

MY HIDDEN 131

Chapter 131: The Real Thief

Luo Qianqian glanced at the prideful Zhu Xiaoqin and the other girls, and placed her phone upon Liu Jin's table.

In the video that played on the phone, the blonde girl approached Mu Weiwei and ordered her gang to besiege her after she invited Mu Weiwei into the forest.

In the video, it was not Mu Weiwei who sent the first punch or held the blade. It had always been her who was dodging the gang's attacks.

Of course, Luo Qianqian also filmed the video clearly and accurately.

The gang was only filmed from the hips upwards and avoided the motions of Mu Weiwei tripping them and kicking them.

So in this way, Mu Weiwei was not fighting anyone.

The three police officers said seriously after the video, "Director Liu, the truth is very clear, and you must not wrongfully accuse anyone."

When everyone else was testifying that Mu Weiwei was the criminal, they had turned out to be the culprits themselves after the video was shown.

"I..." Liu Jin was dumbfounded too.

He had tried to take advantage of the situation by lecturing her, especially because Mu Weiwei had embarrassed Zhou Linna which in turn also embarrassed the school.

But now Luo Qianqian had shown the video and slapped them right in the face.

Zhu Xiaoqin gritted her teeth, losing the arrogance that she had held just a minute ago.

They did not see Luo Qianqian before, how did she manage to take the video?

Gu Weiwei turned to Liu Jin and said with a cold voice, "Director Liu, can I leave now?"

She would not have tolerated, if not for the strict admission conditions of the Film Academy.

Liu Jin felt very humiliated when he, a director of the school, got embarrassed by a student like Mu Weiwei.

"Mu Weiwei, we did wrongfully accuse you for the fighting, but you also needed to be lectured because you stay too close to the boys."

More than one student had told him that Mu Weiwei and the boys stayed very close with one another.

Gu Weiwei laughed mockingly and asked.

“Just because they stuff those stupid letters into my drawer, I am close to them?”

Those girls, undoubtedly, had made up lies in front of Liu Jin.

“If that means staying too close to boys, then Zhou Linna seems to have the same problem these past years too, or... maybe Qin Lv as he gets even more letters from girls too.” Luo Qianqian countered.

“True, if that is a crime, then Zhou Linna and Qin Lv should all receive punishment too to show fairness!” Ji Cheng echoed.

Weiwei did not even read any of the letters before they were tossed into the dustbin.

And they even said that she was very close to boys, nonsense!

“You...” Liu Jin was lost for words.

Checking the time, Gu Weiwei asked impatiently.

“Anything else, Director Liu?”

Fu Hanzheng was on the way here!

Liu Jin was not convinced and didn't want to let her go so easily but he just couldn't find anything wrong with Mu Weiwei, so he became very annoyed.

At that moment, a young man with glasses dressed in a suit came in with a briefcase and placed his business card on the table.

“I am Mu Weiwei's lawyer Jiang Yu, I will take over the case regarding what has happened today.”

“Lawyer?”

Liu Jin took the business card and found that he turned out to be a lawyer of the biggest law firm in Hua Land – Shenghe Law Firm.

He looked at Gu Weiwei curiously – how was she able to afford a lawyer from Shenghe Firm?

“My client has signed with an agency company and regarding what happens today will affect the future of my client, so I will deal with the case through legal means.”

“Agency company?” Zhu Xiaoqin became so jealous that she almost crushed her teeth.

Mu Weiwei became very popular online after the livestream competition and now she had shamelessly signed with an agency company, after gaining popularity from the fall of Linna and Zheng Yuan!

Chapter 132: Boyfriend

Judging from the style of this man, Gu Weiwei could tell that he was sent by Fu Hanzheng.

Luckily, he had appointed his lawyer to come here as her parent instead of himself.

Jiang Yu asked Gu Weiwei about what had happened, verified with the three police officers on site and then said, “Mr. Liu and these students have already frightened my client and ruined my client's reputation, according to the law, you will not only get jailed for three to five years but also take over the economic responsibility.”

“I am the director teaching the students, there is nothing wrong with what I’ve done!”

“My client made not a single mistake but these people intended to attack and set up my client, but you, Mr. Liu refused to find out the truth and affirmed that my client had made a mistake. Is that what a teacher would do?” Jiang Yu was expressionless as he spoke in a sharp tone.

Zhu Xiaoqin and the other girls were startled too but when they thought about how they were still students, they said boldly, “We are still students, and according to the Underage Protection Law, we...”

“You are in your third year of high school and you are already eighteen-years old, you are no longer under the Underaged Protection Law and you are qualified to take legal responsibilities.” Jiang Yu snapped back without showing any mercy.

Liu Jin and Zhu Xiaoqin, as well as other girls, turned very pale at Jiang Yu’s words.

Jiang Yu’s phone buzzed and he picked it up, he then said to Gu Weiwei with his chin raised, “Miss. Mu, please leave it to me, you can go now.”

It did not take Gu Weiwei very long to figure out that Fu Hanzheng had texted him.

She did not need to do anything here, so she asked Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng to leave with her.

The moment they walked out of the campus, she received Fu Hanzheng’s text, asking her to go to the parking lot.

The moment she got into the car, Fu Hanzheng sized her up and asked, after being sure that she was not injured,

“Why were you in a fight?”

“Too many boys have written love letters to me and those girls were jealous so they wanted to fight me.”

Fu Hanzheng’s gaze turned cold. “Love letters?”

Gu Weiwei complained, failing to conceal her anger.

“Those imprudent children aren’t studying hard enough! They write love letters to me all the time, and it is not my fault!”

Fu Shiqin noticed the sunken face of his own brother as he was driving the car. He coughed loudly as a reminder.

When he learnt that she had written love letters to Qin Lv for a whole year, his brother had gotten so mad about it and when his brother heard from the bodyguards that she received love letters from boys all the time at school, he was almost on the verge of changing the school into an all girls’ school.

Did she really still want to finish high school well, when she mentioned the love letters again?

Startled, Gu Weiwei realized what Fu Shiqin meant, so she explained instantly...

“But I promise that I read none of them. I tossed them all straight into the trash!”

Immediately after, she regretted it instantly. What was she doing explaining the situation to him so nervously?

Fu Hanzheng looked a little less annoyed and said, “It’s good that you didn’t read them.”

Fu Shiqin had mentioned accidentally that he was much older than she was and that she might prefer boys of the same age, so it seemed to be a bit of a sensitive topic for him.

“Let’s go home, I am so hungry.” Gu Weiwei changed the subject.

She had just spoken when her phone rang again, she answered it in case it was from the filming crew but it turned out to be a young boy’s voice.

“Mu Weiwei, this is Xie Lin, I stole your phone number from my cousin’s phone.”

“...” Gu Weiwei’s lips twitched.

“There is a Manga Exhibition during the weekend, let’s go together.” Xie Lin invited her passionately.

“Manga Exhibition?” Gu Weiwei frowned – he was really a stay-at-home gamer.

“Yes, where do you live, I can pick you up.”

Gu Weiwei was just wondering how she could turn him down so as not to break the peace between them because Xie Lin had helped her before.

However, before she was able to say a single thing in response, Fu Hanzheng took the phone.

“She is not going.”

Startled for a few seconds, Xie Lin asked, “Who is this...?”

“Her boyfriend.”

Chapter 133: Frame One after Another

Three seconds later, Xie Lin ended the call of his own accord.

Fu Hanzheng cut off her relationship with just two lines and returned the phone to her.

“Are you trying to go on a date?”

Gu Weiwei took the phone and said in astonishment, “That is Qianqian’s cousin. He helped me last time and I can’t break the peace.”

“For men, not turning him down means giving him permission to court you.” Fu Hanzheng reminded her.

“...”

Gu Weiwei could not utter a single word to counter him.

The three people returned to Jinxiu Compound, and after dinner, Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiqin went back to the study to deal with work.

She returned to the room and started to revise by the window.

She glanced at the Chinese wisteria, down in the garden downstairs, that was shining under the bright light.

She could not help but be reminded of what had happened this morning and she felt her heart beating faster.

But that might not be her personal reaction. It must have been Mu Weiwei's physical reaction, not hers.

She was thinking this when the door was opened.

Fu Hanzheng walked in and saw her staring at the garden downstairs.

Seeing that she was gazing at the garden, he could not help but smile brightly.

He suddenly felt that his efforts from that night were worth his while.

"Still awake?"

Gu Weiwei came back to herself. "What... are you doing here?"

"I've got half an hour free." Fu Hanzheng said.

He had not thought that he was busy with work, but he had started to increasingly feel that he was way too busy with work these days.

So much so, that he did not have time to have a date with his girlfriend. Apart from the three hours at night and a brief meeting in the morning, they were just engaged in their own affairs.

"Is your stomach feeling better?" Gu Weiwei asked when she thought of this matter.

"Much better." Fu Hanzheng said.

He could not tell her that he was doing very well... Otherwise, she would not prepare the lovely lunch for him or remind him to eat every day.

"What do you want to eat tomorrow? I will make it later." Gu Weiwei said as she closed the book.

"Anything is fine, I am not particular about food." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei thought for a moment and decided to do it her own way. There were many things in the fridge for her to use to make a meal.

They were just talking when Fu Hanzheng's phone rang. He received the call, said a few words and then hung up.

Gu Weiwei caught a glimpse of the wallpaper on his phone and widened her eyes in astonishment.

She gripped his hand that was holding the phone and said, "Where did you get that?"

Where did he get the pictures of her kissing him?

“Shiyi took it, I can send it to you, if you like it.” Fu Hanzheng confessed.

“No, I don’t want it, delete it now, now!”

Gu Weiwei really thought that signing herself with Shiyi Culture was a bad decision.

Fu Shiyi was setting traps for her all the time!

“I like it very much.”

Meaning that he would not delete it.

“But you can’t use it as a wallpaper, your subordinates would think badly of it!” Gu Weiwei said helplessly at the sight of the cell phone.

“No one dares to think badly of it.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei said resolutely, as she held his hands tightly, “No more lunch tomorrow, if you don’t delete the picture now.”

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment and deleted the picture in front of her face.

“Now, I can keep my lunch, right?”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “I will make preparations for tomorrow’s lunch.”

Fu Hanzheng returned to the study, opened the chat history with Fu Shiyi and saved the picture once again.

Chapter 134: Fu Hanzheng, the Best-Looking Guy

The following morning after the morning session, the school announced the results.

Liu Jin was discovered to have received bribery from students, so he was expelled from his position.

The blonde girl was expelled by the school because of the constant fights that she had with others.

Zhu Xiaoqin and the other girls were criticized in public.

After hearing all of this, Ji Cheng came running over and said excitedly, “Weiwei, did you hear that? Those people deserve the punishment!”

Gu Weiwei smiled briefly – with Fu Hanzheng involved, those people would not be able to suffer any less than what they received.

In this way, she was able to finish the school year in peace.

“I walked past by Zhou Linna and her face looked so twisted!” Ji Cheng laughed wildly as she struck the table.

Some close friends told her the night before that Zhou Linna and Zhu Xiaoqin had instigated those girls to confront Mu Weiwei but those little girls were nothing, when Mu Weiwei was able to deal with those strong men the other day.

“Can’t you just study hard instead of gossiping so much?” Gu Weiwei laughed.

Ji Cheng did not look like someone who grew up in a highly ranked officer’s family, and if it had not been for the banquet she brought her to last time, she would have never expected that she was a girl from the Ming Family.

Ji Cheng looked about and saw that there was no one sitting around them, so she leaned forward and whispered, “Goddess, Fu Hanzheng is not your Uncle Fu, is he?”

Startled, Gu Weiwei asked, “Why do you say that?”

“Last time, we saw that he looked at you with a gaze full of passion, don’t lie to us any more.” Ji Cheng snorted, so she was hiding something from them.

“...” Gu Weiwei frowned.

A gaze full of passion?

Since when did Fu Hanzheng look at her with a gaze full of passion?

“So, you are in a relationship with President Fu, right?” Ji Cheng smiled sinisterly.

Gu Weiwei chuckled dryly. “You have read too many romantic novels!”

She did not think that she and Fu Hanzheng were really in a relationship right now.

“Are you not moved by such a good-looking President Fu, you live so close to him?” Ji Cheng said vividly.

Fu Hanzheng was the perfect lover among all the women in Hua Land, so what stopped her from sleeping with him when they shared the same roof?

Gu Weiwei looked calm. “There are so many good-looking men everywhere.”

“But President Fu is the best-looking!” Ji Cheng said excitedly.

Gu Weiwei chuckled and did not continue to explain.

She and Fu Hanzheng would not have a happy ending. She had her own goal to achieve.

Ji Cheng looked at her in confusion and approached.

“Goddess, maybe you are a lesbian?”

“What?” Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows – this girl thought way too much.

“You must be gay if you don’t like a good-looking man like President Fu!” Ji Cheng was guessing with a serious look on her face.

Gu Weiwei sighed and said, “I can’t like him, and I am not gay.”

Even if Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian were her best friends, she still could not tell them about being reborn.

No matter how much Fu Hanzheng adored her, she would have to be involved with the Gu Family when she took revenge on Ling Yan in the future.

By that time, her secret would be revealed and then he would no longer adore her like he did right now. She understood the great pain that was caused when you were betrayed by the one you love. Since she could not give him what he wanted, she could at least stop him suffering from such a deep misery.

Chapter 135: Li Xing'er, the Female Lead Role?!

The college entrance exam approached and Gu Weiwei spent all of her days doing intense revision.

Soon, the day for the first shoot of the Long Wind arrived.

The shooting time was in the afternoon, so she attended school in the morning and asked for half a day's leave, then she went to the address that Jolin sent to her.

Since the female lead role was still doing the shoot, the stylist came over to get her dressed.

"So pretty, this saves us lots of trouble."

Her skin was smooth and glowing, and her eyelashes were long and curled. Her facial features were exquisite and lovely.

All she needed was a light foundation and a small amount of eyeshadow.

Gu Weiwei smiled at the stylist through the mirror.

"You look pretty too, Sis."

The stylist smiled brightly when she was praised.

"Oh, you have a sweet mouth, you should have called me Aunt."

"Impossible, you are at most in your twenties, of course you should be addressed as Sis."

The stylist was very important when it came to the dressing of an actress, and she was not someone to be offended.

They were just talking happily when an assistant came running.

"Sis Xin, the female lead role needs additional makeup, please go over."

Sis Xin sighed deeply, "Why can't you do the additional makeup?"

She had to do the makeup of four roles – the female and male lead roles as well as the support roles, and she had to check other actresses' make up too, why must she do the additional make up for her in person?

"The shoot was not right, so a new one is needed."

Sis Xin finished the eye makeup for Gu Weiwei and put down the eyeliner.

"Then get her hair done and ask her to put on the dress."

Since Tang Shaoqi was in male clothes, the style and the clothes were quite simple and it was finished within a few minutes.

Since it was not her turn yet, she brought out the book and started to review it.

Almost an hour later, the female lead role went into the dressing room with two assistants and her face turned ugly when she saw Gu Weiwei sitting there.

“Mu Weiwei, is that you?”

Yes, it was Li Xing'er who was playing the female lead role of the Long Wind.

When she heard that Tang Shaoqi was going to be played by Mu Weiwei, she thought that it might be someone else who had the same name, not actually the girl that she knew.

But it turned out to be the one she detests.

Gu Weiwei glanced at Li Xing'er, she did not expect that Li Xing'er tried so hard to get the role for the Long Wind.

Li Xing'er passed by her and sat down as she said mockingly, “It seems that I have to thank you for getting me the role.”

“No need to thank me, you should thank your mother.” Gu Weiwei said with a sneer.

It seemed that Li Xing'er did not know that it had been her own mother who had gotten her the role.

However, Zhou Meiqin would never dare to reveal such a thing to anyone else.

Li Xing'er did not understand what she meant, but still snorted as she glanced at her.

“It seems that President Wang was satisfied by you, so you got the supporting role.”

She would not prevent her from being a supporting role, since she already helped her get the lead role.

The staff called out. “Tang Shaoqi, your turn now.”

Gu Weiwei put the book back into the bag and was about to leave, when Li Xing'er added, seeing that she had no reaction, “Oh yes, Grandpa Wei's birthday is just around the corner, and Brother Ziting is coming back, did you know that?”

Chapter 136: Good-Face for the Camera

It took Gu Weiwei a long time before realizing who Brother Ziting was.

When Mu Longsheng was still alive, he had made a baby engagement for Mu Weiwei.

The guy was five years older than her and was called Wei Ziting, the brother of Wei Ziqi.

But at the beginning of last year, Wei Ziting fell for Li Xing'er instead and broke off the engagement with her, to be with Li Xing'er.

The first TV-series Li Xing'er starred in was invested in by Wei Ziting.

Later on, Wei Ziting went to A Land to work at the branch company and he would definitely be returning home this year for Grandpa Wei's huge celebration for his birthday party.

Li Xing'er told her these things, just to show off the man she had stolen away from her.

The Wei Family were not as wealthy as the Fu Family, but it was still a top noble family in the capital of Hua Land.

So Li Xing'er used many methods to steal away Wei Ziting. Compared to Mu Weiwei who was imprudent and naughty, she was pure and lovely.

"Brother Ziting is home this time so we can get married, do remember to come to our wedding." Li Xing'er felt very prideful when she saw Mu Weiwei becoming so startled.

"I am too busy to watch your show." Gu Weiwei snorted.

"Yes, you are indeed busy. President Wang is in a coma, so you had better find your next sugar daddy." Li Xing'er said as she chuckled, "What about me... hooking someone up for you?"

"What about sparing them for yourself?" Gu Weiwei said as she left the makeup room for the studio.

The photographer took one picture and asked the assistant to give Tang Shaoqi the mask and said, "Hold the mask and show only half of your face."

Gu Weiwei took the mask and posed according to the photographer's request.

"Very good, show more emotion in your eyes."

"Turn to the left, one more picture."

"Put on the cloak and hood, turn your face to the side, channel that mystical and sinister personality."

...

The photographer became very excited as he took pictures and did not stop until his assistant asked him to.

He checked over the photos on the camera and glanced at Gu Weiwei in disbelief who was waiting for further instructions.

No wonder Director Yi insisted on using this woman. Her face was way too good for the camera and no photoshop was needed.

Although only half of her face was photographed for the mystical Tang Shaoqi, she did not need any guidance and yet, she had still managed to fully showcase the charm of this role.

Gu Weiwei blinked as she saw the photographer looking at her. "Do we need to do it again?"

"No, no, it is perfect." The photographer said with a smile.

He just couldn't believe that she was a person from the industry.

Jolin was quite excited at seeing this scene.

He had thought that he had signed a person with only looks going for them but it seemed that she was someone with ability.

Gu Weiwei thanked him. "Thanks, if it is done, I will leave now."

She thought that it would take a long time, but only two hours were spent on the makeup and photography.

She went back to the makeup room to get changed. Li Xing'er had just removed her makeup and gotten dressed, and she seemed quite friendly when someone else was around.

"Weiwei, see you in two months."

Without looking at her, Gu Weiwei went into the changing room and got changed. Then she walked out in her own clothes.

Seeing Li Xing'er leaving, Jolin asked curiously, "Li Xing'er greeted you, do you know each other?"

Gu Weiwei wiped off the lipstick with a red towel and said indifferently.

"Strictly speaking, she is my half-sister, same father, different mother."

Yes, Li Xing'er was two months older than she was.

So within a few months after Zhou Meiqin returned home, she had had an affair with Li Jiacheng who had just gotten married.

Chapter 137: Being Wronged.

Jolin poured her some water and dropped the glass when he heard the word.

"Sister?"

Gu Weiwei tied up her hair and said, "Let's find somewhere to talk."

They were in the same industry now and sharing the same film team as Li Xing'er, she would probably be wronged by her.

So it would be best to talk it through with her agent in case he was at loss of what to do.

Jolin could tell that something serious was going on, so he packed up and said, "I have a friend who owns a cafe, let's talk there."

Gu Weiwei nodded, picked up her bag and left with him. Then they sat down in a small booth by the window.

Then, she told him everything about the grudge between the Mu Family and the Li Family.

She narrated the story easily as if she were an outsider, but Jolin became so furious that he ordered two cups of ice coffee and almost flipped the table out of anger.

"Li Xing'er looks so pure and gentle, but she is so terrible underneath everything!"

“So I will probably be wronged by her in the future, I felt that I needed to tell you about it ahead of time.” Gu Weiwei took a sip of the fruit juice and smiled.

Jolin nodded constantly. “Yes, otherwise I would be at loss of what to do.”

He had not expected that a teenage girl like her had gone through so much.

“If something really happens, Brother Jolin, please do help me.” Gu Weiwei said as she clinked her glass with his coffee cup.

“Don’t worry, Third Master has high expectations of you, so I will do whatever I can to make you popular and trample Li Xing’er down below your feet.” Jolin said confidently.

Gu Weiwei smiled dryly. Luckily, Fu Shiyi did not tell other people that she was living with the Fu Family.

“You can just revise these next two months for the upcoming exams. We won’t arrange any events for you.” Jolin said.

He had a hunch that she could become popular with just Long Wind.

“Yes, I will work on the script when I have time.” Gu Weiwei said.

It was not going to be long before Ling Yan returned to the stage, so she must work on every film and every role she was involved with.

Only in this way would she be able to be as equally famous and high-level as her.

“Where do you live now, is it still safe?” Jolin thought of how Li Xing’er’s family sought her out to trouble her and said, “Should we arrange a place for you to stay?”

“No thanks, I am living with relatives, and we will be with the team in two months time, let’s see after the filming commences.”

She also wanted to move out, but before she was able to move out last time, Fu Hanzheng tore down the apartments.

If she mentioned moving out again, the same thing would happen, so she had better just stay put.

“If there is any trouble, contact me immediately.” Jolin stressed seriously.

Gu Weiwei nodded when the phone rang. She picked it up.

Fu Hanzheng’s low and elegant voice rose through the speaker. “Where are you?”

“I’m talking with my agent outside, I will come home now.” Gu Weiwei said.

Jolin could tell that she was talking with her relative.

Then he asked, “How about I talk with your relative?”

After hearing what had happened between her and the Li Family, he was still unassured about her living situation. He thought that he had better assure her safety.

Fu Hanzheng said, after he heard a man's voice from the other side of the phone, "See you later at home."

How dare Fu Shiyi arrange a man as her agent?!

Chapter 138: Alluring

Gu Weiwei checked the phone and found that it was not time for him to get off work. What was he doing at home?

Seeing that the man hung up the phone call, Jolin asked, "Give me the phone number of that relative, if I can't get in touch with you, I can at least find the place where you live."

"This..." Gu Weiwei said bitterly, "Is not very convenient."

Fu Hanzheng's phone should not be spread around.

Seeing her embarrassed expression, Jolin could tell that she was not living well under someone else's roof either.

So he made up his mind to find her a new place to live – she was suffering way too much.

Gu Weiwei turned down Jolin, who offered to drive her home, and instead took a taxi back to the apartment.

When she was on her way home, Fu Hanzheng made a call to Fu Shiyi unexpectedly.

Since Fu Shiyi was in the middle of something else, he was the last one to attend the first shoot of the Long Wind.

When he was in the middle of his shoot, his agent saw the caller ID of 'Dearest Brother', he could tell that it was from the big guy in the Fu Family.

Instead of delaying the call, he asked the photographer to call off the shoot and gave Fu Shiyi the phone.

"Third Master, an important phone call!"

Fu Shiyi glanced at the caller's name and went to pick it up in the makeup room with a smile.

"Bro, are you trying to ask me where you should bring your girlfriend on a date?"

"What made you think that you are capable of arranging a male agent for her?" Fu Hanzheng interrogated coldly.

Startled for two seconds, Fu Shiyi laughed when he realized what he was talking about.

"You mean Jolin? Don't worry, he is gay, and I think that he is more interested in you than in your girlfriend. You are the number one man he would very much love to sleep with..."

Jolin was the chief-agent in Shiyi Culture, and for his future sister-in-law, he was asked to support Mu Weiwei alone.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a few seconds and then ruthlessly hung up.

Then he called his subordinates in and dispatched the work.

When the work was finished, he checked the time and left for home from the office.

Seeing the pile of documents he had been given to deal with, Fu Shiqin also saw his own brother who was in a good mood and going home for a date.

He cursed inwardly at Fu Shiyi who had talked his own brother into having a date at home.

He had not even eaten anything all day yet Fu Shiyi had made a call to instigate his brother into having a date with Mu Weiwei!

Gu Weiwei had just entered the apartment when Fu Hanzheng returned.

“You... do not need to work?”

He had always been busy. What made him return so early?

“It is a rare occasion that you have time, let’s go on a date.” Fu Hanzheng put forward the purpose of his return.

She had been busy with exams and soon she would join the film team outside, so there was very little time left for them to have a date.

Therefore, he took advantage of her free time and left the remaining work to his subordinates and hurried home.

Sizing up this amazing-looking guy, Gu Weiwei said abruptly, “I have made up my mind to revise. We have a mock exam the day after tomorrow.”

She truly could not take him out when he looked like this.

“Just two hours, let’s watch a movie.” Fu Hanzheng said.

“It may not be ideal for you to go to the cinema, right?”

If he ever went to the cinema, would the audience be looking at the movie or him?

Didn’t he realize that he was a very alluring man?

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, “We have a family cinema downstairs.”

Gu Weiwei now remembered that Fu Shiqin said that only they lived here in this building.

So the first floor was a gym with an indoor swimming pool, the second floor was Fu Shiyi’s training room, and the third floor was a walk-in closet whilst the floor under them was a family cinema for Fu Shiyi to watch his own films.

“Okay then, let’s watch a movie.”

Chapter 139: Movie of Fu Shiyi

The two brought some snacks and drinks downstairs, and came to a minor family cinema.

“What do you want to watch?” Fu Hanzheng said, then he turned on the light and pulled down the blinds.

Gu Weiwei went to leaf through the movies on the shelf, wondering what Fu Shiyi’s movies were like, so she picked one that was recently in the cinema.

“Let’s watch this, Third Master’s latest movie.”

Fu Hanzheng took the movie and put it into the player. He turned off the light inside the room and sat down on the sofa.

Then he placed one arm over her back, and crossed his two long legs, he looked laid-back and casual.

It was a romantic comedy and was very humourous from the start.

Fu Shiyi might not be a very skilled actor, but he was not that bad either.

Gu Weiwei opened a bag of chips and watched the movie as she was eating, she laughed too when something funny was happening.

However, Fu Hanzheng, who was sitting next to her, was mostly watching her rather than the movie.

Seeing her eating chips constantly, he asked curiously, “Very tasty?”

Gu Weiwei gave him the bag and said, “Tastes okay, want to try it?”

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the chips and then lowered his head to eat the chip in her hands.

“Very tasty.”

“...”

She had asked him to eat the one from the bag, not the one from her hand.

Gu Weiwei put down the chips, opened a drink and took a sip.

“I need to go over the revision for class, so Aunt Wang can make your lunch, alright?”

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment and nodded unhappily.

“Yes.”

Although he preferred the lunch she made for him, she needed to go and revise and he did not want her to work over time.

“My agent says that in case some pictures will be taken of me, he will find me a safe place to live, so...”

“It is safe here.” Fu Hanzheng interrupted her unfinished words.

All in all, she was still planning to move out.

“What if pictures are taken of me when I’m here?” Gu Weiwei asked.

Of course this was the safest place but with him living here, she was not very safe any more.

“Then we can announce our relationship.” Fu Hanzheng said calmly.

“...” Gu Weiwei sighed helplessly.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the bitter faced girl.

“Is our relationship that embarrassing?”

“I don’t want people to say that I am successful because I have someone behind my back, I am capable by myself!” Gu Weiwei said with determination.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment and said, “You are capable enough to have someone like me behind your back.”

“I...” Gu Weiwei just could not counter his words, so she continued to watch the movie... But on the screen, at this exact moment, Fu Shiyi was kissing a girl passionately.

She took a sip of her drink feeling embarrassed and picked up a snack.

Fu Shiyi and the girl were done kissing and then they went into bed and started being more passionate with one another.

With the wonderful sound system in the cinema, the girl and the guy’s kissing and panting was heard everywhere.

It was so embarrassing.

Although the scene only lasted for a minute, she felt that she was no longer able to look Fu Shiyi directly in the eyes anymore.

“Do you need to do a kissing scene in the movie?” Fu Hanzheng asked coldly.

Gu Weiwei shook her head determinedly. “No.”

Although actresses should know how to make sacrifices, she definitely could not kiss Fu Shiyi!

“Good.” Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Or, he would beat Fu Shiyi to death.

Chapter 140: Dumb Brothers

Two hours were long enough for a movie and when the movie had finished, Fu Hanzheng got up from the sofa and put on his coat.

“I have a meeting at the company and I may be late home tonight.”

“Okay.”

Gu Weiwei saw him off and went back to the cinema, she found some famous movies by Yi An.

She watched two of the most famous ones carefully and analyzed his usual storyboard styles as well as filming features.

The day turned dark and the servant made a call and said that dinner was ready.

She finished the dinner alone and went back to studying again.

When Fu Hanzheng returned, she had already fallen asleep.

In the following month, she devoted herself to intensive studying.

She was either studying or reading, or reviewing the questions.

Fu Hanzheng also went to S Land because of the collaboration with the Wilson Group, and he was often away for dozens of days.

They barely met except for a phone call every night.

Since Fu Shiyi had accepted the role in the Long Wind, he had to do many other tasks ahead of schedule. He was so busy everyday that he barely came to the apartment.

That created a wonderful and cozy environment for Gu Weiwei to revise for the college entrance examination and soon the day finally came.

She finished the dinner, examined the pens and rules as well as her ID card and went to bed to rest.

The moment she reached the bed, Fu Hanzheng’s call arrived.

“Examination tomorrow?”

“Yes.”

“Everything ready?”

“Yes, everything is ready.”

“Call Xu Qian and ask him to pick you up tomorrow.”

“It is okay, the classroom is not very far away from here. I can go there myself.” Gu Weiwei had just finished speaking when she heard someone asking him to attend the meeting in English.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent and said, “Go to bed early and I wish you luck for tomorrow.”

“Thanks.” Gu Weiwei said and fell fast asleep when he ended the call.

The servant came and made her breakfast. Compared to the other students who were nervous, she seemed rather calm.

She ate breakfast and then found that the Chinese wisteria down in the garden had withered.

The moment she went out of the Jinxiu Compound, Xu Qian's car was already parked by the roadside and came towards her when he saw her coming out.

"Ms. Weiwei, boss has asked me to drive you to school."

"It would be best if you go to work, I can take a taxi there." Gu Weiwei turned him down politely.

She already told him that she was going there alone, Was he listening or not?

"Everyone has someone to drive them there, since boss is not inside the country and Second Master is not here, someone has to bring you there." Xu Qian said and opened the door for her.

Seeing that time was ticking, Gu Weiwei got into the car without saying anything more.

Xu Qian gave her a paper bag. "Third Master and Second Master asked me to bring it here to cheer you up!"

Gu Weiwei took it and her face sunk.

Fu Shiqin made a call and said excitedly, "Third Brother and I, asked Xu Qian to bring you something, did you get it?"

"Yes..." Gu Weiwei said, gritting the teeth.

Bracelet of the King of Luck?

Symbol of a Passed Grade?

Statue of the God of Culture and Literature?

They were indeed twin brothers, so dumb together!

Xu Qian took a glance at them and continued to drive on without taking another look.

"I asked the Grand Monk to do some magic tricks on them! It works pretty well!" Fu Shiqin said confidently.

"You better ask Grand Monk to do magic tricks on your heads instead!"

Gu Weiwei hung up, stuffed the things back into the bag and tossed them towards the back seat.
