

MY HIDDEN 581

Chapter 581: Together

Fu Hanzheng did not know whether to laugh or cry. He walked around the bed and approached her.

"I don't mind."

Gu Weiwei climbed across the bed and turned over to the other side, saying as she walked towards the bathroom.

"I... need to take a shower first."

But the moment she walked into the bathroom, Fu Hanzheng followed her.

Gu Weiwei glared at the man who was following her. "Get out!"

Even if they had been intimate numerous times, she still could not accept doing such a shameful thing as sharing a bath.

Fu Hanzheng removed his suit jacket and said, as he removed his tie, "Me too, let's have one together."

"You... go ahead, I will wait outside." Gu Weiwei was about to walk out the bathroom with a flushed face.

However, Fu Hanzheng had already locked the bathroom door.

Gu Weiwei almost burst into tears. Seeing that he had removed his tie and started to unbutton his shirt, she turned around with her back facing him.

"Can't I take it off for you after we have showered?"

Standing behind her back, Fu Hanzheng chuckled. "Didn't you say that you wanted to eat me for dessert?"

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead in embarrassment. Sure enough, it was not wise to just say what came to mind.

Fu Hanzheng removed his shirt and filled the bathtub with water. Then he approached her with his upper body naked and whispered into her ears, "Still want to go out?"

Gu Weiwei looked at him sideways and nodded with a flushed face.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while. "Give me a kiss and then I will let you go out."

Gu Weiwei turned around and kissed him on the lips.

However, she had thought that it would only be just a small kiss, but the man kissed her so hard that she could not break away.

She was not able to get out of the bathroom and before she realized what was going on, Fu Hanzheng had thrown her into the bathtub.

The wet clothes clung to her body, making her look very attractive.

The sound of breathlessness arose in the hot bathroom.

The bath took a very long time. When she came out of the bathroom, she was already too weak to walk, so Fu Hanzheng wrapped her up in a towel and carried her out.

When they returned to the bed, the man kissed her passionately again.

Gu Weiwei could not catch her breath and managed to avoid his kiss.

“You... still want more?”

“I only had a bath.” Fu Hanzheng chuckled and continued to kiss the girl’s red lips.

Gu Weiwei was annoyed, but she could not help but be fascinated by the man’s gentle kisses.

Was it just a bath?

How could he bathe like that?

But another round of passion made her bath go to waste.

With one hand supporting his head, Fu Hanzheng brushed away her messy hair.

“Mrs. Fu, are you satisfied with the dessert?”

Gu Weiwei nodded furiously – how could she say that she was not satisfied?

She was not going to be able to fight with him anymore.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and kissed her flushed face.

“Get some sleep, I need to talk to Shiqin about some work.”

“Have Jolin bring me my luggage.” Gu Weiwei reminded him.

Her clothes were still in the bathtub and she could not put them on.

“Okay.” Fu Hanzheng put on the robe, fastened the belt and went out to make the call.

Hearing the familiar low and gentle voice, Gu Weiwei closed her eyes and was ready to take a nap.

Jolin quickly came up with her luggage. Seeing the man in a bathrobe, he could tell what had happened.

She had only been home for a short while and now she was already in bed.

He did not want to see them being lovey-dovey, yet they kept showing off their love to him. It was too much!

Chapter 582: Devour

Fu Hanzheng greeted Jolin and put the luggage into the room.

“Is she finished with work here?”

Jolin was startled for two seconds. You are asking me instead of your girlfriend?

However, he did not have the energy to complain, so he replied with a smile, "Yes we are done. The original plan was to return to Hua Land in the next few days."

Fu Hanzheng said, "She is leaving with me, so you don't need to worry about her."

Having said those words, he closed the door.

Jolin looked at the door and pursed his lips. He had no intention of doing anything about it.

The moment they saw each other, they started to devour one another. He did not want to see them showing off their love.

Fu Hanzheng carried her luggage further into the bedroom and realised that Mu Weiwei was already asleep.

He closed the bedroom door and went into the room outside before continuing with his work.

After they finished talking about work, Fu Shiqin said, "How dare Gu Siting harass my sister-in-law at this stage?"

He did not know how much damage the Gu Family had suffered recently, yet they still had the time to stalk her in Australia.

"Watch them closely, don't let them find any other partners in Europe." Fu Hanzheng said.

Cayman Dorrans had terminated the collaboration with the Gu's Enterprise, so if they wanted to make up for the loss, they would have to cooperate with other big companies in Europe.

"Got it!" Fu Shiqin chuckled and said, "Brother, if I have to deal with so many things, I won't have time for the blind dates."

Fu Hanzheng thought for two seconds. "You don't have to go for the time being."

Well, compared to the blind dates, work was more important.

"Okay, I am going to go work now, you and sister-in-law can have a nice reunion." Fu Shiqin said happily.

Fu Shiyi was such a good-for-nothing that he kept on pestering Ding Dongdong these past few days, even after he failed to have the blind date with her.

But Ding Dongdong was not that difficult to meet.

He and He Chi were able to meet her, so why was it so difficult for Fu Shiyi?

Fu Hanzheng ended the call and thought of what Lei Ning had texted him, about Gu Siting following them and wanting to take her away when their car broke down.

After thinking for a while, he called Lei Ning.

"Boss, what is it?" Lei Ning asked respectfully.

"Gu Siting followed you all the way?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

He was not there to kidnap her, he was just following her all the way. What was he up to?

Was it because she resembled Gu Weiwei who had died at the Gu Family?

Lei Ning said, "They did not show up at the beginning, but they followed us around and we did not know that it was them until our car broke down."

Standing by the window, Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment as he looked at the darkness outside the window and asked again, "Did he approach her?"

Lei Ning instantly said, "Gu Siting is here for Miss. Mu, but she was not friendly towards him and she did not accept any help from Gu Siting."

That was why she felt that Boss was right about her.

Fu Hanzheng asked, "When did he leave?"

Lei Ning said, "Gu Siting's car was still nearby when we left."

Honestly speaking, she had been too nervous to fall asleep the moment she realized that Gu Siting was following them.

The incident at the film festival had just passed and if something happened to Mu Weiwei again, she would not be able to answer to Boss even if she remained alive.

Although she had not met Boss' girlfriend before, she had heard from her brother that Boss doted on her a lot.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a while and said, "I understand. She will be at home these next few days to rest, so you don't need to protect her for the time being."

Gu Siting had taken her to the Gu Family, but this time, he had followed her all the way without doing anything.

What happened during those few days when she was at the Gu Family? What made him change so much?

It did not look like he was trying to turn her into Gu Weiwei, but more like he had feelings for her...

Chapter 583: Gu Weiwei?

Gu Weiwei slept for a few hours and when she awoke it was already dawn.

Fu Hanzheng had finished his work and was resting next to her, his long arms wrapped around her waist.

She turned around to face him and looked at the man's handsome face.

After a long time, Fu Hanzheng opened his eyes lazily.

"Have you seen enough?"

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly. "Not enough, not even for a lifetime."

Hearing the words, Fu Hanzheng kissed her lips happily.

However, the simple morning kiss quickly turned passionate because she was naked.

She felt the man's hands on her and ended the kiss, panting.

"Don't even think about it..."

The man kissed her neck and held her hand with one of his, pressing it against the area where his reaction was passionately prominent.

"It is very difficult for me not to."

It was very difficult for him to not think about it, when she was in his arms.

Especially when they had not seen each other for more than ten days.

Gu Weiwei was coaxed into a full morning of vigorous exercise and it took a long time before she calmed down.

"Gu Siting went to the no man's land with us, did you know that?"

Although she knew that Lei Ning had told him, she still felt the need to tell him.

Fu Hanzheng's long fingers caressed her soft hair.

"Yes."

Gu Weiwei looked up at him. "Why didn't you ask me if I had met him? Why don't you question what we talked about?"

"Why?" Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

She was with him and her heart was with him. Was there a need for him to ask her these questions?

"Not jealous?" Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

"I'm not jealous." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei smiled and said straightforwardly, "Although you did not ask, I only said a few words to him and they were not very nice. It did not even take more than three minutes."

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her chin and kissed her, showing his satisfaction.

Gu Weiwei turned away and ended the kiss. "Are we going home?"

If he kissed her again, she would be in trouble.

Fu Hanzheng checked the time. "A few more hours to go."

Gu Weiwei looked around the bedside, grabbed a towel, wrapped herself in it and went to the luggage to find some clothes.

"I am going to take a shower now."

With one hand behind his head, Fu Hanzheng asked with a smile, "Want me to join you?"

“No!” Gu Weiwei closed the bathroom door and locked it.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled, got up slowly and got dressed. Then he dialed the hotel’s internal line and asked someone to prepare breakfast.

Breakfast had just been served and Gu Weiwei had finished taking a shower and was now drying her hair with a towel.

Seeing him leisurely reading the morning paper, she walked over and pointed at her wet hair.

“Uncle Fu, please help me.”

Fu Hanzheng got up and asked her to sit down. Then he took the dry towel from her and started to dry her hair.

Gu Weiwei, on the other hand, picked up the coffee he had just drunk from and enjoyed the care from her boyfriend.

Fu Hanzheng wiped her hair and nonchalantly asked, “Did Gu Siting say anything else when he met you?”

“What else do you want him to say to me?” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Fu Hanzheng said, “That is not what I mean.”

“Then what do you mean?” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment and then asked, “Weiwei, do you know Gu Weiwei?”

Chapter 584: Gu Weiwei 2

Gu Weiwei’s hands that were holding the coffee cup shook and she took a sip to calm herself down.

“Know her?”

Of course she did, but she did not dare to admit it.

“You don’t?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

He also knew that she had grown up in Hua Land and so would not have known Gu Weiwei, who grew up in the Gu Family of A Land.

But what had happened recently made him think that she might have known her.

Gu Siting came to her, and Yuan Shuo and his men knew her, as well as those who knew Gu Weiwei well.

So he wondered if she knew Gu Weiwei.

“How could I possibly know her?” She still chose to lie.

She did not have the courage to tell him the truth.

She was afraid that the truth would ruin everything that they had now.

Fu Hanzheng dried her hair and took away the coffee cup from her hands without asking anything more.

“Don’t drink too much coffee, eat your breakfast first.”

Gu Weiwei smiled and followed him over to the dining table for breakfast.

However, because of his question, her heart was surging.

Although she had been trying very hard to avoid him connecting her with Gu Weiwei.

But in the end, everything was going in the direction she did not want.

Even if she could deny his question now, if Gu Siting found out that she was Mu Weiwei a few months later...

With his personality, he would definitely reveal her secret to Fu Hanzheng and force her to leave the Fu Family.

Fu Hanzheng looked up and saw that the girl sitting opposite him looked distracted.

“What is it, still tired?”

Gu Weiwei came back to herself and snorted.

“If it were not for your lack of control, I would not be so tired.”

Fu Hanzheng chuckled. “I am already being very restrained.”

Gu Weiwei said, “Don’t talk nonsense when you are eating.”

Having said those words, she lowered her head and focused on eating, trying to conceal the thoughts that were surging forth in her eyes.

They ate breakfast in the hotel and rushed to the airport, where Fu Hanzheng’s plane was ready for take-off.

Soon after they had boarded the plane, the plane took them away from Australia.

When they returned home, Fu Shiqin was already waiting for them at the Landscape Villa.

The moment she entered, he gave her a letter.

“Yuan Shuo visited Yuan Bao today and gave me this letter, saying that he is leaving Hua Land for some time.”

Gu Weiwei opened the letter and asked, after reading the contents, “Is he fully recovered?”

“He is almost fully recovered, only one area that has a little more healing to do.” Fu Shiqin said.

Reading the letter, Gu Weiwei was not that surprised that Yuan Shuo had left because she had expected that he would find a way to meet Yuan Meng after he recovered.

“By the way, any progress on Cayman Dorrans?”

Fu Shiqin, who was drinking milk tea, instantly said, “I don’t know what is going on, but Cayman Dorrans has been keeping an eye on Gu Siting’s fiancée and Ling Yan’s family.”

Startled, Gu Weiwei did not expect that the investigation of the Ling Family had already started.

However, it was not going to be easy to find out anything.

"I heard that two high tech lie detectors have been dispatched to interrogate each of them." Fu Shiqin said as he thought 'But shouldn't Gu Siting be the one being interrogated?'

"Lie detector?" Gu Weiwei asked.

She had not expected that the Dorrans Family would use such a thing.

However, a lie detector could only detect the changes in the body, so would it really lead to a clue hidden in the Ling Family?

Chapter 585: Breakup?

"Yes, it sounds very advanced." Fu Shiqin said as he ate his snacks.

Gu Weiwei frowned. Hopefully, they would be able to make some progress because of the lie detectors.

Seeing her worried expression, Fu Hanzheng said straightforwardly, "The lie detector is indeed useful, but it also depends on whether the operator has asked the correct questions and the mentality of the person who is being tested."

"It might not be of much use but if the Ling Family is up to something, they will be exposed."

...

"Hopefully." Gu Weiwei sighed.

Fu Shiqin finished the food and said, with a pile of files in his arms, "Brother, if you are done with your reunion, can you continue with your work?"

"You have an important meeting in an hour, you should leave now."

...

If it had not been for this capable brother, he would not have been able to pick up his girlfriend.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the pile of files and said to Gu Weiwei,

"I am going, so you should rest now. I will finish my work and come home as soon as possible." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei nodded. "Go ahead."

In order to pick her up from Australia, he had already missed a lot of work.

Fu Hanzheng got changed and left with Fu Shiqin and the pile of files.

Gu Weiwei returned to the room alone, unpacked the luggage she had brought home and sat on the carpet, not feeling sleepy at all.

She was just about to find the script and continue with the storyline, when Yuan Meng called her.

“Hey, what happened to our Master?”

“He ran away when I came back, I can’t tie him down.” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Because she had returned to the Anderson Family alone, there was no way Yuan Shuo would be at ease. He would definitely look for her after he recovered.

Also, Alex Anderson was trying to steal her away. If he did not go now, his wife would be taken away.

“You...” Yuan Meng sighed helplessly and asked, “Did Gu Siting come to you again?”

“Yes, he followed me to the no man’s land in Northern Australia.” Gu Weiwei answered.

Yuan Meng asked worriedly, “Did he do anything to you?”

Gu Weiwei said, “What can he do to me now? He can’t even take care of himself.”

“You are right. Your father is enough to keep him busy.” Yuan Meng gloated.

The Dorrans Family had stopped their collaboration and now the Gu Family was very busy.

Gu Weiwei sighed deeply and said, “Fu Hanzheng asked me yesterday if I knew Gu Weiwei.”

“He suspects you?” Yuan Meng asked in astonishment.

Gu Weiwei said, “I don’t think so, but I don’t think we can hide it for too long.”

Yuan Meng said straightforwardly, “If you can’t keep it from him, just tell him. What would he want to break up with you for?”

“What if... he really wants to?” Gu Weiwei asked.

“So be it, you don’t want a man like him.” Yuan Meng snorted and said, “If you break up with him, you can come to me. I will introduce you to a bunch of Western men...”

“You better keep them for yourself.” Gu Weiwei interrupted her when she noticed that the conversation was going off topic.

“Alright, seriously though,” Yuan Meng became serious and said, “It might be difficult to tell him, but you should tell him yourself. If Gu Siting knows about it first, he will definitely let Fu Hanzheng know about it and you will be put into an even worse situation.”

“I tried, but I just can’t say it.” Gu Weiwei said, feeling as if a huge rock was pressing down on her heart.

“Why not? It is Gu Siting’s family who has a blood feud with the Fu Family and you are not the Gu Family’s biological daughter.” Yuan Meng’s heart softened when she heard her tone. “You were only a year old when you were sent to the Gu Family and that was not something you could have chosen. Fu Hanzheng should understand that.”

Chapter 586: Pregnant

Gu Weiwei stayed silent. It was not her surname but her past with Gu Siting that was the problem.

Fu Hanzheng could not even accept her being close to another man. What was more, she had been with his enemy Gu Siting before.

Fu Hanzheng could accept that her surname was Gu but the rest of the Fu Family would not be able to.

“You are the one who is confused.” Yuan Meng said.

At the beginning, she had not believed that Fu Hanzheng truly liked her, but now she did.

But she still could not fully believe this relationship.

As far as she was concerned, her surname was Gu and that was not a problem for Fu Hanzheng.

What was difficult was that apart from Fu Hanzheng, there was also the Fu Family...

But if this matter was going to be revealed sooner or later, she might as well tell Fu Hanzheng first.

She did not want her to be exposed in a worse way.

“Master knew that you were from the Anderson Family... so how did he accept it?” Gu Weiwei asked.

Now that she asked that, she realised that they seemed to share the same problem.

“Of course he couldn’t accept it, he almost killed me but... he did not kill me either.” Yuan Meng realized that what she had said was a bit frightening and said, “Yuan Bao was already in my belly when he found out about it. What else could he do?”

“...” Gu Weiwei was speechless.

“Why don’t you have a child with Fu Hanzheng first and then tell him about it?” Yuan Meng said and thought for a while. “Then tell him that you are pregnant. If he can’t accept it, you can leave with the child and his wife and children will all be gone. What will happen to him then?”

“Senior Sister, I am not going to learn from you.” Gu Weiwei said straightforwardly.

“It is a bad idea, but it works perfectly well.” Yuan Meng said and lowered her voice. “I realized that Master was suspecting me, so I got pregnant first.”

Gu Weiwei was speechless.

Her poor Master must have truly been viciously tricked by this woman!

“Pregnancy is an additional layer of insurance.” Yuan Meng imparted to her extra wisdom.

“Master knew what you were doing?” Gu Weiwei asked.

“He found out about it but so what if he found out about it? I was already pregnant and was married.” Yuan Meng said shamelessly.

Gu Weiwei was speechless.

“Look at you, you need a child more than I do. Didn’t the Fu Family want you to have a child too?” Yuan Meng said.

When she was pregnant, even if they had something against her, they would have to accept the child.

Gu Weiwei said, "Children are not to be used as bargaining chips."

"Hey, why are you so stubborn? You are trying to stabilize your love." Yuan Meng sighed deeply and said, "You don't believe that Fu Hanzheng's love for you is enough to accept that your surname is Gu, so have a child."

At the end of the day, feelings were invisible, but children were real.

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead, finding it difficult to accept her weird ideas.

"The child will deepen your relationship with Fu Hanzheng, trust me." Yuan Meng said.

Gu Weiwei said, "You are wrong. Children will only ruin our relationship."

Otherwise, why did she think that Yuan Bao was currently being raised in the old mansion instead of here?

Fu Hanzheng was already suffering from child phobia because of Yuan Bao.

Children might deepen the relationships of others, but for Fu Hanzheng... children were demons who would ruin their love life.

Chapter 587: Pregnant 2

"Ruined?" Yuan Meng could not believe it.

Their relationship was amazing.

Gu Weiwei sighed deeply, not feeling any less stressed.

"I have set such a wonderful example for you, why are you still hesitating? Go and do everything you can to get pregnant first." Yuan Meng continued to encourage her to get pregnant and said excitedly, "When Master found out that I am a member of the Anderson Family, he tried to fight me too. I slapped the pregnancy test across his face, and told him — if you have the guts, kill me and the child too."

Although her situation was a bit more complicated and involved so many other members of the Fu Family, a child would definitely not be a bad thing for her.

"..." Gu Weiwei felt her forehead.

You don't need to explain to me how fierce you are.

"Listen to me and get moving, do your best." Yuan Meng encouraged her.

Gu Weiwei did not want to hear her nagging anymore, so she instead said, "The Dorrans Family had two lie detectors delivered to them and they are now investigating the Ling Family. Maybe they will find something."

"I know, but I don't think it will work." Yuan Meng said.

She had been trained with lie detectors before, so she understood the situation too well.

"But it will pick up something." Gu Weiwei said.

She did not expect that the lie detector would be able to find out that Ling Yan was the murderer, but in such a situation, she would inevitably show some unconventional behavior, and as long as Cayman Dorrans's men noticed it...

Then the investigation would continue.

Yuan Meng was just talking with her when she suddenly cursed.

"Damn it, that damned foreigner is here again, I am hanging up now."

Gu Weiwei chuckled. She knew that Alex Anderson was harassing her again.

...

At the Ling Family of A Land.

After several days of adjustments, the lie detector was finally working.

Early in the morning, Watson drove to the Ling Family.

"Mrs. Ling, our machine is ready, please follow us to answer some questions."

"But Yanyan is sick, do we have to go today?" Ji Fang asked.

"What a coincidence!" Watson could not believe it.

If she was not truly sick, she would definitely be sick when they came to find them.

"If you don't believe me, you can go upstairs." Ji Fang said and led him upstairs.

Watson followed Ji Fang upstairs to Ling Yan's room and saw Ling Yan, who had a fever and was being taken care of by the servants.

He made a call to the person in charge of the lie detector test and found out that the results would not be accurate if medicine was being used.

"Even if Miss. Ling can't go, Mrs. Ling and Mr. Ling can go first. You don't have much time."

Ji Fang looked at her daughter in the room and said, "I need to take care of my daughter, so I will ask my husband to go over with you today. When Yanyan recovers, we can go together."

Anyway, her husband knew nothing about it, so they would not find anything out of the ordinary today.

But this means of getting sick could only delay the inevitable for a few days. She could not possibly stay sick forever and not attend the lie detector test.

At that time, even if they did not go, Watson would suspect that they were up to something.

Watson looked at Ling Yan in the room and said, "If she is sick and has taken medicine, it will be useless for her to take the lie detector test."

"Alright, Mr. Ling will go first today. We will come again when Miss. Ling recovers."

There was nothing suspicious about them but they had asked them to do the lie detector test.

Normally, people would talk about this matter and also Weiwei's death.

However, they had not heard a single thing about this from the Ling Family, using their surveillance.

This abnormal behavior made him feel suspicious.

Chapter 588: The Lie Test

A week later, Ling Yan recovered from her fever and contacted Watson, saying that she could do the lie detector test.

After Watson ended the phone call, he asked his men to take them to the lab.

"Who is going first, Mrs. Ling or Miss. Ling?"

"I will go first." Ji Fang put down her bag and volunteered to take the test first.

A staff member opened the door and asked her to sit down. Then he put on the equipment that would monitor her body.

When everything was ready, the staff member retreated.

At the signal from Watson, an Asian psychologist asked the first question.

"Mrs. Ling is a doctor from St. Paul Hospital?"

Ji Fang said, "Yes."

"Gu Weiwei was stabbed and you were her doctor?"

Ji Fang said, "Yes."

"Did you diagnose her brain death?"

Ji Fang said, "I just came to a preliminary conclusion but her brain death was only confirmed after a consultation with the director and another surgeon."

"Then during the months when you were attending to her, did her condition not improve?"

Ji Fang was silent for a moment. "No."

"Mrs. Ling, why are you hesitating?"

"After all, it has been a year. I am thinking about what happened." Ji Fang said calmly.

"Judging from the medical records in the hospital, Gu Weiwei was getting better. So why did you say she was getting worse?"

"This kind of situation happens to patients all the time. A short recovery does not mean a full recovery." Ji Fang said.

The psychologist stayed silent for a while and asked again, "So, in the months when you became her doctor, did you try your best to treat her?"

Ji Fang stayed silent for a moment and asked, "What do you mean? Are you suspecting my professionalism by asking such a question?"

The psychologist shrugged at Watson. He had nothing more to ask.

Watson continued.

"You are Miss Weiwei's doctor, and her heart was given to your daughter. Shouldn't we be suspicious?"

That was a coincidence that had always bothered Cayman.

Although the donation letter was signed by Miss Weiwei herself.

However, when she was hospitalized due to an injury, she was only hospitalized for a few months before being declared brain dead. Then her heart was given to the daughter of the doctor in charge.

What if she did not try her best to save Weiwei during the treatment?

Of course, there was no evidence yet, but it was a reasonable suspicion.

"Of course, you can be suspicious." Ji Fang stopped defending herself.

The more she tried to defend herself, the more she revealed.

"So throughout the whole time of caring for Weiwei, did you ever think that if she died, you could give her heart to your daughter?" asked Watson.

"No, I am a doctor, please don't doubt my professionalism." Ji Fang answered.

Watson looked serious and aggressive.

"But before you became a doctor, you were also a mother. How could you bear to see your own daughter's life on the verge of death and let go of this opportunity to keep her alive?"

"As a mother, I certainly hope that my daughter can have a heart transplant." Ji Fang sighed deeply and then confidently said, "Weiwei already saved Yanyan several times, we wouldn't do anything to harm her."

What had Watson discovered, or was he just trying to sound her out?

Chapter 589: Lie Test 2

Watson looked at Ji Fang for a long time, glanced at the psychologist and said, "Mrs. Ling, we are done."

Ji Fang stood up and said, after the worker untied her hands and feet and removed the equipment on her head, "Mr. Watson, we are just as sad as Cayman Dorrans that Weiwei died, but you can't suspect us as the murderers."

"Why not?" Watson laughed and said, "Before she died, you were the ones who interacted with her the most and you were also the ones who benefited the most from her death."

"Where is the evidence?" Ji Fang asked.

Watson approached her and looked down at Ji Fang.

“If I had evidence, I would not be interrogating you but instead killing your entire family.”

Ji Fang said, “Go ahead, we hope to find the murderer as soon as possible.”

Having said those words, she walked out of the lab.

After she left the room, Ling Yan came in to be interrogated.

Watson glanced at the psychologist and asked him to ask his questions.

The psychologist glanced at the questions he had prepared and turned to Ling Yan, who was ready to answer them.

“Miss. Ling, you and Gu Weiwei were very good friends?”

Ling Yan said, “We were sworn friends.”

“Then do you remember what her favorite food is?”

Ling Yan thought for a while. “She liked western-style dishes.”

The lifestyle in A Land was a bit weird, so she was right.

“What about her favorite color?”

Ling Yan said, “Pink, pastel pink, blue, purple, green and other sweet colors.”

After all, they had known each other for so many years, she easily knew the answers.

But why were they asking such irrelevant questions?

“When she was in a coma, you seemed to visit her often. Did you want her to wake up?”

“Of course I wanted her to wake up. She is my best friend.” Ling Yan replied.

“At that time, did you ever think about transplanting her heart to yourself?”

“No.” Ling Yan answered briefly.

“Not at all?”

“Not at all.” Ling Yan denied.

“What were you thinking when it was announced that her heart was to be transplanted to you?”

Ling Yan said, “I was very sad, so sad that I fell sick. When I woke up, the heart transplant operation was over.”

Of course, she had done this on purpose so that she would not have to worry about anything else.

But now Weiwei had been dead for so long and yet someone was still investigating her death.

Watson raised his hand to tell the psychologist to stop asking her questions and stood in front of her.

He looked intimidating and said, “But I suspect that her brain death at the hospital is not because of the worsening of her injuries but because of you and your mother. Do you think that I am being suspicious?”

“My mother is her attending doctor and I had her heart transplanted into me after she died, that is understandable.” Ling Yan did not defend herself.

Over the past few days, she and her mother had done many mock exercises.

She could not refute the key question.

The more she tried to defend herself, the more guilty she would look.

Anyway, they were just threatening her, so she could deduce that they were only trying to get some information out of her.

Also, she was in a state of low blood sugar and so her pulse and heart rate were not fluctuating too much.

“Alright, you can leave now.” Watson said.

Ling Yan waited for the staff to remove the equipment and walked out of the lab calmly.

Seeing the door close, Watson asked the other people who were responsible for recording the changes.

“What are the results?”

Chapter 590: Problems With the Ling Family

The staff in charge of the lie detector and the psychologist watched the figures of the two people in detail.

The psychologist said, “Their physical statistics have not changed much.”

“Nothing too different?” Watson could not believe it.

The mother-daughter pair looked normal but there were many suspicious points.

There were no problems with the lie detector?

“Yes, after asking all the questions, their physical statistics did not change much and neither did their emotions. They did not show any suspicious behavior.” The psychologist confessed.

“So they are fine?” Watson was a bit annoyed.

So many days had passed and he had gained nothing?

“No, that just means something is wrong.” The staff responsible for the test said.

Watson did not know much about technology, so he was confused.

“Didn’t you say that there were no major changes to their figures?”

“It is suspicious because there are no major changes.” The man said as he brought up Mr. Ling’s lie detector test. “This is Mr. Ling’s data. When we asked him about Gu Weiwei, his emotions did change, although it was not a very strong change.”

Watson looked at them and asked, “So this Mr. Ling is suspicious?”

The psychologist shook his head and explained.

“This is a normal physical reaction from Mr. Ling. When someone related to his family is mentioned, his data changes. This is a normal reaction.”

“But Mrs. Ling and Miss. Ling’s data did not change much when asked about Miss. Gu.”

“They seemed very calm and collected, and their answers and the data look flawless.”

...

Hearing her words, Watson understood.

“Compared to Mr. Ling, Miss. Weiwei had interacted with the mother and daughter the most. A person who was so close to them passed away and her heart was transferred to Ling Yan. But when she is mentioned, they are so calm... as if they were strangers. That doesn’t make sense.”

“Yes, that is what I mean.” The psychologist said.

Watson gritted his teeth. “Something is wrong with these two.”

“Also, when we asked them if they wanted Miss Weiwei to die so that her heart could be transplanted, they firmly denied it.” The psychologist said.

“Normal people because of survival instincts, would have such evil thoughts but they are denying it, just like... they don’t want us to see their real reactions and emotions on this issue.” The person in charge of the lie detector said.

Watson nodded thoughtfully. “A perfect reaction is often not normal.”

Mr. Ling and Gu Weiwei did not have much contact with each other, other than through the mother and daughter of the Ling Family. Whenever she was mentioned, his body reactions and emotions would change.

However, the mother and daughter of the Ling Family gave very simple answers and their expressions were so calm that they did not even frown or smile. That was very strange.

She said that she was a friend who had been through thick and thin with her, but yet she did not show any sadness or grief over her death.

They were trying to conceal their true emotions.

If she was not guilty, why would she hide her real reaction?

“This is just based on their reactions but we can tell that they did not express their true feelings on purpose; it is not directly seen evidence.” The psychologist said.

Watson smiled meaningfully. “You have worked hard, that is enough.”

At least this proved that he was right.
