

MY HIDDEN 621

Chapter 621: Mrs. Fu

On the way home, although they were still holding hands, they did not utter a single word.

Seeing them coming home, Fu Shiqin asked the servants to serve the food, when suddenly his sister-in-law ran upstairs without looking back.

So she looked at her brother.

“A fight?”

Fu Hanzheng’s face sank. “You really want us to fight, don’t you?”

Having said this, he followed her upstairs.

The moment he entered the master bedroom, he saw her rummaging through the wardrobe.

He watched for a while and saw that she was getting more and more anxious.

“What are you looking for?”

“Where is my ring? Where did you put my ring?” Gu Weiwei asked as she searched.

It was all his fault for giving her so many diamonds and jewels, making it so difficult for her to find her engagement ring.

Fu Hanzheng approached her and took out the ring box from the drawer.

Gu Weiwei took it out and was about to put it on, when he took hold of her hand.

“Hang on.”

Gu Weiwei hid the ring behind her back. “You still want to take it away after giving it to me?”

“Who wears a ring on their own?”

Fu Hanzheng said as he reached out for her.

Gu Weiwei stared at him for a few seconds and then gave him the ring.

Fu Hanzheng took it and asked, “Are you ready to be Mrs. Fu?”

“Put it on if you want to wear it, I can do it myself, no more nonsense.” Gu Weiwei urged impatiently.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and put the ring on her left ring finger.

He had thought that she was in a hurry for something, but it turned out that she was looking for this thing.

Gu Weiwei waved her hands in front of his eyes. “Who says that I regret it? You said that if I wear this ring, I will be Mrs. Fu.”

“Yes, Mrs. Fu.” Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

Satisfied, Gu Weiwei went downstairs to eat and was just about to sit down, when the servant brought her some porridge.

“Miss. Mu, here is your porridge.”

Hearing the words, Gu Weiwei said as she reached out to touch the ring.

“Call me Mrs. Fu from now on.”

The servant threw a look at Fu Hanzheng with a smile and answered immediately when he nodded.

“Yes, Madam.”

Fu Shiqin threw a strange look at this woman, who cared so much about this title. “You didn’t care what she called you before, but now you are being serious. What is going on?”

Gu Weiwei squinted at him. “You haven’t called me sister-in-law yet.”

“Ah!” Fu Shiqin, who was eating the ribs, was startled.

When he did not utter a sound, Gu Weiwei looked at him.

Then his brother looked at him too.

He glanced at the two of them and called out in resignation.

“Sister-in-law.”

Satisfied, Gu Weiwei continued to eat, she quickly finished, put down the bowl and was about to go upstairs, when Fu Hanzheng reminded her. “Mrs. Fu, you have not taken your medicine.”

Gu Weiwei sat down obediently and drank the medicine. Then she went back into the bedroom and saw that she had to tidy up the walk-in closet.

Fu Hanzheng answered a call and walked upstairs leisurely. He approached the walk-in closet and took her into his arms.

“Are you angry, Mrs. Fu?”

“When did you hear me saying that I regret marrying you?” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hand with the ring on it and said with a smile, as he looked at the dazzling ring on her slender and white finger, “I am sorry, Mrs. Fu.”

Actually, after thinking about it, he realized that she must have thought that if she confessed, he might not marry her and not want her.

But apart from her, he had never thought of marrying anyone else.

Chapter 622: Bad Brother

After that, Gu Weiwei kept the ring in her bag every day and put it on when she came home.

It was not easy for her to finish the post-production of Sleepless, so that she could then rest for two days.

Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady called and asked them to return to the mansion for dinner after work.

“Didn’t you say that you were too tired from filming the movie and that you are not feeling well? I made some soup, so come home for dinner.”

Gu Weiwei laughed dryly. She had been drinking herbal soups and Chinese medicine at home.

But she could not turn down the request of two elders.

“Then I will go over after work.”

“We did not call Hanzheng, ask him to come home with you.” Mrs. Fu said.

“...” Gu Weiwei frowned.

Shouldn’t she have called her son and asked him, to ask her, to go home with him?

Why did she call her and ask her to go home with her son?

She finished the work and found that it was still early, so she went straight to Fu Hanzheng’s company.

She put on the hat and mask as usual, and then put on her ring.

The moment she came out of the elevator, a staff member saw her and asked her, “Madam, Boss is still in a meeting, should I inform him that you are here?”

Gu Weiwei blinked. “Madam?”

Was Mrs. Fu written on the ring?

The employee smiled and said, “Boss said that if you come here again, we must call you Madam.”

Gu Weiwei chuckled. “No thanks, I will wait in his office.”

Along the way, the employees would call her ‘Madam’, making her very happy.

When she came into his office, she looked so pretty from receiving all the greetings.

Half an hour later, Fu Hanzheng returned and saw her sitting in his office, playing with her ring.

“Why didn’t you inform me?”

“I can surprise you too.” Gu Weiwei got up and gave him a hug. “Aunt asked us to go home for dinner.”

“Okay.”

Without Yuan Bao there, Fu Hanzheng did not resist going back to the old mansion for dinner.

Gu Weiwei did not go home with him and Fu Shiqin, until he finished his work.

When they arrived at the old mansion, Fu Shiyi was already there.

The dishes were already on the table and they were just waiting for them, before they started to eat.

Mrs. Fu gave her a bowl of soup and saw her reaching out for it with the ring on her finger.

“This is... a proposal ring?”

Gu Weiwei smiled. “Yes.”

Although he had given it to her a long time ago, it should be considered a proposal ring.

“When did you propose? Why didn’t you say anything?” Old Lady asked.

Fu Shiqin threw a look at her. “What marriage proposal? Sister-in-law went to get the ring herself.”

Hearing the words, Mrs. Fu glanced at Fu Hanzheng and sighed, “How can you not propose and let her put the ring on herself?”

Fu Hanzheng looked calm and was too lazy to explain.

He had wanted to properly propose to her, but she had urged him to hurry up, so he had put it on her finger instead.

Seeing him remaining silent, Mrs. Fu glared at Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin.

“You two are the same. Your brother doesn’t know how to make a girl happy. Don’t you know how to help him propose to her?”

Startled, Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi seriously admitted their mistake.

“Mom, we were wrong. We failed to teach our brother well.”

In their mother’s eyes, they were finally smarter than their brother.

Chapter 623: Hooligan

However, before they could gloat for even a minute, their brother threw them a cold look.

So they changed their words.

Fu Shiyi said, “Our brother is so smart, he doesn’t need us to teach him anything.”

Fu Shiqin said, “He had proposed to her before, but our sister-in-law said that she would consider it, so she wore the ring afterwards.”

Yes, he had forced her to the Civil Affairs Office and almost forced her to marry him.

Although this marriage was a bit too early and unreasonable, she had asked for it before.

Mrs. Fu looked at Gu Weiwei in disbelief.

“Really?”

“Yes, I did.” Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile.

Although it was unreasonable, she did.

“That is better.” Mrs. Fu let go of Fu Hanzheng after hearing that she did ask him.

Fu Shengying threw a look at Fu Shiyi. "How are you and Dongdong?"

"Great, I just came home from a date." Fu Shiyi said with a smile.

"When are you bringing her home?" Mrs. Fu asked.

Fu Shiyi swallowed the food in his mouth and said.

"What is the point of you getting to know each other? At most, we are in a relationship. I have no intention of getting married to her."

"If you don't plan to get married, why are you meeting her? Why are you in a relationship? Aren't you just being a hooligan?" Fu Shengying said seriously.

Fu Shiqin nodded. "He is always like this."

The dinner quickly turned into a scolding session for Fu Shiyi.

After dinner, Fu Hanzheng went into the study to return a call.

Old Lady took hold of her hand and said, "Weiwei, come take a walk with grandma in the garden."

"Yes."

Gu Weiwei helped her out of the door and they walked slowly in the brightly lit garden.

"I heard that because of Yuan Shuo, you and Hanzheng are investigating the murder of Gu Weiwei from the Gu Family?" Old Lady asked nonchalantly.

Gu Weiwei nodded. "Because they appear very suspicious right now. If we want to get rid of the suspicion, we have to find out the truth."

The Old Lady stayed silent for a while and then stopped and looked at her.

"Weiwei, I know that you want to help your friend, but the Fu Family should not get too involved with the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family."

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and her heart sank.

Old Lady sat down on the nearest bench and asked her to sit down too.

"You youngsters have never experienced the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family. You have no idea how much pain we must have felt when we lost so many family members."

"Grandma Fu..."

"Because of the Gu Family, I lost a few children. It has been so many years and it still feels like it happened yesterday." Old Lady said as she sobbed. "Don't blame grandma for being selfish. We don't want the Fu Family to be deeply involved with the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family."

"As his friend, you can help him or even keep them at the Fu Family, but don't get involved in their affairs." The Old Lady reached out and patted the back of her hand on her knee. "Promise me."

Gu Weiwei nodded silently. But she also knew that she was not going to be able to keep her promise.

She did not want her to be deeply involved with the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family, but she was the one who was deeply involved.

She had grown up in the Gu Family and was the daughter of Cayman Dorrans.

Having said those words, Old Lady saw Fu Hanzheng coming out to look for her. She got up whilst grumbling.

“You can’t even come out for a while. Come on, I will return her back to you.”

Chapter 624: Hand in Hand

Seeing Fu Hanzheng coming out of the house, the Old Lady returned back into the mansion by herself.

Fu Hanzheng sat down on the bench and glanced at her sideways.

“What did grandma say?”

Gu Weiwei smiled and casually said, “She said for us to not get involved with the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family.”

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hands and said with a gentle voice, “Grandma lost too many family members that year and suffered too much because of Fu’s Enterprise. She and father had the chance to bring down the Gu Family but because of Cayman Dorrans, the Gu Family was brought back to life. Grandma and father could not take it lying down and so they won’t understand you.”

Gu Weiwei leaned against his shoulder and said, “But I am related to the Gu Family.”

This was the first time she had talked about her relationship with the Gu Family in front of him.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment. “That is all in the past. Grandma and the rest are not unreasonable people.”

He had not expected that his grandma would mention this matter, when she asked her out for a walk.

What he was afraid of was that she would feel even more stressed.

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei replied.

Fu Hanzheng thought that she had known Gu Weiwei before and that they had a deep relationship.

But with Gu Weiwei’s death, everything was over.

But because she was Gu Weiwei, nothing was over.

Fu Hanzheng looked down at her and suddenly understood why she kept asking for a child.

She must have been worried that Grandma and the rest would get angry when they found out that she was once related to the Gu Family, so she wanted to get pregnant and have a child first.

That way, they wouldn’t blame her too much for the sake of the child.

Gu Weiwei tightened her fingers around the ring and asked suddenly.

“Fu Hanzheng, will we stay together forever?”

“Of course.” Fu Hanzheng answered without hesitation.

After what happened in A Land, this was the only thought in his mind.

As long as she was back, as long as she was by his side, he would not care about anything else.

“Yuan Meng said that if you break up with me, she will find me a bunch of handsome uncles.” Gu Weiwei said.

Fu Hanzheng frowned. “Stop contacting her.”

He had told her to stay away from that terrible friend of hers.

Hearing his tone, Gu Weiwei chuckled.

“Don’t worry, as long as we don’t break up, I won’t accept her offer no matter how handsome the uncle is.”

“Break up? Dream on.” Fu Hanzheng snorted.

They sat in the garden for a while before Fu Shiqin came over and urged them to go inside.

Seeing them holding hands again, he complained.

“Did you put glue on your hands? Where are you going?”

“We can do whatever we want, what are you not satisfied with?” Gu Weiwei snorted.

“I...”

Fu Shiqin was so annoyed that he did not dare to argue with his own brother.

“Oh my, they are just holding hands.” Fu Shiyi said as he took hold of Fu Shiqin. “Come on, Second Brother, let’s hold hands too.”

“Get lost, I don’t want to hold your hand.” Fu Shiqin tried to shake him off.

Fu Shiyi did not want to let go of him. “No, you are just jealous that they are holding hands, so we should hold hands too!”

Then the brothers walked in front of them, holding hands.

Fu Shiqin wanted to kick him, but Fu Shiyi refused to release him. They almost started to fight.

Gu Weiwei, who had been feeling a bit down, was now very amused by the two clowns.

Chapter 625: Announcement

She had thought that she could have a good rest the following day after returning to the old mansion.

But the next day, Jolin called her.

“Weiwei, we have some bad news circulating online.”

Gu Weiwei squinted. She was not fully awake yet.

“It must have been a fierce competition between the movies being released at the same time. They released the movie earlier on purpose, when they knew that we were about to premiere. Anyway, the internet is not very optimistic about your movie.” Jolin said.

And last night, the other movie’s verified account started to release their agenda . They had been so focused on the post-production work that they had not noticed anything online.

In the end, he found that the news had already spread online.

“When have I ever been favourably looked upon by anyone? Everything will be decided after the movie is released.”

But now, the movie was not even on the screen and they were cursing her without even watching it.

“More importantly, the Film Academy also criticized you.” Jolin sighed.

Gu Weiwei sat up. “What are they criticizing me for?”

Jolin said, “You have been on a long leave ever since you entered the school and you haven’t even been to school for a single day. The school says that students should do what they are supposed to do. They are saying that even before you have learnt how to crawl, you want to learn how to run...”

Although he did not think that the Film Academy would be able to teach her anything, given her skills.

However, it was not a good idea to be criticized by the school at this critical time.

Gu Weiwei brushed away her messy hair. “I did not go to school, so they should criticize me.”

“Then what should we do? If we don’t do anything, you will be on the hot search list again.” Jolin said.

“Whatever, just treat it as a pre-production release.”

Gu Weiwei sighed. She had thought that she could spend the day with Fu Hanzheng at the company.

But it seemed that she was not going to be able to.

“Should we talk with the school and ask them to remove the message?” Jolin asked.

“No thanks.” Gu Weiwei said as she got out of bed. “If they already released it, someone will remember it even if it’s removed. Let’s talk about it when I arrive at the company.”

As the Film Academy said, students should do what they were supposed to do.

But she really did not have time to waste on school and the cinemas in the capital could not teach her anything better.

She had once learnt how to make Dream of a Long Life by herself and went to the top cinemas in Europe. She had also asked for advice from several masters.

She had no interest or time to learn the basics of the Film Academy.

Also, she believed that the release of Sleepless was the greatest evidence of her skills.

She hung up and saw Fu Hanzheng coming out of the bathroom, buttoning up his shirt.

“You are not coming to the company with me?”

“Something happened, I need to visit Shiyi Culture.” Gu Weiwei sighed.

“Trouble?” Fu Hanzheng buttoned up his shirt and said, as he held the tie.

Gu Weiwei took the tie and tried to tie it for him, but found that she was not tall enough.

Fu Hanzheng picked her up and placed her on the sofa, so that she could put the tie around his neck.

Gu Weiwei tied his tie and adjusted the collar of his shirt.

“There is just one thing to deal with that is not good for the promotion of the movie, so it should not be a problem.”

Fu Hanzheng put on his suit jacket and said, as he looked at her, “Everyone else looks for their boyfriend’s help, when they are in trouble. If you don’t look for me, as your boyfriend I will feel useless.”

Standing on the sofa, Gu Weiwei was about the same height as him, so she leaned down and kissed his lips.

“Isn’t that the point?”

Chapter 626: Popularity

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and asked, “What point?”

Seeing the well-dressed man in front of her, Gu Weiwei smiled and hugged him.

“Boyfriends are so precious, of course they are meant for kissing, hugging and liking. How can I let you do that sort of other work?”

Hearing her tone, Fu Hanzheng thought that she must have a way to deal with it herself, so he did not ask further.

“So Mrs. Fu, do you need me to pick you up after work?”

“Yes please.” Gu Weiwei nodded.

Fu Hanzheng kissed her lips. “I am leaving now.”

After he left, Gu Weiwei washed herself, got changed and went to Shiyi Culture.

Seeing her coming out of the elevator, Jolin rushed over and gave her the iPad.

“Oh my God, you are almost in the top ten of the hot search list.”

Gu Weiwei took it and started to browse through the mean comments about the movie.

“Do you know who did it?”

The opening ceremony of “Sleepless” did not invite the media and it was not publicized either.

They had not started the promotion yet but the news of their movie had already become so popular online.

It was obviously a movie that was going to be released at the same time and someone was having a fierce competition.

Jolin said, as he followed her, "I am afraid that it is your old friend again. Li Xing'er's "I Met You in My Youth" has started to be promoted too..."

If these two sworn enemies, Ling Yan and Li Xing'er, were releasing their show and movie at the same time as her, it was obvious that they would slander her.

"I Met You in My Youth?" Gu Weiwei asked.

"It is a popular teen school novel that has been released in recent years. The writer asked Li Xing'er to play the female lead role." Jolin explained to her as he walked.

The original novel was very popular and Li Xing'er had made her debut because of the teen movie.

Therefore, she was already very popular when the promotion started.

Gu Weiwei sat down in the meeting room and read the negative comments online.

[Where did she learn the directing course, when she did not even attend a single day of classes at the film school?]

[She wants to become a director after just two movies, does she really think that she is a genius?]

[She has no self-awareness and she can't be the director, just whenever she wants to be!]

[Am I the only one who is curious about how bad this movie is going to be?]

[You are not alone.]

At a closer look, they were all passers-by and fans of some other stars.

They all thought that she had never studied film before and that she was too young and inexperienced, so they thought that the movie she made, "Sleepless", was definitely going to be a terrible one.

She logged out of Weibo and asked Jolin, "Is the trailer finished?"

Jolin said, "It is done. Didn't we plan to release it after the promotion starts?"

Gu Weiwei returned the iPad to him and said with a smile, "They have already made us so popular, of course we should use this opportunity to start the promotion."

Even if they were trying to ruin her popularity, it was just popularity.

"Then should we release the trailer today?" Jolin asked.

It was not a bad idea to spread the rumors of her being in the movie.

"In three hours, release the trailer with my Weibo and the movie's official Weibo account and ask the other actors to repost it." Gu Weiwei said.

Jolin nodded in agreement. "Okay, I will talk to them later."

Three hours later, she would have reached the climax of this wave of negative comments. Then she could use this wave of popularity to promote the movie.

She was indeed better at making use of an opportunity than anyone else.

Chapter 627: Mu Weiwei

Li Xing'er's name was once again on the hot search list because the movie "I Met You in My Youth" was being promoted.

After the promotional event, her agent said, as they got into the nanny van, "It is already in the top five of the hot search list. With the popularity of the original novel and your popularity, this movie will definitely do well."

She did not know what had gotten into her, but when Li Xing'er acted in other movies, she had always failed at the box office.

But as long as it was a campus setting, whether it was a movie or a TV show, the box office and popularity would be good.

The original novel, I Met You in My Youth, was very popular and with her acting, the box office should not be too bad.

"What about Mu Weiwei? Anything going on?" Li Xing'er asked.

After the Eyes of the Eagle, Mu Weiwei had disappeared for a period of time and it was not until recently that she became the director and lead actress of "Sleepless", which was also to be released at the same time as "I Met You in My Youth".

The Eyes of the Eagle had helped her to become an A-lister, but she was just lucky enough to take part in a blockbuster that was directed by a famous director.

She was now the director and yet she had not even been a director for a day, so it was easy to guess what kind of film she would be able to produce.

"I Met You in My Youth" was a best-selling novel and the director was a famous director, who had won several awards. After this movie, she would definitely become an A-lister.

Coincidentally, some of the scenes were filmed at the Film Academy in the capital city. That was when she found out that Mu Weiwei was accepted into the school but had not attended a single class.

After that, when she became familiar with the school head, she posted the message that criticized Mu Weiwei for never attending classes.

Although acting skills were more important for actors, education was also a very important part.

If she did not focus on her studies, it would affect her image.

"No response from Shiyi Culture." The agent said.

Li Xing'er said.

"Keep an eye out for them and deal with them as quickly as possible."

The agent thought for a while and said, "The box office of our movie is definitely going to be very good, maybe we should stop competing with Mu Weiwei and focus on our own promotion."

She had been frightened by Mu Weiwei every time she went against her.

She truly did not want to mess with Mu Weiwei.

"I have failed so many times because of her, I need to find an opportunity to vent my anger." Li Xing'er said fiercely.

"It is because of her that I don't want to mess with her." The agent said.

She had already suffered so many times and yet she still wanted to compete with Mu Weiwei? Why did she feel that she was courting death?

Li Xing'er squinted at her agent. "Are we doing the program with Mu Weiwei next week?"

"Yes, but they are two different programs and the broadcast date is different too." The agent said.

Li Xing'er touched up her makeup and said indifferently, "Get ready for what I told you last time. This time... I will make sure that Mu Weiwei will never be able to make a comeback."

"But she is from Shiyi Culture and she seems to have a very close relationship with Third Master Fu..." The agent reminded her.

Although there might be some bad competition between stars, it would be too much to set someone up.

If they ended up offending the Fu Family, the top tycoon of Hua Land, they would be in trouble too.

Li Xing'er glared at the cowardly agent and coldly said, "She is only signed to Shiyi Culture, not married to Fu Shiyi. What is there to be afraid of?"

Chapter 628: Damned Trailer

"I am just worried that she might have hooked up with that important figure of the Fu Family." The agent revealed her concerns.

"Fu Hanzheng?" Li Xing'er found it funny. "Why would Fu Hanzheng like someone like her?"

"Fu Shiyi used to flirt with pretty girls every time he saw one but he did not do anything to Mu Weiwei, when she signed with his company. Also, there were no rumors about her, and he even invested so much time and money this year, just for her to be the director..." The agent voiced her suspicions.

"How is that possible?" Li Xing'er did not believe her at all. She snorted. "If she had slept with someone like that, she would have told the whole world about it!"

How could someone like that fall for Mu Weiwei?

"True." The agent mumbled.

It was impossible for someone from the Fu Family to fall for someone like Mu Weiwei, who had no family background.

“So what should we do? Don’t make any mistakes.” Li Xing’er said seriously.

“Got it.” The agent answered and then suddenly, the phone received a notification.

She clicked on Weibo and said, “Mu Weiwei and the others... posted the trailer.”

Was she trying to use the negative popularity to promote the movie?

Li Xing’er took her phone and said, “She sure knows how to make use of the situation.”

The agent took back her phone and scrolled through the Weibo accounts of the participants of Sleepless. Almost everyone was reposting the trailer.

Song Yu, the male lead, posted something on Weibo too.

[I am very grateful to Director Xiao Mu for giving me the opportunity to play Lin Mo, and for giving me the best performance since I entered the industry.]

Then Fu Shiyi also made a post.

[Sleepless has given me a qualitative improvement and you will definitely see a new me.]

Qiu Ling, who played the second female lead, also made a post.

[Director Xiao Mu asked me to learn a lot of things and I am probably the luckiest person in twenty years, to star in Sleepless.]

...

At the beginning, it was rumored online that Sleepless would be a terrible movie of the year.

But when the main cast of Sleepless posted on Weibo, they all said that the movie had made them totally different.

This undoubtedly aroused the curiosity of the fans and the public, who all went to watch the trailer.

One and a half minutes into the trailer, the main leads had already shown up, one after another.

Whether it was the scenes, the performance of the actors or the storyline, they were all very eye-catching and aroused the curiosity of the viewers.

[Director, can you make the trailer longer?]

[Our Goddess Yu is so good-looking, she is so good-looking from the bottom of her heart.]

[Oh, is that really Third Master? He is so different that I can’t recognize him!]

[Qiu Ling, who plays Ye, is so smart.]

...

Of course, Mu Weiwei’s post was the most popular one.

As soon as the trailer was released, the fans started to fight back against the haters.

[Those who say that we are lousy, get out of here! Weiwei will never disappoint us!]

[Be it the picture or the performances of the actors in the trailer, they are all masterpieces.]

[If this is a bad movie, I will eat my phone!]

[Weiwei keeps challenging herself and giving us surprises.]

[I said that Weiwei is not going to school, because what else is there to learn?]

[I must have become a fan of a genius.]

Li Xing'er's agent said with a serious face, after she finished browsing through the Weibo posts, "The popularity of Sleepless is rising, and the netizens are obviously looking forward to the release of the movie."

She had intended to ruin Mu Weiwei's reputation, but instead, she had set the stage for her to become the center of attention.

Chapter 629: Wedding Dress

Li Xing'er gritted her teeth angrily. "She failed to attend a single lesson at the Film Academy and yet she's even learnt how to direct. How is that possible?"

"Then... do you still want to do that thing?" The agent asked carefully.

Mu Weiwei had not attended any classes at the Film Academy, but she had participated in two blockbusters with famous directors after she entered the industry. It would not be strange if she was smart enough to learn some directing.

But the trailer she had just seen did not look like something from a rookie, who was directing for the first time.

How did Mu Weiwei do that?

"Of course, we must do it." Li Xing'er looked sinister.

As long as Mu Weiwei was still in the industry, she would not feel well.

"Got it." The agent said.

She could tell that Mu Weiwei's movie would definitely bring her career to a higher level.

If she could not bring her down, Li Xing'er would always be the one under her feet.

...

In just three hours, Mu Weiwei had surpassed Li Xing'er and reached the number one top search.

And all of this was because of the tag that had put her into the top ten of the hot search list in the first place.

At the peak of popularity, they released the trailer and the public went to watch it out of curiosity, which instantly made it become quite popular.

Those responsible for the promotional event also contacted the major video websites and put up the trailer.

Therefore, when Fu Hanzheng came to pick her up in the afternoon, the crisis had turned into a promotion that was beneficial to them.

Seeing her happy expression, Fu Hanzheng asked, "Is the problem solved?"

"Yes." Gu Weiwei checked the time and said in surprise, "Why are you here so early?"

"I need to go to an important place." Fu Hanzheng said.

Having said the words, he drove her away from Shiyi Culture, but not in the direction of Landscape Villa.

"Where are we going?" Gu Weiwei asked curiously.

Fu Hanzheng smiled mysteriously. "You will know when you are there."

Half an hour later, the car stopped at Muse's headquarters in Hua Land.

The main store only dealt with VIP customers. As soon as they parked the car, someone opened the door.

The staff led them in and they went upstairs.

Gu Weiwei had already guessed the purpose of the visit. "The wedding gown is here?"

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and nodded. "Yes, you can try it on first."

However, when they were upstairs, he was invited into the guest room for tea.

"Mr. Fu, we are just trying on the wedding gown today. If you see it in advance, you will not be surprised on your wedding day." The blonde staff in charge of reception suggested in a friendly tone.

Fu Hanzheng was displeased, but he still followed her suggestion and did not follow her into the fitting room.

Gu Weiwei followed the staff to the fitting room and put on the wedding gown that Merlin had asked someone to deliver from France, with their help.

The strapless design revealed her collarbones and shoulders perfectly. It was not too sexy but also not too conservative either.

The white chiffon of the dress was layered and ended in a long train, looking very beautiful.

The staff helped her to put on the wedding gown and put on the diamond crown and veil.

Gu Weiwei looked at herself in the white wedding gown and suddenly realized something.

She had not been able to put on the wedding gown she had designed herself in her past life.

But after becoming Mu Weiwei, she was able to put on such a beautiful wedding gown for Fu Hanzheng.

The staff tidied up the train and sighed, as she looked at the beautiful bride in the mirror.

“If Mr. Fu sees you, he will be amazed.”

Chapter 630: Wedding Dress 2

“Thanks.” Gu Weiwei chuckled.

The wedding gown was very beautiful, but when she thought of how the elders of the Fu Family hated the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family, she wondered if she would have the chance to wear it for the wedding.

“Mrs. Fu, is there anything else you want to change?” The staff member was ready to take down notes.

Gu Weiwei took a closer look and shook her head.

“No, it is perfect, I like it very much.”

How could a perfectionist like Merlin tolerate any flaws in his design?

“Mr. Merlin would be so happy to see you in it because you wear it so beautifully.” The staff said sincerely.

Merlin’s design was beautiful, but it was really designed for a fairy. Few people could look so stunning in it.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “Can you invite Mr. Fu in?”

The staff member thought for a while and suggested with a smile.

“Isn’t it better if he sees you in the wedding gown at your wedding?”

Gu Weiwei said, “I can’t wait, I want him to see it now.”

The staff member laughed and went to the guest room.

But Fu Hanzheng turned her down.

Gu Weiwei was in the wedding gown and it was not convenient for her to go out, so she asked the staff member to take a picture of her and then got changed.

She went into the living room and saw Fu Hanzheng reading a financial newspaper on the sofa. He put down the newspaper when he saw her.

“Satisfied?”

“Why didn’t you come in?” Gu Weiwei asked with a sullen face.

“I want to wait for the wedding, before I see you in your wedding gown.” Fu Hanzheng said.

They had been waiting for so long, and waiting for the next few months would not make any difference.

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei answered, grabbed her bag and urged him. “It is getting late, let’s go home.”

Fu Hanzheng took her hand and asked, as they got into the car, "Will the promotional event end before your birthday?"

Startled, Gu Weiwei nodded.

"Almost."

In the blink of an eye, she was only two months away from her 20th birthday.

And the date she and Fu Hanzheng agreed to get married on, was after her 20th birthday.

Without her noticing, the day was quickly approaching.

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng nodded thoughtfully.

"But after we finish the two programs next week, there is the global premiere at the film festival and we are also going to do some promotional work too. We will not be able to return home for another month or so."

Gu Weiwei thought of the tight schedule and looked sideways at her man.

Some of the awards at the film festival required the movie to premiere at the festival.

Therefore, they had to go to the premiere at the film festival and then return to Hua Land for the public premiere.

"Okay, I will ask Lei Ning to be ready to go with you." Fu Hanzheng said.

Ling Yan, Gu Siting's fiancée, was filming Dream of a Long Life 2 at the same time as them, so she was probably going to attend the film festival too.

Maybe Gu Siting or his men were going to be there too.

Although he knew that Gu Siting did not have the time or the mind to do anything to her, he still needed someone to be with her for safety's sake. Only then could he let her go.

"Don't worry, I will come back with every single hair on my head unharmed." Gu Weiwei promised.

She knew that he was worried that she would run into Gu Siting and Ling Yan again.

If it had been before, she would not have cared about meeting Gu Siting.

But when she thought of what Yuan Meng had told her, she was a bit afraid of meeting Gu Siting again, fearing that he would notice she was Gu Weiwei.
