

MY HIDDEN 501

Chapter 501: Want Children? 2

Gu Weiwei frowned curiously and asked, "Why?"

When she was not pregnant last year and he thought that she was, he looked as if he truly wanted a child.

But when the wedding was on the way, he started to reconsider the idea of having a child.

"Just don't."

Fu Hanzheng hid his authentic thoughts carefully.

If she had asked if he wanted a child two hours ago... his answer would have been yes.

But seeing how Yuan Bao's presence attracted his parents and even her, so that he was totally ignored; he was no longer willing.

Also, she even complained about him for that little boy.

She was treating that boy in this way although he was not her child. What if she did become a mother... his feelings would be totally ignored.

He realized that his thoughts regarding their family had been way too simple. He might not need to consider marriage but he must rethink about the issue of having children.

He was quite satisfied with the present situation, where he was the only one in her eyes.

A child would affect their relationship.

"Why not? Tell me!" Gu Weiwei asked.

It was not she who had wanted to have a child before and now it was him who did not want one.

Fu Hanzheng walked upstairs with her in his arms. "No reason, just don't like children."

Gu Weiwei thought for a while. "You are unhappy because of Yuan Bao's behavior?"

Fu Hanzheng said, "You are too young to become a mother."

Yuan Bao's appearance reminded him what situation he would have to face if he became a father.

Gu Weiwei said, "But you are not young, in a couple of years you will become 30..."

Fu Hanzheng ceased his steps and looked at her with a heavy look on the face.

"Are you suspecting that after I become 30 years old, I won't be able to father a child?"

"..." Gu Weiwei blinked in confusion. What was he talking about?

She was just thinking that it was a proper age for him to become a father... she was not even thinking about his sexual abilities...

Fu Hanzheng looked at her and asked with a frown, "You want a child?"

He remembered clearly that she had been objecting to becoming a mother before.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, "Yes, I like children."

After this movie was done, she was thinking about becoming a director or an associate producer instead.

By that time, they would have children.

Also, Mrs. Fu looked very anxious about it too.

"..." Fu Hanzheng sighed.

Of course he could tell that she liked children.

Her reaction just now had clearly shown what situation he had to face if they became parents.

Children would just be his enemies!

Seeing him staying silent, Gu Weiwei asked in a testing tone, "Children are so cute... do you really not want children of our own?"

Fu Hanzheng tightened his arms and said, "You are my baby, and I don't want any more babies."

Gu Weiwei suddenly realized what the problem was. She took hold of his waist with a laugh.

"Uncle Fu, are you saying that when we have children, I will ignore you?"

Fu Hanzheng denied it. "Nope."

He was never going to admit that he would feel jealous of his own children.

"What no? You have gotten this idea, just because I scolded you for the sake of Yuan Bao." Gu Weiwei said helplessly.

Wasn't it a reasonable thing that adults should be more considerate?

Fu Hanzheng frowned and countered.

"Am I this narrow-minded person?"

Gu Weiwei asked, "Are you not?"

Chapter 502: Nothing Else Matters

"..." Fu Hanzheng suddenly lost all of his words.

Gu Weiwei looked at him in amusement and stopped pestering him.

"Alright, let's drop this issue for the time being."

After all, they were unable to have children at the moment anyways, so they could just wait until they got married.

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead and made a suggestion.

“Anywhere you want to go these two free days?”

They had always been occupied with their work all this time.

She had thought about finding a place to spend their free days and it was a great opportunity.

Gu Weiwei glared at him. “We should visit Yuan Shuo tomorrow. He is lying in the hospital right now and we can’t possibly just go away for vacation!”

Also, Yuan Meng texted her and told her that Master had not recovered well from his old wound.

Sighing helplessly, Fu Hanzheng did understand that the Master had helped a great deal at this rescue.

It was totally reasonable for her to visit him at the hospital.

Gu Weiwei asked with a smile, after seeing his disappointment, “We can leave the vacation time for the honeymoon!”

She would also like to find a place where they could be left alone but Yuan Shuo was still injured and hospitalized, and Jolin must have had a hard time during the period that she was missing.

So at this moment, she simply just could not run away for a vacation despite wanting to.

Fu Hanzheng went back to the room with her in his arms and asked casually, “You can ask them if they would like to stay at the Fu Family.”

Gu Weiwei was startled. “At the Fu Family?”

“Didn’t they say that both the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family are hunting them down? Since they rescued you this time, the Fu Family could keep them safe.” Fu Hanzheng explained.

“Well... I have to talk about this with them.” Gu Weiwei said.

Actually, she had thought about this matter too. She was trying to come up with a way to let them stay at the Fu Family.

As long as they stayed at the Fu Family in Hua Land, they would be safe but Fu Hanzheng was a suspicious man. If their identities were not clear enough in his eyes, he would not have allowed them to stay.

Unexpectedly, however, due to their rescue, Yuan Shuo and his family had gained his trust.

Fu Hanzheng went to the study and fetched the unread files.

“Should I keep you company tomorrow for your visit at the hospital?”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at the files and foreign papers in his hands. “You can do your work, I will be back within two hours’ time.”

Fu Hanzheng nodded and said no more.

Although Fu Shiqin could deal with most of the work, yet with him gone for so many days, he still had tonnes of work he had to deal with personally.

Seated next to him, Gu Weiwei was reading a book as she asked him, after a long moment of silence, "You are not upset about me meeting Yuan Shuo and his family, are you?"

Fu Hanzheng glanced at her sideways. "I should have been."

But compared to almost losing her, nothing else mattered.

Nothing was more important than her being here with him but he would have got upset if such a thing had not happened.

Yet after their heart-breaking separation and her subsequent return to him safe and sound, he cared about nothing else anymore.

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly. "But you are not upset because I am here right?"

When one loved someone else deeply, it was quite easy for that person to read the other person's mind carefully.

Fu Hanzheng reached out for her forehead, showing endless, gentle love.

"Nothing else matters, as long as you are here."

When He Chi showed him the report that told him that she was no longer alive all he wanted was to get her back at any cost.

So when she was really here standing in front of him once again, he truly had no need to care about those small, unimportant matters.

Chapter 503: Fu Hanzheng's Suspicion

Early in the morning, the couple finished their breakfast and Fu Hanzheng asked the driver to take her to the hospital.

Gu Weiwei happened to run into He Chi in the elevator, so they both went to the ward where Yuan Shuo stayed.

But the moment she opened the door, she saw Yuan Meng kissing Yuan Shuo passionately, as she sat in his arms.

She shut the door and flushed bright red out of embarrassment.

She understood clearly that Yuan Meng was a horny person but could she just behave a little bit more decently, being at the hospital.

A moment later, Yuan Meng opened the door, not feeling any embarrassment, just because her kissing scene with her husband was seen.

And then she laughed at her.

“What? Nothing embarrassing at all! You and Fu Hanzheng have done it too right? Just look at how you two kissed back at the port. I said nothing about that, alright?”

“....”

Gu Weiwei glanced at her and went over to Yuan Shuo with the lunch box.

“I have brought some porridge with me, take some, both of you.”

He Chi checked the wounds and said to them, “This wound is healing well but your old wound...”

Yuan Shuo took a mouthful of porridge and said to He Chi, “Please let me think about it.”

He Chi said, “Any more thinking, and you will need it to be amputated!”

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei suddenly looked serious.

What Yuan Meng told her before was that he was seriously wounded but she never told her that he could be so seriously injured.

He must still have been recovering before going to A Land to help her out.

“He Chi, when can you get the surgery ready?”

He Chi looked at her and said, “If we do the pre-surgery examinations well, we can do the surgery the day after tomorrow.”

Yuan Shuo said, “Weiwei...”

Instead of hearing what he was about to say, Gu Weiwei said straightforwardly, “Then get the surgery ready the day after tomorrow.”

Yuan Shuo was about to object when Yuan Meng covered up his mouth.

Seeing the patient in bed, He Chi said, “But he has to cooperate at least.”

He was obviously forced to agree to do the operation at the moment.

Was he going to knock him out and toss him onto the operation table the day after tomorrow, judging from the current situation?

“Just get everything ready.” Gu Weiwei said and turned to Yuan Shuo. “Leave him with me.”

He Chi nodded understandingly, left the ward and went to hold an operation meeting.

Gu Weiwei got up and locked the door of the ward.

“Master, what are you thinking?”

That wound of his was gained because of the attack he received with her. The consequence was that she was set up after waking up from months of being in a coma and her heart was dug out.

He must have been seriously injured too, otherwise he would not have been recovering for months.

Also, in order to stay away from the Gu Family, he could not have possibly got proper treatment.

That was why the problem of the old wound had gotten so serious.

“If we stay here, our real relationship will be exposed, what if Fu Hanzheng suspects you?” Yuan Shuo asked.

What they had told Fu Hanzheng was that they knew her because they had befriended Mu Weiwei’s grandfather.

But if they continued to stay here and behaved just like old friends, anyone might figure out their real relationship.

Gu Weiwei sat down as she carried the chair over to the bedside. “Fu Hanzheng has the intention of letting you guys stay at the Fu Family, so now I am making a decision for you guys – do stay!”

They had promised never to see her again after they completed the mission she gave to him and truthfully she had not been feeling good about this.

Now she was not going to let them go, especially when she understood that he was so badly injured.

Also, after irritating Gu Siting, the Gu Family would definitely give them trouble.

If they continued to stay at the Fu Family, they could take care of each other and they could stay away from Gu Siting as well.

Chapter 504: Love Here

“I say no.” Yuan Shuo said.

Yuan Meng glared at him. “I say yes!”

His old wounds had never healed, because they were living like outlaws and they hadn’t followed up with the treatment.

But now they had the opportunity to stay so that he was fully healed and yet here he was being all emotional.

“If we stay here and the Fu Family start to suspect Weiwei...” Yuan Shuo took a look at Gu Weiwei and said anxiously.

They were way too good of friends for them to behave like strangers, so everything about them was very suspicious.

If their behavior revealed something, it would be very hard for them to explain.

“No one will know that she is Gu Weiwei, if none of us reveals the truth?” Yuan Meng said.

Unless Fu Hanzheng could see through her body and reach her real soul.

Yuan Shuo still stuck to his own ideas. “It is not right for us to stay here.”

“If Fu Hanzheng breaks up with her just because her family name was Gu, then she can just give up on him.” Yuan Meng snapped.

She was Gu Weiwei before but everyone had a history, it was impossible to run away from everything.

Gu Weiwei looked calm and said seriously, "Master, just stay. Instead of worrying about what is not actually happening, why not just focus on your own wounds for the moment."

Yuan Shuo was about to object when Yuan Meng said straightforwardly, "If you undergo the amputation, I will remarry someone else and take Yuan Bao with me!"

Yuan Shuo said, "You..."

Yuan Meng raised her eyebrows. "Do you dare to test me?"

Gu Weiwei chuckled. "For the sake of Yuan Bao and Yuan Meng, please take care of yourself, Master, I know how to deal with Fu Hanzheng..."

If one day the secret had to be revealed, she was definitely going to tell him the truth.

Yuan Shuo looked at her and then at Yuan Meng, realizing that he was not in a position to object.

"So Fu Hanzheng truly plans to let us stay at the Fu Family?"

Was he trying to keep them or just wanting to observe the real relationship between them?

"Anyway, no more questions." Gu Weiwei knew what Yuan Shuo was worried about. "Fu Hanzheng said that nothing else matters except for me."

Yuan Meng put down the porridge she was eating and said in a speechless tone.

"So now you are showing off your love in front of me huh?"

On the day when they came home, she did notice that Fu Hanzheng really adored this little b*tch, Gu Weiwei, judging from the way he looked at her.

"Just stay here for treatment, I will take care of Yuan Bao."

Gu Weiwei checked the time and knew that she should go back, since two hours had already passed.

Yuan Meng got up and accompanied her out of the room with an arm over her shoulders.

"Actually, maybe you can have children with Fu Hanzheng first."

Gu Weiwei replied, "Aha?"

What were those people doing urging her to get married and have children.

"If you two have children... he would probably not desert his wife and children, would he?" Yuan Meng said.

Hearing her horrible idea, Gu Weiwei removed her arms.

"He doesn't want children right now."

"But if you want to have children, he would not be able to decide for you, right?" Yuan Meng wrapped her arms over her shoulders again as she told her the plan. "Just poke a hole in all of the condoms, wear something sexy and he will definitely bend down for you..."

Gu Weiwei removed her arms and walked into the elevator.

“Bye!”

Yuan Meng went back to the ward and urged Yuan Shuo.

“Finish the food so you can do the examinations!”

Yuan Shuo still felt rather insecure after thinking about staying at the Fu Family.

“Are we really staying here?”

Yuan Meng threw a look at this worried man. “Fu Hanzheng is not Gu Siting, he would not do anything horrible to us.”

Gu Siting told Gu Weiwei that he liked her, only because she was Cayman Dorrans’s daughter.

Did he like her for real or because her father was powerful? No one truly knew the answer.

Also, it seemed that before Gu Weiwei became Mu Weiwei, Fu Hanzheng had no feelings towards Mu Weiwei and he even hated her!

What he had fallen for was not Mu Weiwei’s body but Gu Weiwei, who was reborn inside of her.

Although he currently had no idea about it.

Chapter 505: Wife

On the way back to the Landscape Villa from the hospital, Gu Weiwei made a call to Fu Hanzheng.

“On your way home?”

“Yes I’m on my way home now but I would like to talk with you about something.” Gu Weiwei said with a careful tone.

Fu Hanzheng asked, “What is it?”

Gu Weiwei gave out a flattering laugh. “Yuan Bao is going to be having surgery in the next coming days and Yuan Meng has to stay at the hospital to take care of him... can we not have Yuan Bao here?”

She heard that the child was being taken care of by Mrs. Fu and others but it was not really a good idea to leave him with them all the time.

Having heard the words, Fu Hanzheng said without hesitation, “No need to talk about this, he has a better life with my parents.”

They were going to have two days off and this little boy was definitely not going to disturb their peaceful days.

And most importantly, that little boy kept calling her wife!

“But it is not quite right to leave him at your parents’ place all the time.” Gu Weiwei said.

“They may not even give him to you!” Fu Hanzheng said.

They had become so addicted to playing grandparents, so of course they would not let the child go so easily.

“You can visit him when you have time, but he is not allowed to live with us.” Fu Hanzheng did not want to negotiate.

He suddenly thought that if Yuan Shuo and his family were to stay at the Fu Family, their child should be away from them too.

Hearing his tone, Gu Weiwei gave up on the idea of picking up Yuan Bao and went straight back to Landscape Villa.

At the Fu Family’s mansion.

Since Fu Shiyi did not have a good rest in F Land, he turned down several tasks and stayed at home instead.

When he went to Shiyi Culture for work and came home, he brought with him tons of snacks and toys and presented them to Yuan Bao.

“Yuan Bao, want to see your wife?”

Hearing the words, Yuan Bao looked brightened and nodded constantly.

“Yes, yes!”

Fu Shiyi sat down on the floor and whispered, as he gave him the toys, “I am very busy these days, you have to ask Grandma Fu.”

They had never successfully countered their brother but this little boy succeeded in doing what they had never done before.

He had thought that the Evil Plan that He Chi had made before was unreliable but now it seemed like a very clever project.

Therefore, they decided to play out some experiments with Yuan Bao, to see if the plan would go smoothly in the future.

Yuan Bao could have a fight with his brother later... but of course, he was not going to bring Yuan Bao to his brother’s place – he did not want to be punished by him!

If his mother brought him there, his brother would be able to do nothing despite his displeased mind.

He was just teaching Yuan Bao how to ask grandma to bring him to find his wife, when Mrs. Fu came over to him with some cut fruit.

“Yuan Bao, come and eat the fruit!”

Yuan Bao grabbed the toys and dashed over to her.

“Grandma, can I go visit my wife after the fruits?”

Mrs. Fu laughed. “She is not your wife, but your aunt!”

Fu Shiyi said, “Mom, she is a sister, not an aunt.”

“But according to the family rank, she is an aunt!” Mrs. Fu stressed.

Yuan Bao called Hanzheng Uncle, so he needed to call Mu Weiwei Aunty.

Yuan Bao tugged Mrs. Fu's clothes. "Grandma, can you please bring me to see my wife?"

Hearing the words, Fu Shiyi followed.

"Mom, aren't you going to urge my brother to have a child? Just bring Yuan Bao there and show them how cute a child is, so that you may have your own grandson very soon too."

....

Hearing the words, Mrs. Fu nodded.

It seemed to make some sense.

Chapter 506: Yuan Bao's Victory

In the afternoon at the Landscape Villa.

Gu Weiwei made a call to Jolin and asked about him and Xu, as well as her schedule.

Jolin said, "You were missing for a couple of days, so there has not been any work available and you need some rest too, I will inform you when your schedule is ready."

He did want to arrange some work for her, but Third Master called him early in the morning and told him that because of the kidnapping, she needed to have some more free days with Boss.

After all, she was working as a hobby, not for a living.

"Alright, alright, so please help me with the public relations." Gu Weiwei stressed.

She had been missing for so many days, fans and media must have come up with several guesses.

After the conversation with Jolin, she saw Fu Hanzheng talking with some foreign investors in an online meeting.

So she printed the new script that was written by Yan Hong and started to think about the filming process.

A good movie required a great script, good actors and a well designed filming script that was written by the director.

The filming script greatly affected the results of the final scene work as well as the quality of the movie.

Fu Hanzheng ended the call and threw a look at her, before heading back to his desk for his work.

Gu Weiwei took a look at the man occasionally as she was drawing things on the paper, soon the filming script became the sketch of Fu Hanzheng's profile.

After drawing, she presented the profile to him as if she were presenting a treasure.

Fu Hanzheng put down the boring files and took a look at the picture she had painted.

It was not a professional piece, but it was quite lovely.

Below the profile was a line in English that was beautifully written.

[My feelings for you are something that no words can express.]

My deep love for you can not be said with words at all.

“Very interesting.”

“Like it?” Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

Fu Hanzheng smiled brightly. “Yes, very much!”

He liked everything she gave to him.

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows. “Nothing to give me in return?”

Fu Hanzheng swept her into his arms and kissed her deeply.

They were just entangled with each other, when Yuan Bao’s soft voice arose from outside.

“Wife!”

“Wife, where are you?”

“Wife, I am here, it’s Yuan Bao!”

As he was speaking, the little boy had already reached the second floor and started to search for her, one room after another.

Hearing the words, Gu Weiwei instantly left his arms, adjusted her hair and walked out.

“Yuan Bao?”

“Wife!” Yuan Bao dashed towards her and took hold of her legs, pointing at his bear backpack. “I have brought you candies and chocolates!”

Gu Weiwei squatted and helped him remove the bag. Then she watched the little boy squat on the floor, zip open the bag with great force and bring out the candies and chocolate.

“Tasty?” Yuan Bao asked with a pair of blinking eyes.

Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile after tasting the candies.

“Very sweet, thanks!”

Hearing the words, Yuan Bao opened his chubby arms.

“Wife, I need hugs!”

Having said the words, he pursed his lips at the sight of the dark-faced Fu Hanzheng standing behind her.

With her heart softening, Gu Weiwei instantly picked him up.

“Let’s go downstairs.”

“...” Fu Hanzheng was left alone at the door of the study, in a complicated mood.

Children were definitely the worst things in the world.

Standing downstairs, Fu Shiyi was waiting for the news of Yuan Bao’s victory.

Surely enough, soon afterwards, he saw his sister-in-law holding Yuan Bao as she came down the stairs, followed by his sullen-faced brother.

Chapter 507: Wife Too

Seeing Fu Shiyi sitting in the living room, Fu Hanzheng instantly noticed how glad his younger brother had become.

“You brought him here?”

Fu Shiyi shook his head innocently and pointed at Mrs. Fu in the kitchen.

“Our mom did.”

Honestly, being cute was the best weapon!

With Yuan Bao doing the hard work, his brother had to step aside.

Yuan Bao was definitely going to be a great tool for him to counter his brother.

After Mrs. Fu had told the servant what to do, she came over to them.

“I asked the servant to braise some soup, do remember to drink it tonight.”

Fu Shiyi smiled sinisterly, “Brother, it is soup for the kidneys, do remember to drink enough.”

Fu Hanzheng squinted at him. “If you are so free, maybe you can go back to the company instead?”

“I am not free, I am making preparations for the movie, that’s why I am staying in the capital.” Fu Shiyi explained.

Most importantly, he had discovered that Yuan Bao was the ultimate weapon, which could be used to counter his brother!

So he had no intention of going anywhere. What he enjoyed doing was watching Yuan Bao beating his brother, one round after another.

Mrs. Fu came over to them and saw Gu Weiwei carefully taking care of Yuan Bao.

She started to find that she was increasingly lovely.

She seemed to like children too, so when they got married, it would not be long before the grandchildren arrived.

Seeing Mrs. Fu’s look, Fu Hanzheng realized what she was thinking and frowned.

“If you like this boy, leave him at your house, don’t bring him here.”

“Yuan Bao wants to see Weiwei, why not bring him here?” Mrs. Fu asked.

This boy was so cute and he was not irritating him, what was he so displeased about?

Fu Hanzheng looked at the girl who was pampering Yuan Bao in concentration, feeling rather displeased.

As long as this boy was here, her interest in him would be gone.

“Leave the boy to them, you need to work on the film script.”

Without turning around, Gu Weiwei peeled the candy for Yuan Bao.

“I am not in a hurry.”

Fu Shiyi was restraining his laughter next to them. His brother could not have possibly expected this.

With Yuan Bao here, he had no way to show off their love in front of them anymore.

Fu Hanzheng’s face sank. Maybe it was the wrong idea to let Yuan Shuo and his family stay with the Fu Family.

They should leave, together with their child!

Yuan Bao was at the house for three hours and Gu Weiwei was with him for those three hours.

He needed his ‘wife’ to keep him company when he was eating, going to the bathroom and watching cartoons.

But no matter what the situation was, he would stubbornly call her ‘wife’.

It was not until evening, when he got so tired that he fell asleep that Fu Shiyi carried him in arms and left the villa with Mrs. Fu.

Hanzheng and Weiwei saw them off and she sighed.

“See, children are lovely, right?”

“I don’t think so.” Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Gu Weiwei glanced at this dark-faced man. “He did not irritate you right? What are you unhappy about?”

Yuan Bao was so cute and lovely, so why did he not like it?

Was he going to show the same attitude to their own children?

“When can he change how he calls you?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

He had not even called her wife and yet this boy had gotten ahead of him!

“He is just a child, he will stop when he grows up.” Gu Weiwei walked back to the room holding his arms and said with a smile, “If you don’t like it, call me wife too then!”

But Fu Hanzheng did not call her wife.

Instead, she herself was tempted into calling him 'husband'... throughout the entire night.

Chapter 508: How You Hate Me So

At the Gu Family's mansion in A Land.

Unlike the Fu Family in Hua Land, the entire mansion was swamped in silence.

In the dead of night, Gu Siting woke up from a nightmare, even though he had taken sleeping pills and walked into the cold cellar.

The girl dressed in the wedding gown was sleeping in the crystal coffin. She was still beautiful but she looked completely cold and pale.

Leaning against the crystal coffin, Gu Siting mumbled to himself, "Weiwei, how do you hate me so much that you torment me in my dreams every day?"

Whenever he went to sleep, he always hoped that she'd be in his dreams but the truth was... he was afraid of her.

Every single time he slept, her bloody appearance appeared in his dreams.

She asked him to save her but when he grabbed her hand and opened his eyes, there was nobody around him.

He thought of Mu Weiwei who had escaped and mumbled, "She looks so much like you, why does she refuse to become you? Why..."

When Mrs. Gu, who was abroad, heard the news, she rushed back but failed to find Gu Siting. It took the questioning of several servants to find out that he was in the cellar.

She immediately went there after receiving the information.

"What are you doing here again?"

Gu Siting looked at his tired mother and said regretfully, "I found someone who looked like her and she almost... almost became Weiwei..."

Seeing him acting like this, Mrs. Gu was both annoyed and concerned.

"How much longer are you going to stay here like this?"

Gu Siting shook his head. "I don't know, I just want to find something about her."

Mrs. Gu sighed. "She is no longer here. She will not know or care about anything you do."

When Weiwei was around, he said that he did not care about her, nor love her and did not want to see her.

In the end, when she was really gone, he was suddenly possessed and wanted to find out everything about her.

But now that she was gone, what was the point of doing all these things?

“We can’t keep the news of Weiwei’s death under wraps any longer. We need to give Cayman Dorrans an explanation.” Mrs. Gu reminded him.

For the past few months, he had been trying extremely hard to conceal the news of Weiwei’s death.

But in the end, he had still failed.

Cayman Dorrans’s only daughter was adopted in by the Gu Family but she had also ended up dying under the Gu Family’s care, so they would be in big trouble.

Gu Siting closed his eyes and sighed deeply.

“This day has finally come.”

From the day she had passed away, he knew that one day, Cayman Dorrans would ask him for her.

He stood up by leaning on the crystal coffin and thoughtfully looked at the person in the coffin, his gaze fixed on the string of prayer beads that had Sanskrit carved into them.

“Didn’t you say that with this string of heavenly prayer beads, her soul would be around us? So where is she...”

...

Mrs. Gu sighed deeply and sadly said, “Siting, no one in this world will wait for you to turn back time. You missed it, you can’t blame her or anyone else.”

Gu Siting stayed silent for a long time. He knew that he had missed the opportunity but he just couldn’t let it go...

She had always been so close to him and he had thought that no matter how far he went, she would always be there when he returned.

Unexpectedly, in the blink of an eye, she had completely left his world.

No matter how much he tried to bring her back, he would never be able to find her again.

“Cayman is on his way to A Land, you don’t have time to stay here anymore.” Mrs. Gu reminded him of the urgency of the situation.

Chapter 509: Cayman Dorrans

Gu Siting withdrew his dispirited look and became an elegant gentleman again.

“I will have to face him sooner or later.”

After Weiwei left, they had kept her death a secret from Cayman Dorrans and now that Fu Hanzheng had revealed the truth, Cayman Dorrans would definitely question him.

Mrs. Gu looked very serious too. Cayman Dorrans had placed Weiwei in the Gu Family because he did not want anyone to know about her identity and also to keep her safe.

But now, she had passed away whilst in the Gu Family’s care, how could he let such a thing go?

“You should not have touched Fu Hanzheng’s girlfriend.”

If it had not been because of Mu Weiwei, the matter would not have become so serious.

However, a 19-year-old girl had been at the Gu Family for so many days and yet he had not noticed that she was putting on an act. That was not such a simple thing.

“If not for Yuan Meng and Yuan Shuo, she would not have escaped.”

Gu Siting did not regret what he had done. He just felt that he had not been careful enough and so had given her a chance to escape... Otherwise she would have become Gu Weiwei.

Mrs. Gu threw a complicated look at the stubborn Gu Siting. “Even if you turn her into Weiwei, she is not Weiwei.”

Although that would indeed fool Cayman Dorrans.

“But she really looks like her, so much like her...”

Or rather, she played the role so well that she had totally fooled him into thinking that it was her, so much so that he had thought that she would become the Weiwei he had always known.

Mrs. Gu sighed. He must have been so persistent because he thought he would never find her again.

But no one was going to give him another chance.

When Gu Siting left the cellar, Kuroda Shio was already waiting for him in the living room.

“Mr. Gu, Cayman Dorrans is here, he just called you.”

Gu Siting nodded. “Get the car ready.”

Mrs. Gu thought for a while and said, “I will go with you.”

She knew very well that this was a matter of life and death.

“No, thank you though for offering, Mother.” Gu Siting said and got into the car.

Mrs. Gu followed him into the car and still insisted on going with him.

Gu Siting stayed silent for a while and asked Kuroda Shio to drive.

On the way, Gu Siting thought of Yuan Shuo and Yuan Meng who had helped Mu Weiwei escape, and he then asked Kuroda Shio, “Have Yuan Shuo and the rest been found?”

Kuroda Shio looked at Gu Siting through the rear-view mirror and answered, “They are at the Fu Family now and it seems that they are going to work for Fu Hanzheng.”

No wonder they could not find them, they were hiding under the Fu Family’s protection.

“Fu Hanzheng had better be able to protect them forever.” Gu Siting said as he coldly looked out of the window.

Apart from the Fu Family who had always been at odds with the Gu Family, no one else dared to take them in.

But they had better not think that they would be safe because they were hiding in the Fu Family.

Mrs. Gu looked at him and reminded him.

“Now is not the time to search for them. You kidnapped Fu Hanzheng’s woman and the Gu Family is going to be in a lot of trouble.”

And right now, the biggest problem was none other than Cayman Dorrans.

The car drove into the heavily guarded villa and the moment she got out of the car, she saw foreigners in black suits hovering around the villa. They were all tall and strong and they looked very fierce.

A thin man dressed in black came out and said to Gu Siting, “Mr. Gu, Mr. Dorrans is already waiting for you inside.”

Chapter 510: Cayman Dorrans 2

Gu Siting followed the guide into the villa and the moment he entered the living room, he felt an intense pressure.

In the living room, a middle-aged man in a suit was standing by the French windows, holding a cane made of ancient oak and his brown hair was neatly combed.

If one observed carefully, they would find that his left leg was a prosthetic leg.

“Mr. Dorrans, Mr. Gu is here.”

The guide came in and reported to him.

Cayman Dorrans turned around with his cane in his hand, looking very much like a German national.

Although he was an older gentleman, he still looked handsome.

It was the first time Mrs. Gu had met him, but she could tell that Weiwei had not only inherited her mother’s beauty, but also Cayman Dorrans’s eyebrows.

However, this man gave off such a strong feeling of oppression.

Just by looking at them without saying a word, she could already feel his intimidating aura.

“I just want to know where Weiwei is.”

Cayman Dorrans looked at Gu Siting coldly and asked about his daughter’s whereabouts.

Because he had to be wary of his opponent, he had placed his daughter in the Gu Family and had not seen her in person for more than twenty years. He had only seen pictures and videos of her.

But when he found out that she had been stabbed and injured, he had not seen her ever since.

It was not until recently that he heard that she had passed away.

Therefore, he did not care about anything else and rushed to A Land to ask the Gu Family if it was true... that his daughter, Vivian Dorrans, was no longer in this world.

Gu Siting looked at the man's sharp and cold eyes and said word by word, "As you heard, she is indeed gone."

Hearing the words, Cayman Dorrans looked deeply distressed.

No matter how experienced he was, he could not help but tremble.

"Gone?"

Gu Siting knew that it was too late for him to defend himself.

"Yes, she's no longer here."

Cayman Dorrans sat down on the sofa in silence, trying to calm himself down.

He had thought that he would tell him that she was still at the Gu Family home.

Unexpectedly, this was the news that he had received after rushing over here overnight.

Although he was both sad and angry, he soon calmed himself down and asked, "Because of the assassination?"

It seemed that she had disappeared after that assassination attempt.

"Yes, she did not wake up after the assassination attempt and the doctor announced her brain dead." Gu Siting said.

Cayman Dorrans closed his eyes in pain. Her identity had always been well hidden but someone had found out that she was his daughter at the beginning of last year.

So they had started to plot against her.

Although those who had tried to harm her had died in his hands, in the end... after losing her mother, he had also lost her too.

"The people around me who know her identity have been keeping it a secret. It is your men who are the problem."

Gu Siting was the one who knew that Weiwei was his daughter and that she was his most trusted treasure.

He had also checked in secret and found that no one on his side had revealed this matter.

Only the Gu Family members knew that Weiwei was his daughter.

If it was not because of his men, then it must have been the Gu Family.

Gu Siting stayed silent for a moment and then straightforwardly said, "It is not my men who are in trouble but Yuan Shuo, who you sent me... that is in trouble."
