

MY HIDDEN 651

Chapter 651: Live Face Slapping 3

“Innocent?” Jolin sneered and asked, “If they are innocent, why is your surname Li even when you are born before Mu Weiwei?”

Hearing his words, Li Xing'er calmly said, “My surname is Li, because my real father's surname is also Li, not because Li Jiacheng is my father.”

Luckily, her mother was smart enough to have made arrangements for when she was born.

Li Jiacheng's surname was Li and so was Li Yongmin's.

So no one could blame their father for having an affair.

“Li Yongmin?” Jolin pretended to be surprised and asked, “What evidence do you have to prove that you are Li Yongmin's daughter and not Li Jiacheng's?”

Li Xing'er thought for a while and said to her agent, “Show them.”

The agent took out a picture and gave it to the host.

The host said, “Let's send this picture to the studio so everyone can take a look at it.”

The staff went on stage and delivered the pictures to the studio. Soon, the pictures were shown on the big screen.

It was a family picture with Li Xing'er and her sister Li Xiangxiang, as well as her mother Zhou Meiqin and her father Li Yongmin.

Host: “This picture must have been taken years ago. I think this is enough to prove that you are distorting the truth.”

At the same time, the comments in the livestream chat were cursing Jolin.

[Mu Weiwei and her friends are desperate!]

[You hit her but you won't apologize. Instead, you are slandering her! What a crazy dog!]

[The kind of agent you have, same kind of artist you have.]

And those fans who had been waiting for the truth to be revealed, as well as the Shiyi and Weiwei couple fans, became increasingly worried.

Seeing the comments attacking their idol, they could not defend her.

What was more, they were afraid that if they tried to defend her now, they would attract negative comments and cause conflict.

If the fight could not be perfectly solved, Mu Weiwei's career as a star would be ruined and the new movie would not be released.

Jolin said, as he looked at the family picture on the big screen, "This man is Miss. Li's real father, Li Yongmin?"

Li Xing'er nodded. "Yes, my surname is Li because of him, not because of my stepfather Li Jiacheng."

"Good, very good." Jolin adjusted his glasses and smiled deeply. "Then I heard that your mother Zhou Meiqin used to be a poor student in the rural area, but she went to university because of the Mu Family and also went abroad to study?"

Li Xing'er pursed her lips. She did not want to admit it, but many people already knew about it.

So she had to admit it.

"Yes, I have always been very grateful to the Mu Family. My mother gave up her excellent job abroad and returned to the Mu Family's company to help them."

Hearing her words, the host also thought that Li Xing'er's mother, the Mrs. President of Longsheng Enterprise, was a very loyal person.

Jolin asked curiously, "Miss. Li, how long has it been since you last saw your real father?"

Li Xing'er thought for a while. "It has been almost two years. I heard that he went to the South and I miss him a lot."

Back then, her mother gave him a sum of money and sent him to the South.

Hearing her words, Jolin said to the audience, "Mr. Li Yongmin, did you hear that? Your daughter misses you very much. Come on stage and meet her."

With those words being said, a middle-aged man wearing a hat, stood up and removed his hat.

The camera panned around and saw Li Yongmin, Li Xing'er's father, the same person in the family picture.

Chapter 652: Live Face Slapping 4

Li Yongmin stood up from the audience and walked towards the stage.

Li Xing'er's face changed, feeling that this was not a good sign.

But the program was still in the middle of the live-stream and the audience was watching. She had to get up and excitedly walk towards him.

"Dad."

Since they were young, they knew that this man was not their real father, so they had never called Li Yongmin father.

But in order to cover up that she was not Li Jiacheng's illegitimate daughter, especially after she had just presented the family picture and said that Li Yongmin was her real father, she had to call him dad.

The host threw a look at Li Xing'er and saw the look on her face, thinking that she must have been very excited after not seeing her father for two years.

So she stood up and arranged for him to sit down.

Then she pointed at the picture on the big screen and asked, "Mr. Li, is that you in the picture?"

Li Yongmin looked at the picture and nodded.

"It is me."

Li Xing'er looked at Li Yongmin and excitedly asked, "Dad, when did you come home? Why didn't you tell me?"

Shouldn't he be in the South?

Why was he here? Why was he here?!

"Do I have to tell you?" Li Yongmin asked.

Hearing his words, Li Xing'er instantly said, "Dad, I know that you still blame us and Mom for leaving you, but you are still my father and you always will be."

Jolin sneered. Li Xing'er's reaction was quite fast.

He had asked him to come up to the stage and he had not even said anything, yet she was already affectionately calling him father. Those who did not know better would think that this really was her father.

However, facing such a filial daughter, Li Yongmin only looked embarrassed.

"Miss. Li, that is a very big misunderstanding."

Li Xing'er gritted her teeth. Was this bastard trying to ruin her?

"Dad, how can you say that?"

She said as she avoided the camera and threw a look at Li Yongmin.

Since she was wearing the microphone, she could not discuss anything with Li Yongmin, so she could only shoot him a look, hoping that he would cooperate with her.

Her agent, who had thought that she was going to win, started to feel uneasy when Li Yongmin showed up.

Since they were at the live-streaming site, they could not tell Li Yongmin what to do in front of the audience.

But if this man spouted nonsense, they would be in big trouble.

"Miss. Li, is this really your father?" Jolin sneered.

Li Xing'er looked at Li Yongmin deeply and said as she gestured at him, "Of course, this is my real father. Although we have not met for almost two years, I am sure that I am not mistaken."

Jolin looked at Li Yongmin and asked with a smile, "Mr. Li, is this Miss. Li your real daughter?"

Li Yongmin smiled and said, "Of course not, I have never had a daughter like her."

The host was dumbfounded.

“The person in this picture is me, but that doesn’t mean that I am her real father.” Li Yongmin said.

Seeing the scene, Li Xing’er said to Li Yongmin, with tears in her eyes, “Dad, what is wrong with you? Why are you saying this?”

Wasn’t it just money?

When the show was over, she could pay him whatever he wanted.

But right now was not the time for him to speak nonsense.

Jolin knew that this woman was asking Li Yongmin to confess in her favour, so he snorted.

“Miss. Li, don’t worry, let your father finish his words first, alright?”

Chapter 653: Live Face Slapping 5

Li Yongmin’s words confused the host and the audience.

He was the one in the family picture and yet he claimed that he was not Li Xing’er’s biological father. What was the meaning of this?

The host had a good reaction, so she calmed herself down and asked, “Mr. Li, are you saying that you are not Li Xing’er’s real father?”

“Of course not.” Li Yongmin nodded.

The host thought for a while and asked, “Is it because your ex-wife remarried with someone else, so you don’t want to acknowledge her?”

He was such a waste of a father to be so heartless.

Li Yongmin had accepted Jolin’s offer, so he told them everything he knew.

“No, I never married Zhou Meiqin and this daughter is not mine either. She is the daughter of the one from the Li Family and I am just the fake husband Zhou Meiqin hired to fool the Mu Family...”

“Dad, you got into debt and took his money, didn’t you?” Li Xing’er furiously asked.

The host was totally confused by these two people. One said that he was her real father, but Li Yongmin did not acknowledge her as his daughter, and even said that she was Zhou Meiqin and Li Jiacheng’s daughter.

But Li Xing’er was a few months older than Mu Weiwei. If what he said was true, Zhou Meiqin must have been with him soon after Li Jiacheng got married.

That was... incredible.

“Stop calling me Dad. You have not called me Dad for more than ten years. I am not used to you calling me that.” Li Yongmin awkwardly smiled.

“You...”

Li Xing'er suddenly turned to Jolin and furiously asked, “How much money did you give him to frame my mother and I?”

Jolin countered. “Why don't you tell us how much money your mother gave him to be her fake husband, so that she and Li Jiacheng could remain in contact behind the Mu Family's back and even give birth to you and Li Xiangxiang?”

Li Yongmin said straightforwardly, “At first, she gave me 30,000 yuan a month, but then she made me responsible for two children. I became a fake husband and a fake father, so then she gave me 50,000 yuan a month and said that I could get so much money without doing anything, so I have no reason to turn her down.”

“One year ago, when the eldest daughter of the Mu Family, Mu Yao, passed away in a car accident, Zhou Meiqin gave me a sum of money to get rid of me. Then she married Li Jiacheng.”

“You... you are talking nonsense, you have been bought over by him!” Li Xing'er was so angry that she was shaking.

“Nonsense?” Jolin sneered and furiously said, “Mu Weiwei and her mother passed away in a car accident and straight after the funeral took place, you two moved in with Li Jiacheng, whilst Mu Weiwei was still in the hospital!”

Li Xing'er gritted her teeth. “That is not true, you are just slandering me!”

Jolin adjusted his glasses, stood up and said, “Then, please release the materials we have provided.”

After saying those words, a picture appeared on the big screen.

“This is Mu Weiwei's hospitalization record at the People's Hospital, and this...” Jolin pointed at an entertainment magazine next to them and said, “This is a small magazine that filmed your family moving into the Li Family's old mansion, so we can see what summer you moved in.”

The pictures attached to the article showed Li Xing'er and her mother coming to the Mu Family with a lot of luggage, one after another.

But Li Xing'er had not made her debut yet, so no one paid much attention to this piece of news.

Chapter 654: Live Face Slapping 6

The host looked at the picture on the screen and panicked.

It seemed that what Mu Weiwei's agent said was true.

Jolin pointed at the screen and said, “Your mother Zhou Meiqin went to college with the help of the Mu Family and stayed abroad to study. When she came back, she was so grateful to the son-in-law of the Mu Family... for taking over all the properties of the Mu Family.”

“You took everything of the Mu Family’s and drove her out of the house, leaving her, an 18-year-old girl, abandoned and homeless.”

“So what if she hits you? Shouldn’t you be hit by her?”

...

The continuous powerful accusations and questions made Li Xing’er totally confused, not knowing which question to answer first.

However, the live-stream room and the official Weibo of the program had exploded.

They had thought that Li Xing’er was going to slap Mu Weiwei’s face.

Unexpectedly, it turned out to be Mu Weiwei’s agent who had slapped her face.

[Damn, what a slap on the face!]

[Longsheng Enterprise was founded by Mu Longsheng and now the President is Li Jiacheng and the Deputy President is Zhou Meiqin]

[Oh my God, how wronged Mu Weiwei must have been to get to where she is today!]

[Li Xing’er was so good at talking, why is she so speechless now?]

[I am so angry that I want to smash my phone!]

[That car accident was not an accident but a murder, right?]

...

On Weibo, numerous netizens who were watching the live-stream started to discuss it too. Some of them even started to comb through Li Xing’er and Mu Weiwei’s messages like Sherlock Holmes.

[Thinking of the Long Wind last year, when Li Xing’er’s parents were at the site of the show, Mu Weiwei was there too.]

[Li Xing’er is older than Mu Weiwei, so Zhou Meiqin must have had Li Xing’er before the eldest daughter of the Mu Family got pregnant with Mu Weiwei.]

[Li Jiacheng is the live-in son-in-law of the Mu Family and Zhou Meiqin is a student funded by the Mu Family. They worked together to steal the Mu Family’s properties. I am sure that the car accident was meant to kill everyone.]

[This family is so shameless! Li Xing’er has no right to ask Mu Weiwei to apologize!]

[Zhou Meiqin found Li Yongmin over ten years ago and lied to the Mu Family for more than ten years. This woman is so cunning!]

...

Li Xing’er calmed herself down and checked the evidence on the screen.

“This kind of entertainment magazine is full of false reports! You bribed Li Yongmin just to frame us!”

The host was totally confused by what was going on.

She had no idea how to respond, so it turned into a confrontation between Li Xing'er and Jolin.

"How am I trying to frame you, when you were the one living with the Mu Family, when she was in a coma?"

"Or are you going to blame her for ruining you, when you are the ones who took over the Mu Family's property and made her homeless?"

...

Li Xing'er said, "She ran away from home because she could not accept her father remarrying. We did try to persuade her to come home, but she would rather sleep with a married man than come home..."

Jolin asked in amusement, "Why don't I know who slept with her?"

"President Wang of Tiansheng Enterprise, that is how she got the supporting role in her first movie!" Li Xing'er said anxiously.

"President Wang?" Jolin pointed at the big screen and said, "Are you talking about this President Wang?"

A picture appeared on the big screen. It was a picture of President Wang of Tiansheng Enterprise and Li Xing'er's mother, Zhou Meiqin, lying in bed in a mess.

Chapter 655: A Perfect Turn of Events

Seeing the picture on the big screen, Li Xing'er's mind went blank.

"They are all fake!"

"I have many pictures like this, do you want me to show you one by one?" Jolin sneered.

Li Xing'er could no longer maintain her gentle image. She pointed at Jolin and said, "It is all fake, this is not my mother, the one who was sent there was..."

"Who was sent there?" Jolin asked when she stopped talking. "Mu Weiwei was the one who was sent there years ago, right? Were you trying to send her there?"

Li Xing'er did not know if she should admit it or not, so she did not dare to say anything more.

"You wanted to send Mu Weiwei to President Wang of Tiansheng Enterprise as a toy, but she escaped and your mother accompanied President Wang in order to get the role for you." Jolin said as he pointed at the picture on the big screen.

"No, not at all, you are slandering me, I am going to sue you!" Li Xing'er said furiously with a pale face.

That could not be her mother, that was impossible.

Jolin adjusted his glasses and adjusted his suit.

"Weiwei was doing well in her career and she did not want to talk with you, but you insisted on coming to her."

“We haven’t made any announcements these past few days, not because we are afraid of you, but because we are preparing to sue you and your cruel parents. I believe that the legal letter has already been delivered to your home.”

“Also, we have called the police about the car accident and asked them to do a new investigation. Please cooperate with us.”

“You... you don’t want to apologize after hitting someone, so you are blaming us?”

Li Xing’er was not convinced. She was here to explain about Mu Weiwei hitting her, but why did she end up in such a difficult position?

“Yes, Weiwei did hit you.” Jolin snorted and said, “As for why she hit you, I think it is time for everyone to know the truth.”

Having heard Jolin’s words, Fu Shiyi asked someone to play the recording.

Li Xing’er’s voice arose from the sound system. However, she did not speak in a gentle tone, but an arrogant one.

“Nothing, we are just sisters. You haven’t been home for so long, and Dad and Grandma mentioned you a few days ago.”

“We are sisters, right? Didn’t you say that you are Li Jiacheng’s daughter and we are not sisters?” It was Mu Weiwei’s voice.

“Although your surname is Mu, we both share the Li Family’s blood. I am older than you by a few months, so I am still considered your sister.”

“So you admit that Li Jiacheng cheated with Zhou Meiqin?”

“Why not? I am the real lady of the Li Family.”

“Have you forgotten that Longsheng, is my grandfather Mu Longsheng’s, Longsheng Enterprise. And that your house is the old mansion of the Mu Family? Do you really think that you are the owner?”

“Even if it belongs to the Mu Family, you can’t take it back now. I thought that you would die with your mother in the car accident, but you survived.”

“Did you do that on purpose?”

“I didn’t do it on purpose, I just chose not to ask someone to drive the car that didn’t have the tampered brakes, so your mother ended up dying...”

...

After the recording was played, Jolin looked at Li Xing’er, who was sitting on the sofa, totally speechless.

“Now, I think everyone knows why she hit you... And what you have done to her and the Mu Family. Everything that you have done to Mu Weiwei, will be revealed in court.”

Chapter 656: A Perfect Turn of Events 2

First they brought in Li Yongmin, then revealed Mu Weiwei's hospitalization records and the news of Li Xing'er and her mother moving into the Mu Family.

Then it was Zhou Meiqin and Wang Weidong's intimate bed pictures and then the recording was played.

One piece of evidence after another caught Li Xing'er off guard.

Due to the fight, Li Xing'er pretended to be weak and pitiful in front of the public and also manipulated the public to boycott Mu Weiwei. The incident lasted for four or five days.

However, within two hours, Mu Weiwei's agent had turned the tables around in front of the audience.

Those fans who had been saying that Mu Weiwei should get out of the entertainment industry were speechless, and those who had been supporting Mu Weiwei were finally feeling proud.

Having said everything he wanted to say, Jolin walked off the stage and left with Fu Shiyi.

Dialogue had the highest viewership ever.

No one was asking Mu Weiwei to get out of the entertainment industry or protecting Li Xing'er anymore.

[I apologize to Mu Weiwei.]

[I admit that I have been slapped in the face.]

[Sorry, Mu Weiwei.]

[Protect Mu Weiwei.]

...

Most of the netizens who were following the fight had watched the livestream of Dialogue.

When the livestream finished, those netizens who defended Li Xing'er, were even more furious.

But this time, they were both angry for Mu Weiwei, angry at Li Xing'er and angry for how they were used.

Li Xing'er's mother Zhou Meiqin had been so indebted to the Mu Family, yet she repaid the kindness with ingratitude and tried to murder Mu Weiwei and her mother. She even joined hands with Li Jiacheng to take over the Mu Family's company and family business.

Li Jiacheng even got married without caring about Mu Weiwei, who was still in a coma in the hospital.

Mu Weiwei had lost her family and everything that belonged to her, so she ended up homeless.

Mu Weiwei had tried so hard to make a name for themselves in the film industry, but Li Xing'er had set her up and they, who had no idea what was going on, became Li Xing'er's tool of attack, almost helping Mu Weiwei to quit the entertainment industry.

Therefore, many netizens started to apologize to Mu Weiwei on Weibo.

[Sorry, we trusted Li Xing'er and hurt you.]

[Sorry, we have greatly wronged you these past few days.]

[Sorry that you have to go through so much alone.]

...

Most of them sighed after the show revealed the truth.

[I don't dare to think about how far Mu Weiwei would go, if Li Xing'er succeeded today.]

[Actually, Mu Weiwei has been working hard on making movies ever since she entered the industry, but even if she doesn't do anything, someone will cause trouble.]

[Li Xing'er has to make a fuss about every small wound she has suffered, but Mu Weiwei has suffered so much, yet she did not tell anyone about it. If she had not been forced into a corner this time, she would not have said anything.]

[We must give a like to Mu Weiwei's agent and Third Master for proving Mu Weiwei's innocence.]

...

In the car leaving the TV Station, Jolin and Fu Shiyi were very satisfied, as they read the comments online.

"What do you mean by forced into a corner? These people have terrible ideas." Fu Shiyi mumbled.

She had not been forced into a corner, but had actually seen through Li Xing'er's intention and slapped her hard on purpose, to make the matter worse.

That was so that she could do a national promotional event for herself and her movie, before the movie was released.

Now, these people were feeling sorry for her and apologizing for what they had done.

By that time, these people would automatically go to the cinema to support her movie, and they would contribute to the box office time and time again, out of guilt.

Although they were the ones who had carried out the plan tonight, his sister-in-law had already prepared the pictures, files and recordings.

He finally understood why his brother liked Mu Weiwei.

They were indeed a family, and both of them were scarier than the other.

Chapter 657: Was My Brother Useless?

Jolin said with satisfaction, as he scrolled through the messages on the iPad, "Weiwei is just beating her at her own game and doing some promotion for the movie, at the same time."

Actually, because she saw through Li Xing'er's intentions, nothing would happen if she did not actually do anything.

But she could tell that Li Xing'er was trying very hard to get her to do something, so that she could use the incident to frame her. So she complied, and she did it ruthlessly.

Li Xing'er had then been fussing over the incident for days because she had been hit, but hadn't received an apology.

Now, she was probably the one who was going to be kicked out of the entertainment industry.

"My brother and my sister-in-law are a perfectly matched black-bellied pair." Fu Shiyi snorted.

No wonder she had turned Fu Hanzheng down, when he asked her if she needed his help to get the Mu Family's properties back.

He realised that she had planned to make Li Xing'er her stepping stone, but only at the critical moment.

Now everyone was supporting Mu Weiwei.

One could imagine how popular the premiere of Sleepless would be when they returned tomorrow afternoon.

Sigh, if his sister-in-law was this involved in their Bring Down Fu Hanzheng team, wouldn't their team be able to defeat his brother?

But she refused to help them and turned to their brother instead.

"I thought that Boss would have to deal with such a big problem." Jolin mumbled in amusement.

Unexpectedly, she was already prepared.

"Hehe." Fu Shiyi snorted as he read the online news. "My sister-in-law thinks that my brother is useless, apart from warming her bed."

So many people in Hua Land were trying to get into the Fu Family's good books.

But his sister-in-law was weird. She did not want his brother to interfere with anything and insisted on solving the problem herself.

Hearing the words, Jolin turned to him.

"Do you dare to say that to Boss' face?"

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth. "I don't dare to, why?"

"Thought so." Jolin snorted.

Fu Shiyi put away the phone and said, "Take this opportunity to get back all the properties of the Mu Family for my sister-in-law. It would be best if the entire family is sent to jail."

She had slapped them hard across the face this time. If they did not get rid of them once and for all, they would definitely seek revenge against his sister-in-law.

"Of course I'm going to do that!" Jolin snorted.

He had been waiting for this day, ever since he found out about the grudge between her and Li Xing'er's family.

Therefore, he had tried so hard to get Li Xing'er onto the live-stream even though he could have just announced the evidence online.

He was glad to admit that the disgust he had been suppressing, was finally released today.

Li Xing'er had revealed her true face in front of so many people, who were spread across the entire country. Not only were they going to seek justice for Mu Weiwei, but the fans and the netizens, who had been fooled by Li Xing'er, would also do the same.

Satisfied, Fu Shiyi leaned against his seat and said, "Luckily, I have amazing foresight. Our brother and parents did not invest a single cent into this movie. Thinking about the box office earnings in the future, I feel that I am going to make a fortune."

Jolin squinted at him. "You make it sound as if it is because of you."

If Mu Weiwei had not insisted on using the actresses she had selected, as well as Yan Hong, who had edited the script, and hired Murphy as the consultant, would it have been so successful?

In the end, she even made use of Li Xing'er to make a strong promotion. What input did Fu Shiyi even have?

"Yes, yes, it's all thanks to my sister-in-law." Fu Shiyi nodded.

Chapter 658: Get Out of Entertainment

After the program, Li Xing'er was helped off the stage by her agent and assistant.

Those who had sympathized with her at the beginning, were now angrily watching her leave.

The moment they walked out of the TV Station, and before Li Xing'er and the others could get into the car, the fans who had been waiting at the TV Station, even the audience, surrounded them.

One after another, they threw their signboards and flowers at her car and cursed her.

"Li Xing'er, do you think everyone is stupid?"

"Li Xing'er, get out of the entertainment industry first!"

"Li Xing'er, go to hell!"

At first, everyone was attracted by her pure and gentle image, so when they saw her being bullied, they could not help but want to protect her.

So when they saw Mu Weiwei refusing to apologize to her and saying that she deserved to be hit, they were furious on Li Xing'er's behalf and attacked Mu Weiwei online and boycotted her.

But in the end, it was this two-faced woman who was making use of them. She and her shameless mother had stolen properties tried to kill Mu Weiwei and had killed her mother.

She pretended to be weak and pitiful in front of the fans and netizens, so as to use their sympathy to attack Mu Weiwei.

If Shiyi Culture had not revealed the truth, so that they could see her true colors, they might have become her appointed executioners and attacked Mu Weiwei, forcing her to her death.

It turned out that Mu Weiwei, who had been wronged, had never told anyone that she was the real victim of the matter.

Most of the fans who came to support Li Xing'er today were her old loyal fans, but now they were ashamed because they had once been her fans.

Li Xing'er was injured by a support card flying towards her. She got into the car under the protection of her agent and assistant, and took over the tissue from the assistant.

"Get me a lawyer and the best one, I want to sue Mu Weiwei and Shiyi Culture."

The agent sighed. "Is it really necessary now?"

Two hours ago, she was still the popular girl, but now she had become the public enemy because of the truth.

Those were her loyal fans who had been supporting her ever since she debuted but now they had quit being her fans and attacked her. No one would support her.

As an agent, she could tell that Li Xing'er's career was ruined.

"If you had not been so unprepared, none of this would have happened!" Li Xing'er looked at her agent and fiercely said.

If she was fully prepared, she would understand what the other party had hidden in store for them.

She would not have been slapped across the face by the other party's evidence, over and over again, and she would have been able to refute him.

"I told you that it was risky to do it, but you did not listen to me and tried to suppress Mu Weiwei instead. Are you seriously blaming me right now?" The agent got so annoyed that she laughed.

She used to be famous, and as her agent, she would do whatever she could to support her.

But now she had played herself to death and she was blaming her for not doing a good job?

She had warned her repeatedly not to mess with Mu Weiwei, but she insisted on doing it herself. Now she had been slapped across the face and was blaming her for not doing a good job.

"If I had found out what they were doing, would I have ended up like this?"

Li Xing'er got so annoyed that she lost her temper with the agent.

The agent could not stand it anymore and said to the driver, "Stop the car!"

The driver found a safe place and pulled over.

“Where are you going? What about the press!” Seeing her agent packing up and leaving the car, Li Xing’er quickly reminded her.

She had to think of a way to deal with public relations, especially when the matter was so serious. Where was she going?

“We are already at this stage, do we still need PR?” The agent got out of the car with her things and said to Li Xing’er, “Also, I am not going to wait on you anymore.”

Chapter 659: Freeze

Li Xing’er returned to the company with her assistant and said to the Artist Director, as soon as she entered the meeting room.

“Get me a new agent, I don’t want anyone who is not capable.”

The director and the top managers exchanged a look and said, “What we need to do now, is to not get you a new agent, but instead think about how we are going to compensate the advertiser and the losses of ‘I Met You in My Youth’.”

It was time to get off work but the problems caused by Li Xing’er were not solved yet.

The companies that Li Xing’er was the spokesperson for, all called to say they were removing her commercials and asked them to compensate for the loss.

Once an artist accepted the job, they had an obligation to maintain their image in public.

But Li Xing’er had become very famous for negative reasons online, within the last two or three hours, not to mention her image.

“What do you mean? You want to freeze me out?” Li Xing’er threw a look at them and asked in disbelief.

“We are not trying to freeze you, but you yourself have already ruined your own future.” The director said with a cold face.

Li Xing’er furiously argued back.

“If you had just given me a capable agent, there would not have been such a mistake.”

Seeing that she did not know where she was wrong and was only trying to push the blame onto her agent, the director angrily said, “Did your agent ask you to steal the Mu Family’s properties, or did your agent ask your mother to sleep with someone else? Don’t you know how to behave when you have done something wrong?”

Originally, if she had chosen to walk her own path instead of provoking Mu Weiwei and Shiyi Culture, this would not have happened.

But she seemed to have been possessed and she was trying to compete with Mu Weiwei, so much so that she even went to cause trouble.

But now, when the provocation failed, Mu Weiwei and Shiyi Culture kept slapping their faces.

Now that the program had just ended and the internet was full of complaints about her, there was nothing that she could do to save herself.

Another top consultant of the company did not want to drag on the conversation any longer.

“Miss. Li, due to the negative impact from what you have done, the company has decided to terminate the contract with you.”

This was the decision they had made in the emergency meeting. They were going to terminate the contract before things got worse, so that they would not end up being involved with her.

Shiyi Culture was serious this time. They were in the wrong, so how could they beat them?

Also, there was the Fu’s Enterprise, the richest family in Hua Land.

Li Xing’er looked at the top managers in the meeting room. “What they are saying is all false. You are not doing any PR and now you want to kick me away?”

“The evidence is there one after the other, how can we do any PR? We are just thinking about the bigger picture.” The Artist Director said, as he placed the termination contract and pen in front of her.

Originally, she had been trying to use Mu Weiwei’s fight to get everyone on her side.

But when her agent released the recording, it was seen that Mu Weiwei was forced to do it because Li Xing’er was the one who provoked her.

What was more, Shiyi Culture had brought out the pictures of her mother and the evidence of them illegally taking over the Mu Family’s properties.

They had come to this point and they could not be saved anymore. It was the smartest decision to cut ties with her.

“I am not signing it!” Li Xing’er threw the termination contract.

The Artist Director placed the termination contract in front of her again and warned.

“If you don’t sign it, then we can only meet in court.”

Chapter 660: Trouble in the Li Family

Of course Li Xing’er was not willing to give up her acting career.

Therefore, she did not sign the termination contract.

“Just you wait, you will regret it.”

Having said these words, she left the company with her bag.

In the meeting room, the Artist Director glanced at the other top managers.

“If she asks the Wei Family to help her, is it alright for us to make a scene in court?”

Li Xing’er’s fiancé, Wei Ziting, was a famous Prominent Family in the capital city. If they wanted to terminate the contract with her and fight out a lawsuit, the Wei Family would have to intervene.

“She has made such a mess, it is hard to say if she will still be able to enter the Wei Family.” Someone snorted.

When they had asked her about her grudge with Mu Weiwei, she had said that Mu Weiwei had run away from home because she could not accept her parents remarrying but today, it was revealed that they had actually forced her to be homeless.

Mu Weiwei would become famous for being strong-willed, but Li Xing'er would become the object of disdain.

“Mu Weiwei is definitely going to file a lawsuit and take back the Mu Family's properties. Then the Li Family will have nothing left and the Old Man of the Wei Family will not be very satisfied with this granddaughter-in-law, so how can he allow her to marry in?” Another man said.

But the Artist Director said, “Master Wei has always been concerned about Li Xing'er, so he might continue to protect her.”

“No matter how much the Wei Family protects her, they will not turn against Third Master for her sake.” The man reminded them.

Shiyi Culture was Third Master's company and the movie 'Sleepless' was also produced by their company.

And behind the Third Master was Fu Hanzheng, the eldest son of the Fu Family, whom no one in Hua Land dared to offend.

Wei Ziting must have been crazy to go against Mu Weiwei for Li Xing'er.

Because of what Li Xing'er and the Li Family had done, everyone who had watched the livestream started to support Mu Weiwei.

Anyone who went against her... would be going against all of them.

Li Xing'er received a call from her sister Li Xiangxiang, the moment she left the company.

“Sister, where are you? Why are you not home yet? Dad and Mom are already arguing.”

Li Xing'er sighed helplessly. “Okay, I am on my way.”

Needless to say, it must have been because of the pictures of her mother and Wang Weidong.

She was about to ask her mother what was going on with those pictures too.

It had been Mu Weiwei who had demanded for them to hand over the pictures of her and Wang Weidong, but how did it become the picture of her mother and Wang Weidong?

“Grandma is very angry and wants Dad and Mom to get a divorce. What should we do?” Li Xiangxiang asked her as she cried.

Originally, Grandma had been unhappy because they were not boys, but because her mother had been very helpful to her father at work, even if Grandma was displeased, she did not say anything.

Now that something like this had happened, she felt that her mother had embarrassed the Li Family and was forcing her father and mother to divorce.

“Okay, okay.” Li Xing’er rang off anxiously.

It was not going well at the company and the house was not going to be peaceful either. Couldn’t they just let her have some peace?

The company refused to help her with the PR and her agent was not around, so she tried to get a media team outside to help her.

But no team was willing to accept her job, despite the high price.

She could not believe that her future had ended up being ruined by Mu Weiwei, within two hours.
