

MY HIDDEN 481

Chapter 481: Joined Forces

“But...”

Fu Shiqin looked at Yuan Shuo and then at his own brother, then whispered, “He used to help the Gu Family, do you think he is here helping us or tricking us?”

Also, what was his brother thinking when he entrusted someone else to rescue his girlfriend?

“All you need to do is to take care of the company and keep everything in order.”

Fu Hanzheng looked at him and turned to Xu Qian, asking him to contact Lei Meng.

Although this man was here for the first time, it was true that this man fled A Land and she had kept their meeting a secret, meaning that she trusted them deeply.

Also, his wife was able to sneak into the neighbourhood of the Gu Family so as to make this video, meaning that they truly wished to save her.

Fu Shiqin sighed. Unconvinced, Fu Shiqin decided not to disturb their rescue plan.

Soon, Xu Qian came over with the map of A Land, as well as the neighbourhood area of the Gu Family, and the security.

Yuan Shuo glanced at the map of the Gu’s mansion and said, as he picked up a pen,

“What you see here is just the superficial security of the mansion. There are a lot of hidden equipment, as well as high quality surveillance cameras. There are all kinds of alarms inside the mansion and one small slip would stop you from even entering the gate.”

“How are we able to save her if that is the situation?”

Fu Shiyi was very confused after hearing his words.

Yuan Shuo threw a look at them and said,

“I’m not sure when he is going to conduct the plastic surgery, so the first step is to delay him.”

Gu Siting would not entrust anyone else to do this matter, so he was going to keep an eye on the entire process.

So if there were other troubles for him to deal with, the plastic surgery would be delayed.

“I can arrange something.” Fu Hanzheng said.

“The second step is the plan for us to rescue Weiwei” Yuan Shuo looked at Fu Hanzheng and said, “We need to return to Hua Land in the safest and fastest way, the moment we get her.”

“A Land is an island land, nothing is faster than a plane in the sky.” Fu Shiyi suggested.

He Chi struck him hard on the back of his head. "The airlines are strictly controlled and Gu Siting would probably shoot the plane down directly if he is p*ssed off enough."

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and pointed at the sea territory between A Land and Hua Land.

"Follow this route, there is a small port here for smugglers. When you get her, come to the public sea territory at the highest speed. That is the place where the Hua Land military is patrolling. They are going to help you get back to the nearest port of Hua Land."

Yuan Shuo nodded in agreement. "But in case something pops up in the middle... we need to have two plans and two groups of people."

Fu Hanzheng looked sharp and replied after a moment of silence.

"I will arrange plan B. They will take care of the remaining enemies. What you need to do is to get Weiwei and bring her back to Hua Land."

Yuan Shuo nodded and said, "I am not going there just for Mu Weiwei but also for Yuan Bao's mother. If I get Mu Weiwei first, your men can bring her away first. I need to stay to find my wife."n

Fu Hanzheng answered. "Alright."

That man risked his life for Weiwei.

If he was only allowed to bring her back, Weiwei would blame him for the decision too.

"I have one condition." Yuan Shuo said.

Fu Hanzheng said, "Go on."

"It is a risky trip, I can't bring my son along with me. Someone needs to take care of him."Yuan Shuo said.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and turned to Fu Shiqin.

Fu Shiqin shook his head and pointed at Fu Shiyi who was already falling asleep.

"I need to go to work. With you gone, I have too much work to do."

Fu Hanzheng glanced at He Chi. "You and Fu Shiyi are to take care of the child."

He Chi laughed dryly. This was definitely not something he was able to turn down.

Chapter 482: The Boy

Since they must stop Gu Siting from suspecting them, they finished the rescue plan that very night.

Fu Hanzheng returned to F Land, to pretend as if he were still pursuing the outlaws, whilst arranging his men to follow Yuan Shuo into A Land for the rescue.

Fu Shiqin was getting ready for work in the morning, when Yuan Bao who was sleeping in the same room, got up as well.

The boy was quite independent. After he got up, he zipped open his own bag, grabbed his toothbrush and toothpaste, brushed his teeth and washed himself.

With the toothbrush in his mouth, Fu Shiqin stared at Yuan Bao who was brushing his teeth and standing on the chair. He asked, as he spat away the foam, "Your parents are both gone, aren't you afraid?"

Yuan Bao wiped his face and blinked.

"Why should I be afraid?"

They were out getting his wife back and they would return when they found her.

Fu Shiqin thought for a while, brushed his teeth quickly and took him out of the room as he kicked open Fu Shiyi's room door.

"Get up you two, time to take care of the kid!"

However, even after he ate breakfast with Yuan Bao, the two of them were still sleeping.

He was just holding Yuan Bao and heading up the stairs, ready to toss the boy over to them, when Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying hurried over to the villa, after hearing that they had come home the night before.

The moment they entered the villa, they spotted Fu Shiqin holding a boy who was eating a lollipop.

Mrs. Fu looked at him and then at Yuan Bao.

"Yours?"

Fu Shiqin asked, "What's mine?"

Mrs. Fu pointed at Yuan Bao. "This is not your son?"

Fu Shiqin put Yuan Bao down onto the floor and said, "That is impossible."

Fu Shengying asked, "Your brother's?"

Fu Shiqin was confused. "They have only been together for a brief period of time, where would they get this three-year-old son from?"

Mrs. Fu asked again, "So he is Shiyi's?"

Fu Shiqin got a bit irritated. "Not ours, someone else's. We are supposed to take care of him for a couple of days."

Unconvinced, Mrs. Fu said, "He is really not our grandchild?"

Fu Shiqin replied, "Mom, I understand clearly that you are very eager to have a grandson but please turn to our brother and Mu Weiwei for this question. There is no need to talk about this with me. I can't have a baby right now..."

His mother had been very interested in asking other children to call her grandma these past few years but none of her three sons was yet able to give her any grandchildren.

He was just speaking when his father picked up the little boy.

“Little boy, call me grandpa!”

Yuan Bao smiled sweetly, “Grandpa!”

Mrs. Fu followed. “Call me grandma!”

Yuan Bao turned to Mrs. Fu and said sweetly, “Grandma!”

Fu Shiqin sighed as he saw his parents playing with the boy. He said, as he checked the time, “Alright, it’s time for me to go to the company, you can play with him.”

“Hang on, you said that Mu Weiwei has been found. What is going on? Do tell!”

Fu Shengying remembered what he was here for and stopped Fu Shiqin who was about to go out.

Fu Shiqin said, “Gu Siting doesn’t want to give us a peaceful time, so he took away Mu Weiwei and tried to convince our brother that she is dead. But the DNA test showed that she is not, so our brother has arranged a rescue mission. Your daughter-in-law is still alive.”

Hearing his words, Mrs. Fu got annoyed.

“Why the Gu Family again?”

Fu Shengying thought of the grudge held between the Fu Family and the Gu Family and asked, “Are you sure that she can return safe and sound?”

He truly had no intention of seeing one more blood debt added between the Fu Family and the Gu Family.

“Of course we have to get her back safe and sound, otherwise our brother will either kill himself so he can be in the afterlife with her or stay single for the rest of his life.”

Having said those words, Fu Shiqin hurried off and headed for the company.

Chapter 483: Gu Weiwei

At the Gu Family’s mansion in A Land.

Gu Weiwei spent most of the day sleeping and when she was awake, she received tons of treatment from the doctor as well as the mental manipulation from Gu Siting. They were trying to convince her that she was Gu Weiwei, not Mu Weiwei.

Her behavior made Gu Siting very satisfied and he even allowed her to walk around in the Gu Family’s mansion.

But Ling Yan became increasingly irritated when she saw Gu Siting taking care of her all the time.

Gu Siting brought her out for an afternoon tea in the garden, where she was offered the best black tea from Daji Mountains, as well as multiple types of tasty pastries that she used to like.

But the moment they were seated, someone whispered by his ear.

“Mr. Gu, the two men hunting Yuan Meng died, we failed to get her.”

Gu Siting looked dark. "How dare she come back!"

"What are we supposed to do? She has approached the Gu Family's mansion." The messenger threw a look at the girl who was focusing on eating her pastry, "What if she finds out...?"

Gu Siting thought for a while and said, "Wait for me in the study, I..."

Before he finished speaking, the girl dropped her mug and covered her head in pain.

"My head aches so terribly."

"I am Mu Weiwei, I am Gu Weiwei, I am... who am I really?"

....

Seeing this scene, Gu Siting called his servant instead of doing any other work.

"Get Doctor Li here." He said as he swept her into his arms and said, as he caressed her head, "You are Gu Weiwei, Gu Weiwei, Gu Weiwei..."

Gu Weiwei kept her eyes lowered, yet she was not confused or in pain at all.

She was not suffering from a headache, but she heard what they were talking about.

Although they were whispering, she still caught the sound of Yuan Meng's name and the information that she had not yet been caught.

Then that man looked in her direction and said something like "What if she noticed...?"

So that man must be talking about Yuan Meng and her... so that meant that Yuan Meng was in A Land too.

And it was very likely that she had found her at the Gu Family's mansion.

Now Gu Siting's men were out there hunting Yuan Meng, so all she could do was to delay the search, so that Yuan Meng would be able to find a way to escape.

That was why she pretended to suffer from a headache, so that Gu Siting would not be able to arrange his men to search for her.

Soon, a doctor came to the garden and offered her some pain-killers.

Gu Siting asked the servants to help her back to the room and then turned to the doctor.

"Why is she still remembering things about Mu Weiwei?"

"Well, human brains are very complicated and if the surroundings affect her in some way, she would get confused. We need time, it doesn't work if we are working too fast." Doctor Li confessed.

They had already used a large amount of drugs, any more would lead to potential dangers.

Instead of asking anything more, Gu Siting returned to the study and arranged the plan to hunt down Yuan Meng, seeing that Weiwei had fallen asleep.

But they missed the best hour to take action in.

Gu Weiwei slept for two hours and ran into Ling Yan in the living room, after she got up.

So she suddenly thought of an evil plan and said, "Who on earth are you, what are you doing in my home?"

Ling Yan sneered. "Your home?"

Was she really thinking that she was Gu Weiwei, so she said that she was in her own home?

"Can this be your home then?" Gu Weiwei asked with a cold face.

Thinking of Gu Siting's warning, Ling Yan said with gritted teeth, "This is my home, your brother and I are getting married very soon."

Chapter 484: Bride in the Crystal Coffin

Gu Weiwei sneered and said, "I hate you, as long as I am here, you are not allowed to be part of the family."

"Who do you think you are... stopping me from marrying Gu Siting." Ling Yan did not think that her words were of any importance.

Gu Weiwei approached her and threatened.

"Then I will tell him now that either you or I will be staying."

"You..." Ling Yan got so annoyed that she laughed, then she snorted. "Do you really think that you are Gu Weiwei?"

"Am I not?" Gu Weiwei countered.

Ling Yan sized her up disdainfully. "You are just an imposter, not at all qualified to talk about my marriage."

Gu Weiwei laughed and said, "Then let's try."

Ling Yan looked about and whispered, "You are always confused about who you really are, then find the cellar, you will know who you are."

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and called out in the direction behind Ling Yan's back.

"Brother Siting."

Gu Siting saw Ling Yan and said, "Didn't I tell you not to drop by these days?"

Gu Weiwei laughed proudly and went over to Gu Siting.

"Brother, please don't let this person come home, alright? I hate her!"

Gu Siting looked at her sideways as he said to Ling Yan instead, "You better stay away from here these coming days."

Ling Yan's face turned sour. "Brother Siting..."

She looked at the girl standing next to Gu Siting, as hatred towards her arose from the bottom of her heart.

She just could not let her stay at the Gu Family, when another Gu Weiwei appeared, even if she was an imposter.

Seeing Ling Yan leaving, Gu Weiwei must make Ling Yan realize what situation she was in, if she stayed.

The more Ling Yan expected her to leave the Gu Family, the more convenient her plan would be.

After all, the hospital she was going to belonged to the Ling Family.

For some reason, the date when she was supposed to be brought to the hospital was postponed and Gu Siting was so busy that he was barely home.

Gu Weiwei was idling around at the Gu's mansion, suddenly thinking of the cellar Ling Yan talked about.

She had been living in the Gu Family for years, so of course she knew where the cellar was.

Since Ling Yan reminded her purposefully, then she definitely knew what secret was hidden there.

The servants all thought that she had accepted her identity, so they did not stop her from doing anything.

Therefore, she found the entrance to the cellar easily and walked in as she saw no one was around.

This used to be a place for wine, containing lots of old liquors.

But the bottles were all gone.

Instead, it was more like a cold storage house.

The deeper she went, the colder it felt.

Gu Weiwei pulled her coat closed and hurried forward as she saw the light inside.

But she was totally startled as she came into the lit room.

In the lit room, there was a crystal coffin.

Inside was a pale-looking girl that still looked somewhat alive.

Dressed in a white wedding gown, she was also wearing a wedding ring.

This was the deceased Gu Weiwei.

She must be the only person who was able to watch her own body, after she had died.

The Gu Family had never revealed her death to the public, nor was there any funeral held.

So she was held in this freezing cold cellar.

Suddenly, Gu Siting's lethal voice arose.

"What are you doing here?"

Chapter 485: Heart Dug Out

Gu Weiwei shivered and withdrew the emotions that were in her eyes.

Then she calmly asked, back-facing Gu Siting, "Who is this girl?"

Gu Siting, you are just ridiculous.

When I was at the Gu Family, you never gave me any promise of love; you even betrayed me by sleeping with Ling Yan.

But now when I am dead, you dress me in a wedding gown, put on the wedding ring and hide me down in this freezing cold cellar.

Yet, you are still going out with Ling Yan.

You want me to stay with you, so you can continue the cooperation with the Dorrans Family, yet you still expect Ling Yan to keep you company.

You want everything but eventually, you are going to have nothing.

Gu Siting approached her and reached out for her.

"You don't need to know about it... just leave."

Gu Weiwei mumbled, "Her heart has been dug out by someone else, doesn't that hurt?"

Standing behind her back, Gu Siting shivered slightly and did not speak for a long while.

Gu Weiwei turned around slowly and said, as she gazed directly into his eyes, "Brother, when someone's heart is dug out, don't you know that it badly hurts?"

Looking at her, Gu Siting was shocked by the way she looked at him and the words she said.

Suddenly, he felt that his heart was being attacked by a sharp blade and it started to ache terribly.

He turned to the girl in the crystal coffin, as misery and grief rose like a veil over his eyes...

Gu Weiwei threw a cold look at him, walked past him and left the freezing and depressing cellar.

Gu Siting, you will never know about it.

You have never tasted the misery yourself, so you will never understand how terrible I feel.

Stop telling me how much you miss me, what you miss is the fortune Gu Weiwei brought about with the Dorrans Family.

Gu Siting asked. "Who told you about this place?"

Gu Weiwei smiled coldly. "Ling Yan did. She told me that when I am here, I will know who I am."

She knew clearly who she was.

She was Gu Weiwei, but she was no longer the Gu Weiwei that belonged to the Gu Family.

Gu Siting turned to her and asked, "Then... who are you?"

"Gu Weiwei!"

....

Gu Siting looked at her for a long while and said, "Go back and take a rest, never come here again."

There was a moment when he himself could not tell the truth apart.

Was she Mu Weiwei or had she been turned into Gu Weiwei?

Gu Weiwei left the depressing cellar, went back to the room and lay down, feeling a bit gloomy over what she had seen and heard.

But at this moment, what she was thinking above everything else was how she was able to leave this place, where she had stayed for more than 20 years.

Fu Hanzheng had been a name echoing over her head hundreds of times and he had given her the power to stay calm and patient.

She slept all the way through to the next morning, when the servant came to wake her up.

She washed herself, got dressed and walked downstairs. Gu Siting was already waiting for her with breakfast.

"We will go to the hospital after breakfast."

Gu Weiwei asked curiously, "What are we doing at the hospital?"

It seemed that she was supposed to have plastic surgery today.

But due to other affairs, the operation was delayed.

If her plastic surgery was postponed once again, she might bring in more trouble for the Gu Family.

Gu Siting said calmly, "We are going to do an examination, it will be over soon."

"Okay."

Gu Weiwei smiled as she agreed, not showing a hint of unwillingness.

But she was repeating her plan of escaping from the hospital, over and over again in her head.

She only had one opportunity. Once the plan failed, she would be stuck here forever.

Chapter 486: Away from Gu Siting

It was a rich western style breakfast. Gu Weiwei finished one portion and said to the servant, "May I have another portion?"

Gu Siting asked, with a surprised smile, "Are you so hungry today?"

"The breakfast is very tasty." Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

It was the day of her escape and she was definitely going to use a lot of energy, so she had to fill up her empty stomach.

Because it was not certain when she would be able to eat the next meal.

Seeing that she seemed to be used to life at the Gu Family's mansion, Gu Siting smiled in satisfaction.

After the surgery, everything would become what he had been looking forward to.

Gu Weiwei finished two portions of breakfast, wiped her mouth, went upstairs to put on her shoes and urged him excitedly.

"Brother, when are we leaving?"

Seeing her excited look, Gu Siting suddenly thought of how the 18-year-old Gu Weiwei looked, whenever she was going out with him.

He smiled and asked the servant to get the car ready.

Gu Weiwei went into the car and noticed that behind her, there was a car filled with bodyguards from the Gu Family that were following them.

Sure enough, he was still worried about driving her to the hospital.

But compared to the security system at the Gu Family's mansion, this kind of defence was already very lax.

Gu Siting answered a call, told the hospital to get ready and then went into the car.

"Weiwei, we are going to have a small surgery after the examination at the hospital."

"Why a surgery?" Gu Weiwei frowned, pretending as if she knew nothing.

Instead of explaining in detail, Gu Siting said, "It is just a small surgery, and it will be over soon."

"Alright." Gu Weiwei was unhappy, but she did not counter him.

They arrived at the hospital belonging to the Ling Family but instead of going through the lobby, they went into a private elevator and came to a room next to the operation room.

She cooperatively did the examination with the doctor and went into the operation room.

Gu Siting answered a call and a very strange look appeared on his face, then he left.

Gu Weiwei was left alone, waiting for the doctor and the nurse to arrive and for Gu Siting's men going out.

The doctor and the nurse were making preparations for the surgery, when she sneaked up behind their backs.

She took a deep breath and at the highest speed, she knocked the doctor and the two nurses out.

Then she put on the nurse's uniform, put on the surgical mask and hat, and took away the nurse's phone.

She opened the door of the operation room and spoke on the phone as she walked out.

“Liu, the equipment you have brought to the operation room is not sufficient. I am getting it now.”

The bodyguards of the Gu Family outside the operating room, did not find anything strange about this nurse.

Gu Weiwei did not speed up just because she was on the run. Instead, she imitated the steps of most of the staff.

After a long time, she came to the end of the long corridor and walked out of the sight of the bodyguards.

At this point, the call she made to Fu Hanzheng was through too.

She was about to talk, when she turned around the corner and saw Gu Siting and Ling Yan talking right in front of her.

Out of the phone came the voice that made her heart skip a beat.

“Hello?”

Hand gripping the phone, she was trying her best to stay calm as she passed by the two of them.

Fu Hanzheng’s voice was just by her ears, but what she had to do was to stay silent due to what was happening in front of her, fearing that Gu Siting would discover her disappearance if she uttered any words.

Fu Hanzheng’s greeting came twice. There was a loud noise on the other side of the phone as well as the sound of someone’s breathing.

Except that no one was talking.

Suddenly, he seemed to think of something as he said, with a shaking voice, “...Is that Weiwei?”

Chapter 487: Fu Hanzheng, Wait for Me

Emotions gushed out of her heart. She did not expect that he could recognize her...

Even when she made a call to him through a stranger’s phone and didn’t speak.

She had so much to tell him but she simply could not say anything now.

So all she could do was to respond with a small voice.

“Yes.”

Then came the shaky sound of breathing from the man on the other side of the phone.

It seemed as if she could be somehow relieved at this moment.

Fu Hanzheng understood that she might not be in a good position to talk, so he straightforwardly said to her, “Yuan Shuo is somewhere close to the hospital. Get out of that place now and then he will join you and help you leave.”

Gu Weiwei was feeling slightly shocked. She had not expected that her Master would have come to her rescue.

But before she was able to think on it, the urgent sound of footsteps arose from the corridor behind her.

“Understood, wait for me.”

She said one sentence and hung up, snuck into the nearest doctor’s office, removed her operation gown and put on the doctor’s white gown.

Then, instead of heading towards the exit, she returned to find Ling Yan.

Those bodyguards who were looking for her would only notice those who were walking out instead of walking towards them.

That was normally what people would think. They assumed that she must be heading outwards rather than inwards.

Therefore, they would automatically ignore those who came towards them but pay attention to those who were walking out.

She saw Ling Yan standing by the elevator, hurried to her and followed her into the elevator.

Since Ling Yan was taking the staff’s elevator, only two of them were in the elevator as they entered.

Standing behind her back, Gu Weiwei said with a small voice as she brought out the blade from the operation room.

“Ling Yan, you don’t want me to become Gu Weiwei either right?”

Hearing the words, Ling Yan turned around suddenly. “Mu Weiwei?!”

“If you don’t want me to stay at the Gu Family and become Gu Weiwei or ruin your marriage, then... bring me out!” Gu Weiwei warned.

Ling Yan gritted her teeth. “Never!”

Gu Weiwei snorted. “Do you really want me to become Gu Weiwei and stay at the Gu Family, so that I become your enemy every day and stop you from becoming part of the Gu Family?”

She had stimulated her because she wanted her to understand what was good for her and what was not.

As she was passing by them just now, she heard her arguing with Gu Siting.

So running out of this place alone would be far less safe than asking Ling Yan to take her out.

Because Gu Siting’s men would never expect that the girl they were looking for was walking with this woman.

Ling Yan said, “You...”

Seeing the elevator going down, Gu Siting knew that Gu Siting must be checking the surveillance cameras of the hospital and soon they would find out where she was.

“Help me leave A Land, you are helping yourself. Gu Siting can’t have liked Gu Weiwei just because she is a younger sister, right?”

That was exactly what Ling Yan feared above all, so she said after taking a deep breath.

“Okay, I will take you out.”

Ling Yan took her to the parking lot and brought out her own car keys.

Gu Weiwei pushed the girl into the car and took the driver’s seat.

They had just got into the car when Ling Yan’s phone rang, showing that Gu Siting was calling.

With the phone in hand, Ling Yan had no idea what she should do.

Gu Siting spent so much effort to bring Mu Weiwei to A Land, if she released her now...

Gu Weiwei was starting the car and leaving the parking lot, as she said, “Answer the call now, just say that I was kidnapping and threatening you.”

By this point, Gu Siting must have seen her with Ling Yan from the surveillance cameras.

Chapter 488: Enemy Forever

What he would do next was lockdown the path to the hospital but that would take at least ten more minutes.

If she were alone, she was not sure that she would be able to make it but if both Master and Yuan Meng were here, she would be able to make it if she could join them smoothly... Even if Gu Siting took control of A Land.

Ling Yan took a look at her in the driver’s seat, took a deep breath with the phone in her hand and answered the call.

The moment she answered the call, she said, with tears in her eyes, “Brother Siting, please save me, Mu Weiwei threatened me with a blade!”

Gu Weiwei sneered. Ling Yan was indeed a talented actress.

She was always excellent at pretending to be an innocent girl.

But her notion of becoming Mrs. Gu had helped her to get out of the hospital smoothly and she was used as the shield too. If Gu Siting tried to catch her, he would have to take this woman into consideration.

Hearing her crying voice, Gu Siting fell into an even worse mood.

“Where is Mu Weiwei?”

Gu Weiwei pressed the loudspeaker on Ling Yan’s phone and said, “Gu Siting, just let your men hunt me down, I can just kill your Movie Queen fiancée anyways.”

If she was not able to make it back home, she was capable of doing anything.

Ling Yan owed her a life anyway.

“Mu Weiwei, you are not going to escape when you are here in A Land.” Gu Siting warned.

He had locked all the airports and ports. She was going nowhere.

But if she was out there, Fu Hanzheng would more or less hear something.

Then whatever he had planned in the F Land, like the false scene of her death, would have gone in vain and he would have to face tons of trouble.

Gu Weiwei snorted from behind the steering wheel.

“If I can’t make it home, I can kill your fiancée so that none of us will have a happy ending.”

Shaking out of anger, Gu Siting just could not believe that a sharp-minded person like him, could have been tricked by this 19-year-old girl.

On the second day she was at the Gu Family, her memory started to blur.

He had found it curious, yet he was also in a hurry to reach his goal, whilst she herself had shown no flaws.

He had thought that it was the drugs that had started to work but from the very beginning to the end, she had been lying to all of them.

During these days, he watched her getting used to the life of the Gu Family, and even the way she addressed him resembled the way Weiwei addressed him.

He had thought that she truly had accepted herself as Gu Weiwei but she had actually been waiting for an opportunity to run away from the Gu Family, when he was the least alarmed.

“Mu Weiwei, either you come back to the Gu Family alive or you are going to die on this island.”

Compared to releasing her back to Fu Hanzheng, he would rather destroy her thoroughly.

“I am not going back to the Gu Family, nor do I have any intention of dying here.”

Hearing his crazy warning, Gu Weiwei showed no fear. “Gu Siting, you are more than the Fu Family’s enemy, you are also mine.”

Gu Siting sneered. “You will have to make it back to Fu Hanzheng, if you want to be on the same lines as him.”

“Then let’s wait and see.” Gu Weiwei said and ended the call.

She had not thought about being involved with the grudge between the two families.

But Gu Siting intended to ruin the happiness she cherished and made the man who loved her above all suffer – he should not have done that.

Chapter 489: A Call to Your Man

It had been a more or less smooth trip starting from the hospital but soon the traffic started to be controlled on the major avenues and cars started to closely follow them from behind.

She made several calls to Fu Hanzheng but never got through.

Gradually, she was cornered into a dead end.

The road ahead was blocked and the cars behind them were approaching. She could not even make it into the narrow alleyways.

She was just stuck in the middle, when a black clad motorist sped out and gestured for her to get on the motorbike.

She instantly braked the car and hopped onto the motorbike, after leaving Ling Yan behind.

The motorbike weaved into the narrow alleyways and soon lost their pursuers.

There were no surveillance cameras in the alleyway and they were totally free.

The motorbike went into the parking lot of a seafood transportation dock and flew directly into the compartment of the truck.

The driver shut the door and drove away.

Yuan Meng climbed off the motorbike and ripped off her gloves, she then turned on the light in the compartment.

Then she removed her helmet and combed through her long and curly hair.

“Why not hit that Ling person at such a great and rare opportunity?”

She asked, as she pulled out a cigarette and was about to light it.

Gu Weiwei snatched away the cigarette between her lips. “Who do you intend to choke in this place?”

Yuan Meng sighed miserably and put away the cigarette.

“I had thought that I would have to risk my life to save you but you escaped by yourself!”

Gu Weiwei sat down and grabbed the phone she had just stolen, intending to ring Fu Hanzheng when she realized that the phone was out of battery.

Seeing this, Yuan Meng tossed her own phone to her.

“Call your man now, he almost died with you!”

Weiwei caught the phone, made a call to Fu Hanzheng. It immediately went through.

“Fu Hanzheng!”

“Safe now?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

When she ended the call earlier, he had worried that something happened to her.

“For the time being, I am with Yuan Meng.” Gu Weiwei said.

Slightly relieved, Fu Hanzheng said, "They will bring you back and I will pick you up."

"Okay."

Gu Weiwei said and started to feel calmer and calmer, when she heard his voice.

"And also... I miss you very much."

She had just said the words when Yuan Meng spat out the water she had just drunk.

"You are indeed slutty, just like me."

Gu Weiwei threw a look at her and ignored her, as she continued to talk to Fu Hanzheng.

"Then... I am hanging up now. See you tonight."

"See you tonight." Fu Hanzheng hung up and boarded the plane, ready to go home.

Yuan Meng got her phone back and passed her a bottle of water.

"I thought that you had truly lost your memory and did not know how to come home."

But she had tricked Gu Siting, which was unexpected.

Gu Weiwei opened the lid and took a sip. "What are you doing here without Master?"

"My son wanted me to find his wife. He was going to desert me if I didn't come and find you." Yuan Meng said and snorted. "I should have thrown him away if I had known that he never liked me."

Gu Weiwei laughed and said heartfelt, "Thank you for saving me."

Otherwise she would not have been able to make it away so fast, if she had been alone.

Yuan Meng shrugged and said with a laugh, "Well, you are my son's wife, right?"

Chapter 490: Only Uncle Fu

The truck that carried seafood brought them and the motorbike away from the city center.

Yuan Meng felt like smoking on the way, yet due to the circumstance, she kept herself occupied by smelling the cigarette.

"What is our plan?" Gu Weiwei asked anxiously.

Trapped in the truck, they had no idea what was going on outside.

"Master will distract the Gu Family's men with his fellow friends. We will board the ship at the minor port and they will follow up behind us."

Gu Weiwei nodded. No wonder they had not run into any trouble after such a long while.

The Gu Family must be focusing on motorbikes.

Yuan Shuo and his men had disguised themselves as Yuan Meng and her, and driven around in the city.

“Compared to all of these things, you have to think of how to explain the relationship between us to Fu Hanzheng.”

Fu Hanzheng had focused on her safety when she had been in danger.

That was why he had not noticed the suspicious point of their potential relationship.

But when she was home safe and sound, he would definitely notice this point and she had better make sure that the lie would not be exposed somehow.

If she never planned to tell Fu Hanzheng that her family name had always been Gu, then she had to think of a perfect explanation so as to face Fu Hanzheng.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and asked, “How did you guys explain it to him?”

With the cigarette in her hands, Yuan Meng sniffed it and said, “Although we came to Hua Land, we still have a very trustworthy friend in A Land who sometimes contacts us and tells us what it is going on with the Gu Family. What we have learned recently is that Gu Siting is making preparations for something and when that something happened to you, I realized that he was probably related.”

“Then I discovered what was going on, so I lost contact with your Master because they were hunting me, so he went to Fu Hanzheng so they could plan the rescue together. He told Fu Hanzheng that we knew your grandfather but if Fu Hanzheng asked you anything more about it, you will have to think of a better explanation.”

Gu Weiwei asked, after a moment of silence, “Senior Sister, what’s your opinion on if... I tell him that I am actually Gu Weiwei...”

“Don’t.” Yuan Meng interrupted her and said seriously, “You know pretty well of the grudge that the Fu Family and the Gu Family have.”

Gu Weiwei said, “But I feel that I am lying to him... that doesn’t seem right.”

Yuan Meng said, “If you tell him the truth, that would be terrible! Your family name is Gu and you spent two ambiguous years with Gu Siting...”

Gu Weiwei was startled.

“What do you mean ambiguous? Nothing happened between us!”

Yuan Meng said, “Gu Siting is a scumbag, but he was your first love, wasn’t he?”

Gu Weiwei glared at her and snorted.

“I was too young and too stupid to understand what love was... I only like Uncle Fu!”

Yuan Meng laughed, hearing her calling that man Uncle Fu.

“Ha, you called me indecent, yet you are no better than me! Uncle Fu... that does indeed sound sexy!”

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead. What a friend she had made.

Yuan Meng gossiped. “It would be even better if you call him so in bed right? Your Master and I...”

“Stop it!” Gu Weiwei showed an expression of rejection as she said, “I don’t want to hear a thing!”

Yuan Meng shut her mouth and said, after sniffing the cigarette, “Anyway, you must never tell Fu Hanzheng that your family name is Gu.”

Gu Weiwei sighed. “But...”

Yuan Meng said, “But what... You are living under Mu Weiwei’s appearance, who would ever know that your family name is Gu, if you yourself keep the secret?”

Gu Weiwei found it reasonable but still wondered if she should keep such a secret, when Fu Hanzheng started to suspect something.

Yuan Meng patted her shoulders and said, “Let the bygones be bygones, the future is what matters above all.”