

MY HIDDEN 1611

Chapter 1611: The Big Fish 3

After Luo Qianqian's parents saw the news, they came to the operation room of the hospital and waited anxiously.

Mother Luo kept blaming herself as she mumbled with reddened eyes, "You said that you would not be at home on your birthday, and you insisted on going on business. You have been away from home for so many days and something like this happens before you even return home.

"If I had known that this would happen, I would not have let her go out.

"You ran into the terror attack in Nice last time and now you run into this kind of thing when you are on your way home..."

....

Mr. Luo consoled his wife with a serious face.

"Everything will be fine, definitely."

Gu Yun Che came over to the operation room too. He sat in silence and looked at the tightly-shut door.

He still could not believe that a couple of hours ago, she was fine at the airport, but now she was in a car accident.

He managed to avoid her and was about to leave Hua Land, when he overheard her name as he was reading the news.

That was when he noticed the car accident on the news, and she was one of those who were injured.

The scene on the news flashed by, and what he saw was her being pushed into the ambulance and the wounded being sent to this hospital.

He should have been on the plane leaving Hua Land, but for some reason, he came to this hospital and sat here.

If he had not gone to Bangalore, she would not have run into such a terrible incident there.

If she had not gone to Bangalore, she would not have gotten into a car accident.

Thinking of this, he could not help but feel very guilty.

Luo Qianqian's parents were so worried about their daughter that they did not notice Gu Yun Che who was sitting next to them, let alone that he was there waiting for their daughter too.

The light in the operating room was on and they had to wait anxiously outside.

Yuan Meng felt sorry to see Luo Qianqian's parents worried about their daughter.

But she was also afraid that she would be exposed in front of Gu Yun Che, so she had to conceal everything from the two elders.

A few hours later, the light went out.

The door of the operation room opened and He Chi came out with several medical staff, pushing Luo Qianqian out of the room.

“Who is Luo Qianqian’s family?”

“We are, we are her parents.”

Luo Qianqian’s parents hurried over. Seeing her pale face, Mrs. Luo could not help but shed tears.

With one arm around his wife, Mr. Luo asked nervously, “Doctor, how did the surgery go?”

“Luckily, she got here in time and the operation was successful. She is going to the intensive care unit now,” He Chi said as he threw a look at Gu Yun Che who was staring at them too.

It turned out to be that Gu man whom Fu Hanzheng spent so much effort upon.

In order to put on a show of sympathy and lure him here, he had spent a great deal of money on the car accident and the news report.

Luckily, the money was not spent in vain, and this man still came to visit her.

When the two elders of the Luo Family heard that the operation was successful, they bowed to He Chi gratefully.

“Thank you, thank you.”

“Thank you, Doctor. You are the savior of my daughter and our family.”

....

He Chi laughed dryly and urged the staff to send Luo Qianqian back to the intensive care unit and said, “Here are Luo Qianqian’s personal things, you can keep them for her.”

Having said the words, someone brought over Luo Qianqian’s luggage, backpack and other stuff.

Mrs. Luo took over the bag and dropped the doll. But she did not have time to care about that.

Gu Yun Che picked up the doll and ran after her.

“Hello, this is your daughter’s, it dropped on the floor.”

Luo’s mother took it over. “Thanks, my daughter cherishes this doll very much.”

Chapter 1612: Dead

??

Luo Qianqian did not open her eyes, but she could still hear the noises around her.

When she heard the anxious voices of her parents, tears welled up in her eyes.

It was so unfilial of her to have made her parents worry about her because of her waywardness.

She really wanted to open her eyes and tell her parents that she was fine, but she just could not open her eyes because of the sedative.

After hearing her parents' voices, she suddenly heard that familiar voice again, making her fingers shiver.

He was here, he was really here.

She had thought that after he left, she would never be able to find him again.

She did not have much hope when Yuan Meng suggested this plan to her.

But she had never expected that he would really be here.

If he returned to her, did that mean that he was at least a little bit concerned about her?

He Chi and the staff members wheeled her to the intensive care unit and installed all kinds of monitoring equipment.

Mrs. Luo asked nervously, "Doctor, when will my daughter wake up?"

"In four or five hours, just one person being here will do," He Chi said as he caught sight of Gu Yun Che outside the ward.

He told the two elders of the Luo Family about a series of things to take note of, and then he came to a stop next to Gu Yun Che.

Seeing that he was free, a colleague asked He Chi, "Doctor He, I heard that the patient is the youngest acclaimed songwriter in Hua Land for the past two years?"

"I think so. She is pretty, but also very lucky. If she had not been with me, she would have died," he said as he sized up Gu Yun Che's expression through the reflection in the glass shelf.

Sure enough, Gu Yun Che's face changed when he heard what he said,

"Really? Is she so young?" The nurse gossiped.

"She is out of danger now, isn't she? What a pity, she is too young and pretty to be injured before being married."

He Chi leafed through the list of nurses' notes and observed Gu Yun Che discreetly.

"Doctor He, are you trying to court her because she is young and pretty?" The nurse teased.

"Why not, if she doesn't have a boyfriend?" He Chi snorted.

The moment he said those words, Gu Yun Che threw a cold look at him, making his hair stand on end.

"It is late, I am getting off work now, see you tomorrow."

Seeing that he had stimulated enough people, He Chi greeted his colleagues and left, pretending that he had not noticed Gu Yun Che.

However, he did not leave the hospital directly after work but went straight to the surveillance room of the hospital.

Yuan Meng was sitting there with her legs crossed, eating snacks and smoking, when she saw him coming.

“What did you just say? What did you do?”

“I said: because Luo Qianqian doesn’t have a boyfriend, I will go after her when she recovers.” He Chi enjoyed her snacks without hesitation.

With the cigarette between her fingers, Yuan Meng laughed so hard that her shoulders shook. “Very good! But you can only say whatever you want. If you really go after her, you will die young.”

She could tell that Gu Yun Che was going to kill him even through the screen.

“That was for him to hear. I am not going to court someone who doesn’t like me.” He Chi snorted.

Seeing him being so aware, Yuan Meng nodded in admiration.

“It is late, leave now.”

“What time is it now? I can’t sleep for more than a few hours at home. I have to come to work at dawn, so I am not going home,” He Chi said as he threw himself onto the sofa, ready to sleep there.

Chapter 1613: Trick

He Chi was sleeping on the sofa in the surveillance room, whilst Yuan Meng was staring at Gu Yun Che on the computer for the entire night. And low and behold Gu Yun Che did stay at the hospital throughout the entire night.

But he did not visit Luo Qianqian in the ward, probably because he was worried about the Luo Family.

Luo Qianqian woke up at dawn. Her parents were by her bedside and they were very pleased to see her.

“Dad, mom, I am fine, don’t worry.”

“You say that you are fine, but you run into trouble when you are out of the capital. You are not allowed to go abroad any more!” Mrs. Luo said firmly.

Luo Qianqian thought for a while and realized that it was true that the moment she left Hua Land, she would run into all kinds of unfortunate things abroad.

“Alright, alright, I am not going,” Luo Qianqian said with a smile.

Hearing her words, Luo’s mother sighed.

“You scared me and your father to death.”

“I am sorry for being unfilial.” Luo Qianqian felt very guilty.

For her own selfish reasons, she caused her parents to be worried that she was at the hospital and caused them to be unable to sleep for the entire night.

“Alright, as long as our daughter is alright, let’s not talk about it any more.”

Seeing his daughter lying in bed and apologizing to them, Mr. Luo interrupted his wife’s nagging concern.

Mrs. Luo packed up her bag, got up and said, “Then stay here with your daughter, I need to get some things from home. I came in a hurry yesterday and did not prepare anything.”

The moment she walked out of the ward, she saw Gu Yun Che standing in the corridor. She slowed her steps as she passed by him.

“Hello, do you need any help?”

She had been out of the ward several times and she had seen him here since the night before.

He did not look like a patient or a family member of the other patients.

“No thanks.” Gu Yun Che shook his head.

Mrs. Luo was in a hurry to go home, so she did not ask anything more. Instead, she went to the elevator to leave the hospital.

Lying in the sickbed, Luo Qianqian knew that Gu Yun Che had been to the hospital the night before, but her father did not know about her relationship with Gu Yun Che, so she did not ask him anything.

At eight in the morning, He Chi went to the ward for ward rounds and asked about how she was doing after she woke up.

Then he asked Mr. Luo and the nurse to check the mild blood pressure.

When Luo Qianqian’s father went to the nurse’s station, he asked with a mysterious smile, “Are you curious about where Mr. Gu is?”

Luo Qianqian gazed at him. “You know about it?”

“He has been standing in the corridor for the entire night, and he is still here,” He Chi whispered.

“Out in the corridor?” Luo Qianqian was startled and asked, “He was here the entire night?”

He Chi nodded. “True, just like a log.”

Luo Qianqian let out a long sigh of relief and looked hopeful. But when she thought of what happened at the airport the day before, she looked dim again.

“We have put on a show for you, and you are on your own now. Don’t expose yourself to your family or that Gu person,” He Chi said and saw Luo Qianqian’s father coming in with the nurse. “When the infusion is done, help her to the corridor to exercise.”

“Exercise? Can she do that now?” Mr. Luo asked.

“Of course, otherwise the intestine will get stuck, and if it gets too serious, there will be an obstruction. She needs to exercise for 30 minutes.”

Having said these words, He Chi left the ward for the meeting.

He had just left when Yuan Meng arrived.

Chapter 1614: Not That Way

Yuan Meng came and gave breakfast to Luo Qianqian's father.

"Uncle, you stayed up all night, eat something."

"Thank you for visiting me so early in the morning." Mr. Luo sounded very grateful.

Yuan Meng smiled. "It is what I should do. Thank you so much."

For the sake of Gu Yun Che, they even lied to the two elders of the Luo Family and made them worried about their daughter for the entire night.

Mr. Luo looked at the infusion and said, "Qianqian, I will help you off the bed after I eat something."

"No need, Uncle, take a rest after eating, I will help her off the bed," Yuan Meng said as she helped Luo Qianqian get off the bed.

"Oh my gosh, thank you so much." Mr. Luo tried to help them, feeling too embarrassed to ask anyone to take care of their daughter.

"Dad, you have not slept for the entire night. Eat something and take a rest, Sister Yuan Meng can keep me company." Luo Qianqian added.

Mr. Luo thanked Yuan Meng repeatedly and saw them off.

Yuan Meng helped Luo Qianqian out of the room and the moment they came to the door, they saw Gu Yun Che who was still in the corridor.

Gu Yun Che had been paying attention to this room and got startled when he saw Yuan Meng helping her out.

Luo Qianqian looked at him from a distance and was about to greet him, when Yuan Meng stopped her.

"Let's go this way," Yuan Meng said as she helped Luo Qianqian to the other side of the corridor instead of heading towards Gu Yun Che.

They came to the end of the corridor and Luo Qianqian took a rest with her hands supporting her against the wall.

"I want to go and say hi."

"No, leave him alone." Yuan Meng objected.

"But he has been here the entire night," Luo Qianqian said worriedly.

Yuan Meng glared at her. "You are way too passionate for the man to be convinced. He should be ignored now."

"What if he leaves again..." Luo Qianqian said and turned to the man at the other end of the corridor.

“Don’t look at him.” Yuan Meng stopped her and said with a low voice, “Men are all b*tches. The more passionate you are to them, the less they know how to cherish you. Leave him alone now, treat him as air and he will wake up.”

“But...” Luo Qianqian felt that she was not capable of doing that.

“No buts, listen to me, you were too close to him before.” Yuan Meng glanced in the direction of Gu Yun Che and said, “You can’t court a man in this way, you must be smart enough to get hold of his heart.”

“...”

Luo Qianqian was confused. It was the first time for her to court a man and she knew nothing about it.

She always said whatever came to her mind and did whatever she wanted to do, unlike Yuan Meng who had so many tricks up her sleeves.

“Let’s go back down the corridor and when you’re right in front of him, ignore him,” Yuan Meng said as she helped her to move about in the corridor.

She told Luo Qianqian what to do and ignored Gu Yun Che as she walked past him with her arms supporting her.

Gu Yun Che had thought that she was here to talk with him, but she walked past him without saying a word.

Luo Qianqian paced back and forth in the corridor. She had not eaten anything since she left Bangalore and now, one day had passed and she was getting very tired.

Every time she walked back and forth, she had to take a long rest against the wall.

But the doctors and nurses had asked her to exercise for thirty minutes and she had only been exercising for ten.

She walked two more times and her legs gave way. When she was just a few meters away from Gu Yun Che, she almost fell to the ground.

Yuan Meng had just helped her up when Gu Yun Che, who had been behind them, rushed over and helped her up.

Chapter 1615: Not That Way 2

The moment Luo Qianqian felt the hand over hers, she felt tears welling up in her eyes. She tried hard to hold back the tears.

Then she withdrew her hand with pursed lips and whispered, “Didn’t you leave?”

Gu Yun Che looked apologetic. “How are you?”

“I am fine, not dead.” Luo Qianqian looked away, fearing that her eyes would reveal what she was thinking. “Didn’t we end things yesterday? Don’t waste your time here.”

Standing next to her, Yuan Meng thought highly of her performance.

See? This man ignored her when she was courting him.

But now she ignored him and he presented himself to her.

Hehe, men.

“I am sorry, I should not have done that yesterday,” Gu Yun said.

If he had known that something like this would happen, he would not have said those words and left without her.

She had been looking for him at the terminal and he saw it, but he did not go out to meet her.

It was not until she left did he feel assured enough to leave.

But unexpectedly, before he boarded the plane, he saw the news of her car accident.

“I should not have pestered you. Thank you for your help, I will not disturb you any more.”

Having said these words, Luo Qianqian asked Yuan Meng to walk with her.

At the end of the corridor, Yuan Meng was surprised. “You did a good job.”

With her hands against the wall, Luo Qianqian said with a sunken heart, “Maybe, from the beginning, I really should not have disturbed his peaceful life.”

He was totally different from everyone else in the world, living peacefully in his own world and doing his own thing.

But because of her, everything was messed up.

After spending the entire night in the sickbed, she had realized something.

“What do you mean? Now he is here for you and you want to break up with him?” Yuan Meng asked in astonishment.

Seriously? They had tried so hard to get Gu Yun Che back, but she did not want to stay with him anymore?!

“We were never together, so how did we break up?” Luo Qianqian said with a self-mocking smile.

All this while, he had never agreed to be with her when she kept courting him.

“He did not object, so he agreed to be together.” Yuan Meng analyzed.

Having said these words, she turned around and found that Gu Yun Che was still there.

Luo Qianqian chuckled. “It is not a relationship.”

Yuan Meng thought for a while, took out the phone and texted someone. Within ten minutes, He Chi arrived after the meeting.

Then he called Luo Qianqian's father to the office.

She helped Luo Qianqian over to Gu Yun Che and said with a smile, "I need to go out for something urgent, please take care of her."

Gu Yun Che was startled. "Me?"

"If you don't want to take care of her, then just leave her. The nurse will drag her back to the ward if she falls and passes out." Having said these words, Yuan Meng left directly without waiting for his reply.

"Sister Yuan Meng!"

Luo Qianqian had not expected that she would make such a fuss. She was about to call her back when Yuan Meng entered the elevator.

Gu Yun Che reached out for her. "Will you still be walking in the corridor?"

"No, I am going back to the ward," Luo Qianqian said and was about to lie down from pain with one hand against the wall.

"But didn't they tell you to stay in the corridor for 30 minutes?" Gu Yun Che said.

"I don't want to."

Luo Qianqian struggled to move her hands along the wall, but the wound made her gasp in pain.

Chapter 1616: Her Boyfriend

"What is it? Should I call the doctor?"

Seeing her sweating in pain, Gu Yun Che suddenly got nervous.

Luo Qianqian shook her head and did not come back to herself until a few minutes later.

"Help me back to the room, the wound hurts."

Gu Yun Che helped her back to the ward by putting her arm over his shoulders and sat her down on the bed.

Then he wiped off the sweat on her face with a napkin.

"Feeling better?"

Luo Qianqian pulled the blanket over herself and said, "Much better, you can leave now, my father will be back soon."

"I won't leave before you are discharged," Gu Yun Che said firmly.

At this moment, he thought that even if he could leave, he still wouldn't be far away.

"If you don't leave now, what will my parents think when they see a man in my ward?" Luo Qianqian said coldly.

However, Gu Yun Che did not leave but sat down in the chair next to the bed.

In the control room of the hospital, Yuan Meng was watching the camera, whilst smoking.

“I told you that it would work if they are left alone.”

That man left just like that the day before but now he was not leaving even if she asked him to.

But if he stayed, they would have to be careful to make sure he didn't discover that Luo Qianqian was not injured in a car accident but had an appendectomy instead.

Men did not like being lied to, especially not by women.

Otherwise, if he was able to learn the truth this time and left, he might not be fooled again.

Thinking of this, she texted He Chi and stressed her concerns to him.

He Chi was pestering Luo Qianqian's father in the office so that Luo Qianqian and Gu Yun Che could meet.

He Chi replied directly after reading the message.

[Unless he takes off her clothes like a monster, he would never know about it.]

Yuan Meng warned him.

[You said it! You will have to take responsibility if anything happens.]

He Chi sent an angry emoji – [You think I am a pushover?]

He had done everything he could.

Everything else was out of his control and yet he had to take responsibility if anything happened?! He did not want to be a scapegoat at all!

Yuan Meng: [Yes.]

Luo Qianqian's father looked at He Chi who was playing with his phone. “Anything else, Doctor He? I need to take care of my daughter.”

“Oh yes, there is something else.” He Chi put down the phone and told Luo Qianqian's father everything that happened the day before.

It was not until Luo Qianqian's father received a call from Luo Qianqian's mother, asking him to go downstairs to get the things, did he release him.

Luo Qianqian's parents were carrying bags of things upstairs, when they saw a young man sitting in front of their daughter's sickbed.

And it was the man who sat with them outside the operating room the night before.

“Qianqian, the doctor says...”

Luo Qianqian's mother looked at Gu Yun Che in astonishment. “What is this gentleman doing here?”

“Sister Yuan Meng went out to deal with something, so he saw me inside.” Luo Qianqian explained.

“Oh, thank you.” The two elders of the Luo Family thanked him politely and said, “We can do it ourselves now. You can go about your work, we won’t keep you any longer.”

But Gu Yun Che had no intention of leaving.

Luo Qianqian’s mother frowned. “Sir, are you... Qianqian’s friend?”

This man was also outside the operating room the day before.

It seemed that Qianqian was the only operation happening on that floor last night.

He had been in the corridor the night before and did not visit any other patients. He did not seem to leave to go home at night either. After all, this was not like waiting outside the emergency room.

Gu Yun Che said calmly, “I am her boyfriend.”

Chapter 1617: Boyfriend

“...” Luo Qianqian’s mother was dumbfounded.

Luo Qianqian’s father’s hand shook and the cup he was holding fell to the ground.

However, Luo Qianqian herself was the most shocked one. She turned to Gu Yun Che who had spoken, out of astonishment.

“What... are you talking about?”

“I saved you, took care of you and stayed with you for so many days, so we are basically boyfriend and girlfriend now,” Gu Yun answered with her own words.

Luo Qianqian was still confused. He had turned her down at the airport and wanted to leave her.

But now he was here telling her that he was her boyfriend?!

“Living together?!” Luo Qianqian’s father sized them up in disbelief and asked angrily, “When did you two start living together?”

“Dad, he is lying.” Luo Qianqian explained anxiously.

However, Gu Yun Che said straightforwardly, “Before she came back yesterday.”

“Before... yesterday?” Mrs. Luo sized them up and mumbled, “You spent so much time abroad with him?”

“Qianqian, we have told you so many times that we don’t object to you being in a relationship, but a girl should always have pride and self-love...” Luo Qianqian’s father was so frightened by this new boyfriend.

Luo Qianqian sighed and explained.

“We are living in the same apartment, not the same room. Dad, you are thinking too much.”

Luo Qianqian’s mother sat down with her hands shaking.

“No, no this is too much, please let me take a rest.”

Although they had suspected that she might have got a boyfriend.

But unexpectedly, this boyfriend popped up out of nowhere.

“Dad, mom, don’t listen to him, we are not together.” Luo Qianqian explained.

Before yesterday, she had been looking forward to being his girlfriend.

But at this moment, she was not that happy.

Did she approve of him claiming to be her boyfriend in front of her parents?

“We are.” Gu Yun Che stressed.

“Who said that we should stop hanging out with each other at the airport yesterday? Is that really a proper thing to do?” Luo Qianqian squinted at him.

Luo Qianqian’s mother said suspiciously, “Was your car accident yesterday because of him?”

“No, it was just an accident.” Luo Qianqian explained guiltily.

She could not possibly tell them that the news of the car accident was false and that she had just had an appendectomy.

Luo Qianqian’s mother came back to herself and she forced a smile at Gu Yun Che.

“Sir, we have some family matters to discuss with our daughter, can you leave us alone?”

“Sure.” Gu Yun Che stood up and left the room, but he did not go far.

The moment he left, the two elders of the Luo Family had their eyes upon the girl in the sickbed.

“What is going on? Tell us!”

“I told you clearly that he is not my boyfriend,” Luo Qianqian said.

He had not talked with her the day before and now he was saying that he was her boyfriend.

She was not going to admit that he was her boyfriend before she got the answer herself.

“You say no, he says yes, but who is telling the truth?” Luo Qianqian’s father asked.

“Dad, do you not trust your own daughter but trust an outsider instead?” Luo Qianqian countered.

The two elders of the Luo Family exchanged a look and did not ask anything more, taking into consideration that she had just gone through surgery.

“Anyway, tell us the truth when you recover.”

Chapter 1618: Taking over the Family

At the beginning, Yuan Meng was watching the CCTV at the hospital, but she missed the show when she went to the film site where Gu Weiwei was making the MV for Fu Shiyi.

Gu Weiwei finished the filming of the MV in the capital city and finished the work early in the afternoon.

She, Fu Shiyi and the Director of the Planning Department discussed the post-production of the MV as well as the details of the editing. Then she joined Yuan Meng in the car.

Since Yuan Meng spent the night at the hospital awake, she went to sleep in the car.

So she had no idea when the filming had finished.

Gu Weiwei pulled open the door and pushed the woman sleeping in the back seat.

“Hello, wake up.”

Yuan Meng yawned and squinted at her.

“What is it?”

“Let’s go to the hospital to see Qianqian.” Gu Weiwei urged.

Yuan Meng yawned and did not even get up.

“Just drive, I am still sleeping, I don’t want to run anyone over.”

Gu Weiwei sighed, closed the back door and went into the driver’s seat.

Then she drove herself to the hospital where He Chi worked.

“You went to the hospital last night?”

“Yes, I did, it was lively.” Yuan Meng was resting with eyes closed.

“Lively? How was it lively?” Gu Weiwei mumbled as she was driving.

Without opening her eyes, Yuan Meng said, “The big fish came, of course.”

Gu Weiwei came back to herself and asked, “Gu Yun Che went to the hospital?”

“Not only that, he is probably still there,” Yuan Meng said gladly.

She had to admit that Fu Hanzheng was indeed smart.

If they allowed that Gu man to leave, Luo Qianqian might not be able to see him again for ages, and by the time they met again, their relationship would have faded away.

But within a couple of hours, Gu Yun Che had delivered himself to Luo Qianqian’s doorstep.

Gu Weiwei just could not believe it. She still remembered vividly how Gu Yun Che insisted on cutting off the relationship with Luo Qianqian at the airport the day before, and now he was back within 24 hours.

“It seems that the fake news from yesterday did scare him.”

“But he volunteered to be here, no one forced him.” Yuan Meng snorted.

He Chi had told him on purpose that Luo Qianqian was seriously injured this time, so that he would know that he had almost lost Luo Qianqian.

Then no matter how dumb he was, he should be able to understand something.

Gu Yun Che was the man who gave Gu Siting the Nine Eyed Pearl, and Gu Weiwei was still worried about this man.

“Is this man really suitable for Qianqian?”

“Since when was love a proper thing?” Yuan Meng woke up properly and yawned as she sat up. “Now Qianqian likes him and he has feelings for Qianqian too. Everyone is happy.”

They were a couple, and with Luo Qianqian around, they did not have to worry about him helping Gu Siting.

“You have not found out where he is from. If Qianqian is with him, she might be in danger,” Gu Weiwei mumbled.

Yuan Meng was amused. “Why are you more worried than her own mother?”

As far as she was concerned, anyone in the world would be in danger when facing Gu Yun Che, except for Luo Qianqian.

Gu Weiwei glared at her through the rear-view-mirror, stayed silent for a moment and said suddenly, “How is Dorrans?”

“It is so rare that you care about him.” Yuan Meng looked at her with a smile and asked, “What do you think? Do you want to take over the family and become the boss?”

Gu Weiwei sighed. “I do.”

Because she wanted to kill that annoying Gu Siting.

Chapter 1619: Gu Siting's Death

Hearing the idea, Yuan Meng leaned forward excitedly.

“Don't just think about it. If I had such a father, I would also take over the family and become the boss.”

Also, when Cayman Dorrans was getting rid of the enemies, Yuan Shuo was also wondering if he was going to get rid of the Dorrans Family members, so that Weiwei could take care of it.

After all, there was no heir left in the clan.

“I was just wondering if I can fight against Gu Siting if I have the Dorrans Family.” Gu Weiwei looked lethal.

Gu Siting never gave up. If he were alive, he would definitely fight with her and the Fu Family for the rest of his life.

But Fu Hanzheng would not allow her to do anything to him.

She was just in the entertainment zone, and it was totally impossible for her to deal with the Gu Family.

"If he could be killed, Cayman would have done it ages ago." Yuan Meng reminded her.

She had learned from Gu Yun Che that she was reborn because of Gu Siting and their lives were tied together.

If Gu Siting died, she might not live either.

That was why Cayman had not killed Gu Siting.

"I was just thinking about it," Gu Weiwei said calmly.

.....

Having said these words, she turned into the parking lot of the hospital, parked the car, put on some sunglasses, a hat and a mask before getting out of the car.

They went to the inpatient building where Luo Qianqian was staying. The moment they came out of the elevator, they saw Gu Yun Che standing in the corridor.

Gu Weiwei sized him up and entered Luo Qianqian's ward.

"Uncle, Aunt, we are here to see Qianqian."

The two elders of the Luo Family knew her, so they asked her to sit down.

"You three chat, we'll go and buy some daily necessities."

"Okay."

Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile and watched the two elders leaving the ward.

Yuan Meng sized up this dumb-headed woman who was smiling brightly in bed.

"I was out for just a few hours, what happened? Why are you so happy?"

Luo Qianqian smiled and whispered, "Just now, he admitted to my parents that he is my boyfriend."

"Damn!" Yuan Meng was shocked.

She had thought that it would take some time before she was able to get him, but now he admitted it himself.

And he even admitted it in front of her parents. That was a sure thing.

"Really?"

Gu Weiwei just could not believe that a couple of hours later, their relationship had come to this stage.

Luo Qianqian nodded. "But I haven't agreed."

"Of course not." Yuan Meng snorted.

Luo Qianqian glanced at her. "I just want to know why he said that, not because I want to take advantage of him."

“He must have realized that he has fallen for you, why else?” Yuan Meng said.

But it was way too fast.

It was only two days ago that he had cut off all contact with her.

It had only been a couple of hours since she woke up and he was already calling himself her boyfriend in front of her parents.

Luo Qianqian smiled but did not think that was the case.

Gu Weiwei also tried to persuade her. “You need to think carefully about such an important matter.”

Yuan Meng suddenly turned to Gu Weiwei. “Honestly, you don’t wish them well at all and you’re even asking her to think it over. What if the plan fails?”

Now that Gu Yun Che had acknowledged their relationship, of course they had to continue with the development.

Chapter 1620: True Love

Gu Weiwei smiled and said, “If she truly likes him and wants to be with Gu Yun Che, then of course I wish her all the best.”

After all, she had to be worried after knowing who that man was.

“What if you don’t like him anymore but he keeps running after you?” Yuan Meng said to Luo Qianqian.

If she did not like him, they would not force her to date Gu Yun Che.

“I really like him, but I want to know why he said that,” Luo Qianqian said with a smile and sighed. “But my parents don’t seem satisfied, so they forbid him from coming in any more.”

“He would definitely not be liked by the elders either,” Yuan Meng said.

Gu Weiwei thought of Gu Yun Che’s background and got very worried about their future.

“Qianqian, this man is very dangerous, we don’t know where he is from, you...”

“I know,” Luo Qianqian said resolutely, “I knew it the first time when I met him, but he treats me very well... extremely well.”

When they first met in Nice, he had solved so many armed criminals within such a short time, so of course she knew how dangerous he was.

But he had not done anything to hurt her.

If there was one thing, it would be that he turned her down and did not like her.

“Just think about it carefully.” Gu Weiwei smiled and said when she saw her looking well, “When you get better, let’s talk about something. I have kept something from you and Ji Cheng.”

.....

Luo Qianqian was very open-minded and she said with a smile, "Everyone has their own secrets that can't be revealed, and I have hidden the truth from you too. We are the same, you don't have to tell me anything."

She kept secrets from her parents, let alone her friends.

She and Ji Cheng had sensed it a long time ago, but they did not ask her about it.

But what she had not expected was that there was one thing she truly wanted to tell her.

"But it is related to Gu Yun Che, so you should know about it," Gu Weiwei said.

If she was with Gu Yun Che, then she should know about her being Gu Weiwei and the Nine-Eyed Pearl that was given to Gu Siting.

"It's related to him?" Luo Qianqian was startled.

"Don't think too much, she is not in any way in a relationship with him, but we are talking about the origin of Gu Yun Che." Yuan Meng explained instantly, fearing that she would think too much.

Luo Qianqian nodded thoughtfully. "Okay, we will talk about it after I am discharged."

"Ji Cheng has a test today, so that's why she is not at the hospital with us. She may be late," Gu Weiwei said.

She had wanted to bring Ji Cheng here, but Ji Cheng was just getting ready for the test when she called. She said that she would come straight after the test in the afternoon.

"Okay." Luo Qianqian nodded.

Gu Weiwei checked the time and asked with a light smile, "Should I call him in while your parents are not here?"

Luo Qianqian said straightforwardly, "That is what I have been waiting for."

"Oh, so she doesn't really want to meet us, but the person outside."

Gu Weiwei smiled at her, got up and went to call Gu Yun Che in for her.

Gu Yun Che had been paying attention to Luo Qianqian's room and spotted her the moment she came out with Yuan Meng.

Gu Weiwei approached him. "Mr. Gu, go and keep her company."

Gu Yun Che bowed to her and walked towards the room. After a few steps, he turned around and said, "You should be careful."
