

MY HIDDEN 381

Chapter 381: Someone Else's Wife

However, since she had Yuan Bao in her arms, she only showed one half of her face.

Instantly, with one hand holding Yuan Bao, the other stuffed the fake teeth back into her mouth, when Jolin and Xu were picking up their things.

Jolin picked up his things and sized the two of them up curiously.

Gu Weiwei smiled and showed her large teeth.

But Jolin was still sizing her up with a frown – why did he think that this person looked like his girl, just a moment ago?

Seeing the situation, Yuan Meng shielded her and bellowed at Jolin.

“What are you looking at? Never seen anyone else's wife before?”

Seeing Yuan Meng holding the cigarette and her unshaven face, Xu found that she looked very much like a hooligan.

So she tugged at Jolin and said, “Brother Jolin, let's go.”

Jolin took a few steps and then glanced back – she looked very much like his girl even from behind.

Holding Yuan Bao, Gu Weiwei walked out of Jolin's sight and said, as she gave Yuan Bao back to Yuan Meng, “I must go back now, Jolin must have sensed something.”

If, when he went back to the hotel and she was nowhere to be seen, it would be a very difficult thing to explain.

“No way, you look too ugly to be recognized.” Yuan Meng said.

They were just talking when Yuan Bao glared back at his mother.

“Sister Weiwei is my wife, not yours!”

“Alright, alright, your wife!”

Yuan Meng held her son in one arm and the other held the cigarette.

People might really think that it was a father holding his daughter in this way.

“I am going back now, be careful, contact me when Master is here.”

Gu Weiwei panicked as she looked in the direction where Jolin was going.

“Yuan Bao, I am leaving now, I will meet you next time, okay?”

Yuan Bao suddenly started to weep when he heard the words.

“Sister Weiwei, do you dislike me?”

“I do like you but I have other important things to handle.”

Gu Weiwei had to console this cute, little boy.

“Are you mom’s wife or mine?”

“I...” Gu Weiwei felt her forehead and reached out for his head.

“Yours, okay? I am leaving now.”

Within the hour she was out, she became someone else’s wife.

Hearing her reply, Yuan Bao stopped weeping and waved his hand.

“Bye wife.”

Gu Weiwei glared at Yuan Meng and whispered, “Can’t you teach your son well? He is picking up bad habits from you!”

“Alright, just go now!”

Yuan Meng knew that if she was found out, disaster would come, so she did not ask her to stay for dinner.

Gu Weiwei picked up her pace and chose another way, she took a taxi and returned to the club close to the hotel and got changed.

She had her original clothes on as she came out of the club and she tossed the other clothes into the nearby dustbin, before returning to the hotel.

She had only been in the room for ten minutes, when Jolin came knocking at the door.

“The assistant and I went to buy some fruit, here you go.”

As he spoke, he sized her up from head to toe.

Gu Weiwei took over the stuff and showed a very beautiful smile.

“Thanks.”

Jolin asked curiously, “Weiwei, your dad or your mom, do they have another daughter?”

“Li Jiacheng has two other daughters, you already know about this.” Gu Weiwei said.

So this man did suspect something, it was a good thing that she was here on time.

“I ran into a freckled woman on the way home, she looked very much like you, especially the eyebrows.” Jolin complained.

Gu Weiwei laughed dryly. “Is that so?”

“Maybe I was just dizzy, that woman has a child already, she also has freckles and her teeth are extremely large. However her husband looks good, unusual taste in beauty maybe.” Jolin sighed pitifully.

Gu Weiwei yawned. "I am going to go to sleep now, if you don't have anything else to say."

Jolin nodded, turned around and took the elevator downstairs.

Gu Weiwei closed the door and took a deep breath.

Luckily, she had bumped into Jolin and not Fu Hanzheng's men.

Chapter 382: Fu Hanzheng's Birthday Present

Since she ran into Jolin during her meeting with Yuan Meng, she had been feeling uneasy for two days in a row.

Luckily, Jolin did not give it any extra thought and Fu Hanzheng's men did not notice her movements either.

Therefore, she felt totally relieved.

Soon, it was time for Fu Hanzheng to return and today was his birthday too.

Since hearing from Fu Shiqin that he was working on a significant project abroad, he had much to do these days.

So when Fu Hanzheng said that he was coming to visit her, she suggested that she go back to the capital to find him instead.

Unexpectedly, however, she had way too much work to do that day for her to be able leave early.

And now the snow was falling down in heavy clusters, so when she arrived at the airport after many twists and turns, the plane could not take off due to the blizzard.

Seeing that only a couple of hours were left before midnight struck, Gu Weiwei felt rather uneasy on the plane.

So she made a call to Fu Hanzheng.

"What if I can't make it tonight?"

"Then I can come to your place and make up for today, tomorrow." Fu Hanzheng sounded completely calm.

Gu Weiwei looked out of the window and said, "The wind seems milder, can't they take off now?"

Fu Hanzheng consoled her.

"Safety comes first, wait until it gets better."

He was waiting for her but he did not want her to take the risk.

Gu Weiwei could tell that it was a bit noisy on the other side of the phone.

"You are at a banquet?"

"The old mansion is hosting a birthday banquet, some relatives and friends are here."

Fu Hanzheng stood by the window with a glass of red wine, looking much more gentle than when he was in front of the guests.

After exchanging some small talk with a few wealthy ladies, Ms. Fu was slightly startled at seeing her son standing by the window. She approached Fu Shiqin who was eating from the plate in his hand.

“Who is your brother talking to?”

Fu Shiqin stuffed a slice of cake into his mouth. “Of course to our sister-in-law.”

Who would be charming enough to make his brother stay away from the guests, apart from his girlfriend?

“She is not coming to your brother’s birthday banquet?” Mrs. Fu asked.

She had been hearing them talk about his girlfriend, yet she was nowhere to be seen.

Fu Shiqin pointed at the man who was on the phone. “You can ask him.”

Mrs. Fu asked, “Did your brother mention when they are getting married and having babies?”

Fu Shiqin rolled his eyes, looked about and said with a small voice, “Brother is keeping a lot of condoms in his apartment, there’s probably still a long way to go.”

“What?” Mrs. Fu got furious. “He is almost 30 and he is not having a baby yet?”

He had promised that as long as she did not interfere with his relationship, he would father children soon.

But the actual result seemed to be very different.

Fu Shiqin said, “Don’t tell anyone that I told you about this. Think of a way yourself to make him become a father.”

He and his third brother could not get him to have babies. His mother would have to help.

As long as their mother could work her magic, their plan of cultivating the little demon would be put into practise very soon.

They were just talking, when Fu Hanzheng hung up.

“Mom, you can receive the guests. I am going out now and will not return tonight.”

Fu Shiqin pursed his lips. He was going to pick up his girlfriend.

“You...”

Before Mrs. Fu finished her words, Fu Hanzheng was already out of the house.

He had just left when Fu Shiqin received Fu Shiyi’s call.

“Didn’t you say that we are having a party? Where is everyone?”

Fu Shiqin snorted. “I am not going to be the third wheel.”

“I am having a bet with He Chi about what present Sister-in-law is preparing for him, the one who loses is going to eat noodles with wasabi!”

Hearing this, Fu Shiqin put down the plate.

“Hang on, I am heading over.”

He was definitely going to win the bet.

Chapter 383: Fu Hanzheng’s Birthday Present 2 (Extra)

At 11:30 p.m., Gu Weiwei finally arrived in the capital on Fu Hanzheng’s private jet.

Seeing that there was only half an hour left, she sighed helplessly.

So she was not going to make it after all.

But the moment she stepped off the plane, she saw the elegant man, dressed in a grey overcoat, waiting for her at the exit.

Gu Weiwei went over to his side happily, smiling brightly.

“Happy Birthday!”

Fu Hanzheng swept her into his arms. “Get into the car first.”

The crew members brought her luggage off the plane and put them in the car.

Gu Weiwei followed him into the car and they returned to Landscape Villa, which was close by.

The moment they entered the villa, they saw balloons, ribbons and a very decorative apartment.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the three uninvited people and frowned unhappily.

“You three are very free?”

“Sister-in-law invited us here!” The three of them pointed at Gu Weiwei next to him.

Unexpectedly, they were disdained.

Gu Weiwei smiled – well, it could be considered as the case.

“Eat the cake first, I made it at the hotel last night.”

Fu Shiqin went to take it the moment he heard that.

“Let me open it.”

He had to admit that the deserts his sister-in-law made, were even better than the ones from the family chef that they had hired from France.

But they just did not have many opportunities to eat them.

Maybe only once a year, on a day like this.

Soon the cake was on the table and the candles were put on.

“Although it is past midnight, we still need to sing the song.”

Fu Shiyi turned off the lights in the living room and led the singing.

Fu Hanzheng ignored the three extra men but stared at this smiling girl. The girl’s gentle voice struck his heart.

He had celebrated 28 birthdays but only this year’s birthday made him happy.

He blew out the candles, cut the cake and was about to eat it, when He Chi and Fu Shiyi presented the presents they prepared, as if they were presenting treasure.

He Chi gave him a specimen of pinned insects and Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi scorned him.

Fu Shiqin said, “Can’t you be a little bit more sincere, when you are giving presents to people? You gave him fish-bone fossils last year!”

Fu Shiyi said, “And you gave each of us a dinosaur fossil and now you are giving my brother bugs?”

He Chi replied, “My gifts are treasures, alright? This is a tree lobster!”

Fu Shiyi put it aside and turned to Fu Shiqin.

“What about you?”

Fu Shiqin opened his own present and showed it to him.

“Patek Philippe, excellent enough?”

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead and looked at these three dumb men, who were opening the presents they had prepared – did they forget whose birthday it was?

The receiver had not touched it but yet the senders had ripped them open themselves.

“Damn, our brother doesn’t need this kind of watch!” Fu Shiyi snorted.

“Then show us your present! Let’s see how excellent it is.” Fu Shiqin snorted.

Fu Shiyi carried his gift and showed it to his brother.

“Brother, open it yourself.”

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at it, showing no interest in the proffered present.

Fu Shiyi blinked. “Brother, trust me, you will like it.”

With one hand holding Gu Weiwei, the other tearing open the knot, Fu Hanzheng lifted the lid and glanced at it.

“Good, put it down.”

Fu Shiqin and He Chi stared at Fu Shiyi in astonishment. “What did you give to him?”

“Something better than yours!”

Fu Shiyi put the lid on firmly and looked proud.

“Give it to me!” Fu Shiqin grabbed the box when he was not paying attention and lifted the lid.

The moment he brought out the things inside, the whole room turned quiet.

Chapter 384: Star and the Moon

A fiery red and sexy sleeping gown was brought out from the box by Fu Shiqin and the moment he took it out, he was dumbfounded.

Fu Shiyi took a look at his older brother and then at his second brother.

He thought inwardly – You are a dead man.

Fu Shiyi then threw a discreet look at Gu Weiwei and then at Fu Shiqin.

He again thought inwardly – You are a dead man.

He Chi threw a look at Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei who were on the sofa and then at the twin brothers who were standing next to each other.

He thought inwardly – You are both dead men.

Gu Weiwei threw a freezing look at Fu Shiyi, who gave the present, when she saw what Fu Shiqin brought out.

This man might have found that being alive was boring. She had not yet talked with him about selling those pictures to Jolin and now he was giving such a seductive present to his brother on his birthday?

And... She turned around to look at Fu Hanzheng slowly and then she truly looked furious.

Did he just say that it was a good present?

And, he accepted it without any objections?!

Fu Hanzheng said without changing his expression, “You don’t seem to have anything like this.”

“....”

Gu Weiwei pulled out her hand from his.

What did he mean by that?

Who would want such a thing anyways?!

Fu Shiqin stuffed the present back into the box, pretending as if nothing had happened and returned the present back to Fu Shiyi as he whispered, “You won.”

Sure enough, he was not a man who was as lustful as his brother.

Fu Shiyi glared back at him – damn you, you ruined everything!

He had intended to give the present to his brother on the sly, who had accepted it and may have even used it tonight, so that he could have a very sexy birthday.

Then afterwards, he would thank him thoroughly.

But when he brought out the present in front of their sister-in-law, everything was ruined!

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth and glared at Fu Shiyi.

“What is your problem?”

Fu Shiyi laughed guiltily. “I am just giving my brother some clothing.”

Gu Weiwei clenched her teeth. “For your brother to wear?”

Fu Shiyi put down the box with a pair of smiling eyes – of course it was not for his brother to wear.

But for his brother, she was the best birthday present anyways.

All he did was offer some accessories.

Seeing that the atmosphere was turning unpleasant, Fu Shiyi switched the topic instantly.

“It doesn’t matter what my present is, yours matters most of all. What have you got for my brother?”

Fu Hanzheng turned to the girl next to him expectantly but Gu Weiwei sneered at him.

“Nothing, nothing now.”

She should not have agreed to return for this damned birthday.

“Please, our brother has been looking forward to this for days!” Fu Shiqin helped persuade her.

Furious, Gu Weiwei grabbed the paper back and stuffed it straightforwardly into Fu Hanzheng’s hands, unwilling to say anything more.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin, as well as He Chi, looked at the present in Fu Hanzheng’s hands, waiting for the answer of their bet to be revealed.

Fu Shiqin thought that it was an ornament but Fu Shiyi thought it was a tie. He Chi thought it would be a handcrafted present.

With the three men’s expectant look, Fu Hanzheng revealed the box. It was a pair of exquisite cufflinks in the shape of a moon and a pair of star ear-studs, as well as a small card.

He Chi said, “Cufflinks?”

Fu Shiyi said, “Ear-studs?”

So Fu Shiqin had won the bet.

Fu Hanzheng picked up the card and smiled at what was written on it.

“I wish that you are the moon and that I am a star, so that we can show each other light every night.”

The moon shaped cufflinks were for him whilst the star-shaped ear-studs were for her.

He Chi and the two brothers turned around to drink some water – this kind of love was way too sweet for them to hold onto.

Chapter 385: Cheers!

Seeing Fu Hanzheng's smiling face, Gu Weiwei showed a light smile as well.

She thought that couple rings or watches were way too common and if they put them on, the message would be too clear.

But if they wore these, it would be impossible for the public to figure out their relationship.

Therefore, she turned to Merlin and told him about her ideas, so that he designed the cufflinks and ear-studs for them.

She had intended to present the gifts in a very cheerful mood but Fu Shiyi had ruined it all.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hands and said, "This is the best present I have ever received."

The three men, who were drinking water from their cups, all felt heartbroken.

He Chi asked, "So he thinks that all of the presents we have given to him, during the past years, are all crap?"

Fu Shiqin threw a look at He Chi and said, "You, the specimen and fossil giver, truly have no qualifications of asking such a thing."

Fu Shiyi glanced at them. "Presents are not important, the giver is what matters most of all."

Even if it was a specimen of insects that his sister-in-law gave to his brother, his brother would consider them to be lovely and even put it on the desk, so he could see it everyday.

He Chi lifted the cup and glanced at the couple who were ignoring them. The couple were throwing sweet looks at each other.

"Anyway, cheers! Let's leave them alone."

Fu Shiqin went into the kitchen and carried the two bowls of noodles with wasabi over to them.

"You two lost... so you must finish them all."

Fu Shiyi threw a look at the noodles and asked with his arms crossed.

"Did you cheat?"

The gift was ornaments, just as he had said. That looked a bit too much like a coincidence.

"Don't try to come up with any excuses. Finish it all." Fu Shiqin struck the table.

It was just that he had heard Xu Qian talking about his sister-in-law contacting Merlin, so he did the guesswork based on the information he had received.

Fu Shiyi exchanged a look with He Chi and started to pack up his things, ready to leave.

Fu Shiyi said, "Second Brother, I still have work to do, so I need to head for the airport now."

He Chi said, "I have two more operations to do tonight, so I need to leave now too."

Fu Shiqin was about to stop them, when someone else stole the show.

"Wait!"

Gu Weiwei stopped them and put the two bowls of noodles in front of them.

"Finish them!"

He Chi could not help but cry.

"Sister-in-law, don't get me involved because he's given you trouble!"

Gu Weiwei stuffed the bowls into the two men's arms and said, "No more talking!"

Fu Shiyi threw a pitiful look at his brother. "Brother, please!"

Fu Hanzheng threw a glance in their direction. "Don't waste food."

"Ahhh!!!"

Feeling furious and sorrowful, Fu Shiyi finished the bowl of noodles with wasabi, in tears.

He had been satisfied with his present a minute ago and now, he was showing a completely different attitude.

He Chi also got involved with the punishment and finished the food in tears.

Fu Shiqin happily took pictures and videos of them. He laughed so much that he almost rolled on the ground.

Gu Weiwei felt a bit better, when she saw Fu Shiyi's tears welling up out of his eyes because of the strong taste of wasabi.

Then she gave the present back to him.

"Take it home, you can wear it yourself."

Finally, the three men were gone.

Fu Hanzheng beckoned her over and asked her to sit down in his arms.

Then he reached out for the starry ear-studs, brushed away the hair over her ears and gently put them on for her.

"Very pretty."

Gu Weiwei felt the ear-studs and said, "Merlin designed them, of course they are pretty."

Fu Hanzheng had his forehead against hers and said, "I mean you are pretty."

Gu Weiwei chuckled and kissed his lips.

"Uncle Fu, you are getting sweeter and sweeter."

He was getting better and better at flirting with her.

What awarded her praise was a long and deep kiss from the man. She forced herself away from the kiss and said, panting, "I... need to head back to the set."

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and picked her up, heading towards the bedroom upstairs.

"I will be quick."

The three rules he had to stick to in the hotel at the set... would be totally invalid when they were at home.

Chapter 386: Strong Taste

For a long time, the intense sound of panting arose in the master bedroom.

Gu Weiwei was flushed from head to toe and slightly sweating. She opened her mouth in a gasp as her hands gripped the bed sheets.

She buried herself in his neck, moaning with teeth biting into her lips.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his head and took hold of the petal-like lips gently, yet he was not slowing down in the lower part of his body.

....

The intimacy that they had been longing for came to an end in pleasure.

Gu Weiwei was panting heavily as she struck the man hard, who was holding her.

"So that is what you meant by 'being quick'?"

Fu Hanzheng was sweating as he kissed her sweaty cheeks.

"Go and take a shower, I will drive you to the airport."

Gu Weiwei turned down his offer of taking a shower with her and extricated herself from out of his arms and put on a dressing gown.

"You are in a hurry, aren't you? Let's save some time."

"It is okay!"

Gu Weiwei went into the bathroom with her clothes, locked the door and took a shower.

Fu Hanzheng put on the dressing gown, got up and called the crew member to ready the jet for the flight.

Then he went into another bathroom and got changed.

It was three in the morning when she managed to get to the airport.

"You missed dinner just now, go and eat something on the plane first before taking a rest."

Gu Weiwei nodded tiredly. She had been working the whole day and had then flown back home. She had spent two hours with him in bed and what she needed most of all was to sleep.

Fu Hanzheng kissed her slightly cool forehead unwillingly. "I will visit you when I finish work."

"It is okay, the filming will finish before the New Year." Gu Weiwei took hold of him and whispered, "Work hard and rest well, wait for me to return."

Fu Hanzheng chuckled, massaged her forehead and saw her off as she boarded the plane.

It was not until the plane took off that he drove away.

....

Fu Shiqin left the Landscape Villa and was intending to do some work in the apartment.

He was going to perform well so that his brother would not blame him for ruining Fu Shiyi's present and giving him trouble.

On the way home, he received Lei Meng's call.

"Second Master, something is going on, I can't reach the Boss and I need you here."

"You are simply asking for death if you are trying to reach him now."

Fu Shiqin laughed and turned around, driving towards Lei Meng's place.

Lei Meng was responsible for the Fu Family's security and the information collector of the Fu Family. If he needed to find his brother, then the matter must be of great importance.

But his brother must be in the middle of experiencing spring, so he had ignored his call.

Fu Shiqin arrived at the security company Lei Meng was employed at and asked as he yawned (he was feeling very sleepy), "What is so urgent that you need me at night?"

"It is about Miss. Mu Weiwei." Lei Meng confessed.

Fu Shiqin raised his eyebrows. "Why are you surveying my sister-in-law when you have other business to deal with?"

Lei Meng understood that the matter was involved with his Boss' privacy, so he drove away everyone else and had only himself and a trusted hacker remaining there.

"We have discovered something else, when we are following Gu Siting's men, who are following Miss. Mu."

Having said the words, Lei Meng asked the hacker to open a picture.

In the picture, there was a young man in a leather coat, smoking and a freckled woman sitting in his arms at the corner of a bar.

Fu Shiqin threw a look at the picture and said, "This man looks handsome, but this girl is a little bit... well."

Lei Meng sighed helplessly. "Second Master, can't you be a little bit more discreet?"

Fu Shiqin squinted at the woman. "Yes, a little familiar but I have never held such a woman in my arms." He said and started to eat the snacks on the table.

Lei Meng threw a look at the hacker and a picture of Mu Weiwei was displayed on the computer screen, right next to the previous picture.

Fu Shiqin's hands shook and he dropped the snack he had wanted to put in his mouth.

Chapter 387: Behind His Back

When the two pictures were put separately, nothing strange came to mind but when they were placed together, he gradually found that this hideous-looking girl looked a bit like his sister-in-law?

"Are you saying..."

Fu Shiqin just could not believe it. He pointed at the two pictures on the screen from one to the other.

Lei Meng asked his man to put up two more pictures. One was showing Mu Weiwei entering a therapy club.

The other was showing this hideous-looking woman coming out of the club.

"A couple of days ago, Miss. Mu Weiwei entered this club and this woman came out after half an hour."

Fu Shiqin's hands shook. "Are you saying that... this woman is actually my sister-in-law in costume?"

"If two similar women appear one after the other in the same place, then it is very possible that they are the same person." Lei Meng said.

But this was just a conjecture based on the clues he had gotten and it was very much related to his Boss' relationship.

He did not really want to make comments on it.

Fu Shiqin panicked and he felt a bit confused too.

"You mean that it happened a couple of days ago... so my sister-in-law disguised herself and met a wild man, when my brother was not around?"

When Lei Meng heard the word wild man, his lip corners twitched.

"If this is Miss. Mu, then she did go and meet a suspicious man."

Fu Shiqin almost went crazy and pointed at the picture on the screen and asked Lei Meng, "Why?"

"My brother is so handsome, so why is she still meeting a wild man?"

....

Lei Meng felt a bit helpless by his angry questions. "Maybe they were not meeting to have an affair?"

"What do you mean not having an affair? Look at how this man holds her in his arms! He might just be holding her when the camera is on them, but when the camera is turned away, they may be kissing!"

Fu Shiqin got so angry that he did not feel sleepy at all. He kept pacing back and forth in the room.

Lei Meng regretted having asked him to come here. Could he stop making up stories when there is no evidence yet.

“Are we telling Boss about it?”

“Of course we are.” Fu Shiqin said and then said with regret, “Don’t tell my brother right now, find out who this man is first, beat him to death and then drag him in front of my brother.”

It was so difficult for his brother to finally be in a relationship.

How could this man be so bold as to steal the woman from his brother?

He just could not stand it at all!

“We are already looking into that man but strangely enough, we can’t find any clues about him, it seems that his identity is fabricated.” Lei Meng said.

“Fabricated?” Fu Shiqin asked.

Lei Meng nodded. “And CCTV records of the bar where they met have been removed. This picture was taken from a guest’s phone.”

“Bar, what bar?” Fu Shiqin blinked.

Lei Meng said, “Like... a male prostitute bar.”

“What!” Fu Shiqin started to pace back and forth with clenched teeth.

Mu Weiwei, you must be really bold to have done such a thing behind my brother’s back!

No way...

Even he was seriously annoyed when he heard the news, so if his brother learned about it, he would go mental.

“Find that man, now!”

Lei Meng shook his head. “This man has a mysterious identity and we have not found out who he is. He knew that someone was following Miss. Mu, so after the meeting, he removed all the possible CCTV records that might possibly lead us to them.”

Angry, Fu Shiqin asked furiously, “So you can’t find out anything about this wild man?”

“We have checked the CCTV cameras of many places where Miss. Mu has been to but this man seems to be someone that popped up all of a sudden out of nowhere and then disappeared.” Lei Meng replied.

Normally, he would immediately report the results.. but this time, he had run into some issues.

“How can you tell my brother anything if you can’t find him.” Fu Shiqin asked.

Lei Meng stayed silent for a moment and said, “We may not be able to find him, but there are still two ways to find out who this mysterious man is.”

Chapter 388: Unfaithful

“Then go and find him, if you have the methods, don’t babble here with me!” Fu Shiqin felt both furious and anxious.

Seeing the man in front of him, Lei Meng felt that this man was strange – it was his brother’s girlfriend who was meeting some other man, not his own but he seemed even more pissed than if his own girlfriend was meeting someone else.

Although he did not have one himself.

“The two methods I talked about is one, we stay tuned and watch them until they meet again...”

Before he finished the words, Fu Shiqin interrupted him instantly.

“Meet again? Then my brother will be totally ruined!”

Lei Meng sighed and asked, “Second Master, could you please stay calm and listen to me first?”

Fu Shiqin took a deep breath. “I am calm, okay, go on.”

“The first method might work out in the end but it is uncertain when they will be meeting again, so it is not an absolutely certain method.” Lei Meng said.

Hearing that the first method would take too much time, Fu Shiqin said straightforwardly, “What is the second method?”

“Miss. Mu must know where the man is... so if she can tell Boss herself...” Lei Meng said.

When this matter was discovered, Boss would definitely ask Miss. Mu about it anyways.

So if Miss. Mu could tell him where this man was, they would definitely find him and that was the swiftest method they could come up with.

Otherwise, whatever information they had right now was too little for them to find that man quickly.

Startled, Fu Shiqin could not come up with a better answer but asked Lei Meng directly, “Then should I tell my brother about it?”

Lei Meng said, “You should.”

Fu Shiqin asked, “What should I say to him?”

His brother liked Mu Weiwei a great deal and everyone knew about it.

It was too great a blow to just say out loud.

He just could not do that, not at all.

Lei Meng asked his man to print out the pictures and gave them to Fu Shiqin.

“Here are the pictures, see what you can do.”

Fu Shiqin took them and suddenly realized something.

“Lei Meng, are you trying to give this burden to me, so that you don’t have to be loaded with it yourself?”

“No, no, I really failed to reach Boss.” Lei Meng said sincerely.

Of course that was his plan but he was never going to admit it.

Fu Shiqin took the pictures and asked, when he saw the picture of the two people hugging, “This picture is way too stimulating, can we get another one?”

Lei Meng shook his head and said, “That is the most clear-looking one, in the others you can’t see their faces.”

Fu Shiqin brought the pictures with him and returned to the apartment. He failed to fall asleep the entire night as he felt very annoyed.

He felt that he was holding grenades, when he held the pictures.

When he came to work the following morning, he looked very tired but his brother looked radiant and happy.

In the afternoon, several important meetings came to an end.

Fu Shiqin went over to Fu Hanzheng’s office anxiously, locked the office door and was hesitant, he didn’t know what to say.

Fu Hanzheng was signing the contract when he glanced at the anxious-looking Fu Shiqin.

“Still not telling me what is going on after a whole day?”

He had noticed that his brother who had always loved food, never ate lunch. Which meant that he must be thinking about something.

Fu Shiqin took a deep breath and asked, “Brother, how is it going on with you and sister-in-law?”

Fu Hanzheng squinted at him. “What do you mean?”

Fu Shiqin thought for a while and asked,

“How is your... s*x life going?”

Fu Hanzheng said, “You want to die, don’t you?”

Fu Shiqin scratched his head and said with a serious face, “These past few days, Lei Meng and his men found out something about sister-in-law, when they were checking Gu Siting and his men.”

Fu Hanzheng closed the folder after hearing that it was about her, he put down the pen.

“What is it?”

Fu Shiqin put the picture on the table and then finally the picture where the man and the woman were seen together.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the pictures on the table and then saw the last picture. He suddenly turned cold.

Chapter 389: Not Doing Well?

Seeing his brother's face, Fu Shiqin knew that he did not need to explain anything, for his brother to understand what he was bothered with.

He truly was not trying to suspect that something was going on with his brother in his s*x life but what Mu Weiwei was doing in the photos did give him that thought.

At first, she had intensely courted his brother but after the night when they slept together, she no longer courted him.

And even after his brother had got her after much effort, she found someone else after being together with him.

His brother was good-looking and rich and also spoiled her rotten, what on earth had made her so dissatisfied that she needed to find other men in such a place?

He thought hard for a night and the only thing he could come up with was that they were not having good s*x.

His brother got so angry when he was asked... did he feel that it was the same thing too?

With his eyes on the pictures for a long time, Fu Hanzheng asked with a cold voice, "When did this happen?"

"When you were away on business." Fu Shiqin confessed.

His brother had just left, when she then went to have fun in the bar. How annoying!

Fu Hanzheng looked lethal. "Tell me everything."

He couldn't just suspect or guess anything, just because of these pictures.

Fu Shiqin sized up his brother's expression discreetly. "They had been trying to find Gu Siting's men but unexpectedly found that Mu Weiwei had dodged the bodyguards for some reason. Then they found her here in this bar, where she met this man."

They were meeting, alright, but that man was holding her in his arms! His paws should be chopped off!

With eyes focused on the pictures, Fu Hanzheng listened to Fu Shiqin's words quietly.

Fu Shiqin after explaining the general situation, then said, "After the meeting, this man removed all the records that had possibly filmed their faces and these pictures are rare ones... he is also using a false identity, so even Lei Meng's men could not find where he is from or how he disappears."

It was already a very serious matter that Mu Weiwei was meeting another man but the worse thing was that she met him on the sly and they looked so close to each other as well.

Fu Hanzheng squinted. "You can't find him?"

“No, we can’t.” Fu Shiqin nodded and said, “So unless he appears again or... Mu Weiwei confesses to you about it... we can’t find him at all.”

This pretty man was very good at avoiding surveillance. He had left no traces behind.

Fu Hanzheng put down the pictures and said, “Go and look for this man, and find him!”

Fu Shiqin looked at his brother in astonishment. “Are you not going to ask Mu Weiwei?”

“You must not tell her anything either.” Fu Hanzheng warned him seriously as he threw a look at Fu Shiqin.

She dodged his bodyguards and dressed up in this way, just to meet this man.

So that meant that she did not want him to discover this man’s existence and she was never going to tell him the truth even if he asked her.

“But if we wait until that man appears again, it would take ages.” Fu Shiqin said.

Fu Hanzheng looked profound and lethal. He glanced at the man who had his hands over her shoulders and was smoking.

“They must have contacted each other before they were discovered this time, so look deeper. Something will definitely pop up.”

All this time, he had been feeling that she was holding onto way too many secrets, even though she was with him.

And this man in the picture must be part of her secrets, or something that led to the secrets.

Chapter 390: Love You

Fu Shiqin couldn’t understand, why didn’t he just ask Mu Weiwei about it?

However, he could not argue against what he said.

“I will ask Lei Meng and his men to check if Mu Weiwei had met anyone suspicious before.”

“Also, don’t tell Shiyi anything.” Fu Hanzheng stressed.

Fu Shiqin nodded. “I got it.”

If Third Brother knew about it, he would definitely ask Mu Weiwei about it, so that he could be rewarded.

The door of the office was closed and a suppressive, long silence dominated the room.

Fu Hanzheng put away the pictures and was startled, when he caught sight of the moon-shaped cufflinks on his shirt.

“I wish I were a star and you the moon, so we could reflect each other, night after night.”

Was she being truthful or was it empty talk?

Who was that man that she met in disguise and ran to.

He could not have been someone like Wei Ziting or Qin Lv, who might displease him but never trouble him.

That man must have a very special relationship with her, if she had to sneak out to meet him.

So special that she had to conceal everything from him.

All this time, he had known a version of her that might not even be real.

All of a sudden, he started to suspect something horrible.

Everyone said that he was sharp-sighted and could see through the intentions of his opponent but he now realized that he could not even see through the girl who was next to him, not at all.

Gu Weiwei did not know that her meeting with Yuan Meng had been revealed to Fu Hanzheng.

After a day of filming in the film town, she went back to the hotel, ate dinner and went to sleep.

It was not until midnight, when she woke up, that she realized that Fu Hanzheng, who would always call her every single day, turned out to be very quiet today.

She thought for a while and made a call of her own accord.

If he did not answer her, she would call him tomorrow.

After a few moments of ringing, the call was picked up and the low voice arose through the speaker.

“Why are you still awake?”

Gu Weiwei smiled. “I just woke up. Why didn’t you call me?”

Fu Hanzheng replied. “The butler said that you were tired and had gone to bed early.”

The roundtrip the night before must have kept her awake till dawn and the sleeping hours would be less than three hours.

“Oh.” Gu Weiwei replied and asked, “What about you?”

“Still working.” Fu Hanzheng said.

In fact, he just could not fall asleep because of the pictures of her and that man.

Gu Weiwei frowned when she heard his voice.

“Fu Hanzheng... what is wrong with you?”

He did not sound okay.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a few seconds. “What?”

“You sound a bit strange today.” Gu Weiwei said.

Normally, she could hear his gentleness from every single word but today, he sounded freezing cold.

Fu Hanzheng said, "What is so strange about it?"

In fact, his girlfriend was very smart. She knew how to observe and understand.

She was even able to tell the change in his tone.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, "You sound... unhappy."

Fu Hanzheng was silent. Of course he was unhappy when he saw her hugging someone else.

"A little."

Gu Weiwei sat up with the pillow in arms and chuckled.

"What should I do to make you happy?"

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a long while and said, "I want to hear something from you."

"What is it?" Gu Weiwei asked with a laugh.

Fu Hanzheng whispered. "That you love me?"

"Do I need to say it out loud?" Gu Weiwei chuckled.

"I want to hear it from you," Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei smiled and said, with a small giggle, "I love you."

In the past, maybe she had no idea what the relationship was, between her and Gu Siting but with Fu Hanzheng, she definitely understood that she loved him deeply.
