

MY HIDDEN 281

Chapter 281: Alone in the House

The Old Lady was not like Mrs. Fu, who was a housewife that took care of the family.

She might look kind and affable right now, but when Grandpa Fu passed away years ago, it had been her who had stepped forward to keep control of Fu's Enterprise, that was going through an unsteady time, so that the Fu Family managed to get over the difficult period.

Therefore, her words weighed heavily in the family.

So even Fu Hanzheng, who had always made his own decisions, would need to respect her on some occasions.

Also, just as she had said, if it had not been for her who had brought Gu Weiwei to the Fu Family, she would not have appeared in his world at all.

Fu Hanzheng could not find a single word to argue back with, so he stopped talking but kept counting down the time until when she would leave.

At first, the Old Lady was here helping her two grandsons but when Gu Weiwei returned, the two grandsons turned as invisible as air and when Mu Weiwei made a fuss back at the Fu Family, she did not hate her at all.

So now, when she was cute and understanding, she loved her even more.

"I watched the movie, you did well and you looked so amazing at the film festival!"

Grandma Fu knew everything about what was going on with her in the entertainment news so even if she wasn't in the capital city, she still kept eyes out for her.

Fu Hanzheng checked the time several times and found that his grandma still had no intention of leaving.

"Grandma, it is getting late, maybe you should leave now."

The Old Lady checked the time and found that it was truly getting late, so she got up holding Gu Weiwei's arms.

"Come, I have brought you many presents."

Fu Hanzheng's face sank. "Where are you taking her?"

So she had spent so much time with her and now she was taking her away?

"I brought her back, what right do you have to care about my own business?" The Old Lady squinted at him.

Fu Hanzheng could imagine that whenever he said something, she would keep mentioning that she was the one that brought her home and that he was the one that drove her out and other things such as the like, he did not have the rights to care about their business etc.

“Mom doesn’t know about us yet.”

If she brought her back to the old mansion, there would be conflict and he did not want her to feel wronged.

“They went abroad this afternoon! Weiwei is still here, so she should go back to the old mansion and keep me company.” The Old Lady said and took hold of her hands. “Shiqin, go and drive the car.”

Fu Shiqin nodded and ran downstairs to get the car.

Grandma was so powerful. She took Mu Weiwei away, so that their brother was left alone in the house.

Haha, he was not the only ruler in the Fu Family!

Gu Weiwei also thought that her period was coming to an end, so she agreed to stay a few nights with the Old Lady.

They went downstairs, hand in hand, into Fu Shiqin’s car and left without Fu Hanzheng.

They returned to the Fu Family’s mansion and Fu Shiyi arrived at home almost at the same time as them.

He got startled at the sight of the three. “Where is our brother?”

Fu Shiqin just could not hold in his laughter anymore. “He is in the house, all alone.”

Fu Shiyi gave him a high five after hearing the words.

Then he went to open the door for the Old Lady and helped her into the house.

Fu Shiyi said in a flattering tone, “Grandma, you have become so much younger after staying a few months in the south.”

Fu Shiqin said, “Yes, you look so energetic.”

Gu Weiwei looked at the two brothers speechlessly – they must have brought Grandma Fu here just to fight against their own brother.

The four of them asked the servants to serve some good dishes the moment they arrived home. Fu Shiyi even opened a bottle of wine to celebrate.

The moment the bottle was opened, the voice of the servant in the living room arose.

Before the voice finished speaking, Fu Hanzheng had walked into the dining room and sat down right in front of them.

“What are you celebrating with the wine?”

Chapter 282: The Cost of Causing Trouble

Fu Shiqin was holding the glass and Fu Shiyi was holding the wine, when both of their smiles stiffened.

The identical twins had almost the same expression, which was pretty amusing in some sense.

They exchanged a look with each other and quickly said, "We are celebrating grandma's return!"

They had planned to celebrate their success at leaving this man all alone but it seemed that they had to whisper their celebratory words inwardly instead.

Fu Shiyi poured each of them a glass of wine and got one for Fu Hanzheng too.

"To our lovely grandma, welcome home! Cheers!"

The Old Lady could certainly see through the grandchildren's ideas but seeing that they were frequently bullied by Fu Hanzheng, she cooperatively put on a performance with them.

However, she could help them once but not always.

Ever since childhood, they had lost many battles against their eldest brother but yet they never grew up.

Fu Hanzheng snatched Gu Weiwei's wine away and said to the servant, "Pour her a cup of hot water."

Soon, a cup of properly warmed water was delivered to Gu Weiwei.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin had thought that their brother was home to mistreat them but he actually sat down and ate without talking with them at all.

So they felt slightly relieved and drank a lot of wine, claiming that they were glad to have grandma home.

After dinner, the Old Lady asked Gu Weiwei to go upstairs so as to show her the present she had brought home for her.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin exchanged a look and decided to leave, in case they had to stay in the same room with their older brother.

They had just gotten up when he stopped them.

"Sit down!"

The two men quickly sat down, placed their hands on their knees and showed a very docile look.

"What is it, brother?" Fu Shiqin wore a very flattering smile on his face.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the chef. "Where is their porridge?"

The chef carried over two bowls of mung bean porridge and gave one bowl to each of them.

Then he threw a very pitiful look at the two masters and excused himself out of the room.

Sitting in front of them, Fu Hanzheng snapped.

"Drink up the porridge."

Fu Shiyi said with a smile, "No thanks, I am full."

“Me too.” Fu Shiqin followed.

They clearly knew that the porridge was fatal but with grandma upstairs, no one was coming to their rescue.

Fu Hanzheng elegantly wiped the corner of his lips with the napkin and said nonchalantly.

“If you drink it up, I will forget what happened today, otherwise...”

Before he could finish his words, they had already raised the bowls.

That was a bowl of mung-bean porridge with wasabi.

They had just taken one mouthful of porridge when tears started trickling down their face. The feeling of suffering was killing them but they had to empty the bowls of mung-bean porridge because that man was staring down at them.

Seeing that they finished the food, Fu Hanzheng nodded happily and went upstairs.

Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi instantly put down the bowls, grabbed the water and drank it down immediately but they still felt horrible after the water was finished.

Gu Weiwei came out of the Old Lady’s room and saw the two men sticking out their tongues like two Husky dogs.

“What happened...”

Fu Shiyi was still shedding tears because of the porridge. “Brother poured wasabi into us the moment you went upstairs.”

Gu Weiwei looked at the two tearful men with a frown, showing no sympathy.

“Well, that is your own fault, isn’t it?”

The two men, who had expected to receive consolation, received hurtful words instead.

Then they went upstairs, shoulder to shoulder, and decided to console themselves instead.

As she passed by the study and saw Fu Hanzheng inside, she asked, “You forced your brothers to eat wasabi just now?”

Looking calm and fearless, Fu Hanzheng said, “They offered to eat it themselves.”

Chapter 283: Battles Against Brother

Gu Weiwei. “...”

He must have agreed to spare their lives after they finished the food, or the frightened brothers would not have accepted the offer.

Actually, they deserved the punishment. They could have stayed away from their brother but they still thought about irritating him and when they were mistreated, they would think about taking revenge.

It just went on and on like this in a circle but the two brothers seemed to feel that battles against their brother were fun, so they decided to keep running around in the circle all the time...

"How long does grandma expect you to stay here." Fu Hanzheng asked as he folded the book.

"Three days and then I am doing a program outside the city." Gu Weiwei admitted honestly.

With Grandma Fu around, she was able to film the reality show smoothly.

After the program was finished, the filming of the Eyes of the Eagle was going to start too.

Fu Hanzheng approached her. "Then what about me?"

Gu Weiwei could tell that he sounded very sad. So she threw a glance around the room.

"You just... do whatever you are supposed to do, like going to work etc."

"You are home once every few months and every stay lasts just for a couple of days and yet you still decide to leave your boyfriend alone?" Fu Hanzheng frowned.

"But Grandma Fu has not been home for a couple of months too, if not for her, I would not have survived... I should keep her company first." Gu Weiwei countered.

Fu Hanzheng sighed helplessly and swept her into his arms and kissed her right on her forehead.

So when she was in despair, it was her grandma who had helped her, not him.

Also, he had detested her back then and drove her out of the room but at that time, he had never expected that he would care so much about her and adore her so deeply...

"You obey everything grandma says to you?"

Especially those words about not being taken advantage of by him.

Did she know that it was such a difficult process for him to court this girl?

"I know, I know." Gu Weiwei replied.

He was a man who feared nobody, but today, Grandma Fu's words had silenced him deeply and his two brothers kept causing him trouble, which made him feel quite sad too.

After hearing the promise, which made him feel pleased, Fu Hanzheng pushed her against the wall and kissed her gently and mildly...

For the first time in her life, Gu Weiwei found kissing a very sweet and enjoyable thing.

They were just in the middle of kissing when Fu Hanzheng's phone rang.

He ignored the call at the first ring but when it rang again, he had to release her.

Then he cleared his throat and picked it up.

Gu Weiwei was leaning against his chest with her face flushing red, she was panting and also feeling dizzy.

She seemed to have heard something about hidden internets and the Yuan Family through the phone. Startled, she wondered if they had found out that she and the master's family were talking through the hidden net.

That was a contact manner even Gu Siting was unaware of, something she dared to try without consideration.

They were using codes to contact each other and the moment they got in touch, they removed the traces, so how on earth did they find out?

She soon brought herself back from the stupor caused by the kiss and asked, after Fu Hanzheng finished the call, "What is it?"

"The Yuan Family are talking through a hidden net and soon we will be able to find the Yuan Family and Gu Weiwei." Fu Hanzheng replied.

Gu Weiwei smiled. "But the Gu Family knows nothing about it... right?"

Fu Hanzheng's eyes sank and turned dark. "Not right now... and they never will."

Without asking anything more, Gu Weiwei said, "I... er... need to talk with Grandma Fu now."

It would be three more days before she was able to use that contact number and hopefully she would be able to reach her master's family before Fu Hanzheng did.

Chapter 284: Problems?

Since the Old Lady was at the Fu Family's mansion, Fu Hanzheng could not share the same room with her even if he wanted to.

Also, those servants had to be prevented from spilling anything to Mrs. Fu later.

Therefore, they did not talk with each other in front of the outsiders.

By the evening, Jolin called and said that the contract with the Eyes of the Eagle was signed and the filming would start next month.

Fu Shiyi had just received the call from the agent and asked her, when she hung up, "You got the role?"

Gu Weiwei nodded. "Yes, I did."

If she was not able to get this kind of role, she would never be able to beat Ling Yan.

"Damn, that Mo man did not even spare me the third supporting role." Fu Shiyi snapped.

"Why?" Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows.

He had done pretty well at the audition the other day and even though he might have missed the lead role, he could have at least got the second or third supporting role.

“He said that my image does not cater to the character, so I am removed.” Fu Shiyi poured a cup of water and put it down after taking a sip.

“Is there any wrong with me being good-looking?”

Fu Shiqin, who was busy eating his donuts, countered.

“With our brother next to us, you are not at all good-looking.”

“At least I am better-looking than you!” Fu Shiyi squinted at Fu Shiqin who was so fascinated with his desserts. “Look at you, your double-chin is visible.”

It was so annoying that a man could be so infatuated with desserts.

“It’s none of your business.” Fu Shiqin glared back.

“Aren’t you afraid of getting diabetes? Can’t you just show a bit more of a manly personality? Always sweet stuff.” Fu Shiyi sounded disdainful.

After finishing the last bite, Fu Shiqin countered directly.

“Our life is already bitter, can’t I just eat something sweet to cheer myself up?”

“You are always having fun outside and you have no idea how bitter life is working at a company, especially when I am working with our brother...”

“I am having such a hard time working with our brother and yet you still try to set me up all the time... and you are even stopping me from eating desserts! Those desserts are not yours anyway!”

....

Fu Shiyi rubbed his ears and surrendered. He just could not stand his babbling brother.

He had given up working with his eldest brother back then because he knew he could not stand it. That was why he quit the company and went to the entertainment industry as a good-looking actor but Second Brother was not as equally lucky.

“Our brother is not mistreating you that badly right? Maybe he will do it again when he hears you.”

Fu Shiqin glanced at the ceiling. “He is too busy searching for Gu Weiwei to find me.”

Gu Weiwei did not show a response but instead smiled as she sat opposite them.

No matter how much Fu Hanzheng tried to find that girl, he would never have expected that the Gu Weiwei they were looking for, was next to him the whole time.

Fu Shiyi started to analyze bravely, as he had heard about the affairs of the Gu Family.

“According to how the story normally goes, if she disappears with Yuan Shuo, she must have run away with him against Gu Siting’s will...”

Fu Shiqin complained. “You have watched too many TV-series!”

Fu Shiyi ignored Fu Shiqin’s complaint and complained himself.

“That is very possible! She and that master have known each other for so many years, and if they spend so much time together, their relationship might develop a bit differently...”

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth – honestly, she and Yuan Shuo were just in a master and the disciple relationship, alright?

Also, now she understood that it had been Cayman Dorrans who had arranged for him to keep her safe and it was her senior sister who had been interested in getting into a relationship with her master.

She came to the Yuan Family just to sleep with Yuan Shuo and their son was three years old! Of course, Gu Weiwei was not running away with her master!

Chapter 285: Good Night, Uncle Fu!

Gu Weiwei could not sit still, after hearing Fu Shiqin talking about Fu Hanzheng giving commands to his men, to look for the Yuan Family and herself.

So when no one was paying attention, she sneaked into the study.

Fu Hanzheng was on the phone and became startled at the sight of her. Then he ended the call and said, “What is it?”

After they returned to the old mansion, she kept isolating herself from him as if trying to keep herself from being eaten but now, she had come to his doorstep of her own accord.

Gu Weiwei showed him the coffee and the cake she had brought and said, “I noticed that you ate very little at dinner, so I am here to give you some food.

Fu Hanzheng put down the phone and smiled.

“You are not trying to hide from me anymore?”

“You keep cornering me and kissing me!” Gu Weiwei put down the food and snorted.

Fu Hanzheng stretched out his hands and asked her to sit down in his arms.

“If you were not here with Grandma, I would not have to sneak around.”

At the apartment, he could kiss her without any concern.

Gu Weiwei squinted at him. “But it is you who is always up to something.”

Damn Fu Shiyi who had gotten her drunk and delivered her to his bed; it made him think that she was desperate to sleep with him and he had been constantly teasing her about it too.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled. He was just testing to see if the other night had been her intention or not.

If she had not been willing to do it, he would not have forced her to do anything either.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at the computer and asked casually.

“Well... any news about Gu Weiwei?”

Fu Hanzheng lowered his gaze and said, “You seem very concerned about her these days.”

As long as there was any news about Gu Weiwei in the past few days, she would always ask about it.

“Well, it was because of her that Gu Siting stopped us from coming home, so of course I am curious about who she is!”

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly, concealing her true intentions that were hidden inside her heart.

Fu Hanzheng suddenly looked cold, when he thought of how she was trapped in A Land last time.

“From today onwards, you are not allowed to go anywhere in A Land.”

Gu Weiwei smiled and did not respond.

Ling Yan was in A Land, so of course she was going there but that was a future conversation to have.

Right now, what she wanted to know was how much had he found about this whole matter.

“If Gu Weiwei is found, then I can go there, right?”

“If she is found, the Gu Family will lose control of A Land, so of course you are allowed to go there.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei took a bite of the cookies and asked, with a seemingly indifferent expression, “Then how is the search going?”

“Well, what we can find is that they are in Hua Land right now. If they contact each other again, we can locate their place more accurately.” Fu Hanzheng confessed.

Gu Weiwei smiled. He had gotten everything under control but if he only knew this much information, he might not know that she and her master’s family were supposed to talk on the phone tomorrow.

However she had to warn them against Gu Siting and Fu Hanzheng too.

Before she reached her goal, she could not reveal herself to anyone, not even to this man who claimed to love her deeply and wanted to marry her.

“It is late now, I won’t disturb you anymore. I am going to see Grandma Fu now.”

She had already got what she needed and it was time to leave.

Fu Hanzheng’s face sank and he asked with displeasure, “Leaving now?”

Gu Weiwei placed a small kiss on his lips and smiled naughtily.

“Good night, Uncle Fu!”

Chapter 286: Senior Sister and Master’s Wife

The time she set with her master and his family was 12:12 p.m. but in order to avoid making Fu Hanzheng suspicious, she dared not use her own phone to make the call.

If she went out and found a place to make the call, Fu Hanzheng’s bodyguards would suspect that something was going on.

Also, due to the Long Wind, as well as her rumor with Fu Shiyi, she had gained some fame in Hua Land and she might be easily recognized.

Because neither of these two situations were favourable, she asked Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian if they could meet up together.

Both of them were off for the weekend and so they decided to have lunch together somewhere.

Seeing that the time was approaching, she switched off her own phone and borrowed Ji Cheng's phone at 12:11 p.m.

Then she picked a quiet corner and dialed the number she had memorized hundreds of times.

The signal was out of service for the first call but after three times of buzzing in the second attempt, someone answered the call.

"Password."

Gu Weiwei could tell that it was not Yuan Shuo who answered the call, but her Senior Sister who was also her Master's wife, Yuan Meng.

Then she speechlessly told her a series of numbers... because the password was none other than the measurements of her breasts, waist and hip!

The moment she finished saying the password, the woman questioned loudly, "What on earth is going on with your Gu Siting? Did we ruin his family or something? Why is he hunting us?"

After hearing her complaint that lasted for a whole three minutes, Gu Weiwei asked, "How is it going with you and master?"

"How are we?" Yuan Meng snorted and bellowed. "In order to avoid being found by the Gu Family, we hid ourselves in an isolated corner of the mountains! How do you think we are doing?"

"Where are you now?" Gu Weiwei asked.

Yuan Meng's voice turned cold when she heard the question.

"Are you helping Gu Siting to find us?"

"I am not with the Gu Family anymore." Gu Weiwei said.

They had left A Land but had not returned to the Dorrans Family, which meant she could trust them.

"You left Gu Siting? Liar!" Yuan Meng snorted.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a long time and then said, "I am already dead, Ling Yan took my heart."

They had no idea that she had passed away a few months ago.

Yuan Meng was a little startled after hearing what she said. "So I am talking with a ghost?"

"How many hearts with the same blood type in the world, could be given to Ling Yan do you think?" Gu Weiwei countered.

Yuan Meng became increasingly confused. "But you said that you are dead but you are on the phone with me?"

Gu Weiwei turned around and saw Ji Cheng beckoning her, so she said, "It is very complicated to explain everything right now. Is the Master doing okay after the accident last time?"

"To hell with okay! He is still under treatment right now and his face is almost ruined! I came to his door just for his face and if his face is ruined, how will you compensate for that?" Yuan Meng felt so annoyed when she thought of her injured husband, who was so dear to her.

Having heard these words, Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a moment.

"I am sorry."

"Forget it, when should we meet again?" Yuan Meng asked straightforwardly.

Although what she said sounded ridiculous, thanks to their long-time friendship, she decided to set up a meeting with her just to get everything sorted.

Seeing that Ji Cheng was approaching her, Gu Weiwei ended the conversation in a hurry.

"Fu Hanzheng is looking for you guys too, so be careful when you are out. I will send you the time and address with another number when I have it ready."

Then she hung up and removed the conversation history.

She must think of a way to tell Fu Hanzheng that Gu Weiwei was already dead.

Only in this way would he be able to stop investigating.

Chapter 287: Gap with Fu Hanzheng

Ji Cheng approached her, held onto her arm and took back her phone.

"Hurry up, the food is getting cold."

Gu Weiwei returned to the table and continued to eat, whilst they talked about their recent situation.

When they heard that she was heading off with Fu Shiyi to do the reality show, they were so excited that they almost screamed.

"Ahhhhh, you two look so cute together, I knew it!" Ji Cheng said excitedly, but soon thought of something.

"Well... if you look so cute together with Third Master, will Uncle Fu not be happy about it?"

Luo Qianqian glared at Ji Cheng who was out for gossip. "If he is not happy about it, he would have stopped them from doing the reality show! He is a mature president of a huge enterprise, he would not be so narrow-minded over such a small matter."

Gu Weiwei laughed dryly...

But he was such a narrow-minded person, and a very, very narrow-minded one too.

Ji Cheng stared at Gu Weiwei with a smile on her face and said, "Actually, you and Third Master look cuter together! Uncle Fu is too mature and arrogant, he is also much older than you too. I think you two have a generational gap but Third Master is different. Both of you are so good looking and when you two are in the same frame, you are a feast for our eyes!"

Gu Weiwei laughed even more dryly. It's a good thing that Fu Hanzheng did not hear what she had said, otherwise Fu Shiyi would suffer again.

"Cheng, you are too worried. There is no generational gap between us at all."

Fu Hanzheng would give her everything she wanted, as long as she behaved like a cute girl and he would not force her to do anything, as long as she frowned or shook her head.

There was no generational gap between her and Fu Hanzheng but there was a huge gap between her and the dumb-headed Fu Shiyi.

Luo Qianqian took a sip of her drink and looked at Ji Cheng. "Well, before you said that she looked cuter with Fu Hanzheng, and now you are saying she looks cuter with Fu Shiyi! You even said that your cousin was a great match for her too!"

Ji Cheng could not counter back but worked on eating her food, before curiously asking Luo Qianqian, after a long time, "Qianqian, if one day, your cousin gets drunk and kisses you, what would you do?"

Luo Qianqian snorted. "Then he would be so dead."

Ji Cheng turned to Gu Weiwei. "What about you, Weiwei?"

Seeing Ji Cheng twisting her fingers anxiously, Gu Weiwei had a second thought about what she was asking.

Oh man, this girl must have done something with her cousin!

"I don't have a cousin, so I can't answer your question."

"If you had one!" Ji Cheng begged.

Gu Weiwei shook her head with a smile. "That wouldn't work. We have different experiences, so we have different ways to deal with different problems, so there is no accurate answer to that."

Ji Cheng sighed and did not ask anymore.

Luo Qianqian looked at her curiously, "So, your amazingly good looking cousin... kissed you?"

"No way!" Ji Cheng snapped.

"Forget about it! Why such a large reaction?" Luo Qianqian snorted.

"He did not!" Ji Cheng dropped the topic and turned to Gu Weiwei. "You have made a name through the Long Wind, what is your next film?"

"I have just signed the Eyes of the Eagle by Mo Jiao, which will start next month." Gu Weiwei said.

Luo Qianqian was shocked. “Mo Jiao is famous for being critical about actors! Anyone without skills would not be invited, no matter how famous that person might be! You can be in his film just after the Long Wind?!”

“Just some luck and Director Yi’s recommendation. The audition went well, so I signed the contract.” Gu Weiwei said with a modest tone.

Maybe for Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian, it was amazing that a 19-year-old girl like her could have such tremendous achievements... But for her, none of these things were enough.

Chapter 288: Cute Uncle Fu

On this rare meeting, the three girls ate lunch and had afternoon tea together.

It was evening when she drove them home and she was just on her way when Fu Hanzheng’s call came in. She was driving, so she asked Ji Cheng in the passenger’s seat, to press the speaker.

“Where are you?”

“I am driving the girls home.” Gu Weiwei answered.

Ji Cheng could tell that it was from Fu Hanzheng, so she was very startled to see the ID on the screen – Baby Zheng.

Hearing what she said, Fu Hanzheng said, “Come to the office afterwards.”

Gu Weiwei answered. “What am I supposed to do there?”

“Pick me up from work.” Fu Hanzheng replied.

Gu Weiwei said, “Can’t you just go home by yourself?”

It was normally the girlfriend who was picked up from work by the boyfriend, not the other way around. How ridiculous!

Fu Hanzheng said, “Drive safe, I will be waiting for you.”

Having said this, he hung up.

With her eyes on her phone, Ji Cheng showed a very meaningful smile.

“Weiwei, it seems that your Uncle Fu is very loving inside. He sounds so cute.”

What she had read on the financial reports was that President Fu was a calm, mature and arrogant man who showed no concern for anything but work.

That was why she told Weiwei at lunch that Fu Hanzheng might be too old for her and that there might be a generational gap between them but this man called her and asked her to pick him up from work!

She had been wrong. President Fu looked calm and serious but inwardly, he was romantic and gentle.

Gu Weiwei smiled, feeling embarrassed. After she drove the girls home, she headed to the headquarters of Fu's Enterprise to pick up their President. When she came to the parking lot, she called him.

After receiving the call, Fu Hanzheng briefly told all the top managers, including Fu Shiqin, about the key work that they had to do on overtime.

Then he dismissed the meeting and clocked off work.

"President Fu, there are still a few documents for you to sign and confirm."

Fu Hanzheng checked the time. "Give them to me tomorrow morning."

Fu Shiqin was very angry. The couple had been so flirty with each other at home and now he was shoving a great deal of work on him, whilst running off to go on a date.

Seeing Fu Hanzheng leaving, he logged onto his alternative account on Weibo called the Gossip Head.

Then he revealed a piece of news.

[Shiyi will attend the filming of a reality show with his rumored girlfriend, Mu Weiwei]

It was an alternative account he often used to reveal Fu Shiyi's gossip and he had many followers.

Although Third Brother and Mu Weiwei's rumors were suppressed, many people online had gotten hold of the news.

So when he revealed the news today, there would be many fans that supported the rumored couple and also see them off at the airport and when his brother knew about it, he would definitely be distressed and unhappy.

But if his brother wanted to take revenge on someone, he would go to Fu Shiyi, not him.

After revealing the gossip, Fu Shiqin felt much better and continued with his heavy work-load.

Fu Hanzheng went downstairs and pulled open the door, asking her to get out of the car.

"I will drive."

Gu Weiwei had just gotten out of the car and was about to walk past the front of the car to the passenger's seat, when she saw Meng Ruya and several staff, getting off of work. They had come down to the parking lot too.

She suddenly threw herself into Fu Hanzheng's arms.

"Someone is here."

Meng Ruya spotted Fu Hanzheng before everyone else. She adjusted her hair before heading towards him, only to find a long-haired girl with a slender figure leaning in his arms.

"President Fu, you are off work...."

She had thought that he must have gotten tired of that woman after such a long time but unexpectedly, they were still together.

Fu Hanzheng didn't even glance at her at all.

Instead, he gently kissed the top of the girl's head in front of her and all the staff, spoiling her rotten.

"It is fine now."

Chapter 289: Gentleness Towards Her Only

When Meng Ruya greeted him and was ignored, she was also forced to watch him spoiling his little girlfriend in his arms.

For a second, she felt so embarrassed but she did not want to give up so easily, so she called him again with a forced smile.

"President Fu, hello?"

However, Fu Hanzheng still ignored her, because he was in the middle of holding the girl in his arms.

Gu Weiwei was very anxious. Couldn't he say something just to get the woman away from this place?

The staff who left work with Meng Ruya felt embarrassed. One of them came to tug at her sleeves.

"Manager Meng, let's just... leave."

Everyone in the company knew that President Fu spoiled his little girlfriend rotten and they were just in the middle of flirting with each other, so of course he was not going to talk with anyone else.

Meng Ruya did not want to continue bring embarrassed, so she left with the staff, looking p*ssed off.

Mrs. Fu was not helping her these days either. She told her that Fu Hanzheng and his girlfriend were in a good relationship and that they had decided to have babies too.

Although she was not going to be the daughter-in-law of the Fu Family, she would still be adored by Mrs. Fu as if she were her own daughter but without Fu Hanzheng as the end goal, she would not want to flatter her either.

However Fu Hanzheng kept his girlfriend so hidden that no matter how much money she had spent on finding out about this girl, her identity was still concealed.

After a long time, when she was not sure if they had gone, Gu Weiwei asked with a muffled sound, "All gone now?"

Fu Hanzheng glanced around the empty parking lot and said, "Someone else is here again."

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei hid herself in his arms, not daring to look up at all.

Fu Hanzheng's lip corners arose, and he did not say a thing until he had indulged enough of her in his arms.

"Now everyone is gone, get in the car."

Gu Weiwei looked up and glanced around, and then she rushed into the passenger's seat and urged him to leave.

Since she was about to fly away from home, the following day, for the reality show, she did not return to the Fu Family's old mansion but instead to Jinxiu Compound, so as to do her packing.

After dinner, Fu Hanzheng went into the study to deal with work and then he headed to the walk-in closet where he watched her pack.

He suddenly felt a bit distressed, when he thought of her being busy again and not being able to see her for another couple of months.

Gu Weiwei glanced at him sideways, sensing that he was not in a good mood, so she paused in her packing.

"What is it? I am still here and yet you are already feeling unwilling to let me go?"

"Yes, very unwilling to let you go." Fu Hanzheng reached out for her and swept her into his arms as he mumbled, "Sometimes, I really want to chain you up here, so you are unable to go anywhere."

But on the other hand, he also hoped that she could have a free and happy life being with him, not just as a canary in a cage that was restrained.

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei poked his chest over his heart and said with a smile, "You have already chained me here, haven't you?"

If he was truly chaining her so that she stayed next to him all the time, she might not feel anything but what he had given her was freedom, so she could do whatever she could, with him as her background supporter.

So he had managed to let her go physically, yet make her miss him emotionally.

He had been a cold person, yet he had given her the gentleness and heart that only belonged to her, making her fall into a wonderful place without being aware.

Slightly startled, Fu Hanzheng looked joyful again. He cupped her face and gave her a deep kiss.

Gu Weiwei warned as she felt the kiss getting deeper.

"Only kisses, nothing... nothing else!"

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng said and gave her some more kisses.

Soon, Gu Weiwei regretted what she had said... because this clever man not only kissed her lips but also stripped her naked and kissed her all over her body.

He then said, with a reasonable tone, that she did not forbid him from kissing anywhere else apart from her lips.

Chapter 290: The Captain

Early in the morning, she got up at the same time as Fu Hanzheng.

They ate breakfast together and after that, Fu Shiyi came to pick her up to go to the airport.

Gu Weiwei checked the time, grabbed her luggage and was about to leave in a hurry.

“I am leaving now.”

Fu Hanzheng looked upset as he leafed through the morning paper and asked, in a seemingly nonchalant tone, “Forgotten something?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while as she stood at the doorstep. “No?”

Fu Shiyi put on his sunglasses and reminded her speechlessly.

“Didn’t you notice that my brother is asking you to kiss him before you leave?”

He truly had no idea that his brother was such a two-faced man.

He was a lethally cold person in front of everyone else but in front of his girlfriend, he just couldn’t help but to showcase his flirty side, begging her for hugs and kisses.

Gu Weiwei drove Fu Shiyi out through the door, turned around and gave the man in the dining room a kiss.

“I am leaving now, I will call you when I arrive.”

“Okay.” Fu Hanzheng answered briefly and the slightly-raised lips revealed how happy he felt.

However, his delight was totally ruined the moment he arrived at the company and saw the video Fu Shiqin showed him.

In the video, Gu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi were at the airport and were supported by numerous fans, who were seeing them off with large posters of their pictures together.

Some of them even drew a huge heart in the frame, which upset him.

“See? Many people hope that they can be a real couple!” Fu Shiqin said as he pointed at the video on his phone.

However it was he, himself, who revealed to the fans their schedule, so that those fans were able to arrive at the airport according to the information they had received.

Fu Hanzheng looked cold and threw a side glance at him.

“What are you smiling for?”

“I am not! I am just feeling very angry for you! She is your girlfriend but she is the rumored girlfriend of your third brother...” Fu Shiqin said angrily.

Honestly, did he look so obviously delighted?

Fu Shiyi, who had just taken off on the plane, suddenly felt a bit anxious. With his hand over his heart, he said to the girl next to him.

“Who has revealed the schedule to those people? It was a secret, so where did these people come from?”

“How would I know?” Gu Weiwei was resting with her eyes closed.

Fu Shiyi’s legs dangled as he said anxiously, “I have a feeling that someone is setting me up.”

“You are being paranoid.” Gu Weiwei said.

“If those fans cause too much fuss, then my brother will give me trouble, if he knows about it.” Fu Shiyi shivered when he thought of how he was forced to go bungee jumping last time.

As long as his brother was jealous, he would do nothing to her but everything to him.

Gu Weiwei opened her eyes and said, as she looked at him sideways, “But you have already been mistreated so many times because of what you have done with Fu Shiqin.”

“If I am the cause of the mistreatment, I am totally fine with it but if I am set up, I will be very unhappy.” Fu Shiyi lifted his sunglasses and said with gritted teeth.

“I have asked my company to check on it. I will give the man who revealed our schedule a very hard time.”

“Isn’t your second brother the biggest suspect?” Gu Weiwei snorted.

They had always been in conflict with each other, ever since they were little.

Fu Shiyi waved his hand. “No way, we made vows when we formed the team and if he dares to betray me, he will have broken his vow!”

Gu Weiwei glanced at this dumb-headed person next to her, thinking that the title of captain truly suited him well.
