

MY HIDDEN 311

Chapter 311: You Did Well!

Gu Weiwei looked pleased but she still showed some annoyance.

“So you are blaming me after all.”

“You were way too attractive last night.” Fu Hanzheng said as he kissed her softly.

Although he had waited for a long time before it had happened, what she did last night had given him sufficient compensation.

Gu Weiwei flushed, looking both annoyed and shy.

“Can’t you stop mentioning last night?”

She felt so embarrassed, when she kept pestering him and not allowing him to get out of the bed.

“You were very brave last night but now... you look so shy.” Fu Hanzheng laughed.

Although he had missed an important matter, he never regretted having chosen to stay.

After all, you were not going to know when you would get such a pleasant offer again.

Gu Weiwei leafed through the script. “Stop talking to me now.”

This damned man, always flirting with her over what she did last night.

He made it sound as if she had taken advantage of him but the truth was that he himself had had a great time.

Seeing her displeased, Fu Hanzheng stopped teasing her.

“But you were a bit strange last night.”

She had never made a fuss before and she had never been so passionate and clingy.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips guiltily and showed a sweet smile as she looked up.

“Alright then, from today on, I will be totally normal and never think about getting anything from you again, okay?”

So he did find her behavior strange but he had not truly noticed anything, so he was not going to find out anything either.

Hearing her words, Fu Hanzheng swept her into his arms.

“I don’t mean that. I just think that you would regret it much more if you had not been truly willing.”

“I do feel regretful, because I’m hurting everywhere!” Gu Weiwei snorted angrily.

She did not truly regret it knowing that she had actually helped Yuan Meng because they would sooner or later come to this stage anyways.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and kissed her forehead.

“It is too late for you to regret it now.”

It seemed that he had been too worried.

It was strange of him to think that what she had offered was abnormal, although he had been looking forward to seeing her accept him.

Gu Weiwei looked up and kissed him as she said, “I don’t regret a thing and thanks so much for liking me.”

She had thought that when Gu Siting gave her the best luxuries in life, it meant that he liked her but there was another kind of adoration that could possibly be offered to the person you liked – namedly to give the best thing, the gift of oneself.

Fu Hanzheng frowned, feeling both pleased and displeased.

“Change the second part of that sentence.”

“Ah?” Gu Weiwei looked confused. What was so weird about the second part of her sentence?

“I don’t want to hear ‘thanks’, say something else.” Fu Hanzheng told her.

Gu Weiwei leaned herself into his arms, thought for a while and said, as her face flushed, “You did well last night!”

“...”

Fu Hanzheng felt both angry and amused. “I am aware of that but that is not what I want to hear.”

“Spill it if you want to hear something, I don’t want to guess anymore.” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his eyebrows and gazed at the girl’s beautiful eyes.

“Do you like me?”

“Of course.”

Gu Weiwei answered without hesitation. Who would refuse a man like this? She was not dumb, okay?

Hearing what he had expected to hear, Fu Hanzheng looked extremely pleased.

Gu Weiwei blinked. “So you wanted me to say that I like you?”

Fu Hanzheng smiled without saying anything.

Gu Weiwei looked up and placed a very serious kiss on his lips.

“I like you.”

Maybe I don’t like you as much as you like me... but I do like you, Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Hanzheng looked very happy and warned with a low voice.

“If you continue with this kiss, we are not getting out of the bed tonight either.”

Chapter 312: Face

“....”

Startled for two seconds, Gu Weiwei moved herself away from his arms and leaned herself against the pillow.

Fu Hanzheng reached out for her, yet saw her moving towards the edge of bed.

“Don’t come over here!”

She had not yet recovered from last night! If he tried to do it again he would kill her.

If she was asked to do that all over again, she would not have sacrificed herself just to save Yuan Meng, she would have just let her be caught.

It was way too cruel for her on the other side of things.

Instead of approaching, Fu Hanzheng stayed away from her as she had requested and focused on his own work.

Sitting next to him, Gu Weiwei focused on the script whilst taking a multitude of notes; they didn’t disturb each other at all.

It was nighttime when the servant came to inform them of dinner. She knocked at the door.

“Master, the dinner is ready.”

Fu Hanzheng stopped working, climbed off of the bed and opened the door.

“We are fine, you can go back to rest now.”

It was not until the servant left that Fu Hanzheng came back to bed and picked the girl up.

They had just come to the dining room when the doorbell rang again. Fu Shiyi suddenly rushed in.

He was slightly startled when he bumped into the couple who had just come out of the bedroom.

“What are you doing here?”

Fu Hanzheng sounded displeased. Obviously, he felt that they were being disturbed.

“Aren’t you out on business?” Fu Shiyi countered.

Their reality show was on air today and after finishing work, he wanted to join his sister-in-law to watch the reality show.

However, what was his brother doing here holding his girlfriend? He was supposed to be abroad for business.

Gu Weiwei was so embarrassed that her ears turned red. She poked Fu Hanzheng.

“Let me down.”

He could hold her in whichever way he wanted to, when they were alone at home but she needed to keep up her image when facing Fu Shiyi.

Fu Hanzheng ignored her request and did not put her down until he carried her to the dining room, passing by Fu Shiyi.

Fu Shiyi came in and went to fetch a bowl and chopsticks, of his own accord.

He was eating as he looked at the couple opposite him.

“Third Master, what are you... doing here?” Gu Weiwei asked dryly.

“The reality show is on soon, I want to watch it here.” Fu Shiyi said as he sized her up in a strange way.

“What is wrong with you? You look as if you have been trampled.”

Gu Weiwei was lost for words. He had hit the nail on the head but instead of congratulating him, she wanted him dead.

Fu Hanzheng gave her a glass of cold water and threw a cold look at Fu Shiyi.

“Ten minutes and then you are out of here.”

“...”

Fu Shiyi gazed at his own brother who had suddenly turned ruthless, as he stuffed food into his mouth.

It seemed that he had said something very provoking and looking at how sweet his brother looked... he must have done it!

So his brother had managed to get this girl with his own abilities, without his help?

He swallowed down the food in his mouth and said with a sneaky smile, “Brother, maybe... congratulations?”

No wonder he postponed the business trip... something big had happened!

Gu Weiwei glared back at him – what on earth had his man found out?

“Eight minutes to go.” Fu Hanzheng reminded him ruthlessly.

Fu Shiyi stuffed in some food and swiped open the phone that was ringing.

“Ah, the show is on!”

He watched a few minutes and showed it to Gu Weiwei.

“Look, we look so good together.”

In the video, they were playing the piano and violin together.

However, Fu Shiyi forgot to turn off the live comments.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the live comments and his face fell.

Chapter 313: Traps

The instant comments kept supporting Fu Shiyi and Mu Weiwei as a rumored couple.

[Wow, they look so cute together!]

[The best rumored couple ever!]

[Please, be together!]

[Please, be together, always!]

[Be together now!]

All the crazy fans kept typing in the live comments and Gu Weiwei slowly turned to the man, whose face had turned totally dark.

She then turned to Fu Shiyi who was still holding the phone sitting opposite them.

Was he feeling that he was too tired to live? His brother had not been very happy about this reality show and so she had not intended to show him, when it was on the air today, yet this little brother actually came to the door and offered the video.

He wanted to get himself killed but he really did not have to offer himself up for the death penalty, in such a straightforward way...

Fu Shiyi could sense the lethal look of his brother, so he withdrew the phone and collapsed at the sight of the live comments.

Damn it! Why did he forget to turn off the live comments?

How much had his brother seen?!

“Oh well... I need to be off now, still some work to do at the company.”

Having said those words, he rushed out without even taking the time to put down his chopsticks.

If he didn't leave now, he would be immediately killed.

Damn those fans! His brother would kill him if they kept saying that he and his sister-in-law were a rumored couple!

The moment Fu Shiyi ran away, the apartment turned extremely quiet.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and poked this man whose face looked so dark and asked, with a very soft voice, “Angry?”

Instead of saying anything more, Fu Hanzheng made a call.

“The reality show tonight....”

Gu Weiwei instantly switched off the phone when she heard what he said.

“What are you doing?”

So he was trying to remove the program just because of some live comments? That would be a mistake.

“Heh, so many fans want you two to be together and yet you still want this program to be aired?”

“That is just a joke! Don’t take it seriously! I am not getting together with him anyways, right?” Gu Weiwei explained.

Pressing down his anger, Fu Hanzheng regretted having let them make the reality show, just because grandma had said so.

“But those people think you are together.”

“But I am with you, right?”

Gu Weiwei consoled him patiently. This jealous man of hers was seriously annoyed.

Fu Hanzheng was not pleased.

Gu Weiwei leaned forward and kissed him right on the lips.

“I promise that I will never make a program with Fu Shiyi ever again, okay?”

Fu Hanzheng looked at the gentle-looking girl and felt very unwilling to throw his temper at her, so he had to press down his inward anger.

He did not want to be angry at her. However, he could do whatever he wanted to Fu Shiyi.

Fu Shiyi rushed downstairs and drove away from the apartment, then he pulled over and sent a voice message to the group, explaining what had happened and begging them for help.

Soon, someone replied in the group.

[He Chi: Captain, rest in peace!]

[Fu Shiqin: Third Brother, any last words?]

Fu Shiyi was extremely frustrated at the sight of their words.

[I am asking you to save me! Do you want me to die so badly?]

[Fu Shiqin: You know pretty well who plays an important part in our brother’s heart – his girlfriend! Now, nothing can save you...]

[He Chi: Captain, don’t worry, we will definitely honour your spirit and keep fighting onwards]

....

Fu Shiyi shivered as he hid himself in the car in the parking lot. He made a call to Mrs. Fu who had just gone down south for a vacation.

The other person who could save him was now next to his brother and he couldn’t possibly turn to her.

Oh my gosh, was he doomed?

Chapter 314: Real Brother (Extra)

Although Fu Shiyi came over and showed the reality show to Fu Hanzheng, which made him very jealous... Fu Hanzheng was still extremely gentle after Fu Shiyi left

He stayed at home with her for two days and then packed up and left for his business trip.

Gu Weiwei was helping him pack as she said, "The filming starts tomorrow, so I may not be on the phone all the time."

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei kept telling him to be careful with what he eats and to make sure he got enough sleep, she then asked him about Fu Shiyi.

"As for Third Master, please be gentle, he is your brother after all."

When he did not take out his temper on her, he would definitely go to Fu Shiyi for revenge.

He made Fu Shiyi, who had a phobia of heights, go bungee jumping last time because of the tiny matter he had caused.

But this time, it seemed even worse and the consequences might be even more serious too.

"If he were not my brother, he would have died ages ago." Fu Hanzheng snorted.

Gu Weiwei. "..."

Was that so?

Actually, if what he had seen was just the reality show performance, he might not have had such a strong reaction.

The problem was that he saw the live comments!

That was way too much of an instigation for Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her waist and warned with a low voice.

"You are not getting out of this trouble either."

"Why am I involved?" Gu Weiwei looked innocent.

Fu Hanzheng kissed her gently and said, "Do remember this debt, you will pay it back when I return."

"..."

Gu Weiwei's lips twitched. He was not going to hit her or lecture her but he was definitely going to do something with her in bed!

She knew that she should have never let him taste the pleasure of s*x.

She had to use such a method to solve the urgent problem but now, she was the one in deep trouble.

Fu Hanzheng checked the time and said, "I will visit you on set when I have time."

"No, no, you don't have to, work is more important." Gu Weiwei turned down his offer with a dry laugh.

What she wanted him to do right now was to stay away on business for as long as possible.

They were just saying goodbye, when Xu Qian urged him on downstairs.

Gu Weiwei instantly went to fetch her bag and was about to see him off at the airport.

"You don't have to come, go to sleep now."

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead and did not ask her to come with him to the airport.

"I can see you off downstairs." Gu Weiwei said.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hands and they walked out of the door, entered the elevator and went downstairs. Xu Qian was waiting for him with the car door open.

"Go to sleep now, I will text you when I arrive."

Gu Weiwei nodded and did not go upstairs until he went into the car.

She slept until the following morning, got up, ate breakfast and started to make preparations for the trip in the afternoon.

She was just in the middle of packing when Fu Hanzheng called and told her that he had arrived safe and sound.

Fu Shiqin was picking him up at the airport and asked him discreetly when they met, "Brother, did you really finish off our brother?"

He had been in touch with him the night before but now he had suddenly gone missing and his phone was off too.

The only person that could make him disappear was his eldest brother.

"Not really." Fu Hanzheng replied briefly.

Fu Shiqin did not get what he meant, so he asked.

"Then... what is going to happen to him?"

Fu Hanzheng looked calm and said, "He might spend the entire day in the air."

Fu Shiqin shivered. Fu Shiyi feared heights above everything else and it was crueler for Fu Hanzheng to make him spend the whole day in the air, rather than beating him to death.

Sigh, he wished he had the chance to watch the show.

Chapter 315: Brothers

Fu Hanzheng and his staff had arrived at the hotel for the afternoon meeting, when Lei Meng called with Fu Shiyi's phone. "Boss, Third Master says that he wants to video-chat with you."

Instead of answering the call, he tossed the phone to Fu Shiqin.

Fu Shiqin had just been wondering how terribly Fu Shiyi was suffering, when he was offered this perfect chance.

The video showed Fu Shiyi sitting in a helicopter shivering, with his face turning completely pale.

"Third Brother, what are you still doing in the air?" Fu Shiqin asked him happily.

Although he did feel sorry for him, seeing him being mistreated did make him happy.

"Damn you! Where is our brother? I need to speak with him." Fu Shiyi bellowed.

He had hid himself so far away from him but he still ended up being found.

Fu Shiqin turned the camera to their brother who was reading a file.

"Brother, he wants to speak with you."

Instead of looking up, Fu Hanzheng said, "What do you want to say?"

Fu Shiyi begged him on the other side of the phone.

"Brother, we are real brothers, I would never do anything to my sister-in-law, right?"

"I will definitely die if I jump off the helicopter now. Can we change to another place?"

"Brothers, please, we are born by the same mother, don't do this to me."

....

Instead of agreeing to his proposal, Fu Hanzheng countered with one of his own.

"Since parachute jumping isn't that satisfying... What about paragliding instead?"

Fu Shiyi screamed out of anger.

"Are you my brother or not?!"

"I am not doing anything to your woman!"

Fu Hanzheng lowered his voice. "What do you intend to do to her?"

"Brother, please, let me do bungee jumping, even ten times can work!" Fu Shiyi screamed.

"No parachuting, please, I don't want to die, you won't have a brother if I die."

Fu Shiqin reminded him. "I am still alive if you die."

Fu Hanzheng checked the time and felt too lazy to listen to him anymore.

"Send him down."

Fu Shiyi screamed and cried, refusing to jump.

“I regard you as brothers, so why do you treat me like I am adopted?!”

“If I die, I will haunt you!!!”

Fu Shiqin cut off the video chat when Fu Shiyi was still screaming.

Sigh, too bad for him.

Gu Weiwei knew that Fu Shiyi was going to suffer but she did not know what he was going to face.

It was not until she was waiting for the plane at the airport when she saw a picture in the group chat.

Fu Shiyi, who was always careful about his appearance, had unkempt hair and looked pale as he laid in bed.

She responded after pondering over the words.

[What is going on?]

[He Chi: Not sure, Lei Meng brought him here.]

Gu Weiwei found it both pitiful and funny, so she asked.

[He is fine, right?]

[He Chi: Alive but terribly frightened.]

They had just finished texting when Fu Shiqin joined the conversation.

[Fu Shiqin: If he become too frightened, send him to the mental hospital... he can stay there forever.]

Gu Weiwei replied, as she read what Fu Shiqin said.

[Are you brothers or not?]

[Fu Shiqin: You should ask my brother if we are his real brothers or adopted.]

[He Chi: Should be real because no elder brother would want to adopt two younger brothers like you.]

Chapter 316: Two Children

This sentence said by He Chi, made Fu Shiqin so annoyed that he did not utter a word until a long time later.

[He Chi, you are going to be a dead man!]

Although he himself thought so too, yet when it was spoken of out loud, by someone else, it still hurt a great deal.

He Chi did not reply because Fu Shiyi had just woken up and was fiercely swearing in bed.

“Fu Hanzheng, Fu Shiqin, you two are going to suffer a great deal one day, just wait and see!”

He Chi looked at him with a pitiful look as he tried to persuade him out of kindness.

“Just drop it, alright, don’t make a fuss in front of your brother anymore.”

He himself would not do anything more, unless he was 100 % certain about the success, according to the experience he had got.

“If I can’t bring my eldest brother down, I will make sure that Second Brother suffers!”

Fu Shiyi was very irritated. He was really irritated when he thought of how Fu Shiqin teased him when he was about to jump.

“...” He Chi had no words to counter.

Well, instead of achieving their goal, they started a civil war once again.

He took a seat next to him and asked the group in silence.

[Sister-in-law, when do you guys plan to have children?]

The only way to bring down the devil is to cultivate the devil’s junior so that their revenge could be taken.

Seated in the VIP lounge of the airport, Gu Weiwei could not help but raise her eyebrows at the sight of the message in the group chat.

She could understand why Mrs. Fu urged them to have children but why did He Chi and his friends ask her to have babies soon as well?

[Not planning to.]

[He Chi: Oh no, you two have such great genes, you must pass them down!]

Fu Shiqin was pretty aware of what He Chi was planning, so he showed some support when he saw the message.

[Fu Shiqin: True, Sister-in-law, have two children for us to be uncles to!]

Gu Weiwei replied with a snort.

[They’ll be the ones toying around with you!]

Fu Shiyi joined the chat and urged them to give birth to babies too.

[Yes, get two nephews for us to play with!]

Gu Weiwei asked when she saw those urgent messages.

[So, you guys are planning to bring his children in for the team, when you fail to bring him down by yourselves?]

[Fu Shiqin: Impossible! I am just worried about my mother. She called me yesterday and asked about your children.]

[Fu Shiyi: We are very curious about what your children would look like, when both of you are so good-looking and smart!]

[He Chi: Yes, we are just curious what your children would be like.]

....

Gu Weiwei exited the group chat. She was not in the mood to chat with them any further.

She had just put away her phone, when a toy rolled to the side of her feet and a two-year-old boy, ran unsteadily towards her.

She picked up the toy and gave it to him.

The boy took it and thanked her under the suggestion of his mother.

“Thank you, sister.”

Gu Weiwei replied with a smile. “You are welcome.”

With the toy in his hands, the boy ran back to his parents on the opposite side.

Seeing the happy family, Gu Weiwei suddenly felt a bit distressed.

She had been enjoying the gentleness and care from Fu Hanzheng but she still could not bring herself to marry him or become the mother of his children.

She was not in the position to consider that step.

However, she would not be able to conceal the secret from him for her entire lifetime, since he was smart.

She was just getting distracted, when the phone rang. She came back to herself and picked it up.

The man’s low and profound voice arose in her ears.

“Leaving soon?”

“Yes.”

Fu Hanzheng could tell that she sounded a bit distressed. “In a bad mood?”

“No,” Gu Weiwei chuckled and replied, “Just... I missed you.”

“And you fell into a bad mood?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Startled, Gu Weiwei replied instantly.

“Yes, but now, I feel better again.”

Chapter 317: That Is Fu Hanzheng

Fu Hanzheng chuckled joyfully when he heard what she said.

“It is fashion week here, anything you want?”

“No thanks, I already have too many clothes at home.”

Gu Weiwei turned him down quickly. She had so many clothes that she could even open a shopping mall.

"I will buy you whatever I like." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei knew that as long as he was out on business, he would never return home without any gifts. So she did not tell him not to get anything either.

"I just heard from He Chi that Fu Shiyi is not in a good state. I told you not to punish him too fiercely and you did not listen."

Fu Hanzheng did not feel guilty about the punishment at all. "If his family name were not Fu, he would have got something worse than that."

"...."

Gu Weiwei did not need to doubt that if Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin had not been his brothers, they would have been long gone.

"I find that they think I am a man that can be bullied very easily, so they are getting very out of hand." Fu Hanzheng said.

Previously when they were not together, he would not mind them bad-mouthing him behind his back but after they became together, they seemed to have thought that he had weaknesses, so they kept on giving him trouble.

Gu Weiwei did not understand what kind of brothers they were after all.

"Anyway, as long as you have fun, that will be enough."

But the other three members of that team would never learn.

They would always take revenge, whenever they ran into some trouble.

"I need to leave for a banquet, I will call you later."

"Don't drink too much, it's bad for your kidneys." Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Fu Hanzheng countered with a low voice.

"It seems that you are not sure if my kidneys function well or not."

"I am totally sure about it. I am hanging up now, I'll be boarding soon." Gu Weiwei said after teasing him.

After a short while, Jolin and her assistant joined her and the three of them boarded the plane.

Luckily the film set of the Eyes of the Eagle was not far away from the capital city, so it took them only an hour or so before they arrived on set.

The three of them came to the hotel arranged by the set and after the staff registered their IDs, they said, "Miss. Mu, you have become the lucky client of our hotel and so you will be staying in the top suite of our hotel, with a private butler."

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows. “Really?”

The staff led them up to the top floor and opened the luxurious and classical suite.

“Miss. Mu, this is the room you are going to stay in.”

“Wow, my goodness, Weiwei, aren’t you a lucky star?” Jolin sighed in amazement.

After he took her on as his artist, he felt that his road ahead was becoming so much smoother than ever before. No misery and always fortune.

Jolin and the assistant walked around her room in excitement and then went downstairs to their own rooms.

Gu Weiwei saw them off and then the private butler came in with a bouquet of flowers.

“Miss. Mu, happy stays, just tell me if you need anything.”

Gu Weiwei took the flowers and checked the card left in the flowers, which showed – happy stays.

From Z.

The card was printed, but she could recognize the writing.

“Does this hotel belong to Fu’s Enterprise?”

The private butler smiled. “Recently acquired by Fu’s Enterprise.”

“...”

Gu Weiwei put down the flowers and smiled helplessly.

There was no such a thing as a lucky client.

It was Fu Hanzheng who had bought the hotel, when he knew that the crew were staying at this hotel.

Then, he found an excuse for her to stay in this suite.

It was exactly what Fu Hanzheng would do, of course.

Chapter 318: A Warning?

Strictly speaking, the Eyes of the Eagle was actually a spy film that took place in contemporary times.

It told a story of how Hua Land fell into the enemy’s hands and the fight between two schools during this particular period.

Gu Weiwei was supposed to play two roles – a ferocious woman called Huo Jing in the military bureau and a just and kind-hearted Huo Xiaoshi.

The first scene after the opening ceremony was not about her, but Xiang Linyuan, the role played by the lead actor Song Yu.

Xiang Linyuan was a warlord of the local area and the man whom both of the schools would like to have on their side.

However, he had already been under the control of the military bureau.

Song Yu might not be a very good-looking actor, yet he was quite talented, so he passed the first take perfectly.

The second scene was about Shen Qiu and Chu Chen.

However, Shen Qiu came to the director and presented a proposal.

“Director Mo, Chu Chen and I have worked together many times before, so we don’t need any extra time to get to know each other. How about filming me and Huo Jing first because we need to do the scene here anyway, right?”

Mo Jiao looked about and saw that Gu Weiwei was not on set.

All of a sudden, he felt a bit displeased.

The reason why she was not arranged to do the filming this morning was because he hoped that she could watch and learn from the seniors performing first, so that she could find her position as quickly as possible.

Unexpectedly, however, she did not show up.

“Assistant, where is Mu Weiwei?”

The director’s assistant looked about. “I saw her in the makeup room, should I get her here?”

Mo Jiao said, as his face fell, “Bring her here now.”

He had watched the Long Wind and noticed that the young girl was indeed talented. He also thought that she did well in the audition and Director Yi had also highly recommended her.

That was why he chose her to be the lead actress.

However, he was a bit worried that she was unable to play both Huo Xiaoshi and Huo Jing.

That was why he chose to film other scenes on the first day, so that she could watch and learn and find her own position.

Yet she even refused to show up.

Shen Qiu smiled. “She is too young to know how to behave well, please don’t mind it, Director Mo.”

Chu Chen came and added her piece.

“Young girls nowadays always become very arrogant, after they gain some popularity in a film.”

If it had not been for her and Shiyi, he would have got the role of Gu Changfeng and reached the top of the industry.

Instead of saying anything more, Shen Qiu got the script and waited next to them.

A long time later, the assistant brought her over.

Gu Weiwei could notice that the atmosphere seemed a bit weird, so she said to Mo Jiao, with a relatively lowered head, "Director, Lee says that I am supposed to be here."

Mo Jiao was very displeased about her absence, so he sat down and said, "Try the scene when Huo Jing is hunting Fang Yan in the 37th scene."

Originally, he had planned to shoot the scene later, when she found her own position because that was the scene when Huo Jing first showed up and if the scene was well made, Huo Xiaoshi and Huo Jing could be easily distinguished, otherwise the opposite personalities could not be told apart easily.

Also, since she was too young, he had been worried that she would not be able to play two roles.

Shen Qiu stood up and said with a gentle tone, "Read the script first, we will wait for you."

Of course she knew that it was an important scene, so the reason why she suggested making this scene was because she wanted to see how much further this girl could go.

Gu Weiwei smiled and said, "No need, let's start now."

She knew that she would not have a relaxing time when being with Shen Qiu and Chu Chen but unexpectedly, she received the warning on the very first day.

Chapter 319: Warning 2 (Extra)

Mo Jiao had not expected that she would have agreed so fast but instead of looking happy, he looked even less pleased.

She was talented but she was way too arrogant.

It was a scene that had been decided on, out of the blue but she said that she could do it right now. Did she remember all the lines, or did she know how to play the role?

"Script staff, lighting and cameramen, get ready now!"

"Makeup, get Huo Jing and Fang Yan done!"

Yi An had told him that she was a very talented actress and so, he could take this opportunity to see how talented she was after all.

Chu Chen approached Shen Qiu when she was doing her makeup.

"Spare no effort to teach her a lesson, maybe you can get the lead actress position if you give her a good lesson."

Shen Qiu was a talented actress but she never had the resources. If she was able to get the lead actress role, she would be paid and valued way more than she was now.

Shen Qiu threw a look at Gu Weiwei who was chatting happily with her agent and assistant.

"You don't have to tell me."

She had also done the audition of the Eyes of the Eagle but the director chose Mu Weiwei instead.

She had also been offered the supporting actress position in the Long Wind, so of course she was annoyed when the role in the Eyes of the Eagle was taken too.

She had thought that Li Xing'er could do something about her but that stupid woman had done nothing but solely focus on herself.

As a result, she gained herself a bad reputation instead of bringing down Mu Weiwei and these days, she had hidden herself away from the spotlight.

There were only a couple of good directors in this tiny film industry.

If that girl kept on getting the good roles, actresses like her would never get a chance!

Actresses' prime time was always very short and every film was of great importance, so role stealing happened very quickly.

Shen Qiu was prepared, yet Gu Weiwei, on the other hand, was waiting for the tools and lighting to be ready after the makeup.

Jolin was currently talking with her about what to eat, after they finished the filming tonight.

He knew pretty well how talented his girl would be, so he wasn't worried.

Shen Qiu was trying to give them a warning, yet she was actually going to give herself a bad reputation.

The deputy director passed by them and learned that they were not discussing how to play the role but about what to eat after work and their lead actress was replying excitedly about what dishes to try, with a bottle in her hands, rather than making preparations for the scene.

Soon, the cast were ready and the supporting roles and extras were on set as well.

"Fang Yan is rescued now, Huo Jing get into the car."

Gu Weiwei adjusted her costume, picked up the fake pistol and went into the car where she waited for her turn.

The scene was of Fang Yan, played by Shen Qiu, being discovered by Huo Jing when she was acting as a spy, yet she was rescued by her fellow friends.

Shen Qiu was a talented and experienced actress. The moment the director said action, she knew how to master the role.

She put on a near perfect performance, starting from the scene when she fought alone and managed to be rescued by her fellow friends.

The director was very satisfied by Shen Qiu's performance and after the supporting role and the extras were done, he said, "Time for Huo Jing!"

A drilling sound of a car breaking hard arose and a car stopped at the alley where Fang Yan had just run away. The subordinates pulled open the door.

A long leg in military boots stepped out of the car and Huo Jing, who was dressed in a green military uniform, exited the car and moved into the alleyway that was full of gunshots.

The sound of the boots echoed so loudly, it was as if they were stepping upon the edge of people's hearts, so that the entire scene was very intense.

Chapter 320: Better at Face Slapping

However, it was the perfect time for this scene.

A supporting role following Gu Weiwei kicked something and stumbled.

Mo Jiao stopped the filming and bellowed through the loudspeaker.

"Get ready, everyone, Huo Jing, go back to the car and restart the scene."

Shen Qiu was not sure what happened from where she stood but she could hear the director stopping the filming, so she thought that the lead actress made a mistake which caused the director to stop the scene.

An extra was Shen Qiu's fan and he complained with a small voice, when the director asked for a re-film.

"What is Director Mo thinking to have chosen her for the role? She is such a bad actress."

All the artists from Shiyi Culture were indeed good-looking but that didn't necessarily mean that they were talented.

He had not watched the Long Wind, so he also thought that Mu Weiwei was someone with no acting skills because she was an actress of Shiyi Culture.

"She is young and not everyone is born to be a talented person, so please be understanding, I will treat you guys to snacks afterwards, okay?" Shen Qiu said with a smile.

Apart from her and the extras, Chu Chen, who was standing with Song Yu, was saying something too.

"Brother Yu, you probably have to teach our lead actress..."

Although she had gained some good achievements with the Long Wind, the character of Tang Shaoqi and her position in that film, was totally different from Huo Xiaoshi and Huo Jing in this film.

Without experience, no one was able to present Huo Jing well.

If Huo Jing did not work, Huo Xiaoshi would be a failure too, no matter how much she tried to be her because it would be difficult to tell Huo Xiaoshi and Huo Jing apart, if that was the case.

Song Yu smiled without making any comments.

The scriptwriter sitting next to Mo Jiao also spoke with a worried expression.

"I told you that Mu Weiwei is too young to become Huo Xiaoshi and Huo Jing."

She was just a 19-year-old girl. How could she perform as the chief of the information department of the military bureau?

She would not be able to play Huo Jing if she was lacking experience, knowledge or even a certain aura.

Standing next to the scriptwriter, Jolin said nothing in response to him and kept his arms crossed.

His girl was good at acting and even better at face slapping.

Mo Jiao said loudly, when everyone was in position, "Action!"

The script chief said, "Second take, scene 37 of the Eyes of the Eagle."

The sound of guns arose in the alleyway, and the bystanders nearby rushed around as a car pulled over at the entrance of the alleyway.

Huo Jing, the chief of the information department of the military bureau, was dressed in green as she glanced about and rushed into the alleyway with a small group of men.

With one hand holding the gun, the other making a gesture, she ordered coldly, "Team one, follow me. Team two, take the back!"

Huo Jing and her men reached Fang Yan and her fellows and killed two of Fang Yan's friends.

Without hesitating as she fired the gun, she didn't even blink in horror as she trampled over the blood and the dead corpses and caught up with them.

At first, Mo Jiao frowned deeply but the moment the car door opened and Huo Jing appeared, as she stepped off the car, he started to look amazed.

He had never expected that a 19-year-old girl, who had only moments ago, been cheerfully talking with her agent and assistant, could have found her position so quickly.

She had not only presented a vivid Huo Jing, but she had become Huo Jing the moment she exited the car.

This was the lethal beauty of the chief of the information department of the military bureau and she had presented the role vividly. She had also successfully made the supporting roles follow her suit.

She did not need any instruction about where to go and what to do because she herself had shown off the best effect that he had desired.

She knew exactly when to shoot, when to speed up, what gaze to use and what expression to present. She had executed every detail so perfectly that he had nothing to pick on.

The best actor may not look like the role they play but are the role they play.

He finally understood what this sentence meant at this moment.
