shiqin threw a look at them and said, “He Chi’s house is close to Mansion Number Seven. I am staying at He Chi’s house these days, so I can keep an eye out for them.”

“We can move in too,” Fu Shengying said.

Fu Shiqin blinked and laughed dryly. “Dad, that is not necessary.”

Old Lady thought for a while and said to the servant, “Go and pack our luggage, we will stay there for a while.”

Even if they could not bring the two children home, they could still see them occasionally if they lived nearby.. It was better than them sighing here.

Chapter 1297: For Grandson and Granddaughter

Therefore, in order to get a better look at their grandchildren, the elders of the Fu Family moved to Zhujiang overnight.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin saw them off, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. They saw that their father had even brought over his pair of binoculars.

“Dad, you are not going to peep with this thing, are you?” Fu Shiyi asked in disbelief.

Fu Shengying said as he wiped the lenses, “I am observing Youyou and Tiantian.”

“But it feels weird.” Fu Shiyi complained.

Fu Shiqin added. “Yes, after all, apart from the two children, there is someone else opposite us. It would be so embarrassing if you see something you shouldn’t.”

Hearing the words, Mrs. Fu came over and took away the binoculars.

“They are right, don’t do such a thing.”

It was already dawn when they finished packing.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin ate breakfast and went back to work.

After they went out, Fu Shiqin made a call to Gu Weiwei.

“Sister-in-law, my stubborn family have moved into the neighbourhood of your home. Yuan Meng and Yuan Bao better not be exposed.”

“Moved here?” Gu Weiwei asked in astonishment.

“They moved here in the middle of the night. They want to be closer to their grandchildren, so that they can catch a glimpse of them every now and then,” Fu Shiqin said helplessly.

Originally, he had only said that he was staying here so that he could visit his nephews and nieces and it was also convenient for him to report the situation to his family.

But when it was mentioned, they all moved in.

But Yuan Bao was still here, and if anyone saw Yuan Meng taking him out in male clothes, the fake boyfriend would be seen through.

Gu Weiwei sighed speechlessly. “So they are going to keep an eye on us?”

“We can’t do anything about it, sister-in-law, you have to take responsibility.” Fu Shiqin sighed helplessly.

He had not expected that they would miss their grandchildren so deeply that they packed up and moved in at night.

“Got it, I will tell Yuan Meng to be careful.” Gu Weiwei sighed.

Fu Shengying and the others had moved to a place closer to their grandchildren, so they were in a better mood and had a better appetite.

They ate some food for breakfast and could see the window of villa seven through the study on the second floor. They stared at the house for two hours.

Then she saw Gu Weiwei and the nurse pushing the two children out.

“Yes, they’re here,” Mrs. Fu said with a smile.

Then the three of them went downstairs and went out too.

Gu Weiwei had just pushed the two children out when she saw Fu Shengying, his wife and the Old Lady, who seemed to be taking a walk.

“Mrs. Fu, you...”

“We think that the environment here is quite good, so we are staying here for a while,” Mrs. Fu said as her eyes never left the two children in the pram. “Where are you going?”

“It is a nice day, I’m showing them around the park,” Gu Weiwei said as she pushed the two children away.

“We are going for a walk too, if you don’t mind, let’s go together.” Mrs. Fu found an excuse and the three of them followed her.

Fu Shengying and the Old Lady stared at the two soft and cute babies in the pram. They wanted to carry them but because the mother was present, they could only stare at them.

Gu Weiwei pushed the children out and the three of them followed her and the child to the park. Only then did Yuan Meng leave for kindergarten with Yuan Bao, in case the elders of the Fu Family recognized her son..

Chapter 1298: Fu Hanzheng

Gu Weiwei spent three hours walking the child because of Fu Shengying and the Old Lady.

It was not until the little foodie started to complain from hunger that she could not help but say, "Sorry, they are a bit hungry, I have to bring them home."

"Alright, alright, let's go home, we can't let them starve."

Fu Shengying, who had not been allowed to go home, suggested going home when he heard that his grandchildren were hungry.

Gu Weiwei tried hard not to laugh. "Then we are leaving now."

"We are tired too, let's go home together," Fu Shengying said.

Gu Weiwei smiled helplessly. She neither turned him down nor agreed.

With one hand on the pram, Mrs. Fu asked with a gentle voice, "Do they only get breast milk?"

"No, they have breast milk and milk powder," Gu Weiwei said.

Mrs. Fu nodded, thinking that because she had two children, the breast milk would not be enough for them. It was good that they were willing to eat the milk powder.

"The child may get sick after half a year, so be careful."

"Youyou had a rash before he came home, but now he is fine, but Tiantian has not had a rash yet. She has always been healthy." Gu Weiwei knew that they were concerned about the children, so she answered all of Mrs. Fu's questions.

Hearing these words, Fu Shengying and the Old Lady were very happy, although they did not ask anything more.

Seeing that they were approaching the villa, Mrs. Fu suggested.

"Weiwei, if you are too busy to take care of the children, you can leave them to us. We are free anyway."

"Yes, yes, yes, you must take care of your career as a young person." Fu Shengying added.

"You can go and do your work, we'll take care of our grandchildren."

Gu Weiwei looked at the two children in the pram and said with a smile, "The children are still young and I don't have any work plans, so I want to spend more time with them."

Fu Shengying and the others sighed in disappointment. So she did not need their help.

Gu Weiwei did not know whether to laugh or cry. Judging from their expressions, she was afraid that they would steal her children one day.

Finally, she brought the children home. Yuan Meng had already sent Yuan Bao to kindergarten.

“What, are they really going to live here?”

“Yes.” Gu Weiwei sighed and picked up her hungry daughter.

Yuan Meng said as she ate the snacks, “They miss their grandchildren so much, but they still haven’t mentioned your remarriage?”

Whether they had moved in or cared about the children, they probably still just wanted the custody of the children and not her.

“They were the ones who asked for the divorce, and now they have to bring it up themselves. They are all prideful people, and they will not be able to bring themselves to do it.” Gu Weiwei chuckled.

Old Lady and Fu Shengying were famous for being stubborn. If they were to bring this up, it would take a long time.

“If they don’t agree to it, the children will never return to the Fu Family.” Yuan Meng snorted.

What was more, their own son was the mastermind behind this matter.

Fu Hanzheng was in a hurry to remarry, so it was up to her to trick the elders.

Gu Weiwei took over the milk powder made by the nurse, fed Tiantian who had started to cry and asked the nurse to feed Youyou.

“Take care of Yuan Bao these days, don’t reveal anything.”

“Don’t worry, honey,” Yuan Meng said and winked at her, taking the opportunity to flirt with her..

Chapter 1299: Fu Hanzheng Returns

Since they had become neighbors with the elders of the Fu Family, Gu Weiwei and the others were not doing well.

In order for Yuan Meng to pick up the children in the morning and in the afternoon, she would push the children out for a walk in the morning and the afternoon, Fu Shengying and the others would always follow them.

Luckily, these moments only lasted for two days before Fu Hanzheng returned home from Dubai.

It was already midnight when he returned home, so he went straight to He Chi’s new residence in Zhujiang.

The moment he entered the room, Fu Shengying and the others were still awake, unable to fall asleep. They all got up and started the emergency family meeting in the living room.

“What are you going to do about the two children?”

Fu Hanzheng looked calm. "I will talk with her in the morning."

Although he wanted to see her and the child now, they must be resting.

Also, he had to deal with the situation here, so it was reasonable for him to go over.

"We have tried to see what she intends to do. She seems to not want to be involved with the Fu Family, so talk with her properly." Old Lady reminded her.

After all, they still had feelings for each other, so it was more convenient for him to talk with her.

"Yes," Fu Hanzheng answered calmly.

Mrs. Fu sized up her cold son curiously, feeling that something was wrong.

He had cared so much about Gu Weiwei before, and even after they got divorced, she could tell that he had never truly let go of Gu Weiwei.

But why did he become so indifferent to Gu Weiwei after a year in Dubai and even when he found out that she had two children for him?

At first glance, nothing seemed wrong, but when she thought about it carefully, she found it abnormal.

He had known about Gu Weiwei's past life, but he had never given up on marrying her.

Why had he let go of her so thoroughly in just one year? That was not like him.

"If I take care of it, can you move back home?" Fu Hanzheng glanced at the elders. They were watching them every day, making it very inconvenient for her and the children.

Fu Shengying looked at Mrs. Fu, and Mrs. Fu looked at the Old Lady. Neither of them wanted to leave.

They could see their grandchildren here once or twice a day, but they would not be able to see them when they returned.

"It won't affect them... right?" Mrs. Fu said with a smile.

"Yes it does," Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Mrs. Fu looked at Fu Shengying and the Old Lady. "What about... going home?"

"But if we go home, when can we see the two children again?" Fu Shengying said worriedly.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while. "I will try my best, but it is not convenient for you to stay here."

Old Lady said, "Okay, let's go back, but they are your own children, you can't just watch someone else become their stepfather."

Fu Hanzheng looked calm and said as he looked around, "I will be staying here these next few days, and I will inform you when I can let you see the children."

"Make it soon." Fu Shengying urged.

He could only visit the two children one day at a time.

It would be best if he could persuade Gu Weiwei to let them take care of the children for a few days, so that they could spend more time with their grandchildren.

"I will try my best," Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

"You must try your best." Fu Shengying warned with a low voice.

He could ignore everything else, but he had never been so worried about his grandchildren..

Chapter 1300: Fu Hanzheng Returns 2

The Fu Family had not slept a wink since Fu Hanzheng returned.

In the morning, Fu Hanzheng rang the doorbell of villa seven.

The servant opened the door and continued to prepare breakfast.

Fu Hanzheng went straight to the bedroom on the first floor and then went to the nursery next door when he saw that no one was in the master bedroom.

His wife seemed to have just woken up and was putting on clothes for the two children before she washed herself up.

"Let me do it." He approached and took over the task of getting the children dressed.

Gu Weiwei was startled at the sight of him and let him take over.

"When did you arrive?"

"Last night," Fu Hanzheng said as he helped Youyou to get dressed.

Sitting next to them, Gu Weiwei was packing the children's clothes.

"Did you meet Old Lady?"

"Yes." Fu Hanzheng Youyou dressed and kissed his son's forehead. "As we expected, they are in a hurry."

"But they can't keep watching us," Gu Weiwei said.

Especially if he came over and they saw them being too intimate, they would definitely suspect that they were playing tricks.

"I told them to go home, they should be back at the old mansion soon," Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei let out a sigh of relief, got up and made milk for the two children. When she brought it in, Fu Hanzheng had already helped the two children to put on their clothes.

She fed the two children the milk and they started to drink it, staring at Fu Hanzheng.

"Honestly, if you didn't come home, I really wouldn't have been able to deal with it."

Old Lady and the others were very passionate about their grandchildren. She had thought that they would mention having custody of the children.

However, they only tested her intentions on the first day and did not mention it again, nor did they forcefully visit the two children.

But when she was taking the children out for a walk, they would follow her and look at the two children.

“Maybe in a few days, they can meet the children again,” Fu Hanzheng said.

“Sure, it is not that I don’t want them to meet the children,” Gu Weiwei said.

She did not object to Mrs. Fu and the rest seeing the children. The only reason she did not want them to see the children was because it was part of the plan to remarry.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her and kissed the top of her head.

“Thanks, Mrs. Fu.”

She had always been wronged when it came to the elders at home, but she had never expressed her displeasure to him.

Instead, she cooperated with him and understood him.

When he met the elders last night, he could tell from their expressions and words that they really wanted the two children to return to the Fu Family.

But they did not mention anything about remarrying. Although they were not as hostile towards her as before, they still had a grudge against her.

Gu Weiwei turned around, took hold of his waist and asked as she looked up, “You said one week, why are you late?”

Although it was just one day late.

“I had something to deal with, so I delayed my return,” Fu Hanzheng said helplessly.

But he did not tell her that it was because he had been delayed in Paris for a few days after she left that he had delayed his return.

They had been delayed in Paris for a few days. Although the collaboration was not ruined, they had suffered a huge economic loss.. However, in his opinion it was worth it.
