

MY HIDDEN 531

Chapter 531: Trap

Gu Weiwei looked calm, her expression was not surprised but neither was it angry.

After all, if she was really from the Anderson Family, her purpose of approaching them would not have been simple.

She had not thought of it before but now that she thought about it, she realized that everything she had done with Yuan Meng was suspicious.

But she also understood that with Yuan Meng's skills, killing her when they were alone would be a piece of cake.

After all, she had been with her all these years and she had had many opportunities to do something to her.

Seeing that she was not surprised or angry, Yuan Shuo continued.

"Although my identity in the Dorrans Family has always been hidden, the Anderson Family still knows about it. So they arranged for Yuan Meng to approach me and investigate my purpose in A Land, so that she then... discovered your existence."

Gu Weiwei nodded. "You fell for the honey trap."

"That is not the point." Yuan Shuo laughed.

Gu Weiwei shrugged. "But that is the truth."

Yuan Meng kept saying that she had fallen for his honey trap and had come to the Yuan Family because of his looks.

Actually, he was the one who had fallen for the honey trap.

Otherwise, he would not have gotten together with her and had Yuan Bao.

"She knows that you are Cayman Dorrans' daughter and she brought you to the Amazon on her birthday that year because she was going to do something about it." Yuan Shuo confessed the secrets that he had kept from her for years.

Gu Weiwei suddenly remembered that they had gone to the Amazon rainforest behind his back and that she and Yuan Meng had been missing for two days.

But when she was injured in the rainforest, Yuan Meng rescued her and carried her back to the camp.

"But she turned around and saved me."

"Yes, she said that you had been looking for her everywhere because you thought that she was in danger." Yuan Shuo said.

Therefore, Yuan Meng could have left her in the rainforest and left her to fend for herself but instead, she saved her.

Gu Weiwei chuckled. She had given up on killing her because of this.

The human heart was a wonderful thing. Yuan Meng gave up on harming her because she was worried about her safety.

But Ling Yan, who had saved her so many times and done so many things for her, yet she still wanted to kill her and take her heart.

“Actually, if she had not arrived at the scene of the assassination, we would have both died there.” Yuan Shuo said.

But even though Yuan Meng had brought them home, she had still died at the hands of someone else when she returned to the Gu Family.

Hearing this, Gu Weiwei was certain that Yuan Meng had not harmed her.

“The assassination happened and the Gu Family found out about Yuan Meng’s background, so you escaped from A Land and hid in Hua Land.”

So that meant that when she went to Shengxi Town, for the film festival last year, Gu Siting’s men were there.

Yuan Shuo nodded. “Not only Gu Siting’s men but also the Dorrans Family and... the Anderson Family are all looking for us.”

The Fu Family might be able to protect them but they would definitely cause trouble for her and Fu Hanzheng.

“So Senior Sister went back to the Anderson Family.” Gu Weiwei said.

In this situation, if she stayed here, everyone would be watching the Fu Family.

But if she returned to the Anderson Family, the Dorrans Family would definitely turn their attention to her.

Therefore, Master and Yuan Bao would have less trouble.

Yuan Meng must have planned this before she decided to operate on Yuan Shuo.

Yuan Shuo said, “Although she knew that you are Cayman’s daughter, she has never reported it to the Anderson Family. As for how they found out about you, we have no idea either.”

But the moment she went home, she was going to admit to Cayman Dorrans and Gu Siting that she had done it.

Therefore, all the danger would be directed at her.

Chapter 532: No Peace for You and Fu Hanzheng

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a while and said, “But it is very dangerous for her to go back.”

“That is why she ran away after I had the operation.” Yuan Shuo said helplessly. He was now not even able to get out of bed and find her.

“She is going to be the scapegoat.” Gu Weiwei sighed.

Now, apart from them, everyone would think that she was the one who had leaked the news to the Anderson Family and cooperated with them in the assassination.

Cayman Dorrans did not know the real cause of her death and would only assume that Yuan Meng and the Anderson Family were the culprits and that Yuan Shuo was the accomplice, who had betrayed the Dorrans Family.

“She promised to come back, so for now, I can only believe that she will keep her promise.” Yuan Shuo said.

Gu Weiwei said, “When will she take the blame?”

If Cayman Dorrans decided not to give up, he would not stop until she was dead. She would not be able to come back.

She had done nothing wrong but now she was going to become the culprit and Ling Yan, the real murderer, was still on the loose.

“But if she doesn’t go back, Cayman Dorrans and the Gu Family will do whatever they can to bring us back. They might even track us down!” Yuan Shuo looked at her and said in a low voice, “Your existence may be exposed too.”

Her relationship with Fu Hanzheng was going well and no one in the Fu Family was objecting to their future marriage anymore.

If the secret of her surname was revealed because of this matter...

Not to mention how Fu Hanzheng and the Fu Family would treat her, Gu Siting would not allow her to marry his sworn enemy.

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei became silent and her eyes turned bitter.

Cayman Dorrans and Gu Siting both thought that Yuan Shuo and his men had harmed her but they had always protected her and thought of her the most.

Yuan Shuo looked at her deeply and said seriously, “Weiwei, don’t get involved in this matter.”

“But it is all because of me.” Gu Weiwei said.

They were in such a difficult situation because of her, yet he still wanted her to stay out of it.

Yuan Shuo said, “If you get involved too deeply, people will know that you are Gu Weiwei and you and Fu Hanzheng will be bothered more and more.”

He could tell that she had truly fallen for Fu Hanzheng.

It was not an easy thing for her to be happy, so neither he nor Yuan Meng wanted to ruin her happiness.

"I will have a conclusion with Ling Yan and Gu Siting sooner or later." Gu Weiwei said.

"Weiwei!" Seeing her unwillingness to give up, Yuan Shuo warned her. "Don't you know what kind of person Gu Siting is? If he finds out that you are still alive, you and Fu Hanzheng will never have any peace."

Fu Hanzheng was a neat freak when it came to relationships. If he knew that she and Gu Siting had been living together for more than twenty years, would there truly be no barrier formed between them?

Gu Weiwei said, "Master, ever since we were brought to the Gu Family, Gu Siting and I have become enemies."

Yuan Shuo said, "What about Fu Hanzheng and the Fu Family?"

"..."

Gu Weiwei stayed silent. That was her real weakness.

She was not afraid for anyone else to know that she was Gu Weiwei but she was afraid that Fu Hanzheng would find out.

The more he liked her, the more she feared that he would find out.

"So don't get involved or ask anything more about it."

Yuan Shuo knew what she really cared about and said, "You just need to take care of Yuan Bao for us. I will deal with this matter with Yuan Meng, when I am better."

Chapter 533: The Real Me

"Then what are you going to do?" Gu Weiwei asked straightforwardly.

If he was going to persuade her to stay out of it, she should at least know how successful his plan was.

To be honest the situation was a dead end and there was no direct evidence to prove to Cayman Dorrans that Yuan Shuo and Yuan Meng were not her killers.

Unless, of course, she could prove that she was killed by Ling Yan's drugs and not by the assassination.

Yuan Shuo looked at her helplessly. "We have our own way, don't ask."

People had already started to become suspicious. He Chi had been wondering how they got to know each other so well...

What was more, Fu Hanzheng was the closest person to her; if she helped them without caring about anything else, Fu Hanzheng would start to suspect their real relationship even more.

"Your own way?" Gu Weiwei snorted with her arms crossed. "If anything happens to you, are you going to let me raise your son for the rest of his life?"

Yuan Shuo was annoyed by her words and said, "You are not helping, you are just making things more complicated."

Originally, it was only between him and Yuan Meng but now she had brought in the grudge between the major families.

“I am...”

“You don’t want to get married?” Yuan Shuo countered.

If she got involved, she would not be able to marry Fu Hanzheng in half a year’s time.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a while and said, “I believe that he loves the real me.”

She was afraid that Fu Hanzheng would be displeased because her surname was Gu but she was not worried that they would break up because of this.

“Even if Fu Hanzheng can accept it because he loves you, what about his family?” Yuan Shuo asked.

Once the fact that she was Gu Weiwei was revealed, the Fu Family would not accept her and Gu Siting would not let it go either. It would undoubtedly bring a lot of trouble to her relationship with Fu Hanzheng.

Gu Weiwei sighed deeply and said to Yuan Shuo, “If I meet Cayman Dorrans, do you think he will believe me?”

The biggest problem was with Cayman Dorrans.

Yuan Shuo shook his head. “He has never met you before. Even if you meet him and tell him that you are Gu Weiwei, he will not believe you, unless...”

“Unless the Gu Family believes that I am Gu Weiwei.” Gu Weiwei said.

Yuan Shuo did not know what to say. Only the Gu Family knew her that well and if they believed that she was Gu Weiwei, then Cayman Dorrans would too.

But Gu Siting had only taken her to the Gu Family, just because she looked a bit like her old self.

If he had known that it was truly her, he would not have allowed her to stay with Fu Hanzheng.

Although she and Fu Hanzheng were in a relationship and did not care about Gu Siting’s interference, the Fu Family did. The Fu Family and the Gu Family were involved in a bloody fight to the death.

The whole thing went back to the point that they had to avoid.

They both fell silent. Gu Weiwei looked at the sunlight shining in through the window, feeling very displeased.

She did not want Yuan Shuo and Yuan Meng to suffer through any of this. As long as she stood up to prove that she was Gu Weiwei, the problem could be solved.

But if she proved that she was Gu Weiwei, then she and Fu Hanzheng would be in a relationship crisis.

Even if Fu Hanzheng could accept that she was Gu Weiwei, the other members of the Fu Family and the Gu Family would try their best to stop them from being together.

And she... could not bear to see him under so much pressure, just to be with her.

After a long time, Yuan Shuo said, “Weiwei, don’t ask anymore, just live your life with Fu Hanzheng.”

Chapter 534: Not Lethal Enough

Hearing Yuan Shuo’s words, Gu Weiwei did not say anything more but she had no intention of giving up.

If she wanted to change the current situation without getting herself involved, she needed to think carefully.

She stayed at the hospital with Yuan Bao all the way until the afternoon, when the boy finally fell asleep from exhaustion.

Fu Hanzheng finished his work and came to the hospital to pick her up. Seeing Yuan Bao sleeping in her arms, he frowned.

So after they got into the car, they did not return to the Landscape Villa but went to the Fu Family’s mansion instead.

Gu Weiwei had already guessed what he was up to, when she realized that they were heading in the wrong direction.

“I promised Auntie that I would take care of him for two days.”

“If I hand him over to her, she will not object.” Fu Hanzheng said.

He had to make it clear to them that they could not send this little annoyance to them anymore.

Otherwise, they would have to take a detour to send him back every now and again.

They took Yuan Bao to the Fu Family’s mansion and saw Fu Shiyi also coming home.

“Brother, what are you doing here?”

Seeing him, Fu Hanzheng said, “Come here.”

Fu Shiyi came over to them obediently. “Brother, what is it?”

Fu Hanzheng said, “Give me your hand.”

Fu Shiyi obediently stretched out one hand and threw a look at his brother – was he going to hit him?

Fu Hanzheng said, “Both hands.”

Fu Shiyi stretched out his other hand. “Brother, what are you doing?”

Fu Hanzheng turned to Gu Weiwei, who was holding the child. “Give him to Fu Shiyi.”

Gu Weiwei looked down at Yuan Bao who was still sleeping and carefully handed him over to Fu Shiyi.

She had to think of a way to deal with Yuan Meng’s problem, so she truly had no time or energy to take care of Yuan Bao.

Fu Shiyi held Yuan Bao who was sound asleep. “Our mother said...”

Fu Hanzheng threw a cold look at him. "If this child is ever delivered to us again, I will send you and Fu Shiqin to the South Pole."

"..." Fu Shiyi was startled for two seconds.

No way, had he found out that it was them who had urged their mother and the others to send Yuan Bao over?

So he quickly thought and changed his tone.

"Then... if you and sister-in-law are busy with work, let us take care of him."

He was afraid of the cold and he did not want to spend time with the penguins in the South Pole.

His brother was not someone who would scare them without following through. He would always keep his promises.

Fu Hanzheng nodded in satisfaction. He turned around and said, as he saw Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying coming out of the front door, "Weiwei, get in the car."

"Hey, are you leaving right now? You are not eating with us?" Fu Shiyi asked with the child in his arms.

Gu Weiwei was pulled into the car and was taken away before she could say anything to Mrs. Fu and the others.

"You have come home and yet you are leaving without saying goodbye?"

"No need." Fu Hanzheng said.

Now that they were back at the old mansion, they should keep on urging them to have a child.

If he could not persuade him, he would start with her.

Weiwei had never thought about having children before but his mother had been nagging her about it.

Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying came out and saw that the car had already driven away.

Then she saw Yuan Bao in Fu Shiyi's arms and understood what was going on.

"Your brother's doing?"

Fu Shiyi looked at his brother who had left and then at Yuan Bao.

Sigh, he was indeed not lethal enough.

Yuan Bao was not his child and he could send him away just like that.

If it was his own child, where could he send them?

Chapter 535: The Truth

Back at the Landscape Villa, Fu Hanzheng asked the servant to pack Yuan Bao's things and send them to the old mansion.

Then he happily ate dinner with her.

Gu Weiwei looked confused as she stared at this man, who was in a very good mood, after seeing Yuan Bao off.

“Children are so cute, why don’t you like them?”

“They get in the way.” Fu Hanzheng said.

No matter if it was someone else’s or his own, they were both in the way of their private time.

“Just because Yuan Bao has been sent home, doesn’t mean that Auntie won’t have other ways to pressure us into having children”

Gu Weiwei reminded him, as she was eating.

She was not against children and she still wanted to be a mother, preferably within three years time. But when she looked at this man, she felt that her wish was a bit unrealistic.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, “We can let Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin get married and have children first.”

Gu Weiwei almost choked. So your two brothers are now your shield?

They ate dinner and Fu Hanzheng was working in the study, whilst she was writing the script on the sofa opposite him.

But when she thought of Yuan Meng and Yuan Shuo, she failed to come up with a single scene.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at her, when he took a break. “Did you get the answer today?”

Gu Weiwei said with a muffled voice, “Yuan Meng is gone.”

Although she always wanted to stay away from this female hooligan, she did not expect that she would leave and face so much danger alone.

Fu Hanzheng put down his work, got up and sat down next to her.

“Trouble?”

Lei Meng had told him about Yuan Meng leaving Hua Land this morning.

Gu Weiwei nodded in distress. “If she goes back now, the Dorrans Family and the Gu Family will assume that she and Yuan Shuo were involved in the assassination and they will not let them off.”

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment. “You mean that they are not involved?”

“Of course not, they saved her during the assassination and she died after Gu Siting brought her home.”

Gu Weiwei tried hard to calm herself down and told him about her death.

Fu Hanzheng frowned. “Are you sure that they did not lie to you and that she truly did not die in their hands?”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Absolutely.”

She knew better than anyone else how she had died.

It was just that Ling Yan and her mother had done it so discreetly that Gu Siting had not noticed it, let alone anyone else.

If she said that Ling Yan and her mother were the real culprits, people would either think that it was a fantasy or... they would suspect her identity.

Seeing her determined expression, Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a few seconds and asked,

“What do you need me to do? Do you want me to find out what happened after Gu Weiwei was stabbed and returned to the Gu Family?”

“No, I just hope that you can get Cayman Dorrans to continue with the investigation.” Gu Weiwei said.

She did not want the Fu Family to be involved in this matter.

As long as Cayman Dorrans turned to the Gu Family and the Ling Family, he would be able to find out how she died.

That way, Yuan Meng and Yuan Shuo would be safe too.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a few seconds and said, “Okay, I will arrange it.”

It was a good arrangement for him and the Fu Family.

If Gu Weiwei had really died after returning to the Gu Family, Gu Siting must have been involved.

Then, Cayman Dorrans would not spare the Gu Family, even if he did not do anything.

“Hopefully Cayman Dorrans will find out the truth.” Gu Weiwei let out a sigh of relief.

Fu Hanzheng touched her head and nonchalantly asked, “Don’t they only know you because they knew your grandfather? You must have been very young back then, so why do you trust them so much?”

Chapter 536: The Wedding Gown

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a moment and then smiled.

“They saved me when I was in danger. I believe that they would not do something like that, to such a kind-hearted person.”

Fu Hanzheng patted her head. “I will make sure it’s done, don’t worry.”

The two had rushed to A Land to save her when she was in danger and she deeply trusted them.

It was not just a feeling of familiarity but a feeling of knowing each other for years.

But she had been living in Hua Land and they had spent most of their time in A Land, so how could they become so close?

Gu Weiwei had thought that he was going to ask her about her relationship with Yuan Shuo, so she was just thinking of how to answer him when he got up, went back to the desk and gave her a stack of files.

“These are the design drafts sent by Merlin, pick one from them.”

Gu Weiwei turned the pages and found that it was full of wedding designs.

Every design was beautiful.

“Which one do you want to see me wearing?”

“Pick something you like.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei flipped through the pages and said helplessly, “But they are all so pretty, I like them so much.”

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while. “Then should I have him make all of them?”

“You can only wear one dress when you get married, what am I going to do with the others?”

Gu Weiwei looked down and tried to figure out which design she liked the most.

“If you want to wear them, we can do a few run-throughs.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei chuckled. “Once is enough.”

Just so that she could wear a few more wedding dresses, she would have to do the wedding several times. What was this?

Fu Hanzheng said, “Then pick one that you like.”

Gu Weiwei flipped through the pages for a long time and said, as she showed it to him, “How about this one?”

Fu Hanzheng glanced at it and frowned.

“No.”

The front was too low and it looked too sexy.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and flipped through to another piece.

“What about this one? This one should work, right?”

Fu Hanzheng took a look at it. “Change it to another one.”

It would expose too much of her back, so much so that the V of the back reached her waist.

What was even more ridiculous, was that Merlin had even submitted such a design.

“All you say is no! Why did you ask me to pick one I like then?”

Gu Weiwei closed the book and was no longer in the mood to pick out the wedding dress anymore.

Fu Hanzheng picked up the book, removed the sexy designs and said, as he gave it to her, “Pick one from here.”

Gu Weiwei took it and leafed through it again, only to find that the strapless and sexy, backless, wedding gowns were all gone.

Oh, it turned out that she had been too obvious.

But the V-neck was only small and the amount of her back that would be exposed, was minimal.

She should have asked Merlin to design her a traditional Arabian Muslim gown that only showed her face.

She struggled for a long time but was finally able to pick out a traditional Western-style wedding gown, with one exposed shoulder.

Fu Hanzheng was satisfied that she liked it.

“Get Xu Qian to send it over tomorrow, we should have it made as soon as possible.”

Fu Hanzheng took the design draft she had selected and took a look at it. Then he got up and went back to work.

Gu Weiwei stood up and embraced him from behind as she said, with her face against his back, “Fu Hanzheng, I like you so much.”

Maybe I can't love you openly as Gu Weiwei but I like you so much...

Fu Hanzheng looked sideways in surprise but he could not see her face.

“What is it? Why do you keep saying such things?”

Gu Weiwei said, “I've told you too little before.”

She had been forced to return to the Gu Family and it had made it even clearer what she truly wanted.

What she wanted was him, a future with him.

Chapter 537: A Couple of Years

After Yuan Meng left Hua Land, Yuan Shuo and Gu Weiwei did not lose their rationality by going to the Anderson Family to look for her.

Yuan Bao was taken care of by Mrs. Fu at the Fu Family's mansion and so they did not need to worry about him at all.

Yuan Shuo started to cooperate with He Chi's postoperative treatment at the hospital, so Gu Weiwei officially ended her vacation and started to work.

The preparations for the new movie were already halfway done, so the directing team and the film crew were arranged to have their first meeting and the cast members were decided.

Gu Weiwei frowned deeply, when she saw the staff drawn up by the assistant director.

She was the lead actress, Fu Shiyi was the lead actor and the other roles were all artists from Shiyi Culture.

Fu Shiyi said to her proudly, “They are the best looking artists from the entire company. If they all star in this movie, it will definitely be very popular.”

Gu Weiwei sighed with one hand against her forehead. "Can't you be more reliable?"

Although Shiyi Culture was filming the movie, there was no need to include so many artists from the company.

There was a saying that artists from Shiyi Culture made a living from their looks.

But what she wanted were actors with good acting skills, not feasts for the eyes.

"What's wrong? I have been very focused on the preparations." Fu Shiyi said. He had spent a great deal of effort on selecting these actors.

Gu Weiwei did not want to talk with him anymore, so she wrote down the actors, who she was especially looking for, on the list.

"I want these actors."

Fu Shiyi took it and looked at it. "Song Yu is the lead actor? So what should I do?"

He was the President of Shiyi Culture and yet he could not even play the male lead.

"I left you a supporting role." Gu Weiwei pointed at his name on the list.

Fu Shiyi immediately protested, when he saw the role that he had been assigned.

"This is a mentally ill patient and he is not even handsome! My fans will definitely protest if I play this role."

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth and warned him.

"Third Master, you have a few more years of youth left and so you can show off your handsomeness... after this. Why can't you become a capable person and an actor with substance?"

If he continued to only be good-looking, in the next few years, people would soon get sick of him.

"But you can't make me play a mental patient!" Fu Shiyi said unhappily.

"Then you can ask someone else to do it. You should have other contracts lined up too, so you don't actually need this role." Gu Weiwei said straightforwardly.

"It's just a mental patient, right? I will play the role! Okay, happy now?" Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth and agreed.

He looked at the actors she had written down and said helplessly, "Who are these people? I have never heard of them before."

"I picked them over the last few days, have someone sign the contract with them." Gu Weiwei said.

Since it was a low-budget movie, she would not hire famous actors.

They were all C or D-list actors and some of them were newbies, who had just entered the industry.

However, they were all talented and good at acting. All they lacked was the opportunity.

Since she had not found anyone suitable to play the male lead, she decided to choose Song Yu, who had acted with her in the Eyes of the Eagle.

Song Yu had excellent acting skills and his temperament was similar to the role.

After the meeting, Fu Shiyi left for work and Gu Weiwei was planning to return to the villa.

Jolin knew that she was focusing on the movie, so he did not give her any more work.

She had just left the company when Mrs. Fu called.

“Weiwei, I am shopping for clothes with Yuan Bao, it is not far from your company, do you want to come over?”

“Okay, I will be right there.” Gu Weiwei replied.

Yuan Bao had fallen asleep the other day and she had been feeling very guilty about sending him back, without saying goodbye.

When she arrived at the mall, the elevator had only gone up two floors, when the doors opened and she saw Meng Ruya, with several other wealthy ladies.

“Mu Weiwei?!”

Due to the popularity of the Eyes of the Eagle and MG’s global commercials, Meng Ruya instantly recognized her.

Chapter 538: Unused To It

Gu Weiwei had planned to hold a meeting at the company and then go home.

She was called over by Mrs. Fu at the last minute and so she was not wearing a mask on her face. There was only a hat that she had found in the car.

“Miss. Meng.”

Meng Ruya gritted her teeth. She had been totally humiliated at the banquet because of MG.

MG had then asked her for a large sum of money and now, My Weiwei had become the global spokesperson of the brand.

When she saw the commercial in the mall, she had gotten so annoyed and now she was here, in the flesh.

Even though she didn’t want to, she had to greet her with a smile because people were standing next to her.

“A superstar is so free, huh? Why are you shopping here?”

She had thought that after she was driven out of the Fu Family, she would be living a very poor life. She had not expected that she would become so successful in the entertainment industry.

Gu Weiwei smiled. “To pick someone up.”

If she had not known that Meng Ruya had long been transferred to the branch company and so no longer had the opportunity to harass Fu Hanzheng, she would not be so pleasant.

Meng Ruya brushed her hair behind her ear and said, "Oh, I am meeting Auntie Fu upstairs for tea. Want to join us?"

Gu Weiwei checked her phone – it was Mrs. Fu.

"No thanks."

What did Mrs. Fu mean by this? She had asked her to come here but also invited Meng Ruya for tea.

"It's been a long time since we last met and we are all here together, so are you sure you don't want to have tea with us?" Meng Ruya invited her sincerely.

"No thanks." Gu Weiwei turned her down with a smile, pressed open the elevator door that was closing and walked out.

This floor was full of children's clothes and products. She soon found Mrs. Fu, Master Fu Shengying and Yuan Bao in the children's clothing store, according to the live location shared by Mrs. Fu.

They bought Yuan Bao a pile of toys and Mrs. Fu was busy choosing clothes for him.

"Weiwei, you just came at the right time, which ones look better?"

Gu Weiwei glanced at the items and pointed at two of them.

"These two outfits should be perfect because they have teddy bears on them. Yuan Bao really loves teddy bears."

Mrs. Fu nodded and said to the staff, "Wrap up these outfits and both those pairs of shoes."

Yuan Bao ran over from Fu Shengying's side and grabbed her legs.

"Wife, don't live with the bad uncle, live with us."

Mrs. Fu did not know whether to laugh or cry. The bad uncle he was referring to was none other than Fu Hanzheng.

He said to Gu Weiwei in a small voice, "I was crying for you the other day when I came home and found that you were not here."

Gu Weiwei smiled apologetically and picked up Yuan Bao.

"We have currently been very busy with work and his father is at the hospital. Auntie, we have troubled you."

"No trouble, Yuan Bao is very obedient and cute." Mrs. Fu said as she patted Yuan Bao's head.

There were only a few of them in the old mansion and it was very quiet, so now that this little boy was here, it would be very lively.

They were just talking when Mrs. Fu's phone rang.

The moment she answered the call, Gu Weiwei saw that it was Meng Ruya.

"I am here, I need to buy something, I will be there soon... No need, I will go myself."

...

Mrs. Fu hung up and said to the butler,

"Hand me what I just bought."

The butler took out a carefully wrapped velvet box from a pile of shopping bags.

Mrs. Fu took it and said, as she opened it, "I just saw it and thought that it would suit a young lady like you. Do you like it?"

Gu Weiwei took a look and saw an exquisite diamond necklace, set inside the box. It was a limited edition piece from a famous jewelry brand.

"Auntie, this is too expensive."

Her future mother-in-law had been treating her too kindly and she was unused to it.

Chapter 539: The Future Mother-in-law

Mrs. Fu measured her neck and smiled in satisfaction.

"Yes, it is quite suitable."

"Auntie..."

Gu Weiwei felt a bit embarrassed. She could neither accept it or reject it.

Mrs. Fu put it back into the box, put it into the shopping bag and said, "We are a family now, no need to stand on ceremonies."

When she first found out that she was in a relationship with Hanzheng, she found it difficult to accept.

But Shiyi and Shiqin had told her a lot about her relationship with Hanzheng.

Unexpectedly, she did not even require Hanzheng's help, to achieve her achievements as an actress.

Also, she could tell that Hanzheng liked her very much.

After all, her daughter-in-law would be the one to marry Hanzheng and as his mother she would not object to anything, as long as he liked her.

She had also found that she was quite lovely during these last few days.

"Thanks, Auntie." Gu Weiwei accepted the gift.

Everyone in their family loved giving out diamonds.

Fu Hanzheng kept giving her diamond necklaces and earrings and Fu Shiyi had given her a diamond accessory for her birthday last year.

And now her future mother-in-law was giving her diamonds too.

“Let’s go and take a look.”

Mrs. Fu pointed at a children’s clothing store not far away from them and asked her to join them.

Fu Shengying sighed helplessly, paid the bill and followed the butler carrying the pile of shopping bags.

Mrs. Fu looked over the products one by one and casually said, “Recently, we have been buying things for Yuan Bao and we found that two children’s clothing brands are quite nice. So we are going to buy them so that you and Hanzheng can have them for your children in the future.”

“...” Gu Weiwei laughed dryly.

Fu Hanzheng bought someone else’s building and opened a mall and they casually intended to buy someone else’s company. They were indeed from the same family.

“I will send you the information later. If you like it, we can buy it.” Mrs. Fu looked at her and said.

Gu Weiwei did not know whether to laugh or cry. “Well... Fu Hanzheng said that he doesn’t want children yet.”

Sure enough, she was here because they wanted to hasten the pregnancy.

“He can’t do anything about it. The baby is growing in your belly and if he dares to say no, he will be betraying you.” Mrs. Fu said.

Since her son could not persuade her, she should do it herself.

Anyway, the child would be in her belly and he was not the only one who would decide if she was going to give birth or not.

Fu Shengying whispered, “They are not married yet, it is too early for you to mention this.”

“Of course it’s not!” Mrs. Fu turned around and glared at her husband, who had interrupted them. Then she turned back to Gu Weiwei and continued.

“You are getting married in half a year’s time, so don’t be too busy with work these next six months. Just get ready for the wedding and get pregnant after the honeymoon.”

Gu Weiwei’s face stiffened. Fu Hanzheng would be very annoyed if she got pregnant right after the wedding.

Mrs. Fu was talking happily with her, when the phone rang again. It was Meng Ruya.

“I’m doing something important, we can talk about it later.” Having said this, she hung up and continued.

“Hanzheng has a cold personality and he is older than you but he is mature and steady. Don’t see him as boring and old-fashioned...”

“No, he is very interesting.” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Cold?

Why did she not notice it when they were at home together? They would kiss and hug each other all the time... So how was he cold?

Mrs. Fu chuckled, as she thought of how Fu Shiyi constantly said that their brother was totally different in front of them.

It probably was as they had said.

He had reserved his warm and passionate side for his girlfriend.

Chapter 540: Money is For Women

After they had finished shopping in the children's section, Mrs. Fu took her upstairs to buy clothes.

She not only bought clothes for herself but also bought a few outfits for Weiwei too.

"I know that you don't lack these things but what Hanzheng has given you, is what he has given you and what I buy you is a separate matter."

Gu Weiwei smiled guiltily.

"Auntie, that is all on him and it's not what I actually want. I tried to persuade him..."

Oh no, there was no way that she was going to let her think that she was a spendthrift and then encouraged Fu Hanzheng to buy her so many things!

Truly, it was not what she wanted, it was all his own squandering.

"Alright, what are you so nervous about?" Seeing her explaining herself anxiously, Mrs. Fu chuckled.

"Men earn money for women to spend. What is he keeping it for?"

"..."

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Mrs. Fu, who was still buying things, and then at the butler and Fu Shengying who were carrying multiple bags.

She herself was a rebelliously spending woman, so of course she could not see that her son was a rebellious spender.

They did not stop shopping until Meng Ruya made the third phone call.

Seeing Yuan Bao sleeping on her shoulder, she quickly said, "You can go back to the car first, I am just going to quickly meet someone."

Gu Weiwei nodded in agreement.

"Let's go back to the mansion for dinner and ask Hanzheng to come home too."

Having said those words, Mrs. Fu went upstairs to meet Meng Ruya.

Meng Ruya had been waiting for more than an hour and when Mrs. Fu finally arrived, she got up to greet her.

"Aunt, you are finally here."

Mrs. Fu sat down with a smile. "What do you want? I am in a hurry."

Meng Ruya was going to give her something to drink and talk slowly with her but Mrs. Fu went straight to the point.

"Auntie, I have been transferred to the branch company and I am not very familiar with the environment there... I find I am not used to it. I wonder if you can make a suggestion to the Young Master for me, so I can return to the headquarters."

She had been wanting to talk to her about this matter for a long time but Mrs. Fu had been busy with something else and she had never been able to meet up with her.

If she had not run into her at the mall, she had no idea when she would have ended up meeting her.

"The work at the branch company is quite relaxing. You will acclimatise to the environment soon." Mrs. Fu chuckled.

Meng Ruya pursed her lips. "But it doesn't feel very... convenient."

In the past, she would have agreed to it, if she had mentioned it.

Fu Hanzheng was at the headquarters but she had been moved to the branch company and so now, they could not even meet.

In the beginning, Mrs. Fu had arranged for her to work at the headquarters because she wanted her to be with Fu Hanzheng.

But now that she had been transferred away, she even refused to let her visit the Fu Mansion.

Mrs. Fu frowned and straightforwardly said, "Ruya, you are being treated just as well as you were, when you were in the head office. Forget about the transfer."

"Aunt..." Meng Ruya did not expect that Mrs. Fu would not help her, despite all that she had said.

Mrs. Fu could tell what she was thinking. "Ruya, I used to hope that you could be my daughter-in-law but now Hanzheng and his girlfriend are getting married. It is not right for you to return to the headquarters."

"Getting married?" Meng Ruya was startled.

Mrs. Fu nodded calmly. "Yes. It will happen in a couple of months, so... don't disturb me in work or my personal life."

She was the one who had encouraged Meng Ruya to approach Hanzheng but now that Hanzheng and Mu Weiwei were getting married, she should be the one to solve the problem she had caused.
