

MY HIDDEN 701

Chapter 701: Face Slapping

"Thanks." Gu Weiwei sincerely thanked him.

Bach sized up the young Chinese girl in front of him. "No wonder Murphy is willing to work on your movie. I look forward to seeing your future amazing work.

"Sure." Gu Weiwei said with a smile. She checked the time and said, "I'm sorry, I need to return home, so I can't stay any longer."

Bach smiled and said, "It is okay, I believe that we will meet again at the film festival in New York."

This film would definitely win many awards at several film festivals this year.

"If possible, we will meet again." Gu Weiwei shook hands with him and left with the two trophies to meet Jolin.

When Jolin received the message, he was already waiting at the exit with Lei Ning.

The moment she got into the car, he was so excited that he reached out for a hug. However, Lei Ning glanced at him coldly and he withdrew his hands.

Alright, she was Boss's woman and she should not be touched.

"Weiwei, you did well."

"You have no idea how pale I was when I saw Movie Queen Ling going onto the stage. She must have vomited blood by now."

...

Gu Weiwei lifted the train of her gown into the car and smiled.

"She has embarrassed herself by returning empty-handed."

"It is not just embarrassing, you totally humiliated her!" Jolin excitedly said.

When he saw Ling Yan on the stage, his heart sank, thinking that Ling Yan would win the Best Actress Award.

However, unexpectedly, when Bach announced that the winner was his girl, he screamed in excitement.

Bach had asked Ling Yan to attend the ceremony because he wanted to tell her about the award speech a few years ago, and also because he wanted her, the legendary Movie Queen, to present the award to the new legendary Movie Queen tonight.

But this was a slap across Ling Yan's face.

She, the legendary Movie Queen, made a high-profile comeback but ended up returning empty-handed from the film festival.

She had been so high profile on the red carpet that she had been slapped right across the face.

Gu Weiwei removed her high heels and said, "Along with the awards tonight, we can get someone to release the promotional script and then our box office will rise again."

"I have already asked my men to post it. When we return to the hotel, we will take two pictures of you holding the trophy and upload them." Jolin said.

Ling Yan was still on the top search list, and when they reached the top of the search list, the uproar would be shocking.

It was going to be another round of face slapping.

Gu Weiwei rubbed the trophies in her hands. With these two trophies, the box office of Sleepless would definitely exceed Dream of a Long Life 2.

Ling Yan had returned empty-handed from the film festival and if she exceeded the box office again, she would no longer be a legend.

When the three of them returned to the hotel, Jolin asked the stylist to touch up her makeup and asked her to pose for some pictures with the trophy in the room.

Then she picked out a picture with perfect lighting, composition and smile.

There was also a picture taken by the photographer of the film festival, which was posted on Mu Weiwei's Weibo.

There were two pictures in total. The first showed her receiving the trophy from Ling Yan on stage, and the other showed her holding the two trophies.

[Thanks to the Lugano Film Festival, thanks to Movie Queen @LingYan]

After Jolin posted the post, Fu Shiyi and Song Yu reposted it one after another.

Some of the stars behind the Weibo accounts, who had already seen her at the film festival, also reposted the post and congratulated her.

On the way to the airport, both [Movie Queen Mu Weiwei] and [Ling Yan Lugano Film Festival] had been placed on the top search list.

One returned with a good reputation while the other returned empty-handed. It was a very clear slap across the face.

Chapter 702: The Box Office Record of Dream of a Long Life 2

Gu Weiwei was still on the plane heading back home, when the news of her becoming the Best Newcomer and the new Movie Queen spread like wildfire.

A few hours ago, the internet was buzzing with reports about the legendary Movie Queen Ling Yan attending the Lugano Film Festival. Everyone had thought that she was going to be the Movie Queen this year too.

No one had expected that Mu Weiwei would become the Movie Queen at the award ceremony and that Ling Yan would personally give her the award.

Mu Weiwei's fans were overjoyed and went to the cinema to watch the movie again to express their congratulations.

Ling Yan's fans could not believe that Ling Yan, the legendary Movie Queen of Dream of a Long Life that no one had ever surpassed, had lost to Mu Weiwei at the Lugano Film Festival.

Some extreme fans even complained to the judges of the Lugano Film Festival, seeking justice for their idol.

But soon, the representative of the judging panel of the Lugano Film Festival, Bach, swiftly countered them, when the journalists asked him questions.

"I don't deny that Miss. Ling Yan performed very well in Dream of a Long Life. I also thought that Dream of a Long Life 2 this year would impress me, but I was greatly disappointed. Just because she once won an award for a movie doesn't mean that we have to give her all the prizes."

"Instead of complaining to the judges, why not encourage your idol to bring you better work?"

...

When Bach was young, he had also been the director of numerous legendary works. In recent years he had stopped directing movies and had become the judge for the International Film Festival. He had always been fair and strict.

Instead of receiving their justice for Ling Yan, Ling Yan's fans had ended up humiliating her.

Gu Weiwei finally arrived, after flying for more than ten hours and met up with Fu Shiyi and the other actors, who were still promoting the movie.

The moment she arrived at the hotel room, the light was suddenly turned on.

A group of people were holding a bunch of flowers and cake, waiting to celebrate.

Gu Weiwei burst into laughter at the sight of the colorful room. "You guys are too much!"

"Of course we have to be, you slapped the face of the legendary Movie Queen and brought us two trophies." Fu Shiyi said.

When he saw her receiving the trophy for Best Actress from Ling Yan on the live-stream, he loved the crafty Bach even more.

That thrilling moment was so beautiful.

"Also, the box office of Sleepless has soared to 600 million yuan, breaking the highest box office record of Dream of a Long Life 2." Song Yu said.

Normally, when the movie was in the cinemas the box office would be the highest on the first day, and then it would continue to gradually drop.

Not only did they win two awards but their box office also rose tremendously because of her.

He had acted in many movies and won a few major awards, but none of them had made such a high box office.

Qiu Ling said with a smile, as she held the cake, “How can we not celebrate when there are so many pleasant surprises?”

She had brought them to experience one miracle after another, such as they had never expected, so how could they not celebrate her?

Helpless, Gu Weiwei had no choice but to celebrate with them. They ate supper and cake and drank a small glass of champagne before leaving.

When everyone else had left, Fu Shiyi said to her, with a bag in his hand, “Oh, my brother asked someone to deliver this to you. He said that it is a congratulations for you winning the award.”

He and Fu Shiqin could only receive their brother’s present once, on their birthday, but his brother was so diligent in giving presents to his girlfriend.

When he was on a business trip, he always gave presents to Mu Weiwei and also whenever she did anything worth celebrating.

Chapter 703: Sleepless

In contrast to Gu Weiwei’s joyful celebration, Ling Yan’s crew of Dream of a Long Life 2 were very distressed.

Ling Yan was so annoyed that she did not eat anything when she returned to the hotel, after the ceremony.

When she returned to A Land, she found that the netizens were doubting her acting and that Sleepless had broken the box office record of Dream of a Long Life 2.

She had no idea how she was worse than Mu Weiwei. When she returned to A Land, she asked her agent to arrange a viewing of Sleepless in the middle of the night, so that she could watch it by herself.

She wanted to see what kind of movie Mu Weiwei had made to have so greatly ruined her reputation.

After she finished the promotional work, the agent booked the entire cinema for the second half of the night.

Ling Yan disguised herself and entered the cinema with her agent.

Since she did not want to be recognized, her agent had arranged for her to be the only one.

When she saw the murder scene in the movie, she felt a chill rising from the bottom of her heart.

Although the murder in the movie was a car accident, the organ transplant was done because of brain death.

Was this really just a coincidence?

Heart transplant – a coincidence, murder – a coincidence, and brain death – also a coincidence?

Mu Weiwei, who on earth are you?

It was obvious that the movie was about her and Gu Weiwei, but no one else knew about it apart from her mother and Ji Fang.

Even the Dorrans Family had failed to find anything after months of investigation.

Mu Weiwei... if it was a coincidence, it was too much.

That actress looked exactly the same as when Gu Weiwei died by her hands.

“Ling Yan, what is wrong?” The agent heard her trembling breathing and worriedly asked.

Ling Yan took a long time to calm herself down.

“I am fine, I am fine, let’s go home.”

She said as she stood up, her legs turning weak.

Luckily, her agent caught her in time so she did not fall.

Finally, the agent helped her into the car and gave her a bottle of water.

“I can’t deny that Mu Weiwei directed a good movie, but you don’t have to be so stressed.”

Ling Yan did not take her agent’s words seriously at all. Instead, she kept thinking about the murder scene in the cinema and mumbled, “No, she can’t have known, she can’t know.”

Hearing her words, the agent asked, “What does she know?”

Ling Yan came back to herself, but her hands were still trembling.

The murder scene in the movie was just a small part of the movie, but to her, it was like seeing Gu Weiwei coming back to life.

She felt afraid, even though she knew that her heart had been transplanted into her body and that Gu Weiwei’s body was still lying in the cold coffin, in the basement of the Gu Family’s mansion.

But Mu Weiwei’s movie made her feel that Gu Weiwei was back.

It was not her physically who had returned, but her ghost who was hovering around her and could kill her at any moment.

“Ling Yan, what is wrong? Why do you look so pale?” The agent asked in confusion.

Halfway through the movie, she had wanted to leave, as if she had seen a ghost. She had been in the car for so long and yet... she still seemed to have lost her soul.

Chapter 704: Gu Weiwei Is Still Alive?

“Back... take me back to the hotel.” Ling Yan was still in a daze after she said those words.

The agent did not ask anything more as to why she was in such a state, but worriedly asked, as they arrived outside her hotel room, “You really don’t need to go to the hospital?”

“No need.” Ling Yan entered the room and closed the door.

Then she started to search for things related to ghosts and spirits.

A heart transplant could be a coincidence, and brain death could be a coincidence. But when that woman was killed, she looked exactly the same as when Gu Weiwei died. That was definitely not a coincidence.

Also, she suddenly thought of something.

When Cayman Dorrans came to the Gu Family and tried to kill her to take Gu Weiwei away, Gu Siting strongly objected to him taking Gu Weiwei away.

Gu Siting said that someone told him that after a person died, they would have a soul. If they were in a special place and the Nine-Eyed Pearl was placed on Gu Weiwei, the soul of a dead person could stay in this world.

She had never believed in the supernatural. Even after hearing what Gu Siting said the other day, she still did not believe that Gu Weiwei, who was already dead, would return.

But when she saw the scene in the movie, she was truly frightened.

Could it be that Gu Weiwei’s soul was still alive?

If that was the case, then Mu Weiwei must have something to do with her.

Otherwise there would not have been so many coincidences related to Gu Weiwei.

She had imitated Gu Weiwei’s voice in the recording incident, so she was brought to the Gu Family to play the role of Gu Weiwei and managed to fool Gu Siting. Then she made this movie that showed the truth behind Gu Weiwei’s death...

But when she thought of what happened to Mu Weiwei, she found it suspicious.

If everything was true, then Gu Siting would soon know where Gu Weiwei was.

By that time, she and her mother would not be able to conceal the fact that they had killed Gu Weiwei.

She slumped onto the sofa, feeling a bit confused.

She could not let them know, not Gu Siting, nor Cayman Dorrans.

If they knew that Gu Weiwei did not die from the assassination, but by her hands, they would dig out her heart and kill her.

She was just feeling lost when Ji Fang called her, after seeing all kinds of news reports.

The moment the call went through, she asked, “Yanyan, what is going on? How did you lose to Mu Weiwei?”

Not only did she lose to Mu Weiwei, she even presented the award to her.

“Mom, Gu Weiwei... Gu Weiwei seems to be alive...” Ling Yan said with a trembling voice.

Ji Fang said, "What is wrong with you? Why are you suddenly saying such things? Isn't Gu Weiwei already dead in the cellar of the Gu Family?"

How could she say that a dead woman was back?

"It is not her body but her ghost. Her ghost is coming back to haunt us." Ling Yan said as she looked around, fearing that something paranormal would happen.

"Yanyan, what is wrong with you? Don't scare me!" Ji Fang felt that something was wrong. Her daughter was an atheist and so she would not say such a thing.

Ling Yan said, as her hands shook, "Last time, when Cayman Dorrans almost killed me to take Gu Weiwei away, Gu Siting said that the Nine-Eyed Pearl would keep Mu Weiwei's ghost in this world. That is not a baseless rumor, Gu Weiwei is still alive..."

Although she did not know where she was, she could feel that she was still watching her every move.

Chapter 705: Gu Siting

Ji Fang could not believe her words.

But she could tell that something was wrong with her daughter's tone, so she started to worry.

"Yanyan, she is dead, she will never come back."

Maybe the investigation by the Dorrans Family for the past few months and the filming of her movie, had put her under too much pressure.

That was why she had thought of these supernatural things.

"Mom, it is true, she is still here..." Ling Yan said and turned on all the lights in the room, fearing that there would be something hiding in a dark corner.

Ji Fang got increasingly worried. "Yanyan, what happened?"

She had been fine on the phone two days ago, why did she suddenly say something so weird today?

The scene in the movie, as well as Gu Weiwei's struggling expression when she was injected with the drug for the last time, arose in Ling Yan's mind, making her fall into deep fear.

"Mom, if what Gu Siting said is true, he will soon know where Gu Weiwei is. He will find her and he will know that we killed her..."

At the beginning, she did not care that Gu Siting wanted to hide Gu Weiwei's body in the cellar.

Even though she lived in the Gu Family and knew that her body was in the basement of the Gu Family's mansion, she had never been scared.

But today, she felt a deep fear from the bottom of her soul, as if Mu Weiwei was sending one message after another from Gu Weiwei.

Gu Siting had said that half a year later, the owner of the Nine-Eyed Pearl would tell him where Gu Weiwei's soul was.

It was almost half a year's time.

Before today, even if Cayman Dorrans had been sending men to investigate Gu Weiwei's death, she had not been afraid.

But now, she was truly scared that the Nine-Eyed Pearl would hold Gu Weiwei's soul in this world, so that they could find her.

By that time, no matter how much she and her mother denied it, they would believe everything Gu Weiwei said.

Ji Fang stayed silent for a while and consoled her.

"Don't worry, I will book a flight for you tomorrow, we can talk later."

Her daughter's tone made her hair stand on end.

"Mom, don't hang up, talk with me, I am scared..."

Ling Yan sized up her own room nervously, feeling as if there was something invisible around her.

Apart from her mother, she could not talk about this with anyone else, much less to Gu Siting.

"Okay, I won't hang up. Mom will talk with you." Ji Fang said patiently.

They could not discuss Gu Weiwei with anyone else.

Ling Yan was curled up on the sofa with the phone in her hand. "What are we going to do if Gu Siting knows about it? Mom, what are we going to do?"

If he had known that Gu Weiwei was still alive, he would not have given her the heart.

"There will be a way. When I am with you, we can think of a way together." Ji Fang consoled her confused daughter.

Although what her daughter said was a bit strange, they had to be prepared.

Otherwise if Gu Siting and Cayman Dorrans knew about it, they would not be able to survive.

"Mom, I don't want to die, and I don't want to die by Gu Siting's hands either." Ling Yan said as she burst into tears.

She had been sick for more than twenty years and she had just started a healthy new life. She was not convinced that everything was going to end just like that.

Chapter 706: Waiting for Death

Ling Yan did not dare to fall asleep for the entire night.

The moment she closed her eyes, the memory of Gu Weiwei's death would appear in her mind.

She had to keep talking with her mother Ji Fang, in order to get rid of the fear in her heart.

At dawn, Ji Fang took the earliest flight to the city, where Ling Yan was promoting the movie in A Land. After Ling Yan had finished her work, Ji Fang finally saw her tired and haggard daughter.

The mother and daughter ate together and returned to the hotel room.

“Yanyan, what happened?” Ji Fang anxiously asked the moment she entered the room.

When she was outside, she did not dare to ask because her assistant and agent were around.

Ling Yan turned on her phone and went straight to the movie clip from Sleepless that showed the murder scene.

Ji Fang was confused as she watched the movie. When she saw the scene where the actor was brain dead and the heart was removed, her hand shook and the phone fell onto the carpet.

“This movie...”

Seeing her mother’s reaction, Ling Yan asked, “Mom, you also think that the look in her eyes resembles Gu Weiwei’s expression back then, right? You also think that this scene is too much, right?”

Ji Fang picked up the phone and looked at Mu Weiwei’s face on the screen in disbelief.

“You suspect that Mu Weiwei knows how Gu Weiwei died?”

Mu Weiwei was the one who made the movie, and the plot was a coincidence. But if the expression and gaze in the scene were the same, then it was not a coincidence.

Ling Yan gritted her teeth and said, “She must know, otherwise she would not have imitated Gu Weiwei’s voice so well, otherwise she would not have fooled Gu Siting at the Gu Family...”

“No, no, maybe we are thinking into it too much.” Ji Fang shook her head and denied Ling Yan’s guess. “If she knew about it, why didn’t she tell Gu Siting?”

Ling Yan looked serious and said resolutely, “I don’t know, but she has so many things to do with Gu Weiwei, it can’t be a coincidence.”

“But... even if it is not a coincidence, what can we do even if she knows about it?”

Ji Fang sighed. She was Fu Hanzheng’s girlfriend, the richest man in Hua Land. Even Gu Siting would not dare to touch her, let alone the Ji Family.

Ling Yan paced back and forth in the room. Why did it have to be Mu Weiwei, Fu Hanzheng’s girlfriend?

She had heard from Gu Siting that Mu Weiwei was being followed by Fu Hanzheng’s bodyguards.

Ever since she was caught by Gu Siting the last time, she had been well protected and now no one could touch her.

“Yanyan, if everything is as you have guessed, we will not be able to defend ourselves against Gu Siting and Mu Weiwei’s words.” Ji Fang calmed down and analyzed the situation.

Ling Yan thought for a moment and then quietly mumbled, “I can ignore Mu Weiwei for now, but Gu Siting... Gu Siting doesn’t have much time left, before the man tells him where her soul is.”

If Gu Siting had given him the deadline, he would have met the owner of the Nine-Eyed Pearl as soon as he could, instead of waiting the six months.

Not only Gu Siting, but Cayman Dorrans was also waiting for the man.

“Then... can we find that person first?” Ji Fang asked.

If they couldn't find the owner of the Nine-Eyed Pearl, the mother and daughter would not be able to stop everyone from knowing, unless they saw him before Gu Siting.

“Gu Siting has been sending his men to search for them, but they have not found her. If we go and look for them, we will be discovered by Gu Siting and his men.”

Ling Yan gritted her teeth unwillingly. Was she really going to have to sit back and do nothing?

Chapter 707: Different

At the Gu Family's mansion in A Land.

The Dorrans Family had stopped their collaboration and the Fu's Enterprise kept on pursuing the Gu Family, putting the Gu Family in a very difficult situation.

Gu Siting had been in Europe for more than a month before he managed to return to A Land.

Therefore, he had no time or energy to pay attention to Ling Yan's recent movements.

It was not until dinner time, when he read the news about the Lugano Film Festival, that he found out. 'Mu Weiwei, the rising star of Hua Land, had won the Movie Queen award this year by defeating Ling Yan'.

The picture was of Mu Weiwei receiving the award and Ling Yan presenting the award to her.

In the picture, the girl who had won the trophy smiled brightly.

“Mu Weiwei's new movie is very popular?”

He had been too busy playing cat and mouse chases with Fu Hanzheng, to pay attention to anything else. All he knew was that Mu Weiwei had made a movie at the same time as Ling Yan's Dream of a Long Life 2.

A Land and Hua Land were both in Asia and the entertainment and cultural industries interacted with each other.

The movies that were released in Hua Land would also be released in A Land and vice versa.

Kuroda Shio glanced at the headline on the newspaper and said, “She is indeed very popular. The total box office is almost catching up with Dream of a Long Life 2 and she even won the Best Newcomer Award and Best Actress Award at the Lugano Film Festival. She is very popular these days.”

Since he had to keep an eye out for Ling Yan, he also paid some attention to her competitor.

Gu Siting put down the newspaper and asked, “What is the movie about?”

“Well, I have been too busy with work to pay attention to it.” Kuroda Shio honestly replied.

He was not someone who would have the time to watch a movie. He only knew that the movie was very popular these days, but he did not care to know what it was about

But after seeing that Miss Ling Yan did not receive the award, shouldn't Gu Siting call her to show some concern?

Gu Siting thought for a while and said, "Let's take a look when we have time."

"Yes." Kuroda Shio replied and tried to sound him out. "Miss. Ling Yan's movie failed to win the award, and the audience's reaction was mixed. If the box office is exceeded again, it will be a huge blow to her career. Her agent contacted me and asked if you want to interfere."

Gu Siting stayed silent for a while and suddenly asked, "What do you think Weiwei would do, if she was in this situation?"

Kuroda Shio smiled helplessly. "She will realize what she wants."

Gu Siting smiled and whispered, "She will try her best to actualize it. Even if the results don't come about, she will have no regrets."

Ling Yan was going to make her own movie, so she was prepared for the future.

The entertainment industry is a place where talents are everywhere. The reason why her Dream of a Long Life was so successful, was mostly because of Weiwei's efforts.

Without Weiwei's participation, Dream of a Long Life 2 would not be as moving as its predecessor.

Kuroda Shio smiled. Ling Yan liked to enjoy the fruits and glory of achieving her dream, but Weiwei preferred the process.

Gu Siting put down the knife and fork and wiped his lips with a napkin.

"The person who brought the Nine-Eyed Pearl still hasn't appeared?"

Kuroda Shio shook his head. "No, it is as if he has disappeared from the face of the earth. We did not find him and neither did Cayman Dorrans."

Gu Siting pursed his lips and said nothing. There was not much time left before the appointed time. Would that man really show up and bring him news?

Chapter 708: Weiwei

"Even if Cayman Dorrans finds him first, it was my promise originally with that man."

Based on his understanding of Cayman Dorrans, he was trying to find him before him, so that he would not know anything about Weiwei.

But he was the one who had made the deal with that man, and that man would only go to him.

"The Dorrans Family still suspect that Miss Weiwei's death has something to do with the Gu Family and the Ling Family. Although they are not investigating on the surface, they are still investigating in secret." Kuroda Shio said.

Gu Siting got up and went upstairs. "Let them be."

Maybe when he found her, everything would be revealed.

Kuroda Shio's phone rang. He answered the call and said a few words, before he ran upstairs.

"President Gu, Grandpa is calling."

Gu Siting took the phone, answered briefly and gave him back the phone.

"Although the crisis is over, we should keep an eye out for the follow-up and don't let Fu Hanzheng find any more loopholes."

"Yes." Kuroda Shio replied.

Because of Fu Hanzheng's interference, they lost a very important collaboration project.

It was a good thing that President Gu did not put all his chips onto the table for that project. Instead, he secretly reached out to another project to stabilize the situation.

"Anything else going on at the Fu Family?" Gu Siting replied as he returned to the study.

Kuroda Shio thought for a while and answered, "Nothing suspicious. The Fu Family seems to be preparing for Fu Hanzheng and Mu Weiwei's wedding, but nothing suspicious."

"Marriage?" Gu Siting asked in astonishment.

Kuroda Shio nodded. "Yes, they have been making preparations these past few months. They have also hired Merlin from Muse to design the wedding gown and the wedding date is set to be in two months time."

Unexpectedly, Fu Hanzheng was not only a calculative man but also very devoted to love.

Mu Weiwei was only 20 years old next month and he could not wait to marry her.

Gu Siting smiled bitterly.

"This man is so annoying, I am so jealous."

"Envious?" Kuroda Shio was startled. Envious of an enemy who was fighting him to the death?

"Yes, I envy him." Gu Siting sighed and said, "I envy him for being able to meet someone he loves and grabbing hold of her."

Unlike him, who only realized how important she was after losing her.

Hearing his words, Kuroda Shio let out a sigh of relief.

If he could say that, then he must not be interested in Mu Weiwei any more.

Maybe because he had heard that Mu Weiwei was getting married, he stopped paying so much attention to her.

"Alright, go and do your work." Gu Siting reminded Kuroda Shio who was still in a daze.

He had to deal with the company as soon as possible so that he could find Weiwei at the end of the month.

After all, Cayman Dorrans would not want him to find her and they would have to have a battle of wits.

He did not want Fu Hanzheng to take advantage of that incident and bring the Gu Family into danger.

Kuroda Shio nodded and left to deal with his work.

Gu Siting was alone in the study, reading through a pile of work files, yet he was too distracted to read them.

He had nothing to do with Fu Hanzheng and Mu Weiwei getting married, but when he thought that she was marrying Fu Hanzheng, he suddenly felt a bit displeased.

Maybe he thought that way because she resembled Weiwei.

But soon, he would be able to find Weiwei too.

Chapter 709: Fu Hanzheng's Proposal Plan

At Landscape Villa in Hua Land.

After dinner, Fu Hanzheng made a call to Gu Weiwei, who was busy with the promotional event. After the call, he started to work in the study.

Fu Shiqin threw a look at his brother who had a cold face after hanging up the phone and said sympathetically, "Sister-in-law is so cruel! She left you in the capital for so many days and never came home."

Due to Mu Weiwei's busy promotional activities, they only talked for ten minutes every day.

He looked at his brother pitifully, as if they were in a fake relationship.

"So much nonsense, have you finished your work?"

Fu Shiqin obediently shut up and worked overtime to finish the work his brother had given him. He gave him the files and went downstairs to pour himself a drink to replenish his sugar low.

Then he leisurely returned to the study and waited for his brother's approval.

He accidentally saw a handwritten proposal next to his brother's hand and craned his neck to take a look.

When he read the proposal, he spat out the drink.

"Proposal?"

He had just finished speaking, when his brother glared at him.

So he grabbed a napkin and wiped the drink stains on the table, as he said with a smile, "Proposal?"

Fu Hanzheng looked at the files and ignored him.

Fu Shiqin curiously looked at the proposal written by his brother. There were several detailed proposals on it, even more detailed than when the company was bidding for an international project.

"Our sister-in-law has the ring on her finger, why does she need a proposal?"

"She didn't have one last time." Fu Hanzheng calmly said.

It had been a long time since he gave her the ring, and she was the one who found the ring. He himself had put it on her finger in a hurry.

He did not formally propose to her.

Xu Qian said that women paid great attention to the ceremonies of love.

Although he knew that she would definitely marry him, he still felt that he should give her a formal proposal.

Fu Shiqin laughed so hard that his shoulders shook.

“So you have been busy with this proposal all this time. You can ask me and Third Brother about it, we know better than you do.”

“It is my proposal, what does it have to do with you?” Fu Hanzheng squinted at him.

“We are helping you to come up with a plan.” Fu Shiqin said kindly. He took a look at the proposal and shook his head with a sigh. “Your plan is not that great.”

“That is none of your business.” Fu Hanzheng turned him down. It was more meaningful for him to prepare the proposal himself.

Also, based on his understanding of these two guys, they would not come up with any good ideas.

Fu Shiqin got so into it that he started to think of numerous proposals, but his brother did not want to hear them.

“Didn’t you also want to give our sister-in-law an unforgettable proposal?”

Fu Hanzheng looked calm. “No need, you won’t think of anything good.”

Fu Shiqin pursed his lips. “If you don’t need it, then you don’t need it. You’re looking down on me.”

Fu Hanzheng finished the files, signed them and gave them to him.

“You can leave now.”

“Okay, okay, take your time.” Fu Shiqin took the files, put them into the briefcase and was about to leave.

Seeing him leaving, Fu Hanzheng stopped him and coldly warned him.

“If she finds out about it, you will have to bear the consequences.”

Chapter 710: Fu Hanzheng’s Proposal 2

However, the moment Fu Shiqin left Landscape Villa, he made a call to Fu Shiyi.

“Do you know what our brother is writing?”

Fu Shiyi sounded tired. “A love letter?”

“Of course not.” Fu Shiyi laughed and said, “He is writing a proposal and it is even grander than our project proposals...”

Hearing these words, Fu Shiyi excitedly said, "You should have told me earlier, I am so good at it..."

"What are you good at? You sound as if you are engaged." Fu Shiqin snorted.

Fu Shiyi said, "Do you know how many love scenes I have acted in and how many marriages I have participated in?"

Fu Shiqin said, "Alright, you win."

Fu Shiyi yawned and asked, "What is our brother going to ask for?"

Fu Shiqin thought for a while and said, "Swear that you will not tell our sister-in-law. Our brother says that if she knows about it, we will both pay the price."

"You must pay the price, don't drag me into it." Fu Shiyi instantly understood what his brother meant.

Fu Shiqin's face sank and he lost the mood to talk with him.

"Forget it, we have nothing to talk about."

"Alright, alright, we can share happiness and misfortune together, just tell me." Fu Shiyi asked curiously.

Fu Shiqin did not forget to threaten him before he said, "If you leak the secret, I will expose your dark history to Ding Dongdong and tell her all the girls you have flirted with..."

He knew very well that it was a lie to say that they were going to go through thick and thin together.

When it came to Third Brother, he was always the one who got the best of everything.

"Okay, I swear, I won't tell sister-in-law about the proposal." Fu Shiyi swore straightforwardly.

If he told her, Second Brother would not let him off and his elder brother would not either.

That was why he wasn't going to tell his sister-in-law.

Satisfied, Fu Shiqin told Fu Shiyi what he had read and they started to complain to one another.

His brother had always been smart in business, but when it came to romance, he was not talented enough.

Fu Shiyi was just talking with Fu Shiyi over the phone, when Gu Weiwei came to talk with him about the promotional plan for the next stop, when she heard the word "proposal".

"Who wants to get married?"

Fu Shiyi was startled for a few seconds. "I... I want to get married."

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows in surprise – had he and Ding Dongdong progress so fast?

Didn't they say that they were not in a relationship?

He was going to propose so soon? What was he doing?

“Sister-in-law, what kind of proposal do you think girls want the most?” Fu Shiyi asked on behalf of his brother.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while. “As long as it is the one you like, it doesn’t matter what kind of ceremony it is.”

Most importantly, the person she loved was the one she loved.

“I think there should be something, sister-in-law, can you give me some opinions?” Fu Shiyi tried to get some information out of her.

Gu Weiwei thought for a moment. “There must be fresh flowers, and it is best to propose at night. With beautiful lighting and romantic music, the success rate should be very high.”

Fu Shiyi said, “That is all?”

That was too easy.

“What is important is the person, not these external things. Are you sure that Ding Dongdong is interested in you, and that she is willing to accept a proposal from you?” Gu Weiwei said as she gave him the adjusted promotional plan.

Fu Shiyi ended the call with Fu Shiqin with a smile. That idiot must have heard it and will probably tell his brother about it.

His brother was going to get married after only being in one relationship, so he had better experience the whole thing.